GOL Launches Flights to Ilhéus in Bahia

São Paulo, September 4, 2006 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes (NYSE: GOL; and Bovespa: GOLL4), Brazil's low-cost, low-fare airline, yesterday began operating daily flights to the city of Ilhéus, in southeast Bahia. The new flights will operate on the São Paulo (Guarulhos) – Ilhéus – Salvador route.

Located 458 km from Salvador, Ilhéus is the most important city in the Costa do Cacau region of Bahia. The city, which is over 470 years old, has been the setting of several novels by the renowned Brazilian author Jorge Amado (1912-2001), for whom Ilhéus' airport is named. Main attractions include the city's beautiful beaches and Atlantic Forest Reserves. Last year, the number of passengers flying to and from Ilhéus was approximately 238,075, a 13.1 percent increase over 2004.

The inclusion of this important touristic and economic site in Bahia among our destinies is the effort of the company in continuing to popularize air travel throughout Brazil and South America, says Tarcísio Gargioni, vice president of Marketing and Services at GOL.

Tickets are available for purchase on GOL's website, www.voegol.com.br. Please see the destination table below for more information on flight schedules:
