The professional expertise and client coverage of these two leading banks were key drivers for the successful execution of this transaction, which was widely oversubscribed. In this occasion, we were pleased to see the participation of several of our long-time partners, and we also welcomed a significant number of first time investors, further reinforcing the presence of our franchise in different geographies and markets. We would like to thank all of them for their trust in our Bank, and their commitment to the Latin American and Caribbean Region, which Bladex has been proudly supporting for more than three decades.”
