Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 26, 2013, Euronet Worldwide, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a Rights Agreement (the “2013 Rights Plan”) with Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (the “Rights Agent”). The 2013 Rights Plan is intended to replace the Company's existing rights plan, entered into in 2003, and will become effective immediately following the expiration of the existing rights plan at the close of business on April 3, 2013. As part of the adoption of the Rights Plan, the Company's Board of Directors declared a dividend of one right for each share of the Company's common stock held of record as of the close of business on April 3, 2013. The rights will initially trade together with shares of the Company's common stock.

A description of the provisions of the 2013 Rights Plan is contained in Exhibit C to the 2013 Rights Plan, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 4.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

The 2013 Rights Plan is intended to comply with the voting guidelines of ISS Governance Services (“ISS”), including (i) a 20% ownership threshold which must be surpassed before the exercisability of the rights is triggered, (ii) a three year term which will expire at the close of business on April 3, 2016, (iii) a “Qualified Offer” exemption (as defined in the 2013 Rights Plan) which permits a tender or exchange offer to be made directly to the stockholders if the criteria in that exemption are satisfied, and (iv) the right of stockholders owning at least 10% of the outstanding shares to request that a special stockholders meeting be held for the purpose of voting upon a resolution to redeem the rights, which request may be made not earlier than 90 business days after commencement of a Qualified Offer that has not been approved by the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”). The Company plans to seek stockholder ratification of the 2013 Rights Plan at the 2013 Annual Meeting of Stockholders but will reserve the right to maintain the 2013 Rights Plan or adopt a new rights plan if the Board determines, in good faith, that its fiduciary duties require such action. In addition, the 2013 Rights Plan calls for a review to be conducted at least annually by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which is composed solely of independent directors, for the purpose of communicating to the Board its recommendation as to whether the 2013 Rights Plan continues to be in the best interests of the stockholders or should be modified or the rights redeemed.

The Board approved the Company’s entry into the 2013 Rights Plan because the concentration of ownership of its outstanding common stock makes it vulnerable to a hostile takeover that could be coercively structured and either unfairly or inadequately priced. In determining whether to adopt the 2013 Rights Plan, the Board also took into account numerous economic studies which have shown that rights plans do not prevent takeovers, but do result in higher takeover premiums being paid. The Board believes that it can best fulfill its fiduciary duties to the Company and to its stockholders with the additional time, flexibility and negotiating leverage provided by the 2013 Rights Plan which encourages potential acquirors to negotiate with the Board and gives the Board the opportunity to identify and pursue the best strategic alternative available to the Company. The 2013 Rights Plan also helps to ensure equal treatment so that all stockholders will have the opportunity to receive a control premium and can avoid the risk of being relegated to a minority position.

The Board’s ability to implement a rights plan to achieve the foregoing benefits after an actual takeover threat emerges is doubtful due to the Company’s concentrated stock ownership and the inability of the filing requirements under Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvement Act (“HSR”) to provide sufficient advance warning of an impending transfer of control of the Company. In the former regard, a hostile acquiror is permitted to acquire additional shares during the ten day period between the date it first acquires beneficial ownership of more than five percent of the outstanding shares and the due date for filing a Schedule 13D to report such ownership and its control intentions. In the latter regard, an HSR notice is required before consummating the acquisition of stock with a value of more than $70.9 million, but is not triggered by an option or conditional right to purchase, so that control could be locked up, subject to HSR clearance of the closing of the stock transfer, before the Company becomes aware of it.
