Exhibit C

April 8, 2005

The Board of Directors
STAAR Surgical Company
1911 Walker Avenue
Monrovia, California 91016

Dear Sirs:

On October 12, 2004 we sent you a letter regarding our ownership of STAAR's stock, our views of the company's management and corporate strategy, two concerns that we had regarding the company, and our desire for a productive dialogue with the Board.

We were initially pleased by your response to our letter. As requested, the Board entered into a dialogue with us. In addition, STAAR soon afterward made public statements that indicated its intent to pay particular attention to improving the company's financial management and avoiding further dilution of its equity. These statements appeared to indicate both an understanding of and a commitment to address the first concern that we had raised in our letter. Progress on the second concern - that the Board lacked certain skills and experience that would be helpful in building value over time and in maintaining a focus on the interests of shareholders - was inexplicably and disappointingly slow. However, on January 21, 2005 STAAR announced that it had added a new independent director with strong credentials and directly relevant experience.

Events since then, however, have been disturbing. No further improvements to the Board have been announced. As a result, STAAR continues to have a Board that lacks skills and experience that it needs in order to handle the difficult and complex challenges that the company currently faces. Further, the Board does not appear to have made even basic governance reforms such as separating the positions of Chairman and CEO and initiating the elimination of its three-class director system that prevents shareholders from electing all directors annually. This lack of progress in aligning the Board with shareholders' interests raises the question of the Board's commitment to the interests of shareholders and the improvement of shareholder value. We now call on the Board to demonstrate its commitment to shareholders by making at least these basic governance reforms and also adding new Directors that clearly have the skills, track record, and commitment to shareholder value that STAAR obviously needs.

Even more disturbing than the Board's limited reforms has been the repetition of the same financial management problems to which we called attention in our earlier letter. Recent developments in this area have been stunning. The company first blundered unnecessarily into the receipt of a "Going Concern" opinion from its auditor, then significantly diluted its equity yet again through a mismanaged financing. The need for additional capital itself appears to have been partially a result of the fact that despite STAAR's earlier statements regarding cost cutting, little cost cutting actually took place until quite recently.

We believe that recent events have caused a large portion of STAAR's investors to lose confidence in the company's current management and Board. We therefore call on the Board to take prompt action to restore investor confidence by making changes that are now clearly long overdue. In particular, it is clear that STAAR requires a new Chief Financial Officer who understands how to maintain a productive relationship with auditors, how to raise money on reasonable terms if money must be raised, and how to cut costs when costs must be cut.

Other management changes may be necessary at some point as well. Problems of the magnitude that STAAR has encountered recently do not constitute success, and must not be allowed to continue indefinitely. Over the long term, the Board must hold STAAR's Chief Executive Officer accountable for the Company's overall success or failure.

We remain open to dialogue with the Board of Directors about ways in which STAAR can focus on improving shareholder value. However, the Board must act promptly in order to restore its credibility. A Board that does not restore its own credibility through prompt and decisive action bears the risk that investors will themselves decide to take decisive action. We plan to review your actions over the next few weeks carefully and frequently.

Sincerely,

Neal C. Bradsher
President, Broadwood Capital, Inc.
