ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT.

As part of its overall compensation program, Boston Scientific Corporation (the "Company") provides an annual cash incentive opportunity for salaried personnel, including executive officers, under its Performance Incentive Plan. Cash incentives are generally based upon the level of achievement of quarterly Company, divisional and individual objectives. On June 30, 2006, the Executive Compensation and Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Compensation Committee") amended the Company's 2006 Performance Incentive Plan with respect to how performance is measured. The 2006 Performance Incentive Plan, effective July 1, 2006, continues to measure corporate performance on a quarterly basis against sales and profitability goals through a matrix of revenue and net income objectives and now also measures performance against quality metrics. Individual achievement for an executive officer is measured by the performance of the strategic functions for which each executive officer is responsible.

A copy of the Company's 2006 Performance Incentive Plan dated July 1, 2006 is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.
