PROXY STATEMENT

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING AND VOTING

Why Did I Receive This Proxy Statement?

We sent you this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card because the Company's Board of Directors is soliciting your proxy to be used at the annual meeting of stockholders on May 26, 2005, at 11:00 a.m., local time, at the Hilton Glendale, 100 West Glenoaks Boulevard, Glendale, California 91202, or at any adjournment or postponement of the meeting. This proxy statement summarizes the information you need to know to vote on an informed basis. We are first mailing this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card to stockholders on or about April 8, 2005.

Who Can Vote?

You are entitled to vote if you owned the Company's common stock on the record date, which is the close of business on March 28, 2005. Each share of the Company's common stock that you own entitles you to one vote on all matters to be voted upon at the meeting.

How Many Shares Of Voting Stock Are Outstanding?

On the record date, there were 385,369,441 shares of the Company's common stock outstanding. Common stock is our only class of voting stock.

What Am I Voting On?

Proposal 1: The election of five nominees to serve on our Board of Directors:

- Stephen F. Bollenbach
- Barbara Bell Coleman
- Benjamin V. Lambert
- John L. Notter
- Peter V. Ueberroth

Proposal 2: The ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for 2005.

Proposal 3: A stockholder proposal concerning stockholder approval of severance agreements.

Proposal 4: A stockholder proposal concerning voting standards for the election of directors.

How Does The Board Of Directors Recommend I Vote On The Proposals?

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR each of the Board's nominees for director; FOR ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2005; and AGAINST both stockholder proposals.

How Do I Vote?

To vote by proxy you should either:

- Complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the prepaid envelope provided;
- Call the toll-free number set forth in the proxy card and follow the telephonic procedures for delivering your proxy; or
- Visit the website set forth in the proxy card and follow the procedures described on the website for delivering your proxy via the internet.

To vote in person, you may attend the meeting and cast your vote in person.

The telephonic and internet voting procedures are designed to authenticate votes cast by use of a personal identification number. The procedures, which the Company believes comply with Delaware law, allow stockholders to appoint a proxy to vote their shares and to confirm that their instructions have been properly recorded.

May I Revoke My Proxy?

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the annual meeting of stockholders in any of the following ways:

- You may submit another proxy card with a later date or another telephonic or internet proxy at a later date;
- You may notify the Secretary of the Company in writing at the Company's world headquarters located at 9336 Civic Center Drive, Beverly Hills, California 90210, that you have revoked your proxy; or
- You may attend the meeting, inform the Secretary in writing prior to the voting that you wish to vote your shares in person, and cast your vote in person.

If I Plan To Attend The Meeting, Should I Still Vote By Proxy?

Whether you plan to attend the meeting or not, we urge you to vote by proxy. Returning the proxy card or delivering your proxy through the telephonic or internet voting procedures will not affect your right to attend the meeting, and your proxy will not be used if you are personally present at the meeting and inform the Secretary in writing prior to the voting that you wish to vote your shares in person.

How Will My Proxy Get Voted?

If you properly complete, sign and date your proxy card and send it to us or properly deliver your proxy by telephone or the internet, your proxy holder (one of the individuals named on your proxy card) will vote your shares as you have directed. Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"), if your broker is a member of the exchange and holds your shares in its name, the broker may vote your shares on Proposals 1 and 2 if it does not receive instructions from you; however, your broker may not vote your shares on Proposals 3 and 4 if it does not receive instructions from you. If you sign the proxy card but do not make specific choices, the proxy holder will vote your shares as recommended by the Board of Directors as follows:

- FOR the election of all five nominees for director;
- FOR ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2005; and

- AGAINST both stockholder proposals.

What Constitutes A Quorum?

A quorum is the presence at the meeting of a number of shares, which are either present or represented by proxy, constituting a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting. There must be a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting. If you submit a properly executed proxy card or a telephonic or internet proxy, or you are present at the meeting in person, even if you abstain from voting, your shares will be considered part of the quorum. Broker non-votes (shares held by a broker or nominee that are represented at the meeting, but with respect to which the broker or nominee is not empowered to vote on a proposal) are included in determining the presence of a quorum.

What Vote Is Required To Approve Proposals?

Directors are elected by a plurality of the shares cast at the meeting. If you do not vote for a particular nominee, or you indicate withhold authority to vote for a particular nominee on your proxy, your vote will not count either for or against the nominee. A broker non-vote will also have no effect on the outcome.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereon is required to ratify the appointment of the independent registered public accounting firm, approve the stockholder proposals and for any other action that may properly come before the meeting. Abstentions will have the same effect as votes against these proposals and broker non-votes will not be counted in determining whether the proposals have been approved.

How Will Voting On Any Other Business Be Conducted?

Although we do not know of any business to be considered at the meeting other than the proposals described in this proxy statement, if any other business is properly presented at the meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, your delivered proxy gives authority to the proxy holders to vote on these matters in their discretion.

Based solely on the Company's review of the reports filed with the SEC by such reporting persons and written representations from such reporting persons, the Company believes that all of its reporting officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners filed these reports on time in 2004.

PROPOSAL 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Nomination Process

The Company's By-laws provide that the number of directors shall be not less than ten nor more than 20, with the exact number to be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. The Board has fixed the number of directors at 13. The Board is divided into three classes of directors comprised of five, four and four members, respectively. One class is elected at each annual meeting to serve a term of three years.

At the 2005 annual meeting, the terms of five directors are expiring. Those directors nominated for election at the meeting will hold office for a three-year term expiring in 2008. Other directors are not up for election this year and will continue in office for the remainder of their terms as set forth in the table below. The Board takes the views and wishes of the Company's stockholders seriously and has considered the approval by stockholders at our 2004 annual meeting of a proposal recommending an increase in the proportion of independent directors. Accordingly, the Board has proposed a new independent director for election, Barbara Bell Coleman, in the place of an inside director whose term is expiring at the 2005 annual meeting. The Board will continue to consider well-qualified candidates in an effort to increase the proportion of independent directors as part of its commitment to good corporate governance practices.

Nominations for directors are made by the Board of Directors, based on recommendations made by the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, not less than 30 days prior to the date of the meeting at which directors are scheduled to be elected. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will consider stockholder recommendations for candidates for the Board of Directors of the Company. All recommendations are to be directed to the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee at the Company's world headquarters located at 9336 Civic Center Drive, Beverly Hills, California 90210, attention: Corporate Secretary. Recommendations for consideration at the 2006 annual meeting of stockholders must be received in writing not later than December 9, 2005, which is also the deadline for submitting stockholder proposals. See 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders below. The recommendation should contain relevant information about each proposed nominee, including age, business and residence addresses, principal occupation, the number of shares of common stock beneficially owned and such other information as would be required to be included in a proxy statement soliciting proxies for the election of such proposed nominee.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has established standards for the overall composition of the Board and certain director qualification criteria to use as a guideline in considering nominations to the Company's Board of Directors. The criteria include: character, experience, reputation, knowledge, commitment and ability to contribute to Board balance and diversity. The criteria are not exhaustive and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and the Board of Directors may consider other qualifications and attributes which they believe are appropriate in evaluating the ability of an individual to serve as a member of the Board of Directors. For additional detail regarding the criteria used by the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee in selecting new nominees for the Board, see the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines which are available on the Company's internet website at www.hiltonworldwide.com (click on Investor Relations, then Corporate Governance).

Prior to each annual meeting of stockholders at which directors are to be elected, and whenever there is otherwise a vacancy on the Board of Directors, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will consider incumbent Board members and other well-qualified individuals as potential director nominees. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will review each potential candidate's qualifications in light of the Company's standards for the overall composition of the Board and the director qualification criteria described above. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will select the candidate or candidates it believes are the most qualified to recommend to the Board for selection as a director nominee. Recommendations received from stockholders will be evaluated in the same manner as other candidates considered by the Committee.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee uses a variety of methods for identifying nominees for director. Candidates may come to the attention of the Committee through current Board members, stockholders or other persons. These candidates are evaluated at meetings of the Committee, and may be considered during the year. Historically, the Committee has not relied on third party search firms to identify Board candidates. The Committee may in the future choose to do so in those situations where particular qualifications are desired or where existing contacts are not sufficient to identify an appropriate candidate. Ms. Coleman was recommended for nomination as a director by a non-management director and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Committee also considered other potential nominees for director recommended by non-management directors and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Committee did not engage a third party search firm in this process.

In the event that a designated nominee is unable or unwilling to stand for election at the meeting, proxy holders will vote for another nominee proposed by the Board or the Board may reduce the number of directors to be elected at the meeting.

The Board of Directors has nominated, and it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote for the election of, the five nominees named below. Each of the five nominees has consented to serve as a director if elected. Each of the nominees has previously been elected by the Company's stockholders, except for Ms. Coleman.

Nominees and Continuing Directors

The table below sets forth information with respect to the persons nominated for election to the Board and the continuing directors. Unless otherwise indicated in the table, each such person has engaged in his or her principal occupation since at least January 2000. The principal occupations of nominees and continuing directors include employment with the Company or its subsidiaries and affiliates only as indicated in the following table. None of the nominees or continuing directors are related to each other or to any of the Company's executive officers.

- developing and implementing policies and programs oriented specifically toward assuring equality of opportunity in all facets of the Company's business;

2004 Meetings

The Company's Board of Directors and Committees thereof had the following number of meetings during 2004:

- Board of Directors (6);
- Audit Committee (4);
- Compensation Committee (8);
- Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee (5); and
- Diversity Committee (5).

In addition to the meetings of the Audit Committee referenced above, the Audit Committee has delegated certain responsibilities to the Committee Chair who met with management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and internal auditors periodically during 2004.

During 2004, each director attended 75% or more of the aggregate number of meetings of the Board and the Committees on which he or she served, except for Messrs. Michels and Myers who attended 67% and 60% of such meetings, respectively. It is the Company's policy to encourage attendance at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders by all of its directors who are able to attend. Each of the Company's directors attended the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders, except for Mr. Johnson.

Board Compensation

Effective as of January 1, 2005, each non-employee director of the Company will be paid an annual board retainer fee of $50,000, except for Mr. Michels who does not receive any director fees in accordance with the alliance agreements between the Company and Hilton Group plc. See footnote 1 under

Nominees and Continuing Directors above. In addition, each such non-employee director will receive an annual committee retainer fee of $8,000 for membership on each Committee of the Board on which he or she serves and the Chair of each Committee will receive an annual chair retainer fee of $5,000, except that the Chair of the Audit Committee will receive an annual chair retainer fee of $17,000 rather than $5,000. Directors receive no additional fees for attending meetings of the Board or its Committees. The Company's directors also have access to charter aircraft for travel to and from Board and Committee meetings and are entitled, with certain exceptions, to complimentary rooms and food and beverage when staying at Company owned, managed and franchised properties for personal purposes.

Barron Hilton, the Company's Co-Chairman of the Board, received a salary of $212,500 in 2004, as well as office space and secretarial support. Effective June 1, 2004, Mr. Hilton's annual salary was reduced from $300,000 to $150,000 to reflect his change in duties from Chairman to Co-Chairman of the Board of the Company. Mr. Hilton does not receive a bonus and has not been granted any stock options or stock units under the Company's equity compensation plans.

Directors' Stock and Deferred Retainer Plan

The Company's Directors' Stock and Deferred Retainer Plan provides non-employee directors the right to elect to receive their annual retainer fees in the form of: (i) cash; (ii) the Company's common stock payable on a quarterly basis; or (iii) deferred units that are payable in shares of the Company's common stock on a one-for-one basis subsequent to a director's retirement from the Board of Directors. As of December 31, 2004, the following directors held the indicated number of deferred units under the Directors' Stock and Deferred Retainer Plan: Mr. Crown 8,109; Mr. George 8,109; Mr. Lambert 6,669; and Mr. Notter 4,054.

1997 Independent Director Stock Option Plan

The Company's 1997 Independent Director Stock Option Plan provides for annual grants of stock options to non-employee directors of the Company. Each option is exercisable immediately upon grant. The Company granted stock options under the 1997 Plan to non-employee directors from 1997 until 2003. Since the Company's non-employees directors are eligible to participate in the Company's 2004 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan, no grants were made in 2004 under the 1997 Plan and the Board has determined that no additional stock options will be granted under the 1997 Plan. The 1997 Plan is administered by the full Board of Directors, acting by a majority of its members, and expires on July 31, 2007. See Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Executive Officers above and 2004 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan below.

2004 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan

In 2004, each of the following non-employee directors received a grant of 1,600 shares of the Company's common stock under the 2004 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan: Messrs. Crown, George, Johnson, Lambert, Notter, Ueberroth and Young, and Ms. Tuttle. In January 2005, the Board approved a formula for calculating annual grants to non-employee directors under the 2004 Plan. Beginning in 2005, non-employee directors will receive a number of shares of the Company's common stock equal to $30,000 divided by the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant each year, which is generally the date of the annual meeting of stockholders. Directors receiving this grant will be required to hold these shares before disposition for a period ending on the earlier of: (i) three years from the date of grant or (ii) the date such director ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors of the Company.

Directors Retirement Benefit Plan

Certain of the Company's directors have accrued benefits under the Directors Retirement Benefit Plan. In 1997, the Company amended this Plan to cease the accrual of benefits thereunder and to convert each director's vested interest in the Plan into phantom stock units which will be paid in cash upon the director's retirement.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During 2004, A. Steven Crown, John L. Notter, Donna F. Tuttle, Peter V. Ueberroth and Sam D. Young served as members of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. None of these persons is or has been an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Company's Board of Directors has adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines (the Guidelines) in accordance with the listing standards of the NYSE. The Guidelines address such matters as director responsibilities; Board composition and director qualification standards; selection of the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer; selection of director nominees; director compensation and retirement; executive sessions of the Board; Board committees; director access to management, auditors and advisors; director orientation and continuing education; management succession; and the annual performance evaluation of the Board. The Guidelines are posted on our internet website at www.hiltonworldwide.com (click on Investor Relations, then Corporate Governance).

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Company has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the Code of Ethics) that applies to our officers, employees and directors, including the Company's principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer and controller or persons performing similar functions. This Code of Ethics is posted on our internet website at www.hiltonworldwide.com (click on Investor Relations, then Corporate Governance).

Director Independence

The Board of Directors has adopted a standard of independence for directors. This standard incorporates all of the requirements for director independence contained in the NYSE listing standards, as well as certain additional requirements established by the Board, and is set forth below:

- A director who is an employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer, of the Company is not independent until three years after the end of such employment relationship.
- A director who receives, or whose immediate family member receives, more than $100,000 per year in direct compensation from the Company, other than Board and Committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service), is not independent until three years after he or she ceases to receive more than $100,000 per year in such compensation.
- A director who is affiliated with or employed by, or whose immediate family member is affiliated with or employed in a professional capacity by, a present or former internal or external auditor of the Company is not independent until three years after the end of the affiliation or the employment or auditing relationship.
- A director who is employed, or whose immediate family member is employed, as an executive officer of another company where any of the Company's present executives serve on that company's compensation committee is not independent until three years after the end of such service or the employment relationship.

- A director who is an executive officer or an employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer, of a company that makes payments to, or receives payments from, the Company for property or services in an amount which, in any single fiscal year, exceeds the greater of $1 million, or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues, is not independent until three years after falling below such threshold.
- A director who is employed at another company at which any executive officer of the Company serves as a director is not independent until three years after the end of such relationship.
- A director who has a contractual seat on the Company's Board and is a party to a voting agreement requiring such director to vote along with the Company's management is not independent until three years after the end of such arrangement.

Based upon the independence standard described above, the Board has affirmatively determined that the following directors and nominees are independent: Barbara Bell Coleman, A. Steven Crown, Benjamin V. Lambert, John H. Myers, John L. Notter, Donna F. Tuttle, Peter V. Ueberroth and Sam D. Young. The Company's independent directors and nominees as determined by the Board constitute a majority of the Board and all of the members of the Company's Audit, Compensation and Corporate Governance and Nominating Committees.

While the Board has determined that Mr. Lambert currently satisfies the independence standard, this determination may change as a result of the consummation of the potential sale by the Company of certain properties for which Eastdil Realty Company, LLC has been engaged as broker. Mr. Lambert is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Eastdil. At this time, it is not certain whether any or all of these properties will be sold, or if sold, that compensation payable to Eastdil would be in an amount that would cause Mr. Lambert to be no longer considered independent under the independence standard established by the Board. See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" below.

Lead Independent Director

The Company's Board of Directors has designated a lead independent director to be chosen for each Board meeting by rotation among the members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The duties of the lead independent director include presiding at any meeting of the Board at which a Co-Chairman of the Board is not present, presiding at the executive sessions of the Board, acting as a liaison between the Co-Chairmen and the independent directors of the Board, and approving meeting agenda and schedules to assure that there is sufficient time for discussion of all agenda items at Board meetings.

Executive Sessions

The Company's non-management directors meet from time to time in regularly scheduled executive sessions without management. The presiding director at each executive session of non-management directors is the lead independent director chosen for that Board meeting.

Communications with Directors

The Company's Board of Directors has adopted a process for stockholders to send communications to Board members. For information with respect to communicating with the Company's directors, see "Stockholder Communications with our Board of Directors" which is available on our internet website at www.hiltonworldwide.com (click on "Investor Relations," then "Corporate Governance").

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

In 2004, the Company approved the investment of $20 million in the RLJ Urban Lodging Fund, a hotel investment fund created by RLJ Development, LLC ("RLJ"). The Company has also entered into long-term franchise and management agreements with RLJ which provide for the management of eight hotel properties by the Company on terms substantially similar to such agreements entered into by the Company with unaffiliated third parties. During 2004, the Company received $5,870,000 in management, franchise and system fees from RLJ relating to these eight properties and one additional Company-branded property franchised by RLJ. In 2004, the Company received a total of $13,374,000 in management and system fees from the owners of these eight hotel properties and one additional property that was sold in December 2004. Two of these hotels are leased by entities that are owned 80% by the Company and 20% by GEPT. In 2004, the lessees under these two leases paid the GEPT entities owning the hotels a total of $4,915,000 in lease payments. John H. Myers, a director of the Company, is the President and Chief Executive Officer of GE Asset Management Incorporated, a trustee of GEPT, a director of GE Capital Services, Inc. and a Vice President of General Electric Company. GE Asset Management Incorporated, GEPT and GE Capital Services, Inc. are subsidiaries of General Electric Company.

From January through August 2004, the son of Barron Hilton, the Company's Co-Chairman of the Board, leased an apartment at the Waldorf=Astoria, which hotel is wholly owned by the Company. Pursuant to the terms of a lease agreement that the Company believes reflected the fair market value of the apartment, Mr. Hilton's son paid a total of $237,000 in lease payments to the Waldorf=Astoria in 2004.

In January 2005, the Company engaged Eastdil Realty Company, LLC to act as its broker to arrange the sale of certain hotel properties owned by the Company. There is no assurance that any of such properties will be sold. Benjamin V. Lambert, a director of the Company, is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Eastdil.

In January 2005, the Company announced sponsorship of the U.S. Olympic Committee through 2008. Peter V. Ueberroth, a director of the Company, serves as Chairman of the Board of the U.S. Olympic Committee.

The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of the services described below under Audit Fee Summary is compatible with maintaining the principal accountant's independence.

All Audit Committee members have approved this report:

John L. Notter (Chair)

A. Steven Crown

Each grant of Units entitles the Grants of Units under the SRRP entitle the recipient to receive shares of common stock upon retirement, with limited distribution available during employment. Each grant of Units also provides for an upward adjustment in the number of Units in a participant's account based upon dividends and distributions paid by the Company with respect to the underlying shares of common stock, from the date of grant. The Company has granted Mr. Bollenbach Units pursuant to his employment agreement. The terms of the Units granted to Mr. Bollenbach are substantially similar to Units granted under the SRRP, except that Units granted to Mr. Bollenbach vest 20% per year over a five-year period. COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company's Compensation Committee (the "Committee") establishes and monitors policies and procedures regarding compensation programs. The Committee also approves actions associated with these programs affecting the Named Officers and other senior officers of the Company (the "Executive Group").

The Company's executive compensation program is designed to closely link executive compensation to:

- specific earnings goal achievement for the Company and its business units;
- common stock price appreciation; and
- individual goal achievement.

This direct link between pay and performance focuses executives on factors that drive the Company's financial success and create incremental stockholder value.

Key components of the Company's executive compensation program include:

- base salary;
- annual performance bonus; and
- long-term incentive compensation.

Prior to 2004, the Company's long-term incentive compensation had consisted primarily of stock options and supplemental retirement benefit units. The 2004 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan (the "2004 Plan"), which was approved by the Company's stockholders at the 2004 annual meeting, provides for long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock units, performance units, stock options and other types of stock-based awards. In 2004 and 2005, grants under the 2004 Plan consisted of stock units and performance units, except for a 2005 stock option grant to Mr. Bollenbach pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement with the Company. See "Chief Executive Officer Compensation" below.

The Committee targets total compensation (i.e., the sum of base salary, annual performance bonus, grants of stock-based awards and benefits) at a level comparable to a competitive market. During 2004, the competitive market consisted of large publicly-traded hotel companies, as well as selected companies in the hospitality, leisure, real estate and consumer products industries, comparable in size to the Company. The Committee uses a broad comparison of this type to reflect the marketplace in which the Company competes for executive talent.

The Committee seeks to attract, retain and motivate employees by providing target compensation at a level comparable to the competitive market described above. Actual total compensation paid to the Executive Group may exceed or fall below competitive levels, both annually and over time, based on various factors including:

- the Company's financial performance;
- the Company's common stock performance;
- performance of the executive's area of responsibility;
- individual executive performance;
- the executive's experience in his or her role; and
- the executive's length of service with the Company.

The Company establishes target total compensation levels by periodically reviewing market compensation data prepared by independent compensation consultants. The Committee believes that 2004 compensation levels reflect both the competitive market and individual performance, experience and tenure of each Named Officer. In establishing compensation levels for the Company's executive officers, the Committee takes into consideration all forms of compensation, including salary, bonus, the value of outstanding equity awards, change in control payment opportunities, supplemental executive retirement benefits and any perquisites.

Base Salary

The Named Officers (other than Mr. Bollenbach who is covered by an employment agreement) received annual salary increases in 2004 that reflected both the competitive market and each Named Officer's individual performance, experience and tenure. On January 26, 2005, the Committee approved salary increases of 3.5% for each Named Officer (other than Mr. Bollenbach), except for Mr. Hart who received a 9.7% increase to reflect his increased responsibilities as the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer.

Annual Incentive Plan

The Company's stockholders approved the Annual Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan") at the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders. Pursuant to the Incentive Plan, the Company's executive officers are eligible for cash bonus awards if objective performance goals established by the Committee are met. For 2004, the Committee established the performance goal as the achievement by the Company of at least 85% of budgeted earnings on a consolidated basis before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA"). The Committee selected EBITDA as the performance measure because the Committee believes that EBITDA is a good measure of the Company's operating performance during the year. The Committee also established the total amount of the bonus pool available to the Company's executive officers as .60% of 2004 EBITDA reported by the Company. On January 26, 2005, the Committee certified that the performance goal for 2004 was achieved, and approved bonus payments to the Named Officers as set forth in the Summary Compensation Table above.

On March 23, 2005, the Committee established the 2005 performance goal for the eligibility of executive officers for bonus awards under the Incentive Plan. The performance goal for 2005 is 85% of the Company's budgeted EBITDA for 2005 and the bonus pool amount of potential bonuses for all executive officers is .60% of the Company's reported EBITDA for 2005. The maximum award payable to any executive officer will not exceed 50% of the bonus pool amount and the total of all awards paid to executive officers will not exceed 100% of the bonus pool amount.

Long-Term Incentive Program

Prior to 2004, the Company's long-term incentive program consisted historically of grants of stock options and supplemental retirement benefit units at the discretion of the Committee. In 2004, the Company's stockholders approved the 2004 Plan which provides for grants of stock units, performance units, stock options and other stock-based awards.

In 2004, the Committee engaged an independent compensation consultant to review the Company's long-term incentive compensation practices. Based upon this review, the Committee determined that stock units and performance units are an effective way to encourage grantees to focus on and contribute to increasing value for the Company's stockholders, and that these awards should be a significant part of the Company's long-term incentive compensation program pursuant to the 2004 Plan. Therefore, the Committee approved grants of stock units and performance units as the form of long-term incentive compensation awarded to the Company's executive officers, senior officers and certain employees in 2004.

The timing and size of grants of stock units, performance units and stock-based awards have been based upon:

- Company performance;
- individual performance;

- competitive market practices; and
- grant size in prior years.

The weighting of these factors varies and is subjective. The Company awarded an aggregate of 294,660 stock units and performance units at the target level to the Named Officers during 2004 pursuant to the 2004 Plan. The Company did not grant any stock options in 2004. See Executive Compensation Summary Compensation Table and Long-Term Incentive Plans Awards in Last Fiscal Year above.

On January 26, 2005, the Committee approved the following grants by the Company of both stock units and an identical target amount of performance units to the Named Officers (other than Mr. Bollenbach who receives grants pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement): Mr. Hart 29,292 units; Mr. Huckestein 13,862 units; Mr. Keltner 17,478 units; and Ms. Kleiner 12,392 units. The stock unit grants vest in equal annual installments over four years, except for the grant to Mr. Huckestein which vests in three equal annual installments.

Stock units represent the right of the recipient to receive shares of the Company's common stock on a one-for-one basis, subject to vesting restrictions in order to encourage retention. The value of stock units granted under the 2004 Plan is directly tied to the value of the Company's stock price, thereby ensuring that the financial interests of grantees and stockholders are closely aligned.

Performance units represent the right of the recipient to receive shares of the Company's common stock on a one-for-one basis, if specified performance goals are met and vesting restrictions are satisfied. Performance unit grants are payable from 0% to 150% of the target amount depending upon the level of achievement of performance goals established by the Committee. For grants in 2004, the Committee established a three-year performance and vesting period and a performance goal tied to the aggregate stockholder return of the Company's common stock compared to the weighted stockholder return of an index of companies comparable to the Company. For 2005 grants, the Committee established a three-year performance and vesting period and three equally weighted performance goals based on total Company stockholder return in relation to a comparable group of companies, total Company EBITDA margin, and Company return on total capital. In establishing the performance goals for the 2005 grants, the Committee included two Company financial goals along with the total stockholder return index in order to align the performance goals more closely with the execution by management of the Company's overall strategy.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

On November 11, 2004, the Committee approved, and the Company and Stephen F. Bollenbach, the Company's Co-Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, entered into an Amended and Restated Employment Agreement, as subsequently amended as of January 27, 2005 (the Employment Agreement). The Company hired Mr. Bollenbach as President and Chief Executive Officer in February 1996, and entered into an employment agreement with him at that time which was subsequently amended. The Employment Agreement amends Mr. Bollenbach's previous employment agreement and a letter agreement dated May 23, 2002 pursuant to which Mr. Bollenbach agreed to provide consulting services to the Company.

The Employment Agreement provides for a term of employment of Mr. Bollenbach as the Company's Chief Executive Officer beginning on January 1, 2005 and ending on December 31, 2007 (the Employment Period), unless earlier terminated. The Employment Agreement also provides that Mr. Bollenbach will provide consulting services to the Company for a five-year period beginning on his retirement date or any earlier date of termination (the Consulting Period).

The Committee met with independent compensation consultants and reviewed market compensation information prepared by such consultants to ensure that Mr. Bollenbach's compensation is comparable with that of the chief executive officers of competitive companies. The Committee reviewed Mr. Bollenbach's total compensation package including salary, bonus, perquisites, anticipated values of prior equity grants at time of grant and actual value delivered, and changes in the executive compensation market. The Employment Agreement establishes a minimum annual base salary for Mr. Bollenbach of $1,000,000 and targets an annual bonus opportunity of 100% of base salary, with a maximum bonus opportunity of 200% of base salary. Mr. Bollenbach's bonus opportunity depends upon the achievement by the Company of objective performance goals established by the Committee. To the extent that Mr. Bollenbach's total compensation (salary and bonus) in any year exceeds $1,000,000 as determined under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the excess amount will be deferred and paid to Mr. Bollenbach when the Company is no longer subject to the Federal income tax deduction limits imposed by Section 162(m), as discussed below.

Consistent with the May 23, 2002 letter agreement, Mr. Bollenbach will receive an annual consulting fee of $500,000 and be provided with office space and secretarial support during the Consulting Period. The Company's obligation to pay Mr. Bollenbach during the Consulting Period is conditioned upon Mr. Bollenbach not breaching certain covenants contained in his Employment Agreement, including certain non-compete provisions. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement and in connection with the termination of the split-dollar life insurance policy described below, Mr. Bollenbach was awarded a one-time cash signing bonus of $193,194 and a special cash bonus of $137,830 in January 2005. Mr. Bollenbach will also receive a special cash bonus of $137,830 payable each January ending in January 2009, regardless of whether he is an employee of or consultant to the Company on any special bonus payment date.

As described above under Annual Incentive Plan, the Committee established the 2004 performance goal for the eligibility of the Company's executive officers, including Mr. Bollenbach, for bonus awards under the Incentive Plan. On January 26, 2005, the Committee certified that the performance goal was achieved and approved a bonus to Mr. Bollenbach of $1,920,000. Mr. Bollenbach's bonus constituted 31% of the total bonus pool available to the executive officers under the Incentive Plan. The total amount of bonuses paid to Mr. Bollenbach in January 2005 of $2,251,024, when added to his 2004 salary of $1,000,000, totals $3,251,024. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, $331,024 of such bonus amount was deferred since the amount would not otherwise be deductible by the Company pursuant to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Employment Agreement provides that any amount of bonus deferred is credited, from the date it would otherwise have been paid to the date the deferred amounts are paid, with interest at a floating rate equal to a prime lending rate. The Employment Agreement also provides that Mr. Bollenbach may elect to have such deferred compensation invested in phantom shares of the Company's common stock on a book entry account basis. Mr. Bollenbach elected to have his deferred bonus invested in such phantom shares in 2000, which had an equivalent cash value equal to 150,893 shares of the Company's common stock as of December 31, 2004.

In each year of the Employment Period (subject to Mr. Bollenbach's continued employment), Mr. Bollenbach will be granted stock options to purchase 400,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price per share equal to the fair market value of a share of the Company's common stock on the applicable grant date. Each option will become exercisable upon the earlier of: (i) December 31, 2007 and (ii) termination of Mr. Bollenbach's employment without cause, or due to his death or disability, his resignation for good reason, or upon a change of control of the Company (each a Triggering Event), but in any case only if Mr. Bollenbach is continuously employed through the earlier of such dates. The initial grant of stock options to purchase 400,000 shares was made on January 26, 2005, at an exercise price of $22.19 per share.

In each year of the Employment Period (subject to Mr. Bollenbach's continued employment), Mr. Bollenbach will be granted performance units (the Performance Shares) that equate, at targeted performance, to 140,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The initial grant of 140,000 Performance Shares was made on January 26, 2005. The actual number of shares to be earned with respect to each grant will be determined based upon the level of achievement of performance goals established by the Committee. For the 2005 grant, the Committee has established three equally weighted performance goals based on total Company stockholder return in relation to a comparable group of companies, total Company EBITDA margin, and Company return on total capital. Each grant of Performance Shares will vest on the last day of the third year of the relevant performance period, provided Mr. Bollenbach is employed until December 31, 2007. In addition, each grant of Performance Shares will also vest upon a Triggering Event.

On December 31, 1998, upon completion of the spin-off of the Company's gaming business and pursuant to Mr. Bollenbach's then existing employment agreement, Mr. Bollenbach was granted 2,000,000 stock options under the Company's 1996 Stock Incentive Plan that have an exercise price of $27.52676, which is equal to 150% of the Company's common stock closing price on the date such grant was approved (July 9, 1998) and approximately 200% of the closing price on the date of actual grant, ratably reduced to reflect the Company's spin-off. The Employment Agreement provides that these options will vest and become fully exercisable on December 31, 2007, rather than on September 30, 2008 as provided in the previous employment agreement. To the extent these options are not already vested, they will become fully vested and exercisable in the event of a change of control of the Company provided that Mr. Bollenbach has not breached certain covenants contained in the Employment Agreement. For additional information, see "Change of Control Agreements" below.

No options, stock units or performance units were granted to Mr. Bollenbach in 2004.

The Employment Agreement provides for the termination of the split-dollar arrangement on a $10 million face amount, last to die, variable life insurance policy on the lives of Mr. Bollenbach and his spouse (the "Supplemental Policy") provided for under the previous employment agreement. The Company withdrew from the Supplemental Policy the maximum amount that could be withdrawn without incurring any surrender charges or terminating the Supplemental Policy. Mr. Bollenbach has paid to the Company the cash surrender value that remained in the Supplemental Policy. The split-dollar arrangement was terminated on the withdrawal date, with the effect that: (i) the Company released its collateral interest in the cash surrender value of the Supplemental Policy; (ii) the Company has no obligation to make any premium contributions to the Supplemental Policy; and (iii) Mr. Bollenbach has unfettered ownership interest in the Supplemental Policy.

The Employment Agreement continues the terms of Mr. Bollenbach's supplemental retirement benefit in the form of a phantom interest in 700,000 shares of the Company's common stock, payable to Mr. Bollenbach upon his retirement in shares of the Company's common stock plus any dividends or distributions paid by the Company on the underlying shares of common stock. This benefit is earned 20% for each year Mr. Bollenbach is employed through June 30, 2005, unless his employment is terminated following a change of control of the Company, in which case he will become fully vested in such benefit. Mr. Bollenbach is currently 80% vested in such phantom interest. To the extent the value of such shares of the Company's common stock increases or decreases, the retirement benefit will also increase or decrease.

In the event Mr. Bollenbach's employment is terminated due to his death or disability, he will receive the accelerated vesting of equity awards described above and payment of any deferred compensation.

In the event Mr. Bollenbach's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or Mr. Bollenbach resigns for good reason, each in the absence of a change of control of the Company, he will receive, in addition to the accelerated vesting of equity awards described above, payment of any deferred compensation, benefit continuation for the remainder of the Employment Period and a cash payment equal to his base salary for the balance of the Employment Period and a pro-rated bonus.

In the event Mr. Bollenbach's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or Mr. Bollenbach resigns for good reason, each following a change of control of the Company, he will receive, in addition to the accelerated vesting of equity awards described above, payment of any deferred compensation, benefit continuation for the remainder of the Employment Agreement and a lump sum cash payment equal to three times his base salary and three times the higher of: (i) the annual bonus paid to him for the last full fiscal year ending during the Employment Period and (ii) the annual bonus paid to him for the fiscal year prior to the change of control. If any payment to Mr. Bollenbach would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, then he will be entitled to an additional payment in an amount such that after his payment of all taxes he receives the same amount of compensation he would have received in the absence of any taxes.

The Company's obligation to make the payments described above (including the accelerated vesting of Mr. Bollenbach's equity awards) to Mr. Bollenbach upon his termination of employment without cause or due to his death or disability, whether or not in connection with a change of control of the Company, is conditioned upon Mr. Bollenbach not breaching certain covenants contained in the Employment Agreement.

The Employment Agreement also terminates a letter agreement between Mr. Bollenbach and the Company dated September 10, 2003 in which Mr. Bollenbach agreed, during his tenure as the Company's Chief Executive Officer, not to transfer 725,484 shares of common stock (the "Shares") received upon the exercise of stock options granted in 1996. In consideration for Mr. Bollenbach's agreement to extend his tenure as the Company's Chief Executive Officer beyond his previously anticipated retirement date of July 1, 2005 for a period of time extending up to December 31, 2007, the Employment Agreement released Mr. Bollenbach from the transfer restriction with respect to the Shares, which were sold by Mr. Bollenbach in November 2004.

The Employment Agreement resulted from arms length negotiations between the Company and Mr. Bollenbach. The Committee believes that the compensation provisions contained in the Employment Agreement were necessary to secure Mr. Bollenbach's employment and are in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

Committee Policy Regarding Compliance with Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code

Federal income tax deductions of publicly-traded companies may be limited to the extent total compensation (including base salary, annual bonus, stock-based awards, stock option exercises and nonqualified benefits) for certain executive officers exceeds $1,000,000 in any year. Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the deduction limit does not apply to performance based payments. Performance based compensation payments must be made from a plan administered by a committee of outside directors and be based upon achieving objective performance goals. Additionally, the material plan terms must be approved by stockholders and the committee must certify that the performance goals were achieved before payments are awarded.

The Committee administers the Company's compensation programs to conform with Section 162(m) so that the total compensation paid to any employee will not exceed $1,000,000 in any one year, unless payments in excess of $1,000,000 qualify as performance based, are deferred or are required for sound management. The Company's Supplemental Retirement and Retention Plan gives participants the right to elect to receive a distribution of common stock under limited circumstances during their employment, which could result in total annual compensation received by an executive officer exceeding the $1,000,000 deduction limit under Section 162(m). To date, none of the Company's executive officers have made such election under the Supplemental Retirement and Retention Plan or received compensation that exceeds the deduction limit under Section 162(m).

RETIREMENT PLANS

Benefits Under Retirement Plans

Effective December 31, 1996, the Company amended its Retirement Plan, Retirement Benefit Replacement Plan and Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (collectively, the Retirement Plans) to provide that employees earn no further benefits under the Retirement Plans. Accordingly, the benefits under the Retirement Plans were based upon compensation and years of service through December 31, 1996. The compensation covered by the Retirement Plans included a participant's salary, bonus and live-in allowance (if any). Benefits under the Retirement Plan and the Retirement Benefit Replacement Plan were determined according to the highest five consecutive years of compensation through December 31, 1996. Benefits under the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan were based upon the highest three years of compensation. Compensation above $800,000 paid in any year after 1993 was not included in calculating benefits under the Retirement Plans.

Until April 1, 1994, the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan and the Retirement Benefit Replacement Plan provided that the present value of a participant's benefit would be transferred from time to time to a grantor trust established by such officer, along with additional amounts needed to equalize the trust account to the after-tax benefits which would have been provided in the absence of the trust. Such transfers will resume if a change of control of the Company occurs.

Messrs. Bollenbach, Hart and Huckestein are the only Named Officers with any years of service or benefits under the Retirement Plans as of December 31, 2004. Messrs. Bollenbach and Hart each had less than one year of service under the Retirement Plans on December 31, 1996, which is the date that benefits ceased to accrue thereunder. Mr. Huckestein had 11 years of service under the Retirement Plans on such date. Messrs. Bollenbach and Hart have estimated annual benefits under the Retirement Plans at normal retirement age of approximately $17,000 and $10,000, respectively. Mr. Huckestein has estimated annual benefits under the Retirement Plans at normal retirement age of approximately $235,000, a portion of which has previously been paid to him under the grantor trust arrangement described in the prior paragraph.

Supplemental Retirement and Retention Plan

Effective June 1, 2000, the Company adopted the Supplemental Retirement and Retention Plan (the SRRP). Under the SRRP, senior officers of the Company may be granted supplemental retirement benefit units (Units). The Units vest 25% per year over a four-year period and are payable in shares of the Company's common stock, on a one-for-one basis, upon the grantee's retirement, with limited distribution available during employment. The SRRP also provides for an upward adjustment in the number of Units in a participant's account based upon dividends and distributions paid by the Company with respect to the underlying shares of common stock, from the date of grant. Grants of Units to the Named Officers are set forth above in the Summary Compensation Table under the caption Restricted Stock Awards. The Units will become immediately vested in the event of a change of control of the Company, as defined in the SRRP.

Pursuant to his Employment Agreement with the Company, Mr. Bollenbach has been granted supplemental retirement benefit units substantially similar to the awards of Units under the SRRP. See Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation Chief Executive Officer Compensation above.

Other Benefit Plans

The Company has adopted an Executive Deferred Compensation Plan (Deferred Compensation Plan) and a 401(k) Savings Plan. Under the Deferred Compensation Plan and the 401(k) Savings Plan, employees may elect to defer compensation which otherwise would have been paid to them. The Named Officers and other officers of the Company eligible to participate in the Deferred Compensation Plan may defer up to 100% of their compensation. Deferred Compensation Plan participants are eligible to receive from the Company a matching contribution of 50% of the first 10% of their deferred compensation in any year. Employees of the Company who participate in the 401(k) Savings Plan receive a matching contribution of 100% of the first 3%, and 50% of the next 2%, of their compensation contributed under the Plan.

CHANGE OF CONTROL AGREEMENTS

General

The Company's Board of Directors has adopted a Change of Control Agreement ("Control Agreement") which has been entered into with the Executive Group, including Messrs. Hart, Huckestein and Keltner and Ms. Kleiner (collectively, the "Control Participants"). The Company has terminated Mr. Bollenbach's Control Agreement and incorporated similar provisions in his Employment Agreement with the Company. See Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation Chief Executive Officer Compensation above.

Summary of Provisions

Under the terms of the Control Agreement, upon the occurrence of a Change of Control (as defined below), the Company agrees to continue the employment of each Control Participant for a three-year period, or until the Control Participant's retirement if earlier (the "Control Employment Period"), in a position which is at least commensurate with the Control Participant's position prior to the Change of Control. The Company also agrees to provide the Control Participant with base salary, annual bonuses, incentive plan, retirement plan, welfare benefit plan, fringe benefits and other employment policy coverage which is at least equal to the coverage in effect prior to the Change of Control. Under the Control Agreement, each Control Participant will receive payments aggregating up to three times annual salary and bonus if, following a Change of Control, he or she is terminated without cause or terminates for good reason (including, but not limited to, the assignment to such Control Participant of duties inconsistent with his or her position at the time of the Change of Control). The Control Participant is also entitled to receive benefits under the Company's incentive, savings, retirement, welfare benefit and fringe benefit plans and policies during the remainder of the Control Employment Period.

The Control Agreement continues for renewable three-year terms or until the Control Participant's normal retirement date, if earlier.

Definition of Change of Control

Under the Control Agreement, a Change of Control with respect to the Company means: (i) the acquisition, within the meaning of Section 13(d) and Rule 13d-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (other than from the Company), by any person, entity or group, within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) or 14(d)(2) of the Exchange Act (excluding, for this purpose, (A) the Company or its subsidiaries, (B) any employee benefit plan of the Company or its subsidiaries which acquires beneficial ownership of voting securities of the Company or (C) Barron Hilton or the Conrad N. Hilton Fund), of beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act) of 20% or more of either the then outstanding shares of common stock or the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding voting securities entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; (ii) a majority of the membership of the incumbent Board of Directors changes other than in the ordinary course; or (iii) there is a dissolution or liquidation of the Company, a sale of substantially all of its assets, or a reorganization, merger or consolidation in which the Company's stockholders do not own more than 60% of the combined voting power of the company resulting from such transaction.

Tax Payments

If any payment, whether pursuant to the Control Agreement or otherwise (i.e., under Retirement or Stock Plans), would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, then the Control Participant shall be entitled to receive an additional payment in an amount such that after payment by the Control Participant of all taxes (including any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes), including any excise tax, imposed upon the additional payment, he or she receives the same amount of compensation pursuant to the Control Agreement which he or she would have received in the absence of any such taxes.

Agreement Not To Compete

Under the Control Agreement, each Control Participant has agreed that, for a period of one year after termination of employment with the Company, he or she will not be employed by, own, operate or otherwise be affiliated with a business actively competing with the Company, or hire the Company's employees, except with the prior written consent of the Company.

Confidentiality

Under the Control Agreement, each Control Participant agrees to maintain the confidentiality of all secret or confidential information relating to the Company which the Control Participant obtained during his or her employment by the Company.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Ernst & Young LLP served as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ended December 31, 2004. The Audit Committee has appointed Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2005. Although the Company's Board of Directors is not required to submit the Audit Committee's appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for stockholder approval, the Board has elected to seek ratification by stockholders at the annual meeting of its appointment of Ernst & Young LLP to serve as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2005. A representative of Ernst & Young LLP is expected to attend the annual meeting where the representative will have the opportunity to make a statement and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Vote Required The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock represented at the meeting, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on this proposal will be necessary for the adoption of Proposal 2. In the event that the Company's stockholders do not ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee may reconsider its recommendation of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

Board Recommendation THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR PROPOSAL 2. Proxies solicited by the Company's Board of Directors will be voted for Proposal 2 unless stockholders specify otherwise.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL CONCERNING SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

The Company has been advised that one of its stockholders intends to present a proposal at the annual meeting. The stockholder proposal and supporting statement, for which the Board of Directors accepts no responsibility, are set forth below.

The name, address and stock ownership of the proponent will be furnished by the Company promptly upon receiving an oral or written request to the Company's Secretary. For the reasons set forth in its Statement in Opposition immediately following this stockholder proposal, the Company's Board of Directors does not support this proposal and urges you to vote AGAINST this proposal.

Stockholder Proposal

RESOLVED: that the shareholders of Hilton Hotels Corp. (the Company) urge the Board of Directors to seek shareholder approval of future severance agreements with senior executives that provide benefits in an amount exceeding 2.99 times the sum of the executives' base salary plus bonus. Future severance agreements include employment agreements containing severance provisions, retirement agreements and agreements renewing, modifying or extending existing such agreements. Benefits include lump-sum cash payments and the estimated present value of periodic retirement payments, fringe benefits, perquisites and consulting fees to be paid to the executive.

Stockholder Supporting Statement

In our opinion, severance agreements as described in this resolution, commonly known as "golden parachutes", are excessive in light of the high levels of compensation enjoyed by senior executives at the Company and U.S. corporations in general.

We believe that requiring shareholder approval of such agreements may have the beneficial effect of insulating the Board of Directors from manipulation in the event a senior executive's employment must be terminated by the Company. Because it is not always practical to obtain prior shareholder approval, the Company would have the option if this proposal were implemented of seeking shareholder approval after the material terms of the agreement were agreed upon.

For those reasons, we urge shareholders to vote for this proposal.

Board of Directors' Statement in Opposition to the Stockholder Proposal

The Board has evaluated the proposal and believes it is not in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders for this proposal to be adopted and recommends a vote AGAINST this proposal.

The Board believes that the proposal would not enhance stockholder value and is not in the best interests of the Company for the following reasons, as further described below. First, the Compensation Committee of the Board is committed to maximizing stockholder value through its oversight of the Company's executive compensation programs, which may include the use of severance agreements in executive compensation packages. Second, the Board believes that this proposal would unduly restrict the Board in the execution of its duties, particularly given the difficulties of attaining prior stockholder approval or attracting qualified executives when compensation packages are contingent on later approval. Third, the process of attaining stockholder approval for compensation packages may be expensive, and a poor use of stockholder assets.

The Compensation Committee of the Board, which is composed of five independent directors, assists the Board in its oversight of the Company's executive compensation programs. These programs are designed not only to attract and retain highly qualified executives but also to align management's interests with those of stockholders by motivating executives to maximize stockholder value and returns. The Compensation Committee reviews and approves all severance agreements with executive officers prior to execution, and regularly engages outside compensation consultants to ensure that the Company's executive compensation programs, including severance arrangements, are appropriate and comparable to those at similarly situated companies.

The Board believes that imposing a stockholder approval requirement on the use of severance agreements would unduly restrict the Board in the execution of its duties to hire, retain and discharge key executives. The Board believes that the Company's compensation arrangements for executives are comparable to plans at similarly situated companies and that management must continue to have the flexibility to tailor compensation packages to attract and compensate executives. Placing arbitrary ceilings or restrictions on the kind and amount of severance payments the Company may offer, or requiring stockholder approval of the terms of each severance agreement, could result in negative consequences to the Company by unnecessarily limiting the Company's ability to attract and retain talented executives and inappropriately limiting the flexibility of the Company in certain severance situations. Furthermore, the requirement to make public disclosure of confidential employment negotiations with prospective executives before the material terms are finalized would have a negative impact on the Company's executive recruiting and would place the Company at a competitive disadvantage.

The Board believes that obtaining prior stockholder approval of such employment agreements would be impractical due to the timing of hiring and termination decisions, which may not coincide with an annual meeting of stockholders. In order to finalize an agreement with an executive and assure his or her hiring or retention, the Company would be required to call a special meeting of stockholders to approve the severance arrangement. The Board believes that calling a special meeting of stockholders to approve a severance arrangement would be expensive and would not be a good expenditure of stockholder assets.

Proponent suggests that the Company could seek stockholder approval after the material terms of the agreement were agreed upon. This would result in the Company being unable to assure the executive that the agreement would be approved, and a candidate could not be sure of the terms of employment until after the stockholder meeting and may be more likely to accept a competing offer with final terms.

Proponent refers to the severance agreements at issue as "golden parachutes." The Board believes that the use of this term is misleading, in that the proposal defines "future severance agreements" to include a broader group of severance arrangements than are commonly understood to be golden parachutes. The severance agreements described in the proposal include employment agreements containing retirement benefits, while golden parachutes generally refer to compensation arrangements in connection with a change of control.

The Board understands the concern that exists today regarding high levels of executive compensation and severance payments. However, the Board believes that this proposal would unduly hinder the Company's ability to recruit, motivate and reward qualified executives by restricting the use of an important compensation tool. Accordingly, the Board believes that the Compensation Committee should retain the authority to review the objectives of the Company's executive compensation programs and approve executive compensation arrangements without having to obtain stockholder approval.

Vote Required

Approval of Proposal 3 requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock represented at the meeting, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on this proposal. Because this proposal is only a recommendation, however, its approval would not effectuate the changes it describes. The proposal simply urges the Board to seek stockholder approval of any future severance agreements meeting the criteria described in the proposal.

Board Recommendation

For the reasons set forth above, the Board of Directors urges the Company's stockholders to reject Proposal 3. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE AGAINST THE ADOPTION OF THE FOREGOING STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL. Proxies solicited by the Company's Board of Directors will be voted against adoption of Proposal 3 unless stockholders specify otherwise.

PROPOSAL 4 STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL CONCERNING ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company has been advised that one of its stockholders intends to present a proposal at the annual meeting. The stockholder proposal and supporting statement, for which the Board of Directors accepts no responsibility, are set forth below.

The name, address and stock ownership of the proponent will be furnished by the Company promptly upon receiving an oral or written request to the Company's Secretary. For the reasons set forth in its Statement in Opposition immediately following this stockholder proposal, the Company's Board of Directors does not support this proposal and urges you to vote AGAINST this proposal.

Stockholder Proposal

Resolved: That the shareholders of Hilton Hotels, Inc. (Company) hereby request that the Board of Directors initiate the appropriate process to amend the Company's governance documents (certificate of incorporation or bylaws) to provide that director nominees shall be elected by the affirmative vote of the majority of votes cast at an annual meeting of shareholders.

Stockholder Supporting Statement

Our Company is incorporated in Delaware. Among other issues, Delaware corporate law addresses the issue of the level of voting support necessary for a specific action, such as the election of corporate directors. Delaware law provides that a company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws may specify the number of votes that shall be necessary for the transaction of any business, including the election of directors. (DGCL, Title 8, Chapter 1, Subchapter VII, Section 216). Further, the law provides that if the level of voting support necessary for a specific action is not specified in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation, directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors.

Our Company presently uses the plurality vote standard for the election of directors. We feel that it is appropriate and timely for the Board to initiate a change in the Company's director election vote standard. Specifically, this shareholder proposal urges that the Board of Directors initiate a change to the director election vote standard to provide that in director elections a majority vote standard will be used in lieu of the Company's current plurality vote standard. Specifically, the new standard should provide that nominees for the board of directors must receive a majority of the vote cast in order to be elected or re-elected to the Board.

Under the Company's current plurality vote standard, a director nominee in a director election can be elected or re-elected with as little as a single affirmative vote, even while a substantial majority of the votes cast are withheld from that director nominee. So even if 99.99% of the shares withhold authority to vote for a candidate or all the candidates, a 0.01% for vote results in the candidate's election or re-election to the board. The proposed majority vote standard would require that a director receive a majority of the vote cast in order to be elected to the Board.

It is our contention that the proposed majority vote standard for corporate board elections is a fair standard that will strengthen the Company's governance and the Board. Our proposal is not intended to limit the judgment of the Board in crafting the requested governance change. For instance, the Board should address the status of incumbent directors who fail to receive a majority vote when standing for re-election under a majority vote standard or whether a plurality director election standard is appropriate in contested elections.

We urge your support of this important director election reform.

Board of Directors Statement in Opposition to the Stockholder Proposal

The Board has evaluated this proposal and believes it is not in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders for this proposal to be adopted and recommends a vote AGAINST this proposal.

The plurality voting methodology provides for the election of directors who receive a plurality of the votes of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the annual meeting and entitled to be voted in an election of directors, so long as a quorum is present at the meeting. This methodology, which the proposal seeks to replace, not only has long been the accepted system among companies comparable to the Company, but is also the default system under the laws of the State of Delaware. Plurality voting in elections for directors is known to and understood by stockholders, and used by corporations that have been identified as leaders in corporate governance reforms. The proposal would alter this longstanding and widespread voting procedure for the election of directors. Our Board does not believe that electing directors under a different standard would result in a more effective Board.

The proposal describes an example in which a director is elected who receives a 0.01% affirmative vote, suggesting that the Company's Board members are being elected by minimal affirmative votes. In fact, the Company has a history of electing strong and independent Boards by a significant majority of votes. For more than the past ten years, every director nominee proposed by the Company has received an affirmative vote of at least 93% of the shares voted in the election of directors.

The Board believes that the proposal could prove unworkable because it could create vacancies on our Board and its Committees if all director nominees do not receive the required vote. Under Delaware law and the Company's By-laws, any vacancies on the Board could be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office. The Board believes that the voting system proposed by the proponent could result in a less democratic election of directors than the plurality system the Company currently uses. In addition, the Company is required by the NYSE listing standards to have a majority of independent directors and the charters for its Audit, Compensation and Corporate Governance and Nominating Committees require a minimum number of independent directors. This proposal would change the voting system in a way that could cause the Company to fail to be in compliance with these requirements if certain director nominees do not receive the required votes.

This proposal may also have the unintended consequence of unnecessarily increasing the cost of soliciting stockholder votes. The Company may need to employ a proactive telephone solicitation, a second mailing or other strategy to obtain the required vote to elect a slate of directors. The result could be increased spending by the Company in routine elections which the Board believes would not be a good expenditure of stockholder assets.

The Board believes that implementation of the proposal at this time would be premature because the SEC has already proposed new rules to provide stockholders with greater participation in the annual election of directors. The SEC did not propose to require a majority voting system for electing directors, but instead proposed different mechanisms to permit direct stockholder nominations in specified circumstances. If the SEC's proposals are adopted, they would more directly and uniformly provide new avenues for stockholder participation in the process for election of directors than the stockholder proposal.

The Company's Board has a majority of independent directors and its Audit, Compensation and Corporate Governance and Nominating Committees are comprised entirely of independent directors. The Board is committed to good corporate governance practices and has implemented a variety of measures discussed in this proxy statement to strengthen the Company's governance process. The Board believes the plurality voting standard used by the Company provides an appropriate mechanism for electing an independent Board that is committed to delivering long-term stockholder value.

Vote Required

Approval of Proposal 4 requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock represented at the meeting, in person or by proxy, and entitled to vote on this proposal. Because this proposal is only a recommendation, however, its approval would not effectuate the changes it describes. The proposal requests the Board to take the necessary steps to amend the Company's By-laws to provide for a new voting standard for the election of directors.

Board Recommendation

For the reasons set forth above, the Board of Directors urges the Company's stockholders to reject Proposal 4. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE AGAINST THE ADOPTION OF THE FOREGOING STOCKHOLDER PROPOSAL. Proxies solicited by the Company's Board of Directors will be voted against adoption of Proposal 4 unless stockholders specify otherwise.

2006 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

The 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders is presently scheduled to be held on May 24, 2006. Any proposals of stockholders intended to be presented at such meeting must be received by the Secretary of the Company no later than December 9, 2005, in order to be eligible for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the meeting. For stockholder proposals to be included in the proxy statement, you must comply with the rules of the SEC governing the submission of stockholder proposals.

Under our By-laws, for a stockholder to properly bring business before an annual meeting, including nominations to be made by a stockholder at the annual meeting, such stockholder must submit written notice thereof to the Secretary of the Company not less than 60 days prior to the annual meeting. The notice must contain certain required information as set forth in our By-laws. Our By-laws are filed with the SEC as Exhibits 3.4 through 3.7 to our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004.

The enclosed proxy card offers the Company's stockholders the option to access the proxy statement, annual report and other materials relating to the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and other future stockholder meetings electronically via the internet. Stockholders who have already consented to receive such materials electronically do not need to consent again. A stockholder who consents to accessing such materials electronically may revoke such consent at any time. The Company will continue to distribute printed materials for future stockholder meetings to stockholders who do not consent to access such materials electronically. The Company encourages stockholders who can access such materials via the internet to indicate their consent on the proxy card, thereby saving the Company the cost of printing and mailing such materials for future stockholder meetings. Prior to the next stockholder meeting, the Company will notify consenting stockholders as to the procedures for accessing such materials via the internet.

HOUSEHOLDING

The SEC has approved a rule concerning the delivery of annual reports and proxy statements. It permits a single set of these reports to be sent to any household at which two or more stockholders reside if they appear to be members of the same family. Each stockholder continues to receive a separate proxy card. This procedure, referred to as householding, reduces the volume of duplicate information stockholders receive and reduces mailing and printing expenses of the Company. In accordance with a notice sent to certain stockholders who shared a single address, only one annual report and proxy statement will be sent to that address unless any stockholder at that address requested that multiple sets of documents be sent. However, if any stockholder who agreed to householding wishes to receive a separate annual report or proxy statement in the future, he or she may telephone toll-free 1-800-542-1061 or write to ADP, Household Department, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, NY 11717. Stockholders sharing an address who wish to receive a single set of reports may do so by contacting their banks or brokers, if they are beneficial holders, or by contacting ADP at the address set forth above, if they are record holders.

PROXY SOLICITATION

The Company will pay the cost of preparing and mailing this proxy statement and form of proxy to its stockholders. The Company has retained D.F. King & Co., Inc. to request banks and brokers to forward copies of these materials to persons for whom they hold common stock and to request authority for execution of proxies. The Company has agreed to pay D.F. King & Co., Inc. a fee of $6,500 for these services, plus out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements.
