WIDEPOINT CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unaudited)

1. Organization and Nature of Operations

Organization

WidePoint Corporation (“WidePoint” or the “Company”) was incorporated in Delaware on May 30, 1997. The Company is a global provider of information technology (IT) based products, services, and solutions. The Company offers secure, cloud-based, enterprise-wide information technology-based solutions that enable commercial markets, and federal and state government organizations, to deploy fully compliant IT services in accordance with government-mandated regulations and advanced system requirements. The Company has sales and operational offices strategically located throughout the continental United States, Ireland, the Netherlands and the United Kingdom. The Company’s principal executive and administrative headquarters is located in McLean, Virginia.

Nature of Operations

The Company has grown through the targeted acquisition of specialized IT companies that now provide a complementary suite of products and services for its Managed Mobility Solutions (MMS) offering. The Company’s MMS offers a portfolio of information technology based services and products with a set of streamlined mobile communications management, identity management, telecommunications data intelligence and consulting solutions that provide its customers with the ability to manage and protect their valuable communications assets and deploy compliant identity management solutions that provide secured virtual and physical access to restricted environments. Many of the Company’s solutions are accessible on-demand through cloud computing and provide customers with the ability to remotely manage their workforce mobility and identity management requirements in accordance with internal policies, the marketplace and the demands of its customers. The Company may authorize the use of discretionary operating capital to fund the development of MMS offerings, functionality and/or streamline the operation of its proprietary applications.

The Company’s operating results may vary significantly from quarter-to-quarter, due to revenues earned on contracts, the number of billable days in a quarter, the timing of the pass-through of costs, the commencement and completion of contracts during any particular quarter, the schedule of the government agencies for awarding contracts, the term of each contract awarded and general economic conditions. A significant portion of the Company’s expenses, such as personnel and facilities costs, are fixed in the short term, successful contract performance and variation in the volume of activity as well as in the number of contracts commenced or completed during any quarter may cause significant variations in operating results from quarter to quarter.

2. Basis of Presentation and Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2015 and for each of the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, respectively, included herein have been prepared by the Company, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Pursuant to such regulations, certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") have been condensed or omitted. It is the opinion of management that all adjustments (which include normal recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair statement of financial results are reflected in the financial statements for the interim periods presented. The condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2014 was derived from the audited condensed consolidated financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014. The results of operations for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2015 are not indicative of the operating results for the full year.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, its wholly owned subsidiaries and acquired entities since their respective dates of acquisition. All significant inter-company amounts were eliminated in consolidation.

Foreign Currency

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars based upon exchange rates prevailing at the end of each reporting period. The resulting translation adjustments, along with any related tax effects, are included in accumulated other comprehensive (loss) income, a component of stockholders' equity. Translation adjustments are reclassified to earnings upon the sale or substantial liquidation of investments in foreign operations. Revenues and expenses are translated at the average month-end exchange rates during the year. Gains and losses related to transactions in a currency other than the functional currency, including operations outside the U.S. where the functional currency is the U.S. dollar, are reported net in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations, depending on the nature of the activity.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The more significant areas requiring use of estimates and judgment relate to the timing of revenue recognition, accounts receivable valuation reserves, ability to realize intangible assets and goodwill, ability to realize deferred income tax assets, fair value of assets and liabilities acquired in connection with a business combination, fair value of certain financial instruments and the evaluation of contingencies and litigation. Management bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Significant Accounting Policies

There have been no significant changes in the Company's significant accounting policies during the first nine months of 2015 from those disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 filed with the SEC on March 16, 2015.

Segment Reporting

The Company's MMS offering is a portfolio of enterprise-wide information technology-based services that comprise a single MMS business from which the Company earns revenues and incurs costs. The Company's MMS offerings are centrally managed and reported on that basis to its Chief Operating Decision Maker who evaluates its MMS business as a single segment. See Note 13 for detailed information regarding the composition of MMS services.

Accounting Standards Update

In April 2015, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2015-03, Interest—Imputation of Interest, which requires that debt issuance costs related to a recognized debt liability be presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of that debt liability, consistent with debt discounts. The recognition and measurement guidance for debt issuance costs are not affected by the amendments in this update. The new standard is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2015, and interim periods within those fiscal years. Early adoption is permitted for financial statements that have not been previously issued. The standard should be applied on a retrospective basis and accounted for as a change in accounting principle. Upon transition, an entity is required to comply with the applicable disclosures for a change in an accounting principle. The Company is evaluating the effect that ASU 2015-03 may have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures.

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, or ASU 2014-09, which requires an entity to recognize the amount of revenue to which it expects to be entitled for the transfer of promised goods or services to customers. The standard will replace most existing revenue recognition guidance in GAAP when it becomes effective. The standard allows for either full retrospective or modified retrospective adoption method. In July 2015, the FASB deferred the effective date to January 1, 2018 with early adoption beginning January 1, 2017. The Company is currently evaluating the effect that ASU 2014-09 will have on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company has not yet selected a transition method, adoption date, or determined the effect of the standard on its ongoing financial reporting.

3. Business Combinations

There were no business combinations during the nine month period ended September 30, 2015.

On May 1, 2014, WidePoint Global Solutions, Inc. (“WGS”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company entered into a Share Sale and Purchase Agreement (the “Agreement”), with Gutteridge Limited (“Gutteridge”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Soft-Ex Holdings Limited (“SHL”), and the shareholders of Soft-Ex Holdings Limited, pursuant to which WGS purchased all of the outstanding equity of Soft-ex Communications Limited (“SCL”). As a result of this transaction, SCL became a wholly-owned subsidiary of WidePoint. WidePoint acquired all of the outstanding equity of SCL for $6.0 million. The purchase price for the outstanding equity of SCL consisted of (i) the payment at closing of cash in the amount of $5 million, subject to a post-closing net working capital adjustment, and (ii) the delivery of a contingent subordinated unsecured loan note in the principal amount of $1.0 million (the “Contingent Note”). The Company’s outstanding Contingent Note was paid in full on May 30, 2015 as further described in Note 8. See Note 4 for additional information regarding the fair value of the Contingent Note.

Supplemental Unaudited Pro Forma Information

The following unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statements of operations of WidePoint for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2014 have been prepared as if the acquisition of SCL had occurred at January 1, 2014:

	THREE MONTHS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2014 (a) (Unaudited)	NINE MONTHS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2014 (a)

Diluted (loss) earnings per share	$(0.081)	$ (0.107))

(a) To reflect on a pro forma basis unaudited consolidated financial information for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2014 for WidePoint. The unaudited financial information presented herein were derived from historical internally prepared financial statements for SCL and WidePoint’s Form 10-Q quarterly unaudited financial statements. SCL's financial statements are prepared in accordance with Irish GAAP, as such additional adjustments were made to convert SCL Irish GAAP presentation to a US GAAP presentation to align with WidePoint's accounting policies. SCL's reporting currency unit is the Euro. SCL's US GAAP unaudited historical statement of operations for the three and nine month period ended June 30, 2014 were translated into WidePoint's reporting currency using an average USD/EURO rate of $1.3266 and $1.3560, respectively.

4. Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, based on the Company's principal or, in the absence of a principal, most advantageous market for the specific asset or liability. GAAP provides for a three-level hierarchy of inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value, defined as follows:

Level 1 - Inputs that are quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the entity can access.

Level 2 Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either - directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the asset or liability, including:

§ Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets,

§ Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active,

§ Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, and

§ Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3 - Inputs that are unobservable and reflect the Company's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would likely use in pricing the asset or liability based on the best information available in the circumstances (e.g., internally derived assumptions surrounding the timing and amount of expected cash flows).

The Company monitors applicable market conditions and evaluates the fair value hierarchy levels as they pertain to the Company at least quarterly. For any transfers in and out of the levels of the fair value hierarchy, the Company elects to disclose the fair value measurement at the beginning of the reporting period during which the transfer occurred. There were no transfers into or out of Level 3 for the three or nine month periods ended September 30, 2015 or 2014.

The Company measured the fair value of contingent seller financed promissory notes presented on the condensed consolidated balance sheets at fair value on a recurring basis using significantly unobservable inputs (Level 3) during the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2015 and during the year ended December 31, 2014. The Company's outstanding obligations under the contingent seller financed promissory note were paid in full on May 30, 2015 as further described in Note 8.

Income Taxes

The Company files U.S. federal income tax returns with the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) as well as income tax returns in various states and certain foreign countries. The Company may be subject to examination by the IRS or various state taxing jurisdictions for tax years 2003 and forward. The Company may be subject to examination by various foreign countries for tax years 2014 forward. As of September 30, 2015, the Company was not under examination by the IRS, any state or foreign tax jurisdiction. The Company did not have any unrecognized tax benefits at either September 30, 2015 or December 31, 2014. In the future if applicable, any interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions will be recognized in income tax expense.

As of September 30, 2015, the Company had recorded a deferred tax asset of approximately $6.1 million reflecting the benefit of approximately $21.2 million in net operating loss (NOL) carry forwards available to offset future taxable income for federal income tax purposes, net of the potential Section 382 limitations. These federal NOL carry forwards expire between 2017 and 2034. Included in the recorded deferred tax asset, the Company had a benefit of approximately $18.3 million available to offset future taxable income for state income tax purposes. These state NOL carry forwards expire between 2024 and 2034. Because of the change of ownership provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, use of a portion of our domestic NOL may be limited in future periods. Further, a portion of the carryforwards may expire before being applied to reduce future income tax liabilities.

Management assesses the available positive and negative evidence to estimate if sufficient future taxable income will be generated to use the existing deferred tax assets. Under existing income tax accounting standards such objective evidence is more heavily weighted in comparison to other subjective evidence such as our projections for future growth, tax planning and other tax strategies. A significant piece of objective negative evidence considered in management's evaluation of the realizability of its deferred tax assets was the existence of cumulative losses over the latest three-year period. Management forecast future taxable income, but concluded that there may not be enough of a recovery before the end of the fiscal year to overcome the negative objective evidence of three years of cumulative losses. On the basis of this evaluation, management recorded a valuation allowance of $6.1 million against all deferred tax assets during the nine month period ended September 30, 2015. If management's assumptions change and we determine we will be able to realize these deferred tax assets, the tax benefits relating to any reversal of the valuation allowance on deferred tax assets will be accounted for as a reduction of income tax expense.

For additional information related to our business operations see the description of our business set forth in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 filed with the SEC on March 16, 2015.

Sources of Significant Operational and Administrative Expense

A significant source of operational costs consists of salaries and benefits paid to our technical, marketing and administrative personnel. These costs are largely fixed and may not be adjusted as quickly in the event there is a rapid expansion or reduction of the scope of work associated with a customer contract. Another significant source of operational costs are payments to technical subcontractor labor and vendor-related costs in connection with the delivery of our IT based services. These costs are tied to contracts and may be adjusted more quickly in the event there is a rapid expansion or reduction of the scope of work associated with a customer contract. Expansion of our internal growth initiatives and merger and acquisition opportunities will increase our operational costs and may require additional investments in technology infrastructure and personnel.

Our profitability also depends upon both the volume of services performed and the Company's ability to manage costs. To date, the Company has attempted to maximize its operating margins through efficiencies achieved by the use of its proprietary technologies and methodologies, and by offsetting increases in consultant salaries with increases in consultant fees received from its clients.

Results of Operations

Three Months Ended September 30, 2015 as Compared to Three Months Ended September 30, 2014

Revenues. Revenues for the three month period ended September 30, 2015 were approximately $17.0 million, an increase of approximately $2.5 million as compared to approximately $14.5 million in the same period last year. Our mix of MMS revenues for the periods presented is set forth below:

MMS Service Mix	THREE MONTHS ENDED		Dollar Variance
	SEPTEMBER 30, 2015 (Unaudited)	2014
Carrier Services	$9,126,605	$4,443,283	$4,683,322
Managed Services	7,868,253	10,112,625	(2,244,372)
	$16,994,858	$14,555,908	$2,438,950

We believe the following factors contributed to higher revenues:

Our carrier services were higher as a result of the recognition of task orders implemented and related to our U.S. Department Homeland Security (“DHS”) blanket purchase agreement (“BPA”) contract award. Carrier services revenues are only recognized under our DHS BPA award. There presently are two major components agencies remaining under our DHS BPA award that have not yet issued initial task orders: the U.S. Coast Guard and Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). The U.S. Secret Service has recently issued initial task orders. Our carrier services revenues could continue to expand if any of these remaining agencies issue task order awards. Carrier services could increase or decrease as a result of the number of mobile devices under management and the extent of usage of those mobile devices.

§ Our managed services were predominantly lower due to a decrease in software reselling activities. Software reselling activities vary from quarter to quarter and may not be predictable due to external factors outside of our control. Excluding software reselling sales, our managed services grew as a result of task order awards associated with our DHS BPA award and strong client retention. Our managed services may vary as a result of several factors including additional task order awards issued to us by the two remaining major component agencies under our DHS BPA award, continued future commercial awards in our sales pipeline, additional new federal and state awards in our sales pipeline, and potential new revenues associated with the introduction of our new identity management offerings that includes “Certificate on Device”, “machine to machine” credentials, and “derived credentials” through both our new and existing channel partners.

Cost of Revenues. Cost of revenues for the three month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $13.9 million (or 82% of revenues), as compared to approximately $10.6 million (or 73% of revenues) in the same period last year. The increase was materially attributable to a greater percentage of lower margin carrier services attributable to the ramp up of task orders issued to us under our DHS BPA award. Cost of revenues could fluctuate given the timing and potential awards of the remaining two agencies within the DHS BPA and the effect it could have on our sales mix between carrier services and managed services. We believe that as we level off the amount of carrier services in support of agencies our DHS BPA award and grow our mix of higher margin services that cost of revenues will fall over time.

Gross Profit. Gross profit for the three month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $3.1 million (or 18% of revenues), as compared to approximately $4.0 million (or 27% of revenues) in the same period last year. The decrease in gross profit was largely related to the higher ratio of lower margin carrier services as related to higher margin managed services. The ratio of managed services to carrier services in any period may result in variability in our gross margin. We believe that the introduction of higher margin next generation identity management services and leveling off of carrier services may increase our gross margin.

Sales and Marketing. Sales and marketing expense for the three month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $0.8 million (or 5% of revenues), as compared to approximately $0.9 million (or 6% of revenues) in the same period last year. The decline in sales and marketing reflects changes made to optimize our sales labor resources and sales commission agreements in a manner that incentivizes our salesforce to pursue and close recurring higher margin business. Short term, we may realize a continued decline and then leveling of sales and marketing expenses as we optimize our sales environment in support of our new channel partners and as we see new awards from potential for new revenue streams from our existing and evolving internal sales resources and channels. Longer-term we may realize an increase in sales and marketing expenses as a result of the successful introduction of our recent channel partner strategy coupled with the introduction of our next generation identity management services.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses for the three month period ended September 30, 2015 were approximately $3.9 million (or 23% of revenues), as compared to approximately $3.8 million (or 26% of revenues) in the same period last year. The increase in general and administrative expense was attributable to the technology investments in our software platforms and next generation identity management services. The percentage decrease was attributable to greater revenue volume offsetting fixed costs. We may realize an absolute decline in general and administrative expenses as a result of technology improvements that will allow us to reduce overhead costs as we optimize our operating environment.

Depreciation and Amortization. Overhead and administrative related depreciation and amortization expense for the three month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $93,000 as compared to approximately $180,000 in the same period last year. The decrease reflects a lower depreciable base due to fully depreciated assets.

Interest Income. Interest income for the three month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $7,000, as compared to approximately $6,300 in the same period last year. This increase was due to higher amounts of cash and cash equivalents being held in interest bearing accounts and the length of time those deposits were earning interest throughout the quarter compared the same period last year.

Interest Expense. Interest expense for the three months ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $30,900 as compared to approximately $47,000 in the same period last year. The decrease in interest expense is due to repayment of over $2.0 million in principal payments during 2015. There were no significant changes in the interest rate associated with debt during the three months ended September 30, 2015.

Income Taxes. Income tax expense for the three month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $69,800, as compared to $5.0 million in the same period last year. Income tax expense for the three month period ended September 30, 2015 reflects Republic of Ireland foreign tax expense. Income tax expense in the same period last year included a discrete income tax expense of $5.0 million to establish a valuation allowance against the Company's deferred tax assets.

Net (Loss) Income. As a result of the cumulative factors annotated above, the net loss for the three month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $1.8 million, as compared to approximately $5.9 million in the same period last year.

Results of Operations

Nine Months Ended September 30, 2015 as Compared to Nine Months Ended September 30, 2014

Revenues. Revenues for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 were approximately $52.1 million, an increase of approximately $15.6 million as compared to approximately $36.5 million in the same period last year. Our mix of MMS revenues for the periods presented is set forth below:

MMS Service Mix	NINE MONTHS ENDED		Dollar Variance
	SEPTEMBER 30, 2015 (Unaudited)	2014
Carrier Services	$27,422,307	$12,696,353	$14,725,954
Managed Services	24,700,864	23,856,355	844,509
	$52,123,171	$36,552,708	$15,570,463

We believe the following factors contributed to higher revenues:

Our carrier services were higher compared to the same period last year as a result of the recognition of task orders implemented and related to our DHS BPA award. There presently are two major components agencies remaining under our DHS BPA award that have not yet issued initial task orders: the U.S. Coast Guard and Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Our carrier services revenues could continue to expand if any of these remaining § agencies issue task order awards. Carrier services could also increase or decrease as a result of the number of mobile devices under management and the extent of usage of those mobile devices. We believe that carrier services may increase further as we recognize additional awards from any or all of the three remaining agencies that have yet to award task orders.

Our managed services were higher due to increased analytics and support activities, software reselling activities, credentialing and DHS BPA task order awards issued to us. Our managed services may experience growth as a result of several factors including additional task order awards issued to us by the two remaining major component § agencies under our DHS BPA award, additional task orders issued to us by current supported agencies under our DHS BPA award, continued future commercial awards in our sales pipeline, additional new federal and state awards in our sales pipeline, and potential new revenues associated with the introduction of our new identity management offerings that includes “Certificate on Device”, “machine to machine” credentials, and “derived credentials” through both our new and existing channel partners.

Cost of Revenues. Cost of revenues for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $42.1 million (or 81% of revenues), as compared to approximately $26.5 million (or 73% of revenues) in the same period last year. The increase was due to higher carrier services as a result of task orders issued to us under our 2014 awarded DHS BPA award. We believe that as the ratio of managed services to carrier services increases, over time our cost of revenues on a percentage basis will generally decrease.

Gross Profit. Gross profit for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $10.0 million (or 19% of revenues), as compared to approximately $10.1 million (or 27% of revenues) in the same period last year. The percentage decrease in gross profit was largely related to the higher ratio of lower margin carrier services as related to higher margin managed services.

Sales and Marketing. Sales and marketing expense for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $2.3 million (or 4% of revenues), as compared to approximately $2.7 million (or 9% of revenues) in the same period last year. The decline in sales and marketing was due to changes designed to optimize our sales labor resources and sales commission agreements in manner that incentives our sales force to pursue and close recurring higher gross margin business. As we introduce new sales channels we may experience increases in sales and marketing expenses in the long run to pay sales commissions on new business and prepare for new revenue streams to come online in the future.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 were approximately $11.5 million (or 22% of revenues), as compared to approximately $10.5 million (or 29% of revenues) in the same period last year. The absolute dollar increase in general and administrative expense was attributable to Certificate on Device infrastructure investments and other platform technology investments. The percentage decrease was attributable to greater revenue volume offsetting fixed costs.

Depreciation and Amortization. Overhead and administrative related depreciation and amortization expense for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $283,200 as compared to approximately $392,700 in the same period last year. The decrease reflects a lower depreciable base due to fully depreciated assets.

Interest Income. Interest income for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $17,900, as compared to approximately $11,600 in the same period last year. This increase was due to higher amounts of cash and cash equivalents being held in interest bearing accounts and the length of time those deposits were earning interest throughout the quarter compared the same period last year.

Interest Expense. Interest expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $111,200 as compared to approximately $139,600 in the same period last year. The decrease in interest expense is due to repayment of over $2.0 million in principal payments during 2015. There were no significant changes in the interest rate associated with debt during the nine months ended September 30, 2015.

Income Taxes. Income tax expense for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $147,200, as compared to $3.8 million in the same period last year. Income tax expense for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 reflects Republic of Ireland foreign tax expense. Income tax expense in the same period last year included a discrete income tax expense of $5.0 million to establish a valuation allowance against the Company's deferred tax assets.

Net (Loss) Income. As a result of the cumulative factors annotated above, the net loss for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 was approximately $4.3 million, as compared to approximately $7.5 million in the same period last year.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company has, since inception, financed its operations and capital expenditures through cash generated from operations, access to a credit facility, the sale of stock, seller notes in connection with acquisitions, convertible notes, convertible exchangeable debentures, senior secured loans and the proceeds from the exercise of the warrants related to a convertible exchangeable debenture. The Company's immediate sources of liquidity include cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, unbilled receivables and access to a working capital credit facility with Cardinal Bank for up to $8.0 million.

At September 30, 2015, the Company's net working capital was approximately $9.0 million as compared to approximately $12.5 million at December 31, 2014. In addition, at September 30, 2015, the Company had approximately $2.9 million available under its credit facility. The decrease in net working capital was primarily due to net losses incurred while continuing to fund sales and development investments in our new Certificate-on-Device identity management offerings and other platforms while maintaining critical staffing infrastructure to support implementation of future DHS BPA task orders and other next generation identity management services. We believe that as we increase our revenues from the sale of additional services, continue to evolve and improve our software platforms, infrastructure, and offerings, and realize greater efficiencies from our operations, we will realize improvements to our operating profitability and therefore to our working capital as well.

Our business environment is characterized by rapid technological change with periods of high growth and contraction, and is influenced by material events such as mergers and acquisitions that can substantially change our performance and outlook. Constant growth and technological change in our market makes it difficult to predict future liquidity requirements with certainty. We believe future capital requirements will depend on many factors, including the rate of revenue growth, if any, the timing and extent of spending for new product and service development, strategic acquisition funding and availability of suitable acquisition targets, technological changes in our proprietary software solutions and market acceptance of the Company's branded products and service solutions.

Over the long term, the Company must successfully execute its growth plans to increase profitable revenue and income streams that should generate positive cash flows to sustain adequate liquidity without impairing growth initiatives or requiring the infusion of additional funds from external sources to meet minimum operating requirements, including debt service. There can be no assurance that additional financing, if required, will be available on acceptable terms, if at all, for future acquisitions and/or growth initiatives.

We believe after considering our recent public offering that our current cash position and our working capital credit facility are sufficient to meet our minimum requirements for our current business operations (including sales and marketing initiatives), although any expansion of our operational needs, including as a result of any new contracts, could require additional working capital.

Cash Flows from Operating Activities

Cash provided by operating activities provides an indication of our ability to generate sufficient cash flow from our recurring business activities. Fixed costs such as labor, direct materials, network and data charges, software and subscription costs and office rent represent a significant portion of the Company's continuing operating costs. Any changes in the Company's fixed operating cost structure may not be immediately reflected in financial performance, depending upon the nature of the change made, and the required time to implement.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2015, net cash used in operations was approximately $2.8 million driven by our decision to fund sales and development investments and maintaining critical staffing infrastructure to support implementation of DHS BPA task orders and next generation identity management solutions.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2014, net cash used in operations was approximately $2.6 million due to longer timing differences between billing and collection and lower billable revenues.

Cash Flows from Investing Activities

Cash used in investing activities provides an indication of our long term infrastructure investments. We make recurring purchases of property and equipment to replace or enhance our hardware and software applications that support customer operations.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2015, cash used in investing activities was approximately $0.5 million consisting of software development related to our Public Key Infrastructure software certificate credentialing tools and applications and continuing property and equipment expenditures aimed at enhancing our internal infrastructure to support Certificate-on-Device growth.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2014, cash used in investing activities was approximately $4.5 million, of which approximately $4.1 million related to the acquisition of SCL and continuing property and equipment expenditures aimed at enhancing our Public Key Infrastructure software certificate credentialing tools and applications.

Cash Flows from Financing Activities

Cash provided by (used in) financing activities provides an indication of our debt financing and proceeds from capital raise transactions and stock option exercises.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2015, cash provided by financing activities was approximately $0.7 million primarily reflecting scheduled term debt repayments of approximately $2.0 million, partially offset by net proceeds of approximately $0.7 million from the exercise of stock options. The Company was advanced approximately $15.8 million and repaid approximately $13.8 million in line of credit advances during the quarter.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2014, cash provided by financing activities was approximately $10.2 million. Also, we repaid our line of credit advances in full with available cash balances and made our scheduled payments for current maturities of term debt.

Net Effect of Exchange Rate on Cash and Equivalents

For the nine months ended September 30, 2015 and 2014, the net effect of exchange rate changes decreased the translated value of our foreign cash balances due to the decline in the Euro relative to the US dollar.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company has no existing off-balance sheet arrangements as defined under SEC regulations.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Not applicable.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures designed to provide reasonable assurance that material information required to be disclosed by us in the reports we file or submit under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and that the information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. We performed an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures as of September 30, 2015. Based on the existence of the material weaknesses discussed below in "Material Weakness in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting," our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of September 30, 2015 to provide such reasonable assurances.

We do not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures will prevent all errors and all instances of fraud. Disclosure controls and procedures, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the disclosure controls and procedures are met. Further, the design of disclosure controls and procedures must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all disclosure controls and procedures, no evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures can provide absolute assurance that we have detected all our control deficiencies and instances of fraud, if any. The design of disclosure controls and procedures is also based partly on certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions.

Material Weakness in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Company's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

Management assessed the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2014. In making this assessment, management used the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) in Internal Control-Integrated Framework (2013). Based on management's assessment and those criteria, we concluded that, as of December 31, 2014, our internal control over financial reporting was not effective due to the existence of the material weaknesses as of December 31, 2014, discussed below. Management has identified material weaknesses in controls related to inadequate controls over revenue recognition and inadequate entity level controls, including inadequate policies and procedures and inadequate segregation of duties within an account or process.

Remediation Plan for Material Weaknesses

The material weaknesses described above in "Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting" (ICOFR) comprise control deficiencies that we discovered during our first assessment of ICOFR and were not remediated during the financial close process for the nine month period ended September 30, 2015. The material weaknesses described above comprise control deficiencies that we discovered during our assessment of ICOFR and were not remediated during the financial close process for the December 31, 2014 fiscal year. Management is developing a plan to respond to identified material weaknesses described above and such plan may include investing in accounting workflow technologies that can minimize manual reporting processes, capture and store relevant documentation to support operating effectiveness and strengthen internal controls over financial reporting.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Other than as described above, there have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the nine month period ended September 30, 2015 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Because of its inherent limitations, a system of internal control over financial reporting can provide only reasonable assurance and may not prevent or detect misstatements. Further, because of changes in conditions, effectiveness of internal controls over financial reporting may vary over time. Our system contains self-monitoring mechanisms, and actions are taken to correct deficiencies as they are identified.
