ITEM 5. INTERESTS OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws eliminate the personal liability of directors to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty to the extent permitted by British Virgin Islands law. The Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that the Company may indemnify against all expenses, including legal fees and against all judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement and reasonably incurred in connection with legal, administrative or investigative proceedings.

The provisions affecting personal liability do not abrogate a director's fiduciary duty to the Company and its shareholders, but eliminate personal liability for monetary damages for breach of that duty. The provisions do not, however, eliminate or limit the liability of a director for failing to act in good faith, for engaging in intentional misconduct or knowingly violating a law, for authorizing the illegal payment of a dividend or repurchase of stock, for obtaining an improper personal benefit, for breaching a director's duty of loyalty, which is generally described as the duty not to engage in any transaction which involves a conflict between the interest of the Company and those of the director, or for violations of the federal securities laws.

The provisions regarding indemnification provide, in essence, that the Company will indemnify its directors against expenses (including attorneys fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding arising out of the director's status as a director of the Company, including actions brought by or on behalf of the Company (shareholder derivative actions). The provisions require that the directors acted honestly and in good faith. Moreover, they do not provide indemnification for liability arising out of willful misconduct, fraud, or dishonesty, for "short-swing" profits violations under the federal securities laws, for the receipt of illegal remuneration or if the director received a benefit in money, property or services to which the director is not legally entitled. The provisions also do not provide indemnification for any liability to the extent such liability is covered by insurance.

(a) The registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sells are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment shall be treated as a new registration statement of the securities offered, and the offering of the securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To file a post-effective amendment to remove from registration any of the securities that remain unsold at the end of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent,

Edgar Filing: BROADENGATE SYSTEMS INC - Form S-8
