Terwilliger, to $300,000 annually, effective June 1, 2006.

On May 17, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Company approved a revised compensation structure for non-employee directors, effective immediately. Under the new compensation structure, non-employee directors will be entitled to: (1) an annual retainer of $6,000 payable in quarterly installments, (2) an annual retainer of $2,000 per committee on which a director serves, payable in quarterly installments, (3) an annual retainer of $2,500 for service as audit committee chair, payable in quarterly installments, (4) an annual retainer of $1,500 for service as chair of committees other than the audit committee, payable in quarterly installments, (5) a grant of 20,000 stock options on initial election or appointment as a director exercisable at fair market value on the date of grant for a term of 10 years, and (6) a grant of 10,000 stock options immediately following each subsequent shareholders meeting at which a director stands for reelection and is reelected.

In connection with his appointment as a director, as disclosed in Item 5.02 below, on May 17, 2006, the Company issued 20,000 options, exercisable at $4.10 per share, to John P. Boylan.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On May 17, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Company approved an increase in the size of the board to five persons and appointed John P. Boylan as a director of the Company.

Mr. Boylan, age 39, has served as Chief Financial Officer and Director of Business Development of Atasca Resources, an independent oil and gas exploration and production company, since 2003. Since 1996 Mr. Boylan has also served as owner/operator of Boylan Energy Corporation, an independent oil and gas exploration company. Mr. Boylan's energy industry experience also includes serving as President, CEO and Managing Partner of Birdwell Partners, an oil field services company, from 1999 to 2003 and service as Chief Financial Officer and Director of Business Development of Prolithic Energy Company, an independent oil and gas exploration company, from 1998 to 2002. Prior to entering the energy business, Mr. Boylan was a consultant and senior auditor providing professional services in a range of accounting, financial and project management roles, including service as a senior auditor for KPMG Peat Marwick from 1988 to 1990, service as a project management consultant for R.L. Townsend & Associates from 1990 to 1991 and service as senior associate project management consultant for Coopers & Lybrand Consulting from 1991 to 1995. Mr. Boylan holds a Bachelors Degree in Accounting from the University of Texas and an MBA Degree in Finance, Economics and International Business from New York University. Mr. Boylan is a Certified Public Accountant.

There were no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Boylan and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Boylan was appointed as a director.
