Section 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 13, 2016, Viacom Inc. (“Viacom”) entered into an indemnification agreement with each of Philippe P. Dauman, Viacom’s Executive Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, and George S. Abrams, a member of Viacom’s Board of Directors (together, the “Agreements”). The Agreements were approved in advance by a committee comprised of independent members of the Board of Directors.

Under the Agreements, Viacom will pay or promptly reimburse Mr. Dauman’s and Mr. Abrams’ costs and expenses (including attorney’s fees, expert witness fees and fees of public relations and other consultants) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with (1) the lawsuit filed by Messrs. Dauman and Abrams on May 23, 2016 in the Probate and Family Court in Norfolk County, Massachusetts, seeking to invalidate their removal as Trustees of the Sumner M. Redstone National Amusements Trust (the “Trust”), as directors of National Amusements, Inc. (“NAI”) and as managers of certain subsidiaries of NAI (the “Purported Removal Action”), as previously reported, and (2) the petition filed on May 23, 2016 by attorneys for Sumner M. Redstone, Chairman Emeritus of Viacom, in the Superior Court of California, Los Angeles County, seeking the court’s confirmation of the validity of the Purported Removal Action, also as previously reported.

Under the Agreements, each of Mr. Abrams and Mr. Dauman is required to repay to Viacom (1) all amounts received from Viacom to the extent it is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that, in instituting the Massachusetts lawsuit, he acted in breach of his fiduciary or other duties to Viacom or that he has not acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of Viacom and (2) any amounts received after taking reasonable steps, as required under the Agreements, to seek recoupment or other economic recovery of costs and expenses related to the subject matter of the Massachusetts and California lawsuits from the Trust and NAI as authorized under the respective governing documents of, and agreements with, those entities.

The foregoing summary of the Agreements is qualified in its entirety by the text of the Agreements, copies of which will be filed as exhibits to Viacom’s Form 10-Q for the quarter ending June 30, 2016.
