Special Membership Bulletin

[Letterhead of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc.]

FROM: John A. Thain

DATE: November 4, 2005

Dear NYSE Member:

I am pleased to report to you that the SEC has declared effective the Form S-4
Registration Statement of NYSE Group, Inc. with respect to the proposed NYSE/Archipelago merger. This clears the way for you to VOTE FOR THIS HISTORIC MERGER THAT WILL TRANSFORM THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE into a for-profit, publicly traded company with a broad product mix and the ability to compete with any capital marketplace in the world. We will hold a special Member meeting to conduct the vote on Tuesday, December 6, 2005, at 4:30 p.m.

This proposed transaction offers significant benefits for you, the NYSE Members, while placing the Exchange on firm ground for future growth, competitive positioning, and value creation. We strongly believe that our combination with Archipelago continues our leadership position as the premier financial market in America and the world.

As we have stated since we announced the merger in April, the merger enables the NYSE to become a global multi-product marketplace. We acquire a high-speed, low cost platform for ETFs, options, and fixed income products. We gain a significant position in the OTC equity market, and the ability to develop a second listing brand business. We also add entrepreneurial, innovative management talent.

In sum, the creation of the NYSE Group, Inc. will be good for customers, good for investors, good for America, and for good for you.

A VOTE FOR THE MERGER IS A VOTE FOR THE FUTURE OF THE NYSE.

Your vote is very important and I urge you to participate. A detailed
