PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

The following is only a summary. We urge you to read the entire prospectus, including the more detailed consolidated financial statements, notes to the consolidated financial statements and other information included herein or incorporated herein by reference from our other filings with the Commission. Investing in our securities involves risks. Therefore, please carefully consider the risk factors described in our Commission filings, including those disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015.

Our Business

We are a retailer and distributor of pharmaceutical and other healthcare products typically found in a retail pharmacy in the People's Republic of China. Prior to acquiring Zhejiang Jiuxin Medicine Co., Ltd. ("Jiuxin Medicine") in August 2011, we were primarily a retail pharmacy operator. We currently have fifty nine (59) store locations under the store brand "Jiuzhou Grand Pharmacy" in Hangzhou.

We currently operate in four business segments in China: (1) retail drugstores, (2) online pharmacy, (3) wholesale business selling products similar to those we carry in our pharmacies, and (4) farming and selling herbs used for traditional Chinese medicine ("TCM").

Our stores provide customers with a wide variety of pharmaceutical products, including prescription and over-the-counter ("OTC") drugs, nutritional supplements, TCM, personal and family care products, and medical devices, as well as convenience products, including consumable, seasonal, and promotional items. Additionally, we have licensed doctors of both western medicine and TCM on site for consultation, examination and treatment of common ailments at scheduled hours. Three (3) stores have adjacent medical clinics offering urgent cares (to provide treatment for minor ailments such as sprains, minor lacerations, and dizziness that can be treated on an outpatient basis), TCM (including acupuncture, therapeutic massage, and cupping) and minor outpatient surgical treatments (such as suturing). Our stores vary in size, but presently average approximately 210 square meters. We attempt to tailor each store's product offerings, physician access, and operating hours to suit the community where the store is located.

We operate our pharmacies (including the medical clinics) through the following companies in China that we control through contractual arrangements:

Hangzhou Jiuzhou Grand Pharmacy Chain Co., Ltd. (“Jiuzhou Pharmacy”), which we control contractually, operates our “Jiuzhou Grand Pharmacy” stores;

Hangzhou Jiuzhou Clinic of Integrated Traditional and Western Medicine (General Partnership) (“Jiuzhou Clinic”), which we control contractually, operates one (1) of our four (4) medical clinics; and Hangzhou Jiuzhou Medical & Public Health Service Co., Ltd. (“Jiuzhou Service”), which we control contractually, operates our other medical clinics.

We also retail OTC drugs and nutritional supplements through a website (www.dada360.com) that we operate through Zhejiang Shouantang Pharmaceutical Technology Co., Ltd. (“Shouantang Technology”), a wholly-owned subsidiary, and its subsidiary, Zhejiang Quannuo Internet Technology Co., Ltd. (“Quannuo Technology”). For the three months ended September 30, 2015, retail revenue, including pharmacies, medical clinics accounted for approximately 58.0% of our total revenue, while online pharmacy revenue accounted for 29.1% of our total revenue.

Since August 2011, we have operated a wholesale business through Zhejiang Jiuxin Medicine Co., Ltd. (“Jiuxin Medicine”), distributing third-party pharmaceutical products (similar to those carried by our pharmacies) primarily to trading companies throughout China. Jiuxin Medicine is wholly owned by Jiuzhou Pharmacy. For the three months ended September 30, 2015, wholesale revenue accounted for approximately 12.9% of our total revenue.

We also have an herb farming business cultivating and wholesaling herbs used for TCM. This business is conducted through Hangzhou Qianhong Agriculture Development Co., Ltd. (“Qianhong Agriculture”), a wholly-owned subsidiary. During the three months ended September 30, 2015, we generated no revenue from our herb farming business.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The purpose of this prospectus is to permit each selling stockholder and his or her pledgees, donees, transferees and other successors in interest (all of whom may be selling stockholders for purposes of this prospectus) to offer and resell all or a portion of the shares of Common Stock such selling stockholder has received pursuant to the Plan, as the case may be. The selling stockholders may also choose to dispose of all or a portion of the shares of Common Stock covered by this prospectus by gift to a third party or as a donation to a charitable or other nonprofit entity.

The sale of the Common Stock by any selling stockholder, including any donee, pledgee or other transferee who receives Common Stock from a selling stockholder, may be effected from time to time by selling shares directly to purchasers or to or through broker-dealers. In connection with any such sale, any such broker dealer may act as agent for the selling stockholder or may purchase from the selling stockholder all or a portion of the Common Stock as principal, and sales may be made pursuant to any of the methods described below. These sales may be made on any securities exchange on which our Common Stock is then traded, in the over-the-counter market, in negotiated transactions or otherwise at prices and at terms then prevailing or at prices related to the then current market prices or at prices otherwise negotiated.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The Common Stock may also be sold in one or more of the following transactions:

block transactions (which may involve crosses) in which a broker dealer may sell all or a portion of such securities as agent but may position and resell all or a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker dealer, as principal, and resale by such broker dealer for its own account pursuant to a prospectus supplement;

a special offering, an exchange distribution or a secondary distribution in accordance with applicable rules promulgated by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”), or stock exchange rules;

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker dealer solicits purchasers;

sales “at the market” to or through a market maker or into an existing trading market, on an exchange or otherwise, for such securities; and sales in other ways not involving market makers or established trading markets, including direct sales to purchasers.

In effecting sales, broker-dealers engaged by a selling stockholder may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or other compensation from the selling stockholder in the form of commissions, discounts or concessions. Broker-dealers may also receive compensation from purchasers of the Common Stock for whom they act as agents or to whom they sell as principals or both. Compensation as to a particular broker dealer will be in amounts to be negotiated. The selling stockholders do not expect these commissions and discounts to exceed what is customary in the type of transactions involved. No such broker dealer will receive compensation in excess of that permitted by the rules of FINRA. In no event will any broker dealer receive total compensation in excess of the maximum amount allowed by FINRA.

The distribution of the Common Stock covered by this prospectus also may be effected from time to time in one or more underwritten transactions at a fixed price or prices that may be changed, or at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. Any such underwritten offering may be on a “best efforts” or a “firm commitment” basis. In connection with any underwritten offering, underwriters or agents may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholders or from purchasers of the common stock. Underwriters may sell the Common Stock to or through dealers, and such dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and/or commissions from the purchasers for whom they may act as agents.

The selling stockholders have advised us that they have not entered into any agreements, understandings or arrangements with any underwriters or broker-dealers regarding the sale of their Common Stock covered by this prospectus, nor is there any underwriter or coordinating broker dealer acting in connection with the proposed sale of Common Stock by the selling stockholders pursuant to this prospectus. We will file a supplement to this prospectus, if required, under Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act that will include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed or any material change in such information. This supplement will disclose, among other information:

the names of the selling stockholders and of participating broker dealer(s);

the amount of Common Stock involved;

the price at which the Common Stock is to be sold;

the commissions paid or the discounts or concessions allowed to the broker dealer(s), where applicable;

that the broker dealer(s) did not conduct any investigation to verify the information set out or incorporated by reference in the prospectus; and other facts material to the transaction.

The selling stockholders and any underwriters, or broker-dealers or agents that participate in the distribution of the Common Stock covered by this prospectus may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act, and any profit on the sale of the Common Stock by them and any discounts, commissions or concessions received by any such underwriters, dealers or agents may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Because the selling stockholders may be deemed to be “underwriters” under the Securities Act, the selling stockholders will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the shares covered by this prospectus. We are paying the expenses incurred in registering the shares of Common Stock covered by this prospectus and preparing this prospectus, but all selling and other expenses, including but not limited to any discounts, commissions and applicable transfer taxes incurred by each selling stockholder, will be borne by that selling stockholder.

The selling stockholders may agree to indemnify any agent, dealer or broker-dealer that participates in a transaction involving the sale of shares of Common Stock covered by this prospectus against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

From time to time, the selling stockholders may pledge their Common Stock pursuant to the margin provisions of their customer agreements with their brokers. Upon default by a selling stockholder, the broker may offer and sell such pledged Common Stock from time to time. Upon a sale of the Common Stock, the selling stockholders intend to comply with the prospectus delivery requirements under the Securities Act by delivering a prospectus to each purchaser in the transaction. We intend to file any amendments or other necessary documents in compliance with the Securities Act that may be required in the event the selling stockholders default under any customer agreement with brokers.

We have informed the selling stockholders that the anti-manipulative provisions of Regulation M promulgated under the Exchange Act may apply to their sales in the market.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the Common Stock covered by this prospectus may be sold only through registered or licensed broker-dealers.

The selling stockholders may resell all or a portion of the shares of Common Stock covered by this prospectus in open market transactions in reliance upon Rule 144 (as in effect at the time of sale) under the Securities Act, provided they meet the criteria and conform to the requirements of such rule. In addition, in accordance with General Instruction C to Form S-8, shares of Common Stock to be offered or resold by means of this prospectus by a selling stockholder may not exceed, during any three month period, the amount specified in Rule 144(e) under the Securities Act.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The only statute, charter provision, bylaw, contract, or other arrangement under which any controlling person, Director or officer of the Company is insured or indemnified in any manner against any liability which he or she may incur in his or her capacity as such, is as follows:

(a) Subsection 1 of Section 78.7502 of the Nevada Corporation Law empowers a corporation to “indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, except an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.”

Subsection 2 of Section 78.7502 empowers a corporation to “indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including amounts paid in settlement and attorneys’ fees actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. Indemnification may not be made for any claim, issue or matter as to which such a person has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, after exhaustion of all appeals therefrom, to be liable to the corporation or for amounts paid in settlement to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought or other court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.”

Subsection 3 of Section 78.7502 further provides that “to the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter herein, he must be indemnified by the corporation against expenses, including attorneys’ fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense.”

(b) The Articles of Incorporation of the Company generally allows indemnification of officers and Directors to the fullest extent allowed by law.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing, the Registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

(c) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(a) and (1)(b) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

B. C.
