Table of Contents

- At the effective time of the arrangement, Digital River will indirectly, through the Purchaser, acquire all of the outstanding equity securities of LML for cash consideration, and LML will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Digital River. The arrangement will occur according to the terms and conditions of the arrangement agreement, which is described in, and is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement. You should read the description of the arrangement agreement in this proxy statement under the heading “The Arrangement Agreement” and the arrangement agreement carefully.

Share Consideration (page 42)

- If the arrangement is completed you will receive $3.45 in cash for each of your shares of LML common stock outstanding at the time of the arrangement, unless you exercise and perfect your dissent rights. This cash payment is sometimes referred to as the “Share Consideration” in this proxy statement.

Option and Warrant Consideration (page 42)

- At the effective time of the arrangement, holders of unexercised options and warrants to purchase shares of LML common stock (whether or not such options and warrants are vested and currently exercisable) will be entitled to receive, with respect to each such option or warrant, an amount in cash equal to: (1) the excess, if any, of $3.45 over the per share exercise price of the option or warrant, multiplied by (2) the number of shares of LML common stock issuable upon exercise of the option or warrant immediately prior to the completion of the arrangement. These cash payments are sometimes referred to as “Option Consideration” and “Warrant Consideration,” respectively, in this proxy statement.

Effects of the Arrangement

- As a result of the arrangement:

- Ø LML will no longer be a public company but will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Digital River;
- Ø LML common stock will no longer be quoted on the Nasdaq Capital Market, price quotations will no longer be available and the registration of LML common stock, and LML’s reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, will terminate;
- Ø You will no longer be a shareholder, optionholder, or warrant holder (as the case may be) of or have any ownership interest in LML, and therefore you will not be able to participate in any future earnings and growth of LML or benefit from any future increases in LML’s value; and
- Ø Digital River will receive 100% of any future earnings and growth of LML and benefit from any future increases in LML’s value, but will also bear 100% of the risk of any future losses of LML and any future decreases in LML’s value.

- The arrangement agreement and the arrangement must be approved by at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of votes cast in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Beneficial holders of approximately 33.2% of the shares of LML common stock outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement have agreed to vote in favor of the arrangement pursuant to lock-up and support agreements.

Table of Contents

- LML's board of directors and special committee have determined that the terms of the arrangement agreement and the arrangement, including the purchase price of $3.45 per share being paid in the arrangement, are fair to and in the best interests of LML and its shareholders.

Fairness Opinions (page 31)

- On August 31, 2012, MNP LLP, in its capacity as financial advisor to LML's special committee, orally delivered its opinion to the special committee and board of directors and subsequently confirmed in writing on October 1, 2012 that, as of September 21, 2012, the arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of LML.
- On September 19, 2012, William Blair & Company, L.L.C., in its capacity as financial advisor to LML's board of directors, orally delivered its opinion to the board of directors and special committee and subsequently confirmed in writing on September 19, 2012 that, as of September 19, 2012, and based on and subject to the assumptions and conditions described in the opinion, the purchase price of $3.45 per share being paid in the arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of LML's common stock.
- These opinions are attached as Appendix D to this proxy statement. We encourage you to read these opinions carefully in their entirety.

Interests of LML's Directors and Officers in the Arrangement (page 27)

- In considering the recommendation of LML's board of directors and special committee with respect to the arrangement agreement and the arrangement, you should be aware that some of LML's directors and officers have interests in the arrangement, including those referred to below, that may present actual or potential, or the appearance of actual or potential, conflicts of interest in connection with the arrangement:

Ø LML's directors and officers will be entitled to receive an aggregate of $5,440,981 in cash payments for their shares of LML common stock and $3,898,472 in cash payments for their options in the arrangement;

Ø Pursuant to their respective employment agreements, LML's named executive officers will be entitled to receive an aggregate of approximately $3,511,496 in severance and related benefits if their employment is terminated without cause, or if they resign with good reason (which includes the right to resign in the event of a change of control), after the effective time of the arrangement;

Ø Pursuant to his employment agreement, and in addition to the amounts identified above, Patrick H. Gaines, LML's Chief Executive Officer and Chairman, will also be entitled to receive an additional lump sum payment of approximately $3,598,000 (representing 3.5% of the total consideration to be paid by Digital River in the arrangement) if his employment is terminated without cause, or if he resigns with good reason (which includes the right to resign in the event of a change of control), after the effective time of the arrangement. We understand that Mr. Gaines intends to resign in connection with the arrangement.

Ø Pursuant to the arrangement agreement, LML's directors and named executive officers will be entitled to certain indemnification rights following the consummation of the arrangement.

Conditions to the Arrangement (page 44)

- The obligations of LML and Digital River to complete the arrangement are subject to several conditions. For example:

Ø the arrangement agreement and the arrangement must be approved by at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of votes cast in person or by proxy at the special meeting (beneficial holders of approximately 33.2% of the shares of LML common stock outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement have agreed to vote in favor of the arrangement pursuant to lock-up and support agreements);

Ø there must be no legal or regulatory restraints or prohibitions preventing completion of the arrangement;

Ø all necessary government and third party consents, waivers, permits, exemptions, orders and approvals must have been obtained or received; and

Table of Contents

Ø the Supreme Court of British Columbia must have issued a final order approving the arrangement.

- Additionally, each party's obligations are subject to a number of additional conditions.

• If these conditions are satisfied, the arrangement will be completed as soon as practicable after the Supreme Court of British Columbia issues its final order approving the arrangement. If these conditions are not satisfied (or, if permitted, waived), LML or Digital River or either of them may in certain circumstances be able to terminate the arrangement agreement.

Termination of the Arrangement Agreement (page 52)

• The arrangement agreement may be terminated before the arrangement is completed upon the occurrence of any of the following specified events:

Ø by mutual written consent of LML and Digital River;

Ø by either LML or Digital River if the shareholders of LML fail to approve the arrangement agreement and the arrangement at the special meeting or any adjournment thereof;

Ø by LML, if (i) any of the conditions to its obligation to effect the arrangement are not, or if it becomes apparent that any of such conditions cannot be, fulfilled by February 22, 2013, unless such failure is due to LML's failure to perform or comply with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions of the arrangement agreement; (ii) LML enters into a definitive written agreement to enter into a third-party transaction, subject to compliance with the limits set forth in the arrangement agreement regarding LML's ability to solicit and consider proposals for third-party transactions and payment of the required termination fee; (iii) Digital River materially breaches its obligations under the arrangement agreement; or (iv) the representations and warranties made by Digital River in the arrangement agreement fail to be true and correct in all material respects; or

Ø by Digital River, if (i) any of the conditions to its obligation to effect the arrangement are not, or if it becomes apparent that any of such conditions cannot be, fulfilled by February 22, 2013, unless such failure is due to Digital River's failure to perform or comply with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions of the arrangement agreement; (ii) LML's board of directors withdraws its approval and recommendation of the arrangement agreement and the arrangement; (iii) LML's board of directors approves or recommends a proposal for a third-party transaction; (iv) LML materially breaches its obligations under the arrangement agreement; or (v) the representations and warranties made by LML in the arrangement agreement fail to be true and correct in all material respects.

Termination Fees and Expenses (page 53)

• LML has agreed to pay Digital River a termination fee of $3,000,000, and to reimburse Digital River for all out of pocket expenses and fees incurred in connection with the negotiation, execution and performance of the arrangement agreement, if the arrangement agreement is terminated under certain specified circumstances.

• Digital River has agreed to pay LML a termination fee of $3,000,000 if the arrangement agreement is terminated under certain specified circumstances.

If you are a registered shareholder and do not wish to accept the purchase price of $3.45 per share being paid in the arrangement and you do not vote in favor of the arrangement agreement and the arrangement, you have the right under British Columbia law to seek a judicial appraisal of your common shares to determine the “fair value” of your common shares, and to receive such fair value in lieu of the purchase price if the arrangement is completed.

Table of Contents

- We refer you to the information under the heading “Dissent Rights” in this proxy statement, to the Interim Order attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement, and to the applicable British Columbia statutory sections attached as Appendix E to this proxy statement for information on how to exercise your dissent rights. Failure to follow all of the steps required under British Columbia law will result in the loss of your dissent rights.
- In the event shareholders holding more than 10% of the LML’s outstanding shares have exercised (and not withdrawn) their dissent rights, Digital River is not required to, and may refuse to, complete the arrangement.

Material Canadian and U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (pages 58 and 61, respectively)

- Generally speaking, you will be taxed on your receipt of the $3.45 in cash per share to the extent that the amount you receive exceeds your tax basis in your shares.
- Because determining the tax consequences of the arrangement can be complicated (particularly if you receive payment for options or warrants, or if you exercise dissent rights), you should consult your tax advisor in order to understand fully how the arrangement will affect you.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE ARRANGEMENT AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

Q: What is the proposed transaction?

A: Digital River will acquire LML through a statutory plan of arrangement between LML and Digital River's wholly-owned subsidiary, the Purchaser. At the effective time of the arrangement, Digital River will indirectly, through the Purchaser, acquire all of the outstanding equity securities of LML for cash consideration, and LML will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Digital River.

Q: What will I receive in the arrangement?

A: You will be entitled to receive $3.45 in cash for each share of LML common stock you own at the effective time of the arrangement, unless you exercise and perfect your dissent rights.

Q: What will happen to the market for LML common stock after the arrangement?

A: At the effective time of the arrangement, trading in LML common stock on the Nasdaq Capital Market will cease. Price quotations for LML common stock will no longer be available and the registration of LML common stock, and LML's reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and under Canadian securities laws will each terminate.

Q: Why are the board of directors and the special committee recommending that I vote in favor of the arrangement agreement and the arrangement?

A: LML's board of directors and special committee have determined that the terms of the arrangement agreement and the arrangement are fair to and in the best interests of LML and its shareholders. Accordingly, the board of directors and special committee each approved the arrangement agreement and the arrangement and recommend that you vote "FOR" the special resolutions approving the arrangement. Voting "FOR" approval of the special resolutions also constitutes your approval of the arrangement agreement and the arrangement. For more information, we refer you to "The Proposed Arrangement—Background to the Arrangement Agreement," "—Recommendation of the Special Committee and the Board of Directors" and "—Reasons for the Arrangement."

Q: What is the special committee?

A: On May 29, 2012, LML's board of directors formed a special committee of three independent directors, Greg MacRae, David Cooke and Jacqueline Pace, to provide oversight with respect to the negotiation and evaluation of potential strategic alternatives for LML. For more information, we refer you to "The Proposed Arrangement—Background to the Arrangement Agreement."

Q: What will happen to my LML stock options and warrants?

A: If you own options or warrants to purchase shares of LML common stock at the effective time of the arrangement, you will be entitled to receive for each option or warrant, regardless of whether such option or warrant is then vested and exercisable, an amount in cash determined by multiplying: (1) the excess, if any, of $3.45 over the per share exercise price of that option or warrant, by (2) the number of shares that could be acquired upon exercise of that option or warrant.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the arrangement?

A: The exchange of your shares for cash in the arrangement will be a taxable transaction for Canadian and U.S. federal income tax purposes and may also be a taxable transaction under state, local, foreign and other tax laws. For more information, we refer you to “Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Consequences” and “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences.” We encourage you to consult with your own tax advisor with any questions you may have on the tax consequences of the arrangement, especially if you own LML stock options or warrants.

Q: Who can vote at the special meeting?

Q: How many shares need to be represented at the meeting?

A: The holders of thirty-three and one-third percent (33-1/3%) of the outstanding shares of LML common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If you vote by proxy or in person at the special meeting, you will be considered part of the quorum.

Q: How do I vote?

A: If you are a shareholder of record, you may vote in person at the special meeting. You may also vote your shares directly by internet or telephone, or via proxy by mail:

- By Internet or Telephone — If you have internet or telephone access, you may vote by following the voting instructions on your proxy card no later than 10:00 am Pacific Time on , 2012. If you vote by internet or telephone, you need not return your proxy card.
- By Mail — You may vote via proxy by signing and dating your proxy card and returning it to our transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services Inc., 6th Floor, 530 - 8th Avenue, S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3S8 by facsimile to (403) 267-6529, or by mail in the enclosed envelope, provided that your proxy card must be received by Computershare no later than 10:00 am Pacific Time on , 2012. You should sign your name exactly as it appears on the proxy card. If you are signing in a representative capacity (for example, as guardian, executor, trustee, custodian, attorney or officer of a corporation), you should indicate your name and title or capacity.

Q: If my shares are held in “street name” by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A:

Your broker will not have discretionary power to vote your shares on the arrangement agreement and the arrangement. Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide him or her with instructions on how to vote. Any failure to instruct your broker on how to vote on the proposal to approve and adopt the arrangement agreement and the arrangement will result in your shares being treated as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting, but your shares will not be considered "votes cast" at the meeting and, therefore, will not have any effect on the outcome of the proposal to approve and adopt the arrangement agreement and the arrangement. Note that if your shares are registered under your bank or broker or an agent of that bank or broker, such intermediaries should seek your voting instructions as a beneficial shareholder in advance of the special meeting. Please ensure you follow the directions provided by your broker on how to instruct your broker to vote your shares and deliver your letter of transmittal.

Table of Contents

Q: May I change my vote?

A: Yes. If you are a shareholder of record, you may revoke your proxy and change your vote at any time before the special meeting by:

- giving written notice of your revocation to a LML's corporate secretary;
- submitting a duly executed proxy card bearing a later date; or
- attending the special meeting and expressing the desire to vote your shares in person (attending the meeting will not in and of itself revoke your proxy).

If your shares are held in "street name" through a broker, your broker should provide you with appropriate instructions for revoking your proxy.

Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

A: If you have shares that are registered in different names and/or are in more than one account, you will receive more than one proxy card. If you vote by mail, please sign and return each proxy card or, if you vote by internet or telephone, please vote once for each proxy card you receive to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: How many votes are required to approve and adopt the special resolutions?

A: Approval and adoption of the special resolutions approving the arrangement requires the affirmative vote of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) of the votes cast in person or by proxy at the special meeting. Beneficial holders of approximately 33.2% of the shares of LML common stock outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement have agreed to vote in favor of the arrangement pursuant to lock-up and support agreements. A failure to provide your broker with instructions on how to vote, or a vote to abstain, will result in your shares being treated as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting, but your shares will not be considered "votes cast" at the meeting and, therefore, will not have any effect on the outcome of the proposal to approve the special resolutions.

Q: Do I have dissent rights?

A: Yes. Registered shareholders who do not vote in favor of the arrangement agreement and the arrangement and who otherwise comply with all of the requirements of British Columbia law, as explained under the heading "Principal Legal Matters Related to the Arrangement—Dissent Rights" in this proxy statement and in Appendix E to this proxy statement, will be entitled to appraisal rights to receive the statutorily determined "fair value" of their shares.

Q: What happens if I sell my LML shares before the special meeting?

A: If you transfer your LML shares after the record date, but before the date of the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting but the right to receive the $3.45 in cash per share will pass to the person to whom you transferred your shares.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: Please vote your shares by internet, telephone, or by completing, signing, dating, and returning the enclosed proxy card as soon as possible to ensure that your shares are represented at the special meeting.

Q: Should I send in my LML stock certificates now?

A: If you are a registered shareholder, you should have received a letter of transmittal. In order to receive the $3.45 in cash per share following completion of the arrangement, you must complete and sign the letter of transmittal and deliver it, together with the certificate representing your shares of LML common stock and the other documents specified in the letter of transmittal, to our transfer agent in accordance with instructions in the letter of transmittal. The letter of transmittal contains procedural information relating to the arrangement and should be reviewed carefully.

SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS OF
LML PAYMENT SYSTEMS INC.
, 2012

LML Payment Systems Inc.
Suite 1680 - 1140 West Pender Street
Vancouver, British Columbia V6E 4G1

The accompanying Instrument of Proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of our Corporation to be used at the Meeting to be held at , on , 2012, at 10:00 a.m. local time. This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Instrument of Proxy and Notice of Meeting are first being mailed to Shareholders of record on or about , 2012.

We will bear the expense of this solicitation. Certain of our directors, officers and employees may solicit the return of proxies by mail, telephone, facsimile or other similar means without additional compensation. Requests will also be made of brokerage houses and custodians, nominees or fiduciaries to forward proxy material at our expense to the beneficial owners of shares held of record by such persons. Our transfer agent, Computershare, has agreed to assist us in the tabulation of proxies and the counting of votes at the Meeting.

WHO CAN VOTE

Only Shareholders of record as of the close of business on , 2012 are entitled to receive notice of, attend and vote at the Meeting (you will be considered a Shareholder of record of your Common Shares if such shares are registered directly in your name with Computershare, whereas if your Common Shares are held in an account at a brokerage firm, bank, broker-dealer, or other nominee or similar organization, then you will be considered a beneficial owner of shares held in "street name"). As of , 2012, there were 28,246,684 Common Shares in the capital of our Corporation issued and outstanding owned by approximately 330 Shareholders of record. We have no other voting securities outstanding. Each Shareholder of record on , 2012 is entitled to one vote for each Common Share held.

HOW YOU CAN VOTE

Common Shares cannot be voted at our Meeting unless the Shareholder of record is present in person or represented by proxy. Shareholders of record have the right to attend our Meeting at the time and place set forth in the Notice of Special Meeting and to vote their shares directly at the Meeting. In addition, the enclosed Instrument of Proxy contains instructions by which a Shareholder may vote by telephone (by using the toll-free telephone number shown on the Instrument of Proxy) or electronically via the Internet (by visiting the website listed on the Instrument of Proxy). In the alternative, a Shareholder may appoint a person to represent such Shareholder at our Meeting by completing the enclosed Instrument of Proxy, which authorizes a person other than the Shareholder of record to vote on behalf of the Shareholder, and returning it to our transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services Inc., 6th Floor, 530 - 8th Avenue, S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3S8 by facsimile (facsimile (403) 267-6529) or by mail in the enclosed envelope. All Shareholders are urged to mark, sign, date and promptly return the enclosed Instrument of Proxy by facsimile or by mail in the enclosed envelope, or to vote by telephone or electronically via the Internet, after reviewing the information contained in this Proxy Statement. Valid proxies will be voted at our Meeting and at any postponements or adjournments thereof as you direct in the proxy, provided that such proxies are received by Computershare no later than 10:00 am Pacific Time on , 2012 or at least 48 hours prior to any adjournment of the Meeting. The Chair of the Meeting has the discretion to accept proxies on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof prior to the time of voting.

The Common Shares represented by the proxy will be voted or withheld from voting as directed in the proxy. If no direction is given and the proxy is validly executed, the proxy will be voted "FOR" the Arrangement Resolutions under the BCBCA pursuant to which DRIV will, indirectly through the Purchaser, acquire all of the issued and outstanding Common Shares of the Corporation. If any other matters properly come before our Meeting, the persons authorized under the proxies will vote upon such other matters in accordance with their best judgment, pursuant to the discretionary authority conferred by the proxy.

Table of Contents

Our Board of Directors and Special Committee have each approved the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement, have determined that the terms of the Arrangement are fair to and in the best interest of the Corporation and its Shareholders, and recommend that your vote “FOR” the Arrangement Resolutions. Voting “FOR” the Arrangement Resolutions also constitutes your approval of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement.

ADVICE TO BENEFICIAL HOLDERS OF COMMON SHARES

THE INFORMATION SET FORTH IN THIS SECTION IS OF SIGNIFICANT IMPORTANCE TO MANY SHAREHOLDERS OF OUR CORPORATION AS A SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER OF SHAREHOLDERS DO NOT HOLD SHARES IN THEIR OWN NAME.

Shareholders who do not hold their shares in their own name (referred to in this proxy statement as “beneficial shareholders”), including beneficial shareholders who hold their shares in “street name” through a bank or broker, should note that only proxies deposited by Shareholders whose names appear on the records of our Corporation as the registered holders of Common Shares can be recognized and acted upon at our Meeting. If Common Shares are listed in an account statement provided to a Shareholder by a bank or broker, then in almost all cases, those Common Shares will not be registered in the Shareholder’s name on the records of our Corporation. Such Common Shares will more likely be registered under the name of the Shareholder’s bank or broker or an agent of that bank or broker. In the United States, the vast majority of such shares are registered under the name of Cede & Co. as nominee for The Depository Trust Company (which acts as depository for many U.S. brokerage firms and custodian banks), and in Canada, under the name of CDS & Co. (the registration name for The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited, which acts as nominee for many Canadian brokerage firms). Beneficial shareholders should ensure that instructions respecting the voting of their Common Shares are communicated to the appropriate person.

Applicable regulatory policy requires intermediaries such as banks or brokers to seek voting instructions from beneficial shareholders in advance of shareholders’ meetings. Every intermediary has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions to clients, which should be carefully followed by beneficial shareholders in order to ensure that their Common Shares are voted at our Meeting. The majority of brokers now delegate responsibility for obtaining instructions from clients to Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. (“Broadridge U.S.”) in the United States and Broadridge Investor Communications Solutions, Canada (“Broadridge Canada”) in Canada. Broadridge U.S. and Broadridge Canada typically apply a special sticker to proxy forms, mail those forms to the beneficial shareholders and ask beneficial shareholders to return the proxy forms to Broadridge U.S. for the United States and Broadridge Canada for Canada. Broadridge U.S. and Broadridge Canada then tabulate the results of all instructions received and provide appropriate instructions respecting the voting of shares to be represented at shareholder meetings. A beneficial shareholder receiving a Broadridge U.S. proxy or a Broadridge Canada proxy cannot use that proxy to vote Common Shares directly at our Meeting - the proxy must be returned to Broadridge U.S. or Broadridge Canada, as the case may be, well in advance of our Meeting in order to have the Common Shares voted.

Although a beneficial shareholder may not be recognized directly at our Meeting for the purposes of voting Common Shares registered in the name of his or her bank or broker (or agent of the bank or broker), a beneficial shareholder may attend our Meeting as proxyholder for the registered shareholder and vote the Common Shares in that capacity. Beneficial shareholders who wish to attend our Meeting and indirectly vote their Common Shares as proxyholder for the registered shareholder should enter their own names in the blank space on the Instrument of Proxy provided to them and return the same to their bank or broker (or the bank or broker’s agent) in accordance with the instructions provided by such bank or broker (or agent), well in advance of our Meeting.

Alternatively, a beneficial shareholder may request in writing that his or her bank or broker send to the beneficial shareholder a legal proxy which would enable the beneficial shareholder to attend our Meeting and vote his or her

Common Shares.

BROKER NON-VOTES

If you are a beneficial shareholder who holds shares in “street name” through a bank or broker, the bank or broker will ask you how you want your Common Shares to be voted and the bank or broker is then required to vote those Common Shares in accordance with your instructions. Since there are no “discretionary” proposals, a bank or broker will not otherwise be permitted to vote the shares with respect to the proposal at the Meeting. We urge you to provide instructions to your bank or broker so that your votes may be counted on this important matter.

QUORUM AND REQUIRED VOTE

A quorum of Shareholders is necessary to take action at our Meeting. A minimum of one person present in person or represented by proxy and holding at least 33-1/3 percent (33-1/3%) of the outstanding Common Shares as of , 2012 that are entitled to vote at any meeting of the Shareholders will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Meeting. However, if a quorum is not present, the Shareholders present at our Meeting have the power to adjourn the Meeting until a quorum is present. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present or represented by proxy, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the original meeting.

The Arrangement must receive the affirmative vote of a special majority (66-2/3%) of the votes cast in person or by proxy at our Meeting to be approved. Beneficial holders of approximately 33.2% of the outstanding Common Shares as of the date of this Proxy Statement have agreed to vote in favor of the Arrangement pursuant to lock-up and support agreements. See "Lock-Up and Support Agreements".

With respect to approval of the Arrangement Resolutions, a Shareholder may vote in favour or vote against such proposal or may "abstain" from voting on such proposal. In the event of broker non-votes or abstentions, such Common Shares will be treated as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum at our Meeting, but will not be considered "votes cast" at our Meeting and, therefore, will not be counted for purposes of calculating the votes cast for approval of the Arrangement and will not have any effect on the outcome of such matter.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT. ACCORDINGLY, YOU ARE ASKED TO MARK, DATE, SIGN AND RETURN THE ACCOMPANYING INSTRUMENT OF PROXY OR VOTE BY TELEPHONE OR THE INTERNET WHETHER OR NOT YOU PLAN TO ATTEND OUR SPECIAL MEETING. IF YOU PLAN TO ATTEND OUR SPECIAL MEETING TO VOTE IN PERSON AND YOUR SHARES ARE REGISTERED WITH OUR TRANSFER AGENT (COMPUTERSHARE INVESTOR SERVICES INC.) IN THE NAME OF A BROKER, BANK, OR OTHER INTERMEDIARY, YOU MUST SECURE A PROXY FROM THE INTERMEDIARY ASSIGNING VOTING RIGHTS TO YOU FOR YOUR COMMON SHARES.

REVOCATION OF PROXIES

If you are a shareholder of record, you can revoke your proxy at any time prior to the start of our Meeting in three ways:

1. by delivering a written notice of revocation to the Corporate Secretary of our Corporation;
2. by submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or
3. by attending our Meeting and expressing the desire to vote your Common Shares in person (attendance at our Meeting will not in and of itself revoke a proxy).

If your Common Shares are held in "street name" through a bank or broker, your bank or broker should provide you with appropriate instructions for revoking your proxy.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF VOTES

Proxy instructions, ballots and voting tabulations that identify individual Shareholders will be handled in a manner that protects the Shareholder's voting privacy. A Shareholder's vote will not be disclosed either within the Corporation or to third parties, except (i) as necessary to meet applicable legal requirements; (ii) to allow for the tabulation and certification of votes; and (iii) to facilitate a successful proxy solicitation. Occasionally, Shareholders may provide written comments on their proxy cards, which may be forwarded to the Corporation's management and the Board of Directors.

ADMISSION TO THE SPECIAL MEETING

As noted above, you are entitled to attend the Meeting in person only if you were a Shareholder of record as of the close of business on the record date (which was , 2012) or hold a valid proxy for the Meeting. If you are the Shareholder of record, your name will be verified against the list of Shareholders of record prior to your admittance to the Meeting. You should be prepared to present photo identification for admission. If you hold your Common Shares in street name (i.e., through a broker, bank or other intermediary), you should provide proof of beneficial ownership as of the record date (such as your most recent account statement prior to the record date), a copy of the voting instruction card provided by your broker, bank, or other intermediary, or other similar evidence of ownership as of the record date, as well as your photo identification, for admission. If you do not provide photo identification or comply with the other procedures outlined above upon request, you may not be admitted to the Meeting.

THE PROPOSED ARRANGEMENT

Background to the Arrangement Agreement

Beginning in early 2011, the Board of Directors had periodic informal discussions regarding acquisition, private placement and business combination opportunities. The Board of Directors specifically discussed the need to periodically examine the strategic direction of the Corporation and directed management of the Corporation to conduct an internal review of strategic alternatives for the Corporation. Such strategic alternatives included identifying potential material acquisition targets in the Corporation's lines of business or complementary lines of business, considering opportunities for a potential sale of the Corporation for cash or other securities, and other potential transactions which could enhance Shareholder value, liquidity and return. Furthermore, management of the Corporation and the Board of Directors felt it was prudent to examine the strategic direction of the Corporation at such time because the Corporation's intellectual property licensing business and related pending intellectual property litigation was nearing completion. Upon completion of its outstanding litigation, the Corporation's financial results would be primarily based on its Transaction Payment Processing business segment. Given the size of this business segment and considering factors such as the cost of being a publicly traded company and the fact that the Common Shares are thinly-traded, management and the Board of Directors felt it was pragmatic to examine various strategic alternatives.

As a result of the foregoing, in early fall, 2011, the Board of Directors determined that it would be prudent to engage a broker to advise the Board of Directors regarding the Corporation's potential strategic alternatives, which could include a potential sale of the Corporation, an offering of securities of the Corporation, or one or more acquisitions by the Corporation. In December 2011, in light of these informal discussions, certain members of management considered, interviewed, and reviewed the credentials, experience and financial expertise of the Broker, and on December 13, 2011, the Corporation engaged the Broker. Upon engagement, the Broker initiated due diligence on the Corporation to familiarize itself with the business of the Corporation. In conjunction with conducting its due diligence, the Broker had discussions with the Board of Directors with respect to acquisition opportunities and prepared and finalized marketing documents for the Corporation to gauge interest in a potential business combination.

Table of Contents

On May 29, 2012, the Board of Directors determined it was in the best interest of the Corporation to establish the Special Committee, consisting only of directors meeting the independence requirements of NASDAQ, to provide oversight with respect to the negotiation of any potential business combinations, and to evaluate such potential business combinations as an alternative to other strategic alternatives, such as continuing as an independent concern. The Special Committee was and is comprised of Greg MacRae, David Cooke, and Jacqueline Pace. Patrick Gaines is not a member of the Special Committee, because he is an officer of the Corporation, and because he disclosed in writing to the Board of Directors and to the Special Committee that he has an interest in any potential sale transaction that is different than the interests of the Corporation's other officers. As a result of the change of control provision in Mr. Gaines' employment agreement, he becomes entitled to a payment of a bonus that is based on the purchase price payable pursuant to a transaction where there is a change of control and his employment is terminated. Mr. Gaines is the only director who has an interest in any potential sale transaction other than as a shareholder or holder of stock options. On May 29, 2012, the mandate of the Special Committee was adopted by the Board of Directors and memorialized in a written charter, which granted to the Special Committee the following authority:

- (a) to review, and provide guidance to management and the Board of Directors with respect to, the Corporation's acquisition, investment, joint venture and divestiture strategies;
- (b) to assist management and the Board of Directors with the identification of acquisition, investment, joint venture and divestiture opportunities;
- (c) to execute, or authorize the Corporation's officers to execute, non-binding term sheets, letters of intent, memoranda of understanding or similar agreements (which may contain customary binding provisions such as provisions relating to confidentiality and exclusivity) and oversee management and the Board of Director's due diligence process with respect to proposed acquisitions, investments, joint ventures and divestitures;
- (d) to oversee management's negotiation of definitive binding agreements and documents relating to proposed acquisitions, investments, joint ventures and divestitures;
- (e) to consider and make recommendations to the Board of Directors as to proposed acquisitions, investments, joint ventures or divestitures and, with respect to any proposed acquisition, investment, joint venture or divestiture that the Special Committee recommends be approved by the Board of Directors, coordinate with management to submit to the Board of Directors for its approval proposed definitive binding agreements and documents (in substantially final form) for such proposed acquisition, investment, joint venture or divestiture;
- (f) to conduct appropriate periodic evaluations of the transactions completed by the Corporation;
- (g) to retain and terminate advisors to assist in discharging its duties, including approving such advisors' fees and retention terms; and
- (h) to provide a report of its meetings and activities to the Board of Directors on a regular basis, and report regularly to the Board of Directors on such issues as the Special Committee may determine are appropriate in the discharge of its duties.

In light of the Special Committee's mandate, the Special Committee determined that it would be prudent to engage an independent financial advisor to obtain a valuation report in respect of the current value of the Common Shares. The Special Committee considered, interviewed and reviewed the credentials, experience and financial expertise of the Financial Advisor, noting that the Financial Advisor was experienced in valuing businesses comparable to the business of the Corporation, and determined on June 11, 2012 to retain the Financial Advisor as its independent financial advisor. The Special Committee also determined that it would be prudent to engage independent legal counsel. The Special Committee engaged Knox & Co. ("Knox") as independent legal counsel on July 4, 2012 to advise the Special Committee in connection with potential business combinations. Knox's engagement included advice to the Special Committee regarding its fiduciary duties in relation to potential business combinations, as well as advice regarding relevant statutory and regulatory requirements to be satisfied in the Special Committee's and Board of Directors' consideration and evaluation of potential business combinations. The Special Committee met regularly with Knox in attendance to consider all aspects of matters and progress presented by the Broker and the Financial Advisor and to consider all strategic alternatives available to the Corporation, including potential business combinations and the benefits to the Corporation's shareholders from a potential business combination, as opposed to the other strategic alternatives available to the Corporation, such as continuing to pursue a stand-alone business strategy.

From March 2012 to May 2012, the Broker contacted 39 potential purchasers and conducted meetings with seven of the 39 potential purchasers to assess interest in a potential business combination. At the Special Committee's initial meeting on May 29, 2012, it considered a presentation provided by the Broker with respect to the status of the Broker's activities.

On June 1, 2012, at the Special Committee's request, the Broker began providing bid instructions to the potential purchasers.

On June 15, 2012, the Special Committee continued discussions with both the Broker and the Financial Advisor with respect to valuation and potential business combinations. At the meeting, the Financial Advisor provided a draft estimate valuation report of the Common Shares as at May 31, 2012. The estimate valuation report prepared by the Financial Advisor employed various approaches to determine the fair market value of the Common Shares. The approaches employed included: (i) discounted cash flow; (ii) premium paid to market price; and (iii) market comparable companies and transactions. Based on the analysis performed, the Financial Advisor's preliminary conclusion of the fair market value range for 100% of the Common Shares was in the range of $63 million to $67 million. During the discussions with representatives of the Financial Advisor, members of the Special Committee discussed the draft estimate valuation report, including the valuation methodologies and approach used by the Financial Advisor. At the same meeting, the Special Committee also reviewed and discussed a presentation from the Broker detailing the letters of interest received to date with respect to a potential sale of the Corporation. The Broker's presentation included a summary of the process which the Broker had undertaken, which resulted in contacting 39 potential purchasers, entering into non-disclosure agreements and providing additional information to seven potential purchasers, and receiving indications of interest to date from Party A, Party B, Party C and DRIV with an additional pending indication of interest from Party D (each Party described in additional detail below).

From June 11, 2012 to June 15, 2012, the Broker received the following four preliminary proposals from potential purchasers:

- On June 11, 2012, a potential purchaser ("Party A") submitted a proposed non-binding letter of interest to acquire all outstanding Common Shares and Options of the Corporation at an implied price of $3.17 per Common Share.
- On June 14, 2012, DRIV submitted a proposed non-binding letter of interest to acquire all outstanding Common Shares and Options of the Corporation at a price of $2.75 per Common Share.

- On June 14, 2012, a potential purchaser (“Party B”) submitted a proposed non-binding letter of interest to acquire all outstanding Common Shares and Options of the Corporation at an implied price range of $2.25 - $2.49 per Common Share.
- On June 15, 2012, a potential purchaser (“Party C”) proposed a non-binding expression of interest to acquire all outstanding Common Shares and Options of the Corporation at an implied price range of $3.40 - $4.07 per Common Share.

At the meeting on June 15, 2012, the Special Committee rejected each of DRIV's and Party B's offers and decided to invite Party A and Party C to continue further due diligence. Party B communicated to the Broker that it would not be pursuing an acquisition of the Corporation any further.

On June 21, 2012, a potential purchaser (“Party D”) submitted a proposed non-binding letter of interest to acquire all outstanding Common Shares and Options of the Corporation at a price of $3.25 per Common Share.

On June 22, 2012, the Special Committee discussed the proposed non-binding letter of interest received from Party D and on June 24, 2012, at the request of the Special Committee, the Broker provided Party A, Party C, and Party D access to an electronic data room. Subsequently, on June 26, 2012, DRIV submitted a revised proposed non-binding letter of interest with a revised price of $3.30 per Common Share and was also provided access to the electronic data room. On July 2, 2012, Party C informed the Broker that it would not be further pursuing the acquisition of the Corporation. From September 11, 2012 through September 20, 2012, representatives of Party D conducted additional due diligence review of the business, financial, legal and other records and operations of the Corporation.

Table of Contents

On July 3, 2012, the Special Committee met and reviewed an updated presentation from the Broker and, together with Clark Wilson LLP, legal counsel to the Corporation, Knox, and the Broker, reviewed a draft bid instruction letter to be sent to DRIV, Party A, and Party D. At the meeting, the Special Committee also reviewed and discussed a revised and reissued estimate valuation report from the Financial Advisor, dated June 22, 2012. As a result of a revised assumption regarding required future annual capital expenditures of the Corporation (previously based on an industry benchmark and revised based on an analysis of actual historical expenditures of the Corporation), the Financial Advisor concluded in its revised and reissued estimate valuation report that the fair market value range for 100% of the Common Shares would be in the range of $72 million to $77 million. After considering the presentations from the Broker and the Financial Advisor and the advice of Clark Wilson LLP, Knox, and the Broker, the Special Committee determined that it would be in the best interests of the Corporation and its Shareholders to proceed with the negotiation and evaluation of a potential business combination. The Special Committee also requested that the Financial Advisor produce a final estimate valuation report, which was delivered to the Special Committee on July 4, 2012. The final estimate valuation report delivered by the Financial Advisor indicated the range of valuations had not changed since the revised and reissued estimate valuation report, which concluded that the fair market value range for 100% of the Common Shares was in the range of $72 million to $77 million.

On July 5, 2012, at the request of the Special Committee, the Broker provided DRIV, Party A, and Party D the definitive bid instruction letter, including a draft of the Arrangement Agreement. The bid instruction letter requested bidders submit a final proposal on July 31, 2012.

From July 6, 2012 to July 30, 2012 representatives of the Corporation and the Broker had discussions with DRIV, Party A, and Party D as they continued their due diligence on the Corporation.

On July 27, 2012 the Special Committee met and received a summary of the Broker's recent activities and, after considering the strategic alternatives available to the Corporation, determined to proceed with an evaluation of the final bid proposals and, assuming a satisfactory final bid proposal was received, to enter into negotiations with the winning bidder regarding a potential business combination. The Special Committee then discussed with the Broker, Knox, and Clark Wilson LLP the process that would be required to complete such a business combination. The Broker indicated that the potential purchasers were expected to submit final bid proposals on July 31, 2012. Final bid proposals were required to include, among other things, the potential purchaser's comments to the form of Arrangement Agreement furnished by the Corporation.

On July 31, 2012, DRIV submitted, together with a revised draft Arrangement Agreement, a proposed non-binding letter of intent to acquire all outstanding Common Shares and Options of the Corporation at a price of $3.40 per Common Share. Among other terms, the proposed letter of intent granted DRIV a 30-day exclusivity period. On the same day, each of Party A and Party D contacted the Broker to affirm their continuing interest in a potential acquisition of the Corporation at the purchase prices previously proposed by them to the Corporation.

On August 2, 2012, the Special Committee met and discussed with the Broker, Clark Wilson LLP, and Knox the three final bid proposals received on July 31, 2012, including DRIV's request for a 30 day exclusivity period and whether the final bid proposal submitted by DRIV represented the best offer available. The Special Committee also discussed with Clark Wilson LLP and Knox certain changes to the draft arrangement agreement that were requested by DRIV, including a proposed termination fee equal to approximately 3.0% of the proposed purchase price that would be payable to DRIV if the arrangement agreement were terminated under certain circumstances. After evaluating DRIV's, Party A's and Party D's respective indications of interest, the Special Committee determined that it was advisable to continue negotiations with each of the final bidders regarding their bid proposals and assumed responsibility for further negotiating the proposed transactions. At the meeting, the Special Committee also discussed with the Broker the process for communicating to each of DRIV, Party A, and Party D the desire for an increased price per Common Share, which was subsequently communicated to DRIV, Party A and Party D by the Broker.

On August 6, 2012, DRIV delivered to the Special Committee a revised version of a non-binding letter of intent which increased the purchase price per Common Share from $3.40 to $3.45 and reduced the proposed exclusivity period from a 30-day period to a 21-day period. On August 7, 2012, the Special Committee discussed with Knox and Clark Wilson LLP its fiduciary duties in the context of considering an exclusive negotiation period with DRIV, reviewed the process conducted by the Broker to produce the DRIV offer, evaluated the likelihood that DRIV would further increase its revised offer or that any other third party would be willing to make a higher offer, and considered the unwillingness of DRIV to proceed with further negotiations unless exclusivity was granted. After considering these and other factors, and reviewing the advisability of proceeding with negotiations regarding a potential business combination as opposed to pursuing other strategic alternatives, the Special Committee determined that it was in the best interest of the Corporation and the Shareholders to grant exclusive negotiations to DRIV and continuing negotiating the proposed business combination with DRIV. On August 10, 2012, the Corporation and DRIV entered into a non-binding letter of intent, which provided among other things that the Corporation would negotiate exclusively with DRIV through August 31, 2012. The access of Party A and Party D to the Corporation's electronic data room was terminated.

Table of Contents

Beginning on August 10, 2012 and continuing through the termination of the exclusivity period on August 31, 2012, representatives of DRIV conducted additional due diligence review of the business, financial, legal, and other records and operations of the Corporation. During such time, representatives of DRIV and the Special Committee and their respective legal advisors, Fredrikson & Byron, P.A., and Clark Wilson LLP, continued to negotiate the terms of the proposed Arrangement Agreement, including circumstances under which the Corporation's Board of Directors would be permitted to respond to a superior offer, the amount of the termination fee payable by the Corporation to DRIV under certain circumstances, the circumstances under which a termination fee would be payable by the Corporation to DRIV, and the circumstances (if any) under which a termination fee would be payable by DRIV to the Corporation.

On August 17, 2012, the Special Committee engaged the Financial Advisor to provide the Financial Advisor Fairness Opinion in addition to and independent of the Broker Fairness Opinion due to the involvement of the Broker in identifying potential strategic alternatives for the Company, including the Arrangement.

On August 22, 2012, the Broker was contacted by Party D, which expressed a continued interest in acquiring the Corporation. The Broker informed Party D that discussions or negotiations regarding an acquisition of the Corporation were not possible at such time. As required by the terms of the DRIV letter of intent, the Corporation notified DRIV that the Broker had been contacted by a potential purchaser.

On August 31, 2012, DRIV and its financial advisor contacted the Broker, informed the Broker that DRIV's due diligence requirements were ongoing, and requested an extension to the exclusivity period. At the direction of the Special Committee, the Broker declined such request.

From September 6, 2012 through September 9, 2012, at the direction of the Special Committee, the Broker contacted Party A and Party D regarding their interest in resuming discussions regarding the potential acquisition of the Corporation. Party A and Party D each expressed interest in resuming such discussions, and on September 7, 2012, at the direction of the Special Committee, Party D was given access to the online data room. On September 11, 2012, Party A informed the Broker that it would not be pursuing a potential acquisition of the Corporation. From September 11, 2012 through September 20, 2012, representatives of Party D conducted additional due diligence review of the business, financial, legal and other records and operations of the Corporation.

On September 18, 2012, DRIV and its financial advisor contacted the Broker, indicating that DRIV had completed its business, financial and legal diligence and that, assuming the Arrangement Agreement could be finalized and Lock-Up and Support Agreements could be obtained from certain of the Corporation's shareholders, it would be willing to enter into a definitive Arrangement Agreement. From September 18, 2012 through September 21, 2012, representatives of Clark Wilson LLP and Fredrikson & Byron, P.A. worked to finalize the Arrangement Agreement.

On September 19, 2012 the Special Committee met to:

(f) consider and make recommendations to the Board of Directors in respect of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement.

On September 19, 2012, the Special Committee received the written Broker Fairness Opinion in respect of the Arrangement, and on October 1, 2012 the Special Committee received the written Financial Advisor Fairness Opinion in respect of the Arrangement, both of which confirmed that the terms of the Arrangement were fair, from a financial point of view, to Shareholders. See “The Arrangement - Valuation and Fairness Opinions”.

Also on September 19, 2012, after consulting with its legal and financial advisors and consideration of those factors outlined in this proxy statement and in the Fairness Opinions, the Special Committee determined that the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement are fair to and in the best interests of the Corporation and the Shareholders and determined to recommend that the Board of Directors approve the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement. Based on the factors outlined in this proxy statement and in the Fairness Opinions and the recommendation of the Special Committee, the Board of Directors met and (with Patrick Gaines having disclosed his interest in the transaction and therefore abstaining from voting) determined that the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement are fair to and in the best interests of the Corporation and the Shareholders, approved the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement, and determined to recommend that Shareholders vote in favour of the Arrangement.

On September 20, 2012, Party D contacted the Broker to affirm their continuing interest in a potential acquisition of the Corporation at the purchase price previously proposed by them to the Corporation but indicated that they needed additional time before submitting a final letter of intent.

The Arrangement Agreement was finalized and executed and delivered by the Corporation, DRIV and the Purchaser on September 21, 2012 after the close of the U.S. stock markets. On September 24, 2012, prior to the open of the U.S. stock markets, the Corporation and DRIV issued a joint news release and each filed a Form 8-K announcing the proposed Arrangement and the execution of the Arrangement Agreement.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors, based on the recommendation of the Special Committee and after careful consideration and consultation with its legal and financial advisors, has determined that the Arrangement is fair to and in the best interests of the Corporation and its Shareholders. The Board of Directors and the Special Committee recommend that the Shareholders vote FOR the Arrangement Resolution.

The Proxy Statement and its delivery to Shareholders has been unanimously approved by the Board of Directors.

Reasons for the Arrangement

After consulting with the Broker and the Financial Advisor and consideration of a number of factors, including the Fairness Opinions and the factors identified below, the Board of Directors and the Special Committee determined that the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement are fair to and in the best interests of the Corporation and its Shareholders. In reaching this decision, the Board of Directors and Special Committee carefully considered the factors described below, all aspects of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement, and the factors outlined in the Fairness Opinions. The factors considered by the Board of Directors and the Special Committee in recommending the approval of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement by the Shareholders include without limiting the following:

- Superior Alternative to Continuing as an Independent Concern. Our Board of Directors and Special Committee concluded that the Share Consideration of $3.45 per Common Share to be received by Shareholders of the Corporation compares favorably to the range of potential valuations of the Corporation as an independent concern, based on traditional valuation analyses such as discounted cash flow analyses, comparable companies analysis, and comparable transaction analysis, and taking into account the Corporation's need as an independent concern to expand into additional markets, increase its market share, revenues, and profitability, and offer additional products and services, all in competition with other competitors, many of whom are larger and have greater resources than the Corporation.

Table of Contents

- Premium. The price to be paid for each Common Share under the Arrangement represents a premium of approximately 84.5% over the closing price of the Common Shares on September 21, 2012, the last trading day for the Common Shares on NASDAQ prior to the announcement of the Arrangement Agreement, and a premium of approximately 70% over the 20-day volume-weighted average price of the Common Shares on the NASDAQ for the period ended September 21, 2012. Similarly, according to the verbal Financial Advisor Fairness Opinion presented to the Board of Directors on August 31, 2012, the Corporation's enterprise value and equity value on August 30, 2012 equaled approximately $29.1 million and $58.8 million respectively, compared to $73.1 million and $102.8 million as implied by the purchase price payable under the Arrangement Agreement.
- Form, Amount, and Certainty of Consideration. The Share Consideration provides immediate liquidity and certainty to the Shareholders, particularly in comparison to a purchase price payable in purchaser securities or other consideration that fluctuates in value, and at a premium to the trading price of Common Shares prior to the announcement of the Arrangement. Additionally, in the view of the Board of Directors and the Special Committee, the Arrangement is likely to be completed, based on the commitment and ability of DRIV and the Purchaser to complete the transactions contemplated by the Arrangement Agreement and considering the totality of the terms of the Arrangement Agreement, including the absence of significant closing conditions (such as financing conditions) other than approval by Shareholders of the Arrangement Resolution, the approval of the Court, regulatory approvals, and other customary closing conditions.
- Liquidity and Comparison with Open Market Share Prices. The Common Shares are thinly traded, and it is unlikely that a Shareholder would be able to sell any significant amounts of Common Shares in the public market without negatively impacting the price of Common Shares. Additionally, the Arrangement will allow each Shareholder to dispose of his, her or its Common Shares without incurring brokerage fees or commissions.
- Alternatives to the Arrangement. Our Board of Directors and Special Committee believe that the Share Consideration represents the highest price reasonably obtainable for the Common Shares, based on the belief that such Share Consideration represents the highest price that would have been paid by DRIV for the Corporation, and the fact that our Special Committee, with the advice and assistance of our management, the Broker, the Financial Adviser, and Clark Wilson LLP, identified a significant list of third parties that it believed would reasonably be expected to have an interest in acquiring the Corporation, contacted such parties, and solicited competitive bids from such parties, but did not receive from any such third party a proposal that was superior to the proposal reflected by the Arrangement Agreement.
- Possibility of Higher Offers. The terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement do not preclude an unsolicited third party from proposing or making a Superior Proposal. Shareholders that are not a party to a Lock-Up and Support Agreement are not prohibited from tendering their Common Shares to, or voting in favor of a transaction with, a third party that proposes or makes a Superior Proposal. Additionally, the Board of Directors and Special Committee are permitted under the terms of the Arrangement Agreement to, subject to the limitations and requirements contained in the Arrangement Agreement, furnish confidential information to and conduct negotiations with any third party that has made an unsolicited Superior Proposal to acquire the Corporation, and may ultimately terminate the Arrangement Agreement with DRIV to accept a Superior Proposal under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, including the payment to DRIV of a $3 million termination fee. The Board of Directors and Special Committee considered the amount of the termination fee reasonable in light of market comparables and not preclusive of third party proposals to acquire the Corporation.
- Role of Special Committee. The Special Committee oversaw the conduct of arm's length negotiations with DRIV and the Purchaser, including the negotiation of key transaction terms (including, but not limited to, termination fee, cash consideration, acquisition by way of plan of arrangement, and duration of the exclusivity agreement), key economic terms (including the cash consideration of $3.45 per Common Share and the responsibility for expenses to be paid by the parties), and other terms (including, but not limited to, the representations and warranties of DRIV, the Purchaser and the Corporation, covenants and conditions of DRIV, the Purchaser and the Corporation, insurance and indemnification provisions, key definitions, and termination rights) of the Arrangement Agreement. In conducting the negotiations, the Special Committee engaged and consulted with the independent Financial Advisor and Knox, its independent legal counsel, as well as the Broker and Clark Wilson LLP, legal counsel to the Corporation.

- Fairness Opinions. The Financial Advisor and the Broker each provided oral opinions to our Special Committee, which were subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of September 21, 2012 and September 19, 2012, respectively, and subject to the considerations, limitations and other matters set forth in the Fairness Opinions, the Share Consideration to be received by Corporation Shareholders (other than Common Shares held in treasury or held by DRIV or any subsidiary of the Corporation or DRIV) pursuant to the Arrangement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such Shareholders. See “The Proposed Arrangement – Fairness Opinions”.

Table of Contents

- Terms of Arrangement Agreement. The Board of Directors and Special Committee consider the terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement, which were negotiated extensively and at arms' length, reasonable, including the representations, warranties and covenants of the parties, the restrictions on the conduct of the Corporation's business until completion of the Arrangement, the conditions to the respective obligations of the parties to complete the Arrangement, and the obligation of DRIV to pay the Corporation a $3 million termination fee if the Arrangement Agreement is terminated on the basis of a breach by DRIV.
- Shareholder Approval. The Arrangement Resolution must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least 66-2/3% of the votes cast by Shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting. Beneficial holders of approximately 33.2% of the outstanding Common Shares as of the date of this Proxy Statement have agreed to vote in favor of the Arrangement pursuant to lock-up and support agreements. See "Lock-Up and Support Agreements".
- Court Approval and Dissent Rights. A plan of arrangement is a statutory procedure available under the BCBCA as well as under the Canada Business Corporations Act and other provincial corporations statutes, and can be used in lieu of other common acquisition mechanisms, such as the statutory amalgamation and the take-over bid. Where a corporation wishes to combine by way of a plan of arrangement, it must apply to the court for an order approving a proposed plan of arrangement. Therefore, a final order by the Supreme Court of British Columbia is required to approve the Arrangement under the terms of the Arrangement Agreement, the Interim Order and under the provisions of the BCBCA. If the Court does not make a judicial determination as to the fairness of the Arrangement, then the Final Order will not be granted and the Arrangement cannot proceed. Registered Shareholders who do not vote in favour of the Arrangement will have the right to require judicial appraisal of their Common Shares and obtain "fair value" pursuant to the proper exercise of Dissent Rights.

The Special Committee and the Board of Directors also considered a number of potential risks relating to, and negative aspects of, the Arrangement, including without limitation the following:

- No Future Appreciation. Shareholders will not participate in any future growth potential or benefit from any future increase in the value of the Corporation.
- Restrictions on Solicitation. The Arrangement Agreement restricts the ability of the Corporation and its representatives to solicit competing acquisition proposals, allows DRIV to match any competing acquisition proposal, and requires that the Corporation pay to DRIV a termination fee of $3 million in order to terminate the Arrangement Agreement and accept a Superior Proposal, all of which may discourage third parties from making a competing offer to acquire the Corporation.
- Payment of Certain Amounts in the Event the Arrangement is Not Completed. If the Arrangement Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, the Corporation may be required to pay to DRIV a termination fee of $3 million or reimburse DRIV for its transaction expenses.
- Restrictions on the Conduct of the Corporation's Business. Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, the Corporation is subject to a number of restrictions on the conduct of our business pending completion of the Arrangement, such as the requirement the Corporation's business be operated in the ordinary course of business and that the Corporation refrain from taking certain specified actions, all of which could delay or prevent us from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Arrangement.

- Disruption of Business. The announcement of the Arrangement Agreement will divert the Corporation's management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters while working to implement the Arrangement, and may also result in the loss of customer, vendor, or other commercial relationships, as a result of such parties' unwillingness to do business with DRIV, or otherwise. The announcement of the Arrangement Agreement could also negatively impact the Corporation's ability to retain its management, technical, sales, and other key personnel. In the event the Arrangement is not for any reason completed, the Corporation would be required to continue to operate its business as an independent concern after experiencing these disruptions and negative consequences.

Table of Contents

- Taxable Transaction. The fact that the Arrangement will be a taxable transaction for most Shareholders and, as a result, taxes will generally be required to be paid by such Shareholders on any income and gains that result from receipt of the consideration in the Arrangement.
- Interests of Directors and Officers. The interests that certain of our directors and executive officers may have with respect to the Arrangement, in addition to their interests as Shareholders generally, all of which are described in “The Proposed Arrangement – Interests of Directors and Officers in the Arrangement”.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Board of Directors and the Special Committee is not intended to be exhaustive but summarizes the material factors considered by the Board of Directors and Special Committee. In light of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Arrangement, and the complexity of these factors, our Board of Directors and Special Committee did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise attempt to assign relative weights to the various factors in reaching their determinations. In addition, our Board of Directors and Special Committee did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to the ultimate determination of our Board of Directors or Special Committee, but rather conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above, including discussions with and questioning of our senior management, the Broker, the Financial Advisor, Knox, and Clark Wilson LLP, as appropriate.

Intentions of the Corporation’s Executive Officers and Directors

The executive officers and directors of the Corporation beneficially own in the aggregate 1,577,096 outstanding Common Shares (not including Options to acquire 3,596,750 Common Shares), which represent approximately 5.6% of the outstanding Common Shares as of October 11, 2012. The executive officers and directors of the Corporation have indicated to the Corporation that they intend to vote their Common Shares in favour of the Arrangement and have entered into Lock-Up and Support Agreements evidencing same. See “Lock-Up and Support Agreements”.

Interests of Directors and Officers in the Arrangement

In considering the recommendations of the Board of Directors and the Special Committee with respect to the Arrangement, Shareholders should be aware that certain directors and officers of the Corporation have interests discussed in this Proxy Statement that may be actual or potential conflicts of interest with respect to the Arrangement. The Board of Directors and the Special Committee are aware of these interests and considered them when making their recommendations. These interests are described below.

For additional information regarding director and executive compensation and related matters, see “Executive Compensation” and “Compensation of Directors” in the Corporation’s proxy statement dated July 27, 2012 available on SEDAR at <http://www.sedar.com> and EDGAR at <http://www.sec.gov>.

The directors and executive officers of the Corporation are expected to receive the following amounts (net of per share exercise price and before applicable tax withholdings) in settlement of their respective Options, if the Arrangement is completed, assuming none of them exercise the Options listed below prior to the Effective Time:

Potential Payments upon Termination or Change in Control

Each of the employment agreements for Messrs. Gaines, Thomson, Schulz and Koide and Mrs. Gaines (the Corporation's Named Executive Officers) provides that in the event that:

- (i) such Named Executive Officer terminates such officer's employment for good reason (which includes the right of the Named Executive Officer to terminate such officer's employment in the event of a change in control of the Corporation), or
- (ii) the Corporation terminates such Named Executive Officer's employment without cause, such Named Executive Officer will be eligible to receive:

A. a lump sum severance payment equal to two (2) years' current base salary, all accrued vacation pay, and two (2) times the last annual bonus such officer received; and

B. immediate vesting of all the granted but unexpired stock options awarded to such Named Executive Officer.

In addition, in the event such termination for good reason or termination without cause occurs following a change of control of the Corporation, Mr. Gaines will also be eligible to receive a lump sum payment equal to three and one-half per cent (3.5%) of the total consideration paid to or for the Corporation in the change of control transaction. Mr. Gaines has informed the Corporation that he will not be continuing his employment after completion of the Arrangement, so this provision will therefore entitle him to a lump sum payment equal to $3,598,000 at closing.

In addition, the Named Executive Officers' participation in the Corporation's group insurance benefit plans (which are provided to all eligible employees of the Corporation) will be continued by the Corporation for a period of two (2) years following the date of termination or until any of them replaces such plans, whichever is earlier.

- (2) The value of the vesting acceleration was calculated by multiplying the number of unvested, in-the-money option shares as of November 18, 2012, the next scheduled stock option vesting date, by the spread between the Share Consideration of $3.45 per Common Share, and the exercise price of such unvested options. At November 18, 2012, Messrs. Gaines, Thomson, Schulz and Koide and Mrs. Gaines are expected to hold 62,500; 50,000; 37,500; 37,500 and 25,000 unvested stock options, respectively, that are expected to be in-the-money at an exercise price of $1.62 per Common Share. In addition, at November 18, 2012, Messrs. Gaines, Thomson, Schulz and Koide and Mrs. Gaines are expected to hold 125,000; 100,000; 75,000; 75,000 and 50,000 unvested stock options, respectively, that are expected to be in-the-money at an exercise price of $2.12 per Common Share. Together, these unvested stock options, if exercised at these values, would result in the gains on exercise as reported in the table.
- (3) The total consideration to be paid for the Corporation in the change of control transaction contemplated by the Arrangement is approximately $102.8 million.
- (4) To the knowledge of the Corporation, Messrs. Thomson and Koide have entered into employment agreements with DRIV and, as a result, Messrs. Thomson and Koide are not expected to receive base salary, bonus and benefits continuation amounts under their existing employment agreements at the Effective Date.

Indemnification and Insurance

The Arrangement Agreement provides that the Corporation may take all action necessary or appropriate to continue and maintain in effect for a period of not less than six years from the Effective Date, policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance as necessary to maintain all current rights to indemnification or exculpation in favour of the current and former directors and officers of the Corporation provided by the policies maintained by the Corporation that are in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time.

The Corporation has standard indemnification agreements with certain directors and officers. The constating documents of the Corporation also provide for the indemnification in certain circumstances of the Corporation's directors and officers. The Arrangement Agreement provides that DRIV will cause Amalco to honour all rights to indemnification existing in favour of present and former directors and officers of the Corporation as of the Effective Time, such indemnification to continue in full force and effect and without modification until the second anniversary of the date of the Arrangement Agreement.

Commitments to Acquire Securities of the Corporation

Other than pursuant to the Stock Option Plans and outstanding Options and except as described herein in connection with the Arrangement, there are no agreements, commitments or understandings of the Corporation or the directors and officers of the Corporation to acquire securities of the Corporation.

Benefits from the Arrangement Agreement

Except as described herein, no director or officer of the Corporation will receive any direct or indirect benefit in connection with the Arrangement.

Material Changes

Except as described herein with respect to the Arrangement, there are no plans or proposals for material changes in the affairs of the Corporation.

Required Shareholder Approval

At the Meeting, Shareholders will be asked to vote to approve the Arrangement Resolution. The Arrangement Resolution must be passed by at least 66-2/3% of the votes cast by Shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting (with each Shareholder entitled to one vote for each Common Share held). Beneficial holders of approximately 33.2% of the outstanding Common Stock as of the date of this Proxy Statement have agreed to vote in favor of the Arrangement pursuant to lock-up and support agreements. See "Lock-Up and Support Agreements". A vote in favor of the approval of the Arrangement Resolution also constitutes your approval of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement.

Notwithstanding the approval of the Arrangement at the Meeting, the Corporation reserves the right not to proceed with the Arrangement subject to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement.

Forecasts

The Corporation does not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose financial forecasts as to future financial performance, earnings, or other results. The Corporation is cautious of making financial forecasts because of unpredictability of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, in connection with the evaluation of a possible transaction, the Corporation provided five-year financial projections, prepared by the Corporation's management in March 2012, to our advisors, as well as to prospective bidders in connection with their due diligence review of the Corporation, which we refer to as the "Forecasts." The Forecasts were prepared to provide information as to the operating results and financial condition of our business that could be achieved assuming certain revenue growth and assuming expense expectations were met and were based on extrapolation from historical financial statements.

A summary of the Forecasts has been included below. The Forecasts are being included in this proxy statement because the Forecasts were made available to our advisors, as well as to prospective bidders. The inclusion of this information should not be regarded as an indication that the Corporation or our advisors, or any other person, considered, or now considers, such Forecasts to be material or to be necessarily predictive of actual future results, and these Forecasts should not be relied upon as such. The Forecasts are forward-looking statements, are subjective in many respects, and are based upon certain assumptions. There can be no assurance that the Forecasts will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than projected.

In addition, the Forecasts were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or toward complying with generally accepted accounting principles, which we refer to as GAAP, the published guidelines of the SEC regarding financial projections or the use of non-GAAP financial measures or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. Neither our independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have audited, compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the financial projections comprising the Forecasts, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability.

These Forecasts were based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and may be beyond our control. We believe the assumptions that our management used as a basis for the Forecasts were reasonable at the time our management prepared the Forecasts, given the intended use and the information our management had at the time. Important factors that may affect actual results and cause these financial projections not to be achieved include, but are not limited to, risks and uncertainties relating to our business (including our ability to achieve our strategic goals, objectives and targets over the applicable periods), industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other factors. In addition, the Forecasts also reflect assumptions that are subject to change and do not reflect revised prospects for our business, changes in general business or economic conditions, or any other transaction or event that has occurred or that may occur and that was not anticipated at the time the Forecasts were prepared. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Forecasts will be realized or that our future financial results will not materially vary from the Forecasts.

No one has made or makes any representation to any Shareholder regarding the information included in the Forecasts set forth below. We have made no representation to DRIV in the Arrangement Agreement concerning these Forecasts.

Readers are cautioned not to unduly rely on the Forecasts as the Forecasts are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors and events beyond the control of the Corporation. We have not updated, except as set out below, and do not intend to update or otherwise revise the Forecasts to reflect circumstances existing after the date when made or to reflect the occurrence of future events, even in the event that any or all of the assumptions on which the Forecasts were based are shown to be in error due to numerous factors and events beyond the control of the Corporation. The inclusion of the Forecasts in this Proxy Statement should not be regarded as an indication that this information will be predictive of actual future results, and this information should not be relied upon for such purpose. Further, the Forecasts do not take into account the effect of any failure of the Arrangement to occur and should not be viewed as accurate in that context. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Forecasts will be realized, and actual results may be materially better or worse than contained therein. To the extent that these Forecasts no longer reflect management's views of future performance and the Corporation is required under relevant securities legislation to disclose such change or there is a change that would materially affect such Forecasts, the Corporation will update such Forecasts or provide an explanation as to why such Forecasts are no longer valid. You should review the Corporation's most recent SEC filings for actual results for the Corporation's fiscal year 2012 and first quarter of fiscal 2013, as reported in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2012 and our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three month period ended June 30, 2012.

Broker Fairness Opinion

The Broker was retained to act as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Corporation in connection with the proposed acquisition. As part of its engagement, the Special Committee requested the Broker render an opinion to the Special Committee as to whether the Share Consideration to be received by the Shareholders was fair to such Shareholders, from a financial point of view. On September 19, 2012, the Broker rendered its oral opinion to the Board of Directors and subsequently confirmed in writing, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of that date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations stated in its opinion, to the Shareholders of the Share Consideration to be received by those Shareholders.

The Broker provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Special Committee in connection with its consideration of the proposed acquisition. The Broker's opinion was one of many factors taken into account by the Special Committee in making its determination to approve the proposed acquisition. The terms of the Arrangement Agreement and the amount and form of the consideration to be paid pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, however, were determined through negotiations between the Special Committee and DRIV and were approved by the Board of Directors. The Broker did not recommend any specific consideration to the Board of Directors or that any specific consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the proposed acquisition.

The full text of the Broker's written opinion, dated September 19, 2012, is attached as Appendix C to this Proxy Statement and incorporated herein by reference. You are urged to read the entire opinion carefully and in its entirety to learn about the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limits on the scope of the review undertaken by the Broker in rendering its opinion. The analysis performed by the Broker should be viewed in its entirety; none of the methods of analysis should be viewed in isolation. The Broker Fairness Opinion was directed to the Special Committee for its benefit and use in evaluating the fairness of the consideration to be received pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement and relates only to the fairness, as of the date of the Broker Fairness Opinion and from a financial point of view, of the Share Consideration to be received by the Shareholders in the proposed acquisition pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement. The Broker Fairness Opinion does not address any other aspects of the proposed acquisition or any related transaction, and does not constitute a recommendation to any Shareholder as to how that Shareholder should vote with respect to the Arrangement Agreement or the proposed acquisition. The Broker did not address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the proposed acquisition. The following summary of the Broker Fairness Opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Broker Fairness Opinion.

In connection with the Broker Fairness Opinion, the Broker examined or discussed, among other things:

- a draft dated September 19, 2012 of the Arrangement Agreement;
- audited historical financial statements of the Corporation for the three fiscal years ended March 31, 2010 through 2012;

Table of Contents

- unaudited financial statements of the Corporation for the three month periods ended June 30, 2011 and 2012;
- certain internal business, operating and financial information and forecasts of the Corporation for the fiscal years 2013 through 2017 prepared by the Corporation's senior management (the "Forecasts" – see "Proposed Arrangement – Fairness Opinions – Broker Fairness Opinion – Forecasts");

- the financial position and operating results of the Corporation compared with those of certain other publicly traded companies the Broker deemed relevant;
 - the current and historical market prices and trading volumes of the Common Shares; and
 - certain other publicly available information on the Corporation.

The Broker also held discussions with certain members of the senior management of the Corporation to discuss the foregoing, considered other matters which it deemed relevant to its inquiry, and took into account those accepted financial and investment banking procedures and considerations that it deemed relevant. In connection with the Broker's engagement, the Broker was requested to approach, and held discussions with, third parties to solicit indications of interest for a possible acquisition of the Corporation.

In rendering its opinion, the Broker assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all the information examined by or otherwise reviewed or discussed with the Broker for purposes of the Broker's Fairness Opinion including, without limitation, the forecasts. The Broker did not make or obtain an independent valuation or appraisal of the assets, liabilities or solvency of the Corporation. The Broker was advised by the senior management of the Corporation that the Forecasts examined by the Broker were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best estimates then available to, and judgments of, the Corporation's senior management. In that regard, the Broker assumed, with the consent of the Corporation's senior management, that (a) the Forecasts would be achieved and (b) all of the Corporation's material assets and liabilities (contingent or otherwise) were as set forth in its financial statements or other information made available to the Broker.

The Broker expressed no opinion with respect to the Forecasts or the estimates and judgments on which they were based. The Broker did not consider and expressed no opinion as to the amount or nature of the compensation of any of the Corporation's officers, directors or employees (or any class of such persons) relative to the Share Consideration to be received by the Shareholders. The Broker expressed no opinion as to any terms or other aspects of the proposed acquisition (other than the Share Consideration to be received by the Shareholders to the extent specified in the Broker Fairness Opinion), including, without limitation, the form or structure of the proposed acquisition or the accounting consequences thereof. The Broker's opinion did not address the relative merits of the proposed acquisition as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for the Corporation or the effect of any other transaction in which the Corporation might engage.

The Broker Fairness Opinion was based upon economic, market, financial and other conditions existing on, and other information disclosed to the Broker as of, the date of its opinion. Although subsequent developments may affect its opinion, the Broker does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm the Broker Fairness Opinion. The Broker relied as to all legal matters on advice of counsel to the Corporation, assumed that the final executed Arrangement Agreement would not materially differ from the draft of the Arrangement Agreement the Broker reviewed, and assumed that the proposed acquisition would be consummated on the terms described in the Arrangement Agreement, without any amendment or waiver of any material terms or conditions by the Corporation.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed and material factors considered by the Broker to arrive at its opinion. The Broker performed certain procedures, including each of the financial analyses described below, and reviewed with the Board of Directors the assumptions upon which such analyses were based, as well as other factors. Although the summary does not purport to describe all of the analyses performed or factors considered by the Broker in this regard, it does set forth those considered by the Broker to be material in arriving at the Broker Fairness Opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses performed by the Broker, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses performed by the Broker. Considering the data set forth in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by the Broker. The order of the summaries of the analyses described below does not represent the relative importance or weight given to those analyses by the Broker.

Selected Public Company Analysis.

The Broker reviewed and compared certain financial information relating to the Corporation to corresponding financial information, ratios and public market multiples for certain publicly traded companies who provide payment processing services. The Broker selected these companies because they are publicly traded companies with general business, operating and financial characteristics deemed reasonably comparable to those of the Corporation. The companies selected by the Broker were: (i) Alliance Data Systems Corporation; (ii) Cielo SA; (iii) Euronet Worldwide Inc.; (iv) Global Cash Access Holdings, Inc.; (v) Global Payments Inc.; (vi) Heartland Payment Systems, Inc.; (vii) Net 1 Ueps Technologies Inc.; (viii) TNS Inc.; (ix) Total System Services Inc.; and (x) Vantiv, Inc.

Among the information the Broker considered was adjusted revenue and adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (“EBITDA”). The Broker considered the enterprise value for each company, which the Broker calculated as the equity value of the company, plus total debt, minority interest and preferred share, less cash and cash equivalents. The Broker noted that the enterprise value for many of the comparable companies was significantly higher than the implied enterprise value for the Corporation. The equity value of each company was calculated using the share price multiplied by the diluted shares outstanding as of September 18, 2012 (the common shares outstanding and in-the-money common shares equivalents calculated using the treasury method). In calculating adjusted EBITDA, the Broker excluded certain non-cash items including share-based compensation, as applicable. The Broker considered the enterprise value as a multiple of revenue and adjusted EBITDA for each company for the latest twelve months (which we refer to as LTM) for which results were publicly available and as a multiple of calendar year revenue and adjusted EBITDA estimates for 2012 and 2013. The operating results and the corresponding derived multiples for the Corporation and each of the selected public companies were based on each company’s most recent publicly available financial information, closing share prices as of September 18, 2012 and consensus Wall Street analysts’ estimates for calendar years 2012 and 2013, as well as, for the Corporation only, the Corporation’s senior management’s estimate of adjusted revenue and adjusted EBITDA for calendar years 2012 and 2013.

The Broker then used the implied enterprise value based on the terms of the proposed acquisition to derive implied valuation multiples for the Corporations based on adjusted revenue and adjusted EBITDA for the twelve month period ended June 30, 2012 and estimates for calendar years 2012 and 2013. Revenue was adjusted for extraordinary revenue related to non-recurring intellectual property litigation. EBITDA was adjusted for extraordinary revenue and expenses related to non-recurring legal expenses associated with intellectual property litigation and share-based compensation.

The Broker then compared the multiples implied for the Corporation based on the terms of the proposed acquisition to the range of trading multiples for the selected public companies. Although the Broker compared the trading multiples of the selected public companies to those implied for the Corporation, none of the selected public companies is identical or directly comparable to the Corporation. Accordingly, any analysis of the selected public companies necessarily involved complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that would necessarily affect the analysis of trading multiples of the selected public companies. Information regarding the multiples derived from the Broker’s selected public company analysis is set forth in the following table.

	Proposed Transaction Multiples		Selected Companies Valuation Multiples
		Min	Mean	Median	Max
Enterprise Value / LTM Adjusted Revenue	3.61x	0.90x	2.76x	1.97x	7.95x

The Board of Directors noted that the implied multiples for the proposed acquisition were above the range of EBITDA multiples for the selected public companies. Also, the Board of Directors noted that the implied multiples for the proposed acquisition were above the mean and median range of revenue multiples for the selected public companies.

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis.

The Broker performed an analysis of selected precedent transactions consisting of transactions announced since January 1, 2007 and focused primarily on target companies who provide payment processing services that it deemed relevant. The Broker did not take into account any announced transactions that were subsequently abandoned or otherwise not consummated. Further, the Broker did not take into account any announced or consummated transaction whereby relevant financial information was not publicly disclosed and available.

The Broker's analysis was based on publicly available information and certain internal financials regarding such transactions. The selected transactions were not intended to be representative of the entire range of possible transactions in the respective industries. The transactions that were examined were (target/acquiror): (i) Authorize.Net Holdings, Inc. / CyberSource Corporation (June 2007); (ii) Electronic Clearing House Inc. / Intuit Inc. (December 2007); (iii) Metavante Technologies, Inc. / Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. (iv) Metavante Technologies, Inc. / Fidelity National Information Services, Inc. (April 2009); (v) Goldleaf Financial Solutions, Inc. / Jack Henry & Associates Inc. (August 2009); (vi) CyberSource Corporation / Visa, Inc. (April 2010); (vii) RBS WorldPay / Advent International and Bain Capital (August 2010); (viii) Datacash Group Limited / Mastercard Incorporated (August 2010); (ix) NPC Group, Inc. / Vantiv, Inc. (formerly Fifth Third Processing Solutions) (September 2010); (x) Redecard SA / Itau Unibanco Holding SA (February 2012); (xi) Merchant e-Solutions, Inc. / Cielo SA (July 2012); and (xii) JetPay Solutions, LLC / Universal Business Payment Solutions Acquisition Corporation (July 2012).

The Broker reviewed the consideration paid in the selected transactions in terms of the enterprise value of the target as a multiple of its revenue and adjusted EBITDA for the LTM prior to the announcement of the respective transaction. The Broker compared the resulting range of transaction multiples of revenue and adjusted EBITDA for the selected transactions to the implied transaction multiples of LTM adjusted revenue and adjusted EBITDA for the Corporation based on the terms of the proposed acquisition. Information regarding the multiples from the Broker's analysis of the selected transactions is set forth in the following table:

	Proposed Transaction		Precedent Transactions
	Multiples	Min	Mean	Median	Max
Enterprise Value / LTM Adjusted Revenue	3.61x	0.85x	4.05x	3.16x	8.23x
Enterprise Value / LTM Adjusted EBITDA	17.7x	6.4x	14.2x	11.9x	30.8x

Although the Broker analyzed the multiples implied by the selected transactions and compared them to the implied transaction multiples of the Corporation, none of these transactions or associated companies is identical or directly comparable to the proposed acquisition or the Corporation. The Broker noted that many of the transactions it analyzed were for companies with enterprise values significantly larger than the implied enterprise value for the Corporation. Accordingly, this involved complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics, parties involved and terms of their transactions and other factors therein.

The Board of Directors noted that the implied multiples for the proposed acquisition were within the range of multiples for the selected precedent transactions.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

The Broker utilized the forecasts to perform a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate the present value as of November 30, 2012 of the Corporation's forecasted free cash flows through the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017. The Broker calculated the assumed terminal value of the enterprise at March 31, 2017 by (i) multiplying projected adjusted EBITDA in the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017 by multiples ranging from 8.0x to 12.0x and (ii) utilizing perpetuity growth rates ranging from 4% to 6% of cash flow for the future periods after the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. The Broker selected the range of 8.0x to 12.0x based on an approximate range around the median enterprise value to LTM adjusted EBITDA multiple derived for the transactions used in the Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis described above and based on the an approximate range around the median enterprise value to LTM adjusted EBITDA multiple derived for the publicly traded companies in the Selected Public Company Analysis described above. The Broker selected the range of perpetuity growth rates based on the Corporation's forecasted free cash flows.

Table of Contents

To discount the projected free cash flows and assumed terminal value to present value, the Broker used discount rates ranging from 20% to 24%. The discount rates were selected by the Broker based on the Corporation's weighted average cost of capital ("WACC"). To determine the range of diluted implied equity value per Common Share, the Broker subtracted total debt and added excess cash as of November 30, 2012. The Broker then divided this result by the total Common Shares outstanding and Common Share equivalents as of November 30, 2012, which were approximately 29.8 million Common Shares (fully diluted). The diluted equity value implied by the discounted cash flow analysis ranged from $2.41 per Common Share to $4.55 per Common Share, based on a range of terminal values derived by multiples of adjusted EBITDA and perpetuity growth rates.

The Board of Directors noted that the Share Consideration in the proposed acquisition was within the per share price range of the diluted equity value derived by this analysis.

Leveraged Acquisition Analysis.

Based on the forecasts provided by the senior management of the Corporation for fiscal years 2013 through 2017, the Broker performed a leveraged acquisition analysis to determine, based on the Corporation's ability to service a given level of debt using its projected future earnings stream and corresponding cash flows, an estimate of a theoretical purchase price that could be paid by a hypothetical financial sponsor in an acquisition of the Corporation, assuming such transaction was financed on customary market terms and assuming that such financial buyer will seek to realize a return on its investment in 2017. Estimated exit values were calculated by applying a range of exit value multiples from 8.0x to 12.0x of 2017 estimated adjusted EBITDA, which exit value multiples were determined based on the Broker's experience and professional judgment from the multiples implied by the proposed acquisition and the range of multiples from the Selected Public Company Analysis and Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis shown above. The Broker then derived a range of theoretical purchase prices based on assumed required internal rates of return for a buyer between 20% and 30%, which range of percentages was, in the Broker's professional judgment, generally reflective of the range of required internal rates of return commonly assumed when performing a leveraged acquisition analysis of this type. This analysis indicated an implied per share equity reference range of $1.93 to $3.40 as compared to the Share Consideration of $3.45 per Common Share.

The Board of Directors noted that the Share Consideration was above the per share equity reference range implied by the leveraged acquisition analysis.

Premiums Paid Analysis.

The Broker reviewed data from 267 acquisitions of publicly traded companies, excluding closed end funds and real estate investment trusts, in which 100% of the target's equity was acquired, announced since June 30, 2009 and with transaction enterprise values between $50 million and $250 million. Specifically, the Broker analyzed the acquisition price per share as a premium to the closing share price one day, one week, one month, 60 days, 90 days and 180 days prior to the announcement of the transaction, for all 267 transactions. The Broker compared the range of resulting per share common share price premiums for the reviewed transactions to the premiums implied by the proposed acquisition based on the Corporation's Common Share prices one day, one week, one month, 60 days, 90 days and 180 days prior to September 18, 2012. Information regarding the premiums from the Broker's analysis of selected transactions is set forth in the following table:

General.

This summary is not a complete description of the analysis performed by the Broker, but contains the material elements of the analysis. The preparation of an opinion regarding fairness is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances, and, therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. The preparation of an opinion regarding fairness does not involve a mathematical evaluation or weighing of the results of the individual analyses performed, but requires the Broker to exercise its professional judgment, based on its experience and expertise, in considering a wide variety of analyses taken as a whole. Each of the analyses conducted by the Broker was carried out in order to provide a different perspective on the financial terms of the proposed acquisition and add to the total mix of information available. The analyses were prepared solely for the purpose of the Broker providing its opinion and do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which securities actually may be sold. The Broker did not form a conclusion as to whether any individual analysis, considered in isolation, supported or failed to support an opinion about the fairness of the Share Consideration to be received by the Shareholders Common Shares. Rather, in rendering its oral opinion (subsequently confirmed in writing) on September 19, 2012 to the Board of Directors, as of that date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations stated in its written opinion, as to whether the Share Consideration to be received by the Shareholders was fair to such Shareholders, from a financial point of view, the Broker considered the results of the analyses in light of each other and ultimately reached its opinion based on the results of all analyses taken as a whole. The Broker did not place particular reliance or weight on any particular analysis. Accordingly, notwithstanding the separate factors summarized above, the Broker believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and the factors considered by it, without considering all analyses and factors, may create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. No company or transaction used in the above analyses as a comparison is identical or directly comparable to the Corporation or the proposed acquisition. In performing its analyses, the Broker made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and other matters. The analyses performed by the Broker are not necessarily indicative of future actual values and future results, which may be significantly more or less favourable than suggested by such analyses.

The Broker has been engaged in the investment banking business since 1935. The Broker continually undertakes the valuation of investment securities in connection with public offerings, private placements, business combinations, estate and gift tax valuations and similar transactions. In the ordinary course of its business, the Broker may from time to time trade the securities of the Corporation or DRIV for its own account and for the accounts of its customers, and accordingly may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. The Board of Directors hired the Broker based on its qualifications and expertise in providing financial advice to companies and its reputation as an internationally recognized investment banking firm.

Fees.

Pursuant to a letter agreement dated December 13, 2011, a fee of $50,000 became payable to the Broker upon execution of that letter agreement, a fee of $500,000 became payable to the Broker upon delivery of the Broker

Fairness Opinion, and a fee of $2.44 million, less any fees already paid to the Broker, is payable to the Broker upon consummation of the proposed acquisition. No portion of the fees payable to the Broker were contingent on the conclusions reached by the Broker in the Broker Fairness Opinion. In addition, the Corporation agreed to reimburse the Broker for certain of its out-of-pocket expenses (including fees and expenses of its counsel) reasonably incurred by it in connection with its services and will indemnify the Broker against potential liabilities arising out of its engagement, including certain liabilities under the U.S. federal securities laws.

Financial Advisor Fairness Opinion

On August 16, 2012, the Corporation engaged the Financial Advisor to provide the Special Committee with its opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Share Consideration to be received by Shareholders under the Arrangement. On August 31, 2012, the Financial Advisor orally delivered its opinion to the Special Committee and Board of Directors and subsequently confirmed in writing on October 1, 2012 that, as of September 21, 2012, the Share Consideration to be received by Shareholders pursuant to the final draft of the Arrangement Agreement dated September 21, 2012 is fair, from a financial point of view, to Shareholders.

Total fees paid to the Financial Advisor for services in relation to the estimate level opinion of fair market value were approximately $20,000.

Scope of Review and Scope of Restrictions.

In delivering the Financial Advisor Fairness Opinion, the Financial Advisor reviewed and relied on, among other information, the following: (i) certain financial statements of the Corporation; (ii) certain annual and quarterly reports of the Corporation; (iii) information contained on the Corporation's and DRIV's websites; (iv) information received from management of the Corporation; (v) market information; and (vi) other publically disclosed information of the Corporation as described in more detail in the Financial Advisor Fairness Opinion. The Financial Advisor relied upon the completeness, accuracy and fair presentation of all of the financial and other factual information, data, advice, opinions or representations obtained by it from public sources and management of the Corporation.

Assumptions.

Prior to reaching its determination on the conclusion of the Financial Advisor Fairness Opinion, the Financial Advisor assumed, in addition to other assumptions set out in the Financial Advisor Fairness Opinion, the following: (i) there has been full disclosure of any independent offers to purchase the Common Shares or significant assets of the Corporation by others; (ii) Forecasts as provided by management have been prepared with a reasonable degree of care and attention to reflect the judgment of management; (iii) information from the Corporation's public disclosure is accurate; and (iv) the Corporation has no significant undisclosed liabilities, contractual obligations, substantial commitments or litigation, pending or threatened, as set out in more detail in the Financial Advisor Fairness Opinion.

Methodology Applied in Performing Fairness Analysis.

The assessment of fairness, from a financial point of view, must be determined in the context of the Arrangement. In considering the fairness of the Arrangement, from a financial point of view, to the Shareholders, the Financial Advisor considered a number of matters including, but not limited to: (i) Discounted Cash Flow Approach; and (ii) as corroborative measures, the Market Premium Approach and various other market approaches as described in the Financial Advisor Fairness Opinion.

Table of Contents

Discounted Cash Flow.

The discounted cash flow method is generally used in situations where the future cash flows of a business entity can be reasonably forecast and are expected to differ from historical results as a result of various changes.

Under the discounted cash flow method, fair market value is calculated as the net present value of expected future free cash flows. Future free cash flows are projected over a discrete projection period and discounted by a suitable rate of return (the discount rate), which considers a number of risk factors – company specific, industry specific, forecast risk as well as the time value of money. The discount rate represents a risk-adjusted rate of return on the cash flows of a company and it is based on the WACC. The WACC is the weighted average of the cost of debt and the cost of equity, and the weighting is based on a selected ratio determined by the optimal capital structure of a company.

The Financial Advisor calculated the WACC using the Capital Asset Pricing Model, which the Financial Advisor verified using a build up method and with reference to other published data. In applying these techniques, the Financial Advisor considered the industry in which the Corporation operates, and Corporation-specific factors. The Financial Advisor calculated WACC utilizing a guideline peer group of companies provided by S&P Capital IQ. Based on the Financial Advisor's analysis, the Financial Advisor determined appropriate WACC range for the future operations of the Corporation to be in the range of 22.0% to 24.0%.

The "residual" or "terminal" value of a business at the end of the projection period is included in the calculation, which assumes that cash flows from operations will continue to be realized at an assumed growth rate, or the business will be disposed of or exited and converted to cash. At the end of the 2017 fiscal year the residual value of the Corporation's forecast cash flows is calculated. This cash flow is defined as the maintainable cash flow, that being the cash flows that the Corporation will maintain into perpetuity. It is assumed at this point that the cash flows of the Corporation will generally remain stable.

The Financial Advisor then applied a terminal value capitalization rate against the maintainable cash flows. The capitalization rate is calculated as the inverse of the discount rate less future growth. The Financial Advisor applied a future growth rate of 5% per annum. In selecting the future growth rate the Financial Advisor considered future growth prospects and risks of the Corporation beyond the terminal year and the long term outlook for inflation.

The diluted equity value range implied by the discount cash flow analysis is $2.48 to $2.66 per share. The Share Consideration of $3.45 per share is in excess of the range derived from the discounted cash flow analysis.

Market Premium Approach.

The Financial Advisor reviewed and analyzed the Share Consideration and compared it to premiums paid in recent market transactions. The Financial Advisor considered the historical share price of the Corporation, key events impacting the share price, and the Share Consideration from DRIV. As at September 21, 2012, the Share Consideration represented an 85% premium over the Corporation's closing price. The Financial Advisor also reviewed the publicly traded share price of the Corporation over the past 12 months and compared it to the Share Consideration.

The Financial Advisor reviewed market transactions to identify the premium paid over pre-announcement trading price of acquired companies. The Financial Advisor identified two distinct ranges of premiums as follows:

- Somewhat comparable companies to identify an industry premium; and
- Recent equity transactions to identify a current equity premium.

Based on information available to the Financial Advisor, the result of its analysis is summarized as follows:

	Low	High	Average	Median
Comparable transactions	4.2%	115.2%	36.3%	27.1%
Recent transactions	6.0%	150.0%	34.3%	22.8%
Implied transaction premium		84.5%

The Financial Advisor then compared the proposed transaction premium to the market data to consider if it is within an appropriate range.

Market Comparable Transactions and Publicly Traded Company Data.

Data regarding actual transactions of public and private companies are recorded in a number of private databases, or are otherwise publicly available, and are sorted according to the North American Industry Classification System (“NAICS”) or Standard Industry Classification (“SIC”) systems. Transactions involving companies with the same or similar NAICS or SIC codes are extracted, summarized, and analyzed.

A value indicator is a relationship between two or more data points, as observed in the above noted transactions. The selection of an appropriate value indicator is inherently limited to the data which was collected on each of the identified transactions. Data for the company’s sales in the most recent fiscal year, and for the reported earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (“EBITDA”) are most often collected, and as such the individual relationships between these data points and enterprise value are often selected as value indicators.

The enterprise value to EBITDA ratio is a commonly accepted relevant measure on which to base valuation multiples as it incorporates the effects of target company’s profitability, and eliminates the effects of leverage. The enterprise value to revenue ratio is commonly used as it minimizes the effect of different accounting policies and provides a relatively simple and common basis to assess value.

Averages and medians of the above noted value indicators are determined and summarized as follows:

	Implied Transaction Multiple	Market Comparable Data
		Low	High	Average	Median
Market comparable transaction
EV / Revenue	3.72	0.72	4.64	2.21	1.73
EV / EBITDA	16.57	7.10	12.23	9.83	10.00
Publicly traded companies data
EV / Revenue	3.72	0.25	8.06	2.27	2.07
EV / EBITDA	16.57	1.35	22.52	9.96	9.46

The full text of the written Fairness Opinions, which sets forth procedures followed and assumptions made in connection with the preparation of the opinions and the limitations and qualifications in respect thereof, are attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix D.

Arrangement Mechanics

The following description of the Arrangement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Plan of Arrangement, which is attached as Schedule A to the Arrangement Agreement (which, in turn, is attached as Appendix B hereto). Commencing at the Effective Time, each of the events set out below will occur and will be deemed to occur in the following sequence:

(a) at the Effective Time:

- (i) each Option granted and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be and be deemed to be transferred by the holder thereof to the Corporation in exchange for a cash payment from the Corporation equal to the Option Consideration (if any) in respect of such Option;

Table of Contents

(ii) with respect to each Option, the holder thereof will cease to be the holder thereof or to have any rights as a holder in respect of such Option or under the Stock Option Plans and the name of the holder thereof will be removed from the applicable securities register of the Corporation with respect to such Option; and

(iii) the Stock Option Plans and each of the Options transferred to the Corporation will be cancelled;

(b) at the Effective Time:

(i) each Warrant issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be and be deemed to be transferred by the holder thereof to the Corporation in exchange for a cash payment from the Corporation equal to the Warrant Consideration (if any) in respect of such Warrant;

(iii) each of the Warrants transferred to the Corporation will be cancelled;

(c) each Common Share held by a Dissenter who are ultimately determined to be entitled to be paid the fair value of the Common Shares in respect of which they have exercised Dissent Rights will be transferred to the Purchaser and such Dissenter will cease to have any rights as a Shareholder other than the right to be paid the fair value of their Common Shares;

(d) each Common Share outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Common Shares held by Dissenters who are ultimately entitled to be paid the fair value of their Common Shares and Shares held by the Purchaser) will be transferred by the holder thereof to the Purchaser in exchange for a cash payment from or on behalf of the Purchaser equal to the Share Consideration;

(e) at the same time as the step contemplated in (d), with respect to each Common Share:

(i) the holder of such Common Share will cease to be the holder thereof, or to have any rights in respect thereof, and the name of the holder will be removed from the applicable securities register of the Corporation; and

(f) Purchaser and the Corporation will amalgamate to form Amalco.

Letter of Transmittal

If you are a registered Shareholder, you should have received with this Proxy Statement a Letter of Transmittal. In order to receive the Share Consideration following completion of the Arrangement, registered Shareholders must complete and sign the Letter of Transmittal and deliver it, together with the certificate representing their Common Shares and the other documents specified in the Letter of Transmittal, to Computershare in accordance with instructions contained therein. The Letter of Transmittal contains procedural information relating to the Arrangement and should be reviewed carefully. Optionholders and Warrantholders will receive a Letter of Transmittal and a letter of instructions from the Corporation that will set out the treatment of Options and Warrants.

Registered Shareholders can also request additional copies of the Letter of Transmittal by contacting Computershare. The Letter of Transmittal is also available under the Corporation's profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and EDGAR at <http://www.sec.gov>.

Table of Contents

The method used to deliver the Letter of Transmittal and any accompanying certificates representing Common Shares is at the option and risk of the sender, and delivery will be deemed effective only when such documents are actually received. The Corporation recommends that the necessary documentation be hand delivered to Computershare, and a receipt obtained therefor; otherwise the use of registered mail (with return receipt and proper insurance obtained) is recommended. Non-registered Shareholders should contact their nominee for assistance in delivering their Common Shares to Computershare and should carefully follow the instructions of their nominee in order to ensure that their Common Shares are properly delivered.

The Corporation and the Purchaser reserve the right to waive or not to waive any and all errors or other deficiencies in any Letter of Transmittal or other document and any such waiver or non-waiver will be binding upon the affected Shareholder. The granting of a waiver to one or more Shareholders does not constitute a waiver for any other Shareholder. The Corporation and the Purchaser reserve the right to demand strict compliance with the terms of the Letter of Transmittal and the Arrangement.

If any certificate representing Common Shares has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the registered Shareholder should complete the Letter of Transmittal as fully as possible and forward it, together with an affidavit regarding the loss, theft or destruction of such certificate, to Computershare. Computershare will assist in making arrangements for the necessary affidavit (which may include a bonding requirement) for payment of the Share Consideration in accordance with the Arrangement. Further details are set out in the Letter of Transmittal. As a condition precedent to payment for Common Shares represented by certificates which have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the registered holder thereof will be required to indemnify the Corporation, the Purchaser and Computershare against any claim that may be made against any of them with respect to such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate.

Delivery of Consideration

At or before the Effective Time, the Purchaser will deposit with Computershare sufficient funds to effect payment of the aggregate cash payable under the Arrangement to Securityholders.

As soon as practicable following the later of the Effective Date and delivery to Computershare of a duly completed and executed Letter of Transmittal and, in the case Common Shares, a certificate representing the underlying Common Shares and the other documents specified in the Letter of Transmittal, the registered holder of such surrendered certificate or the Optionholders and Warranholders as applicable will be entitled to receive the Share Consideration, Option Consideration or Warrant Consideration, as applicable, in respect thereof.

Computershare will act as the agent of registered Shareholders, Optionholders and Warranholders entitled to receive payment under the Arrangement for the purpose of receiving and transmitting payment from the Purchaser or the Corporation to such persons and receipt of payment by Computershare will be deemed to constitute receipt of payment by the registered Shareholders, Optionholders and Warranholders. Computershare will issue a cheque payable in U.S. funds in respect of Common Shares, Options and Warrants as soon as practicable after the applicable registered Shareholder, Optionholder or Warranholder becomes entitled to a cash payment in respect thereof. Unless otherwise directed in the Letter of Transmittal, the cheque to be issued in respect of the cash payable in respect of Common Shares, Options or Warrants will be issued in the name of the registered holder. Unless the person who deposits a certificate representing Common Shares, Options or Warrants instructs Computershare to hold the cheque for pick-up by checking the appropriate box in the Letter of Transmittal, cheques will be forwarded by first class mail to the addresses specified in the Letter of Transmittal. If no address is provided, cheques will be forwarded by first class mail to the address of the registered Shareholder as shown on the register maintained by or on behalf of the Corporation in respect of the Common Shares, Options or Warrants.

Until surrendered as contemplated by the Arrangement, each certificate that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Common Shares, Options or Warrants will be deemed, in accordance with the provisions of the Arrangement, to represent only the right to receive, upon such surrender, the applicable cash payment in lieu of such certificate as contemplated in the Arrangement.

If any registered holder fails for any reason to surrender to Computershare the documents or instruments required to be delivered to Computershare in order for the holder to receive the cash payment such registered holder is entitled to receive under the Arrangement on or before the sixth anniversary of the Effective Date, then (i) such holder will be deemed to have donated and forfeited to the Purchaser any cash held by Computershare in trust for such former holder to which such former holder is entitled and (ii) the certificate representing the Common Shares, Options or Warrants owned by such holder will cease to represent a claim of any nature whatsoever and will be deemed to have been surrendered to the Purchaser and will be cancelled.

Table of Contents

The Corporation, the Purchaser and Computershare will be entitled to deduct and withhold from any consideration otherwise payable to any Shareholder, Optionholder or Warrantholder under the Arrangement such amounts as the Corporation, the Purchaser or Computershare is required to deduct and withhold with respect to such payment under applicable tax laws. Under no circumstances will interest on the consideration payable pursuant to the Plan of Arrangement accrue or be paid by the Corporation, the Purchaser or Computershare to Shareholders, Optionholders or Warrantholders, regardless of any delay in making such payment.

Computershare will receive reasonable and customary compensation for its services in connection with the Arrangement, and will be reimbursed for certain out-of-pocket expenses and will be indemnified by the Corporation against certain liabilities under applicable laws and expenses in connection therewith.

Source of Funding

Pursuant to the terms of the Arrangement, an aggregate amount of approximately $102.8 million is expected to be paid by the Purchaser to acquire all of the outstanding Common Shares, Options and Warrants (assuming no Shareholder exercises Dissent Rights in respect of the Arrangement). The Purchaser expects to fund the payment of the Share Consideration, the Option Consideration and Warrant Consideration by cash on hand. The Purchaser's obligation to complete the Arrangement is not subject to any financing condition.

Stock Exchange Delisting

The Corporation is currently listed on the NASDAQ Capital Market. Following completion of the Arrangement, the Purchaser intends that Amalco will apply to the NASDAQ Capital Market to delist the Common Shares from the NASDAQ and to the applicable Canadian securities regulators to cease to be a reporting issuer.

THE ARRANGEMENT AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms of the Arrangement Agreement and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Arrangement Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix B. The Arrangement Agreement was filed under the Corporation's profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and EDGAR at <http://www.sec.gov> on September 24, 2012.

Except for the Arrangement Agreement's status as a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the Parties thereto with respect to the Arrangement, its text is not intended to be, and should not be interpreted as, a source of factual, business or operational information about the Corporation. The Arrangement Agreement contains representations, warranties and covenants that are qualified and limited, including by information disclosed to the Purchaser in connection with the execution of the Arrangement Agreement and certain information disclosed in public filings with Canadian and United States' securities regulatory authorities. Representations and warranties may be used as a tool to allocate risks between the respective Parties to the Arrangement Agreement, including where the Parties do not have complete knowledge of all facts, instead of establishing such matters as facts. Furthermore, the representations and warranties may be subject to standards of materiality that differ from what may be viewed as material to Shareholders. These representations may or may not have been accurate as of any specific date and do not purport to be accurate as of the date of this Proxy Statement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the Arrangement Agreement. Shareholders may not directly enforce or rely upon the terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement but should consider all information disclosed by the Corporation in its public filings with Canadian and United States' securities regulatory authorities. The representations, warranties or covenants contained therein may contain representations and warranties made by and to the parties thereto as of specific dates. While the Corporation is responsible for considering whether additional specific disclosures of material information regarding material contractual provisions are required to make the statements in the Proxy Statement not misleading, those representations and warranties may be subject to exceptions and qualifications contained in separate disclosure schedules; may represent the parties' risk allocation in the particular transaction; or may be qualified by materiality standards that differ from what may be viewed as material for securities law purposes. To the extent that specific material facts arise that contradict the representations, warranties or covenants in the Arrangement Agreement, the Corporation will provide corrective disclosure setting forth such material facts.

- (ii) there has been any breach of any covenant or agreement of DRIV or the Purchaser contained in the Arrangement Agreement.

DRIV and the Purchaser will use all reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective as promptly as is practicable the Arrangement and the other transactions contemplated in the Arrangement Agreement, including the execution and delivery of such documents as the Corporation may reasonably request, and to use reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary waivers, consents and approvals and to effect all necessary registrations and filings, including, but not limited to, approvals and filings under applicable securities laws and the NASDAQ Capital Market and submissions of information requested by governmental entities.

Table of Contents

- In a timely and expeditious manner, DRIV and the Purchaser will provide to the Corporation all information as may be reasonably requested by the Corporation or as required by the Interim Order or applicable laws with respect to DRIV and the Purchaser and their businesses and properties for inclusion in Proxy Statement or in any amendment or supplement to Proxy Statement that complies in all material respects with all applicable laws on the date of the mailing thereof and containing all material facts relating to DRIV and the Purchaser required to be disclosed in the Proxy Statement and not containing any misrepresentation with respect thereto. DRIV and the Purchaser will fully cooperate with the Corporation in the preparation of the Proxy Statement and will provide such assistance as the Corporation may reasonably request in connection therewith.

Acquisition Proposals

Covenants Regarding Non-Solicitation and Superior Proposals

Pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, the Corporation has agreed that it would, and it would cause its subsidiaries and their representatives (including, without limitation, the Corporation's advisors and investment bankers) to, immediately cease and cause to be terminated any solicitation, encouragement, activity, discussion, negotiation or process with any person that may be ongoing with respect to any proposal that constituted or might be reasonably expected to constitute an Acquisition Proposal. The Corporation and its subsidiaries agreed to discontinue access to any other third party (other than DRIV, the Purchaser, or their representatives) to any data room (virtual or otherwise) and to promptly request the return or deletion from all data retrieval systems and data bases or destruction of all confidential information regarding the Corporation or its subsidiaries previously provided to any person (other than DRIV or the Purchaser) and to use reasonable best efforts to ensure that such requests are honored. The Corporation further agreed not to release any such person from any standstill or confidentiality agreement or provision to which such person is a party with the Corporation and to take all actions required to enforce such standstill and confidentiality agreements and provisions.

Subject to compliance with the covenants described below, the Corporation has agreed that it will not, and it will not authorize or permit any of its representatives (including its subsidiaries and their respective representatives) to, directly or indirectly:

- (i) make, solicit, initiate, encourage, entertain or promote or facilitate any inquiry or the making of any proposal to it or its shareholders which does or could constitute an Acquisition Proposal or potential Acquisition Proposal;
- (ii) participate in, directly or indirectly, any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal or potential Acquisition Proposal;
- (iii) withdraw, modify, qualify or change in a manner adverse to DRIV or the Purchaser or publicly state that it intends to withdraw, modify, qualify or change in a manner adverse to DRIV or the Purchaser, the approval or recommendation of the Board of Directors and Special Committee;
- (iv) approve or recommend any Acquisition Proposal; or
- (v) enter into any agreement, written or verbal, related to any Acquisition Proposal or requiring the Corporation to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Arrangement or providing for the payment of a break, termination or other fee or expense to any person in the event that the Corporation completes the Arrangement or any other transaction with DRIV agreed prior to the termination of the Arrangement Agreement.

The Corporation will not, and will cause its subsidiaries not to, directly or indirectly, consider, discuss, negotiate, accept, approve or recommend an Acquisition Proposal or provide information to any person proposing an Acquisition Proposal, in each case after the date of approval of the Arrangement Resolution by the shareholders.

Notwithstanding the above, subject to compliance by the Corporation with certain provisions of the Arrangement Agreement, the Board of Directors may, prior to the approval of the Arrangement by the Shareholders, consider and participate, directly or indirectly, in any discussions or negotiations with, or provide information to, or permit any visit to the properties or facilities of the Corporation by, any person who has delivered a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal:

- (i) that was not solicited or encouraged after the date of the Acquisition Agreement;

Table of Contents

(ii) does not result from a breach of the Arrangement Agreement by the Corporation; and

(iii) that the Board of Directors determines in good faith, after consultation with the Broker and legal counsel, is a Superior Proposal, provided however, that prior to taking any such action, the Corporation must:

(i) give notice to the Purchaser of such Acquisition Proposal; and

(ii) obtain a confidentiality agreement from the person making such Acquisition Proposal in form and substance substantially similar to the confidentiality agreement entered into between DRIV and the Corporation.

The Purchaser has certain rights to match any Superior Proposal received by the Corporation and the Corporation must give the Purchaser notice of any inquiry, proposal or offer relating to or constituting an Acquisition Proposal. If the Corporation has complied with covenants in the Arrangement Agreement regarding non-solicitation, the Corporation may accept, approve, recommend or enter into any agreement, understanding or arrangement in respect of a Superior Proposal prior to the approval by Shareholders of the Arrangement and terminate the Arrangement Agreement, if, and only if the Corporation has complied with certain covenants in the Arrangement Agreement relating to the Purchaser's right to match any Superior Proposal and the Special Committee determines that such Superior Proposal remains a Superior Proposal taking into account any subsequent revised proposal made by the Purchaser and DRIV and that it is necessary for the Board of Directors to approve such Superior Proposal in order to discharge properly its fiduciary duties.

Termination of the Arrangement Agreement

The Arrangement Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time:

(a) by mutual written consent of Corporation, DRIV and the Purchaser;

(b) by DRIV and the Purchaser if:

(i) the Board of Directors shall have withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to DRIV or the Purchaser its approval or recommendation of the Arrangement, or

(ii) the Board of Directors shall have approved or recommended an Acquisition Proposal;

(c) by the Corporation in order to enter into a definitive written agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal, subject to compliance with the relevant covenants in the Arrangement Agreement described above;

(d) by the Corporation or DRIV and the Purchaser if the Shareholder approval has not been obtained at the Meeting;

(e) by DRIV and Purchaser:

(i) if there is a material breach by the Corporation or any of its respective directors, officers, agents or any other representative thereof of any of the covenants of the Corporation in the Arrangement Agreement prior to the Effective Date, or if at any time the representations and warranties made by the Corporation in the Arrangement Agreement are not true and correct in all material respects;

(ii)

(f)

by the Corporation:

(i) if there is a material breach by DRIV or the Purchaser of any of the covenants set forth in the Arrangement Agreement, or

Table of Contents

- (ii) if at any time the representations and warranties made by DRIV and the Purchaser in the Arrangement Agreement are not true and correct in all material respects;
- (g) by the Corporation, if any of the mutual conditions or conditions for the sole benefit of the Corporation in the Arrangement Agreement are not, or if it becomes apparent that any of such conditions cannot be, fulfilled by the Termination Deadline, unless such failure is due to the failure of the Corporation to perform or comply with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions of the Arrangement Agreement; or
- (h) by DRIV and the Purchaser, if any of the mutual conditions or conditions for the sole benefit of DRIV and the Purchaser in the Arrangement Agreement are not, or if it becomes apparent that any of such conditions cannot be, fulfilled by the Termination Deadline, unless such failure is due to the failure of DRIV or the Purchaser to perform or comply with any of the covenants, agreements or conditions of the Arrangement Agreement.

Effect of Termination

In the event of termination:

- (i) A. by DRIV pursuant to (b) above or by the Corporation pursuant to Section (c) above, the Corporation will pay to DRIV the Corporation Termination Fee, or
- B. by DRIV pursuant to (e) above, or (h) above, or by either Party under (d) above or the Termination Deadline described in the Arrangement Agreement and, in any of the foregoing circumstances, if prior to the one year anniversary of such termination, the Corporation consummates a transaction contemplated by an Acquisition Proposal that was received by the Corporation prior to the termination of the Arrangement Agreement, the Corporation will pay to DRIV the Corporation Termination Fee, and
- (ii) by DRIV pursuant to (e) above, or by either Party pursuant to (d) above, the Corporation will pay to DRIV the Expense Reimbursement Fee.

In the event that termination of the Arrangement Agreement results in the payment of an Expense Reimbursement Fee and a Corporation Termination Fee subsequently becomes payable, the Expense Reimbursement Fee actually paid will be deducted from the Corporation Termination Fee due and owing.

In the event of termination by the Corporation pursuant to (f) above, DRIV will pay to the Corporation the DRIV Termination Fee.

For purposes of the Arrangement Agreement, "Corporation Termination Fee" will mean an amount equal to $3,000,000 and "DRIV Termination Fee" will mean an amount equal to $3,000,000. For purposes of the Arrangement Agreement, "Expense Reimbursement Fee" will mean an amount equal to all out of pocket expenses and fees incurred by DRIV and the Purchaser in connection with the negotiation, execution and performance of the Arrangement Agreement.

LOCK-UP AND SUPPORT AGREEMENTS

In connection with the execution of the Arrangement Agreement, the Purchaser entered into lock-up and support agreements (the "Lock-Up & Support Agreements") with each of the directors of Corporation, as well as Craig Thomson, President, Richard R. Schulz, Controller and Chief Accounting Officer, Carolyn L. Gaines, Corporate Secretary, and Chris Koide, Executive Vice President Operations (the "Supporting Officers and Directors"), and with Don G. Choquer and certain of his affiliates and Millennium Partners, L.P. (the "Supporting Shareholders" and, together with the Supporting Officers and Directors, the “Supporting Parties”). The Supporting Parties beneficially own in the aggregate approximately 33.2% of the outstanding Common Shares as of the date of this Proxy Statement.

Under the Lock-Up & Support Agreements, the Supporting Parties have agreed during the term of the Lock-Up & Support Agreements to vote all of their Common Shares in favour of the Arrangement and the Arrangement Agreement and against any action or agreement that might reasonably be regarded as being in opposition to the Arrangement Agreement. The Supporting Parties are subject to certain non-solicitation restrictions set forth in the Lock-Up & Support Agreements.

Table of Contents

The Lock-Up & Support Agreements terminate on the earliest of:

- (i) a breach of a covenant, representation or warranty under the Arrangement Agreement by DRIV,
- (ii) the date the Arrangement Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms,
- (iii) the closing of the Arrangement,
- (iv) the delivery of notice by the Purchaser of the termination of the Lock-Up and Support Agreements, and
- (v) the mutual written agreement of the Purchaser and the Supporting Shareholder.

Unlike the Lock-Up & Support Agreements signed by the Supporting Officers and Directors, the Lock-Up & Support Agreements signed by the Supporting Shareholders prohibit the Purchaser from entering into any lock-up and support agreement with a person or persons beneficially owning 5% or more of the Corporation's outstanding Common Shares on terms more favourable to the Purchaser than Lock-Up & Support Agreements signed by the Supporting Shareholders. The Lock-Up & Support Agreements signed by the Supporting Shareholders also permit the Supporting Shareholders to transfer the Common Shares covered thereby under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions. Additionally, under the Lock-Up & Support Agreements signed by the Supporting Shareholders, the Supporting Shareholders can terminate the Lock-Up & Support Agreements if the Arrangement is not completed prior to February 22, 2013, even if the Arrangement Agreement has not been terminated as of such date.

The Lock-Up & Support Agreements are available under the Corporation's profile on EDGAR at <http://www.sec.gov> and on SEDAR at <http://www.sedar.com>.

PRINCIPAL LEGAL MATTERS RELATED TO THE ARRANGEMENT

Court Approval of the Arrangement

Prior to the mailing of this Proxy Statement, the Corporation obtained the Interim Order, which provides for the calling and holding of the Meeting, the grant of Dissent Rights in respect of the Arrangement and other procedural matters. A copy of the Interim Order is attached as Appendix C to this Proxy Statement.

Subject to the terms of the Arrangement Agreement and provided that the Arrangement has been approved by the Shareholders in the manner required by the Interim Order, the Corporation will make application for the Final Order at a.m. (Vancouver time) on or about , 2012 at the Court House, 800 Smithe Street, Vancouver, British Columbia. A plan of arrangement is a statutory procedure available under the BCBCA, as well as under the Canada Business Corporations Act and other provincial corporations statutes, and can be used in lieu of other common acquisition mechanisms, such as the statutory amalgamation and the take-over bid. Where a corporation wishes to combine by way of a plan of arrangement, it must apply to the court for an order approving a proposed plan of arrangement. Therefore, a final order by the Supreme Court of British Columbia is required to approve the Arrangement under the terms of the Arrangement Agreement, the Interim Order and under the provisions of the BCBCA. If the Court does not make a judicial determination as to the fairness of the Arrangement, then the Final Order will not be granted and the Arrangement cannot proceed. Registered Shareholders who do not vote in favour of the Arrangement will have the right to require judicial appraisal of their Common Shares and obtain "fair value" pursuant to the proper exercise of Dissent Rights. Regulatory Requirements. Any Shareholder who wishes to appear and make submissions at such hearing (either in person or by counsel) must serve and file written notice with the Court of his or her intention to appear (a "Response to Petition"), as set out in the Notice of Hearing attached as Appendix F to this Proxy Statement. The Notice of Hearing provides that a Shareholder who wishes to appear and make submissions at such hearing must deliver a copy of the Response to Petition, together with a copy of all materials upon which the Shareholder intends to present to the Court, to the Corporation's solicitors (at the address set out in the Notice of Hearing) on or before p.m. (Vancouver time) on , 2012 or as provided in the Interim Order. In the event the hearing is postponed, adjourned or rescheduled, only those persons having previously served a Response to Petition in compliance with the Notice of Hearing and the Interim Order will be provided notice of the postponement, adjournment or rescheduled date.

Table of Contents

The Corporation has been advised by counsel that the Court has broad discretion under the BCBCA when making orders with respect to an Arrangement and that the Court, in hearing the application for the Final Order, will consider, among other things, the fairness of the Arrangement to Shareholders. The Court may approve the Arrangement either as proposed or as amended in any manner the Court may direct, subject to compliance with such terms and conditions, if any, as the Court may determine appropriate. If any such amendments are made, depending on the nature of the amendments, the Corporation and the Purchaser may not be obligated to complete the transactions contemplated in the Arrangement Agreement.

Regulatory Requirements

Except as discussed above under “Court Approval of the Arrangement”, we are not aware of any federal, provincial or state regulatory requirements that must be complied with or approvals that must be obtained prior to consummation of the Arrangement pursuant to the Arrangement Agreement, other than compliance with applicable federal, provincial and state securities laws, the filing of Articles of Arrangement with the Supreme Court of British Columbia in accordance with the BCBCA after the approval and adoption of the Arrangement Agreement and the Arrangement Resolution by the Shareholders, and the filing of notification of the Arrangement pursuant to the Investment Canada Act within 30 days after closing of the Arrangement.

Dissent Rights

Shareholders who wish to dissent should take note that strict compliance with the Dissent Procedures is required.

Every registered Shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair value of the holder’s Common Shares provided that the holder duly dissents to the Arrangement and the Arrangement becomes effective. Shareholders who are not registered Shareholders and who wish to exercise Dissent Rights must arrange either to become a registered Shareholder or for the registered Shareholder holding their Common Shares, as the case may be, to deliver the Notice of Dissent. The Dissent Rights are those rights pertaining to the right to dissent from the Arrangement Resolution that are contained in sections 237 to 247 of the BCBCA, as modified by the Interim Order as provided for in the Plan of Arrangement. A Shareholder is not entitled to exercise Dissent Rights if the Shareholder votes any Common Shares in favour of the applicable Arrangement Resolution.

A registered Shareholder who intends to exercise Dissent Rights must deliver a written notice of dissent (a “Notice of Dissent”) to:

LML PAYMENT SYSTEMS INC.
Suite 1680 - 1140 West Pender Street
Vancouver, British Columbia V6E 4G1
Attention: Corporate Secretary

to be received on or before 5:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) at least two business days before the Meeting or, in case of adjournment or postponement, no later than 5:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on the day that is two business days before the reconvened Meeting. The Notice of Dissent must set out the number of Common Shares held by the Dissenter. Shareholders who are not registered Shareholders and wish to exercise Dissent Rights must arrange for the registered Shareholder holding their Common Shares to deliver the Notice of Dissent.

A brief summary of the Dissent Procedures is set out below. This summary does not purport to provide a comprehensive statement of the procedures to be followed by a dissenting Shareholder who seeks payment of the fair value of the Common Shares held and is qualified in its entirety by reference to sections 237 to 247 of the BCBCA, as modified by the Interim Order as provided for in the Plan of Arrangement. Sections 237 to 247 of the BCBCA are reproduced in Appendix E to this Proxy Statement. The Dissent Procedures must be strictly adhered to and any failure by a Shareholder to do so may result in the loss of that Shareholder's Dissent Rights. Accordingly, each Shareholder who wishes to exercise Dissent Rights should carefully consider and comply with the Dissent Procedures and consult such Shareholder's legal advisers.

The delivery of a Notice of Dissent does not deprive a Shareholder of the right to vote at the Meeting on the Arrangement Resolution. A vote against the Arrangement Resolution, whether in person or by proxy, does not constitute a Notice of Dissent. A Shareholder is not entitled to exercise the Dissent Right with respect to any Common Shares, as applicable, if the Shareholder votes in favour of the Arrangement Resolution. A Shareholder, however, may vote as a proxyholder for another Shareholder whose proxy required an affirmative vote, without affecting the right of the proxyholder to exercise Dissent Rights.

Table of Contents

If the Arrangement Resolution is passed at the Meeting, the Corporation must send by registered mail to every Dissenter, prior to the date set for the hearing of the Final Order, the Notice of Intention stating that, subject to receipt of the Final Order and satisfaction of the other conditions set out in the Arrangement Agreement, the Corporation intends to complete the Arrangement, and advising the Dissenter that if the Dissenter intends to proceed with its exercise of its Dissent Rights, it must deliver to the Corporation within one month of the mailing of the Notice of Intention, a written statement containing the information specified in the Interim Order together with any certificates representing the holder's Common Shares. If a Dissent Right is being exercised by someone other than the beneficial owner of the Common Shares, as the case may be, this written statement must be signed by such beneficial owner.

A Dissenter delivering such written statement may not withdraw from its dissent and, at the Effective Time, holder's Common Shares will be repurchased and cancelled. The Corporation will pay to each Dissenter the fair value agreed between the Corporation and the Dissenter for the Dissenting Securities. The Corporation or a Dissenter may apply to the Court if no agreement on the terms of the fair value of the Dissenting Securities is reached, and the Court may:

- (a) determine the fair value that the Dissenting Securities had immediately before the passing of the Arrangement Resolution, or order that such value be established by arbitration or by reference to the registrar, or a referee of the Court;
- (b) join in the application each Dissenter who has not agreed with the Corporation on the amount of the payout value of the Dissenting Securities; and
- (c) make consequential orders and give directions as it considers appropriate.

If a Dissenter fails to strictly comply with the requirements of the Dissent Rights, it will lose its Dissent Rights, the Corporation will return to the Dissenter the certificates representing the Dissenting Securities, if any, that were delivered to the Corporation, and if the Arrangement is completed, the Dissenter will be deemed to have participated in the Arrangement on the same terms as a Shareholder.

If a Dissenter strictly complies with the foregoing requirements of the Dissent Rights, but the Arrangement is not completed, the Corporation will return to the Dissenter the certificates, if any, delivered to the Corporation.

Shareholders should consult their legal advisors with respect to the legal rights available to them in relation to the Arrangement and the Dissent Rights. Shareholders should also note that the exercise of Dissent Rights can be complex, time-consuming and expensive. Dissent Rights are not available to Optionholders and Warrant holders.

Unless waived, it is a condition to the obligations of the Purchaser to complete the Arrangement that Dissent Rights in respect of the Arrangement shall not have been exercised by Shareholders holding more than 10% of the outstanding Common Shares.

For a general summary of income tax implications to a Shareholder who has exercised dissent rights, see "Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations".

MATERIAL CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations relating to the Arrangement generally applicable to a Shareholder who, at all relevant times, for the purposes of the Tax Act:

- (a) deals at arm's length with the Corporation;
- (b) is not affiliated with the Corporation; and
- (c) holds the Common Shares as capital property (each such shareholder in this section, a "Holder").

The Common Shares will generally be considered to be capital property to a Holder unless such securities are held by the Holder in the course of carrying on a business, or were acquired in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure or concern in the nature of trade.

This summary is based on the current provisions of the Tax Act, the regulations thereunder in force as of the date hereof, all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and the regulations publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof (the "Proposed Amendments") and counsel's understanding of the current administrative practices and assessing policies of the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") published prior to the date hereof. No assurance can be given that the Proposed Amendments will be enacted in their current form, or at all. Except for the Proposed Amendments, this summary does not take into account or anticipate any changes in law, whether by legislative, governmental, regulatory, or judicial action or decision, or changes in the administrative practices or assessing policies of the CRA, nor does it take into account provincial, territorial or foreign income tax considerations, which may differ from the Canadian federal income tax considerations discussed below.

Table of Contents

This summary is not applicable to a Holder:

- (i) that is a “financial institution” as defined in the Tax Act for the purposes of the “mark-to-market property” rules contained in the Tax Act or a “specified financial institution” as defined in the Tax Act;
- (ii) who has acquired the Common Shares on the exercise of an employee stock option;
- (iii) an interest in which is, or whose Common Shares are, a “tax shelter investment” as defined in the Tax Act;
- (iv) to whom the “functional currency” reporting rules in Section 261 of the Tax Act apply; or
- (v) a Holder that acquired Common Shares pursuant to the exercise of an employee stock option or other equity-based employee compensation plan.

Such Holders should consult their own tax advisors.

This summary does not address the Canadian federal income tax considerations relating to the Arrangement applicable to holders of Options or Warrants. Such holders should consult their own tax advisors.

THIS SUMMARY IS OF A GENERAL NATURE ONLY AND IS NOT, AND IS NOT INTENDED TO BE, NOR SHOULD IT BE CONSTRUED TO BE, LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE TO ANY PARTICULAR HOLDER AND NO REPRESENTATIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO ANY PARTICULAR HOLDER ARE MADE. THIS SUMMARY IS NOT EXHAUSTIVE OF ALL CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS. ACCORDINGLY, HOLDERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS HAVING REGARD TO THEIR OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

Holders Resident in Canada

The following portion of the summary is generally applicable to a Holder who is a Canadian Resident, or is deemed to be a Canadian Resident, for purposes of the Tax Act (a “Resident Holder”) at all relevant times.

Certain Resident Holders who might not otherwise be considered to own the Common Shares as capital property may be entitled to have them and every other “Canadian security”, as defined in the Tax Act, treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act. Resident Holders contemplating making a subsection 39(4) election should consult their own tax advisors for advice as to whether the election is available or advisable in their particular circumstances.

Disposition of Common Shares under the Arrangement

A Resident Holder whose Common Shares are exchanged for cash pursuant to the Arrangement will be considered to have disposed of those Common Shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the aggregate of the cash received on the exchange. As a result, the Resident Holder will generally realize a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent that such proceeds of disposition, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base to the Resident Holder of the Common Shares immediately before the exchange. See “Holders Resident in Canada - Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses” below for a general discussion of the treatment of capital gains and capital losses under the Tax Act.

Table of Contents

Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses

Generally, a Resident Holder will be required to include in computing its income for a taxation year one-half of the amount of any capital gain (a “taxable capital gain”) realized by it in that year. A Resident Holder will generally be required to deduct one-half of the amount of any capital loss (an “allowable capital loss”) realized in a taxation year from taxable capital gains realized by the Resident Holder in that year. Allowable capital losses in excess of taxable capital gains for a taxation year may be carried back to any of the three preceding taxation years or carried forward to any subsequent taxation year and deducted against net taxable capital gains realized in such years, subject to the detailed rules contained in the Tax Act.

A capital loss realized on the disposition of a Common Share by a Resident Holder that is a corporation may, to the extent and under the circumstances specified by the Tax Act, be reduced by the amount of dividends received or deemed to have been received by the corporation on such shares (or on a share for which such share is substituted or exchanged). Similar rules may apply where shares are owned by a partnership or trust of which a corporation, trust or partnership is a member or beneficiary. Resident Holders to whom these rules may be relevant should consult their own advisors.

Alternative Minimum Tax

A capital gain realized by a Resident Holder who is an individual (including certain trusts) may give rise to liability for alternative minimum tax under the Tax Act.

Additional Refundable Tax on Canadian-Controlled Private Corporations

A Resident Holder that is a “Canadian-controlled private corporation” (as defined in the Tax Act) may be required to pay an additional 6 2/3% refundable tax on certain investment income, which includes taxable capital gains and interest.

Dissenting Resident Holders

A Resident Holder (a “Resident Dissenter”) who owns the Common Shares in respect of which a Dissent Right is validly exercised and consequently is paid the fair value of the Resident Dissenter’s Shares by the Purchaser in accordance with the Arrangement will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount by which the payment (other than interest awarded by a court) exceeds (or is exceeded by) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base to the Resident Dissenter of the Common Shares determined immediately before the Effective Time and any reasonable costs of disposition. The Resident Dissenter will be required to include any resulting taxable capital gain in income, or be entitled to deduct any resulting allowable capital loss from other taxable capital gains realized, in accordance with the usual rules applicable to capital gains and losses. See “Holders Resident in Canada- Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses” above.

A Resident Dissenter must include in computing its income any interest awarded to it by a court.

Holders Not Resident in Canada

(U.S. Resident Shareholders – See also “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations”)

This portion of the summary applies to a Holder who, at all relevant times, for the purposes of the Tax Act, is not, and is not deemed to be, a resident of Canada and does not use or hold, and is not deemed to use or hold, the Common Shares in connection with carrying on a business in Canada (a “Non-Resident Holder”). This portion of the summary is not applicable to a Non-Resident Holder that is:

- (i) an insurer carrying on an insurance business in Canada and elsewhere;
- (ii) a “financial institution” (as defined in the Tax Act); or
- (iii) an “authorized foreign bank” (as defined in the Tax Act).

Disposition of Common Shares under the Arrangement

A Non-Resident Holder whose Common Shares are exchanged for cash under the Arrangement will not be subject to tax under the Tax Act on any capital gain realized on such exchange unless the Common Shares are “taxable Canadian property” to the Non-Resident Holder and the Common Shares are not “treaty-protected property” (as defined in the Tax Act) of the Non-Resident Holder at the Effective Time.

Table of Contents

Generally, a Common Share will not be “taxable Canadian property” to a Non-Resident Holder at a particular time unless at any time during the 60-month period immediately preceding that time more than 50% of the fair market value of the Common Share was derived directly or indirectly from one or any combination of real or immovable property situated in Canada, Canadian resource properties (as defined in the Tax Act), timber resource properties (as defined in the Tax Act), and options in respect of, or interests in, or for civil law rights in, any such properties (whether or not such property exists). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in certain circumstances set out in the Tax Act, the Common Shares could be deemed to be taxable Canadian property to the Non-Resident Holder.

Even if a Common Share is taxable Canadian property to a Non-Resident Holder, such share will be “treaty-protected property” of the Non-Resident Holder at the time of disposition (which time includes an exchange of a Common Share under the Arrangement) for purposes of the Tax Act if the capital gain from the disposition of that share would, because of an applicable income tax convention to which Canada is a signatory, be exempt from tax under the Tax Act. Many of the income tax treaties to which Canada is a signatory, including the Canada-U.S. Income Tax Convention (1980) (the “U.S. Treaty”) provide that Canada reserves the right to tax (i.e., does not exempt from Canadian tax) gains on the sale of real property situated in Canada, which for these purposes may include (and under the U.S. Treaty, does include) a share of the capital stock of a corporation resident in Canada, the value of whose shares is derived principally from real property situated in Canada. Non-Resident Holders should consult their own tax advisors in this regard.

In the event a Common Share is taxable Canadian property to a Non-Resident Holder at the time of disposition and is not treaty-protected property of the Non-Resident Holder at that time, the tax consequences described above under “Holders Resident in Canada - Exchange of the Common Shares under The Arrangement” and “Holders Resident in Canada - Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses” will generally apply. Non-Resident Holders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the Canadian tax consequences of disposing of such shares.

Dissenting Non-Resident Holders

A Non-Resident Holder (a “Non-Resident Dissenter”) who owns the Common Shares in respect of which a Dissent Right is validly exercised and consequently is paid the fair value for the Non-Resident Dissenter’s Shares by the Purchaser may realize a capital gain or capital loss as discussed above under “Holders Resident in Canada - Dissenting Resident Holders”. As discussed above under “Holders Not Resident in Canada - Exchange of the Common Shares under the Arrangement”, any resulting capital gain would only be subject to tax under the Tax Act if the Common Shares are taxable Canadian property to the Non-Resident Holder and are not treaty-protected property of the Non-Resident Holder at the Effective Time.

An amount paid in respect of interest awarded by the Court to a Non-Resident Dissenter will not be subject to Canadian withholding tax.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following discussion is a summary of material United States federal income tax considerations of the Arrangement to those U.S. resident Shareholders whose Common Shares are held as capital assets and converted into the right to receive $3.45 cash in the Arrangement, and who are not subject to the Canadian federal income tax considerations described in the Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations discussion above. Because this discussion is a summary, it does not include an analysis of all potential federal income or other tax effects of the Arrangement.

For example, this summary:

- (a) does not consider the effect of any applicable state, local or foreign tax laws;
- (b) does not address all aspects of federal income taxation that may affect particular U.S. resident Shareholders in light of their particular circumstances including, without limitation, the alternative minimum tax;
- (c) is not intended for U.S. resident Shareholders that may be subject to special federal income tax rules, such as:

Table of Contents

- (i) insurance companies and banks;
- (ii) tax-exempt organizations;
- (iii) financial institutions or broker-dealers;
- (iv) Shareholders who hold their Common Shares as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction;
- (v) Shareholders who acquired their Common Shares pursuant to the exercise of an employee stock option plan or otherwise as compensation; and
- (vi) Shareholders who are neither citizens nor residents of the United States or that are foreign corporations, foreign partnerships, foreign estates or foreign trusts as to the United States; and
- (d) does not address tax consequences to holders of Options or Warrants.

This summary assumes that U.S. resident Shareholders have held their Common Shares as a “capital asset” under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Internal Revenue Code”). Generally, a “capital asset” is property held for investment.

This summary is based on the current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, applicable Treasury Regulations, judicial authorities and administrative rulings and practice, as in effect on the date hereof. It is possible that the Internal Revenue Service will take a contrary view with respect to the issues discussed herein. Neither the Corporation nor Purchaser nor any of their affiliates or subsidiaries, respectively, has sought or intends to seek a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service with respect to any aspect of the Arrangement. Future legislative, judicial or administrative changes or interpretations could alter or modify the statements and conclusions set forth in this section. Any of these changes or interpretations could be retroactive and could affect the tax consequences of the Arrangement to you.

You should consult your own tax advisor with respect to the particular tax consequences of the Arrangement, including the applicability and effect of any state, local or foreign tax laws, and of changes in applicable tax laws.

Tax Treatment of U.S. Resident Shareholders Owning Common Shares

No Canadian Federal Income Tax Paid on Conversion of a U.S. Resident Shareholder’s Common Shares

To the extent that a U.S. resident Shareholder does not pay Canadian federal income tax on the payment received for the U.S. resident Shareholder’s Common Shares as described in the foregoing section, the conversion of a U.S. resident Shareholder’s Common Shares into the right to receive $3.45 cash in the Arrangement, or pursuant to the exercise of a Non-Resident Dissenter’s Dissent Right, will be fully taxable to the U.S. resident Shareholder for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Subject to the assumptions and limitations described above, a U.S. resident Shareholder will recognize a capital gain or loss equal to the difference between:

- (a) the amount of cash received by the U.S. resident Shareholder for the U.S. resident Shareholder’s Common Shares in the Arrangement; and
- (b) the U.S. resident Shareholder’s tax basis in the U.S. resident Shareholder’s Common Shares in respect of which that cash was received.

Generally, the tax basis in the U.S. resident Shareholder's Common Shares will be equal to what the U.S. resident Shareholder paid for the U.S. resident Shareholder's Common Shares. The amount, character and timing of such gain or loss generally will be determined separately with respect to each block of Common Shares owned by the U.S. resident Shareholder.

If U.S. resident Shareholder is an individual,

- (a) any capital gain recognized upon conversion of the U.S. resident Shareholder's Common Shares in the Arrangement will be taxable at a maximum U.S. federal income tax capital gains rate of 15% if the U.S. resident Shareholder has held the Common Shares for more than one year at the time of the merger; gain on shares held for one year or less generally will be subject to taxation at ordinary income tax rates (with a current U.S. federal income tax maximum rate of 35%); and

Table of Contents

(b) any capital loss recognized upon the conversion of the U.S. resident Shareholder's Common Shares in the merger may only be offset against capital gains or up to $3,000 per year of ordinary income, and any excess capital loss may be carried forward to subsequent years to the extent unused.

Canadian Federal Income Tax Paid on Conversion of a U.S. Resident Shareholder's Common Shares

If a U.S. resident Shareholder is subject to tax under the Tax Act as described in the discussion of Holders Not Resident in Canada in the Material Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations discussion above, the U.S. resident Shareholder is allowed a credit or deduction against U.S. federal income taxes for the foreign taxes paid to Canada under the Tax Act. This credit or deduction is intended to relieve the U.S. resident Shareholder of double taxation on foreign-sourced income. The foreign tax credit rules are complex, and their application in connection with the Internal Revenue Code and the U.S. Treaty is not entirely clear at this time. U.S. resident Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to any benefits they may be entitled to under the foreign tax credit rules and the U.S. Treaty.

THE UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX DISCUSSION SET FORTH ABOVE IS INCLUDED FOR GENERAL INFORMATION PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT A COMPLETE ANALYSIS OR DISCUSSION OF ALL POTENTIAL TAX CONSEQUENCES RELEVANT SHAREHOLDERS WHO ARE UNITED STATES RESIDENTS. ALL SHAREHOLDERS, INCLUDING UNITED STATES RESIDENT SHAREHOLDERS, ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS TO DETERMINE THE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND NON-U.S. TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE ARRANGEMENT TO THEM IN LIGHT OF THEIR OWN PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

INCLUSION OF FUTURE SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS IN CIRCULAR

We held our 2012 annual and special meeting of Shareholders on August 28, 2012. If the Arrangement is consummated, we will not have public Shareholders and there will be no public participation in any future meeting of Shareholders. If the Arrangement is not consummated or if we are otherwise required to do so under applicable law, however, we will hold the 2013 annual meeting of Shareholders next year.

All proposals of Shareholders intended to be included in the information circular and form of proxy relating to the meeting of Shareholders for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2013 (the "2013 Annual Meeting") must be received by our Corporation no later than March 29, 2013 (assuming that the 2013 Annual Meeting is held on a date that is within 30 days from the anniversary date of our annual meeting held on August 28, 2012). All such proposals must comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-8 of Regulation 14A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Section 188 of the BCBCA, which set forth specific requirements and limitations applicable to nominations and proposals at annual meetings of Shareholders.

For any Shareholder proposal that is not submitted for inclusion in our information circular and form of proxy relating to the 2013 Annual Meeting pursuant to the processes of Rule 14a-8 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or any proposal that is submitted under Section 188 of the BCBCA, notice of such proposal must be received by our Corporation no later than June 12, 2013 (assuming that the 2013 Annual Meeting is held on a date that is within 30 days from the anniversary date of our annual meeting held on August 28, 2012); otherwise, we may exercise, pursuant to Rule 14a-4(c)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, discretionary voting authority under proxies we solicit for the 2013 Annual Meeting.

All Shareholder proposals, notices and requests should be made in writing and sent via registered, certified or express mail, to our Corporation at Suite 1680, 1140 West Pender Street, Vancouver, British Columbia V6E 4G1 Attention:

“HOUSEHOLDING” OF PROXY MATERIAL

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (including brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for a proxy statement, an annual report to Shareholders and a Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials, as applicable, with respect to two or more Shareholders sharing the same address by delivering a single copy of those documents addressed to those Shareholders (although the rule requires that each Shareholder will continue to receive a separate proxy card). This process is commonly referred to as “householding”.

Table of Contents

Accordingly, a number of brokers with accountholders who are Shareholders of our Corporation will be “householding” our proxy materials. As indicated in the notice previously provided by these brokers to Shareholders of our Corporation, a single Proxy Statement, a single Letter of Transmittal and, if applicable, a single Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials will be delivered to multiple Shareholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from an affected Shareholder. Once you have received notice from your broker that they will be “householding” communications to your address, “householding” will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If at any time, you no longer wish to participate in “householding” and would prefer to receive a separate Proxy Statement, a separate Letter of Transmittal and/or, if applicable, a separate Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials, please notify your broker, or call us at 604-689-4440 or write to us at LML Payment Systems Inc., Suite 1680, 1140 West Pender Street, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, V6E 4G1, Attn: Corporate Secretary. We will deliver promptly upon written or oral request a separate copy of the Proxy statement, a separate Letter of Transmittal and/or a separate Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials, as applicable, to a Shareholder at a shared address to which a single copy of the documents was delivered.

Shareholders who currently receive multiple copies of the Proxy Statement, a separate Letter of Transmittal and/or, if applicable, a separate Notice of Internet Availability of Proxy Materials, at their address and would like to request “householding” of their communications should contact their broker.

4.3 Right to Accept a Superior Proposal

(a) If the Company has complied with Section 4.2 of this Agreement, the Company Board may accept, approve, recommend or enter into any agreement, understanding or arrangement in respect of a Superior Proposal and may refrain from affirming the Company Board Recommendation prior to the Shareholder Approval and terminate this Agreement if, and only if (with the exception of a confidentiality agreement which complies with subsection 4.2(d) the execution of which shall not be subject to the conditions of this Section 4.3):

(i) the Company has provided the Purchaser with a copy of the document containing the Superior Proposal;

(ii) five Business Days have elapsed from the later of:

(A) the date the Purchaser received written notice (a “Superior Proposal Notice”) advising the Purchaser that the Company Board has resolved, subject to compliance with this Section 4.3, to accept, approve, recommend or enter into an agreement in respect of such Superior Proposal, specifying the terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal and identifying the person making such Superior Proposal; and

In the event that the Company provides the Purchaser with a Superior Proposal Notice on a date that is less than five Business Days prior to the Company Meeting, the Company shall adjourn the Company Meeting to a date that is not less than five Business Days and not more than 10 Business Days after the date of receipt by the Purchaser of the Superior Proposal Notice.

(b) During the five Business Day period referred to in subsection 4.3(a)(ii) above, Digital River and the Purchaser shall have the right but not the obligation, to offer to amend the terms of this Agreement or the Plan of Arrangement. The Company Board will review any proposal by Digital River and the Purchaser to amend the terms of this Agreement or the Plan of Arrangement in good faith in order to determine whether the amended proposal upon acceptance by the Company would result in such Superior Proposal ceasing to be a Superior Proposal. If the Company Board so determines, the Company shall enter into an amended agreement with Digital River and the Purchaser reflecting the amended proposal. If the Company Board continues to believe, in good faith and after consultation with the Broker and outside legal counsel, that such Superior Proposal remains a Superior Proposal and therefore rejects Digital River’s amended proposal, the Company may terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(c) and enter into an agreement regarding the Superior Proposal or the Company Board may recommend the Superior Proposal and withdraw the Company Board Recommendation.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Purchaser's and Digital River's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1 above and receive payment of the Company Termination Fee and/or Expense Reimbursement Fee pursuant to this Section 7.2(b) shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Purchaser and Digital River or any of their Affiliates for monetary damages against the Company or any of their respective Affiliates or any of their respective stockholders, partners, members or representatives for any and all losses that may be suffered based upon, resulting from or arising out of the circumstances giving rise to such termination, and upon payment of the Company Termination Fee and/or Expense Reimbursement Fee in accordance with this Section 7.2(b), none of the Company or any of their respective Affiliates or any of their respective stockholders, partners, members or representatives shall have any further liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any of the agreements, certificates, or documents contemplated hereby or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any of the agreements, certificates, or documents contemplated hereby. In no event shall Digital River or the Purchaser seek any money damages or any other recovery, judgment, or damages of any kind, including consequential, indirect, or punitive damages, other than the Company Termination Fee and/or Expense Reimbursement Fee, but the foregoing will not eliminate or limit the right of Digital River and Purchaser to seek equitable relief pursuant to the terms of Section 7.6(a) of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Company's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1 above and receive payment of the Purchaser Termination Fee pursuant to this Section 7.2(c) shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Company or any of its Affiliates against Digital River or the Purchaser or any of their respective Affiliates or any of their respective stockholders, partners, members or representatives for any and all losses that may be suffered based upon, resulting from or arising out of the circumstances giving rise to such termination, and upon payment of the Purchaser Termination Fee in accordance with this Section 7.2(c), none of Digital River or the Purchaser or any of their respective Affiliates or any of their respective stockholders, partners, members or representatives shall have any further liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any of the agreements, certificates, or documents contemplated hereby or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or any of the agreements, certificates, or documents contemplated hereby. - (e) Each Party acknowledges that the Company Termination Fee, Purchaser Termination Fee, and Expense Reimbursement Fee amounts set forth in Section 7.2(b) and Section 7.2(c) above will constitute payment of liquidated damages which are a genuine pre-estimate of the damages which the Party in question will suffer or incur as a result of the event giving rise to such damages and resultant termination of this Agreement, and is not a penalty. Each Party irrevocably waives any right it may have to raise as a defence that any such liquidated damages are excessive or punitive.

7.3 Termination Deadline

If the Effective Date does not occur on or before the Termination Deadline, this Agreement will terminate on notice by a Party hereto to the other Parties hereto. The right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.3 shall not be available to any Party hereto whose action or failure to act has been a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the Effective Date to occur on or before the Termination Deadline and such action or failure to act constitutes a breach of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Party shall have the right, in their sole discretion, upon written notice to the other Parties in advance of the Termination Deadline to extend the Termination Deadline for a period of 10 days beyond the Termination Deadline (the "Revised Termination Deadline") and the other Parties shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.3 until the expiration of such Revised Termination Deadline.

This Agreement and the Plan of Arrangement may, at any time and from time to time before or after the holding of the Company Meeting but not later than the Effective Time, be amended by mutual written agreement of the Parties hereto, and any such amendment may, subject to the Interim Order and the Final Order and Applicable Law, without limitation:

- (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other Parties hereto; or

Table of Contents

(b) waive compliance with any of the covenants or agreements of the other Parties hereto or with any conditions to its own obligations, but in each case only to the extent such obligations, agreements and conditions are intended for its benefit.

7.6 Remedies

(a) The Parties acknowledge and agree that an award of money damages is not available for certain breaches of this Agreement by the Company or its representatives and advisors and that such breaches may cause Digital River and the Purchaser irreparable harm. Accordingly, the Company agrees that, only so long as this Agreement has not been terminated in accordance with the terms of Sections 7.1 or 7.3, Digital River and the Purchaser will be entitled to specific performance by the Company of any affirmative covenant or obligation of the Company, or an injunction prohibiting any actual or threatened breach by the Company of any negative or prohibitory covenant or obligation of the Company: (i) under Section 4.2 or Section 4.3 of this Agreement, or (ii) which non-performance or breach would reasonably be expected to prevent or to in any material respect interfere with, hinder, or delay the consummation of the Arrangement pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) In the event that Digital River and the Purchaser are entitled to specific performance or an injunction pursuant to Section 7.6(a), the Company agrees that it will not oppose the granting of such relief on the basis that Digital River and the Purchaser have an adequate remedy at law or an award of specific performance or injunction is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or equity. Except as set forth in Section 7.6(a) and the preceding sentence of this Section 7.6(b), the Parties agree that Digital River and the Purchaser shall not be entitled to an injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement or to enforce specifically the terms hereof.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Parties hereto agree that the Company shall not be entitled to an injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement or to enforce specifically the terms hereof.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed and relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all the information examined by or otherwise reviewed or discussed with us for purposes of this opinion including without limitation the Forecasts provided by senior management. We have not made or obtained an independent valuation or appraisal of the assets, liabilities or solvency of the Company. We were similarly not engaged to review any legal, tax or accounting aspects of the Transaction and accordingly express no view thereon. We have been advised by the senior management of the Company that the Forecasts examined by us have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the senior management of the Company, as the case may be. In that regard, we have assumed, with your consent, that, (i) the Forecasts will be achieved in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby and (ii) all material assets and liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company are as set forth in the Company's financial statements or other information made available to us. It should be understood that, although subsequent developments may affect this opinion, we do not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. We have relied as to all legal matters on advice of counsel to the Company, and have assumed that the Transaction will be consummated in accordance with applicable laws and on the terms described in the Transaction Agreement, without any waiver of any material terms or conditions by the Company.

William Blair & Company has been engaged in the investment banking business since 1935. We continually undertake the valuation of investment securities in connection with public offerings, private placements, business combinations, estate and gift tax valuations and similar transactions. In the ordinary course of our business, we may from time to time trade the securities of the Company and/or Digital River, or their respective affiliates, for our own account and for the accounts of customers, and accordingly may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. We have acted as the investment banker to the Company in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee from the Company for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

Our investment banking services and our opinion were provided for the use and benefit of the Special Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the transaction contemplated by the Transaction Agreement. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the Stockholders of the Merger Consideration in connection with the Transaction, and we do not address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the Transaction and this opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the proposed Transaction. It is understood that this letter may not be disclosed or otherwise referred to without prior written consent, except that the opinion may be included in its entirety in a proxy statement mailed to the stockholders by the Company with respect to the Transaction. This opinion has been reviewed and approved by our Fairness Opinion Committee.

We have not been engaged or authorized to solicit bids for the Company or the shares, nor have we been engaged to propose alternatives to any proposed transactions recommended or considered by LML or Digital River.

This Fairness Opinion must be considered in its entirety by the reader, as selecting and relying on only specific portions of the analyses or factors considered by us, without considering all factors and analyses together, could result in the misinterpretation of the comments and the conclusions therefrom. It is not appropriate to extract partial analyses or make summary descriptions. Any attempt to do so could lead to undue emphasis on a particular factor or analysis.

- MNP has been engaged to prepare a Fairness Opinion of the Proposed Transaction, and is not expressing an opinion as to the value of the common shares of LML and this Fairness Opinion should not be constructed as such.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and our opinion was arrived at giving consideration to our analyses viewed as a whole and is not susceptible to partial analysis.

Overview of the Company

Based in Vancouver, British Columbia, LML Payment Systems Inc. is a provider of payment processing solutions. LML is incorporated under the laws of the Yukon Territory and its shares are publicly traded on the NASDAQ, under the ticker 'LMLP'. LML has approximately 28.2 million shares outstanding and 29.8 million fully diluted shares. The Company operates in three business segments, including:

- Transaction payment processing ("TPP");
- Intellectual property licensing ("IPL"); and,
- Check processing ("CP").

In addition to the Vancouver headquarters, the Company maintains data centers in Victoria, BC; Saanich, BC; and, Toronto, ON. The Company also has an office in the state of Kansas in the United States that is used for check processing operations.

As of the Valuation Date, the Company employed approximately 64 full-time employees out of its 5 locations.

We understand that prior to June 2007 the Company's principal source of revenue was from the CP business segment. On June 30, 2007 the Company completed the acquisition of Beanstream Internet Commerce Inc. ("Beanstream"), a provider of transaction payment processing services. Beanstream became the TPP business segment. Since the acquisition of Beanstream, transaction payment processing has become the Company's principal source of revenue. Management expects this to continue for the foreseeable future.

The IPL business segment generates revenue through licensing of the Company's patents to third parties. The patents will expire in 2013 and all revenue generation from this business segment will cease.

Methodology Applied in Performing Fairness Analysis

The assessment of fairness, from a financial point of view, must be determined in the context of the Proposed Transaction. In considering the fairness of the Proposed Transaction, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of LML, we have considered a number of matters including, but not limited to the following:

Primary Approach

- Discounted cash flow approach – analysis of the present value of the future cash flows of LML;

Corroborative Approaches

- Market premium approach – analysis of premiums paid over pre-announcement share price for public traded companies;
 - Market approach – quantitative analysis of comparable transactions;
 - Market approach – quantitative analysis of LML’s acquisition of Beanstream; and,
 - Market approach – analysis of comparable public traded companies.

LML Payment Systems Inc.

Discounted Cash Flow Valuation Approach

We applied the discounted cash flow approach as our primary approach for assessing the fairness of the Proposed Transaction. We believe the discounted cash flow approach is the most suitable approach for the purpose of this Fairness Opinion as the future cash flows of the Company have been reasonably forecasted by Management and are expected to differ from historical results as a result of various business changes. Estimated future benefits that accrue to shareholders are discounted at a rate appropriate for the risks associated with those benefits.

We then compared the discounted cash flow analysis conclusion to the Consideration offered in the Proposed Transaction.

Market Premium Approach

We reviewed completed market transactions to identify the premium paid by acquiring companies over pre-transaction announcement trading price of the acquired companies. We identified two distinct ranges of premiums as follows:

- Somewhat comparable companies; and,
- Recent equity transactions.

The range, median and average of the identified premiums were compared to the market premium implied in the Proposed Transaction.

Market Approach

The market approach summarizes various value measures based upon actual sales of businesses or trading price of shares of public traded companies. We reviewed two financial indicators as measures of value, Earnings before Interest Taxes Depreciation and Amortization (“EBITDA”) to Value, and Revenue to Value. Value is expressed as both enterprise value and equity value. Enterprise value is a combination of the Consideration offered plus interest bearing liabilities assumed less excess cash. Equity value is expressed as total Consideration offered by Digital River to LML shareholders. Our analysis consisted of the following three approaches:

- We identified and reviewed publically available information for transaction multiples paid in the market for somewhat comparable companies;
- Since the future cash flows of LML will be largely derived from revenue generated by TPP, the former Beanstream division, we reviewed the historical valuation multiples paid for Beanstream; and,
- We analyzed somewhat comparable public traded companies for valuation multiples implied in publically available market data.

For the purpose of the Fairness Opinion, we considered the market approaches employed to be corroborating support for the primary approach. Although no single market indicator can be considered perfectly comparable to the Proposed Transaction, overall they provide support for the primary approach. We reviewed the implied value range of LML based on the various EBITDA to value and revenue to value ranges identified in the market approach and compared them to the Consideration in the Proposed Transaction.

MNP llp

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Use of the Letter of Transmittal

If you are a holder of a DRS Advice rather than a physical certificate, please complete the letter of transmittal and return to Computershare as noted on the back page of the letter of transmittal.

- (a) In order to permit the timely receipt of the Share Consideration, Option Consideration and/or Warrant Consideration issuable in connection with the Arrangement, it is recommended that this Letter of Transmittal (or an originally signed facsimile copy thereof) together with accompanying certificate(s) representing the Deposited Shares, if applicable, be received by Computershare at the office specified below before 4:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on or, in the case of any adjournment or postponement of the Meeting, no later than 4:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on the business day of the reconvened Meeting. Do not send the certificates or the Letter of Transmittal to the Corporation or Purchaser.
- (b) The method used to deliver this Letter of Transmittal and any accompanying certificates representing Deposited Shares is at the option and risk of the Shareholder, Optionholder, or Warrantholder, and delivery will be deemed effective only when such documents are actually received by Computershare. The Corporation, the Purchaser and Computershare recommend that the necessary documentation be hand delivered to Computershare at the office specified below, and a receipt obtained; otherwise the use of registered mail with return receipt requested, properly insured, is recommended. Shareholders whose Common Shares are registered in the name of a broker, investment dealer, bank, trust company or other nominee should contact that nominee for assistance in depositing those Common Shares.

2. Signatures

- (a) If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by the registered owner(s) of the accompanying certificate(s), such signature(s) on this Letter of Transmittal must correspond with the name(s) as registered or as written on the face of such certificate(s) without any change whatsoever, and the certificate(s) need not be endorsed. If such deposited certificate(s) are owned of record by two or more joint owners, all such owners must sign the Letter of Transmittal.
- (b) If this Letter of Transmittal is signed by a person other than the registered owner(s) of the accompanying certificate(s), or if a cheque is to be issued to a person other than the registered owner(s):
- (i) such deposited certificate(s) must be endorsed or be accompanied by appropriate share transfer power(s) of attorney duly and properly completed by the registered owner(s); and
- (ii) the signature(s) on such endorsement or share transfer power(s) of attorney must correspond exactly to the name(s) of the registered owner(s) as registered or as appearing on the certificate(s) and must be guaranteed as noted in Instruction 3 below.
- (c) If any of the Deposited Shares are registered in different names on several certificates, it will be necessary to complete, sign and submit as many separate Letters of Transmittal as there are different registrations of Common Shares.

Any of the Corporation, DRIV, the Purchaser or Computershare, at their discretion, may require additional evidence of appointment or authority or additional documentation.

In all cases, either Box B or Box C should be completed and Box D entitled “Delivery Instructions” should be completed. If those boxes are not completed, the Share Consideration, Option Consideration or Warrant Consideration, as applicable, exchanged for the Deposited Securities or the certificate(s) in respect of the Deposited Shares (if the Arrangement is not completed) will be mailed to the depositing Shareholder at the address of the holders as it appears on the central securities register or Option register or Warrant register, as applicable, of the Corporation.

- (b) If Deposited Shares, Options or Warrants are registered in different forms (e.g. “John Doe” and “J. Doe”), a separate Letter of Transmittal should be signed for each different registration.
- (c) No alternative, conditional or contingent deposits of Deposited Securities will be accepted.

10. U.S. Federal Income Tax and Backup Withholding – Substitute Form W-9 Instructions

The following does not constitute a summary of the tax consequences of the Arrangement and Shareholders should consult with their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the Arrangement as well as any elections that may be available to mitigate certain possible adverse U.S. tax consequences.

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, a "U.S. person" is: (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States; (ii) a partnership, corporation, company or association created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state in the United States, or the District of Columbia; (iii) an estate if the income of such estate is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of the source of such income; or (iv) a trust if (a) such trust has validly elected to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes or (b) a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of such trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of such trust.

Table of Contents

Each Shareholder, Optionholder or Warrantholder who is a U.S. person as described above (a “U.S. holder”) is required to provide Computershare with a correct Taxpayer Identification Number (“TIN”) on the Substitute Form W-9 which is provided above in Box H, and to certify whether such holder is subject to backup withholding of federal income tax. If a U.S. holder has been notified by the IRS that such holder is subject to backup withholding, such holder must cross out item 2 of the Substitute Form W-9, unless such holder has since been notified by the IRS that such holder is no longer subject to backup withholding. Failure to provide the information in the Substitute Form W-9 may subject a U.S. holder to penalties imposed by the IRS and 28% federal income tax withholding on the cash portion of the consideration paid to such holder in connection with the Arrangement. If withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund may be obtained by the holder from the IRS.

Exempt holders (including, among others, all corporations) are not subject to backup withholding requirements. To prevent possible erroneous backup withholding, an exempt holder must enter its correct TIN or Employer Identification Number in the Substitute Form W-9 and sign and date the form. Any holder that provides a U.S. address but that is not a U.S. holder should complete the appropriate IRS Form W-8, available from the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

If a U.S. holder has not been issued a TIN and has applied for one or intends to apply for one in the near future, such holder should write “Applied For” in the space provided for the TIN in the Substitute Form W-9, and sign and date the Substitute Form W-9 and the Certificate of Awaiting Taxpayer Identification Number. If “Applied For” is written in the Substitute Form W-9 and Computershare is not provided with a TIN within 60 days, Computershare may withhold 28% of all cash consideration due to such holder in connection with the Arrangement until a TIN is provided to Computershare.

A U.S. HOLDER WHO FAILS TO PROPERLY COMPLETE THE SUBSTITUTE FORM W-9 SET OUT IN THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL MAY BE SUBJECT TO PENALTIES IMPOSED BY THE IRS AND BACKUP WITHHOLDING OF 28% OF THE CASH PAYMENTS OR TRANSFERS MADE TO SUCH HOLDER PURSUANT TO THE ARRANGEMENT. BACKUP WITHHOLDING IS NOT AN ADDITIONAL TAX. RATHER, THE TAX LIABILITY OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO BACKUP WITHHOLDING WILL BE REDUCED BY THE AMOUNT OF TAX WITHHELD. IF WITHHOLDING RESULTS IN AN OVERPAYMENT OF TAXES, A REFUND MAY BE OBTAINED BY FILING A TAX RETURN WITH THE IRS. COMPUTERSHARE CANNOT REFUND AMOUNTS WITHHELD BY REASON OF BACKUP WITHHOLDING.

TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH TREASURY DEPARTMENT CIRCULAR 230, SHAREHOLDERS AND OPTIONHOLDERS ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT: (A) ANY DISCUSSION OF U.S. FEDERAL TAX ISSUES IN THIS LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL IS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN TO BE RELIED UPON, AND CANNOT BE RELIED UPON BY SUCH HOLDERS, FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING PENALTIES THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON SUCH HOLDERS UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE; (B) SUCH DISCUSSION IS BEING USED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROMOTION OR MARKETING (WITHIN THE MEANING OF CIRCULAR 230) OF THE TRANSACTIONS OR MATTERS ADDRESSED HEREIN; AND (C) EACH HOLDER SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON ITS PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.
