Item 3.02. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

The information set forth under Item 8.01 of this Form 8-K is incorporated herein by reference. TCP Capital Corp. (the “Company”) issued the Common Stock in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). The Company relied on this exemption from registration based in part on representations made by the initial purchaser. The shares of common stock issued from the conversion of the Note have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On June 7, 2016, the Company issued 2,011,900 shares of its common stock (the “Common Stock”) pursuant to the full conversion, at the holder’s option, of the $30 million in aggregate principal amount (plus accrued interest) of the 5.25% convertible note due 2021 (the “Note”) issued by the Company on April 18, 2016, to CNO Financial Investments Corp. The note was converted at a price of $15.02 per share of Common Stock, which was the Company’s net asset value on the date of conversion, and which included accumulated earnings prior to deduction of the $0.36 dividend payable on June 30, 2016 to shareholders of record on June 16, 2016. The pre-dividend NAV used in the conversion includes both undistributed net investment income and net realized and unrealized gains. There were no placement agent or underwriting fees incurred in connection with the transaction.

The Note was convertible (1) by the holder at its option in whole or in part at any time prior to maturity, or (2) automatically in its entirety on the date on which the closing price of the Common Stock was at or above the Company’s most recent publicly reported net asset value per share of Common Stock for at least ten trading days (whether or not consecutive) in a 20 consecutive trading day period.

Pursuant to the terms of the Note, the number of shares of Common Stock issuable to the holder upon conversion was equal to the quotient of (i) the outstanding principal balance of the Note plus accrued interest divided by (ii) the higher of (x) the closing price of the Common Shares on the conversion date and (y) the Company’s most recent publicly reported net asset value per Common Share as adjusted in good faith by or under the direction of the board of directors of the Company within 24 hours prior to the conversion date.

The information disclosed under this Item 8.01 is being furnished and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and shall not be deemed incorporated by reference into any filing made under the Securities Act of 1933, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.
