Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5.03. Amendment to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On November 14, 2018, AECOM's (the Company) Board of Directors (the Board) adopted amendments to AECOM's Amended and Restated Bylaws (as amended and restated, the Bylaws) to implement majority voting in uncontested elections of directors and plurality voting in contested elections, commencing with the Company's 2020 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. In uncontested director elections, directors will be elected by a majority of the votes cast, which means that the number of shares voted for a director must exceed the number of shares voted against that director. In addition, the Board approved amendments to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines to provide that commencing with the Company's 2020 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, any director who is not elected by a majority of the votes cast is expected to tender his or her offer of resignation to the Nominating and Governance Committee. The Nominating and Governance Committee will recommend to the Board whether to accept or reject the resignation offer, or whether other actions should be taken. The Board will act on the Nominating and Governance Committee's recommendation within 90 days following certification of the election results.
