Magic Software Announces Appointment Of New Vice President Of Worldwide Marketing

Gil Trotino To Replace David Leichner

Or Yehuda, Israel (June 30, 2004) - Magic Software Enterprises (Nasdaq: MGIC), a leading provider of state-of-the-art business integration and development technology, announced today that Gil Trotino has been appointed, effective July 1st, 2004, as the Company's new Vice President of Worldwide Marketing, replacing David Leichner, who left the company to pursue other career opportunities after 9 years of service.

Trotino, 40 years of age, served from 2001 to 2003 as Marketing Director for Northern Europe for BMC Software Inc. (NYSE: BMC), a leading provider of enterprise management solutions. From 1996 to 2001 Trotino served in various sales and marketing management positions for BMC and for New Dimension Software Ltd., which was acquired by BMC in April 1999. From 1996 to 2003, Trotino was based in The Netherlands. Prior to that Trotino held technical positions in various Israeli software companies.

Gil's vast experience in marketing and sales management with major software companies and his intimacy with multi-national operations will undoubtedly contribute to the quality of Magic's management team and the Company's worldwide marketing operations, said Menachem Hasfari, CEO of Magic Software.

Gil replaces David Leichner, who joined Magic in 1994 and acted as Magic's Vice President of Worldwide Marketing since 1998.

David has served Magic well and many of the marketing strategies and tactics we apply today are his brainchild, said Hasfari. We appreciate the contributions he has made over the past nine years and wish him well in his future endeavors.

I have devoted the last nine years to creating and executing the marketing strategy that forms the foundation for Magic Software's product and market penetration," said David Leichner. "While this was a difficult career move, I am pleased to be leaving Magic with a strong and motivated global marketing team that will provide the backbone and support for the Company's future success, under the leadership and direction of Gil Trotino, a seasoned marketing professional."
