Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On June 27, 2017, Capricor Therapeutics, Inc. (the “Company”) received a written notice (the “June 27 Notice”) from the Nasdaq Stock Market (“NASDAQ”) indicating that the Company’s market capitalization has fallen below the minimum market value required under NASDAQ Rule 5550(b)(2) based on the market value of the Company’s listed securities for the preceding 30 business days. The minimum market value of listed securities for continued listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market is $35 million.

Under NASDAQ Rule 5810(c)(3)(C), the Company has a 180 calendar day period from the date of the June 27 Notice to regain compliance by meeting the continued listing standard. The 180 day period will expire on December 26, 2017. The continued listing standard will be met if the market value of the Company’s listed securities closes at $35 million or more for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days during such grace period. If the Company is unable to regain compliance during the 180 calendar day grace period and receives a delisting determination from NASDAQ it may, at that time, request a hearing to remain on The Nasdaq Capital Market, which request will ordinarily suspend such delisting determination until a decision by NASDAQ subsequent to the hearing.

In addition, due to the drop in the Company’s price for its common stock (the “Common Stock”) below a closing bid price of $1.00 per share on June 29, 2017, the Company received a written notice (the “June 29 Notice”) from NASDAQ indicating that the Company has not been in compliance with the minimum bid price requirement set forth in NASDAQ Rule 5550(a)(2) for a period of 30 consecutive business days. NASDAQ Rule 5550(a)(2) requires listed securities to maintain a minimum closing bid price of $1.00 per share, and NASDAQ Rule 5810(c)(3)(A) provides that a failure to meet the minimum closing bid price requirement exists if the deficiency continues for a period of 30 consecutive business days. In accordance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company is provided a compliance period of 180 calendar days from the date of the June 29 Notice, or until December 26, 2017, to regain compliance with the minimum closing bid price requirement. The Company can achieve compliance with the minimum closing bid price requirement if, during the compliance period, the minimum closing bid price per share of the Common Stock is at least $1.00 for a minimum of ten consecutive business days. The Company anticipates that the shares of Common Stock will continue to be listed and traded on the Nasdaq Capital Market during the compliance period(s).

Neither the June 27 Notice nor the June 29 Notice has any immediate effect on the Company’s listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market or on the trading of the Common Stock. The Company is presently evaluating potential actions to regain compliance with all applicable requirements for continued listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market. There can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in maintaining its listing of the Common Stock on The Nasdaq Capital Market.
