Item 8.01.

Other Events.

On November 7, 2007, Visa Inc. (“Visa”) announced that it had entered into a settlement agreement with American Express related to a pending antitrust lawsuit brought by American Express against several financial institutions. The settlement is subject to the approval of Visa’s voting members. While Marshall & Ilsley Corporation (the Company) was not a named defendant in this litigation and therefore will not be directly liable for any amount of the settlement, in accordance with Visa’s by-laws, the Company and other Visa member banks are obligated to share in certain losses in connection with the litigation. Based on Visa’s nominal payout amount under the settlement agreement of $2.065 billion and the Company’s 0.39575% interest in Visa, the Company expects to record a pre-tax liability of approximately $8.2 million in the fourth quarter of 2007 in connection with the settlement agreement. The Company does not expect its liability in connection with the settlement agreement to have a material effect on its consolidated financial position or results of operations.
