BHP BILLITON ANNOUNCES NEW BASE METALS PRESIDENT

BHP Billiton announced today the appointment of Mr. Diego Hernandez as President of its Base Metals Customer Sector Group and a member of the BHP Billiton Executive Committee. In this role Mr. Hernandez will have responsibility for all aspects of BHP Billiton's Base Metals business including strategy, operations and project development.

Mr. Hernandez has extensive experience in the metals and mining industry and joins BHP Billiton from Cia. Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD) where he was most recently Executive Director responsible for CVRD's Non Ferrous metals division. Prior to this from 1996 to 2001 he was President and CEO of Compania Minera Collahuasi, overseeing the development of the Collahuasi copper mine in Chile, the fourth largest copper mine in the world.

Commenting on the appointment, Chief Executive Officer, Mr Charles Goodyear said: "We are delighted to welcome Diego to BHP Billiton's management team. With over 30 years in the metals and mining industry in Latin America, Diego's wealth of experience in the development of major projects and company management is ideal as we seek to maximise the value and opportunities in our Base Metals business."

In the six months to 31 December 2003, BHP Billiton's Base Metals business delivered US$333 million of earnings before interest and tax from net operating assets of US$4.0 billion. In addition, BHP Billiton currently has Base Metals projects worth over US$1.6 billion in development or advanced feasibility (BHP Billiton share).

Mr Hernandez is due to take up his appointment on 1 April 2004.

Biographical details of Mr. Hernandez attached.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Mr. Diego Hernandez

Diego Hernandez (55) was appointed President of BHP Billiton Base Metals CSG and a member of the BHP Billiton Executive Committee on 4 March 2004.

Prior to joining BHP Billiton, Mr. Hernandez was Executive Director, CVRD, Non Ferrous Division with responsibility for CVRD's copper, nickel, gold, kaolin and potash businesses and related marketing activities and CVRD's non ferrous business strategy. CVRD is the world's fifth largest mining company by market capitalization and the world's largest seaborne iron ore exporter.

From 1996 to 2001, Mr. Hernandez, as President and CEO, was responsible for the successful construction, development and start up of the giant Collahuasi copper project, the fourth largest copper mine in the world. This US$1.8 billion project to produce an average of 346,000 tonnes per year of copper in concentrate and 50,000 tonnes per year of copper cathode involved development of the open pit mine, oxide plant, concentrator, concentrate pipeline and related port facilities.

Mr. Hernandez is a career mining executive with over 30 years experience primarily in Latin America and with non ferrous metals. His career has involved working for major mining companies including Rio Tinto, Anglo American and CVRD and has covered technical, operating and development roles.
