Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 9, 2015, Adamas Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the Company) and Forest Laboratories, LLC and Forest Laboratories Holdings, subsidiaries of Allergan plc, (collectively, Forest) entered into a settlement agreement relating to the patent infringement litigation brought against Amneal Pharmaceuticals LLC (Amneal) for its submission of an abbreviated new drug application (ANDA) seeking approval to market generic versions of Forest s Namenda XR® (memantine hydrochloride) extended release capsules. Under the terms of the settlement, Forest and Adamas grant Amneal a license to market generic versions of Namenda XR beginning on January 31, 2020, or in the alternative, Amneal has an option to launch an authorized generic version of Namenda XR® beginning on January 31, 2021. The Company believes that Amneal is the first applicant to file an ANDA containing a paragraph IV certification regarding Namenda XR. The patent litigation remains ongoing with several of the Namenda XR filers. In August 2015, the Company and Forest brought suit against ANDA filers in connection with Namzaric (memantine hydrochloride extended-release and donepezil hydrochloride).
