PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant has encountered unanticipated delays in preparing its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006. These delays, which could not be eliminated by the Registrant without undue effort or expense, relate to the completion by the Registrant of its accounting for its nutritional supplement business, a business that was acquired during the year ended December 31, 2006. The Registrant is working diligently to complete these tasks and intends to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 as soon as possible, but in any event on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date.

(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As the Registrant has not completed the accounting for its nutritional supplement business, the Registrant is presently unable to make a reasonable determination of the anticipated change or changes to the results of operations from the last fiscal year. However, since the year ended December 31, 2006 will include approximately four months of results from this newly acquired business, results for the year ended December 31, 2006 are likely to reflect significant changes from the results for the year ended December 31, 2005.
