Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 23, 2012, Tredegar Corporation (the “Company”), as borrower, entered into a $350,000,000, five-year, revolving, unsecured credit facility (the “Credit Agreement”) with the lenders named therein, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, SunTrust Bank, as syndication agent, Citizens Bank of Pennsylvania, HSBC Bank USA, National Association, PNC Bank, National Association, and U.S. Bank National Association, as co-documentation agents, and the other lenders party thereto (collectively, the “Lenders”). Subject to certain terms and conditions, the Company may increase the original principal amount of the Credit Agreement by an additional $75,000,000. Additionally, certain of the Company’s material domestic subsidiaries, as guarantors (the “Guarantors”), entered into a separate guaranty agreement (the “Guaranty”), pursuant to which the Guarantors guarantee to the Lenders all of the obligations of the Company and each other Guarantor under the Credit Agreement, any notes and the other loan documents, including any obligations under hedging and treasury management arrangements. From time to time, the Company may be required to cause additional material domestic subsidiaries to become guarantors under the Guaranty.

The Credit Agreement replaces the Company’s $300,000,000 revolving, unsecured credit agreement with the lenders named therein and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, dated June 21, 2010 (the “Existing Credit Agreement”). The Existing Credit Agreement was terminated on April 23, 2012. In connection with the termination of the Existing Credit Agreement, on April 23, 2012 the Company borrowed $102,000,000 under the Credit Agreement, all of the proceeds of which (plus the available cash on hand) were used to fully repay all indebtedness under the Existing Credit Agreement.

The Credit Agreement provides for revolving credit loans to the Company in multiple currencies. Such borrowings will bear interest at a rate per annum equal to, at the option of the Company, (i) the greatest of (A) JPMorgan Chase Bank’s prime rate and a margin that fluctuates based upon the Company’s leverage ratio, (B) the weighted average of the rates on overnight federal funds transactions with members of the Federal Reserve System arranged by federal funds brokers, plus ½ of 1% and a margin that fluctuates based upon the Company’s leverage ratio or (C) the Adjusted LIBO Rate (as defined below) for a one month interest period plus 1% and a margin that fluctuates based upon the Company’s leverage ratio (the “Alternate Base Rate”) or (ii) a rate based upon the London interbank offered rate multiplied by a statutory reserve rate plus any mandatory costs (in the case of loans by a Lender from its office in the United Kingdom or any participating member state) and a margin that fluctuates based upon the Company’s leverage ratio (the “Adjusted LIBO Rate”); provided that loans bearing interest at the Alternate Base Rate may only be made in dollars. The Credit Agreement also permits the issuance of letters of credit and swingline loans.

The Credit Agreement contains representations, warranties, covenants, terms and conditions customary for transactions of this type, including maximum leverage ratio, minimum interest coverage ratio and minimum consolidated shareholders’ equity financial covenants, limitations on liens, incurrence of debt, investments, mergers and asset dispositions, covenants to preserve corporate existence and comply with laws, covenants on the use of proceeds of the credit facility and default provisions, including defaults for non-payment, breach of representations and warranties, insolvency, non-performance of covenants, cross-defaults and guarantor defaults. The occurrence of an event of default under the Credit Agreement could result in all loans and other obligations becoming immediately due and payable and the facility being terminated.

The Company and its affiliates regularly engage the Lenders to provide other banking services. All of these engagements are negotiated at arm's length.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement and the Guaranty is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the entire Credit Agreement and the Guaranty, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 4.1 and 4.2, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.
