DATED: November 30, 2006

TD Bank Financial Group and TD Banknorth Inc. Agree to Going-Private Transaction

TORONTO, ON and PORTLAND, ME, (November 20, 2006) - TD Bank Financial Group (TDBFG) (TSX and NYSE: TD) and TD Banknorth Inc. (NYSE: BNK) today announced that they have entered into a definitive merger agreement providing for the acquisition by TDBFG of all of the outstanding shares of common stock of TD Banknorth not currently owned by TDBFG for US$32.33 per share in cash.

The Designated Independent Directors Committee, comprised of four directors of TD Banknorth not associated with TD Bank Financial Group, issued an invitation to TDBFG to submit a proposal in accordance with the TD Banknorth stockholders agreement and negotiated the price and other terms of this transaction with the assistance of its financial and legal advisors.

The Board of Directors of TD Banknorth, upon the unanimous recommendation and approval of the Designated Independent Directors Committee, has unanimously approved the merger agreement.

The US$32.33 per share price represents a multiple of 22 times TD Banknorth's GAAP earnings for the twelve months ended September 30, 2006 and 14.4 times TD Banknorth's cash operating earnings for the twelve months ended September 30, 2006. The per share price is a 6.5% premium over the TD Banknorth closing price on Friday, November 17, 2006. The aggregate consideration payable under the proposal is expected to be approximately US$3.2 billion (CDN$3.6 billion).

TD Bank Financial Group currently owns approximately 130 million shares of common stock of TD Banknorth, representing approximately 57% of the outstanding shares of common stock. Upon completion of the transaction, TD Banknorth would become a wholly owned subsidiary of TD Bank Financial Group.

"This transaction offers TD Banknorth shareholders an opportunity to realize fair value for their shares, while also offering TD Bank Financial Group shareholders the long term benefits of 100% ownership of a US banking business in an attractive marketplace," said Ed Clark, President and Chief Executive Officer, TD Bank Financial Group. "TD Banknorth's strength has always been as a customer-focused bank and we don't see that changing in light of today's announcement. We remain committed to the future of TD Banknorth."

TD Bank Financial Group also announced that it has entered into a voting agreement with a large stockholder of TD Banknorth, pursuant to which the stockholder has agreed to vote all shares of common stock of TD Banknorth over which it exercises voting authority in favor of the transaction.

In addition, another large stockholder has reviewed the general terms of this proposed transaction and has advised TDBFG that its current expectation is to vote in favor of the transaction. Together these two stockholders currently hold or have investment discretion over 26.2 million shares. Although these shareholders do not have voting authority over all of these shares, TDBFG expects the majority of these shares will be voted in favor of this transaction.

“On behalf of our shareholders, I am pleased that we have been able to reach an agreement for TD to acquire the balance of TD Banknorth’s outstanding shares,” said Bill Ryan, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, TD Banknorth. “The transaction rewards our shareholders with a fair price and reaffirms TD’s long-term commitment to the U.S. banking industry.”

The proposed transaction requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of TD Banknorth and a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of TD Banknorth not held by TDBFG or its affiliates. TD Banknorth will schedule a special meeting of its stockholders for the purpose of obtaining stockholder approval of the transaction. The transaction is also subject to the approval of the Massachusetts Board of Bank Incorporation. The transaction is expected to close in March or April 2007.

Based on I/B/E/S estimates, TDBFG expects earnings per share accretion on a GAAP basis would be CDN$0.02 per share for six months in 2007 and CDN$0.12 per share in 2008. Projected accretion on an adjusted basis, or before the amortization of intangibles, is projected to be CDN$0.05 per share for six months in 2007 and CDN$0.16 per share in 2008.

Two conference calls for analysts are scheduled for today, November 20, 2006. The TD Banknorth call will start at 9:30 am ET, followed immediately by the TDBFG call. The phone number for both calls is 1-800-733-7571.
