Yes No

This Form 6-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended, and information that is based on management's beliefs as well as assumptions made by and information currently available to management. When used in this Form 6-K, the words anticipate, approach, begin, believe, continue, expect, forecast, going forward, improved, likely, look for, outlook, plans, potential, proposal, should and would and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements necessarily make assumptions, some of which are inherently subject to uncertainties and contingencies that are beyond the Company's control. Should one or more of these uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those anticipated, expected, estimated or projected. Specifically, the ability of the Company to realize its ongoing commitment to increasing shareholder value through its ongoing restructuring, asset dispositions, strategic review and implementation, and cost cutting initiatives, may be affected by many factors including: uncertainties and contingencies such as economic conditions both in the world and in those areas where the Company has or will have substantial operations; foreign currency exchange rates; pricing pressures on products produced by its subsidiaries; growth prospects; positioning of its business segments; future productions output capacity; and the success of the Company's business strategies, including further structural and operational changes, business dispositions, internal reorganizations, cost cutting, and consolidations.

ANSELL LIMITED APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR

Ansell Limited today announced the appointment to the Ansell Board of Mr Glenn Barnes with effect from 12 September 2005.

Mr Barnes' appointment follows an international search commissioned by Ansell earlier this year in consideration of its Board succession planning and to augment the existing skills and geographic experience of the current Board.

Mr Barnes has been involved in manufacturing, banking and financial services for over 30 years as a senior executive and executive director in Australia and internationally, including the Asia Pacific region, the UK and USA. Mr Barnes, who resides in Melbourne, is Chairman of Baycorp Advantage Limited, a Director of Lion Nathan Limited and Chairman, Director and council member of a number of not-for-profit and private interest organisations.

In announcing Glenn Barnes' appointment, Ansell's Chairman, Mr Peter Barnes said Glenn's extensive international background and experience, which covers many of the regions in which Ansell operates, is a great fit with the expertise of our existing Board. We look forward to the perspectives he will provide as Ansell advances its global growth strategies.
