Item 8.01. Other Events.

On October 27, 2017, Sussex Bancorp ( Sussex ) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ) a definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus with respect to (A) the special meeting of Sussex s shareholders scheduled to be held on December 15, 2017 at which Sussex shareholders will be asked to, among other things, vote on a proposal to approve the agreement and plan of merger by and among Sussex, Sussex Bank, a New Jersey-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of Sussex, and Community Bank of Bergen County, NJ, a New Jersey-chartered bank ( Community ), dated as of April 10, 2017, pursuant to which Community will merge with and into Sussex Bank with Sussex Bank surviving the merger, and (B) the special meeting of Community s shareholders scheduled to be held on December 15, 2017 at which Community shareholders will be asked to vote on the same.

A purported securities class action lawsuit has been filed against Sussex, Community and each of the members of the board of directors of Community in the Superior Court of New Jersey Chancery Division, Bergen County. Captioned Parshall v. Community Bank of Bergen County, NJ, et al., (No. C-222-17), the case was filed on August 17, 2017, purports to have been brought on behalf of all public shareholders of Community, and seeks to enjoin the defendants from proceeding with the shareholder vote on the proposed merger transaction at the special meetings or consummating the proposed merger unless and until Sussex and Community disclose allegedly omitted information, in addition to paying damages allegedly suffered by the plaintiffs as a result of the asserted omissions, as well as attorneys fees and expenses.

Sussex and Community believe that all allegations in the complaint are without merit, and further believe that no supplemental disclosure is required under applicable laws; however, Sussex and Community wish to make certain supplemental disclosures related to the merger transaction solely for the purpose of mooted the allegations contained in the complaint and avoiding the expense and burden of litigation. Nothing in the supplemental disclosures shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable law of any of the supplemental disclosures.

Important information concerning the merger transaction is set forth in the joint proxy statement/prospectus. The joint proxy statement/prospectus is amended and supplemented by, and should be read as part of, and in conjunction with, the information set forth in this Current Report on Form 8-K.

SUPPLEMENT TO JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

Sussex and Community have agreed to make the following amended and supplemental disclosures to the joint proxy statement/prospectus. This supplemental information should be read in conjunction with the joint proxy statement/prospectus, which should be read in its entirety. Page references in the below disclosures are to the joint proxy statement/prospectus, and certain terms used but not defined herein have the meanings set forth in the joint proxy statement/prospectus. Without admitting in any way that the disclosures below are material or otherwise required by law, Sussex and Community make the following amended and supplemental disclosures:

The section of the joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled The Merger Background of the Merger is amended and supplemented as follows:

*The third, fourth and fifth sentences of the first paragraph under the subsection Background of the Merger on page 80 of the joint proxy statement/prospectus are replaced, in their entirety, with the following:*

After discussing this analysis with FinPro, in January 2017, Mr. Michelotti contacted Mr. Labozzetta, and they met to discuss the possibility and relative merits of a business combination between the two institutions. They also discussed, among other things, Mr. Michelotti s possible position with the combined organization as a senior executive in order to retain Mr. Michelotti s expertise and market presence, but no terms of such position were discussed. After their discussion, it was decided that a follow-up meeting was warranted.

The ninth paragraph under the subsection Background of the Merger on page 81 of the joint proxy statement/prospectus is replaced, in its entirety, with the following:

Thereafter, Sussex offered to Community in a non-binding indication of interest dated February 7, 2017, a price between $22.00 and $23.00 per share, resulting in an aggregate deal value between $42.4 million and $44.4 million (including the cash out of options). Sussex Bank would merge with Community in a 100% stock transaction in which Sussex Bank would be the surviving institution. The non-binding indication of interest also invited three current Community directors (to be selected by Sussex after consultation with Community) to join the board of directors of the combined entity and requested a 45-day exclusivity period to continue confidential discussions. It also stated that Sussex looked forward to discussing an ongoing senior executive role with Mr. Michelotti to ensure that Sussex retained his expertise and market presence, and that Sussex would enter into a new employment contract with Mr. Michelotti after paying the change in control payments set forth in his current contract with Community. Sussex also stated that it would consider hiring certain of Community's existing executive officers based on needs identified in the pro forma company.

The following supplemental disclosure is added after the last sentence of the eighteenth paragraph under the subsection Background of the Merger on page 82 of the joint proxy statement/prospectus :

During such time, Sussex determined that Mr. Michelotti would be appointed to one of the three board seats being offered to Community directors, and that determination was reflected in the press release announcing the merger. Also Sussex and Mr. Michelotti negotiated the terms of his employment agreement with Sussex. In order to ensure the continued employment of Community's key officers, Sussex and Community also agreed to an amendment to the employment contracts of Mr. Michelotti, Ms. James and Mr. Fantacone requested by such officers providing for the automatic payment of their change in control payments at the closing of the merger without regard to any termination of employment.

The second sentence of the nineteenth paragraph under the subsection Background of the Merger on page 82 of the joint proxy statement/prospectus is replaced, in its entirety, with the following:

Representatives of FinPro and Stevens & Lee participated in the meeting. Representatives of Stevens & Lee reviewed in detail the terms of the merger agreement, the separate bank merger agreement, the voting agreements to be entered into by the directors and senior management, the amendments to the employment agreements of Mr. Michelotti, Ms. James and Mr. Fantacone, and Mr. Michelotti's employment agreement with Sussex. Stevens & Lee also summarized the directors' fiduciary duties, specifically in the context of a change of control.

The section of the joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled The Merger Opinion of FinPro Capital Advisors, Inc., Financial Advisor to Community is amended and supplemented as follows:
