Supplement to Definitive Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus

In connection with an agreement in principle to settle certain outstanding shareholder litigation described on page 69 (among other places) of the joint proxy statement/prospectus dated May 24, 2013 (the Proxy Statement) of Renasant Corporation (Renasant) and First M&F Corporation (First M&F), Renasant and First M&F have agreed to make the following supplemental disclosures to the Proxy Statement (the Supplemental Disclosures). The Supplemental Disclosures should be read in conjunction with the Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety. Defined terms used but not defined in the Supplemental Disclosures have the respective meanings set forth in the Proxy Statement.

The settlement of the shareholder litigation and Renasant and First M&F's agreement to make the Supplemental Disclosures are not, and should not be construed as, an admission of wrongdoing or liability by any defendant, all of whom continue to believe that the shareholder litigation is without merit. Likewise, neither Renasant, First M&F nor the directors of First M&F, by filing the Supplemental Disclosures, admit that any additional disclosures are required under the federal securities laws, state fiduciary law or any other applicable rule, statute, regulation or law. While neither admitting nor denying the legal necessity or materiality of any of the Supplemental Disclosures in this Current Report on Form 8-K, in order to avoid the risk of the shareholder litigation delaying or adversely affecting the merger of First M&F into Renasant, to minimize the substantial expense, burden, distraction and inconvenience of continued litigation, and to fully and finally resolve these claims, Renasant and First M&F have agreed to make the following Supplemental Disclosures:

The following disclosure replaces the last two sentences of the third paragraph on page 37 of the Proxy Statement regarding the other investment banking firm contacted by First M&F.

Prior to the scheduled meeting with Mr. McGraw, Mr. Potts contacted KBW and FIG Partners, LLC (FIG), both of which had provided First M&F prior uncompensated services and solicitations, to provide pro forma models of a projected merger with Renasant. Between October 26, 2012 and early November 2012, First M&F also received models from KBW and FIG containing, among other things, various pricing points to consider if preliminary pricing figures were to be presented by Renasant. During this time period, Renasant had no relationship with FIG.

The following disclosure replaces the third sentence of the fifth paragraph on page 38 of the Proxy Statement regarding First M&F's engagement of KBW.

Mr. Potts had already solicited analyses from KBW and FIG and therefore First M&F did not shop investment banking services further because of the detailed and satisfactory work KBW had performed in the previous months regarding the proposed Renasant business combination as well as KBW's familiarity with First M&F through uncompensated visits and discussions with Mr. Potts. The First M&F board of directors was aware of the relationship with, and had participated in certain meetings between, First M&F and KBW.

The following disclosure replaces the last sentence of the fifth paragraph on page 38 of the Proxy Statement regarding First M&F's and KBW's collaboration on pro forma merger models.

Mr. Potts, Mr. Lacey, John Copeland (First M&F's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer), and Sam Potts (a Senior Vice President of First M&F) continued to confer with representatives of KBW regarding Renasant's inquiry and KBW modeled pro forma mergers with Renasant and other potential partners.

The following disclosure supplements the discussion in the fifth paragraph on page 38 of the Proxy Statement regarding First M&F's and KBW's collaboration on pro forma merger models.

Edgar Filing: FIRST M&F CORP/MS - Form 425

After formally securing the services of KBW, First M&F provided KBW with, among other information, internal projections, which did not contemplate a redemption of the First M&F CDCI Preferred Stock, as follows:

($ In Thousands, Except Per Share Data) (Unaudited)

	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018
Common Earnings	$ 7,631	$ 8,764	$ 8,872	$ 8,985	$ 9,273	$ 9,422

ROAA (Bank Only)		0.76%	0.75%	0.75%	0.76%	0.74%

These projections represented First M&F management's internal estimates of future operating results and contained significant risks and uncertainties, whose actual results could differ materially from such estimates due to a range of economic conditions.

First M&F also provided, among other information, internal projections that did contemplate a redemption of the First M&F CDCI Preferred Stock beginning in 2015, as follows:

($ In Thousands, Except Share Data) (Unaudited)

	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018
CDCI Repayment			$ 10,000	$ 10,000	$ 10,000
Common Earnings	$ 7,631	$ 8,764	$ 6,763	$ 8,382	$ 10,388	$ 12,218
Avg. Shares Outstanding	9,300,000	9,400,000	9,500,000	9,600,000	9,600,000	9,600,000
EPS	$ 0.82	$ 0.93	$ 0.71	$ 0.87	$ 1.08	$ 1.27

These projections also represented First M&F management's internal estimates of future operating results and contained significant risks and uncertainties, whose actual results could differ materially from such estimates due to a range of economic conditions.

The following disclosure replaces the first sentence of the sixth paragraph on page 38 of the Proxy Statement regarding Jones Walker's review of the First M&F board of directors' fiduciary duties.

On January 3, 2013, First M&F's legal counsel, Jones Walker LLP, Jackson, Mississippi, reviewed with Mr. Potts and senior management its and the First M&F board of directors' fiduciary duties in respect of the merger inquiry.

The following disclosure is added immediately prior to the last sentence in the seventh paragraph on page 38 of the Proxy Statement regarding Renasant's engagement of Sandler.

In the two years prior to this engagement, Sandler had not provided any advice or other services to Renasant for compensation.

The following disclosure is added immediately prior to the last sentence in the second full paragraph on page 39 of the Proxy Statement regarding First M&F management's estimates of earnings per share and net income available to common shareholders.

In providing its estimates, First M&F's management assumed a repayment schedule of the First M&F CDCI Preferred Stock beginning in 2015 and which likely could not be completed until 2017. First M&F management's internal estimates of future operating results contained significant risks and uncertainties, whose actual results could differ materially from such estimates due to a range of economic conditions. First M&F's management provided projected information showing First M&F's earnings per share would likely be limited to $0.82 in 2013, $0.93 in 2014, $0.71 in 2015, $0.87 in 2016, $1.08 in 2017, and $1.27 in 2018, and its net income available to common shareholders would likely be limited to $7.63 million in 2013, $8.76 million in 2014, $6.76 million in 2015, $8.38 million in 2016, $10.39 million in 2017, and $12.22 million in 2018, as well as the existing limitations on First M&F dividends of $0.04 annually.

The following disclosure replaces the second and third sentences of the fourth full paragraph on page 40 of the Proxy Statement regarding the negotiations of the exchange ratio for the proposed merger between Mr. Potts and Mr. McGraw.

During these conversations, Mr. McGraw suggested a fixed exchange ratio of approximately 0.6100 shares of Renasant common stock for each share of First M&F common stock, which was a reasoned business proposal representing a premium on the common stock of First M&F as of the day it was made based on the prices at which such stock had been trading since the commencement of negotiations. Based on discussions with First M&F personnel regarding price and a desire to secure the best price for First M&F shareholders, Mr. Potts suggested an exchange ratio of approximately 0.6700.

The following disclosure replaces the last sentence of the last paragraph on page 46 of the Proxy Statement regarding First M&F's engagement of KBW.

Although FIG provided preliminary analyses (as discussed above), First M&F did not otherwise seek to retain any other financial advisors.

The following disclosure replaces the first bullet point on page 47 of the Proxy Statement regarding material reviewed by KBW in rendering its opinion.

a draft of the merger agreement dated February 5, 2013;

The following disclosure replaces the first two sentences of the first paragraph on page 49 of the Proxy Statement concerning the Selected Companies Analysis financial analyses performed by KBW.

To perform this analysis, KBW used publically available information regarding the companies compared to First M&F. KBW used publically available financial information as of the most recent three month period available (ended either December 31, 2012 or September 30, 2012) while market price information was as of February 5, 2013.

For the selected acquisitions referred to in the above, KBW derived information regarding the transactions from publicly available information.

The following disclosure replaces the first two sentences of the first paragraph on page 53 of the Proxy Statement under the section Financial Impact Analysis.

KBW performed pro forma merger analyses that combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of First M&F and Renasant. Renasant provided KBW with its then-available assumptions regarding the accounting treatment, purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings in order to enable KBW to conduct its analyses and calculate the financial impact that the merger would have on certain projected financial results of Renasant. The assumptions regarding purchase accounting adjustments were inclusive of marks to First M&F's assets and liabilities provided to KBW.

The following disclosure is appended to the end of the section Financial Impact Analysis on page 53 of the Proxy Statement.

Renasant's purchase accounting adjustments, as presented in this proxy statement, are set forth in Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data above.

The following disclosure is added between the second and third sentences of the second paragraph on page 53 of the Proxy Statement concerning the discount rates used by KBW in the Discounted Cash Flow Analysis financial analyses.

The range of discount rates was selected to provide sensitivities around First M&F's estimated cost of equity capital per the Capital Asset Pricing Model, or CAPM. The CAPM cost of equity was determined by adding (1) a risk-free rate to (2) the product of the equity risk premium, and a beta, and (3) a size premium.

The following disclosure replaces the fourth sentence of the second paragraph on page 53 of the Proxy Statement regarding KBW's assumptions in the Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

In determining cash flows available to shareholders, KBW assumed balance sheet growth per First M&F management and assumed, based on its expertise, experience, and past practice, that First M&F would maintain a tangible common equity / tangible asset ratio of 7.00% and would retain sufficient earnings to maintain that level.

The following disclosure replaces the sixth sentence of the second paragraph on page 53 of the Proxy Statement regarding KBW's assumptions in the Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

In calculating the terminal value of First M&F, KBW, based on its expertise, experience, and past practice, applied multiples ranging from 9.0 times to 14.0 times 2018 forecasted earnings.

The following disclosure replaces the last sentence of the last paragraph on page 53 of the Proxy Statement.

KBW, as well as other financial advisors, may, in the future provide investment banking and financial advisory services to Renasant and receive compensation for such services. However, neither First M&F nor Renasant made any commitments to, or other agreements with, KBW regarding its provision of financial advisory, investment banking or other services to either company in the future.

The following disclosure replaces the first paragraph on page 62 of the Proxy Statement regarding the Pro Forma Merger Analysis financial analyses performed by Sandler O Neill.

Sandler O Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the merger, assuming the following: (1) the merger is completed at the beginning of the third quarter of 2013; (2) each share of First M&F common stock is exchanged for 0.6425 of a share of Renasant common stock; (3) management prepared earnings projections for First M&F for the year ending December 31, 2013 and with Renasant management guidance through 2017; (4) certain purchase accounting adjustments, including both a credit and interest rate mark against First M&F's loan portfolio, and additional marks on borrowings, time deposits and trust preferred securities issued by First M&F, as described in Note 1 Pro Forma Adjustments to the Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Data above; (5) cost savings of 25% of First M&F's annual operating expenses, with 40% realized in 2013 and 100% thereafter; and (6) certain other assumptions pertaining to costs and expenses associated with the transaction, intangible amortization, opportunity cost of cash and other items.

The following disclosure replaces the first two sentences of the second paragraph on page 62 of the Proxy Statement regarding the Pro Forma Merger Analysis financial analyses performed by Sandler O Neill.

The analysis indicated that the merger would be accretive to Renasant's projected 2013 and 2014 earnings per share, as described in Renasant's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on February 7, 2013. The analysis also indicated that the transaction would be dilutive to book value per share and dilutive to tangible book value per share for Renasant and that Renasant would maintain well-capitalized capital ratios, as also described in Renasant's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on February 7, 2013.

The following disclosure replaces the second sentence of the third paragraph on page 62 of the Proxy Statement regarding Sandler O Neill's Compensation and Other Relationships.

Sandler O Neill has not provided any compensated service to First M&F. Renasant agreed to pay Sandler O Neill a transaction fee of $500,000 for providing such financial advice, all of which is payable upon completion of the merger.

The following disclosure is added immediately prior to the last sentence of the third paragraph on page 62 of the Proxy Statement regarding Sandler O Neill's Compensation and Other Relationships.

Neither Renasant nor First M&F made any commitments to, or other agreements with, Sandler regarding its provision of financial advisory, investment banking or other services to either company in the future.
