PROXY STATEMENT

Edgar Filing: GENERAL EMPLOYMENT ENTERPRISES INC - Form DEF 14A

For Annual Meeting of Shareholders

This statement and the accompanying proxy card, which are first being sent to shareholders on approximately January 17, 2003, are being furnished in connection with a solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of General Employment Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company"), an Illinois corporation, to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Monday, February 24, 2003, at 9:00 a.m., local time, in the Lane Room of the Hilton Suites Hotel, 10 Drury Lane, in Oakbrook Terrace, Illinois 60181.

The only voting securities of the Company entitled to be voted at the Annual Meeting are the shares of Common Stock, of which there were 5,120,776 outstanding on December 30, 2002, the record date for the Annual Meeting. Shareholders are entitled to one vote for each share held except that, in elections for directors, each shareholder has cumulative voting rights. When voting cumulatively, each shareholder has the number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected (six) multiplied by the number of his or her shares. Such number of votes may be divided equally among all nominees, may be cumulated for one nominee, or may be distributed on any basis among as many nominees as is desired.

Each proxy that is properly signed and received before the Annual Meeting will, unless such proxy has been revoked, be voted in accordance with the instructions on such proxy. If no instruction is indicated on the proxy card, the shares will be voted for election of the six nominees for director listed in this proxy statement. Proxies given may be revoked at any time before the voting thereof by delivering to the Company a written statement revoking the proxy or a subsequently dated proxy, or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

A quorum of shareholders is necessary to take action at the Annual Meeting. A majority of the total outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for purposes of the meeting. Abstentions or broker non-votes will be treated as shares of Common Stock that are present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. The six nominees for director receiving the highest number of votes cast will be elected directors of the Company; abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote for the election of directors. "Broker non-votes" refers to a broker or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner not voting on a proposal because the broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power regarding that item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Six directors are to be elected at the Annual Meeting, to serve until the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, or until their successors are elected and qualified. Proxies will be voted, unless otherwise indicated, for the election of the nominees named below. If necessary to elect the nominees named below, proxies will be voted cumulatively.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND STOCK OPTION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation and Stock Option Committee is responsible for reviewing and recommending to the Board for approval, the compensation plans for the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer. This compensation review and evaluation considers the executive's performance and contributions, and in doing so, compares the overall performance of the Company with others in its industry, while also taking into account general economic and competitive conditions. The Committee also administers the Company's stock option plans and reviews and approves stock option grants to executive officers and other employees of the Company.

The Chief Executive Officer establishes compensation programs covering the other executive officers of the Company, and the Committee reviews these programs on an annual basis.

It is the goal of the Company's compensation programs to establish compensation levels that will enable the Company to retain talented individuals and motivate them to achieve stated objectives while providing them with competitive compensation opportunities based on their personal performance and contributions to the Company's success. To achieve this, the Company has compensation programs for its executive officers that consist of three primary components: base salary, annual performance bonus and long-term incentives.

Base Salary

Salaries for executive officers are reviewed on an annual basis, and discretionary adjustments to each executive officer's base salary are based upon the individual's performance and overall performance of the Company as a whole. No quantifying surveys or measurable statistics were utilized in determining executive compensation for fiscal 2002. While it is believed that in fiscal 2002 the executive officers of the Company were compensated at levels comparable to their peers in other service and staffing businesses of similar size, in order to assist with cost containment efforts, as of August 1, 2002 the executive officers of the Company voluntarily reduced their salaries.

Annual Performance Bonus

An executive bonus plan which was established for the Chief Executive Officer in October 2001 provided a bonus formula based upon: 1) the achievement of certain profit goals for the Company and, 2) the level of performance improvement. In addition, the Company had similar bonus plans in effect during fiscal 2002 covering Ms. White and Mr. Chrisos, under which these executives were eligible to receive a bonus based upon their respective region's profits that exceeded specified levels. Under the established bonus formulas, no bonuses were earned by any named executive officer for 2002.

Long-Term Incentives

As of January 1, 2002, the Company adopted a deferred compensation plan covering the executive officers. The Committee determined that such a plan would be an important benefit to the executive officers to supplement retirement income, inasmuch as federal regulations impose limits on the amount that such individuals may contribute to the Company's 401(k) plan that are lower than for employees generally, and the Company does not provide any other retirement benefits. Under the plan, the Company contributes either 5% or 10% of the participant's base salary to a trust under a defined contribution arrangement. The participants direct the investments of the trust, and the Company does not guarantee investment performance. Participant account balances are payable upon retirement or termination from the Company, subject to certain vesting requirements.

As an additional incentive to improve performance, executive officers of the Company, including the Chief Executive Officer, may be granted stock options from time to time. Stock options are granted by the Committee and have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant, and thus reward the recipient only if the Company's stock price appreciates above the price on the date of grant.

Repricing of Stock Options

In September 2002, the Company completed a tender offer, in which the executive officers participated, to exchange outstanding stock options having an exercise price of $3.00 per share or more for new options having an exercise price of $0.86 per share, which was equal to the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant. This action was taken because the Committee recognized that many of the Company's employees held stock options that were significantly higher than the trading price of the Company's stock, which was depressed due to national business and economic conditions substantially beyond the control of the Company and its management. The intent of the exchange offer was to provide the employees, including the executive officers, with an enhanced, long-term incentive.

Compensation of the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer

In determining the base salary for Herbert F. Imhoff, Jr., the Company's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, the Committee considered the compensation levels for comparable positions with other publicly-traded staffing companies.

Mr. Imhoff, Jr.'s base salary for fiscal 2002 was $450,000. Effective August 1, 2002, he voluntarily reduced his base salary by 20%. Mr. Imhoff, Jr. had a bonus plan for fiscal 2002 which was based upon the Company achieving certain performance levels for the year. Since the specific goals were not achieved, Mr. Imhoff, Jr. received no bonus award during fiscal 2002. No new stock options were awarded to Mr. Imhoff, Jr. during fiscal 2002 other than those granted under the terms of the stock option exchange program.
