EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 1 to our Annual Report on Form 10-K/A, amends our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, originally filed with the SEC on March 31, 2010. The purpose of this amendment is to include certain information required by Part III of Form 10-K that was omitted from Part III of the our initial filing because it was to be incorporated by reference to our definitive proxy statement for the 2010 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Because our proxy statement will not become definitive within 120 days after the end of the fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, the information required by Part III cannot be incorporated by reference and therefore must be filed as an amendment to our annual report on Form 10-K to be included therein. This amendment contains the information that was previously omitted from Part III of our original filing of our annual report on Form 10-K

In addition, in connection with the filing of this amendment and pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have reissued their certifications. Accordingly, Item 15 has also been amended to reflect the filing of such certifications. Except as described above, no other changes have been made to our annual report on Form 10-K. Our annual report on Form 10-K continues to speak as of the dates described in the annual report on Form 10-K, and we have not updated the disclosures contained therein to reflect any events that occurred subsequent to such dates. Accordingly, this amendment should be read in conjunction with our filings made with the Securities and Exchange Commission subsequent to the filing of our annual report on Form 10-K, as information in such filings may update or supersede certain information contained in this amendment. In this amendment, unless the context indicates otherwise, the terms “we,” “us,” and “our” refer to Patient Safety Technologies, Inc. and our subsidiary.

The severance will be paid in cash in a lump-sum except in the event of disability, in which case it will be paid over 12 months. Mr. Kane is also entitled to receive a pro-rata bonus payment, 12 months of continued health & welfare benefits, and his stock options will continue to vest for 12 months following any such termination. In the event of Mr. Kane's death, upon execution of a release, his heirs will receive a lump sum cash payment equal to his then annual base salary, and accelerated vesting of the next six months of his stock options. If Mr. Kane's employment is terminated for cause or he resigns other than for good reason, Mr. Kane is not entitled to any severance or other benefits. In the event of a change in control (even if Mr. Kane's employment is not terminated), all of Mr. Kane's unvested stock options (and deferred compensation, if any) will immediately vest, and Mr. Kane will be paid, within 45 days, cash payment equal to two times his annual base salary then in effect. Mr. Kane is also entitled to a tax gross-up payment in the event any payments from the company constitute an "excess parachute payment" under Section 280G(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Marc L. Rose. Subject to a limited exception for violations of the non-compete covenant in Mr. Rose's employment agreement, in the event Mr. Rose's employment is terminated without cause, or if he resigns for good reason (which includes resignation within two years of a change in control) or is due to his disability, Mr. Rose is entitled to a severance payment capped at his then annual base salary (which shall accrue during the first 12 months of his employment), a pro rated bonus and 12 months of health & welfare benefits (which shall accrue during the first 12 months of his employment). In the event of Mr. Rose's death, his heirs will receive a lump sum cash payment equal to his annual base salary. In the event of a change in control, all of Mr. Rose's unvested stock options (and deferred compensation, if any) will immediately vest. Mr. Rose is also entitled to a tax gross-up payment in the event any payments from the company constitute an "excess parachute payment" under Section 280G(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Under Mr. Adams' employment agreement, in connection with his January 2009 resignation as Chief Executive Officer, we did not pay Mr. Adams any severance. We did, however, continue to pay his salary as "consulting fees" through April 2009, as well as health & welfare benefits and a car allowance. Mr. Adams still provides services as a consultant, and as such, his stock options remain outstanding in accordance with their terms.

Under Mr. Bruce's Separation Agree and General Release dated May 6, 2009, we agreed to pay Mr. Bruce all wages and compensation due through the termination date, including accrued and unused vacation and reimbursable business-related expenses. We also agreed to pay Mr. Bruce his pro-rata annual base salary (which was $325,000) for 30-day period following termination, offset by the partial payment of May 2009 compensation. All of Mr. Bruce's unvested equity awards were terminated in connection with his termination of employment.

We did not pay Mary Lay any severance in connection with her cessation of employment with our company following our appointment of Mr. Rose as Chief Financial Officer. Ms. Lay's stock options are fully vested and have a ten year term from grant date.

Except as provided in the current employment contracts of Messrs. Kane and Rose, there exists no plan or arrangement calling for compensation on the retirement or resignation or termination of any named executive officer's employment with our company. The Compensation Committee (or the full Board) will consider, consistent with its duties, the terms of any such agreements, plans or arrangements in the future as appropriate.

Narrative Discussion of Director Compensation

During the year ended December 31, 2009, we did not have in place any formal plans or programs providing for the payment of compensation to our non-employee Directors. Payment (or accrual) of attendance fees to our non-employee directors for service on our Board or Board Committees was determined and approved on an ad hoc basis. As such, we did not pay or accrue any fees for service on our Board of Directors or Board Committees other than fees paid to Mr. Kane prior to his appointment as our President and Chief Executive Officer in May 2009 (which fees are reported in "Executive Compensation"). Similarly, equity grants were determined and approved on an ad hoc basis. As such, we did not grant any equity awards to our non-employee Directors for service on our Board of Directors or Board Committees other than the June 2009 equity grants to Messrs. Chase and McFarland upon appointment to our Board. Other than the foregoing, Directors received only reimbursement of reasonable expenses for attendance at meetings of our Board of Directors and annual stockholders meeting.

Related Party Transactions

Langsam Notes

Herbert Langsam, a member of our Board of Directors, provided financing to our company in exchange for interest payments, a security interest in our assets and in the case of the second note, equity interests in our company. Until repaid in December 2009, we had outstanding a $500,000 secured promissory note dated May 1, 2006 due November 1, 2006, and a $100,000 secured promissory note dated November 13, 2006 due May 13, 2007, both made out to the Herbert Langsam Irrevocable Trust. These notes were secured by the grant of a security interest in all of our assets as collateral for the satisfaction and performance of our obligations pursuant to these notes. The notes accrued interest at the rate of 12% per annum (or 16% per annum when we were in default).

We granted Mr. Langsam 25,000 shares of our common stock in each of December 2008 and October 2009, in connection with the extension of the dates of both notes. During the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, we incurred interest expense, excluding amortization of debt discount, of $60,682 and $48,395, respectively, on these notes. We currently have outstanding a $2.5 million convertible secured promissory note due December 31, 2010 that bears interest at the rate of 7% per annum made out to Ault Glazer. In September 2008, we entered into various agreements with Ault Glazer to modify the terms of the note to provide for conversion, prior to maturity, upon Ault Glazer’s satisfaction of certain conditions, into 1,300,000 shares of our common stock and $450,000 in cash payments, as well as advancement of shares of our common stock prior to conversion of the note. We made the agreed upon $450,000 cash payment on September 5, 2008 and have advanced an aggregate 800,000 shares of our common stock to Ault Glazer.

As of this date, there remain 500,000 shares issuable to Ault Glazer upon Ault Glazer meeting the conditions of the Amendment. During the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, we incurred interest expense of $0 and $127,637 on this note.

These notes were not repaid at maturity and were converted into new notes as party of our January 2009 offering of senior secured notes. On December 15, 2009, we repaid the senior secured notes and accrued interest.

During the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, we paid Catalysis $78,090 and $47,381 of interest.

ITEM 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

Principal Accountant Fees and Services

With respect to the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008, the aggregate fees billed by Squar, Milner, Peterson, Miranda & Williamson LLP were as follows:

	For the year ended December 31,
	2009	2008
Audit Fees	$ 234,648	$ 195,000
Audit-Related Fees	10,068	$ 4,000
Tax Fees	—	$ 13,000
All Other Fees	—	—
Total Fees	$ 244,716	$ 212,000

Audit Fees. Audit fees consist of fees billed for professional services rendered for the audit of our year-end consolidated financial statements and reviews of the interim consolidated financial statements included in quarterly reports and services that are normally provided by independent registered public accounting firms in connection with statutory and regulatory filings.

Audit-Related Fees. Audit-related fees consist of fees billed for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of our consolidated financial statements and are not reported under “Audit Fees.” These services include attest services that are not required by statute or regulation and consultations concerning financial accounting and reporting standards.

Tax Fees. Tax fees consist of fees billed for professional services for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. These services include assistance regarding federal, state and local tax compliance.

All Other Fees. All other fees would include fees for products and services other than the services reported above.

Policies and Procedures Relating to Approval of Services by Auditor

The Audit Committee has responsibility for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditors. The Audit Committee will consider whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independent auditor’s independence, and will approve such services, should such a situation arise.

Consistent with SEC rules regarding auditor independence, the Audit Committee has responsibility for appointing, as well as setting the compensation and overseeing the work of, the independent registered public accounting firm. In addition, although permitted by Section 202 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 to pre-approve the provisions of audit and non-audit services by our independent auditor, the Audit Committee does not currently have in place formal pre-approval policies and procedures. As such, the Audit Committee currently approves each engagement of our independent auditor for audit and permitted non-audit services. Thus, all services provided by Squar, Milner, Peterson, Miranda & Williamson LLP during 2009, as described above, were approved by the Audit Committee in advance of Squar, Milner, Peterson, Miranda & Williamson LLP providing such services.

EXHIBIT INDEX

Agreements included as exhibits to this annual report on Form 10-K are included to provide information regarding their terms and are not intended to provide any other factual or disclosure information about our company (including its consolidated subsidiary) or the other parties to the agreements. Where an agreement contains representations and warranties by any party, those representations and warranties have been made solely for the benefit of the other parties to the agreement or express third-party beneficiaries as explicitly set forth in the agreement. Any such representations and warranties:

- should not be treated as categorical statements of fact, but rather as an allocation of risk;
- may have been qualified by disclosures that were made to the other party in connection with the negotiation of the applicable agreement, which disclosures are not necessarily reflected in the agreement;
