Cockerill Urges Gold Fields Shareholders to Keep Their Options Open

Johannesburg, 26 November 2004. Gold Fields Limited (GFI: JSE and NYSE) Chief Executive Officer, Ian Cockerill today urged Gold Fields shareholders to keep their options open by not tendering their shares into the Harmony early settlement offer.

Cockerill pointed out that:

- Harmony's unsolicited hostile bid has destroyed more than R12 billion in shareholder value for both Harmony and Gold Fields shareholders to date, almost as much as Harmony plans to save over the life of Gold Fields' mines, in the unlikely event that their bid succeeds;

- Harmony, which is financially distressed, loss making and burning cash, is seeking to transfer its problems to Gold Fields' shareholders; and

- Harmony, by offering Gold Fields' shareholders only overvalued Harmony paper at a derisory premium, significantly undervalues Gold Fields.

"Gold Fields' shareholders should keep their options open by rejecting Harmony's offer and not tendering their shares", said Cockerill.

Cockerill added:

"The Harmony offer significantly undervalues Gold Fields and is funded by overvalued Harmony paper"

"The independent experts, including the highly respected Institutional Investor Services, concur - this offer is not in the best interests of Gold Fields' shareholders."

"Gold Fields has high quality South African assets with excellent gearing to the rand and gold price. The cost reduction and revenue maximisation programmes commenced earlier this year are beginning to bear fruit. In the current quarter, we expect group operating margins to improve from 17% to between 20 and 23%."

"Gold Fields has built a great company with a substantial international portfolio of producing mines; a low risk, fully funded, project pipeline; and an extensive global exploration portfolio. We also have an experienced and proven team in place to maximise its value potential. Do not give it away".

"Gold Fields' commitment to sustainable growth has delivered a 200% return to shareholders since 1998. That is real value creation: and there is more to come".*

" Reject the Harmony offer. Keep your options open. Do not tender your shares."
