Item 5.02                      Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) On July 10, 2012, Barbara M. Stuckey stepped down as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, to pursue personal interests. Ms. Stuckey will maintain a part time role at Abraxas and will also assist in the transition to a new CFO. There was no disagreement or dispute between Ms. Stuckey and the Company which led to her decision to step down.

Bob Watson, Chief Executive Officer, said “that after 16 years of faithful service to Abraxas, Barbara has decided to take semi retirement to pursue her personal dreams of farming and flying. Barbara has been a very important part of the Abraxas family for a long time and I am pleased that she wants to stay involved with the Company in a less visible role.”
