On May 22, 2008, Ingersoll-Rand Global Holding Company Limited (the “Company”), a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Ingersoll-Rand Company Limited (“Parent”), entered into a new commercial paper program (the “Program”) on a private placement basis under which the Company may issue unsecured commercial paper notes (the “Notes”) up to a maximum aggregate amount outstanding at any time of up to $3 billion. Under the Program, the Company may issue commercial paper from time to time, and the proceeds of the commercial paper financing will be used for general corporate purposes. Amounts available under the Program may be re-borrowed. Parent has provided an irrevocable and unconditional guarantee for the Notes issued as part of the Program.

J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., Banc of America Securities LLC, Citigroup Global Markets Inc., and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. will act as dealers under the Program (collectively, the “Dealers”) pursuant to the terms and conditions of their respective Commercial Paper Dealer Agreements with the Company (each, a “Dealer Agreement” and collectively, the “Dealer Agreements”). JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, will act as issuing and paying agent under the Program (the “Agent”) pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Issuing and Paying Agency Agreement (the “IPA Agreement”). The Dealers and the Agent and certain of their respective affiliates have performed and/or may in the future perform various commercial banking, investment banking and other financial advisory services for the Company, Parent and its subsidiaries for which they have received and/or will receive customary fees and expenses.

The Dealer Agreements provide the terms under which the Dealers will either purchase from the Company or arrange for the sale by the Company of Notes pursuant to an exemption from federal and state securities laws. The Dealer Agreements contain customary representations, warranties, covenants and indemnification provisions. The maturities of the Notes will vary, but may not exceed 397 days from the date of issue. The Notes are not redeemable or subject to voluntary prepayment by the Company prior to maturity. The principal amount of outstanding Notes under the Program may not exceed $3 billion. The IPA Agreement provides for the issuance and payment of the Notes and contains customary representations, warranties, covenants and indemnification provisions.

The description above is a summary of the IPA Agreement and the Dealer Agreements and is qualified in its entirety by the IPA Agreement and the Dealer Agreements, which are attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, 10.2, 10.3, 10.4 and 10.5, and are incorporated by reference herein.
