Gravity Responds to Results at Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders

SEOUL, South Korea - December 26, 2006 - Gravity, Co., Ltd. (Nasdaq: GRVY, the "Company"), an online game developer and publisher, issued the following statement following its Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders (the "EGM"). At the meeting, the proposal brought forth by two dissident U.S. hedge funds, Ramius Capital Group ("Ramius") and Moon Capital Management ("Moon") who requested the removal of Mr. Il Young Ryu, the Chief Executive Officer, and Mr. Seung Taik Baik, the Chief Operating Officer, from Gravity's Board of Directors was rejected by the shareholders.

"We are optimistic about the prospects for the company. In less than 15 months, the Gravity management team has addressed a number of significant and difficult challenges. The current management team is executing on its clear strategy to create value for its shareholders, by extracting further value from existing content, building on brand strength to develop sequels to its existing games, developing and publishing new titles, and broadening distribution channels, as well as by improving corporate governance and internal control standards. Nevertheless, we are listening to our shareholders and committed to an open and constructive dialogue. We will continue our efforts toward building a more transparent and accountable governing structure as we drive the business forward. With the EGM as a turning point, the management encourages all the shareholders and staff to help the Company make 'Ragnarok Online2™' enjoy success similar to that of 'Ragnarok Online™', the flagship title of Gravity, has enjoyed over several years. The Company intends to conduct its closed beta testing in Korea scheduled to begin on December 27th, 2006. In addition, the management urges the 2 hedge funds, Ramius and Moon, to offer constructive criticism and positive encouragement as responsible shareholders. We will do our best to fulfill the expectations of all the shareholders."
