Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On January 27, 2011, the Board of Directors of Pathfinder Bancorp, Inc. (the "Board") voted to amend its By-laws to provide that the Board will consist of ten (10) directors, rather than the current nine (9) directors. Historically, the Board consisted of 10 directors. When a director retired several years ago, the board voted to reduce the size of the Board rather than fill the vacant seat. The Company is presently expanding into the Onondaga County market and believes additional representation on the Board from members familiar with that market may be beneficial to the Company. Accordingly, the Board voted to return to its historical size of 10. The by-law amendment will be effective upon non-objection from the Company's federal regulator, the Office of Thrift Supervision.
