5/18/2015

Mike Cahill

Colleagues who own City National common stock are reminded to vote their shares before the Special Meeting of Stockholders on May 27.

Colleagues who own City National common shares, either individually or through their 401(k), are reminded to vote their proxies prior to the company's Special Meeting of Stockholders on May 27, 2015.

City National common stockholders are being asked to approve the merger agreement announced January 22, 2015, under which City National will merge with Royal Bank of Canada (RBC), as well as other matters to be considered at the City National special meeting.

"This is a historic moment in the company's history, and colleagues who hold City National common shares are encouraged to read the proxy statement and exercise their right to vote," said Mike Cahill, City National's general counsel. "Each vote is very important, regardless of the number of shares a colleague owns."

Merger proxy materials were mailed on or around April 22, and colleagues who hold shares of City National common stock should have received them already. Some colleagues may have received more than one set of voting materials if they hold unvested restricted stock, shares in a City National securities or other brokerage account, and/or through their 401(k).

For shares held in City National's 401(k)/Profit Sharing Plan, proxies submitted via the Internet or telephone must be received by 5 p.m. Pacific time on Friday, May 22, 2015.

If you own shares through a broker or are registered with City National's transfer agent, Computershare, proxies submitted via the Internet or telephone must be received by 1 a.m. Central time on Wednesday, May 27, 2015.

The proxy statement provides additional information about the merger agreement, as well as instructions on how to vote online, by telephone or by mail.
