PROXY STATEMENT
FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
To be held July 27, 2007
INFORMATION CONCERNING SOLICITATION AND VOTING

General

The enclosed proxy solicitation is being made to the holders of record on June 27, 2007 of common stock of DGSE Companies, Inc., a Nevada corporation, on behalf of our board of directors for use at our Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on July 27, 2007, at 11:30 a.m. local time, which we refer to as our annual meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting. Our annual meeting will be held at our principal offices located at 2817 Forest Lane, Dallas, Texas 75234. We intend to mail or electronically deliver this proxy statement, the accompanying proxy card and Notice of Annual Meeting on or about July 12, 2007 to all stockholders entitled to vote at our annual meeting.

Solicitation

We will bear the entire cost of solicitation of proxies, including preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of this proxy statement, the proxy and any additional information furnished to stockholders. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding in their names shares of common stock beneficially owned by others to forward to such beneficial owners. We may reimburse persons representing beneficial owners of common stock for their costs of forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, telegram or personal solicitation by directors, officers or other regular employees of our company. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers or other regular employees for such services.

Voting Rights and Outstanding Shares

In order to conduct business at our annual meeting, a quorum must be present. The holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of common stock at our annual meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, constitutes a quorum under our bylaws. We will treat shares of our common stock represented by a properly signed and returned proxy, including abstentions and broker non-votes, as present at our annual meeting for the purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. If a quorum is not present, we anticipate that our annual meeting will be adjourned to solicit additional proxies.

We have designated a record date of June 27, 2007 for our annual meeting. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on the record date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at our annual meeting. At the close of business on the record date we had 9,479,003 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. On all matters to be voted upon at our annual meeting, each holder of record of common stock on the record date will be entitled to one vote for each share held.

All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, abstentions and broker non votes. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted towards the tabulation of votes cast on proposals presented to the stockholders for the purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and will have the same effect as negative votes. If you sign your proxy card or broker voting instruction card with no instructions, your shares will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of our Board.

Revocability of Proxies

Any person giving a proxy pursuant to this solicitation has the power to revoke it at any time before it is voted. It may be revoked by filing a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date with our corporate secretary at our principal offices, 2817 Forest Lane, Dallas, Texas 75234, Attention: Corporate Secretary, or it may be revoked by attending the meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy. If you have instructed your broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change those instructions.

Stockholder Proposals

Requirements for Stockholder Proposals to be Brought Before an Annual Meeting. For stockholder nominations to our board of directors or other proposals to be considered at an annual meeting of our stockholders, the stockholder must have given us timely notice of the proposal or nomination in writing to our corporate secretary pursuant to Rule 14a-4 (c) under the Exchange Act. To be timely for our 2008 annual meeting, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received by our corporate secretary at our principal executive offices not later than May 19, 2008.

Requirements for Stockholder Proposals to be Considered for Inclusion in DGSE's Proxy Materials. Stockholder proposals submitted pursuant to Rule 14a-8(e) under the Exchange Act for inclusion in our proxy materials and intended to be presented at our 2008 annual meeting must be received by our corporate secretary in writing not later than March 5, 2008 to be considered for inclusion in our proxy materials for that meeting. The proposal also must meet the other requirements of the rules of the SEC relating to stockholder proposals.

Copies of Annual Report

A copy of the our Annual Report on Form 10-K and on Form 10-K/A for our fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, as filed with the SEC, was previously mailed to you on or about April 20, 2007. We will furnish an additional copy of these reports to our stockholders without charge upon written request to the attention of our corporate secretary addressed to DGSE Companies, Inc., 2817 Forest Lane, Dallas, Texas 75234.

PROPOSAL ONE
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

There are seven nominees for election to our board of directors. Each director to be elected will hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until his or her successor is elected and has qualified, or until such director's earlier death, resignation or removal. Each nominee listed below is currently a director of our company. Four of the directors were elected by the stockholders at our 2006 annual meeting. Three of the directors, Richard M. Gozia, David Rector, and Mitchell T. Stoltz, were elected to our board on June 1, 2007, pursuant to the terms of the amended and restated agreement and plan of merger and reorganization related to our acquisition of Superior Galleries, Inc. We encourage our board members to attend our annual meetings of stockholders. Two of the four nominees who were members of our board at the time of the 2006 annual meeting of our stockholders attended that meeting.

Shares represented by executed proxies will be voted, if authority to do so is not withheld, for the election of the seven nominees named below. In the event that any nominee is unavailable for election as a result of an unexpected occurrence, those shares will be voted for the election of a substitute nominee proposed by our board or management. Each person nominated for election has agreed to serve if elected and management has no reason to believe that any nominee will be unable to serve.

The seven candidates receiving the highest number of affirmative votes cast at the meeting will be elected directors.

Our board of directors recommends a vote IN FAVOR of each named nominee

Corporate Governance Agreement

In connection with our acquisition of Superior Galleries, Inc. (Superior), in May 2007, we entered into a corporate governance agreement (the corporate governance agreement) with Stanford International Bank Ltd. (Stanford), our largest stockholder and a lender to Superior, and Dr. Smith, our second-largest stockholder, chairman and chief executive officer. Pursuant to the corporate governance agreement, subject to the applicable fiduciary duties of our board of directors and compliance with applicable law, we have agreed to recommend up to six nominees to constitute our board of directors.

Each of Dr. Smith and Mr. Oyster has the right to be nominated for election to our board as long as he serves as an executive officer of our company. In addition, Dr. Smith has the right to nominate two “independent directors” (as defined in the corporate governance agreement) for election to our board as long as he beneficially owns at least 10% of our outstanding shares of common stock. Dr. Smith has exercised this right to nominate Dr. Cordeiro and Mr. Alan-Lee for election to our board. Stanford has the right to nominate two “independent directors” (as defined in the corporate governance agreement) for election to our board as long as it beneficially owns at least 15% of our outstanding shares of common stock. Stanford has exercised this right to nominate Messrs. Stoltz and Gozia for election to our board.

BOARD AND COMMITTEE MATTERS AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE MATTERS

Corporate Governance

We maintain a corporate governance page on our website which includes our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which includes a whistleblower protection policy, and the charters for our committees of our board of directors. The corporate governance page can be found at www.DGSE.com, by clicking on “About Us,” and then on the “DGSE Code of Business Conduct & Ethics” link.

Our policies and practices reflect corporate governance initiatives that are designed to be compliant with the listing requirements of The NASDAQ Stock Market and the corporate governance requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, including:

A majority of our board members are independent of our company and our management;

All members of our standing board committee — the audit committee — are independent (within the meaning of the NASDAQ listing standards);

The independent members of our board meet regularly without the presence of management;

We have a clear code of business conduct and ethics that applies to our principal executive officers, our directors and all of our employees, and is monitored by our audit committee;

The charter of our audit committee clearly establishes its roles and responsibilities; and

We have a specific telephone number available to all employees, and our audit committee has procedures in place for the anonymous submission of employee complaints on accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters.

Board of Directors

Our board of directors currently has seven directors: Dr. L.S. Smith (Chairman), William H. Oyster, Dr. William P. Cordeiro, Craig Alan-Lee, Richard M. Gozia; David Rector, and Mitchell T. Stoltz. During 2006, our board had five directors: Dr. Smith, Messrs. Oyster, Cordeiro and Alan-Lee, and Paul Hagen. On March 28, 2007, Mr. Hagen resigned as a director of our board and on March 30, 2007, our board appointed Alfred W. Slayton as an independent director. On June 1, 2007, Mr. Slayton resigned as a director of our board, and our board appointed Mr. Rector as an independent director.

Our board met four times and acted by unanimous written consent once during 2006. All members of our board were present at each meeting.

Independence of the Board of Directors

Our company is a “controlled company” within the meaning of the NASDAQ listing standards because our two largest stockholders, Dr. Smith and Stanford, who have entered into a corporate governance agreement with our company and have filed Schedule 13Ds with the SEC as a group, collectively hold approximately 64% of the voting power of our company. Accordingly, we are not obligated to comply with the independent director requirements of the NASDAQ listing standards.

Pursuant to the corporate governance agreement, four of the directors which Stanford and Dr. Smith have the right to nominate must be “independent” within the meaning of the agreement. The agreement defines as independent a nominee or director who, amongst other things, is an individual our board has determined, in the case of a director standing for re-election, or our board is reasonably likely to determine, in the case of a new director nominee, to be independent within the meaning of the applicable listing rules of our principal trading market (currently The NASDAQ Stock Market) and the applicable rules under the Exchange Act.

After review of all relevant transactions or relationships between each director, or any of his or her family members, and us, our senior management and our independent registered public accounting firm, our board of directors has affirmatively determined that five of our seven directors — Dr. Cordeiro and Messrs. Alan-Lee, Gozia, Rector and Stoltz — are “independent” within the meaning of the applicable NASDAQ listing standards and our corporate governance agreement.

Executive Sessions

As required under the NASDAQ listing standards, during the calendar year ended December 31, 2006, our independent directors met at least twice in regularly scheduled executive sessions at which only independent directors were present.

Stockholder Communications with the Board of Directors

We have adopted a formal process by which stockholders may communicate with our board of directors. Our board recommends that stockholders initiate any communications with the board in writing and send them in care of the investor relations department by mail to our principal offices, 2817 Forest Lane, Dallas, Texas 75234. This centralized process will assist the board in reviewing and responding to stockholder communications in an appropriate manner. The name of any specific intended board recipient should be noted in the communication. The board has instructed the investor relations department to forward such correspondence only to the intended recipients; however, the board has also instructed the investor relations department, prior to forwarding any correspondence, to review such correspondence and, in its discretion, not to forward certain items if they are deemed of a personal, illegal, commercial, offensive or frivolous nature or otherwise inappropriate for the board's consideration. In such cases, that correspondence will be forwarded to our corporate secretary for review and possible response. This information is also contained on our website at www.DGSE.com.

Information Regarding the Board of Directors Committees

During 2006, the only standing committee of our board of directors was the audit committee. Because our company is a "controlled company" under the NASDAQ listing standards, our board is not obligated by those listing standards to have, and our board does not have, a nominating committee or a compensation committee, or any committees performing similar functions. The audit committee was established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58) of the Exchange Act. The current charter for our audit committee is included as Annex 1 and can also be found on our website at www.DGSE.com.

The audit committee oversees our corporate accounting and financial reporting processes. Among other functions, the audit committee:

- . oversees our financial reporting process on behalf of the board and reports the results of their activities to the board;
- . sets the overall corporate "tone" for quality financial reporting, sound business risk practices, and ethical behavior;
- . together with the board, evaluates and, where appropriate, replaces our independent registered public accounting firm;
- . discusses with our independent registered public accounting firm their independence from management and our company and the matters included in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board;
- . annually reviews and recommends to the board the selection of our independent registered public accounting firm;
- . reviews the interim financial statements with management prior to the filing of our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and discusses the results of the quarterly review and any other matters required to be communicated to the audit committee by the independent registered public accounting firm under generally accepted auditing standards; and
- . reviews with management and the independent registered public accounting firm the financial statements to be included in our annual report on Form 10-K (or the annual reports to our stockholders if distributed prior to the filing of a Form 10-K), including their judgment about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements, and discusses the results of the annual audit and any other matters required to be communicated to the audit committee by the independent registered public accounting firm under generally accepted auditing standards.

The audit committee has the authority to retain special legal, accounting or other advisors or consultants as it deems necessary or appropriate to carry out its duties. The audit committee is currently composed of Dr. William P. Cordeiro, Ph.D. (Chairman), David Rector and Craig Alan-Lee. During 2006, it was composed of Dr. Cordeiro and Messrs. Alan-Lee and Hagen. On March 28, 2007, Mr. Hagen resigned as a director of our board and from the audit committee and on March 30, 2007, our board appointed Alfred W. Slayton as an independent director and member of the audit committee. On June 1, 2007, Mr. Slayton resigned as a director of our board and from the audit committee, and our board appointed Mr. Rector as an independent director and member of the audit committee. The audit committee met four times during 2006.

Our board of directors annually reviews the NASDAQ listing standards definition of independence for audit committee members and has determined that all members of our audit committee are independent (as independence is currently defined in Rule 4350(d)(2)(A) of the NASDAQ listing standards). Our board of directors has determined that each member of the audit committee is able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including our company's balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement. Our board has also determined that Dr. Cordeiro and Mr. Rector each qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert," as defined in applicable SEC rules. In making such determinations, the board made a qualitative assessment of Dr. Cordeiro's and Mr. Rector's level of knowledge and experience based on a number of factors, including each individual's formal education and experience. See "Report of the Audit Committee."

The audit committee has discussed with BKR Cornwell Jackson, our independent registered public accounting firm, the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The audit committee has also received the written disclosures and the letter from BKR Cornwell Jackson required by Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussion with Audit Committees) and the audit committee has discussed with BKR Cornwell Jackson the independence of BKR Cornwell Jackson as auditors of the Company. Based on the foregoing, the audit committee recommended to the board that our audited financial statements be included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 for filing with the SEC.

Consideration of Director Nominees

Because our company is a "controlled company" for purposes of the NASDAQ listing standards, our board is not required by those listing standards either to have a nominating committee or to have director nominees selected, or recommended for the board's selection, either by a majority of the independent directors or a nominating committee comprised solely of independent directors. Our board has not established a standing nominating committee or a charter with respect to the nominating process. Instead, our entire board is involved in the director nomination process.

Our board is of the view that such a committee is unnecessary given that almost all directors are nominated pursuant to the corporate governance agreement and the fact that all directors are considered by and recommended to our stockholders by the full board, which is comprised of a majority of independent directors. If our board established such a committee, its membership would consist of the independent directors or a subset of them. To date, all director nominees recommended to the stockholders have been identified by stockholders, current directors or management, and we have never engaged a third party to identify director candidates.

Director Qualifications

Our board believes that new candidates for director should have certain minimum qualifications, including having the knowledge, capabilities, experience and contacts that complement those currently existing within our company; having the ability to meet contemporary public company board standards with respect to general governance; stewardship, depth of review, independence, financial certification, personal integrity and responsibility to stockholders; a genuine desire and availability to participate actively in the development of our future; and an orientation toward maximizing stockholder value in realistic time frames. The board also intends to consider such factors as ability to contribute strategically through relevant industry background and experience; independence from our company and current board members; and a recognizable name that would add credibility and value to our company and its stockholders. The board may modify these qualifications from time to time.

Evaluating Nominees for Director

Most of our nominees for election as directors are nominated pursuant to the corporate governance agreement. With respect to these nominees, our board reviews candidates to ensure they are “independent”, as defined in the corporate governance agreement. Under that agreement, a nominee is “independent” if he or she (i) is not and has never been an officer or employee of DGSE or Stanford or their respective affiliates or associates, or of any entity that derived 5% or more of its revenues or earnings in any of its three most recent fiscal years from transactions involving DGSE or Stanford or any affiliate or associate of any of them, (ii) has no affiliation, compensation, consulting or contracting arrangement with DGSE or Stanford or their respective affiliates or associates or any other entity such that a reasonable person would regard such individual as likely to be unduly influenced by management of DGSE or Stanford, respectively, or their respective affiliates or associates, and (iii) is a director our board has determined, or a nominee our board is reasonably likely to determine, to be “independent” within the meaning of the applicable listing rules of our principal trading market (currently The NASDAQ Stock Market) and Section 10A(m)(3) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10A-3(b)(1) promulgated thereunder.

With respect to nominees not nominated pursuant to the corporate governance agreement, our board reviews candidates for director nominees in the context of the current composition of our board, our operating requirements and the long-term interests of our stockholders. In conducting this assessment, our board currently considers, among other factors, diversity, age, skills, and such other factors as it deems appropriate given the current needs of our board and our company, to maintain a balance of knowledge, experience and capability. In the case of incumbent directors whose terms of office are set to expire, our board reviews the directors’ overall service to our company during his or her term, including the number of meetings attended, level of participation, quality of performance, and any other relationships and transactions that might impair the director’s independence. In the case of new director candidates, our board also determines whether the nominee must be independent, which determination is based upon applicable NASDAQ listing standards, applicable SEC rules and regulations and the advice of counsel, if necessary. Our board then uses its network of contacts to compile a list of potential candidates, but may also engage, if it deems appropriate, a professional search firm. Our board conducts any appropriate and necessary inquiries into the backgrounds and qualifications of possible candidates after considering the function and needs of our board. Our board meets to discuss and consider such candidates’ qualifications and then selects a nominee for recommendation to our stockholders by majority vote. To date, our board has not paid a fee to any third party to assist in the process of identifying or evaluating director candidates. To date, our board has not rejected a timely director nominee from a stockholder or group of stockholders that beneficially owned, in the aggregate, more than 5% of our voting stock.

Stockholder Nominations

The board applies the same guidelines (described above) to stockholder nominees as applied to nominees from other sources. Any stockholder who wishes to recommend a prospective director nominee for the board’s consideration may do so by giving the candidate’s name and qualifications in writing to our chairman of the board at our principal executive offices at 2817 Forest Lane, Dallas, Texas 75234. The proposing stockholder should also include his or her contact information and a statement of his or her share ownership, as well as any other information required by our bylaws.

Executive and Director Compensation

Because our company is a “controlled company” for purposes of the NASDAQ listing standards, our board is not required by those listing standards to have a compensation committee or to have compensation determined either by a majority of the independent directors or a compensation committee comprised solely of independent directors. Our board has not established a standing compensation committee or a charter with respect to the compensation process. Instead, our entire board is involved in the compensation process.

Until a compensation committee is established, our entire board of directors is responsible for reviewing all forms of compensation provided to our executive officers, directors, consultants and employees, including stock compensation, as described more fully under the Compensation Discussion and Analysis heading above. Our board does not employ compensation consultants in determining executive or director compensation.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Since we have elected to be classified as a “controlled company” within the meaning of the NASDAQ listing standards, we do not have a compensation committee of our board of directors, or any committee performing similar functions.

During 2006, none of our directors or executive officers is known by us to have served on the board of directors or compensation (or equivalent) committee of any entity one of whose directors or officers serves on our board of directors, except that on January 6, 2007, William H. Oyster, a director and named executive officer, became a director and executive officer of Superior Galleries, Inc.

Dr. Smith and Mr. Oyster, who are executive officers identified in the Summary Compensation Table below, served on our board of directors in 2006 and participated in deliberations of the board concerning executive officer compensation. No other current or past executive officers of our company serves on our board of directors.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

We have adopted a “Code of Business Conduct and Ethics,” a code of ethics that applies to all employees, including our executive officers. A copy of our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is posted on our internet site at www.DGSE.com. In the event we make any amendments to, or grant any waivers of, a provision of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to the principal executive officer, principal financial officer, or principal accounting officer that requires disclosure under applicable SEC rules, we intend to disclose such amendment or waiver and the reasons therefor on a Form 8-K or on our next periodic report.

PROPOSAL TWO
RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF
INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Our audit committee has selected BKR Cornwell Jackson as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2007. BKR Cornwell Jackson has served as our independent registered public accounting firm since October 2004 and audited our financial statements for the 2006 fiscal year. A representative of BKR Cornwell Jackson is expected to be present at the annual meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement if he or she desires to do so, and is expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Stockholder ratification of the selection of BKR Cornwell Jackson is not required by our bylaws or otherwise.

However, we are submitting the selection of BKR Cornwell Jackson to our stockholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate governance. If our stockholders fail to ratify the selection, our audit committee will consider whether or not to retain that firm. Even if the selection is ratified, our audit committee in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interest of our company and our stockholders.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the meeting, either in person or by proxy, is required to ratify the selection of BKR Cornwell Jackson. Abstentions will be counted toward the tabulation of votes cast on proposals presented to the stockholders for the purpose of determining a quorum and will have the same effect as negative votes. Broker non votes are counted towards a quorum, but are not counted for any purpose in determining whether this matter has been approved.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

All audit and non-audit services are pre-approved by our audit committee, which considers, among other things, the possible effect of the performance of such services on the registered public accounting firm's independence. Our audit committee pre-approves the annual engagement of the principal independent registered public accounting firm, including the performance of the annual audit and quarterly reviews for the subsequent fiscal year, and pre-approves specific engagements for tax services performed by such firm. Our audit committee has also established pre-approval policies and procedures for certain enumerated audit and audit related services performed pursuant to the annual engagement agreement, including such firm's attendance at and participation at board and committee meetings;

services of such firm associated with SEC registration statements, periodic reports and other documents filed with the SEC or other documents issued in connection with securities offerings, such as comfort letters and consents; such firm's assistance in responding to any SEC comments letters; and consultations with such firm as to the accounting or disclosure treatment of transactions or events and/or the actual or potential impact of final or proposed rules, standards or interpretations by the SEC, Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB), Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), or other regulatory or standard-setting bodies. Our audit committee is informed of each service performed pursuant to its pre-approval policies and procedures.

Our audit committee has considered the role of BKR Cornwell Jackson in providing services to us for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 and has concluded that such services are compatible with the firm's independence.
