SECTION 2. FINANCIAL INFORMATION.

Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On February 2, 2014, Forward Air Corporation (the “Company”) completed its planned acquisition of each of Central States Trucking Co. and Central States Logistics, Inc. (collectively, “CST”) from Central States Inc. (“Seller”) pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement by and among the Company, CST, Seller and the stockholders of Seller (the “Purchase Agreement”). Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Company purchased all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of CST from Seller for an aggregate purchase price of $95,600,000. The transaction was funded by the Company’s cash reserves. CST provides industry leading container and intermodal drayage services primarily within the Midwest region of the United States. CST also provides linehaul service within the airport-to-airport space as well as dedicated contract and Container Freight Station warehouse services.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants with respect to CST and Seller, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand. The Purchase Agreement also includes certain indemnification obligations and post-closing covenants under which Seller and the stockholders of Seller have agreed not to solicit for employment any employee or former employee of CST, compete, directly or indirectly, with CST, or divulge any confidential information pertaining to CST for the period beginning February 2, 2014 and ending on December 31, 2018.

The foregoing is a summary description of certain terms of the Purchase Agreement and does not purport to be complete, and it is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The Purchase Agreement has been filed to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual, business or operational information about the parties thereto. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement were made only for purposes of such Purchase Agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by disclosures: (i) exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Purchase Agreement and (ii) contained in the disclosure schedules to the Purchase Agreement. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purpose of allocating contractual risk among the parties to the Purchase Agreement instead of establishing matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on such representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts or circumstances. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of such representations and warranties may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company’s public disclosures.
