PROSPECTUS

7,900,672 SHARES

NEWS CORPORATION

CLASS A COMMON STOCK

News Corporation, a Delaware corporation (News Corporation or the Registrant) may issue up to 7,900,672 shares of News Corporation Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (Class A Common Stock) in exchange for Class B common units of Ruby Newco LLC, which is a controlled subsidiary of the Registrant (Ruby Newco). The Class B common units of Ruby Newco (Ruby Newco Class B Common Units) were issued on December 13, 2007 in connection with the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and among the Registrant, Ruby Newco, Dow Jones & Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Dow Jones), and Diamond Merger Sub Corporation, a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Ruby Newco (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which Dow Jones became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Ruby Newco (the Merger). Between April 12, 2008 and June 10, 2008, each holder of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units will be permitted to exchange up to 25% of the total number of units that the holder received in the Merger for shares of Class A Common Stock. Beginning June 11, 2008, any or all Ruby Newco Class B Common Units may be freely exchanged for shares of Class A Common Stock. The initial exchange rate will be one (1) share of Class A Common Stock for each Ruby Newco Class B Common Unit, subject to adjustment under certain circumstances.

The Class A Common Stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol NWS-A. On February 8, 2008, the closing price of Class A Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange was $19.64 per share.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this prospectus is February 29, 2008.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, included in this prospectus that address activities, events or developments that we expect or anticipate will or may occur in the future, or that include the words may, will, would, could, should, believe, estimates, projects, plans, intends, anticipates, continues, forecasts, designed, goal, or the negative of those words or other comparable terms, are intended to identify forward-looking statements.

These statements appear in a number of places in this prospectus and documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus and are based on certain assumptions and analyses made in light of our experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions and expected future developments, as well as other factors we believe are appropriate in the circumstances. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions about News Corporation and its subsidiaries and businesses, and are not guarantees of performance. Other important factors that could affect the future results of News Corporation and cause those results or other outcomes to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements include:

deterioration in worldwide economic and business conditions;

rapidly changing technology challenging News Corporation's businesses' ability to adapt successfully;

exposure to fluctuations in currency exchange rates;

significant changes in News Corporation's assumptions about customer acceptance, overall market penetration and competition from providers of alternative products and services;

unexpected challenges created by legislative and regulatory developments;

changes in News Corporation's business strategy and development plans;

the military activity in Iraq, the outbreak or escalation of hostilities between the United States and any foreign power or territory and changes in international political conditions as a result of these events may continue to affect the United States and the global economy and may increase other risks; and other risks described from time to time in periodic reports that News Corporation files with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission).

Because the above factors could cause actual results or outcomes to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statement made by News Corporation, you should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement. Further, any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made, and it should not be assumed that the statements made herein remain accurate as of any future date. News Corporation undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement or update or revise the reasons that actual results or outcomes could materially differ from those anticipated in each forward-looking statement, except as required by law. Readers should carefully review the other documents filed by News Corporation with the Commission.

ABOUT THIS PROSPECTUS

PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

The following summary is qualified in its entirety by the more detailed information included elsewhere or incorporated by reference in this prospectus. Because this is a summary, it may not contain all the information that may be important to you. You should read the entire prospectus, as well as the information incorporated by reference, before making an investment decision. When used in this prospectus, the terms we, our, us, the Registrant and News Corporation refer to News Corporation and its consolidated subsidiaries, unless otherwise specified.

News Corporation

News Corporation is a diversified entertainment company, which manages and reports its business in eight segments:

Filmed Entertainment, which principally consists of the production and acquisition of live-action and animated motion pictures for distribution and licensing in all formats in all entertainment media worldwide, and the production and licensing of television programming worldwide.

Television, which principally consists of the operation of 35 full power broadcast television stations, including nine duopolies, in the United States (of these stations, 25 are affiliated with the FOX network and ten are affiliated with the MyNetworkTV network), the broadcasting of network programming in the United States and the development, production and broadcasting of television programming in Asia.

Cable Network Programming, which principally consists of the production and licensing of programming distributed through cable television systems and direct broadcast satellite operators primarily in the United States.

Direct Broadcast Satellite Television, which principally consists of the distribution of premium programming services via satellite and broadband directly to subscribers in Italy.

Magazines and Inserts, which principally consists of the publication of free-standing inserts, which are promotional booklets containing consumer offers distributed through insertion in local Sunday newspapers in the United States, and the provision of in-store marketing products and services, primarily to consumer packaged goods manufacturers in the United States and Canada.

Newspapers and Information Services, which principally consists of the publication of four national newspapers in the United Kingdom, the publication of approximately 145 newspapers in Australia, the publication of a metropolitan newspaper and a national newspaper (with international editions) in the United States and the provision of information services.

Book Publishing, which principally consists of the publication of English language books throughout the world.

Other, which includes NDS Group plc, a company engaged in the business of supplying open end-to-end digital technology and services to digital pay-television platform operators and content providers; News Outdoor Group, an advertising business which offers display advertising in outdoor locations primarily throughout Russia and Eastern Europe; and Fox Interactive Media, which operates News Corporation's Internet activities.

News Corporation's principal executive offices are located at 1211 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10036. The telephone number at that address is (212) 852-7000.

Merger Agreement

Edgar Filing: NEWS CORP - Form 424B3

On July 31, 2007, News Corporation entered into the Merger Agreement with Dow Jones, pursuant to which News Corporation agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, to acquire Dow Jones in a transaction valued at approximately $5.7 billion. Members of the Bancroft family and related trusts owning approximately 37% of Dow Jones voting stock agreed to vote their shares in favor of the transaction. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, a subsidiary of News Corporation merged with and into Dow Jones. In connection with the Merger, Dow Jones stockholders received either (i) $60 in cash for each share of Dow Jones stock they owned or (ii) a number of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units. Each Ruby Newco Class B Common Units is exchangeable (subject to adjustment) for one (1) share of Class A Common Stock in accordance with the terms and conditions of Ruby Newco's operating agreement. See Plan of Distribution on page 2 for adjustment to the exchange ratio. The acquisition closed on December 13, 2007. There are 7,900,672 outstanding Class B Common Units of Ruby Newco.

Securities Offered

The 7,900,672 shares of Class A Common Stock included in this prospectus were originally registered on a registration statement on Form S-4 (Registration No. 333-145925) in connection with the Merger, and are issuable upon or in connection with the exchange of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units. We will not receive any cash proceeds from the issuance of the Class A Common Stock in exchange for Ruby Newco Class B Common Units. In consideration for issuing the Class A Common Stock, we will receive in exchange the Ruby Newco Class B Common Units. If all holders of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units exchange their Ruby Newco Class B Common Units for Class A Common Stock, we will be the only holders of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units and Ruby Newco will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of News Corporation. A description of the material terms of the Class A Common Stock is included in Description of Class A Common Stock below.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any cash proceeds from the issuance of the Class A Common Stock in exchange for Ruby Newco Class B Common Units. In consideration for issuing the Class A Common Stock, we will receive in exchange the Ruby Newco Class B Common Units. If all holders of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units exchange their Ruby Newco Class B Common Units for Class A Common Stock, we will be the only holders of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units and Ruby Newco will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of News Corporation.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

For the first 120 days after December 13, 2007, the closing of the Merger (i.e., until April 11, 2008), the Ruby Newco Class B Common Units will not be exchangeable for Class A Common Stock. Between the 121st and 180th day after the closing of the Merger (i.e., between April 12, 2008 and June 10, 2008), each holder of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units will be permitted to exchange up to 25% of the total number of units that the holder received in the Merger for shares of Class A Common Stock. Following the 180th day after the closing of the Merger (i.e., from June 11, 2008), any or all Ruby Newco Class B Common Units may be freely exchanged for shares of Class A Common Stock. The initial exchange rate (the exchange ratio) will be one (1) share of Class A Common Stock for each Ruby Newco Class B Common Unit, subject to adjustment pursuant to the terms of the amended and restated operating agreement of Ruby Newco.

The initial one-for-one exchange ratio will be subject to adjustment, as provided in the amended and restated operating agreement of Ruby Newco, including as follows:

Stock Splits and Stock Dividends. After December 13, 2007, if News Corporation effects a split or subdivision of the Class A Common Stock or pays a dividend or other distribution in the form of additional shares of News Corporation stock (other than tracking stock), then, as of the record date of the split, subdivision, dividend or distribution (or the date of the split, subdivision, dividend or distribution if no record date is fixed), the exchange ratio will be appropriately adjusted such that the number of shares of Class A Common Stock issuable on exchange of each Ruby Newco Class B Common Unit will be increased (or decreased) in proportion to the increase (or decrease) in the aggregate number of outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock after giving effect to the dividend, distribution, split or subdivision.

News Corporation Significant Transaction. After December 13, 2007, if News Corporation is a constituent party to, or otherwise effects, any merger, consolidation, sale of all or substantially all of its assets, liquidation, dissolution or winding up, recapitalization, reorganization, reclassification, tender offer or exchange offer or other similar transaction pursuant to which at least a majority of the then outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock are converted into or exchanged for different securities of News Corporation, securities of another person and/or any cash or other property (in this prospectus, we refer to any of the foregoing transactions, other than any transaction which constitutes an extraordinary dividend transaction, as a News Corporation significant transaction), then Ruby Newco will either (1) make provision so that, immediately following the consummation of the transaction, the holders of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units will be entitled to exchange each of their Ruby Newco Class B Common Units for the kind and number of shares, other securities and/or cash or other property to which each Ruby Newco Class B Common Unit holder would have been entitled if that holder would have exchanged each of its Ruby Newco Class B Common Units for shares of Class A Common Stock immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction or (2) solely in the case of a News Corporation significant transaction that is a change of control transaction, no later than ten (10) days prior to the consummation of the transaction, deliver notice to the holders of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units of Ruby Newco's determination to make provision so that upon consummation of the transaction each holder of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units will thereafter be entitled to receive with respect to each Ruby Newco Class B Common Unit held by that holder, upon the exchange of any of that holder's Ruby Newco Class B Common Units, the value in cash (valuing any non-cash consideration as reasonably determined by the board of managers of Ruby Newco and using the same values, if any, as determined by the News Corporation Board of Directors for purposes of News Corporation common stock), as of the close of business on the date of the consummation of the transaction, of the shares, other securities and/or cash or other property to which a holder of the number of shares of Class A Common Stock deliverable upon exchange of that Ruby Newco Class B Common Unit would have been entitled in the transaction immediately prior to the transaction. In this prospectus, we refer to the notice delivered by Ruby Newco referenced in the previous sentence as a Ruby Newco cash-out notice.

As used in this prospectus, a change of control transaction means any News Corporation significant transaction, whether consummated in one or multiple steps, where the holders of all classes of News Corporation common stock at the time immediately before the transaction, collectively, own, directly or indirectly, immediately following the transaction stock representing less than 66 2/3% of the voting power and value of the entity surviving or resulting from the transaction (or the ultimate sole parent thereof).

Certain Dividends, Self-Tender Offers and Below-Market Issuances. Following the effective time, if News Corporation either (1) makes or pays any dividend or distribution in respect of all shares of Class A Common Stock payable in the form of cash, assets, capital stock of any entity other than News Corporation, shares of any News Corporation tracking stock or otherwise payable in kind (excluding News Corporation's ordinary dividend), (2) makes any self-tender offer (including an offer by a subsidiary of News Corporation) at an offer price per share of Class A Common Stock higher than the closing trading price on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) of Class A Common Stock on the business day immediately preceding commencement of the self-tender offer or (3) issues (subject to certain exceptions) any securities of, or rights, options or warrants entitling holders of Class A Common Stock to subscribe for or purchase securities of, News Corporation or any affiliate at a price per share or for consideration per share which is below the then current market price thereof (if publicly traded) or below the fair market value thereof as determined by the News Corporation Board of Directors (if not publicly traded), each of which is referred to in this prospectus as an extraordinary dividend transaction, then, in the event of an extraordinary dividend transaction of the type described in clause (1) above, the board of managers of Ruby Newco may declare a cash distribution on each outstanding Ruby Newco Class B Common Unit in an amount equal to the product of the value of the consideration received for each share of Class A Common Stock in such dividend or distribution (valuing any non-cash consideration as reasonably determined by the board of managers of Ruby Newco and using the same values, if any, as determined by the News Corporation Board of Directors for purposes of News Corporation common stock) and the exchange ratio then in effect, which distribution must be paid by Ruby Newco within fifteen (15) business days of the consummation of such dividend or distribution, and, if such distribution is not paid within such fifteen (15) day period, or in the event of an extraordinary dividend transaction defined in clause (2) or (3) above, Ruby Newco will adjust the exchange ratio in effect immediately prior to consummation of such extraordinary dividend transaction in accordance with the formula set forth in the amended and restated operating agreement.

The provisions of the amended and restated operating agreement relating to extraordinary dividend transactions and News Corporation significant transactions do not apply to any transaction in which holders of Class A Common Stock exchange some or all of their shares of Class A Common Stock solely with News Corporation in a redemption transaction, other than any redemption transaction in which a majority of the holders of shares of Class A Common Stock are provided the opportunity to elect to participate.

Table of Contents

No fraction of a share of Class A Common Stock will be issued upon the exchange of any Ruby Newco Class B Common Unit. In lieu of a fraction of a share of Class A Common Stock, each holder of Ruby Newco Class B Common Units otherwise entitled to a fraction of a share of Class A Common Stock will be entitled to receive a cash payment equal to the value of the fraction of a share, as reasonably determined by the board of managers of Ruby Newco, without interest.

DESCRIPTION OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK

We are offering News Corporation Class A Common Stock in this prospectus. Below is a summary of the material terms and provisions of the Class A Common Stock, which should be read together with any additional information we may include in any prospectus supplements (which may differ from the terms summarized below). For the complete terms of the Class A Common Stock, please refer to our Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Amended and Restated By-laws that are filed as exhibits to the reports incorporated by reference into the registration statement that includes this prospectus. Additionally, the General Corporation Law of Delaware, as amended ("DGCL"), may also effect the terms of the Class A Common Stock.

General

Our Class A Common Stock is listed on the NYSE and the London Stock Exchange. News Corporation CHESS Depository Interests ("CDIs") representing an interest in underlying Class A Common Stock are listed on the Australian Stock Exchange.

At February 1, 2008, we had authorized 6,000,000,000 shares of Class A Common Stock of which 2,140,726,442 shares were outstanding.

Voting Rights

A holder of Class A Common Stock may only vote under the following circumstances:

on a proposal to dissolve News Corporation or to adopt a plan of liquidation of News Corporation, and with respect to any matter to be voted on by our stockholders following adoption of a proposal to dissolve News Corporation or to adopt a plan of liquidation of News Corporation;

on a proposal to sell, lease or exchange all or substantially all of our property and assets;

on a proposal to adopt an agreement of merger or consolidation in which News Corporation is a constituent corporation, as a result of which our stockholders prior to the merger or consolidation would own less than sixty percent (60%) of the voting power or capital stock of the surviving corporation or consolidated entity (or the direct or indirect parent of the surviving corporation or consolidated entity) following the merger or consolidation; and with respect to any matter to be voted on by our stockholders during a period during which a dividend (or part of a dividend) in respect of the Class A Common Stock has been declared and remains unpaid following the payment date with respect to such dividend (or part thereof).

Other than as set forth in the preceding paragraph and as provided by law, a holder of a share of Class A Common Stock has no right to vote.

The holders of the Class A Common Stock entitled to vote on a particular matter shall vote in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the holders of our Class B common stock, par value $0.01 per share ("Class B Common Stock") or preferred common stock or series common stock, as described below.

At annual and extraordinary general meetings of stockholders:

a majority in voting power of all of the outstanding shares of the stock entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for all purposes; and each holder of Class A Common Stock represented at a meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of Class A Common Stock entitled to vote at the meeting.

All voting, except as may be required by law, including voting for the election of directors may be by a voice vote; provided, however, that upon demand by a stockholder entitled to vote or by his or her proxy, or upon resolution by our Board of Directors in its discretion or by action of the chairman of the meeting, in his or her discretion, a stock vote may be taken. Every stock vote shall be taken by written ballots, each of which shall state the name of the stockholder or proxy voting and such other information as may be required under the procedure established for the meeting.

Unless otherwise provided by our Restated Certificate of Incorporation, our Amended and Restated By-laws, the rules or regulations of any stock exchange applicable to us or applicable law or pursuant to any regulation applicable to us or our securities, (a) at all meetings of stockholders for the election of directors, a plurality of the votes cast shall be sufficient to elect directors and (b) any other question brought before any meeting of stockholders shall be determined by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast thereon by the holders represented and entitled to vote at the meeting.

Dividends

Holders of Class A Common Stock are, generally, entitled to such dividends, if any, as may be declared by our Board of Directors from time to time in its sole discretion out of our assets or legally available funds, subject to the following provisions:

if dividends are declared on the Class A Common Stock that are payable in shares of common stock, or securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for common stock (as defined in our Restated Certificate of Incorporation), the dividends payable to the holders of Class A Common Stock shall be paid only in shares of Class A Common Stock (or securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for Class A Common Stock), and such dividends shall be paid in the same number of shares (or fraction thereof) on a per share basis of the Class A Common Stock (or securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for the same number of shares (or fraction thereof) on a per share basis of the Class A Common Stock); and in no event shall the shares of the Class A Common Stock be split, divided, or combined unless the outstanding shares of the other class shall be proportionately split, divided or combined.

Any dividends declared by our Board of Directors on a share of common stock shall be declared in equal amounts with respect to each share of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (as determined in good faith by our Board of Directors in its sole discretion), provided that in the case of dividends payable in shares of our common stock, or securities convertible into, or exercisable or exchangeable for, our common stock, such dividends shall be paid as provided for in our Restated Certificate of Incorporation.

Rights on a Winding-Up

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of News Corporation, after distribution in full of the preferential and/or other amounts to be distributed to the holders of shares of any outstanding series of preferred stock or series common stock, the holders of shares of Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and, to the extent fixed by our Board of Directors with respect thereto, the series common shares and preferred stock shall be entitled to receive all of our remaining assets available for distribution to our stockholders, ratably in proportion to the number of shares held by them (or, with respect to any series of the series common shares or preferred shares, as so fixed by our Board of Directors).

Transfers

An Owner (as defined in our Restated Certificate of Incorporation) of shares of Class A Common Stock may not sell, exchange or otherwise transfer Ownership (as defined in our Restated Certificate of Incorporation) of such shares to any person who has made an Offer (as defined in our Restated Certificate of Incorporation) pursuant to such Offer unless such Offer relates to both Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, or another Offer or Offers are contemporaneously made with such Offer by such person such that, between all the Offers, they relate to both Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, and the terms and conditions of such Offer or Offers as they relate to each of the shares of Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock are Comparable (as defined in our Restated Certificate of Incorporation). We shall, to the extent required by law, note on the certificates of our common stock that shares represented by such certificates are subject to the restrictions set forth in this paragraph.

Table of Contents

Stockholder Rights Plan

In fiscal 2005, our Board of Directors adopted a stockholder rights plan (the Rights Plan). Under the Rights Plan, each stockholder of record received a distribution of one right for each share of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock (the Rights). The Rights are represented by our common stock certificates, are not traded separately from the common stock and are not exercisable.

The Rights will become exercisable only if a person or group obtains ownership (defined to include stock which a person has the right to acquire, regardless of whether such right is subject to the passage of time or the satisfaction of conditions), or announces a tender offer that would result in ownership of 15% or more of the Class B Common Stock, at which time each Right would enable the holder of such Right to buy additional stock of News Corporation. Following the acquisition of 15% or more of the Class B Common Stock, the holders of Rights (other than the acquiring person or group) will be entitled to purchase from us shares of our Class A or Class B Common Stock, as applicable, at half price, and in the event of a subsequent merger or other acquisition of News Corporation, to buy shares of common stock of the acquiring entity at half price. The Rights Plan grandfathered holdings of our voting common stock and disclosed contracts permitting the acquisition of our voting common stock in each case that existed at the time the Right Plan was adopted, including the then existing holdings of the Murdoch family and affiliated entities and Liberty Media Corporation (Liberty), but any additional acquisitions (subject to a 1% cushion granted to all exempt holders) by the Murdoch family and its affiliated entities or by Liberty and its affiliated entities would trigger the Rights. Each Right permits the holder to spend $80 for the purchases described above.

In August 2005, we announced that our Board of Directors determined to extend the expiration date of the Rights Plan for an additional two-year period, expiring in November 2007. In April 2006, we agreed to a settlement of a lawsuit regarding the extension of the Rights Plan. In August 2006, we announced that, in accordance with the terms of the settlement of a lawsuit regarding the Rights Plan, our Board of Directors had approved the adoption of an Amended and Restated Rights Plan, extending the term of our existing Rights Plan from November 7, 2007 to October 20, 2008. Our Board of Directors has the right to extend the term for an additional year if the situation with Liberty has not, in the Board of Directors judgment, been resolved. The terms of the Amended and Restated Rights Plan remain the same as our existing stockholder rights plan in all other material respects. Pursuant to the terms of the settlement, on October 20, 2006, the Amended and Restated Rights Plan was presented for a vote of our Class B stockholders at our annual meeting of stockholders and the stockholders voted in favor of its approval. In January 2007, the Rights Plan was amended to allow for the grant of an irrevocable proxy to Liberty in connection with the stockholder vote on the share exchange agreement we entered into with Liberty (the Share Exchange Agreement). We have announced that we intend to redeem the Rights issued under the Rights Plan if the transactions contemplated under the Share Exchange Agreement are consummated.
