BARCLAYS ANNOUNCES SENIOR APPOINTMENTS

Barclays PLC today announces several senior appointments.

Group Chairman and Group Chief Executive

Sir Peter Middleton, Chairman of the Boards of Barclays PLC and Barclays Bank PLC, will serve until 31 December 2004 at which time Matthew W. Barrett will succeed him. Mr Barrett will be succeeded by John Varley as Group Chief Executive.

Sir Peter Middleton, commenting on today's announcement, said: "I am delighted to be able to announce a smooth transition of leadership in Barclays as well as several management changes which are designed to accelerate the execution of our strategy. Matt Barrett has assembled an outstanding group of senior leaders, which he will continue to lead until he becomes Group Chairman."

Group Deputy Chief Executive

John Varley, currently Group Finance Director, will become Group Deputy Chief Executive, effective 1 January 2004. He will have responsibility for all business areas of the Group as described below and will report to Mr Barrett.

Table of Contents

Mr Barrett said: John Varley, a close and valued colleague, will bring to this role a wealth of experience spanning investment banking, investment management, retail financial services and, most recently, as Group Finance Director, during more than 20 years in senior management at Barclays.

The organisational changes announced today accelerate the execution of our strategy and capitalise on the strengths of our top team.

Chief Executive, Wholesale and Institutional

Robert E Diamond Jnr will assume responsibility for the Group's wholesale and institutional activities globally. This will include businesses and relationships within the Group that require the sophisticated risk management and financing skills of Barclays Capital. The Board has mandated Mr Diamond to expand and invest in the Group's market leading investment banking and investment management businesses worldwide.

Mr Diamond, who is CEO of Barclays Capital and Chairman of BGI, has an extraordinary track record in building innovative intellectual capital businesses, attracting top talent and executing powerful growth strategies. He will advance the Group's strategic priority of developing world-class global brands in the wholesale and institutional markets.

Mr Diamond will report to Mr Varley from 1 January 2004.

Table of Contents

Chief Executive of UK Personal & Commercial Financial Services

Roger Davis, currently Chief Executive of Business Banking, will assume the new role of Chief Executive of UK Personal and Commercial Financial Services, effective 1 January 2004.

This new business grouping, which will comprise Personal Financial Services, Business Banking and Premier Banking, will enable the Group to deepen its relationships with personal and business customers with a more integrated service offering. Mr Davis has overseen the major transformation of Business Banking that has resulted in consistently strong customer satisfaction, employee morale and financial performance. His leadership skills and commercial acumen will help us accelerate progress in what is our number one strategic priority, to extend and strengthen our core UK business.

Mr Davis will join the Barclays PLC and Barclays Bank PLC Boards as an Executive Director, effective 1 January 2004 and will report to Mr Varley from that date.

Chief Executive of Barclays Private Clients & International Banking

David Roberts, currently Chief Executive of Personal Financial Services, will assume the new role of Chief Executive of Barclays Private Clients and International Banking, effective 1 January 2004. He will be responsible for three major corporate priorities: building Barclays wealth businesses, advancing the Group's personal and commercial banking activities outside the UK, and developing existing banking businesses in Europe, Africa, the Caribbean, and the Middle East.

Table of Contents

Mr Roberts, who has successfully led both Business Banking and Personal Financial Services, has an intimate understanding of customer requirements and is ideally suited to expand both Barclays Private Clients and the Group's retail and commercial banking businesses outside the UK.

Mr Roberts will join the Barclays PLC and Barclays Bank PLC Boards as an Executive Director, effective 1 January 2004 and will report to Mr Varley from that date.

Chief Executive of Barclaycard

Gary Hoffman, Chief Executive of Barclaycard, has been mandated by the Board to execute a global credit card strategy. Under Mr Hoffman's leadership, Barclaycard has developed into a world-class business, which operates in over 60 countries. Mr Hoffman has had an outstanding career in both retail financial services and the credit card business. He will lead the effort to achieve the Group's aspiration to build an international card business as important as the domestic franchise within a decade.

Mr Hoffman will join the Barclays PLC and Barclays Bank PLC Boards as an Executive Director, effective 1 January 2004 and will report to Mr Varley from that date.

Group Finance Director

Naguib Kheraj, currently Chief Executive of Barclays Private Clients, will become Group Finance Director, effective 1 January 2004.

Table of Contents

Mr Kheraj has experience in all of the areas of his new portfolio – Finance, Taxation, Legal, Group Treasury, Investor Relations and Corporate Development – which he has developed over the last six years with Barclays and in his earlier career.

Prior to taking up the role of Chief Executive of Barclays Private Clients, Mr Kheraj has served as Deputy Chairman of Barclays Global Investors, Global Head of Investment Banking, and Global Chief Operating Officer at Barclays Capital. Before joining Barclays he held the post of Chief Financial Officer for Europe at Salomon Brothers.

Mr Kheraj will join the Barclays PLC and Barclays Bank PLC Boards as an Executive Director, effective 1 January 2004 and will report to Mr Barrett.

Group Operating Committee

Mr Roberts will succeed Mr Varley as Chairman of the Group Operating Committee, effective 1 January 2004. Group Operating Committee is the principal subcommittee of Group Executive Committee.

Woolwich plc Senior and Subordinated Notes

Barclays Bank PLC (Barclays) and Woolwich plc (Woolwich) announced today that in accordance with the provisions of the Barclays Group Reorganisation Act 2002 (the Act), substantially all of the business and the assets and liabilities (whether present or future, actual or contingent) of Woolwich will be transferred to, and vest in, Barclays by operation of law on 1 December 2003 (the Appointed Day). Those assets and liabilities which will not transfer and which will be retained by Woolwich (the Retained Assets and Liabilities) will be specifically referred to in the statutory notices published pursuant to the Act. The Senior Debt and the Subordinated Debt (as defined and as set out below) do not form part of the Retained Assets and Liabilities.

Accordingly, the Senior Debt and Subordinated Debt will become, respectively, senior and subordinated issues of Barclays on the Appointed Day. Barclays will thereafter be liable for all future payments of principal and interest under the Senior Debt and Subordinated Debt to the respective holders thereof and will, as issuer thereunder, comply with all the terms and conditions of the Senior Debt and the Subordinated Debt. The rights of each holder of Senior Debt and Subordinated Debt will thereafter be exercisable against Barclays and not Woolwich, but otherwise remain the same. The trustee and the principal and other paying agents under the Senior Debt and Subordinated Debt also remain the same.
