REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Board of Directors and Stockholders
Dividend Capital Trust Inc.
Denver, Colorado

We have audited the accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses of the Eastgate Distribution Center ("Eastgate") for the year ended December 31, 2003. This financial statement is the responsibility of Eastgate's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based upon our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses was prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and for inclusion in the Current Report on Form 8-K of Dividend Capital Trust Inc., as described in Note 1. The presentation is not intended to be a complete presentation of Eastgate's revenues and expenses.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenue and certain expenses of Eastgate Distribution Center for the year ended December 31, 2003, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

Eastgate Distribution Center

Notes to Statement of Revenue and Certain Expenses

Note 1 Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses reflects the operations of the Eastgate Distribution Center ("Eastgate"). Eastgate is located in Lebanon, Tennessee and contains 423,500 rentable square feet on 22.2 acres of land. As of December 31, 2003, Eastgate had an occupancy percentage of 100%.

Eastgate was acquired by Dividend Capital Trust Inc. from an unrelated party on March 19, 2004 for $14,300,000, which was paid with proceeds from a public offering. In addition, Dividend Capital Trust Inc. incurred approximately $496,000 in related acquisition fees and costs. Such costs included an acquisition fee of $429,000 paid to an affiliate.

The accounting records of Eastgate are maintained on the accrual basis. The accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses was prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and excludes certain expenses such as mortgage interest, depreciation and amortization, professional fees and other costs not directly related to future operations of Eastgate.

Eastgate recognizes revenue from tenant leases on the straight-line method over the life of the related lease. The results of operations can be significantly impacted by the rental market of the Lebanon, Tennessee region.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2 Operating Leases

Eastgate's revenue is obtained from tenant rental payments as provided for under non-cancelable operating leases. Eastgate is currently "net" leased to two tenants. "Net" means that the tenants are responsible for repairs, maintenance, property taxes, utilities, insurance and other operating costs while we as landlord, have responsibility for capital repairs or replacement of specific structural components of a property such as the roof of the building, the truck court and parking areas, as well as the interior floor or slab of the building. Eastgate records rental revenue for the full term of the lease on a straight-line basis. In this case, where the minimum rental payments increase over the life of the lease, Eastgate records a receivable due from tenants for the difference between the amount of revenue recorded and the amount of cash received. This accounting treatment resulted in an decrease in rental revenue of $111,000 for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Future minimum lease payments due under these leases, excluding tenant reimbursements of operating expenses, as of December 31, 2003 are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,
2004	$ 1,561,000
2005	1,366,000
	$ 2,927,000

Edgar Filing: DIVIDEND CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form 8-K/A

Tenant reimbursements of operating expenses are included in other revenue in the accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses.

The following table exhibits those tenants who accounted for greater than 10% of the rental revenues for the year ended December 31, 2003, and the corresponding percentage of the future minimum revenues above:

Tenant	Industry	Lease Expiration	Percentage of 2003 Revenues	Percentage of Future Minimum Revenues
A	Computer parts manufacturer Dell supplier	October 14, 2005	48%	51%
B	Computer parts manufacturer Dell supplier	October 14, 2005	52%	49%

Each lease above contains tenant lease renewal options for two periods of five years each under the same terms as the existing leases.

Board of Directors and Stockholders
Dividend Capital Trust Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses of the Newpoint I Distribution Facility ("Newpoint") for the year ended December 31, 2003. This financial statement is the responsibility of Newpoint's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based upon our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses was prepared for the purpose of complying with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and for inclusion in the Current Report on Form 8-K of Dividend Capital Trust Inc., as described in Note 1. The presentation is not intended to be a complete presentation of Newpoint's revenues and expenses.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the revenue and certain expenses of the Newpoint I Distribution Facility for the year ended December 31, 2003, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

Newpoint I Distribution Facility

Notes to Statement of Revenue and Certain Expenses

Note 1 Description of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses reflect the operations of the Newpoint I Distribution Facility ("Newpoint"). Newpoint is located in Lawrenceville, Georgia and contains 414,160 rentable square feet on 33 acres of land. As of December 31, 2003, Newpoint had an occupancy percentage of 100%.

Newpoint was acquired by Dividend Capital Trust Inc. from an unrelated party on March 31, 2004 for $14,630,000, which was paid with proceeds from a public offering. In addition, Dividend Capital Trust Inc. incurred approximately $422,000 in related acquisition fees and costs. Such costs included an acquisition fee of $346,000 paid to an affiliate.

The accounting records of Newpoint are maintained on the accrual basis. The accompanying statement of revenue and certain expenses was prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and exclude certain expenses such as mortgage interest, depreciation and amortization, professional fees and other costs not directly related to future operations of Newpoint.

Newpoint recognizes revenue from tenant leases using the straight-line method over the life of the related lease. The results of operations can be significantly impacted by the rental market of the Lawrenceville, Georgia region.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2 Operating Leases

Newpoint's revenue is obtained from tenant rental payments as provided for under non-cancelable operating leases. Newpoint is currently "net" leased to two tenants. "Net" means that the tenants are responsible for repairs, maintenance, property taxes, utilities, insurance and other operating costs while the landlord has responsibility for capital repairs or replacement of specific structural components of a property such as the roof of the building, the truck court and parking areas, as well as the interior floor or slab of the building. Newpoint records rental revenue for the full term of the lease on a straight-line basis. In this case, where the minimum rental payments increase over the life of the lease, Newpoint records a receivable due from tenants for the difference between the amount of revenue recorded and the amount of cash received. This accounting treatment resulted in an increase in rental revenue of $144,532 for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Edgar Filing: DIVIDEND CAPITAL TRUST INC - Form 8-K/A

Future minimum lease payments due under these leases, excluding tenant reimbursements of operating expenses, as of December 31, 2003 are as follows:

Year Ending December 31,
2004	$ 516,660
2005	1,222,144
2006	1,228,871
2007	1,228,871
2008	1,228,871
Thereafter	100,264
	$ 5,525,681

Tenant reimbursements of operating expenses are included in other revenue on the accompanying statements of revenue and certain expenses.

The following table exhibits those tenants who counted for greater than 10% of the rental revenues for the year ended December 31, 2003, and the corresponding percentage of the future minimum revenues above:

Tenant	Industry	Lease Expiration	Percentage of 2003 Revenues	Percentage of Future Minimum Revenues
A	Imaging technology	See Note 3	57%	0%
B	Golf course equipment and maintenance	February 28, 2009	43%	55%
C	Door manufacturing	December 31, 2008	0%	45%

Note 3 Subsequent Events

One of the tenants ("A" above) entered into an agreement with the Landlord to terminate their lease effective January 1, 2004. In consideration of Landlord's agreement to terminate the lease, the Tenant agreed to pay a termination fee of $850,000, which will be accounted for in 2004.

Included in the minimum lease payments due under existing leases are rents from a new tenant ("C" above), whose lease term is January 1, 2004 to December 31, 2008.
