Please Act Today

Dear Shareholder:

On April 22, 2004, Central Pacific Financial Corp. and CB Bancshares, Inc. agreed to a transaction in which Central Pacific would acquire all of the outstanding shares of CB Bancshares common stock. We are writing to recommend that you vote to approve the merger.

The directors of both companies support this merger. The leaders of these two, special Hawaii banks have met to work out this agreement in a spirit of cooperation, looking to the future of Hawaii.

Combining these two banks with shared Hawaii values will be good for Hawaii: good because we can do more for our communities and more for our customers. We can open branches in underserved communities and better serve the small businesses that fuel the Hawaii economy. Creating this stronger, locally based, locally managed bank makes good financial sense now and for the future.

We believe this merger will create tremendous shareholder value: we expect the combination will be significantly accretive to earnings in the first full year of continued operations, based on the companies' projected earnings per share and expected cost savings. We believe the merger will help us better compete and grow in the Hawaii market place AND do so more efficiently. By 2006, we expect the combined operations will save more than $19 million a year. You will own a larger, more visible, more liquid stock that reflects the proud history and exciting future of two fine Hawaii-focused companies.

We are excited about completing this merger so we can begin building a new bank that is fiercely loyal to Hawaii. To do so, we need the approval of Central Pacific shareholders like you at a special meeting to be held on September 13, 2004, the approval of CB Bancshares' shareholders at its meeting, and some final regulatory approvals. We expect the transaction to close in the third quarter of 2004.

The questions and answers in this pamphlet will tell you more about this important merger. This pamphlet is not intended to be a full explanation of the merger proposal and we urge you to carefully read the enclosed proxy statement-prospectus that describes our plan in more detail.

Once you've reviewed these materials, we urge you to vote by signing, dating and mailing your enclosed proxy using the postage-paid envelope we've provided. Internet and telephone voting are also available. Please follow the simple instructions on your proxy card.

Every shareholder's vote is important regardless of the number of shares you own, so please vote your shares at your first convenience.

Your board of directors,

CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP.

Questions and Answers for Shareholders

Q:
What am I being asked to vote on?

A:
Shareholders of Central Pacific will vote on a proposal to approve the merger agreement by and between Central Pacific and CB Bancshares. Central Pacific shareholders will also vote on a proposal to amend Central Pacific's Articles of Incorporation to increase the number of shares of common stock available for issuance, a proposal to adopt the Central Pacific Financial Corp. 2004 Stock Compensation Plan and a proposal to approve the Central Pacific Financial Corp. 2004 Annual Executive Incentive Plan. Shareholders of CB Bancshares will vote separately to approve the merger agreement.

Q:
What does Central Pacific's Board of Directors recommend?

A:
After careful consideration, Central Pacific's Board of Directors recommends that Central Pacific shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of the merger agreement and the other proposals for shareholder consideration.

Q:
Why is Central Pacific proposing the merger?

A:
Central Pacific believes that the proposed merger presents a unique opportunity to create a stronger, more versatile local bank that is fiercely loyal to Hawaii. Compelling opportunities exist to better serve Central Pacific's community, customers, employees and to grow value for our shareholders. Specifically, Central Pacific believes that the merger will result in:

an enhanced range of products and services, including expanded banking services and trust and wealth management services;

a more diversified loan portfolio, combining Central Pacific's strength in commercial real estate loans and CB Bancshares' volume in residential mortgages;

an expanded branch network and increased number of ATMs available to customers;

an increased financing capability to serve both existing and new commercial borrowers;

the delivery of banking services to underserved markets in Hawaii; and a bank that can do more to serve our community and charitable needs.

Q:
What are the specific benefits for CPF Shareholders?

A:
Your Board of Directors and management believe that the proposed merger will create tremendous value for CPF shareholders. Specifically, Central Pacific believes that the merger will result in:

Faster growth from using the combined bank's increased lending capacity and product line to attract more business from existing customers;

Increased market share by winning the business of new, larger customers that both banks were too small to attract on their own before the merger;

Cost savings and improved efficiency from streamlining the bank's systems and eliminating overlap. As we've said, closing overlapping branches will allow us to open new branches in underserved communities;

Edgar Filing: CENTRAL PACIFIC FINANCIAL CORP - Form DEFA14A

Increased profitability, adding to your company's bottom line the very first year and saving more than $19 million per year from lower costs by 2006; and Heightened visibility, trading liquidity and market capitalization for shareholders.

Q:

What do I need to do now?

A:

First carefully read your proxy statement-prospectus entirely. Then, promptly vote your shares by one of the following methods:

Marking, signing, dating and returning your proxy card in the enclosed prepaid envelope, or

Authorizing the individuals named on your proxy card to vote your shares by calling the toll-free number or by using the Internet as described in the instructions included with your proxy card or voting instruction card, or

Attending the special meeting and submitting a properly executed proxy or ballot. If a broker holds your shares in "street name," you will need to get a proxy from your broker to vote your shares in person.

Q:

Why is my vote important?

A:

Hawaii law requires that the merger agreement between Central Pacific and CB Bancshares be approved by the holders of three-fourths of all the issued and outstanding shares having voting power. Approval of the merger agreement by shareholders of Central Pacific and CB Bancshares is necessary to complete the merger.

Q:

What happens if I do not return a proxy card or otherwise vote by proxy?

A:

If you fail to return your proxy card or cast your vote by proxy by using the telephone or the Internet and you do not vote in person at the special meeting, it will have the same effect as voting against the merger. We urge you to promptly return your proxy.

Q:

If my shares are held in "street name" by my broker, banker or nominee will my broker vote my shares for me?

A:

No. If you do not provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your shares that are held in street name, your broker will not be permitted to vote them. Therefore, you should be sure to provide your broker with instructions on how to vote these shares. If you do not give voting instructions to your broker, you will, in effect, be voting against approval of our merger agreement, and against the proposal to amend the Central Pacific articles of incorporation as well.

Q:

Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting of shareholders?

A:

Holders of record of Central Pacific common stock as of the close of business on July 19, 2004 are entitled to vote on the merger agreement.

Q:
