Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

In a letter dated February 23, 2013, four current directors of Gleacher & Company, Inc. (the "Company"), Henry S. Bienen, Robert A. Gerard, Bruce Rohde and Robert S. Yingling, informed the Company that they do not intend to stand for re-election at the Company's 2013 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") scheduled to be on May 23, 2013. The letter also stated that, should the situation change in the interim, they may be willing to reconsider their decision not to stand. The directors' decision not to stand for re-election was not the result of any disagreement with the Company relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices.

In a letter dated May 9, 2013, Messrs. Bienen, Gerard, Rohde and Yingling confirmed to the Company their intent to resign as directors of the Company on May 23, 2013, the date of the Annual Meeting. The letter stated that, in light of statements by the Company's principal stockholder that it continues to be open to the possibility of voting for these directors to remain on the Board should they reconsider their decision and stand for election, so that this issue can be finally put to rest and for the purpose of providing clarity to the Company, these directors informed the Company that they intend to resign as directors of the Company on May 23, 2013. The directors' decision to resign effective May 23, 2013 was not the result of any disagreement with the Company relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices.

The May 9, 2013 letter described above, together with its attachments, is included as an exhibit hereto as requested by the directors named above.
