Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On January 19, 2012, Eastman Kodak Company (the “Company”) and its U.S. domestic subsidiaries (together with the Company, the “Debtors”) filed voluntary petitions for relief (the “Bankruptcy Filing”) under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”), case number 12-10202.

On March 30, 2012, the Debtors filed their monthly operating reports as of and for the periods ending January 31, 2012 and February 29, 2012 (the “Monthly Operating Reports”) with the Bankruptcy Court. The January and February Monthly Operating Reports are attached as Exhibit 99.1 and Exhibit 99.2, respectively.

The Monthly Operating Reports do not reflect the Company’s international businesses that were not part of the Bankruptcy Filing. Further, the financial information of the Debtors includes costs for which the Debtors are responsible on behalf of the entire Company. The Monthly Operating Reports also include other items such as transactions with non-debtor entities that are eliminated in the consolidated results, among other things, and exclude normal quarterly adjustments.

The information set forth in this Item 7.01 and the attached Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2 shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or otherwise subject to the liabilities in that section.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Financial Operating Data

The Monthly Operating Reports are limited in scope, cover limited time periods and have been prepared solely for the purpose of complying with the Bankruptcy Court’s monthly reporting requirements, including the Debtors’ uses of assets and cash position. The Monthly Operating Reports were not prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP, have not been audited or reviewed by independent accountants, are in a format prescribed by applicable bankruptcy laws and are subject to future adjustment and reconciliation.

The Company cautions investors and potential investors not to place undue reliance on the information contained in the Monthly Operating Reports, which were not prepared for the purpose of providing the basis for an investment decision relating to any of the securities of the Company. Unlike the information required in the Company’s quarterly and annual financial statements filed pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Securities Exchange Act”), the Monthly Operating Reports contain information that may not be indicative of the Company’s financial condition or operating results for the periods that would be reflected in the Company’s financial statements or in its reports filed pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act, and are not comparable with those filings. There can be no assurance that, from the perspective of an investor or potential investor in the Company’s securities, any of the Monthly Operating Reports is complete. Results set forth in the Monthly Operating Reports should not be viewed as indicative of future results.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Common Stock and Other Securities

The Company cannot predict what the ultimate value of any of its common stock or other securities may be and it remains too early to determine whether holders of any such securities will receive any distribution in the Debtors’ reorganization.
