Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

The information provided in Item 2.03 is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On September 27, 2012, Encore Wire Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), entered into a Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent and letter of credit issuer, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as syndication agent, and the financial institutions a party thereto as lenders. The Credit Agreement provides for a $150,000,000 five-year revolving credit and letter of credit facility through October 1, 2017, replacing the Company's prior $150,000,000 revolving credit and letter of credit facility. The Company's obligations under the Credit Agreement are guaranteed by the Company's subsidiary, EWC Aviation Corp., and are unsecured. Loans under the Credit Agreement accrue interest at a rate based on either LIBOR or prime, plus a margin based on the Company's leverage ratio, determined quarterly. The Credit Agreement provides that the Company may request, at any time, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, that the aggregate commitments under the Credit Agreement may be increased by up to an additional $100,000,000.

The Credit Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants, including, among others:

a requirement that the Company maintain a minimum fixed charge coverage ratio;

a requirement that the Company not exceed a maximum leverage ratio;

a limitation on the Company's annual capital expenditures;

a restriction on creating liens on the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries;

a restriction on making investments;

a restriction on the incurrence of debt by the Company and its subsidiaries;

a restriction on merger, dissolution, liquidation or consolidation of the Company; a restriction on sales of the assets of the Company and its subsidiaries;

a restriction on the Company's ability to make dividend payments, distributions and redemptions; restrictions on the Company's lines of business; and a restriction on transactions with affiliates of the Company.

The Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default. If an event of default occurs and is continuing, the Company may be required to repay the obligations under the Credit Agreement prior to their stated maturity. Lenders holding more than 66 2/3% of the loans and commitments under the Credit Agreement (or all Lenders, if there are less than three Lenders) may elect to terminate the commitments and declare all outstanding obligations under the Credit Agreement to be immediately due and payable upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an event of default.
