QUESTIONS ABOUT THE MEETING

What do I need to know about Chemung Financial Corporation and Chemung Canal Trust Company?

Chemung Canal Trust Company (the "Bank") is the wholly owned banking subsidiary of Chemung Financial Corporation (the "Corporation"), and unless otherwise stated, financial and other information, which also includes the Corporation's wholly owned subsidiary CFS Group, Inc., is presented on a consolidated basis.

What am I voting on?

You are voting on the election of five directors to the Corporation's Board of Directors.

Who may vote at the meeting?

You are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock you owned at the close of business on March 28, 2003.

How do I vote?

By Mail: You may vote by signing, dating and returning each proxy card you receive in the prepaid envelope. You should sign your name exactly as it appears on the proxy card.

By Internet or Telephone: You may submit your proxy by following the instructions on the proxy card. If you vote this way, you do not need to return your proxy card. The telephone and Internet voting procedures are designed to authenticate your identity as a stockholder by use of a control number and allow stockholders to confirm that their instructions have been properly recorded.

The deadline for telephone and Internet voting is 11:59 p.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time on May 14, 2003.

Can I change my mind after indicating my vote and returning the proxy card?

Yes. You may change your vote any time before the polls close at or before the annual meeting by:

- (a) Signing and returning another proxy card indicating a later date;
or
- (b) Voting by telephone or the Internet at a later time; or
- (c) Attending the annual meeting and voting in person; or
- (d) Revoking your proxy by notifying the Corporate Secretary in writing.

How are votes counted?

There are no cumulative voting rights. Nominees for director will be elected by a plurality of votes cast. Any other matter requires the affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast except as otherwise provided in the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws. Only shares voted in favor of a nominee will be counted toward the achievement of a plurality. Votes withheld (including broker non-votes) and abstentions are counted as present for the purpose of determining a quorum but are not counted as votes cast.

How many votes are needed to hold the annual meeting?

A majority of the shares that are outstanding and entitled to vote as of record date must be present at the meeting, in person or by proxy, in order to hold the meeting and conduct business. This is called a quorum. On the record date, March 28, 2003, there were 3,764,816 shares of Chemung Financial Corporation common stock outstanding.

Who pays for the solicitation of proxies?

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Corporation. In addition to solicitations by mail, some of the directors, officers, and regular employees of the Corporation and the Bank may conduct additional solicitations by telephone and personal contacts without additional remuneration. American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the Corporation's transfer agent, will aid the Corporation in the solicitation of proxies and proxy vote tabulations. If you hold your stock in "street" name, the transfer agent will request the appropriate nominees, brokerage houses, custodians and fiduciaries to forward soliciting material to you at the Corporation's expense.

What is the deadline for submitting shareholder proposals?

Shareholders desiring to present proposals in the next year's proxy statement and at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, including director nominations, must submit their proposal to the Corporate Secretary on or before December 5, 2003. Each shareholder proposal must comply with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission in order to be included in next year's proxy statement.

Who are the Corporation's independent auditors?

The firm of KPMG LLP has acted as the Corporation's independent auditors since 1990. The Board of Directors has approved the appointment of KPMG LLP to continue in service throughout 2003. Representatives of KPMG LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting to answer your questions.

Is there any other business to come before the meeting?

Management knows of no other business to be presented for consideration, other than the election of five directors. If other matters are properly presented, the proxies intend to vote in accordance with their best judgment.

FOOTNOTES

- 1 Held by the Bank in various fiduciary capacities, either alone or with others. Includes 24,881 shares held with sole voting and dispositive powers and 465,421 shares held with shared power to vote. There are 259,557 shares held with shared dispositive powers. Shares held in a co-fiduciary capacity by the Bank are voted by the co-fiduciary in the same manner as if the co-fiduciary were the sole fiduciary. Shares held by the Bank as a sole trustee will be voted by the Bank only if the trust instrument provides for voting of the shares at the direction of the grantor or a beneficiary and the Bank actually receives voting instructions.
- 2 The Plan participants instruct the Bank as trustee how to vote these shares. If a participant fails to instruct the voting of the shares, the Bank votes these shares in the same proportion as it votes all of the shares for which it receives voting instructions. Plan participants have dispositive power over these shares subject to certain restrictions.

- 3 Includes 102,907 shares held directly, 5,150 shares held in trust over which Mr. Dalrymple has voting and dispositive powers, 3,808 shares held as custodian for Mr. Dalrymple's children, 448,510 shares held by the Dalrymple Family Limited Partnership of which David J. Dalrymple and Robert H. Dalrymple are general partners, and 68,016 shares held by Dalrymple Holding Corporation, of which David J. Dalrymple and Robert H. - 5 Excludes 30,230 shares held by Susquehanna Supply Company of which David J. Dalrymple and Robert H. Dalrymple each own 23.1% of the outstanding common stock. Because of the definition of "beneficial ownership" under Section 13 of The Exchange Act, David and Robert Dalrymple are each listed as beneficial owners of 516,526 of the same shares. Without such multiple counting, David and Robert Dalrymples' aggregate beneficial ownership would equal 18.60% of the Corporation's outstanding shares.
- 6 Includes shares that Messrs. Agan (15,705), Falck (3,856), Lounsberry (6,621), Meier (2,941), Meyer (12,663), Potter (12,523), Streeter (5,403), and Ughetta (6,919) have credited to their accounts in memorandum unit form under the Corporation's Deferred Directors Fee Plan. PERSONNEL COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION OF MANAGEMENT

The Personnel Committee of the Board of Directors furnishes the following report on executive compensation:

What is our philosophy of executive compensation?

Under the supervision of the Committee (comprised entirely of outside directors), the Corporation has developed and implemented compensation policies that seek to enhance the profitability of the Bank and the Corporation, thus enhancing shareholder value. The executive compensation program consists of base pay, an annual management incentive bonus, and a long-term incentive bonus. The Committee feels that this philosophy provides fair and competitive compensation that attracts and retains well-qualified executives.

How is the Chief Executive Officer compensated?

The Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Committee, sets the annual compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. The recommendation of the Committee follows substantial review of comparative information including executive compensation for similarly situated banks and bank holding companies. Key criteria include Return on Average Tier I Equity, Return on Average Assets and dividend performance. The Committee determined that the performance of the Bank was well within the range reported by its peers and that the compensation paid by the Bank was appropriate in comparison to the peer group. Incentive bonus payments to the CEO, based upon performance relative to goals, are determined at year-end. A modest salary increase was granted to Mr. Updegraff for the year 2002. The Committee determined that no bonus should be paid for 2002 due to the decrease in corporate earnings during the year.

How are other executive officers compensated?

In recommending to the Board of Directors the compensation and bonuses of the executive vice presidents and auditor, the Committee reviews a recommendation by the CEO that is based on a number of factors including individual and organizational performance, merit increases and responsibility levels. Modest salary increases were granted to executive officers for the year 2002. The Committee determined that no bonuses should be paid for 2002 due to the decrease in corporate earnings during the year.

The Committee believes the compensation policies, plans and programs implemented by the Committee have and will contribute to improving the long-term financial performance of the Corporation.

Maximum number of years allowed under the terms of the Pension Plan.

The Pension Plan provides an annual benefit of 1.2% for each year of credited service to a maximum of 25 years, and, for each additional year to a maximum of 10 years, 1%, times average annual compensation (exclusive of bonuses); plus, for each year of credited service to a maximum of 35 years, 0.65% of average compensation in excess of the average of the taxable wage base in effect under Section 230 of the Social Security Act for each year in the 35-year period ending with the year in which the participant attains Social Security retirement age. The average taxable wage base was $39,444 for a participant attaining age 65 in 2002.

The named executive officers of the Corporation and the Bank had the following credited full years of service under the plan as of December 31, 2002: Jan P. Updegraff 32, James E. Corey III 15, and Jerome F. Denton 30.

The Bank's non-qualified Executive Supplemental Pension Plan provides a benefit equal to the benefit which would have been paid under the terms of the Bank's Pension plan without regard to limitations under the Internal Revenue

Code less the amount payable under the Pension Plan. From time to time the Board of Directors may select executives as participants in the plan. Currently, Mr. Updegraff is the only active employee participating. Based on projected service and current compensation, $43,032 would be payable to Mr. Updegraff annually as a supplemental retirement benefit commencing at age 65.

Employment Agreements

Each of the named executive officers have employment agreements with Chemung Canal Trust Company; they do not have employment agreements with Chemung Financial Corporation. The Bank entered into employment agreements with Messrs. Updegraff, Corey, and Denton, effective November 8, 2000. Mr. Updegraff serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and the Bank; Mr. Corey serves as Vice President of the Corporation and Executive Vice President of the Bank; and Mr. Denton serves as Vice President of the Corporation and Executive Vice President of the Bank.

Under their respective employment agreements, each executive officer may receive fringe benefits generally provided to all full-time employees of the Bank with similar years of service. In the event the executive officer is unable to work due to illness, injury or other incapacity, the executive officer may receive his salary for up to twelve months, minus any payments made under the Bank's disability fringe benefit program. After twelve months, the executive officer is entitled to disability payments only. In the event of death, the Bank shall pay to the executive officer's estate the executive officer's salary for a period of six months, based on the executive officer's salary on the date of death.

Messrs. Updegraff, Corey and Denton's employment agreements provide for initial terms of three years ending December 31, 2003, with renewals for one additional year following each anniversary date upon the Bank's thirty days' written notice prior to January 1 that the terms of the employment will be extended, unless the executive officer gives thirty days' written notice of termination.

The employment agreements of Messrs. Updegraff, Corey and Denton have been renewed for the year 2003. The 2003 base salaries for Messrs. Updegraff, Corey and Denton are $275,000, $120,161, and $109,701, respectively, and each of the named executive officers is eligible for a discretionary bonus under the respective employment agreement.

The Bank may terminate an executive officer's employment agreement at any time upon thirty days' written notice for misconduct or neglect of duties. In the event of such a termination, the executive officer will no longer receive a salary, but will be eligible for retirement and other benefits earned up until the date of termination of employment. In the event the termination is without cause, the executive officer is entitled (a) to salary for the duration of the term of the employment agreement; (b) to pension benefits with full credit for service and salary until the end of the term of the employment agreement; and (c) to contribution of a payment of five percent of each salary payment made after termination without cause to a memorandum account for the executive officer on which interest shall be paid at the rate paid on regular savings accounts by the Bank for the benefit of executive officer or named beneficiaries.

The Audit Committee is composed of independent directors for which information regarding the functions performed by the Committee, its membership, and the number of meetings held during the fiscal year, is set forth in the "Audit Committee Report," included in this annual proxy statement. How are Directors compensated?

Each non-employee director of the Bank receives an annual retainer of $5,500 and a fee of $300 for each meeting of the Board of Directors and its committees attended. The Chair of each committee receives $350 for each committee meeting attended. Only one fee is paid for attendance at meetings that serve both the Corporation and the Bank. Employee directors receive no fees for their services as Directors.

A Deferred Directors Fee Plan for non-employee Directors provides that Directors may elect to defer receipt of all or any part of their fees. Deferrals are credited with either interest compounded quarterly at the Applicable Federal Rate for short-term debt instruments or converted to units which appreciate or depreciate as would an actual share of the Corporation's common stock purchased on the deferral date. Cash deferrals will be paid in cash. Units will be paid in shares of common stock.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Chemung Financial Corporation Board of Directors' Audit Committee is comprised of six directors who are not officers of the Corporation. As defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and regulations, all members are considered independent. The Audit Committee operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee held five meetings during 2002. The meetings were designed to facilitate and encourage private communication among the Audit Committee, the internal auditors and the Corporation's independent auditors, KPMG LLP ("KPMG").

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and financial reporting process. The Audit Committee believes that management maintains an effective system of internal controls which results in fairly presented financial statements.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Corporation's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, with management and KPMG. The Audit Committee has also discussed with KPMG the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees. The Audit Committee has received from KPMG the written disclosures and the letter regarding KPMG's independence, as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. The Audit Committee discussed KPMG's independence with KPMG and has considered whether the non-audit services provided by KPMG during the year ended December 31, 2002, were compatible with maintaining KPMG's independence. The Audit Committee has concluded that the non-audit services provided do not impair the independence of KPMG.

Based on the review and discussions with management and KPMG, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in Chemung Financial Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee and the Board have also appointed KPMG as the Corporation's independent auditors for 2003.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Corporation's directors, certain of its officers and any person who owns more than ten percent of the Corporation's common stock, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors and greater-than-ten-percent shareholders are required by SEC rules to furnish the Corporation with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on a review of reports furnished to the Corporation or written representations from reporting persons, the Corporation believes that, during 2002, each person who was subject to Section 16(a) filed all reports required for the year on a timely basis, except as follows: two Forms 4 for two acquisitions each of phantom stock units for Mr. Agan, Mr. Falck, Mr. Lounsberry, Dr. Meier, Mr. Meyer and Mr. Potter were not timely filed due to circumstances relating to the new filing deadline in Section 16(a); one Form 4 for Mr. Karski, an officer, relating to shares of stock sold by his spouse; and one Form 3 for Mr. Eggers when he was elected to the Board.
