If the maturity date, redemption date or an interest payment date for any note is not a business day (as that term is defined in the prospectus), principal, premium, if any, and interest for that note is paid on the next business day, and no interest will accrue from, and after, the maturity date, redemption date or interest payment date (following unadjusted business day convention).

* The survivor's option feature of your note is subject to important limitations, restrictions and procedural requirements further described on page S-52 of your prospectus supplement.

The Bank of New York will act as trustee for the Notes. Citibank, N.A., will act as paying agent, registrar and transfer agent for the Notes and will administer any survivor's options with respect thereto.

In the opinion of John M. Cafiero, as counsel to Prudential Financial, Inc. (the Company), when the notes offered by this prospectus supplement have been executed and issued by the Company as authenticated by the trustee pursuant to the indenture, and delivered against payment as contemplated herein, such notes will be valid and binding obligation of the Company, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles. This opinion is given as of the date hereof and is limited to Federal law and the laws of New Jersey and New York. In addition, this opinion is subject to customary assumptions about the trustee's authorization, execution and delivery of the indenture and the genuineness of signatures and to such counsel's reliance on officers of the Company and other sources as to certain factual matters, all as stated in the opinion of John M. Cafiero, dated March 3, 2015, which has been filed as exhibit no. 5.1 to the registration statement.
