INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN THE REPORT

Section 5 – Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On December 1, 2009, Mr. Joseph M. Zachman, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, resigned from Wabash National Corporation (the “Company”) effective immediately. Mr. Zachman has been a key member of the Company’s leadership team for the past four and a half years and has contributed greatly to improve the overall operational execution of our manufacturing businesses. However, in light of the current economic environment, including the depressed demand levels within the trailer industry, the Company is continuously challenged to look at its organizational structure to assure it is sized properly and effectively for the current operating environment. Mr. Zachman’s resignation is a result of this depressed demand environment. Mr. Zachman is expected to execute a general release and receive the severance benefits described in the Company’s proxy statement for its 2009 annual meeting of stockholders, including under the heading “Executive Severance Plan.”
