Item 5.02(e) Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 14, 2008, the compensation committee of Cincinnati Financial Corporation's board of directors granted increases in annual base salaries for 2009, and awarded cash and stock bonuses for 2008 and granted nonqualified stock options and performance-based restricted stock units to the named executive officers as set forth below:

	New Annual Base Salary	2008 Variable Pay (Cash Bonus)	Nonqualified Stock Options	Performance Based Restricted Stock Units
John J. Schiff, Jr., chairman Cincinnati Financial Corporation	$250,000	$447,037	30,000 shares	7,900 shares
James E. Benoski, vice chairman Cincinnati Financial Corporation	$710,460	$479,154	30,000 shares	7,900 shares

	New Annual Base Salary	2008 Variable Pay (Cash Bonus)	Nonqualified Stock Options	Performance Based Restricted Stock Units
Kenneth W. Stecher, president and chief executive officer Cincinnati Financial Corporation	$780,000	$426,060	30,000 shares	7,900 shares
Steven J. Johnston, chief financial officer, secretary and treasurer Cincinnati Financial Corporation	$416,000	$175,000	8,000 shares	2,400 shares
Thomas A. Joseph, president The Cincinnati Casualty Company	$445,000	$274,991	8,000 shares	2,400 shares
Jacob F. Scherer, Jr., executive vice president sales and marketing The Cincinnati Insurance Company	$474,472	$380,632	8,000 shares	2,400 shares

The company's named executive officers are at-will employees and these salary and bonus amounts are not subject to any employment agreements.

The compensation committee also approved stock awards under the company's Holiday Stock Bonus Plan, which awards one share of stock on a non-discounted basis to each full-time associate for each full calendar-year of service up to a maximum of 10 years. Under the Holiday Stock Bonus Plan, except for Mr. Johnston, the named executive officers were each awarded 10 shares valued at $26.59 per share. Mr. Johnston was awarded no shares because he has not been employed by the company for a full year.

The compensation committee also adopted a standard form of performance-based restricted stock unit agreement that is attached as Exhibit 10.1. Award agreements for the named executive officers are attached as Exhibits 10.2 through 10.7.

In conjunction with the changes to retirement benefit plans described in the company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ending September 30, 2008, the compensation committee approved an amended and restated the non-qualified top hat savings plan effective January 1, 2009. Under this plan amendment, eligible officers who no longer participate in the company's defined benefit pension plan and for whom annual cash compensation exceeds the limits of Section 414(q)(1)(B)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code may receive a company-matching contribution. Executive officers who elected to remain in the defined benefit plan are not eligible to receive a company match of any contributions under the plan. Of the named executive officers, only Mr. Johnston does not participate in the defined benefit pension plan.

Under this plan amendment, the company will match officer contributions to the top hat savings plan up to 6 percent of the officer's total annual cash compensation above the Internal Revenue Code limit. Earnings on the contributions will reflect investment elections made by the individual officer. Top hat savings plans participants choose from the same investment options available to associates participating in the company's tax-qualified 401(k) savings plan.
