Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

The aggregate purchase price of the 157,500 shares of Common Stock beneficially held by American Opportunity Trust is $1,036,157 (exclusive of brokerage fees and commissions). All of the shares of Common Stock beneficially held by American Opportunity Trust were paid for using its working capital funds.

The aggregate purchase price of the 111,660 shares of Common Stock beneficially held by Trident North Atlantic is $710,457 (exclusive of brokerage fees and commissions). All of the shares of Common Stock beneficially held by Trident North Atlantic were paid for using its working capital funds.

The aggregate purchase price of the 96,840 shares of Common Stock beneficially held by private clients of J O Hambro Capital Management is $616,471 (exclusive of brokerage fees and commissions). All of the shares of Common Stock beneficially held by such private clients were paid for using their working capital funds.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

The Filing Parties believe that the shares of Common Stock of the Company are undervalued and represent an attractive investment opportunity and they are considering pursuing any and all of the actions enumerated below.

The Filing Parties may take such actions with respect to their investment in the Company as they deem appropriate, including without limitation: (i) having open communications with the Company's management in order to monitor their efforts to increase shareholder value, (ii) purchasing additional shares of Common Stock in the open market or otherwise, (iii) seeking a change of control of the Company through various means, including without limitation, an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or recapitalization, (iv) seeking to amend the Company's charter and by-laws, (v) seeking to elect a slate of directors to the Company's board of directors, (vi) presenting proposals for stockholders' consideration at an annual or special meeting of the Company's stockholders and (vii) reviewing the Company's securities filings for compliance with federal securities laws and, where appropriate, making referrals to the SEC.

On June 30, 2003, the Company filed a Current Report on Form 8-K disclosing that it had filed a lawsuit in federal district court in Los Angeles against the Filing Parties, Acquisitor Holdings (Bermuda) Ltd. and Executive Air Support, Inc. alleging that the Filing Parties and the other defendants had made false and/or misleading statements in SEC filings and misused proprietary, confidential and trade secret information in an attempt to take control of the Company's assets. Following a review of the action filed by the Company, the Filing Parties intend to vigorously defend themselves against these claims.

The Filing Parties believe that the current corporate governance of the Company relating to its officers falls well short of acceptable practice. The Filing Parties intend to thoroughly investigate what appears to be a pattern of self-dealing by members of the Company's board of directors by which certain individuals have engaged in a scheme to enrich themselves at the Company's expense and, depending on the findings of their investigation, the Filing Parties may commence litigation.

In light of the current corporate governance of the Company, the Filing Parties are considering means by which some or all of the directors may be removed from the board of directors. On August 1, 2003, one of the Filing Parties, Trident North Atlantic, submitted a request to the Company, through its registered agent in Delaware, seeking a complete list of the Company's stockholders and a copy of the Company's by-laws and any other rules of the Company regarding the nomination and election of directors, shareholder proposals and the conduct of the Company's 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. A copy of the request is attached hereto.

The Filing Parties now are giving specific consideration to the nomination of qualified individuals for election to the Company's Board of Directors at the Company's 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, in place of the Company's current directors. The purpose of the August 1, 2003 request to the Company is to allow Trident North Atlantic to communicate with stockholders regarding the Company's corporate governance and management practices, the lawsuit filed by the Company against Trident North Atlantic, among others, and to facilitate the possible nomination and election of directors to serve on the Company's Board of Directors.

In addition, the Filing Parties believe it is in the interest of all shareholders if either the current board or a new board immediately appoint an independent firm of investment bankers to find ways to maximize shareholder value.

The Filing Parties may also participate in discussions with potential purchasers of their shares of Common Stock, sell some or all of their shares of Common Stock in the open market or through privately negotiated transactions, or change their intention with respect to any and all of the matters referred to above.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

(a)-(b) The aggregate number and percentage of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company beneficially owned (i) by each of the Filing Parties, and (ii) to the knowledge of the Filing Parties, by each other person who may be deemed to be a member of the group, is as follows:

Edgar Filing: MERCURY AIR GROUP INC - Form SC 13D/A

* Based on 6,577,334 shares of Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, outstanding as of May 9, 2003, which is based on information reported in the Company's 10-Q, for the period ended March 31, 2003. On June 18, 2003, the Common Stock was consolidated in a 1 for 2 reverse stock split.

(c) In the time since the Amendment No. 4 to Statement on Schedule 13D was filed by the Filing Parties on July 11, 2003, Filing Parties effected no transactions in the Common Stock other than those set forth in the following table:
