Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Credit Agreement and Security Agreement

On February 8, 2019, AeroCentury Corp. (the “Company”), through four wholly owned subsidiary limited liability companies (“LLC Borrowers”), entered into a Credit Agreement (“Credit Agreement”) with Norddeutsche Landesbank Girozentrale, New York Branch (“Lender”) that provides for six separate term loans (collectively, the “Term Loans”) with an aggregate principal amount of $44.3 million. Each of the Term Loans is secured by a first priority security interest in a specific aircraft (“Term Loan Collateral Aircraft”) owned by an LLC Borrower, the lease for such aircraft, and a pledge by the Company of its membership interest in each of the LLC Borrowers, pursuant to a Security Agreement (the “Security Agreement”) among the LLC Borrowers and Wilmington Trust Company, as Security Trustee, and certain pledge agreements. The interest rates payable under the Term Loans vary by aircraft, and are based on a fixed margin above either 30-day or 3-month LIBOR. The proceeds of the Term Loans were used to pay off Company debt from its purchase the Term Loan Collateral Aircraft. The maturity of each Term Loan varies by aircraft, with the first Term Loan maturing in October 2020 and the last Term Loan maturing in May 2025. The debt under the Term Loans is expected to be fully amortized by rental payments and remarketing proceeds received by the LLC Borrowers from the lessees of the Term Loan Collateral Aircraft during the terms of their respective leases.

The Credit Agreement includes covenants that impose various restrictions and obligations on the LLC Borrowers, including covenants that require the LLC Borrowers to obtain the Lender’s consent before they can take certain specified actions. Events of default under the Credit Agreement and the Security Agreement include, among others: any failure by the LLC Borrowers to make payments thereunder when due; certain defaults by the lessees of the Term Loan Collateral Aircraft under their lease agreements for such aircraft; any misrepresentation by an LLC Borrower in the Credit Agreement or the Security Agreement or failure by an LLC Borrower to perform its obligations thereunder; the occurrence of certain bankruptcy events; any lapse or failure to maintain insurance coverage on the Term Loan Collateral Aircraft; and any suspension or cessation of business of an LLC Borrower or the Company. If such an event of default occurs, subject to certain cure periods for certain events of default, the Lender would have the right to terminate its obligations under the Credit Agreement, declare all or any portion of the amounts then outstanding under the Term Loans to be accelerated and due and payable, and/or exercise any other rights or remedies it may have under applicable law, including foreclosing on the assets that serve as security for the Term Loans.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement and the Security Agreement is intended to be a summary and is qualified in its entirety by the copies of the Credit Agreement and the Security Agreement filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 hereto.

(b) Master Agreement for Interest Rate Swap Transactions

On January 7, 2019, in anticipation of the closing of the Term Loans, each of the LLC Borrowers and Norddeutsche Landesbank Girozentrale (“Swap Counterparty”) entered into an International Swap Dealers Association, Inc. 2002 Master Agreement (“ISDA Master Agreement”), facilitating each of the Borrower LLCs to enter into an interest rate hedging transaction (collectively, the “Swap Transactions”) to effectively convert the variable rate payments due under the Term Loans into fixed rate payment obligations, at a weighted average weight of approximately 5.8% per annum. The Swap Transactions will be governed by the ISDA Master Agreement, including the related Schedule to the ISDA Master Agreement (“Schedule”). The Company's obligations to Swap Counterparty under the ISDA Master Agreement are secured by the collateral which secures the Term Loans under the Credit Agreement.

The foregoing description of the ISDA Master Agreement is intended to be a summary and is qualified in its entirety by the copies of the ISDA Master Agreement, Schedule and related confirmations filed as Exhibit 10.3 hereto.
