PRELIMINARY—SUBJECT TO COMPLETION—MARCH 13, 2015

AN AMALGAMATION PROPOSAL—YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT

To the Shareholders of PartnerRe Ltd. and AXIS Capital Holdings Limited:

The boards of directors of PartnerRe Ltd. and AXIS Capital Holdings Limited each have unanimously approved and adopted an Agreement and Plan of Amalgamation, dated as of January 25, 2015, between PartnerRe and AXIS and amendments thereto dated as of February 17, 2015 and March 10, 2015 (together, the “amalgamation agreement”). A conformed copy of the amalgamation agreement, which includes the amendments thereto, is included as Annex A to the attached proxy statement/prospectus. Pursuant to the amalgamation agreement, PartnerRe and AXIS will amalgamate with the resulting company being named “Newco”. We believe Newco, which we sometimes refer to as the “amalgamated company”, will establish itself as a leading specialty insurance and reinsurance company, operating through established platforms with the enhanced scale and financial flexibility to manage its business and deliver superior value over time.

Upon the consummation of the amalgamation, PartnerRe shareholders who hold common shares will be entitled to receive 2.18 common shares of Newco, par value $0.0125 per share (the “Newco common shares”), for each common share of PartnerRe (the “PartnerRe exchange ratio”), par value $1.00 per share (“PartnerRe common shares”), and AXIS shareholders who hold common shares will be entitled to receive one Newco common share for each common share of AXIS (the “AXIS exchange ratio” and, with the PartnerRe exchange ratio, the “exchange ratios”), par value $0.0125 per share (“AXIS common shares”), which such shareholders respectively own immediately prior to the effective time of the amalgamation (or the “effective time”), together with cash in lieu of fractional Newco common shares that such shareholders would otherwise be entitled to receive, as further described in the amalgamation agreement. The exchange ratios are fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect share price changes prior to the closing of the amalgamation. Based on the closing price of PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares on the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (the “NYSE”) on January 23, 2015, the last trading day before public announcement of the amalgamation, the exchange ratio represented approximately $[] in value for each share of PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares, respectively. PartnerRe common shares are currently traded on the NYSE under the symbol “PRE,” and AXIS common shares are currently traded on the NYSE under the symbol “AXS.” We intend to apply to list the Newco common shares on the NYSE. Each PartnerRe preferred share and each AXIS preferred share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preferred share of Newco and will be entitled to the same dividend and other relative rights, preferences, limitations and restrictions as are now provided by the respective certificate of designation, preferences and rights of such PartnerRe preferred shares or AXIS preferred shares, respectively.

Based on the estimated number of PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares that will be outstanding immediately prior to the closing of the amalgamation, we estimate that, on a fully diluted basis, upon such closing, former PartnerRe shareholders will own approximately 51.6% of the amalgamated company and former AXIS shareholders will own approximately 48.4% of the amalgamated company. At the effective time, each PartnerRe preferred share and each AXIS preferred share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preferred share of Newco and will be entitled to the same dividend and other relative rights, preferences, limitations and restrictions as are now provided by the respective certificate of designation, preferences and rights of such PartnerRe preferred shares or AXIS preferred shares, respectively.

The amalgamation is generally intended, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, to be tax free to shareholders of PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares, other than with respect to any cash that shareholders of PartnerRe receive in lieu of fractional Newco common shares.

PartnerRe and AXIS will each hold a meeting of their respective shareholders (the “special general meetings”) in connection with the amalgamation. At the special general meeting of PartnerRe shareholders, (the “PartnerRe special general meeting”), PartnerRe shareholders holding PartnerRe common shares will be asked to vote on (1) the adoption of the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation, (2) the compensation advisory proposal and (3) the adjournment of the PartnerRe special general meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes to approve the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation at such special general meeting whilst PartnerRe shareholders holding PartnerRe preferred shares will be entitled to vote on proposals (1) and (3). At the special general meeting of AXIS shareholders (the “AXIS special general meeting”), AXIS shareholders holding AXIS common shares will be asked to vote on the approval of (1) an amendment to the AXIS bye-laws (the “bye-law amendment”), (2) the adoption of the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation, (3) the compensation advisory proposal and (4) the adjournment of the AXIS special general meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes to approve the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation at such special general meeting whilst AXIS shareholders holding AXIS preferred shares will be entitled to vote on proposals (2) and (4).

We cannot complete the amalgamation unless the shareholders of each of AXIS and PartnerRe approve the proposals related to the amalgamation. Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of shares you own. Whether or not you expect to attend the special general meeting in person, please take the time to vote on the proposals by signing and returning the enclosed proxy card or voting instruction form, or by submitting your proxy over the Internet or by telephone, as soon as possible to ensure that your shares may be represented and voted at the applicable special general meeting.

The PartnerRe board of directors has unanimously (1) determined that the amalgamation, on the terms and conditions set forth in the amalgamation agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, PartnerRe, (2) approved the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (3) resolved that the amalgamation proposal be submitted to the PartnerRe shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting. Accordingly, the PartnerRe board of directors unanimously recommends that PartnerRe shareholders vote (1) “FOR” the amalgamation proposal and (2) “FOR” the other proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in respect of which they are entitled to vote.

The AXIS board of directors has unanimously (1) determined that the bye-law amendment is advisable to and in the best interests of AXIS, and authorized and approved the bye-law amendment, (2) resolved that the bye-law amendment proposal and the amalgamation proposal be submitted to the AXIS shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting, (3) determined that the amalgamation, on the terms and conditions set forth in the amalgamation agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, AXIS, and (4) approved the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Accordingly, the AXIS board of directors unanimously recommends that AXIS shareholders vote (1) “FOR” the bye-law amendment proposal, (2) “FOR” the amalgamation proposal and (3) “FOR” the other proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in respect of which they are entitled to vote.

The accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus contains detailed information about PartnerRe, AXIS, the meetings, the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation. You should read this joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully and in its entirety before voting, including the section entitled “Risk Factors” beginning on page 20.

We look forward to the successful amalgamation of PartnerRe and AXIS.

Sincerely,

Jean-Paul Montupet
Chairman of the Board of Directors

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE AMALGAMATION AND THE SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

The following questions and answers highlight selected information from this joint proxy statement/prospectus and may not contain all the information that is important to you. We encourage you to read this entire document carefully.

Q: Why am I receiving this joint proxy statement/prospectus?

A: PartnerRe and AXIS have entered into the amalgamation agreement, pursuant to which PartnerRe and AXIS will amalgamate and continue thereafter as a Bermuda exempted company, Newco.

In order to consummate the amalgamation, the PartnerRe shareholders and AXIS shareholders must approve certain proposals and the transactions related to the amalgamation described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. PartnerRe and AXIS will hold separate special general meetings to obtain these approvals. This joint proxy statement/prospectus, which you should read carefully, contains important information about the amalgamation and related transactions and other matters being considered at the PartnerRe and AXIS special general meetings.

Q: When and where are the special general meetings?

A: The PartnerRe special general meeting will take place at [9:00 a.m.], Atlantic time, on [], 2015, at PartnerRe's offices at 90 Pitts Bay Road, Pembroke HM 08 Bermuda and the AXIS special general meeting will take place concurrently at [9:00 a.m.], Atlantic time, on [], 2015, at AXIS' offices at 92 Pitts Bay Road, Pembroke HM 08 Bermuda.

Q: What is happening at the special general meetings?

A: At the PartnerRe special general meeting, the holders of PartnerRe preferred shares will be asked to consider and vote only on Proposal 1 and Proposal 3 below and the holders of PartnerRe common shares will be asked to consider and vote on all of the proposals:

- Proposal 1: to approve and adopt the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation (which we refer to as the "amalgamation proposal");
- Proposal 2: on an advisory (nonbinding) basis, to approve the compensation that may be paid or become payable to PartnerRe's named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation; and
- Proposal 3: to approve the adjournment of the special general meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are insufficient votes to approve the amalgamation proposal at the special general meeting (which we refer to as the "adjournment proposal").

At the AXIS special general meeting, the holders of AXIS preferred shares will be asked to consider and vote only on Proposal 2 and Proposal 4 below and the holders of AXIS common shares will be asked to consider and vote on all of the following proposals:

- Proposal 1: to approve amending the AXIS bye-laws by inserting the words "(including for the purposes of Section 106(4A) of the Act)" after the first mention of the word "business" in bye-law 38 (Quorum for general meetings) and after the word "meeting" in subparagraph (1) of bye-law 43 (Voting at meetings);
- Proposal 2: to approve and adopt the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation (which we refer to as the "amalgamation proposal");

- Proposal 3: on an advisory (nonbinding) basis, to approve the compensation that may be paid or become payable to AXIS' named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation; and

- Proposal 4: to approve an adjournment of the special general meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are insufficient votes to approve the amalgamation proposal at the special general meeting (which we refer to as the “adjournment proposal”).

Q: What will happen in the amalgamation?

A: If the PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal and all other conditions to the amalgamation have been satisfied or waived, PartnerRe and AXIS will amalgamate and Newco will continue as a Bermuda exempted company. At the effective time of the amalgamation, the amalgamated company will succeed to and assume all the rights, properties, liabilities and obligations of PartnerRe and AXIS.

Q: What will PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders receive in the amalgamation?

A: Pursuant to the terms of the amalgamation agreement and the statutory amalgamation agreement, each PartnerRe common share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time shall automatically be cancelled and converted into the right to receive 2.18 Newco common shares. PartnerRe common shareholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional Newco common share.

Pursuant to the amalgamation agreement and the statutory amalgamation agreement, each AXIS common share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time shall automatically be cancelled and converted into the right to receive one Newco common share. AXIS common shareholders will receive cash in lieu of any fractional Newco common share.

Pursuant to the terms of the amalgamation agreement and the statutory amalgamation agreement, each PartnerRe preferred share and each AXIS preferred share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preferred share of Newco and will be entitled to the same dividend and other relative rights, preferences, limitations and restrictions as are now provided by the respective certificate of designation, preferences and rights of such PartnerRe preferred shares or AXIS preferred shares, respectively.

Q: Are shareholders able to exercise appraisal rights?

A: Dissenting shareholders may exercise, within one month after the date the notice convening the respective PartnerRe or AXIS special general meeting is deemed to have been given, appraisal rights under Bermuda law to have the fair value of their PartnerRe common shares or preferred shares or AXIS common shares or preferred shares, as applicable appraised by the Bermuda Court subject to compliance with all of the required procedures, as described in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation—Dissenters’ Rights of Appraisal for PartnerRe and AXIS Shareholders.”

Q: When do the parties expect to complete the amalgamation?

A: The parties expect to complete the amalgamation in the third quarter of 2015, although there can be no assurance that the parties will be able to do so. The closing of the amalgamation is subject to customary closing conditions, including shareholder approvals and receipt of certain insurance and other regulatory approvals. Please see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—Conditions to the Amalgamation” for more information.

Q: What happens if the amalgamation is not completed?

A: If the amalgamation proposal is not approved by either the requisite vote of the AXIS shareholders or the requisite vote of PartnerRe shareholders, or the amalgamation is not completed for any other reason, AXIS and PartnerRe will not amalgamate and AXIS shareholders and PartnerRe shareholders will not receive their respective consideration under the amalgamation agreement (the “amalgamation consideration”), which is described in greater detail in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “Summary—Amalgamation Agreement”). Instead, AXIS shareholders will continue to own their AXIS common shares or AXIS preferred shares, as the case may be, and PartnerRe shareholders will continue to own their PartnerRe common shares or PartnerRe preferred shares, as the case may be. AXIS and PartnerRe will each remain independent public companies and the AXIS common shares and PartnerRe common shares will continue to be registered under the Exchange Act and traded on the NYSE. If the amalgamation agreement is terminated under certain specified circumstances, AXIS or PartnerRe, as the case may be, may be required to pay the other party a fee of $55 million or $250 million and out of pocket costs and expenses in connection with the amalgamation in an amount not to exceed $35 million, as described in the sections of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement” and “The Amalgamation Agreement—Effects of Termination; Liability for Breach.”

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the amalgamation?

A: The amalgamation is intended to qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the “Code”). Accordingly, a U.S. holder (as defined in the section of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus titled “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences”) generally will not recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes on the exchange of PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares for Newco common shares, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional Newco common share. Please see the section titled “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences” for more information.

YOU SHOULD READ THE SECTION OF THIS JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS TITLED “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” FOR A MORE DETAILED DISCUSSION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE AMALGAMATION. TAX MATTERS ARE COMPLICATED AND THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE AMALGAMATION TO YOU WILL DEPEND UPON THE FACTS OF YOUR PARTICULAR SITUATION. BECAUSE INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES MAY DIFFER, THE PARTIES URGE YOU TO CONSULT WITH YOUR TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE AMALGAMATION TO YOU, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY OF U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX LAWS.

Q: Why are AXIS’ shareholders voting on the bye-law amendment proposal?

A: The AXIS bye-laws do not currently provide for the required vote and quorum at a general meeting of shareholders to consider an amalgamation or merger of AXIS with another company. The Bermuda Companies Act 1981, as amended (which we refer to as the “Companies Act”), however, does permit a company’s bye-laws to provide for the required vote and quorum at a general meeting of shareholders to consider an amalgamation or merger and, in the absence thereof, the required vote and quorum under the Companies Act requires the resolution of the shareholders must be approved by the affirmative vote of 75% of those voting at the general meeting, the quorum for which is two persons at least holding or representing by proxy more than one-third of the issued shares of the company. Under this proposal, the amendment to the AXIS bye-laws would result in the required vote and quorum at a general meeting of shareholders to consider an amalgamation or merger of AXIS with another company being aligned with the existing required vote and quorum for a resolution of the shareholders currently provided for in AXIS’ bye-laws. Accordingly, in this proposal, AXIS is asking its shareholders to approve amending the AXIS bye-laws to provide that an amalgamation or merger of AXIS with another company requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at an AXIS general meeting, at which the quorum required is two or more persons present in person and representing in person or by proxy shares representing more than 50% of the aggregate voting power of all AXIS shares.

Q: What shareholder vote is required to approve the items to be voted on at the special general meetings, including the amalgamation?

PartnerRe

A: The holders of PartnerRe preferred shares will be entitled to vote on only the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal, whereas the holders of PartnerRe common shares will be entitled to vote on all of the proposals. Each PartnerRe share, including the PartnerRe preferred shares, carries the right to vote on the amalgamation proposal and, the affirmative votes of a majority of votes cast at the PartnerRe special general meeting at which a quorum under the PartnerRe's bye-laws is present, will be required to approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal. The affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast at the PartnerRe special general meeting at which a quorum under PartnerRe bye-laws is present is required to approve each other matter to be considered, including any adjournment proposal. Each PartnerRe share, including the PartnerRe preferred shares, will carry the right to vote on the adjournment proposal. Please see the description in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Questions and Answers About the Amalgamation and the Special General Meetings—Who is entitled to vote at the special general meetings?"

AXIS

A: The holders of AXIS preferred shares will be entitled to vote on only the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal, whereas the holders of AXIS common shares will be entitled to vote on all of the proposals. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, by the holders of the AXIS common shares, at the AXIS special general meeting at which a quorum under AXIS' bye-laws is present, is required to approve the bye-law amendment proposal, which will become effective immediately if so approved. Each AXIS share, including the AXIS preferred shares, carries the right to vote on the amalgamation proposal and, if the bye-law amendment proposal is approved, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, at the AXIS special general meeting at which a quorum under AXIS' amended bye-laws is present, will be required to approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal. If the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, then in accordance with the Companies Act the affirmative vote of 75% of the votes cast, at the AXIS special general meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least two persons at least holding or representing by proxy more than one-third of the issued shares of AXIS is present, will be required to approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal. The affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast at the AXIS special general meeting at which a quorum under AXIS' bye-laws is present is required to approve each other matter to be considered, including any adjournment proposal. Each AXIS share, including the AXIS preferred shares, will carry the right to vote on the adjournment proposal. Please see the description in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Questions and Answers About the Amalgamation and the Special General Meetings— Who is entitled to vote at the special general meetings?"

Q: Do the boards of directors of PartnerRe and AXIS recommend approval of the proposals?

A: PartnerRe's board of directors unanimously recommends that PartnerRe shareholders vote "FOR" the amalgamation proposal and "FOR" the other proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. AXIS' board of directors unanimously recommends that AXIS shareholders vote "FOR" the amalgamation proposal and "FOR" the other proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What percentage of the issued and outstanding Newco common shares, calculated on a fully diluted basis, will the former PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders own, in the aggregate, after the amalgamation?

A: Based on the fixed exchange ratios and the estimated number of PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares that will be issued and outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the amalgamation, PartnerRe and AXIS estimate that, on a fully diluted basis, upon the consummation of the amalgamation, former PartnerRe shareholders will own in the aggregate approximately 51.6% of the amalgamated company and former AXIS shareholders will own in the aggregate approximately 48.4% of the amalgamated company.

Q: Are PartnerRe's and AXIS' financial conditions relevant to my decision to vote in favor of the proposals?

A: Yes. The amalgamated company will continue with all the rights, properties, liabilities and obligations of PartnerRe and AXIS. You should therefore consider the financial condition of each of PartnerRe and AXIS before you decide to become a shareholder of the amalgamated company through the amalgamation. You should also consider the likely effect the combination of AXIS and PartnerRe will have on the amalgamated company's financial condition. Please read the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Risk Factors." This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains financial information regarding AXIS and PartnerRe, as well as pro forma financial information in connection with the amalgamation of AXIS and PartnerRe, all of which we encourage you to review carefully. Please read the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Preliminary Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information."

Q: Do PartnerRe and AXIS have the financial resources to complete the amalgamation?

A: PartnerRe and AXIS expect to have sufficient cash on hand to consummate the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement, including any cash that may be required to pay fees, expenses and other related amounts, and Newco will also have the necessary financial resources to fully complete the integration of the businesses of AXIS and PartnerRe following the consummation of the amalgamation. The consummation of the amalgamation is not subject to any financing condition.

Q: What will be the composition of Newco's board of directors and senior management following consummation of the amalgamation and how will Newco be managed?

A: Upon the consummation of the amalgamation, the board of directors of Newco will consist of seven directors initially designated by AXIS and seven directors initially designated by PartnerRe, and the committees of the board directors of Newco will consist equally of AXIS and PartnerRe designated directors. The initial directors of Newco will be Jean-Paul L. Montupet (Chairman of the board of directors), Albert A. Benchimol (Chief Executive Officer), Michael A. Butt (Chairman Emeritus of the board of directors), Charles A. Davis, Robert L. Friedman, Christopher V. Greetham, Roberto Mendoza, Debra J. Perry, Thomas C. Ramey, Rémy Sautter, Henry B. Smith, Kevin M. Twomey, Egbert Willam and David Zwiener.

The amalgamated company's management team will be drawn from the existing PartnerRe and AXIS management teams, and the combined management team will be led by Albert Benchimol, AXIS' current President and Chief Executive Officer, who will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of Newco; Joseph Henry, currently Chief Financial Officer of AXIS, who will continue in this role as Chief Financial Officer of Newco; William Babcock, currently Chief Financial Officer of PartnerRe, who will serve as Deputy Chief Financial Officer and Lead Integration Officer of Newco and will assume the role of Chief Financial Officer of Newco upon the retirement of Mr. Henry in July 2016; Emmanuel Clarke, currently Chief Executive Officer of PartnerRe Global, who will serve as Chief Executive Officer of Reinsurance of Newco; Peter Wilson, currently Chief Executive Officer of AXIS Insurance, who will serve as Chief Executive Officer of Insurance of Newco; Chris DiSipio, currently Chief Executive Officer of AXIS Accident and Health, who will serve as Chief Executive Officer of Life, Accident and Health of Newco; and John (Jay) Nichols, currently Chief Executive Officer of AXIS Re, who will serve as Executive Vice President of Strategic Business Development and Capital Solutions at Newco. For a more complete description of the governance matters of the amalgamated company, please see the sections of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Summary—Leadership of the Amalgamated Company" and "The Amalgamation Agreement—Governance Matters after the Amalgamation."

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special general meetings?

A: Only PartnerRe shareholders and AXIS shareholders of record, as shown on the PartnerRe's or AXIS' register of members, respectively, at the close of business on [], the record date for the PartnerRe and AXIS special general meetings, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the respective special general meetings or any adjournment or postponement thereof. In accordance with the Companies Act each PartnerRe share, including the PartnerRe preferred shares, carries the right to vote in respect of the amalgamation proposal. If it becomes necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies for the amalgamation proposal then each PartnerRe common share and preferred share carries the right to vote in respect of the adjournment proposal. In respect of the other proposals to be decided on at the PartnerRe special general meeting only holders of PartnerRe common shares are entitled to vote. In accordance with the Companies Act each AXIS common share and preferred share carries the right to vote in respect of the amalgamation proposal. If it becomes necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies for the amalgamation proposal then each AXIS common share and preferred share also carries the right to vote in respect of the adjournment proposal. In respect of the other proposals to be decided on at the AXIS special general meeting only holders of AXIS common shares are entitled to vote.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We urge you to carefully read this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including its annexes and the documents incorporated by reference herein. You are also encouraged to review the documents referenced under the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Where You Can Find More Information" and consult with your accounting, legal and tax advisors. Once you have considered all relevant information, we encourage you to fill in and return the relevant proxy card (if you are a shareholder of record) or voting instruction form you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee (if you are a shareholder who holds your shares through a bank, broker or other nominee).

Q: How do I vote my shares?

A: Shareholder of Record. If your PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares are registered directly in your name, then you are considered a shareholder of record of PartnerRe or AXIS with respect to those shares and this joint proxy statement/prospectus and a PartnerRe proxy card or an AXIS proxy card was sent to you directly by PartnerRe or AXIS (as the case may be). As a PartnerRe or AXIS shareholder of record, you may vote by completing, dating, signing and mailing the enclosed PartnerRe proxy card or AXIS proxy card in the return envelope provided as soon as possible or by following the instructions on the PartnerRe proxy card or AXIS proxy card to submit your proxy by telephone or over the Internet at the website indicated. Consummation of the proxy over the Internet is available through [] p.m. Eastern Time on the business day before the respective special general meeting. PartnerRe or AXIS shareholders of record may also vote by attending the respective special general meeting in person. However, whether or not you plan to attend the respective special general meeting in person, we encourage you to vote your PartnerRe or AXIS shares in advance to ensure that your vote is represented at the respective special general meeting. Abstentions and, if applicable, “broker non-votes” will be counted toward the presence of a quorum at the PartnerRe or AXIS special general meeting, but will not be considered votes cast on any proposal brought before the

PartnerRe or AXIS special general meeting, as described below under the question titled “—What effect do abstentions and ‘broker non-votes’ have on the proposals?”

Beneficial Owner of Shares Held in Street Name. If your PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other similar organization or nominee, then you are considered a beneficial owner of such shares held for you in what is known as “street name.” Most shareholders of PartnerRe or AXIS hold their respective shares in “street name.” If this is the case, this joint proxy statement/prospectus has been forwarded to you by your bank, broker or other organization or nominee together with a voting instruction form. You may vote by completing and returning your voting instruction form to your broker. Please review the voting instruction form to see if you are able to submit your voting instructions by telephone or over the Internet. The organization or nominee holding your account is considered the shareholder of record for purposes of voting at the PartnerRe or AXIS special general meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to instruct the organization that holds your shares of record how to vote the PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares that you beneficially own. If you are a beneficial owner of PartnerRe or AXIS shares held in “street name” rather than a shareholder of record, you may only vote your PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares in person at the PartnerRe or AXIS special general meeting if you obtain and bring a letter from the organization or nominee holding your PartnerRe or AXIS shares identifying you as the beneficial owner of those shares and authorizing you to vote your PartnerRe or AXIS shares at the special general meeting. A legal proxy form from your broker and valid identification is required.

Q: What do I do if I want to change my vote?

A: You may change your vote at any time before the vote takes place at the PartnerRe or AXIS special general meeting. To do so, you may either complete and submit a new PartnerRe proxy card or AXIS proxy card with a later date by mail or send a written notice to the Secretary of PartnerRe or the Secretary of AXIS, as the case may be, stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. You may also complete and submit a new PartnerRe or AXIS proxy by telephone or over the Internet. In addition, you may elect to attend the PartnerRe or AXIS special general meeting and vote in person, as described above under the question titled “—How do I vote my shares?.” If you are a PartnerRe or AXIS shareholder and you hold your shares through a bank, broker or other nominee, you may revoke the instructions only by informing the bank, broker or nominee in accordance with any procedures established by that nominee.

Q: What effect do abstentions and “broker non-votes” have on the proposals?

A: Abstentions and “broker non-votes” will be counted toward the presence of a quorum at the PartnerRe or AXIS special general meeting, but will not be considered votes cast on any proposal brought before such respective special general meeting. Because the vote required to approve the proposals to be voted upon at the respective special general meeting is the affirmative vote of the specified required percentage of the votes cast assuming a quorum is present, an abstention or a “broker non-vote” with respect to any proposal to be voted on at the respective special general meeting will not have the effect of a vote for or against the relevant proposal, but will reduce the number of votes cast and therefore increase the relative influence of those shareholders voting. It is not anticipated that there will be any “broker non-votes” as all proposals are non-routine in nature.

Q: Who should PartnerRe or AXIS shareholders contact with any additional questions?

Risk Factors

You should carefully consider the risks described in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “Risk Factors” before deciding whether to vote for approval of the amalgamation proposal. These risks include:

- risks relating to the amalgamation;
- risks related to Newco following consummation of the amalgamation;
- other risks related to PartnerRe; and
- other risks related to AXIS.

The Amalgamation

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the amalgamation agreement and the statutory amalgamation agreement, PartnerRe and AXIS will amalgamate with Newco continuing as a Bermuda exempted company with limited liability. At the effective time, Newco will continue with all the rights, properties, liabilities and obligations of PartnerRe and AXIS. The closing of the amalgamation is expected to occur on the third business day after the satisfaction or waiver of all closing conditions set forth in the amalgamation agreement, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties. The effective time of the amalgamation will be upon the issuance of the certificate of amalgamation by the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda or such other time as the certificate of amalgamation may provide. The Newco common shares are expected to trade on the NYSE, subject to the official notice of issuance. Approval of this listing is a condition to the consummation of the amalgamation.

Based on the estimated number of PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares that will be issued and outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the amalgamation, it is estimated that, on a fully diluted basis, following the closing of the amalgamation current PartnerRe shareholders will own approximately 51.6% of the amalgamated company and current AXIS shareholders will own approximately 48.4% of the amalgamated company.

Amalgamation Consideration

At the effective time, (i) each PartnerRe common share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive 2.18 Newco common shares, together with any cash payable in lieu of any fractional Newco common share; and (ii) each AXIS common share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive one Newco common share.

At the effective time, each PartnerRe preferred share and each AXIS preferred share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preferred share of Newco and will be entitled to the same dividend and other relative rights, preferences, limitations and restrictions as are now provided by the respective certificate of designation, preferences and rights of such PartnerRe preferred shares or AXIS preferred shares, respectively.

The Amalgamation Agreement

A conformed copy of the amalgamation agreement, which includes the amendments thereto, is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the entire amalgamation agreement carefully because it is the principal document governing the amalgamation. For more information on the amalgamation agreement, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement.”

As of [●], the record date for the special general meeting, there were [●] PartnerRe common shares issued and outstanding and [●] PartnerRe preferred shares issued and outstanding. As of the same date, PartnerRe directors, executive officers and their affiliates had the right to vote [●] PartnerRe common shares, representing approximately [●]% of the total PartnerRe common shares issued and outstanding. PartnerRe currently expects that all of its directors and executive officers will vote "FOR" each proposal on the PartnerRe proxy card.

PartnerRe Quorum

The quorum required at the commencement of the PartnerRe special general meeting to consider the proposals is the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of shares representing not less than 25% of the shares in the capital of PartnerRe (including fractions of a shares) at the record date. The quorum required specifically to consider the amalgamation proposal shall be the same.

PartnerRe Required Vote

The holders of PartnerRe preferred shares will be entitled to vote on only the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal, whereas the holders of PartnerRe common shares will be entitled to vote on all of the proposals. The affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast at the PartnerRe special general meeting, at which a quorum under the PartnerRe bye-laws is present, is required to approve each matter to be acted on, including the amalgamation proposal and any adjournment proposal. Each PartnerRe share, including the PartnerRe preferred shares, will carry the right to approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal. statement/prospectus titled “The PartnerRe Special General Meeting – Proposals to be Submitted to PartnerRe Shareholders; Voting Requirements and Recommendations” for more information.

PartnerRe Voting Securities

Each PartnerRe common share entitles the holder of record to one vote for each proposal voted on at the PartnerRe special general meeting or any adjournment thereof. Each PartnerRe preferred share entitles the holder of record to one vote on each of the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal. In accordance with PartnerRe’s bye-laws, if any shareholder is deemed to be a Ten Percent Shareholders (as such term is defined in the PartnerRe bye-laws) then the votes conferred by the Controlled Shares (as such term is defined in the PartnerRe bye-laws) are reduced and are automatically reduced in the future and such shares shall be entitled to less than one vote for each share held by the Ten Percent Shareholder.

PartnerRe Abstentions and “Broker Non-Votes”

Abstentions and, if applicable, “broker non-votes” will be counted toward the presence of a quorum at the special general meeting, but will not be considered votes cast on any proposal brought before the special general meeting. Because the vote required to approve the proposals to be voted upon at the special general meeting is the affirmative vote of the specified required percentage of the votes cast assuming a quorum is present, an abstention or, if applicable, a “broker non-vote” with respect to any proposal to be voted on at the special general meeting will not have the effect of a vote for or against the relevant proposal, but will reduce the number of votes cast and therefore increase the relative influence of those shareholders voting.

AXIS Record Date and Voting by AXIS Directors and Executive Officers

Only AXIS shareholders of record, as shown on AXIS’ register of members, at the close of business on [], the record date for the special general meeting, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the AXIS special general meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. As of [], there were [] AXIS common shares and [] AXIS preferred shares issued and outstanding. As of the same date, AXIS directors, executive officers and their affiliates had the right to vote [] AXIS common shares, representing approximately []% of the total AXIS common shares issued and outstanding. AXIS currently expects that all of its directors and executive officers will vote “FOR” each proposal on the AXIS proxy card.

AXIS Quorum

The quorum required at the commencement of the AXIS special general meeting to consider the proposals other than the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal is two or more persons present in person and representing in person or by proxy shares representing more than 50% of the aggregate voting power of AXIS common shares as of the record date. Each AXIS preferred share and common share carries the right to vote on the amalgamation proposal and accordingly, if the bye-law amendment proposal is approved, then in accordance with the amended AXIS bye-laws, the quorum required at the AXIS special general meeting to consider the amalgamation proposal is two or more persons present in person and representing in person or by proxy shares representing more than 50% of the aggregate voting power of all AXIS shares as of the record date. If the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, then in accordance with the Companies Act, the quorum required at the AXIS special general meeting to consider the amalgamation proposal is at least two persons present at least holding or representing by proxy more than one-third of the issued shares of AXIS as of the record date. Each AXIS preferred share and common share carries the right to vote on the adjournment proposal and accordingly the quorum required at the AXIS special general meeting to consider the adjournment proposal is two or more persons present in person and representing in person or by proxy shares representing more than 50% of the aggregate voting power of all AXIS shares as of the record date. Please see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The AXIS Special General Meeting—Quorum.”

AXIS Required Vote

The holders of AXIS preferred shares will be entitled to vote on only the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal, whereas the holders of AXIS common shares will be entitled to vote on all of the proposals. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, by the holders of AXIS common shares, at the AXIS special general meeting at which a quorum under AXIS bye-laws is present, is required to approve the bye-law amendment proposal, which will become effective immediately if so approved. Each AXIS preferred share and common share carries the right to vote on the amalgamation proposal and, if the bye-law amendment proposal is approved, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, at the AXIS special general meeting at which a quorum under AXIS' amended bye-laws is present, will be required to approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal. If the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, then in accordance with the Companies Act, the affirmative vote of 75% of the votes cast, at the AXIS special general meeting at which a quorum consisting of two or more persons at least holding or representing by proxy more than one-third of the issued shares of AXIS is present, will be required to approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal. The affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast at the AXIS special general meeting at which a quorum under AXIS' bye-laws is present is required to approve each other matter to be considered, including any adjournment proposal. Each AXIS preferred share and common share carries the right to vote on the adjournment proposal. Please see the description in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Questions and Answers About the Amalgamation and the Special General Meetings— Who is entitled to vote at the special general meetings?". The vote required for each of the proposals is set forth under the description of each proposal in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Proposals to Be Submitted to AXIS Shareholders; Voting Requirements and Recommendations."

AXIS Voting Securities

Each AXIS preferred share entitles the holder of record to one vote on each of the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal. Except as set forth in AXIS' bye-laws, each AXIS common share entitles the holder of record to one vote on each proposal voted on at the AXIS special general meeting. In accordance with AXIS' bye-laws, shareholders whose shares constitute 9.5% or more of the voting power of AXIS' common shares are entitled to less than one vote for each common share held by them, but only in the event that a U.S. shareholder, as defined in AXIS' bye-laws, owning 9.5% or more of AXIS' common shares is first determined to exist. AXIS will notify any shareholder whose voting power is reduced prior to the AXIS special general meeting.

AXIS Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

Abstentions and, if applicable, "broker non-votes" will be counted toward the presence of a quorum at the AXIS special general meeting, but will not be considered votes cast on any proposal brought before the special general meeting. Because the vote required to approve the proposals to be voted upon at the special general meeting is the affirmative vote of the specified required percentage of the votes cast assuming a quorum is present, an abstention or, if applicable, a "broker non-vote" with respect to any proposal to be voted on at the AXIS special general meeting will not have the effect of a vote for or against the relevant proposal, but will reduce the number of votes cast and therefore increase the relative influence of those shareholders voting.

Accordingly, the PartnerRe board of directors unanimously recommends that PartnerRe shareholders vote (1) "FOR" the amalgamation proposal and (2) "FOR" the other proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in respect of which they are entitled to vote.

Recommendations of the AXIS Board of Directors

The AXIS board of directors has unanimously (1) determined that the bye-law amendment is advisable to and in the best interests of AXIS, and authorized and approved the bye-law amendment, (2) resolved that the bye-law amendment proposal and the amalgamation proposal be submitted to the AXIS shareholders for their consideration at the AXIS special general meeting, (3) determined that the amalgamation, on the terms and conditions set forth in the amalgamation agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, AXIS, and (4) approved the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Accordingly, the AXIS board of directors unanimously recommends that AXIS shareholders vote (1) "FOR" the bye-law amendment proposal, (2) "FOR" the amalgamation proposal and (3) "FOR" the other proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in respect of which they are entitled to vote.

Opinion of Financial Advisor for PartnerRe

On January 25, 2015, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC (“Credit Suisse”) rendered its oral opinion to the PartnerRe board of directors (which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of Credit Suisse’s written opinion addressed to the PartnerRe board of directors dated the same date) to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of such opinion, to the holders of PartnerRe common shares of the PartnerRe exchange ratio provided for in the amalgamation.

The full text of Credit Suisse’s written opinion, dated January 25, 2015, to the PartnerRe board of directors, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Credit Suisse in connection with such opinion, is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B and is incorporated into this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference in its entirety. The description of Credit Suisse’s opinion set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Credit Suisse’s opinion. Credit Suisse’s opinion was provided to the PartnerRe board of directors (in its capacity as such) for its information in connection with its evaluation of the fairness of the PartnerRe exchange ratio from a financial point of view to holders of PartnerRe common shares and did not address any other aspect of the amalgamation, including the relative merits of the amalgamation as compared to alternative transactions or strategies that might be available to PartnerRe or the underlying business decision of PartnerRe to proceed with the amalgamation. Credit Suisse’s opinion does not constitute advice or a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act on any matter relating to the amalgamation or otherwise. Pursuant to a general engagement letter originally entered into in December, 2011, which was subsequently supplemented in May, 2014 in connection with services provided by Credit Suisse in connection with PartnerRe’s consideration of a potential transaction in 2014, and then further amended in connection with services provided in relation to the amalgamation, PartnerRe has agreed to pay Credit Suisse for its financial advisor services to PartnerRe in connection with these engagements an aggregate fee of $28.0 million for its services, $750,000 of which has already been paid, a further portion of which was payable upon delivery of Credit Suisse’s opinion and approximately $25.5 million of which is contingent upon consummation of the amalgamation. PartnerRe also may, in its sole discretion, pay to Credit Suisse an additional fee of up to $2.0 million. In addition, PartnerRe has agreed to indemnify Credit Suisse and certain related parties for certain liabilities and other items arising out of or related to Credit Suisse’s engagement.

Opinion of Financial Advisor for AXIS

Goldman, Sachs & Co. (“Goldman Sachs”) delivered its opinion to the AXIS board of directors that, as of January 25, 2015 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the AXIS exchange ratio pursuant to the amalgamation agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the holders (other than PartnerRe and its affiliates) of AXIS common shares.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated January 25, 2015, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the AXIS board of directors in connection with its consideration of the amalgamation. The Goldman Sachs opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of AXIS common shares should vote with respect to such amalgamation or any other matter. Pursuant to an engagement letter between AXIS and Goldman Sachs, AXIS has agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a transaction fee of $19.5 million, all of which is payable upon consummation of the amalgamation.

Conditions to Closing

Closing of the amalgamation is subject to the satisfaction or waiver by each of PartnerRe and AXIS of certain customary conditions, including, without limitation:

- approval of the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation by PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders;
- the Newco common shares to be issued in the amalgamation having been approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance;
- all transaction approvals having been obtained or the applicable waiting periods having been terminated or expired, in each case, without causing a regulatory material adverse effect (which is described in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—Efforts to Complete the Amalgamation”);

Table of Contents

- the absence of any law, regulation, order or injunction prohibiting the amalgamation;
- the registration statement on Form S-4 (of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part) having been declared effective by the SEC;
 - the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by the parties in the amalgamation agreement, subject to the materiality standards provided therein;
 - the performance in all material respects by each party of its obligations required to be performed by it under the amalgamation agreement at or prior to the closing; and
- certain other conditions to closing, all of which are described in greater detail in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement – Conditions to Consummation of the Amalgamation.”

Consents and Approvals

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the “HSR Act”), PartnerRe and AXIS cannot close the amalgamation until PartnerRe and AXIS have notified the Antitrust Division and the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”) of the amalgamation and furnished them with certain information and materials relating to the amalgamation and the applicable waiting period has terminated or expired. Additionally, the amalgamation is conditioned upon the receipt or consummation of authorizations, consents, approvals of or declarations or filings with certain U.S. and foreign insurance and other regulatory authorities. The transaction approvals and consents required to consummate the amalgamation are described in greater detail in the sections of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation—Regulatory Clearances Required for the Amalgamation” and “Regulatory Matters.”

Restrictions on Solicitation of Takeover Proposals by PartnerRe and AXIS; Requirement to Submit to Vote

In the amalgamation agreement, PartnerRe and AXIS have agreed not to solicit proposals relating to certain alternative transactions or, except as described below, engage in discussions or negotiations with respect to, or provide non-public information to any person in connection with, any proposal for an alternative transaction. If PartnerRe or AXIS, as the case may be, receives a written unsolicited bona fide proposal relating to an alternative transaction that the respective board of directors has determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors) constitutes a superior proposal (as defined in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals”) or could reasonably be expected to result in a superior proposal, then PartnerRe or AXIS, as applicable, may, subject to certain conditions, furnish non-public information to the third-party making the proposal for an alternative transaction and engage in discussions or negotiations with the third-party with respect to the proposal for an alternative transaction.

Prior to the closing of the amalgamation, the PartnerRe or AXIS board of directors may not withdraw, withhold, modify, or qualify, in a manner adverse to the other party, its recommendation that its shareholders approve the amalgamation proposal, subject to certain limited exceptions with respect to a “superior proposal.” Even if the board of directors of PartnerRe or AXIS has made a change of recommendation, PartnerRe or AXIS, as the case may be, is still required to call and hold its respective special general meeting for the purpose of obtaining the requisite shareholder vote in connection with the amalgamation.

For a more detailed description of the restrictions on solicitation of takeover proposals by PartnerRe and AXIS and the ability of the PartnerRe or AXIS board of directors to change its recommendation, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals.”

Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement

The amalgamation agreement may be terminated at any time before the effective time by mutual written consent of AXIS and PartnerRe and, subject to certain limitations described in the amalgamation agreement, by either AXIS or PartnerRe by notice to the other party, if any of the following occurs:

- the amalgamation has not been consummated by January 25, 2016 (the “end date”);
- the approval of the amalgamation proposal is not obtained at either of the respective special general meetings;
- any law, regulation, order or injunction prohibiting the consummation of the amalgamation is in effect and becomes final and nonappealable; or
- there has been a material breach by the other party of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the amalgamation agreement, which breach would result in the failure of certain closing conditions to be satisfied on or prior to the end date, and such breach is not cured within 30 business days following detailed written notice to the breaching party.

Prior to PartnerRe obtaining the requisite vote of the PartnerRe shareholders, AXIS may terminate the amalgamation agreement, among other things, if the PartnerRe board of directors effects a change of recommendation or if PartnerRe materially breaches its non-solicitation obligations or its obligations to convene the PartnerRe special general meeting.

Prior to AXIS obtaining the requisite vote of the AXIS shareholders, PartnerRe may terminate the amalgamation agreement, among other things, if the AXIS board of directors effects a change of recommendation or if AXIS materially breaches its non-solicitation obligations or its obligations to convene the AXIS special general meeting.

For a more detailed description of termination rights under the amalgamation agreement, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement.”

Effect of Termination; Termination Related Fees

PartnerRe will be obligated to pay a termination fee of $250 million (the “termination fee”) to AXIS or its designee:

- following termination of the amalgamation agreement for any reason pursuant to the provisions described under “The Amalgamation Agreement—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement—Termination by AXIS;” or
- if AXIS terminates the amalgamation agreement because: (i) PartnerRe materially breaches its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements so that the related closing condition would not be satisfied; or (ii) the end date is reached, in each case following the public announcement of an acquisition proposal with respect to PartnerRe, and within 12 months after the date of such termination PartnerRe enters into an agreement with respect to or consummates a business combination (as defined in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—Effect of Termination; Liability for Breach”).

AXIS will be obligated to pay the termination fee to PartnerRe or its designee:

- following termination of the amalgamation agreement for any reason pursuant to the provisions described under “The Amalgamation Agreement —Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement—Termination by PartnerRe;” or

- if PartnerRe terminates the amalgamation agreement because: (i) AXIS materially breaches its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements so that the related closing condition would not be satisfied; or (ii) the end date is reached, in each case following the public announcement of an acquisition proposal with respect to AXIS, and within 12 months after the date of such termination AXIS enters into an agreement with respect to or consummates a business combination.

PartnerRe will be obligated to pay the no approval fee of $55 million to AXIS if either party has terminated the amalgamation agreement because the required PartnerRe shareholder approval has not been obtained (and if AXIS is the terminating party, the required AXIS shareholder approval has been obtained or such vote has not yet been taken). AXIS will be obligated to pay the no approval fee of $55 million to PartnerRe if either party has terminated the amalgamation agreement because the required AXIS shareholder approval has not been obtained (and if PartnerRe is the terminating party, the required PartnerRe shareholder approval has been obtained or such vote has not yet been taken).

When the termination fee or the no approval fee is payable, the party liable for the termination fee or no approval fee will also be obligated to reimburse the other party for such party's out of pocket fees, costs and expenses in connection with the amalgamation in an amount not to exceed $35 million.

For a more detailed description of the effects of termination and the termination related fees, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Effect of Termination; Liability for Breach.

Treatment of PartnerRe's Equity Awards

Treatment of PartnerRe Share Options and Share Appreciation Rights

At the effective time each outstanding PartnerRe share option will be treated in accordance with its terms and converted into an option to purchase, on the same terms and conditions as the PartnerRe share option, a number of Newco common shares that is equal to the number of PartnerRe common shares subject to the PartnerRe share option multiplied by the PartnerRe exchange ratio, at an exercise price per Newco common share equal to the exercise price per share of PartnerRe common share subject to the PartnerRe share option divided by the PartnerRe exchange ratio. Each outstanding PartnerRe share appreciation right will be treated in accordance with its terms and converted into a share appreciation right, on the same terms and conditions as such PartnerRe share appreciation right, for a number of Newco common shares equal to the number of PartnerRe common shares subject to such PartnerRe share appreciation right multiplied by the PartnerRe exchange ratio, at an exercise price per Newco common share equal to the exercise price per PartnerRe common share subject to such PartnerRe share appreciation right divided by the PartnerRe exchange ratio.

At the effective time, each other share-based award granted by PartnerRe which under its terms becomes fully vested and settled as of the effective time will vest and be settled in accordance with its terms (and any such performance share units will vest and settle as if the maximum performance were achieved) and each PartnerRe common share delivered in settlement thereof will be eligible to receive the consideration for a PartnerRe common share described above. Each other share-based award granted by PartnerRe which is not vested as of the effective time will be converted into an award, on the same terms and conditions as such PartnerRe share-based award, with respect to a number of Newco common shares equal to the number of PartnerRe common shares underlying such PartnerRe share-based award multiplied by the PartnerRe exchange ratio.

Treatment of AXIS' Equity Awards

Treatment of AXIS Restricted Shares

At the effective time, each AXIS restricted share award will be converted into an award, on the same terms and conditions as such AXIS restricted share award (including applicable vesting requirements), with respect to a number of Newco shares equal to the number of AXIS common shares subject to such AXIS restricted share award. Notwithstanding the foregoing, certain AXIS restricted share awards granted in 2014 will become fully vested as of the effective time.

Treatment of AXIS Other Share-Based Awards

At the effective time, each other share-based award granted by AXIS will be converted into an award, on the same terms and conditions as such AXIS share-based award (including applicable vesting requirements), with respect to a number of Newco shares equal to the number of AXIS common shares underlying such AXIS share-based award. Notwithstanding the foregoing, certain AXIS other share-based awards granted in 2014 will become fully vested as of the effective time.

Interests of PartnerRe's Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation

The directors and executive officers of PartnerRe will have interests in the amalgamation that may be different from or in addition to those of PartnerRe shareholders generally. These interests include the treatment in the amalgamation of PartnerRe shares, outstanding PartnerRe equity compensation awards and certain grants that may be made prior to the consummation of the amalgamation, severance arrangements, retirement plan arrangements and other rights that may be held by PartnerRe's directors and executive officers, and the indemnification of current and former PartnerRe directors and officers by Newco. These interests may present such executive officers and directors with actual or potential conflicts of interest. The PartnerRe board of directors was aware of and considered these differing interests and potential conflicts, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the amalgamation agreement with AXIS and in recommending that the PartnerRe shareholders approve the proposals to be voted upon at the PartnerRe special general meeting. For a more detailed discussion, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation—Interests of PartnerRe's Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation."

Interests of AXIS' Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation

The directors and executive officers of AXIS will have interests in the amalgamation that may be different from or in addition to those of AXIS shareholders generally. These interests include the treatment in the amalgamation of AXIS shares, outstanding AXIS equity compensation awards and certain grants that may be made prior to the consummation of the amalgamation, severance arrangements, retirement plan arrangements and other rights that may be held by AXIS' directors and executive officers, and the indemnification of current and former AXIS directors and officers by Newco. These interests may present such executive officers and directors with actual or potential conflicts of interest. The AXIS board of directors was aware of and considered these differing interests and potential conflicts, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the amalgamation agreement with PartnerRe and in recommending that the AXIS shareholders approve the proposals to be voted upon at the AXIS special general meeting. For a more detailed discussion, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation—Interests of AXIS' Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation."

Dividends and Distributions

Each of PartnerRe and AXIS customarily pays a quarterly cash dividend on their respective common shares. Under the terms of the amalgamation agreement, prior to the effective time, PartnerRe and AXIS are each permitted to declare and pay ordinary course quarterly cash dividends on their respective common shares with record and payment dates consistent with recent past practice. However, during this period, PartnerRe is permitted to increase its quarterly cash dividend to an amount not to exceed $0.70 per share per quarter while AXIS may continue to pay, but not increase, its current quarterly cash dividend of $0.29. During the quarter in which the closing of the amalgamation occurs, PartnerRe and AXIS may pay a pro rata dividend for the period from the first day of such quarter until the day immediately preceding the closing date of the amalgamation.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The amalgamation is intended to qualify as a “reorganization” for United States federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). It is a condition to the consummation of the amalgamation that PartnerRe and AXIS each receive an opinion from their respective legal counsel to the effect that the amalgamation will qualify as a “reorganization” for U.S. federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Section 386(a) of the Code. Accordingly, a U.S. person that is the beneficial owner of PartnerRe or AXIS common shares generally will not recognize gain or loss upon the exchange of PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares for amalgamated company common shares, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional Newco share.

BECAUSE INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES MAY DIFFER, THE PARTIES URGE YOU TO CONSULT WITH YOUR TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE AMALGAMATION TO YOU, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY OF U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX LAWS.

Listing of Newco Common Shares

Newco will submit the necessary applications to cause the Newco common shares to be issued as the amalgamation consideration (save for any cash paid in lieu of fractional shares) to be authorized for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance. Approval of this listing is a condition to the consummation of the amalgamation.

Comparison of Shareholder Rights

After the amalgamation, the PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders who receive Newco common shares as part of the amalgamation consideration will become Newco shareholders and their rights will be governed by Newco’s memorandum of association and bye-laws. There will be differences between the current rights of PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders and the rights to which such shareholders will be entitled as shareholders of Newco. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “Comparison of Shareholder Rights” for a discussion of the different rights associated with the Newco common shares.

Appraisal Rights

Under Bermuda law, PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders have rights of appraisal, pursuant to which those shareholders of AXIS or PartnerRe, as the case may be, who do not vote in favor of the amalgamation proposal and who are not satisfied that they have been offered fair value for their shares will be permitted to apply to the Bermuda Court for an appraisal of the fair value of their respective shares within a certain statutory time frame. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation—Dissenters’ Rights of Appraisal for PartnerRe and AXIS Shareholders” for a discussion of the appraisal rights of the fair value of the PartnerRe and AXIS common shares and preferred shares.

Accounting Treatment

The transaction will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 805, Business Combinations (“ASC 805”), with AXIS as the acquiring entity. For a more detailed discussion, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “Notes To Preliminary Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements Note 1—Basis of Pro Forma Presentation.”

Additionally, the amalgamation is subject to risks and uncertainties, including: (A) that PartnerRe and AXIS may be unable to complete the amalgamation because, among other reasons, conditions to the consummation of the amalgamation may not be satisfied or waived; (B) uncertainty as to the timing of consummation of the amalgamation, (C) uncertainty as to the long-term value of Newco common shares; and (D) failure to realize the anticipated benefits of the amalgamation, including as a result of failure or delay in integrating the PartnerRe and AXIS businesses, as well as PartnerRe's and AXIS' management's response to any of the aforementioned factors.

The foregoing review of important factors should not be construed as exhaustive and should be read in conjunction with the other cautionary statements that are included herein and elsewhere, including the risk factors set forth in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Risk Factors" and those included in PartnerRe's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and the risk factors included in AXIS' most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and any other documents of PartnerRe and AXIS on file with the SEC. Any forward-looking statements made or referenced in this joint proxy statement/prospectus are qualified by these cautionary statements, and there can be no assurance that the actual results or developments anticipated by PartnerRe or AXIS will be realized or, even if substantially realized, that they will have the expected consequences to, or effects on, PartnerRe and AXIS or their respective businesses or operations. Each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of the particular statement and, except as may be required by applicable law, PartnerRe and AXIS undertake no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “Forward-Looking Statements,” you should carefully consider the following risks before deciding whether to vote in favor of the amalgamation proposal. In addition, you should read and consider carefully the risks associated with the businesses of PartnerRe and AXIS because these risks will also affect Newco following consummation of the amalgamation. These risks can be found in the Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, and any amendments thereto, for each of PartnerRe and AXIS, as such risks may be updated or supplemented in each company’s subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q or Current Reports on Form 8-K, which are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You should also read and consider carefully the other information in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “Where You Can Find More Information” for information on how you can view PartnerRe’s and AXIS’ incorporated documents. If any of the risks described below or in the reports incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus actually occurs, the respective businesses, financial results, financial conditions, operating results or share prices of PartnerRe or AXIS or Newco could be materially adversely affected.

Risk Factors Relating to the Amalgamation

Failure to complete the amalgamation could negatively impact the price of PartnerRe and/or AXIS common shares, as well as its future business and financial results, and have an adverse effect on PartnerRe and AXIS.

The amalgamation agreement contains a number of conditions precedent that must be satisfied or waived prior to the consummation of the amalgamation. There are no assurances that all of the conditions to the amalgamation will be so satisfied or waived. If the conditions to the amalgamation are not satisfied or waived, then PartnerRe and AXIS may be unable to complete the amalgamation. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—Conditions to Consummation of the Amalgamation” for a discussion of the conditions to the amalgamation.

If the amalgamation is not completed, the ongoing businesses of PartnerRe and AXIS may be adversely affected as follows:

- the attention of management of PartnerRe and AXIS will have been diverted to the amalgamation instead of being directed solely to their own operations and the pursuit of other opportunities that could have been beneficial to the companies;
- the manner in which brokers, insurers, cedents and other third parties perceive PartnerRe and AXIS may be negatively impacted, which in turn could affect their ability to compete for or write new business or obtain renewals in the marketplace;
- the loss of time and resources;
- under certain circumstances, AXIS or PartnerRe, as the case may be, may be required to pay to the other party a fee of $55 million or $250 million in the event the amalgamation agreement is terminated, and costs and expenses incurred in connection with the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby in an amount not to exceed $35 million;

employees may leave in anticipation of the amalgamation thereby leaving PartnerRe and AXIS less able to operate as effectively as before the transaction was announced; and

- PartnerRe and AXIS would have incurred fees and costs, such as legal, accounting and certain financial advisor fees.

Additionally, in approving the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, each of the boards of directors of PartnerRe and AXIS considered a number of factors and potential benefits, as described in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled

“The Amalgamation–PartnerRe’s Reasons for the Amalgamation and Recommendation of PartnerRe’s Board of Directors” and “The Amalgamation–AXIS’ Reasons for the Amalgamation and Recommendation of the AXIS Board of Directors.”

Because the market price of Newco common shares will not be known until after the consummation of the amalgamation, PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders cannot be sure of the value of the amalgamation consideration they will receive.

Upon the closing of the amalgamation, each PartnerRe common share and AXIS common share will be converted into the right to receive 2.18 shares and 1 share, respectively, of Newco common shares. The Newco common shares will not begin trading publicly until after the closing of the amalgamation, and thus the market price of the Newco common shares will not be known prior to closing of the amalgamation. Accordingly, at the time of the special general meetings, PartnerRe or AXIS shareholders will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the value of the amalgamation consideration they would receive upon consummation of the amalgamation. Neither company is permitted to terminate the amalgamation agreement, and neither PartnerRe nor AXIS is permitted to resolicit the vote of its shareholders, solely because of changes in the market prices of either company’s shares. See the sections of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “Comparative Per Share Data” and “Market Price and Dividend Information.”

Newco, PartnerRe and AXIS must obtain certain approvals of, and satisfy certain requirements imposed by, governmental and regulatory authorities to complete the amalgamation, which, if delayed or not granted, may delay or result in termination of the amalgamation.

The amalgamation is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt or consummation of authorizations, consents, orders and approvals of, or declarations or filings with various U.S. and international insurance and governmental regulatory authorities, the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period required under the HSR Act, and the approvals of certain antitrust authorities. If the consent from other governmental, insurance and regulatory authorities is not received, or if PartnerRe and AXIS fail to satisfy the regulatory requirements under the HSR Act or merger control or foreign investment laws outside of the U.S., then PartnerRe and AXIS may not be obligated to complete the amalgamation.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the amalgamation agreement and in accordance with applicable laws, PartnerRe and AXIS have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to close the amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement in the most expeditious manner practicable and in any event prior to the end date, as discussed in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—Consents and Approvals.” In connection with obtaining a required regulatory approval, however, neither PartnerRe nor AXIS nor any of their respective subsidiaries will be required to sell, divest or dispose of any of its businesses, products lines or assets or otherwise agree to take or refrain from taking any action that would be expected to have a regulatory material adverse effect.

Under the HSR Act, PartnerRe and AXIS cannot close the amalgamation until PartnerRe and AXIS have notified the Antitrust Division and the FTC of the amalgamation and furnished them with certain information and materials relating to the amalgamation and the applicable statutory waiting period has terminated or expired. The termination of the waiting period means the parties have satisfied their regulatory requirements under the HSR Act. PartnerRe and AXIS filed the required notifications with the Antitrust Division and the FTC on March 3, 2015. The waiting period will generally expire thirty (30) days after the appropriate notification has been filed unless the applicable regulatory agency requests additional information or the parties receive early termination. The parties have requested early termination of the waiting period, but there can be no assurance that early termination will be granted.

See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—Conditions to Consummation of the Amalgamation” for a discussion of the conditions to the amalgamation and the section titled “Regulatory Matters” for a description of the requisite regulatory consents or requirements that must be satisfied in connection with the amalgamation.

PartnerRe and/or AXIS may waive certain of the conditions to the consummation of the amalgamation without resoliciting or seeking shareholder approval.

Each of the conditions to PartnerRe’s or AXIS’ obligations to complete the amalgamation may be waived, to the extent legally permissible, in whole or in part by PartnerRe or AXIS, as applicable. The respective boards of directors of PartnerRe or AXIS will evaluate the materiality of any such waiver to determine whether resolicitation of proxies is necessary or, if shareholders have approved the amalgamation proposal, whether further shareholder approval is necessary. In the event that any such waiver is not determined to be significant enough to require resolicitation or additional approval of PartnerRe and/or AXIS shareholders, the amalgamation may be completed without seeking any further shareholder approval.

The amalgamation agreement contains provisions that could discourage potential acquirers from making a competing proposal.

The amalgamation agreement contains provisions that could discourage potential acquirers from making a competing proposal, including the applicable termination fees and expense reimbursement provisions, a party's right to match the terms of any superior proposal the other party receives and a requirement that each party hold its special general meeting even if it receives a superior proposal or its board changes its recommendation. As a result of these limitations, PartnerRe or AXIS may lose opportunities to enter into a more favorable transaction than the amalgamation. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation Agreement—No Solicitation of Alternative Proposals" for a discussion of the restrictions on PartnerRe and AXIS' abilities to pursue alternative transactions.

Once PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders approve the amalgamation, the closing may occur even if a more attractive transaction becomes available to a party and its shareholders.

The ability of PartnerRe or AXIS to participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or furnish information to, any third-party in response to a superior acquisition proposal will cease upon shareholder adoption and approval of the amalgamation proposal. As a result, once PartnerRe or AXIS shareholders have adopted and approved the amalgamation proposal and unless the amalgamation agreement is terminated pursuant to its terms, PartnerRe or AXIS will be required to close the amalgamation upon the satisfaction of all the other conditions to closing (which conditions include a number of insurance and other regulatory approvals but do not include the obtaining of any contractual consents) even if, after the requisite PartnerRe or AXIS shareholder approval has been obtained but before the closing of the amalgamation, a superior acquisition proposal is received from a third-party.

PartnerRe and AXIS will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the proposed amalgamation is pending, which could adversely affect PartnerRe's and AXIS' business.

The amalgamation agreement requires PartnerRe and AXIS to act in the ordinary course of business and restricts PartnerRe and AXIS, without approval, from taking certain specified actions until the proposed amalgamation occurs or the amalgamation agreement terminates. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Conduct of Business" for a more detailed description of the restrictions on PartnerRe's and AXIS' conduct of business. These restrictions may prevent PartnerRe and AXIS from pursuing otherwise attractive business opportunities and making other changes to its business before consummation of the amalgamation or, if the amalgamation is not completed, termination of the amalgamation agreement.

PartnerRe and AXIS will each be exposed to underwriting and other business risks during the period that each party's business continues to be operated independently from the other.

Until consummation of the amalgamation, each of PartnerRe and AXIS will operate independently from the other in accordance with such party's distinct underwriting guidelines, investment policies, referral processes, authority levels and risk management policies and practices. As a result, during this period, PartnerRe may assume risks that AXIS would not have assumed for itself, accept premiums that, in AXIS' judgment, do not adequately compensate it for the risks assumed, make investment decisions that would not adhere to AXIS' investment policies or otherwise make business decisions or take on exposure that, while consistent with PartnerRe's general business approach and practices, are not the same as those of AXIS. At the same time, AXIS may assume risks that PartnerRe would not have assumed for itself, accept premiums that, in PartnerRe's judgment, do not adequately compensate it for the risks assumed, make investment decisions that would not adhere to PartnerRe's investment policies or otherwise make business decisions or take on exposure that, while consistent with AXIS' general business approach and practices, are not the same as those of PartnerRe. Significant delays in completing the amalgamation will materially increase the risk that PartnerRe or AXIS will operate its business in a manner that differs from how the business would have been conducted by the other party to the amalgamation.

Uncertainties associated with the amalgamation may cause a loss of management personnel and other key employees or result in the departure of customers of PartnerRe and/or AXIS, which could adversely affect their businesses.

Uncertainty about the effect of the amalgamation on PartnerRe's and AXIS' employees and customers may have an adverse effect on their businesses. These uncertainties may impair PartnerRe's and/or AXIS' ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the amalgamation is completed and for a period of time thereafter, and could cause customers and others that transact with each party to seek to change the existing business relationships with PartnerRe and/or AXIS. Employee retention may be particularly challenging during the pendency of the amalgamation. If key employees depart or if customers and others that deal with PartnerRe or AXIS change in an adverse manner their existing business relationships with PartnerRe or AXIS, their business could be seriously harmed. If the business of PartnerRe or AXIS is adversely affected, the companies may not be able to realize the anticipated benefits of the amalgamation.

Some directors and executive officers of PartnerRe and AXIS have interests in the amalgamation that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders generally.

In considering the recommendations of the PartnerRe and AXIS boards of directors with respect to the amalgamation, shareholders should be aware that some of PartnerRe's and AXIS' directors and executive officers have financial interests in the amalgamation that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders generally. See the sections of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation—Interests of PartnerRe's Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation" and "The Amalgamation—Interests of AXIS' Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation."

PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders will have reduced ownership and voting interests after the consummation of the amalgamation and will exercise less influence over the management of Newco than they currently exercise over the management of PartnerRe and AXIS.

After the consummation of the amalgamation, PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders will own in the aggregate a significantly smaller percentage of Newco than they currently own of PartnerRe or AXIS. PartnerRe shareholders are expected to own, in the aggregate, immediately following the closing of the amalgamation, approximately [●]% of the outstanding Newco common shares on a pro forma fully-diluted basis and AXIS shareholders are expected to own, in the aggregate, immediately following the closing of the amalgamation, approximately [●]% of the outstanding Newco common shares on a pro forma fully-diluted basis. Consequently, PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders as a group will have less influence over the management and policies of Newco than they currently exercise over the management and policies of their respective companies.

Risk Factors Relating to Newco Following the Amalgamation

Future results of Newco may differ materially from the Preliminary Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information of Newco presented in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The future results of Newco following the consummation of the amalgamation may be materially different from those shown in the Preliminary Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information of Newco presented in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, which show only a combination of PartnerRe's and AXIS' historical results after giving effect to the amalgamation. Additionally, if the amalgamation is consummated, Newco anticipates incurring significant integration costs, which costs have not been reflected in the Preliminary Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Information of Newco presented in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, as they are nonrecurring in nature and difficult to determine as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, the amalgamation and post-amalgamation integration process may give rise to unexpected liabilities and costs, including costs associated with the defense and resolution of possible litigation or other claims. Unexpected delays in completing the amalgamation or in connection with the post-amalgamation integration process may significantly increase the related costs and expenses incurred by Newco.

The integration of PartnerRe and AXIS following the amalgamation may present significant challenges and costs.

Newco may face significant challenges, including technical, accounting and other challenges, in combining PartnerRe's and AXIS' operations. PartnerRe and AXIS entered into the amalgamation agreement because each company believes that the amalgamation will be beneficial to it and its respective shareholders. Achieving the anticipated benefits of the amalgamation will depend in part upon whether Newco will be successful in integrating PartnerRe's and AXIS' businesses in a timely and efficient manner. Newco may not be able to accomplish this integration process smoothly or successfully, and it may incur unanticipated costs in connection with obtaining regulatory consents and approvals required to complete the amalgamation, which could also adversely affect its ability to integrate the operations of PartnerRe and AXIS or reduce the anticipated benefits of the amalgamation.

Potential difficulties Newco may encounter as part of the integration process include the following:

- delays in the integration of management teams, strategies, operations, products and services;
- diversion of the attention of management as a result of the amalgamation;
- differences in business backgrounds, corporate cultures and management philosophies;
 - the inability to retain key employees;

Table of Contents

- the inability to establish and maintain integrated risk management systems, underwriting methodologies and controls, which could give rise to excess accumulation or aggregation of risks, underreporting or underrepresentation of exposures or other adverse consequences;
- the inability to create and enforce uniform financial, compliance and operating controls, procedures, policies and information systems;
- complexities associated with managing combined operating units, including the challenge of integrating complex systems, technology, networks and other assets of PartnerRe and AXIS in a seamless manner that minimizes any adverse impact on customers, brokers, employees and other constituencies;
- potential unknown liabilities and unforeseen increased expenses or delays associated with the amalgamation, including one-time cash costs to integrate PartnerRe and AXIS beyond current estimates; and
- the disruption of, or the loss of momentum in, the amalgamated company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies, any of which could adversely affect the amalgamated company's ability to maintain relationships with customers, brokers, employees and other constituencies or Newco's ability to achieve the anticipated benefits of the amalgamation or could otherwise adversely affect the business and financial results of Newco after the amalgamation.

In addition, Newco will incur integration and restructuring costs following the consummation of the amalgamation as it integrates the businesses of PartnerRe and AXIS. Although the parties expect that the realization of efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses will offset incremental transaction, integration and restructuring costs over time, none of Newco, PartnerRe nor AXIS can give any assurance that this net benefit will be achieved at any time in the future.

The price of Newco common shares after the amalgamation will be affected by factors different from those affecting the price of PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares or the value of PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares before the amalgamation.

As the businesses and business strategies of PartnerRe and AXIS are different, the results of operations as well as the price of Newco common shares following the amalgamation may be affected by factors different from those factors affecting PartnerRe or AXIS as independent stand-alone entities. For a discussion of PartnerRe's and AXIS' businesses and certain risk factors to consider in connection with their respective businesses, see the respective sections entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in each of PartnerRe's and AXIS' Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and other documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The market price of Newco common shares may decline in the future as a result of the sale of such shares held by former PartnerRe or AXIS shareholders or due to other factors.

Newco will issue an aggregate of [] Newco common shares to PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders (including for this purpose each eligible holder of PartnerRe and AXIS equity awards) in the amalgamation. Upon the receipt of Newco common shares as amalgamation consideration, former holders of PartnerRe or AXIS common shares may seek to sell the Newco common shares delivered to them. These sales (or the perception that these sales may occur) may affect the market for, and the market price of, Newco common shares in an adverse manner. None of these shareholders are subject to a “lock-up” or “market standoff” agreement.

The market price of Newco common shares may also decline in the future as a result of the amalgamation for a number of other reasons, including:

- the unsuccessful integration of PartnerRe and AXIS;
- the failure of Newco to achieve the anticipated benefits of the amalgamation, including financial results, as rapidly as or to the extent anticipated;
 - decreases in Newco’s financial results after the closing of the amalgamation;
- as described below, any failure to maintain Newco’s financial strength, claims paying and enterprise-wide risk management ratings as a result of the amalgamation; or

- general market or economic conditions unrelated to Newco's performance.

These factors are, to some extent, beyond the control of Newco.

The financial analyses and forecasts considered by PartnerRe's and AXIS' financial advisors and PartnerRe's and AXIS' boards of directors may not be realized, which may adversely affect the market price of the Newco's common shares following the amalgamation.

In performing certain financial analyses and delivering their respective opinions to PartnerRe's and AXIS' boards of directors that, as of [], 2015, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the aggregate consideration to be paid pursuant to the amalgamation agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the holders of the outstanding PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares, the financial advisors reviewed, among other things, projected non-public financial statements and other projected non-public financial data prepared and furnished to it by PartnerRe and AXIS management, respectively. None of the projected non-public financial statements and other projected non-public financial data was prepared with a view toward public disclosure or compliance with the published guidelines of the SEC or the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants regarding projections and forecasts. These projections are inherently based on various estimates and assumptions that are subject to the judgment of those preparing them. These projections are also subject to significant economic, competitive, industry and other uncertainties and contingencies, all of which are difficult or impossible to predict and many of which are beyond the control of PartnerRe and AXIS. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that Newco's financial condition or results of operations will not be significantly worse than those set forth in such projected non-public financial statements and other projected non-public financial data.

The amalgamation may result in a ratings downgrade of Newco or its insurance affiliates relative to PartnerRe or AXIS, which may result in a material adverse effect on Newco's business, financial condition and operating results, as well as the market price of Newco common shares following the amalgamation.

Ratings with respect to claims paying ability and financial strength are important factors in maintaining customer confidence in Newco and its ability to market insurance and reinsurance products and compete with other insurance and reinsurance companies. Rating organizations regularly analyze the financial performance and condition of insurers and reinsurers. The insurance financial strength ratings assigned in respect of PartnerRe and AXIS by certain rating organizations are detailed in the table below:

	AXIS Ratings	PartnerRe Ratings	Agency's Rating Definition	Rating Review Status
Standard & Poor's	A+	A+	"Strong financial security characteristics"	Both companies have been affirmed with stable outlook
A.M. Best	A+	A+	"Superior ability to meet ongoing insurance obligations"	Under review with negative implications for both companies
Moody's Investor Services	A2	A1	"Insurance companies offer good financial strength"	AXIS rating under review with possible upgrade. PartnerRe rating has been affirmed with stable outlook
Fitch	A+	A+	"Strong capacity to meet policyholder and contract	AXIS rating placed on Rating Watch Positive and obligations”

Rating Watch Negative

Following the amalgamation, any ratings downgrades, or the potential for ratings downgrades, of Newco or its subsidiaries could adversely affect Newco’s ability to market and distribute products and services and successfully compete in the marketplace, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and operating results. For example, many of the reinsurance contracts of each of PartnerRe’s and AXIS’ reinsurance subsidiaries contain provisions that would allow ceding companies to terminate the contract or demand security following a downgrade in financial strength ratings below specified levels by one or more rating agencies. Neither PartnerRe nor AXIS can predict the extent to which their termination right would be exercised, if at all; however, the effect of such termination could have a significant and negative effect on Newco’s financial condition and results of operations following the amalgamation. Even in the absence of such contractual provisions, numerous cedents and brokers prefer to secure coverage or assign preferential allocations to the highest rated reinsurers, and accordingly, any decrease in ratings could adversely affect the ability of the amalgamated company to access the businesses it will seek to underwrite.

While management anticipates that Newco’s financial strength and claims paying ratings will be affirmed subsequent to the closing of the amalgamation, there is no guarantee that such affirmations will occur.

In addition, each of PartnerRe and AXIS are rated on their holding company indebtedness. A downgrade in such credit ratings could increase each company’s borrowing costs. A credit rating downgrade subsequent to the amalgamation could increase Newco’s cost of borrowing, or may negatively impact Newco’s ability to raise additional debt capital or the willingness of financial counterparties to deal with Newco.

PartnerRe’s and AXIS’ counterparties to contracts and arrangements may acquire certain rights upon the amalgamation, which could negatively affect Newco following the amalgamation.

PartnerRe and AXIS and their operating subsidiaries are parties to numerous contracts, agreements, licenses, permits, authorizations and other arrangements that contain provisions giving counterparties certain rights (including, in some cases, termination rights) upon a “change in control” of PartnerRe or AXIS or their subsidiaries, as applicable. The definition of “change in control” varies from contract to contract, ranging from a narrow to a broad definition, and in some cases, the “change in control” provisions may be implicated by the amalgamation. If such “change in control” provisions are triggered as a result of the amalgamation, a wide range of consequences may result, including the possibility that cedents will have the right to cancel and commute a contract, or the requirement that PartnerRe or AXIS return unearned premiums, net of commissions, or post certain collateral requirements.

Whether a counterparty would have any of these or other rights in connection with the amalgamation depends upon the terms of its agreement with PartnerRe or AXIS or its applicable subsidiaries. Whether a counterparty exercises any cancellation rights it has would depend on, among other factors, such counterparty's views with respect to the financial strength and business reputation of Newco following the amalgamation, the extent to which such counterparty currently has reinsurance coverage with Newco's affiliates, the prevailing market conditions, the pricing and availability of replacement reinsurance coverage and Newco's ratings following the amalgamation. Neither PartnerRe nor AXIS can currently predict the extent to which such cancellation rights would be triggered or exercised, if at all.

In addition to the fact that a significant portion of PartnerRe's and AXIS' in-force reinsurance contracts contain special termination provisions that may be triggered following a change in control, many of these reinsurance contracts, as well as most reinsurance and insurance contracts of PartnerRe's and AXIS', renew annually, and so whether or not they may be terminated following the amalgamation, reinsurance cedents or policyholders may choose not to renew these contracts with Newco following the amalgamation.

Termination of in-force contracts or failure to renew reinsurance or insurance agreements and policies by contractual counterparties could adversely affect the benefits to be received by Newco from PartnerRe's and AXIS' contractual arrangements. If the benefits from these arrangements are less than expected, including as a result of these arrangements being terminated, determined to be unenforceable, in whole or in part, or the counterparties to such arrangements failing to satisfy their obligations thereunder, the benefits of the amalgamation may be significantly less than anticipated.

Any Newco common shares received by PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders as a result of the amalgamation will have different rights from PartnerRe and AXIS common shares.

Following consummation of the amalgamation, PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders will no longer be shareholders of PartnerRe or AXIS and will instead become shareholders of Newco. There will be important differences between the current rights of PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders and the rights to which such shareholders will be entitled as shareholders of Newco. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Comparison of Shareholder Rights" for a discussion of the different rights associated with the Newco common shares.

Changes in U.S. federal income tax law could materially adversely affect an investment in Newco common shares.

In the past, legislation has been introduced in the U.S. Congress intended to eliminate some perceived tax advantages of companies (including insurance companies) that have legal domiciles outside the United States but have certain U.S. connections. It is possible that similar legislation could be introduced and enacted by the current Congress or future Congresses that could have an adverse impact on Newco.

In addition, the U.S. federal income tax laws and interpretations, including those regarding whether a company is engaged in a U.S. trade or business or is a passive foreign investment company (which we refer to as a "PFIC"), or whether U.S. holders would be required to include "subpart F income" or "related person insurance income" (which we refer to as "RPII") in their gross income, are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. No regulations regarding the application of the PFIC rules to insurance companies are currently in effect, and the regulations regarding RPII are still in proposed form. New regulations or pronouncements interpreting or clarifying such rules may be forthcoming. None of Newco, PartnerRe nor AXIS can be certain if, when, or in what form, such regulations or pronouncements may be provided, and whether such guidance will have a retroactive effect.

Other Risk Factors Relating to PartnerRe

You should read and consider carefully other risk factors specific to PartnerRe that will also affect Newco after the amalgamation, described in Part I, Item 1A of PartnerRe's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, under this section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, "Risk Factors," as such risks may be updated or supplemented by subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, and other documents that have been filed by PartnerRe with the SEC and which are incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. (1) Operating earnings or loss attributable to PartnerRe common shareholders (operating earnings or loss) is calculated as net income or loss available to PartnerRe common shareholders excluding net realized and unrealized gains or losses on investments, net of tax (except where PartnerRe has made a strategic investment in an insurance or reinsurance related investee), net foreign exchange gains or losses, net of tax, loss on redemption of preferred shares, interest in earnings or losses of equity investments, net of tax (except where PartnerRe has made a strategic investment in an insurance or reinsurance related investee and where PartnerRe does not control the investee's activities) and certain withholding taxes on inter-company dividends, net of tax, and is calculated after preferred dividends. Diluted operating earnings or loss per common share and common share equivalent outstanding (diluted operating earnings or loss per share) are calculated using operating earnings or loss for the period divided by the weighted average number of common shares and common share equivalents outstanding. Operating ROE is a non-GAAP financial measure within the meaning of Regulation G. - (3) Diluted tangible book value per common share and common share equivalents outstanding (Diluted Tangible Book Value per Share) is calculated using common shareholders' equity attributable to PartnerRe Ltd. (total shareholders' equity less noncontrolling interests and the aggregate liquidation value of preferred shares) less goodwill and intangible assets, net of tax, divided by the weighted average number of common shares and common share equivalents outstanding (assuming exercise of all share-based awards and other dilutive securities). The presentation of Diluted Tangible Book Value per Share is a non-GAAP financial measure within the meaning of Regulation G. See Key Financial Measures in Item 7 of Part II of the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, which is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, for a detailed discussion of the measures used by PartnerRe to evaluate its financial performance.
- (4) Effective January 1, 2011, management of PartnerRe redefined its operating earnings or loss available to common shareholders calculation to additionally exclude net foreign exchange gains or losses. In addition, management of PartnerRe redefined its Operating return on beginning diluted book value per share and common share equivalents outstanding calculation to measure operating return on a diluted per share basis (Operating ROE, previously referred to as operating return on beginning common shareholders' equity). Operating earnings or loss and Operating ROE for all periods presented have been recast to reflect PartnerRe's redefined non-GAAP measures. See Key Financial Measures in Item 7 of Part II of the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, which is incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, for a discussion of Management's reasons for redefining these measures.

PRELIMINARY UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements are based on the separate historical financial statements of AXIS and PartnerRe after giving effect to the amalgamation and the assumptions and adjustments described in the accompanying notes to the preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements. The preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2014 is presented as if the amalgamation with PartnerRe had occurred on December 31, 2014. The preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2014 is presented as if the amalgamation had occurred on January 1, 2014. The historical condensed consolidated financial information has been adjusted to reflect factually supportable items that are directly attributable to the amalgamation and, with respect to the statements of income only, expected to have a continuing impact on the consolidated results of operations.

The preparation of the preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements and related adjustments required management to make certain assumptions and estimates. The preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements should be read together with:

- the accompanying notes to the preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements;
- AXIS' separate audited historical consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, included in AXIS' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014;
- PartnerRe's separate audited historical consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014, included in PartnerRe's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014; and
- other information pertaining to AXIS and PartnerRe contained in or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See "Selected Historical Consolidated Financial Data of AXIS" and "Selected Historical Consolidated Financial Data of PartnerRe" included elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information has been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP). After considering the relevant U.S. GAAP guidance, it has been determined that AXIS is the acquiring entity for accounting purposes, primarily due to the number of the senior management positions, including the Chief Executive Officer, in the amalgamated company being filled by current AXIS employees.

The preliminary unaudited pro forma adjustments, including the allocations of the acquisition consideration, have been made solely for the purpose of providing preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial information. A final determination of the acquisition consideration and fair values of PartnerRe's assets and liabilities, which cannot be made prior to the completion of the amalgamation, will be based on the actual net tangible and intangible assets of PartnerRe that exist as of the date of completion of the transaction. Consequently, amounts preliminarily allocated to the gain on bargain purchase and intangible assets could change significantly from those allocations used in the preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements presented below and could result in a material change in amortization of acquired intangible assets.

In connection with the plan to integrate the operations of AXIS and PartnerRe following the completion of the amalgamation, management anticipates that nonrecurring charges will be incurred. Management is not able to determine the timing, nature and amount of these integration charges as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. However, these charges will affect the results of operations of AXIS and PartnerRe, as well as those of the combined company following the completion of the amalgamation, in the periods in which they are incurred. The preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements do not include the effects of the costs associated with any restructuring or integration activities resulting from the transaction, as they are nonrecurring in nature and not factually supportable at the time that the preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements were prepared.

Table of Contents

The adjustments that will be recorded as of the completion of the amalgamation may differ materially from the information presented in these preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements as a result of:

- the occurrence of natural or man-made catastrophic events which trigger losses on catastrophe-exposed (re)insurance contracts written by PartnerRe;
- changes in the fair value of PartnerRe's investment portfolio due to market volatility, changes in interest rates and foreign exchange movements;
 - changes in the trading price for AXIS' common shares;
- net cash used or generated in PartnerRe's operations between the signing of the amalgamation agreement and completion of the amalgamation;
 - the timing of the completion of the amalgamation; and
- other changes in PartnerRe's net assets that occur prior to completion of the amalgamation, which could cause material differences in the information presented below.

The preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements are provided for informational purposes only. Additionally, the preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements are not necessarily, and should not be assumed to be, an indication of the results that would have been achieved had the transaction been completed as of the dates indicated or that may be achieved in the future. The preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements do not give consideration to the impact of possible revenue enhancements, potential revenue decreases due to lost business, any expense efficiencies, synergies or asset dispositions that may result from the amalgamation.

Management has recorded reclassifications of PartnerRe information to conform to AXIS' presentation. Additionally, as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, management has identified material preliminary adjustments necessary to conform PartnerRe's accounting policies to AXIS' accounting policies. Management of the combined company following the completion of the amalgamation will conduct a final review of PartnerRe's accounting policies as of the date of the completion of the amalgamation in an effort to determine if further differences in accounting policies require adjustment to conform to AXIS' accounting policies or if further reclassifications are considered necessary. As a result of this review, management may identify further differences that, when conformed, could have a material impact on these unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements.

CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1—Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

The preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2014 and the preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2014 are based on the historical financial statements of AXIS and PartnerRe after giving effect to the completion of the amalgamation and the assumptions and adjustments described in the accompanying notes. It does not give consideration to the impact of revenue enhancements or potential lost business, expense efficiencies, synergies, integration costs, asset dispositions, or other actions that may result from the amalgamation. The preliminary unaudited pro forma information was prepared in accordance with applicable SEC pro forma guidance under Regulation S-X Article 11.

The transaction will be accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 805, Business Combinations (“ASC 805”), with AXIS as the acquiring entity. In business combination transactions in which the consideration given is not in the form of cash (that is, in the form of non-cash assets, liabilities incurred, or equity interests issued), measurement of the acquisition consideration is based on the fair value of the consideration given or the fair value of the assets (or net assets) acquired, whichever is more clearly evident and, thus, more reliably measurable.

Under ASC 805, all of the PartnerRe assets acquired and liabilities assumed in this business combination are recognized at their acquisition-date fair value, while transaction costs and restructuring costs associated with the business combination are expensed as incurred. The amount of the acquisition consideration below the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed is treated as a gain on bargain purchase. Changes in deferred tax asset valuation allowances and income tax uncertainties, if any, after the acquisition date will generally affect income tax expense. Subsequent to the completion of the amalgamation, AXIS and PartnerRe will finalize an integration plan, which may affect how the assets acquired, including intangible assets, will be utilized by the combined company.

The preliminary unaudited pro forma information is presented solely for informational purposes and is not necessarily indicative of the consolidated results of operations or financial position that might have been achieved for the periods or dates indicated, nor is it necessarily indicative of the future results of the combined company.

Note 2—Preliminary Acquisition Consideration

On January 25, 2015, AXIS entered into a definitive agreement and plan of amalgamation with PartnerRe, pursuant to which AXIS will be amalgamated with PartnerRe and Newco shall continue after the amalgamation. At the closing (as defined in the amalgamation agreement), each PartnerRe common share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the amalgamation's effective time (as defined in the amalgamation agreement) will be automatically canceled and converted into the right to receive 2.18 validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable common shares of the amalgamated company, par value $0.0125 per share, together with any cash paid in lieu of fractional shares. At the closing, each AXIS common share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the amalgamation's effective time will be automatically canceled and converted into the right to receive one validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable amalgamated company common share.

The share price used in determining the preliminary acquisition consideration is based upon the closing price of AXIS common shares on March 9, 2015. The estimated maximum number of PartnerRe common shares which may be canceled in the amalgamation is based on the PartnerRe common shares outstanding on March 9, 2015.

The effect of an increase (decrease) in the price of an AXIS common share of 1% would be to decrease (increase) the pro forma gain on bargain purchase and to increase (decrease) contributed capital by approximately $56.5 million reflecting the increase (decrease) in the acquisition consideration. There would be no impact on the pro forma net income.

The preliminary acquisition consideration excludes the impact of fractional shares and is calculated as follows (dollars and shares in thousands, except per share data):

Calculation of Acquisition Consideration

Estimated number of PartnerRe's common shares which may be canceled in the amalgamation	48,831
Exchange ratio per the amalgamation agreement	2.18
Amalgamated company's share issuance to PartnerRe's shareholders	106,452
Multiplied by AXIS's closing price per share on March 9, 2015	$51.50
Amalgamated company's share issuance consideration	$5,482,278

Note 3—Preliminary Acquisition Consideration Allocation

Under the acquisition method of accounting, the total acquisition consideration is allocated to the acquired tangible and identifiable intangible assets and assumed liabilities of PartnerRe based on their estimated fair values as of the closing of the amalgamation. The excess of the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed over the acquisition consideration is recorded as a gain on bargain purchase.

The allocation of the estimated acquisition consideration is preliminary because the proposed amalgamation has not yet been completed. The preliminary allocation is based on estimates, assumptions, valuations, and other studies which have not progressed to a stage where there is sufficient information to make a definitive allocation. Accordingly, the acquisition consideration allocation reflected in the preliminary unaudited pro forma adjustments will remain preliminary until management determines the final acquisition consideration and the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed. The final determination of the acquisition consideration allocation is anticipated to be completed as soon as practicable after the completion of the amalgamation and will be based on the value of the AXIS share price at the closing of the transaction and on the fair values of PartnerRe's assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the closing of the transaction. The final amounts allocated to PartnerRe's assets acquired and liabilities assumed could differ significantly from the amounts presented in the preliminary unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements.

The total preliminary acquisition consideration is allocated to PartnerRe's tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities as of December 31, 2014 based on their preliminary fair values as follows (dollars in thousands):

Preliminary Acquisition Consideration Allocation

PartnerRe's shareholders' equity attributable to controlling interests as of December 31, 2014	$ 7,048,910
Preliminary adjustments for fair value, by applicable balance sheet caption:
Assets:
Other investments	13,708

Liquidation value of PartnerRe's preferred shares as of December 31, 2014	853,750
Gain on bargain purchase, before AXIS' estimated transaction costs	$ 318,618

The preliminary estimated gain on bargain purchase upon closing of the amalgamation is reflected as an increase in retained earnings in the pro forma balance sheet. The preliminary gain on bargain purchase results from the acquisition date fair value of PartnerRe's identifiable net assets acquired exceeding the estimated purchase price. This bargain purchase determination is consistent with the fact that this is a merger of equals being transacted at relative tangible book values of AXIS and PartnerRe. See Note 2 to the Preliminary Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements above for the impact of an increase (decrease) in the price of the AXIS common share price on the purchase price.

Note 4—Preliminary Unaudited Pro Forma and Acquisition Accounting Adjustments

The preliminary unaudited pro forma financial information is not necessarily indicative of what the financial position and results from operations actually would have been had the amalgamation been completed at the date indicated and includes adjustments which are preliminary and may be revised. Such revisions may result in material changes. The financial position shown herein is not necessarily indicative of what the past financial position of the combined companies would have been, nor necessarily indicative of the financial position of the post-amalgamation periods.

The following preliminary unaudited pro forma adjustments result from accounting for the amalgamation, including the determination of fair value of the assets, liabilities, and commitments which AXIS, as the acquiring entity for accounting purposes, will acquire and assume from PartnerRe. The adjustments below include initial accounting policy conclusions on the treatment of PartnerRe's investments and the related realized and unrealized investment gains and losses and foreign exchange impacts. These conclusions are preliminary and may be subject to change following a full review of the PartnerRe's investment portfolio.

The descriptions related to the preliminary adjustments are as follows (dollars in thousands):

COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The historical earnings per share, dividends and book values of PartnerRe and AXIS shown in the table below are derived from their respective audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2014. The unaudited pro forma comparative basic and diluted earnings per share data give effect to the acquisition method of accounting as if the amalgamation had been completed on January 1, 2014. The unaudited pro forma book value per share information was computed as if the amalgamation had been completed on December 31, 2014.

You should read this information in conjunction with the historical financial information of PartnerRe and AXIS included or incorporated elsewhere into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including PartnerRe's and AXIS' respective financial statements and related notes thereto. The unaudited pro forma per share data is not necessarily indicative of either actual results had the amalgamation occurred as of the dates or during the periods indicated or of the future operations of PartnerRe or AXIS.

This unaudited pro forma per share financial data does not give consideration to the impact of possible revenue enhancements, potential loss of business, expense efficiencies, synergies, strategy modifications, asset dispositions or other actions. This pro forma per share data is subject to risks and uncertainties, including those discussed in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Risk Factors."

(1) Diluted tangible book value per common share and operating income are "non-GAAP financial measures" as defined by Regulation G.

Diluted tangible book value per common share is calculated using common shareholders' equity attributable to controlling interests (total shareholders' equity less noncontrolling interests and aggregate liquidation value of preferred shares) less goodwill and intangible assets, net of tax, divided by the diluted common shares outstanding (assuming exercise of all share-based awards and other dilutive securities). We believe that this measure, in combination with diluted book value per common share, is useful in assessing value generated for our common shareholders. A reconciliation of diluted tangible book value per common share to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure is provided below:

THE AMALGAMATION

Effects of the Amalgamation

As of the effective time, subject to the terms and conditions of the amalgamation agreement and the statutory amalgamation agreement, AXIS and PartnerRe will be amalgamated and the amalgamated company will continue after the amalgamation. The parties have acknowledged and agreed that for the purposes of Bermuda law; (i) the amalgamation will be effected so as to constitute an “amalgamation” in accordance with section 104 of the Companies Act; and (ii) Newco will be deemed to be an “amalgamated company” as such term is understood under the Companies Act. Under the Companies Act, from and after the effective time: (i) the amalgamation of AXIS and PartnerRe and their continuance as one company will become effective; (ii) the property of each of AXIS and PartnerRe will become the property of the amalgamated company; (iii) the amalgamated company will continue to be liable for the obligations and liabilities of each of AXIS and PartnerRe; (iv) any existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution will be unaffected; (v) any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against AXIS or PartnerRe may continue to be prosecuted by or against the amalgamated company; and (vi) a conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment in favor of or against AXIS or PartnerRe may be enforced by or against the amalgamated company.

At the effective time; (i) each PartnerRe common share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive 2.18 Newco common shares, together with any cash payable in lieu of any fractional Newco common share; and (ii) each AXIS common share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into the right to receive one Newco common share.

At the effective time, each PartnerRe preferred share and each AXIS preferred share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preferred share of Newco and will be entitled to the same dividend and other relative rights, preferences, limitations and restrictions as are now provided by the respective certificate of designation, preferences and rights of such PartnerRe preferred shares or AXIS preferred shares, respectively.

Background of the Amalgamation

The PartnerRe board of directors and senior management periodically review the company’s operations, financial condition and performance, and long-term strategic plan and objectives, as well as industry conditions, regulatory developments and their respective impact on PartnerRe’s long-term strategic plan and objectives. Over the past two years, the PartnerRe board of directors has reviewed and considered the current and future industry trends and risks to PartnerRe’s ability to execute its strategic plan as a stand-alone entity, including the impact of continuing consolidation in the reinsurance industry, and increasing competitive pricing from, among other things, consolidation of brokers and increasing participation in catastrophe markets by alternative sources of capital. The PartnerRe board of directors also reviewed the full range of strategic alternatives to continuing to execute its business plan as a stand-alone entity and concluded that continuing as a stand-alone entity and seeking to reposition the company in response to changing market conditions would be the most actionable alternative, and the most attractive alternative, for the shareholders of PartnerRe.

The PartnerRe board of directors identified four key factors that it believed would drive PartnerRe’s operational, financial and business growth as a stand-alone entity in the face of changing industry and market conditions. These factors were: (i) size and scale in both insurance and reinsurance markets; (ii) capabilities in the primary insurance market and the ability to dynamically deploy capital; (iii) ability to leverage third party capital in catastrophe and non-catastrophe markets; and (iv) pursuit of opportunistic acquisitions that would be accretive.

In September 2013, the senior management of PartnerRe presented a possible strategic acquisition candidate to the PartnerRe board of directors. The PartnerRe board of directors reviewed the merits and challenges of completing the possible acquisition proposed by the senior management, and after preliminary analysis and discussions with the senior management, the PartnerRe board of directors determined that it would be worthwhile exploring that acquisition further. In this regard, the PartnerRe board of directors established a transaction committee of the PartnerRe board of directors (the “PartnerRe Transaction Committee”) to further evaluate the possibility of proceeding with the transaction. The PartnerRe Transaction Committee was composed of Mr. Jean-Paul Montupet, Chairman of the PartnerRe board of directors, Mr. Costas Miranthis, the then-Chief Executive Officer of PartnerRe and a member of the PartnerRe board of directors, and Messrs. Roberto Mendoza and David Zwiener, each a member of the PartnerRe board of directors. After preliminary discussions, the PartnerRe Transaction Committee, while working with the senior management of PartnerRe, determined that the transaction with the counterparty was not actionable.

In early 2014, Mr. Miranthis had preliminary discussions with another counterparty in connection with a potential strategic transaction. Mr. Miranthis further discussed this matter with the members of the senior management of PartnerRe and representatives from Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP (“Davis Polk”), PartnerRe’s regular U.S. outside counsel, and Credit Suisse, with whom PartnerRe had a preexisting retainer agreement, which was later modified to cover the amalgamation with AXIS. In February 2014, Mr. Miranthis reported to the PartnerRe board of directors on the preliminary discussions he had had with the counterparty in connection with the potential strategic transaction. In his report, Mr. Miranthis identified potential synergies and strategic benefits of the possible transaction to the PartnerRe board of directors. After discussions with the senior management, the PartnerRe board of directors unanimously supported further dialogue with the counterparty. The PartnerRe board of directors authorized the PartnerRe Transaction Committee to evaluate the possible transaction and oversee discussions with the counterparty and directed the PartnerRe Transaction Committee to report back to the PartnerRe board of directors with respect to its findings.

After the February 2014 meeting of the PartnerRe board of directors, the PartnerRe Transaction Committee, with the assistance of senior management and advisors, explored and evaluated the terms of the potential transaction that it would be willing to pursue. The PartnerRe board of directors was subsequently briefed by the PartnerRe Transaction Committee and members of the senior management on the further preliminary discussions with such counterparty and unanimously authorized the PartnerRe Transaction Committee to explore, evaluate and negotiate the terms of a possible transaction with the identified counterparty, and any other strategic transaction that it would deem to be in the best interests of PartnerRe and its shareholders, and to recommend such transaction to the PartnerRe board of directors. In June 2014, after further discussions with the counterparty, the PartnerRe Transaction Committee concluded that no actionable transaction would be possible on such terms, and the PartnerRe Transaction Committee terminated discussions with such counterparty.

Following the termination of discussions, the PartnerRe board of directors directed senior management to consider other possible responses to the trends in the industry, including potential acquisitions and strategic options and to report their findings to the PartnerRe board of directors.

During the September and November 2014 meetings of the PartnerRe board of directors, the PartnerRe board of directors considered various strategic options to respond to changing industry trends presented by senior management, including potential transactions with a variety of primary insurance companies or participating in the consolidation of the reinsurance sector. At these meetings, members of the senior management gave an overview of certain challenges faced by the reinsurance industry and the strategic landscape, including a review of several potential candidates, which included AXIS. The PartnerRe board of directors then generally concluded that a transaction involving a company in the primary insurance market would be the logical next strategic step for PartnerRe because such a transaction, in comparison to a transaction with a pure-play reinsurance company, likely would lead to higher levels of value creation for PartnerRe’s shareholders by allowing PartnerRe to expand its business platforms and enter the primary insurance market. However, the PartnerRe board of directors discussed the fact that the primary insurance targets that PartnerRe believed it could viably acquire did not have sufficient market presence to enable PartnerRe to enter the primary insurance market in a meaningful manner. Furthermore, since primary insurance companies historically traded at higher multiples than reinsurance companies, the premium required for the acquisition of a primary insurance target likely would be dilutive to PartnerRe’s earnings per share. The PartnerRe board of directors considered that AXIS, with its roughly even split of reinsurance and insurance business, could be a merger partner that offered PartnerRe’s shareholders the opportunity to be invested in an entity with a primary insurance business and with an ability to consolidate in the reinsurance market while achieving significant financial and operational synergies, creating a combined company that would be well-positioned as a leader in the broker-based reinsurance distribution channel. The PartnerRe board of directors also considered that a strategic transaction between PartnerRe and AXIS would result in a combined company that would be in a significantly stronger financial and operational position. In light of these considerations, the PartnerRe board of directors thought that AXIS was an attractive strategic candidate that could accomplish all of PartnerRe's strategic goals, provided a transaction could be negotiated on the terms and conditions acceptable to PartnerRe and its shareholders.

Following the November 2014 meeting of the PartnerRe board of directors, the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee further discussed the strategic alternatives potentially available to PartnerRe at that time. The non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee discussed their belief that a combination with AXIS represented the most likely opportunity for PartnerRe to accomplish all of PartnerRe's strategic goals, but they would need to explore whether such a transaction was actionable in the form of a merger of equals. Given the rapidly growing trend of consolidation in the reinsurance market and in light of discussions at the November 2014 PartnerRe board of directors meeting, the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee determined that it was necessary to quickly understand whether AXIS would be receptive to a strategic transaction with PartnerRe. The non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee also determined that, since any merger of equals transaction with AXIS would raise questions about the leadership of the combined company, initial discussions regarding a proposed transaction with AXIS should be at the Chairman to Chairman level.

The AXIS board of directors and AXIS' senior management regularly review and evaluate their strategic plan and competitive positioning in the global insurance and reinsurance markets and regulatory developments with the goal of maximizing shareholder value. As part of their review process, the AXIS board of directors routinely analyzes the competitive landscape, including the trading price of its common shares, and the current environment in the industries in which AXIS operates. As part of this ongoing process the AXIS board of directors and senior management of AXIS from time to time consider a variety of potential alternatives including possible acquisitions and business combinations.

In June 2014, AXIS received an informal oral communication regarding a potential transaction. After consideration of all relevant factors by the AXIS board of directors and the senior management, the AXIS board of directors determined that it would be preferable for AXIS to continue to pursue its strategy as an independent company.

As part of its annual strategy session during its September 2014 meetings, the AXIS board of directors and senior management evaluated industry trends, AXIS' position in the insurance and reinsurance markets and various strategic options that may be available to AXIS. The evaluation included discussions of certain potential transactions in the insurance and reinsurance sectors. At these meetings, members of the senior management of AXIS also gave an overview of the strengths and challenges faced by the industry and the strategic landscape for AXIS' businesses. These topics were discussed in detail by the AXIS board of directors at the September 2014 board meetings and again at a meeting on December 5, 2014 in connection with the board of directors' annual review of the AXIS' business plans for the upcoming year.

In the first week of December, 2014, Mr. Mendoza contacted Mr. Michael Butt, the Chairman of AXIS, whom Mr. Mendoza had known professionally for several years, and invited Mr. Butt to have an introductory meeting with Mr. Montupet regarding a business proposal. As a result of years of business interactions, PartnerRe and AXIS were familiar with each other's respective reinsurance businesses. Mr. Butt reported his conversation with Mr. Mendoza to Mr. Albert Benchimol, the Chief Executive Officer of AXIS, and to some other members of the AXIS board of directors at a board dinner that evening.

On December 10, 2014, Mr. Montupet had an introductory telephone conversation with Mr. Butt. Messrs. Montupet and Butt discussed, among other things, the challenges facing the reinsurance industry and the high level of M&A activity and consolidation in the industry. In this context, Mr. Montupet suggested that it could be in the best interests of the two companies and their respective shareholders to explore a potential merger of equals between PartnerRe and AXIS. Mr. Butt advised Mr. Montupet that the AXIS board of directors had approved AXIS' strategic plan at its September board meeting and its 2015 business plan at its December board meeting and was confident in AXIS' ability to move forward as an independent company. However, Mr. Butt indicated that the possibility of a merger of equals transaction with PartnerRe could be of interest and that he would review the matter with the Executive Committee of the AXIS board of directors (the “Executive Committee”) and get back to him. After the call, Mr. Butt called Mr. Benchimol and advised him of his call with Mr. Montupet.

On December 11, 2014, Messrs. Butt and Benchimol had a lengthy meeting to discuss the potential transaction with PartnerRe. They also met with the AXIS Lead Independent Director, Mr. Henry Smith. The members of the Executive Committee, Messrs. Butt, Benchimol, Smith and Charles A. Davis, then met by phone and discussed the inquiry Mr. Butt had received from Mr. Montupet. The Executive Committee discussed the advantages and disadvantages associated with the PartnerRe proposal as compared to the standalone prospects of AXIS as well as the potential for alternative transactions that might offer greater value to AXIS’ shareholders. The consensus of the Executive Committee was that while AXIS was comfortable with its current strategy as an independent company, given the parties’ respective reinsurance businesses and the environment for transactions in the reinsurance market, they may be interested in further exploring a merger of equals with PartnerRe. The directors also discussed in detail the potential composition of the board of directors and management of a combined entity and Messers. Butt, Smith and Davis expressed the desire that Mr. Benchimol assume the role of Chief Executive Officer of the combined company because, among other reasons, of his familiarity with both companies. The directors also noted that Mr. Benchimol’s future role was a necessary condition to be resolved before AXIS would agree to a meeting with the representatives of PartnerRe. Mr. Butt also discussed with two other directors whether they would support exploratory talks with PartnerRe on the basis outlined by the Executive Committee. Both of the other directors supported such talks. They, along with the Executive Committee, recommended that this matter should be discussed with the full AXIS board of directors at an early opportunity.

On December 12, 2014, Mr. Butt called Mr. Montupet and indicated that AXIS was interested in exploring a potential merger of equals with PartnerRe, but noted that its willingness to do so was conditioned on Mr. Benchimol being appointed as the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company. Mr. Butt indicated that, consistent with a merger of equals structure, PartnerRe could appoint Mr. Montupet as the Chairman of the board of the combined company, with the key members of the management of the combined company coming from both parties. Mr. Montupet told Mr. Butt that PartnerRe would consider this proposal and revert to Mr. Butt in a few days.

Thereafter, the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee further discussed the response from AXIS, including discussions with a representative from Davis Polk. The non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee concluded that it would be in the best interests of PartnerRe and its shareholders to continue exploratory discussions with AXIS. The non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee also discussed AXIS' requirement that Mr. Benchimol be appointed the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company in the event of a transaction. The PartnerRe Transaction Committee concluded that Mr. Benchimol would be the more suitable candidate to lead the combined company and would be well-placed to position the combined company for success and achieve the potential synergies afforded by the proposed transaction because he had extensive experience in managing primary insurance business due to his employment at AXIS and was already familiar with the PartnerRe business and to the senior management of PartnerRe and the PartnerRe board of directors given his past employment with PartnerRe, including 10 years as the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (including his position as the Chief Executive Officer of the Capital Markets Group during his last three years at PartnerRe), during which time he had earned the confidence of and developed strong working relationships with the members of the PartnerRe board of directors.

On December 15, 2014, Mr. Montupet informed Mr. Butt that, subject to final approval by the PartnerRe board of directors, the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee were amenable to AXIS' proposal that Mr. Benchimol be appointed the Chief Executive Officer of the combined business if the other key terms of a proposed transaction could be agreed. Mr. Butt reaffirmed that Mr. Montupet could be appointed as the Chairman of the board of the combined company and proposed that the board of the combined company have equal representation from both companies. On the same call, Messrs. Montupet and Butt agreed to an in-person meeting between the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee and representatives of AXIS, which meeting was subsequently scheduled for January 6, 2015, and agreed that it would be determined at a later date which PartnerRe and AXIS senior officers would be senior officers of the combined company. Later that day, representatives of AXIS began due diligence of publicly available information regarding PartnerRe.

The AXIS board of directors had a telephonic meeting on December 16, 2014 in which management described the PartnerRe business, discussed the benefits and challenges of a potential strategic transaction with PartnerRe and considered the various financial, structural, process related, legal, timing and other relevant aspects of such a transaction. The AXIS board of directors also evaluated the value to AXIS' shareholders of the consolidated companies versus the current business plan. It also considered the industry market conditions and challenges and the potential impact of future industry consolidation. A further discussion ensued regarding Mr. Benchimol's appointment as Chief Executive Officer of the amalgamated company and the next steps associated with a response to PartnerRe regarding their proposal. Following these discussions, the AXIS board of directors authorized Messrs. Butt and Benchimol to have more detailed discussions with the representatives of PartnerRe.

Between December 19 and 22, 2014, Mr. Montupet individually called each of the non-executive members of the PartnerRe board of directors and informed them of the recent developments with AXIS regarding a potential no-premium merger of equals. All non-executive PartnerRe board of directors members were supportive of continuing discussions with AXIS, including proceeding on the basis that Mr. Benchimol be appointed the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company.

On January 6, 2015, the planned meeting between the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee and Messrs. Butt and Benchimol took place. At the meeting, Mr. Benchimol presented an analysis that he and AXIS senior management had prepared utilizing publicly available information of both companies that summarize his vision for the combined business, including how to achieve the benefits of increased size and scale, as well as estimates for potential synergies that could be achieved by a strategic transaction. The participants discussed the potential business and strategic benefits that could result from a strategic transaction. AXIS proposed that the respective ownership percentages of the combined company of each party be set at 50/50 and that the initial board of the combined company comprise 13 members, six to be designated by PartnerRe and AXIS each with the last member being the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company. PartnerRe made a counter-proposal that the respective ownership percentages of the combined company of the shareholders of each party should reflect each party's respective current market capitalizations and relative tangible book value and that, consistent with the past discussions between Messrs. Butt and Montupet, the initial board of the combined company should have equal representation from both parties, further proposing that the initial board should comprise 12 members, with six to be designated by PartnerRe and AXIS each. The parties also started discussions on potential senior officers of the combined company. The parties did not reach agreement on the respective ownership percentages of the combined company of each party or the board composition of the combined company. Later that day, Messrs. Montupet and Butt further discussed the issue of the basis on which the respective board representation and ownership percentage of the combined company of each party should be determined in the context of the proposed transaction.

Following the meeting, the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee discussed Mr. Benchimol's vision for the combined company, including the strategic benefits of a merger of equals with AXIS and determined that it was in the best interests of PartnerRe and its shareholders to continue discussions with AXIS. The non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee further discussed AXIS' proposal on the respective ownership percentages of the combined company of each party, the board composition of the combined company and a counter-proposal on these issues that Mr. Montupet would deliver to AXIS.

On January 7, 2015, Mr. Montupet had a telephone conversation with Mr. Butt. On this call, Mr. Montupet stated that the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee would be willing to recommend to the PartnerRe board of directors an ownership split of the combined company taking into consideration each party's current relative tangible book value and respective market capitalizations resulting in a proposed ownership split of the combined company of 51.6% and 48.4% for PartnerRe and AXIS, respectively. During the same call, Mr. Butt proposed that the combined company have an initial board of 14 directors, seven to be designated by PartnerRe (including Mr. Montupet, who would be appointed as the Chairman of the board of the combined company) and seven to be designated by AXIS (including Mr. Benchimol, who would be appointed as the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company). Mr. Montupet responded to the proposal by stating that the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee would be willing to recommend Mr. Butt's proposal on the board composition if AXIS agreed to the PartnerRe proposal on ownership percentages. Mr. Butt agreed to discuss these positions regarding the respective ownership split of the combined company and board composition with the AXIS board of directors at a telephonic meeting of the AXIS board of directors scheduled for later the same day, and revert to Mr. Montupet with the decision of the AXIS board of directors.

Later that day the AXIS board of directors had a telephonic meeting to discuss the status of negotiations. The board of directors of AXIS discussed the proposed valuation and considered whether the potential transaction was in the best interests of its shareholders. Mr. Benchimol reviewed the potential senior management roster and discussed potential financial advisors should the transaction move forward. The AXIS board of directors continued to express interest in a potential strategic transaction with PartnerRe and authorized Mr. Butt to proceed on the basis of the proposed ownership split of the combined company of 51.6%/48.4%, the proposal that AXIS and PartnerRe each designate seven members of the combined entity's initial board of directors and that Mr. Benchimol be the Chief Executive Officer and Mr. Montupet the Chairman of the board of the combined company. Later the same day, following the AXIS board of directors meeting, Mr. Butt informed Mr. Montupet of the decisions made by the AXIS board of directors at its meeting earlier that day. They then discussed the next steps in pursuing the potential transaction, which included more detailed analysis of the transaction, mutual due diligence, refining the estimates of synergies and negotiation of definitive transaction documents.

Between January 7, 2015 and January 15, 2015, progress continued on several work streams. Mr. Montupet discussed with Mr. Miranthis the status of negotiations with AXIS and his role in the potential transaction, including whether it would be in PartnerRe's and his mutual best interest for him to continue to serve as the Chief Executive Officer of PartnerRe until closing of the proposed transaction, or separate from PartnerRe at signing so he could explore other opportunities. Mr. Montupet discussed with Mr. Zwiener his willingness to serve as the interim Chief Executive Officer of PartnerRe between signing and closing given his extensive experience, including senior management experience, in the insurance and other financial industries that would make him a well-qualified candidate for the position. AXIS and PartnerRe also negotiated a mutual confidentiality agreement containing a customary, mutual one-year standstill provision. The parties also continued to explore and refine their understanding of key issues, including the structure of the proposed transaction, other terms that needed to be negotiated, and composition of the board committees, and made preparations for detailed due diligence.

On January 14, 2015, Mr. Montupet contacted Mr. Butt and proposed to have a meeting of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee and Messrs. Butt and Benchimol on January 21, 2015 to further discuss the potential strategic transaction. Mr. Butt agreed to have a meeting, subject to confirming the date with Mr. Benchimol.

On January 16, 2015, Messrs. Montupet and Benchimol discussed the proposed agenda for the scheduled January 21 meeting.

Also on January 16, 2015, the PartnerRe board of directors held a special meeting by telephone, during which the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee reported on the recent developments in connection with the proposed transaction between PartnerRe and AXIS. A representative of Davis Polk also joined the meeting. Among other things, the PartnerRe board of directors discussed the potential business and strategic benefits of such transaction, possible deal structures, due diligence matters and cultural issues. The PartnerRe board of directors supported the PartnerRe Transaction Committee's recommendation to accept, subject to completion of due diligence and satisfactory negotiation of open items, a split of ownership of the combined company of 51.6% and 48.4%, the proposal that AXIS and PartnerRe each designate seven members of the combined entity's initial board of directors and AXIS' precondition that Mr. Benchimol be the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company.

At the same meeting, the PartnerRe board of directors also discussed the leadership of PartnerRe in the event of entering into definitive transaction documents with AXIS and discussed the possibility of a leadership change, including the possibility of Mr. Zwiener being appointed as the interim Chief Executive Officer.

On January 17, 2015, the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee met with the representatives of Davis Polk and Credit Suisse to plan the next steps in the proposed transaction with AXIS, including the expected signing timeline, structure of the transaction, minimizing the transaction execution risk, planning for the possibility of a leak, and due diligence approach. Given AXIS' and PartnerRe's significant, preexisting understanding of each other's respective businesses and operations and the availability of substantially final financial information for the most recently completed fiscal year, representatives of AXIS and PartnerRe discussed with their advisors that there was an opportunity for an efficient due diligence process. In order to minimize the risks to the potential transaction posed by a possible leak, the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee determined to explore with AXIS the possibility of completing due diligence and negotiating definitive transaction documents expeditiously, tentatively targeting the announcement of the transaction prior to January 26, 2015. Later that day, Mr. Montupet and Mr. Benchimol met to discuss the timing of the potential transaction and agreed to proceed towards signing by January 26, 2015, provided that it was possible to complete satisfactory due diligence and finalize definitive transaction documents. Mr. Benchimol contacted Mr. Butt and discussed with him the outcome of his meeting with Mr. Montupet, and Mr. Butt concurred with the action plan that had been discussed during the meeting. Mr. Benchimol and Mr. Butt agreed that it would be appropriate to retain Goldman Sachs as the financial advisor to the AXIS board of directors, due to its extensive experience advising companies in the insurance and reinsurance industries in which AXIS and PartnerRe operate. Later the same day, Mr. Benchimol reached out to formally engage Goldman Sachs as AXIS' financial advisor, having initially contacted Goldman Sachs earlier in the week.

On January 18, 2015, the PartnerRe Transaction Committee met with the senior management of PartnerRe to plan due diligence and the next phases of the proposed transaction with AXIS. Also on January 18 members of senior management of AXIS met with representatives of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP ("Simpson Thacher"), regular outside legal counsel to AXIS, and Goldman Sachs to discuss the key financial elements of the proposed transaction with PartnerRe, significant details relating to the proposed transaction structure and the diligence procedure, timeline and milestones that would need to be met to ensure that the negotiation and execution of definitive transaction agreements proceeded as expeditiously as possible.

On January 19, 2015, a meeting of the board of directors of AXIS took place. Mr. Butt began with an update by noting that he and Mr. Montupet had agreed on several material matters, including that the respective ownership percentages of PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders in the amalgamated company would be 51.6% and 48.4%, respectively, that the initial board of directors of the amalgamated company would be comprised equally of PartnerRe and AXIS appointed directors and that Messrs. Benchimol and Montupet would be the Chief Executive Officer and the Chairman of the board of the amalgamated company, respectively. Mr. Butt also noted that a due diligence work plan was established after Mr. Butt, members of the AXIS management and AXIS' legal and financial advisors met with the PartnerRe management and PartnerRe's advisors on January 18, 2015. Mr. Benchimol then reported on the details of the due diligence work plan and the management's preliminary due diligence findings in respect of PartnerRe. The AXIS board of directors discussed certain governance matters of the amalgamated company, including their support for Mr. Benchimol to assume the Chief Executive Officer position of the amalgamated company.

From January 19 to January 24, 2015, representatives from PartnerRe and AXIS, along with their financial and legal advisors, engaged in extensive confidential due diligence of each other's financial, actuarial, accounting, operational, regulatory, legal, human resources, information technology and business profiles. Over the course of this time, representatives from PartnerRe and AXIS participated in various detailed in-person meetings and conference calls to discuss their areas of respective expertise and identify the potential risks and merits of the proposed strategic transaction. As needed, additional meetings and conference calls were scheduled to address follow-up diligence requests and questions. These meetings and calls were attended by a large number of representatives of both parties, including members of their senior management. Both parties provided each other access to electronic data rooms with substantial nonpublic information for due diligence purposes. In addition to the information gathered during in-person meetings, the senior management of both companies and their respective advisors continued to review both public and nonpublic information made available in the data rooms to supplement their in-person due diligence activities. The non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee and representatives from AXIS, including Messrs. Butt and Benchimol and their respective advisors also further discussed issues related to due diligence, composition of the board committees and management of the combined company and requirements related to the appointment and removal of the Chief Executive Officer and the Chairman of the board of the directors of the combined company. In addition, representatives from Davis Polk and Simpson Thacher began discussing structuring alternatives for combining the companies and the terms of a transaction agreement. During this period, at the end of each day, each of AXIS and PartnerRe would also convene with their respective representatives to deliberate on the most significant findings that were emerging from their ongoing evaluation and analyses, the status of the due diligence process, and the next steps to be taken in the transaction process.

In the early hours of January 20, 2015, Simpson Thacher sent its initial draft of the Agreement and Plan of Amalgamation (as subsequently revised by the parties prior to execution of the definitive agreement, the "Draft Agreement") to Davis Polk.

On January 20, 2015, the PartnerRe board of directors received an in-person detailed briefing (with one director participating by audio conference and another director participating by video conference) from the senior management, non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee and representatives from Davis Polk and Credit Suisse on interim due diligence findings, the merits of, and risks associated with, the proposed transaction, the status of negotiations on the terms of the deal and proposed timeline to signing. Mr. Miranthis also expressed his support for the proposed transaction and explained its merits to the PartnerRe board of directors. The PartnerRe board of directors supported the senior management team and the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee continuing to pursue the proposed transaction with AXIS, complete due diligence and finalize the definitive transaction documents.

Between January 20 and January 25, 2015, the parties completed the due diligence and negotiated the definitive transaction documents. Representatives from Davis Polk, Credit Suisse, senior management of PartnerRe and the non-executive members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee negotiated the terms of the Draft Agreement with the representatives from Simpson Thacher, AXIS and Goldman Sachs. Representatives from Simpson Thacher gave daily briefings regarding the status of legal due diligence to AXIS management during this period. The key issues negotiated among the parties included, among other things, termination rights, termination fees, other deal protection provisions, conditions to closing, transaction structure, retention arrangements for employees and treatment of options and awards in the proposed transaction.

The AXIS board of directors had a telephonic meeting on January 22, 2015 to discuss the status of due diligence and negotiations on the material terms of the transaction and certain open terms of the proposed transaction. Senior members of the AXIS management team briefed the AXIS board of directors on their preliminary business and operational due diligence findings. Representatives of Goldman Sachs reviewed its preliminary financial analysis of the proposed transaction, while representatives of Simpson Thacher briefed the AXIS board of directors on certain open points in the negotiation of the definitive transaction agreement. During their deliberations, members of the AXIS board of directors asked and received answers to a number of questions of senior management, Goldman Sachs and Simpson Thacher. In addition, the AXIS board of directors discussed strategic rationales for the transaction, the key financial assumptions of the proposed transaction as well as potential negative considerations. The AXIS board of directors also examined other potential acquisition or merger partners for each of AXIS and PartnerRe. The AXIS board of directors and the senior management team at AXIS also discussed the expectation as to which individuals would fill certain key management positions at the combined company.

On January 23, 2015 the parties agreed to an exchange ratio of 2.18 common shares of the combined company for each common share of PartnerRe and 1 common share for each common share of AXIS to achieve the previously agreed split of ownership of 51.6% and 48.4%.

On January 25, 2015, the PartnerRe board of directors held an in-person meeting (with two directors participating by audio conference), which was also attended by the senior management of PartnerRe and representatives from Credit Suisse, Davis Polk and Appleby (Bermuda) Limited (“Appleby”). Prior to the meeting, the members of the PartnerRe board of directors had been provided with a set of meeting materials, including a summary of the fiduciary duties of the PartnerRe board of directors under applicable law and other Bermuda law aspects of the proposed transaction prepared by Appleby, a summary of the key terms and conditions of the Draft Agreement prepared by Davis Polk, certain financial analyses prepared by Credit Suisse, as further described below under “The Amalgamation Opinion of PartnerRe’s Financial Advisor”, and a summary of the key findings of the due diligence of AXIS’ business prepared by PartnerRe’s senior management and review of the strategic rationale and risks associated with the transaction. At the meeting, Mr. Montupet reviewed the course of negotiations with AXIS since the last board meeting. Members of PartnerRe’s senior management reported that they had completed the due diligence of financial, operational, legal and business aspects of AXIS, and discussed in detail, among other things, the strategic, operational and financial rationale of the proposed transaction, key considerations for the PartnerRe board of directors in connection with the proposed transaction, key findings from their due diligence of AXIS, estimated cost synergies and capital efficiencies and the effect of the proposed transaction on enhancing the combined company’s ability to effectively channel third party capital. A representative of Credit Suisse presented to the PartnerRe board of directors various financial analyses prepared by Credit Suisse, as further described below under “The Amalgamation Opinion of PartnerRe’s Financial Advisor”, in connection with the proposed transaction. In connection with the deliberations of the PartnerRe board of directors, Credit Suisse then delivered to the PartnerRe board of directors its oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated January 25, 2015, to the effect that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, procedures, factors, qualifications and limitations set forth in such opinion, the exchange ratio pursuant to the Draft Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to PartnerRe and its common shareholders, as more fully described below under “The Amalgamation Opinion of PartnerRe’s Financial Advisor”. A representative of Davis Polk summarized the proposed transaction structure, governance matters, key terms of the definitive transaction documents and the expected closing timeline for the benefit of the PartnerRe board of directors. A representative of Appleby also reviewed with the PartnerRe board of directors the fiduciary duties of the directors under Bermuda law and other Bermuda law aspects of the proposed transaction. After considering the proposed terms of the Draft Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and the various presentations of its legal and financial advisors and senior management team of PartnerRe, and taking into consideration the matters discussed during that meeting and prior meetings and briefings of the PartnerRe board of directors, the PartnerRe Transaction Committee and prior discussions with PartnerRe’s senior management, including the factors described under “The Amalgamation PartnerRe’s Reasons for the Amalgamation and Recommendation of PartnerRe’s Board of Directors” below, the PartnerRe board of directors unanimously resolved that the proposed amalgamation, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Draft Agreement, was in the best interest of PartnerRe and its shareholders and approved the proposed amalgamation, recommended adoption of the Draft Agreement by PartnerRe's shareholders and authorized PartnerRe to enter into the Draft Agreement.

At the same meeting, the PartnerRe board of directors approved the appointment of Mr. Zwiener, effective immediately, as interim Chief Executive Officer of PartnerRe as well as a separation agreement with Mr. Miranthis.

Also, on January 25, 2015, the AXIS board of directors met (with three directors participating by video or audio conference) with members of management and representatives of Goldman Sachs, Simpson Thacher and AXIS' Bermuda Counsel, Conyers Dill & Pearman Limited ("Conyers"). Prior to the meeting, members of the AXIS board of directors had received a set of meeting materials from the AXIS management and AXIS' financial and legal advisors, including certain financial analyses of the proposed transaction prepared by Goldman Sachs, a summary of material conditions and terms of the proposed amalgamation agreement prepared by Simpson Thacher and a summary of the fiduciary duties of the AXIS board of directors under Bermuda law prepared by Conyers. Members of AXIS management discussed their due diligence findings and their determination of potential cost synergies from the transaction and responded to questions from the directors with respect thereto. Representatives of Goldman Sachs reviewed its financial analysis of the proposed transaction and answered questions from the meeting participants in connection therewith. The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus, is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety, and is further described in the section titled "The Amalgamation—Opinion of AXIS' Financial Advisor." The directors discussed the reasons for the transaction and challenges of the transaction, reexamined the key financial assumptions made, the potential for regulatory or other material impediments to closing. Simpson Thacher addressed and responded to questions from the directors regarding the summary of deal terms previously provided to the AXIS board of directors. Representatives of Conyers reviewed with the AXIS board of directors its fiduciary duties in connection with the proposed transaction under Bermuda law. A representative of Goldman Sachs then delivered to the AXIS board of directors its oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated January 25, 2015, as of that date and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations stated therein the Company exchange ratio pursuant to the Draft Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders (other than PartnerRe and its affiliates) of AXIS common shares. At the meeting the AXIS board of directors also reviewed the expected senior leadership team of the amalgamated company which included, in addition to Mr. Benchimol, Messrs. Joseph Henry as Chief Financial Officer (currently Chief Financial Officer of AXIS), William Babcock, currently Chief Financial Officer of PartnerRe, as Deputy Chief Financial Officer of Newco and Lead Integration Officer and who would assume the role of Chief Financial Officer of Newco upon the retirement of Mr. Henry in July 2016, Peter Wilson as Chief Executive Officer of Insurance (currently Chief Executive Officer of AXIS Insurance), Chris DiSipio as Chief Executive Officer of Life, Accident and Health (currently Chief Executive Officer of AXIS Accident and Health), Emmanuel Clarke as Chief Executive Officer of Reinsurance (currently Chief Executive Officer of PartnerRe Global) and John (Jay) Nichols as Executive Vice President of Strategic Business Development and Capital Solutions (currently Chief Executive Officer of AXIS Re). Following a discussion of the proposed transaction, which included the factors described under "The Amalgamation—AXIS' Reasons for the Amalgamation and Recommendation of AXIS' Board of Directors" below, the AXIS board of directors unanimously voted to approve the Draft Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and authorized management of AXIS to take action designed to accomplish the transactions contemplated thereby.

Later the same day, the Draft Agreement was executed and the merger of equals was announced through a joint press release.

PartnerRe's Reasons for the Amalgamation and Recommendation of PartnerRe's Board of Directors

The PartnerRe board of directors believes that the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the amalgamation, are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of PartnerRe and its shareholders. Accordingly, the PartnerRe board of directors has approved the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and unanimously recommends that the PartnerRe shareholders vote "FOR" adoption of the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the amalgamation.

As described above under the section titled "Background of the Amalgamation," the PartnerRe board of directors, prior to and in reaching its decision at its meeting on January 25, 2015 to approve the Draft Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, consulted with PartnerRe's management and financial and legal advisors and considered a variety of potentially positive factors relating to the amalgamation, including, but not limited to, the following:

Strategic Reasons

- the transaction represents a unique opportunity to implement PartnerRe's long-term strategic plan
- the transaction represents an attractive route to entering into the important primary insurance business with an established global leader and to diversifying PartnerRe's exposure to the reinsurance industry;
 - consideration of current and future industry trends and the risks to PartnerRe's ability to execute its strategic plan as a stand-alone entity, including the impact of continuing consolidation in the reinsurance industry and increasing competitive pricing from, among other things, consolidation of brokers and increasing participation in catastrophe markets by alternative capital sources;
- the superior future earnings and growth prospects as an amalgamated company means that it will be better able to withstand and oversee the substantial challenges facing each company and the industry more generally;
- the potential to increase return on equity for holders over the long term and be accretive to both companies' earnings and to both companies' shareholders in terms of book value per converted share after the amalgamation;
- consideration of other alternatives to the transaction available to PartnerRe, including remaining a stand-alone entity, seeking to grow in the reinsurance market through the acquisition of new reinsurance businesses, the acquisition of a standalone pure primary insurance business, or a combination of the foregoing, or the sale of it or substantially all of its assets to a third-party;

Business of the Amalgamated Company

- the transaction will create a top 5 global property and casualty reinsurance leader, and a leader in the broker-based reinsurance distribution channel, with premiums in excess of $10 billion, cash and invested assets of approximately of $32 billion, shareholders' equity over $13 billion and total capitalization over $14 billion;
- the possible significant synergies in the areas of reduced public company costs, consolidated corporate governance, reduced labor and shared platform costs estimated to be at least $200 million, plus part of the cost reductions previously announced by AXIS and corresponding impact on the amalgamated company's earnings, and the belief that the amalgamated company would have superior future earnings and growth prospects than the entities alone;

the amalgamated company would have greater capital efficiency and enhanced ability to respond to competitive pressures, greater diversification opportunities, increased opportunity to compete profitably and to grow its business or return additional funds to shareholders;

- the amalgamated company would be much better positioned than each standalone company to consider and pursue future acquisitions;
- the potential to create a leading, diversified insurance and reinsurance company with global reach, including greater product offerings and improved market positions;
- the amalgamated company will have a more diversified pool of underwriting risk by product and geography (reducing volatility of earnings and cash flows and delivering more stable results under a wider range of market conditions);
- the amalgamated company should have less concentrated distribution relationships and an improved trading relevance;
- an increased customer base and potential to attract new customers because of the amalgamated company's greater scale, scope and reach;

Table of Contents

- the amalgamated company should have low balance sheet risk given both entities' high quality investment portfolio and prudent reserving philosophies;
 - the enhanced ability to access third-party capital to fund risks and generate income;
 - the belief that the amalgamated company will benefit from strong financial strength ratings;
- the knowledge that each company has of its own (and of the other company's) business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects, including the results of the company's due diligence review of the other company;
 - the transaction will preserve the existing tax structures and treatments of each party;

Terms of the Transaction

- the structure of the transaction as a "merger of equals:"
 - o seven of 14 members of the new company's board of directors will be designated by PartnerRe;
 - o Chairman of the board of directors will be designated by PartnerRe;
 - o Chief Executive Officer will be AXIS' current Chief Executive Officer;
 - o key members of PartnerRe's management and board of directors would continue with the new company;
- o PartnerRe shareholders would hold 51.6% of the amalgamated company, on a fully diluted basis, following consummation of the amalgamation;
- o the amalgamated company's board committee assignments would be split evenly among designees from both PartnerRe and AXIS' boards, with PartnerRe designees as chairpersons of three of the six committees;
- the fact that the exchange ratio of 2.18 shares of the amalgamated company for each PartnerRe share is fixed, consistent with market practice for combinations of this type, and provides certainty to shareholders of both entities as to their aggregate pro forma percentage ownership of the amalgamated company;
- the expectation that the amalgamation would be treated as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares;
- detailed financial analysis and other information with respect to PartnerRe and AXIS presented by management and Credit Suisse, including Credit Suisse's opinion to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion, and based on and subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, the PartnerRe exchange ratio provided for in the amalgamation was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of PartnerRe common shares. A copy of Credit Suisse's written opinion is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B;

Management Teams

- each of PartnerRe's and AXIS' highly experienced management teams with extensive industry experience in facets of the insurance and reinsurance industry;

- the similar business and management approaches of each of PartnerRe and AXIS, including emphasis on independent agents and brokers and performance-based cultures, will ease integration process;
- the belief that there would be limited integration risk due to the similar risk cultures of the two companies with respect to underwriting discipline and risk management and due to the familiarity that the amalgamated company's Chief Executive Officer has with the management team and operations of both the PartnerRe and AXIS businesses;
- the fact that key members of the AXIS management team have worked for both companies and that many employees of both companies know each other due to the proximate location of the two companies;
- the historical and current information about each of the companies and their business prospects, financial performance and condition, technology, management and competitive positions;

Terms of the amalgamation agreement

- the specific terms of the amalgamation agreement, including:

o PartnerRe’s ability, under certain circumstances, to consider and respond to an unsolicited proposal for the acquisition of 15% or more of the shares or assets of PartnerRe or engage in discussions or negotiations with the third-party making such a proposal, in each case if the PartnerRe board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor) that such “acquisition proposal” either constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a “superior proposal” (as such terms are defined and described in the section titled “—The Amalgamation Agreement—No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals”);

o the ability of the PartnerRe board of directors to change its recommendation that PartnerRe shareholders vote in favor of adoption of the amalgamation agreement if, in response to an acquisition proposal, the PartnerRe board of directors has determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors) that the failure to take such action would violate the directors’ fiduciary duties under applicable law and the PartnerRe board of directors had determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors) that such proposal constitutes a superior proposal (see the section titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals”);

o the reciprocal requirement that the amalgamation agreement be submitted to a vote of the shareholders of both companies;

o the fact that in certain circumstances, if the transaction is not consummated, PartnerRe will be entitled to receive a termination fee of up to $250 million and be reimbursed for certain expenses incurred by PartnerRe in connection with the amalgamation (up to $35 million);

- the fact that the amalgamation agreement allows PartnerRe to continue to declare and pay regular quarterly cash dividends consistent with past practice;
 - the likelihood that the amalgamation will be consummated because of the limited number of conditions to the amalgamation and each party’s commitment to obtain regulatory approvals;
- the requirement under Bermuda law that if the amalgamation is approved by shareholders, those who do not vote in favor of approval have the right to demand appraisal of their shares pursuant to Bermuda law; and
 - the lack of any financing requirement or condition to the amalgamation.

In the course of its deliberations, the PartnerRe board of directors, in consultation with PartnerRe management and legal and financial advisors, also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors relating to the amalgamation, including the following:

- the risk that the potential benefits sought in the amalgamation, including anticipated synergies, might not be realized;
 - the possibility that the amalgamation might not be completed, or that the consummation might be delayed;
- the risk that despite the efforts of the amalgamated company, key technical and management personnel might not remain employed by the amalgamated company;
- the loss of PartnerRe’s Chief Executive Officer and the need for the PartnerRe board of directors to appoint an interim Chief Executive Officer for the period up to the closing of the transaction;

- the fact that, at the time the PartnerRe board of directors approved the transaction, a conclusion had not been reached on which party would be the accounting acquirer or the accounting consequences thereof;
- the risk of diverting management focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and operational matters while implementing the amalgamation;
- the risk that either PartnerRe shareholders or AXIS shareholders may fail to adopt the amalgamation agreement and approve the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement;
- the potential negative effect of the pendency of the amalgamation on PartnerRe's business and relationships with customers, vendors, business partners and employees, including the risk that key employees might not choose to remain employed with PartnerRe prior to the consummation of the amalgamation, regardless of whether or not the amalgamation is completed;
 - the fact that AXIS' current loss reserve provisions may not be as expected;

Table of Contents

- the risk that governmental entities may oppose or refuse to approve the amalgamation or impose conditions on PartnerRe and/or AXIS prior to approving the amalgamation;
 - the specific terms of the amalgamation agreement, including:
 - o the terms of the amalgamation agreement placing certain limitations on the ability of PartnerRe to initiate, solicit or take any action to knowingly facilitate or knowingly encourage any inquiries or requests for information by a third-party with respect to an acquisition proposal and to furnish non-public information to, or engage in discussions or negotiations with, a third-party interested in pursuing an alternative business combination transaction;
 - o the fact that PartnerRe must pay AXIS a termination fee of $250 million and reimburse certain expenses incurred by AXIS in connection with the amalgamation (up to $35 million) if the amalgamation agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, or which may become payable following a termination of the amalgamation agreement in circumstances where no alternative transaction or superior proposal is ultimately consummated (which fee the PartnerRe board of directors determined was reasonable and customary);
 - o that if PartnerRe's shareholders vote against the proposal to adopt the amalgamation agreement, PartnerRe may be required to pay AXIS a termination fee of $55 million and reimburse certain expenses incurred by AXIS in connection with the amalgamation (up to $35 million) (which fee the PartnerRe board of directors determined was reasonable and customary);
 - o the fact that PartnerRe is required to put the proposal to adopt the amalgamation agreement to a vote of its shareholders in all circumstances, including if the PartnerRe board of directors has changed its recommendation;
 - o the fact that PartnerRe does not have the right under the terms of the amalgamation agreement to change its recommendation in circumstances not involving a superior proposal;
 - o the restrictions on the conduct of PartnerRe's business during the pendency of the amalgamation; and
- various other factors associated with the amalgamation and the businesses of PartnerRe and the amalgamated company described in the section titled "Risk Factors".

The PartnerRe board of directors concluded, however, that these negative factors could be managed or mitigated by PartnerRe or by the amalgamated company or were either unlikely to occur or unlikely to have a material impact on the amalgamation or the amalgamated company. Further, the PartnerRe board of directors considered each of the restrictions that the terms of the amalgamation agreement placed on PartnerRe's business and its ability to seek or consummate an alternative business combination and concluded that these restrictions were reasonable and customary in a transaction of this nature. Overall, the PartnerRe board of directors concluded that the potentially negative factors associated with the amalgamation were outweighed by the potential benefits of the amalgamation.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the PartnerRe board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but rather a summary of the material factors considered by the PartnerRe board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the amalgamation agreement, including the amalgamation and other transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement, the PartnerRe board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The PartnerRe board of directors considered the various factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, PartnerRe management and PartnerRe's financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by PartnerRe's board of directors is forward-looking in nature. This information should be read in light of the factors described under the section titled "Forward-Looking Statements" included elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

AXIS' Reasons for the Amalgamation and Recommendation of the AXIS Board of Directors

In deciding to approve the amalgamation agreement and to recommend approval of the amalgamation to AXIS' shareholders, AXIS' board of directors considered a number of factors. Based on its experience in, and understanding of, opportunities related to the reinsurance and insurance industries and based on the due diligence of PartnerRe conducted by AXIS' management, AXIS' board of directors believes combining AXIS and PartnerRe and leveraging their complementary strengths will deliver greater value to its stakeholders by significantly enhancing its scale, strategic flexibility, talent, capital, and operating efficiencies. With added scale, particularly in the reinsurance business, and stronger positioning across three major businesses of the amalgamated company, the amalgamation offers greater flexibility to optimize both growth and profitability. The amalgamated company's reinsurance business will be positioned as a top five global property and casualty reinsurance franchise and a leading broker-based reinsurer. AXIS' global specialty insurance business would benefit immediately from additional revenues and expanded geographic distribution, and with the backing of a much larger capital base, will have significant incremental ability to invest in growth. The amalgamated company's global specialty insurance business will have in excess of $2.5 billion in premiums across a diversified array of product lines. Achievement of targeted returns in AXIS' stand-alone Accident and Health initiative would be accelerated and strongly complemented by the life, accident and health business of PartnerRe as there is minimal overlap. The combined $1.5 billion life accident and health business would rank among the top 10 global life reinsurers and among the top three accident and health reinsurers in the United States. AXIS' board of directors also considered that these better-positioned businesses would be harnessed to the significantly greater combined financial resources of AXIS and PartnerRe. The combination of AXIS and PartnerRe will produce one of the strongest balance sheets in the industry with approximately $13 billion in shareholders' equity, greater than $14 billion in total capital, and approximately $32 billion in cash and invested assets. The new company is expected to be characterized by a strong ability to generate and deploy capital as a result of its combined earnings power (driven by enhanced market positioning, expense savings and other synergies), capital efficiencies made possible by the transaction and increased use of third party capital to leverage larger production capabilities.

For these foregoing reasons and the additional reasons set forth below, AXIS' board of directors believed these benefits outweighed the risks associated with the amalgamation. In view of the number and wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the amalgamation, AXIS' board of directors did not attempt to quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors it considered in reaching its determination, and individual directors may have given different weight to different information and factors. AXIS' board of directors viewed its approval and recommendation of the amalgamation as being based on the totality of the information and factors presented to and considered by it. In reaching its decision, AXIS' board of directors consulted with AXIS' management with respect to strategic and operational matters. AXIS' board of directors also consulted with its financial advisor, Goldman Sachs, with respect to the financial aspects of the transaction and AXIS' legal advisors with respect to the amalgamation agreement and related issues. In the course of making the above determinations and recommendations, AXIS' board of directors considered a number of factors weighing in favor of the amalgamation, each of which AXIS' board of directors believes supported its decision, including the following:

Potential Benefits of the Amalgamated Company

- AXIS' board of directors' belief, based on its analysis and understanding of AXIS' (on a stand-alone basis) and the amalgamated company's potential future business, operations, financial performance, financial condition, earnings and future prospects, that the amalgamated company will have:
- a diversified and balanced business mix with significant product depth, including a top five global reinsurer, a $2.5 billion specialty insurance underwriting business and a highly successful and growing life, accident and health franchise with a strong global footprint;
- enhanced ability to provide highly valued solutions for clients and partners through the combined expert knowledge of complex risks, greater access to various forms of capital and the ability to provide greater capacity;
- a highly experienced management team that will be led by Albert Benchimol, who has significant knowledge of the businesses of both AXIS and PartnerRe, and will include key AXIS personnel in senior management positions;

- underwriting teams with long-standing industry knowledge and relationships;
- an experienced board of directors that will include seven directors designated by AXIS;
 - greater financial strength and flexibility;

Table of Contents

- total, pre-tax expense synergies are estimated to be at least $200 million, that are expected to be substantially realizable within 18 months from the closing date of the amalgamation, and approximately $25 million, or 50% of the expense savings that AXIS originally expected to obtain from AXIS' own expense optimization efforts, are expected to still be realizable in addition to the $200 million of merger-related synergies; and
 - meaningful accretion to earnings and return on equity for shareholders;
- AXIS' board of directors' belief, based on: (1) discussions with members of AXIS' management concerning their interactions with PartnerRe during the due diligence process and negotiations related to the amalgamation, (2) AXIS' analysis and understanding of PartnerRe's approach to underwriting and (3) the experience of PartnerRe's management team, that AXIS and PartnerRe have compatible cultures, which should help ease the process of integrating the two companies;
- AXIS' board of directors' belief that the increased size and scope of the amalgamated company will not adversely impact or change AXIS' strategy, philosophy or culture, stability in executive management, risk management culture and enterprise risk management framework;
- consideration of other alternatives to the transaction available to AXIS, including remaining a stand-alone entity;
- the amalgamated company would be much better positioned than each standalone company to consider and pursue future acquisitions;
 - the belief that the amalgamated company will benefit from strong financial strength ratings;
- a more diversified pool of underwriting risk by product and geography (reducing volatility of earnings and cash flows and delivering more stable results under a wider range of market conditions);
- an increased customer base and potential to attract new customers because of the amalgamated company's greater scale, scope and reach;
- the amalgamated company would have greater capital efficiency and enhanced ability to respond to competitive pressures, greater diversification opportunities, increased opportunity to compete profitably and to grow its business or return additional funds to shareholders;

The Amalgamation Consideration

- the fact that the holders of AXIS' common shares will own approximately 48.4% of the amalgamated company, on a fully diluted basis, after the transaction is completed, in line with AXIS' relative contribution of tangible book value as well as other financial metrics;
- the fact that the fixed exchange ratio of one common share of the amalgamated company for each AXIS common share and 2.18 common shares of the amalgamated company for each PartnerRe common share, and the other terms and conditions of the amalgamation agreement, including the termination provisions, resulted from extensive arm's-length negotiations between AXIS and its advisors, on the one hand, and PartnerRe and its advisors, on the other hand;
- the fact that at the time the amalgamation agreement was negotiated key common stock trading multiples of both AXIS and PartnerRe were approximately the same;

- the fact that AXIS' board of directors received an opinion from Goldman Sachs, that as of January 25, 2015, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions stated in such opinion, the AXIS exchange ratio pursuant to the amalgamation agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders (other than PartnerRe and its affiliates) of AXIS common shares, as described in the section of this joint proxy/prospectus titled “ —Opinion of AXIS' Financial Advisor”;

Table of Contents

- the fact that, because AXIS' shareholders will own common shares of the amalgamated company, AXIS shareholders will have a meaningful opportunity to participate in any appreciation in the amalgamated company's share price;

Certain Provisions of the Amalgamation Agreement

- the fact that the amalgamation agreement requires PartnerRe to use reasonable best efforts to obtain approvals from governmental entities that are required to complete the transaction;
- the fact that the amalgamation agreement allows AXIS' board of directors to modify or withdraw its recommendation of the amalgamation, provided that following such a modification or withdrawal PartnerRe may terminate the amalgamation agreement and receive a termination fee, as described in the section of this joint proxy/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement";
- the fact that in certain circumstances, if the transaction is not consummated, AXIS will be entitled to receive a termination fee of up to $250 million and be reimbursed for certain expenses incurred by AXIS in connection with the amalgamation (up to $35 million), as described in the section of this joint proxy/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement";
 - the fact that the non-solicitation provisions in the amalgamation agreement:
 - restrict, subject to certain exceptions, PartnerRe's ability to respond to third party acquisition proposals;
 - restrict PartnerRe from terminating the amalgamation agreement to accept a superior proposal;
- require PartnerRe to submit the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement to a vote of its shareholders, all as described in the section of this joint proxy/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Restrictions on Solicitation of Takeover Proposals by AXIS and PartnerRe";

Likelihood of Consummating the Amalgamation

- the fact that no external financing is required for the transaction;
- AXIS' board of directors' belief that the conditions to closing as described in the section of this joint proxy/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Conditions to the Amalgamation" are capable of being satisfied;
- AXIS' board of directors' belief, based on advice from outside legal counsel, that the amalgamation is likely to receive necessary regulatory approvals in a relatively timely manner without resulting in a regulatory material adverse effect;

Certain Shareholder Safeguards

- the fact that AXIS' board of directors consulted with its legal counsel, Simpson Thacher and Conyers and its financial advisor, Goldman Sachs, in evaluating, negotiating, recommending and adopting the terms of the amalgamation agreement; the fact that the transaction will only occur if it is approved by the AXIS shareholders at the AXIS special general meeting and the fact that if the amalgamation is approved those AXIS shareholders who do not vote in favor of the amalgamation proposal will have the right to demand appraisal of their AXIS shares pursuant to Bermuda law;

Additional Considerations

- the historical and current prices of the AXIS common shares and the PartnerRe common shares;

Table of Contents

- the fact that the amalgamation would allow AXIS to meaningfully further its strategic objectives to increase capital and expand operations;
- the fact that the amalgamation agreement permits AXIS to continue to declare and pay regular quarterly cash dividends similar to its current levels as well as a pro rata dividend in the quarter in which the transaction is completed;
- the fact that the amalgamation will provide the amalgamated company with greater capital and resources in a market environment where there appears to be increasing consolidation in the insurance and reinsurance industries;
- the fact that PartnerRe has a high quality balance sheet including a high-quality and highly liquid investment portfolio and strong reserves;
- the fact that PartnerRe’s book of business is entirely reinsurance—a business that AXIS understands well—and does not contain direct insurance or other business lines;
- the satisfactory results of AXIS’ management’s due diligence review of PartnerRe’s business, results of operations, financial condition, earnings and return to shareholders;
 - the recommendation of AXIS’ senior management in favor of the amalgamation;
- the expectation that the amalgamation would be treated as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares;
- the fact that there will be ongoing representation of certain independent directors of AXIS on the amalgamated company’s board of directors, and the fact that AXIS’ senior management, including its Chief Executive Officer, will play a meaningful role in the management of the amalgamated company coupled with the experience and expertise of PartnerRe’s employees.

Risk Considerations

AXIS’ board of directors considered the potential risks in making its determination and recommendation, including the following:

- AXIS’ board of directors’ consideration, based on AXIS’ due diligence in connection with the amalgamation, of the potential risks related to the impact of the amalgamation on the amalgamated company, including the effect of the amalgamation on change in control provisions under AXIS and PartnerRe’s reinsurance and insurance agreements, the risks associated with pending litigation and claims, the impact of goodwill expenses, the challenges of harmonizing employee compensation and benefit plans and other commitments and contingencies and the fact that the amalgamation will cause acceleration of vesting with respect to certain of PartnerRe’s equity incentive plans as well as potentially give rise to certain change of control payments under certain of PartnerRe’s employee benefit arrangements as described in “—Interests of PartnerRe Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation”;
- the effect of the public announcement of the amalgamation on AXIS’ share price if AXIS shareholders do not view the amalgamation positively;
 - the fact that PartnerRe’s current loss reserve provisions may not be as expected;

- the existing and expected industry trends in the reinsurance industry, including the effects of ongoing consolidation in the reinsurance industry and increasingly competitive pricing among reinsurers;
- the potential disruption to AXIS' business that could result from the announcement of the amalgamation, including relationships with customers, vendors and business partners, the diversion of management and employee attention and employee attrition;

Table of Contents

- the possibility that the amalgamation might not be completed and the risks and costs to AXIS if the amalgamation is not completed, including the potential effect of the resulting public announcement of termination of the amalgamation agreement on, among other things, the market price for AXIS common shares, its operating results, its ability to attract and retain key personnel and agents and its ability to complete an alternative transaction. The amalgamation might not be completed, or might be unduly delayed, due to:
 - difficulties in obtaining the requisite shareholder approvals;
- difficulties in obtaining requisite regulatory approvals or regulatory authorities' withholding consent or seeking to block the amalgamation;
- the possibility that one or more of either AXIS' or PartnerRe's Bermuda insurance subsidiaries will not have a Financial Strength Rating of at least "A-" from A.M. Best;
 - the occurrence of a material adverse effect on either company's business;
- the fact that, subject to compliance with certain obligations under the amalgamation agreement, PartnerRe's board of directors may modify or withdraw its recommendation of the amalgamation, provided that following such a change AXIS may terminate the amalgamation agreement and receive a termination fee, as described in "The Amalgamation Agreement—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement";
 - the fact that the non-solicitation provisions in the amalgamation agreement:
 - restrict AXIS from soliciting, considering or responding to third party acquisition proposals;
 - restrict, subject to certain exceptions, AXIS' ability to respond to third party acquisition proposals;
 - restrict AXIS from terminating the amalgamation agreement to accept a superior proposal;
- the fact that AXIS does not have the right under the terms of the amalgamation agreement to change its recommendation in circumstances not involving a superior proposal;
- require AXIS to submit the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement to a vote of its shareholders, all as described in "The Amalgamation Agreement—Restrictions on Solicitation of Takeover Proposals by AXIS and PartnerRe";
- the fact that AXIS may be required to pay PartnerRe the termination fee of $250 million if AXIS' board of directors modifies or withdraws its recommendation or, in certain instances, if AXIS enters into or consummates a transaction with a third party, as described in "The Amalgamation Agreement—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement" impacting AXIS' ability to complete an alternative transaction;
- the fact that AXIS may be required to pay PartnerRe the no approval fee of up to $55 million if AXIS' shareholders fail to approve the amalgamation (and up to an aggregate of $250 million if AXIS enters into or consummates another transaction within twelve months of a termination related thereto), as described in "The Amalgamation Agreement—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement—Effects of Termination; Remedies";
- the fact that in the event that it is required to pay the termination fee or the no approval fee AXIS will also be required to reimburse PartnerRe for its out-of-pocket fees, costs, obligations owed to third parties and expenses incurred in connection with the amalgamation, up to a maximum of $35 million as described in “The Amalgamation Agreement Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement”;

- the possibility that the AXIS shareholders or the PartnerRe shareholders may not react favorably to the amalgamation, and the execution risk and additional costs that would be required to complete the amalgamation as a result of any legal actions or appraisal actions brought by the AXIS shareholders or the PartnerRe shareholders;

Table of Contents

- the fact that certain directors and officers of AXIS have interests in the amalgamation that are different from, or in addition to, those of AXIS' shareholders generally, as described in "—Interests of AXIS Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation";
- the fact that the restrictions on the conduct of AXIS' business prior to the closing, requiring AXIS to conduct its business in the ordinary course, subject to additional specific limitations, which may delay or prevent AXIS from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending consummation of the amalgamation;
- the challenges of combining AXIS' business with PartnerRe's, including risk management, accounting and other challenges, and the risk of diverting management focus and resources for an extended period of time to accomplish this combination;
- the risk that despite the efforts of the amalgamated company, key personnel might not remain employed by the amalgamated company;
- the possibility that, if the amalgamation takes longer to complete than anticipated, the amalgamated company may not be able to fully integrate AXIS' and PartnerRe's operations as quickly as expected or at all;
 - the possibility that the benefits of the transaction to AXIS may be significantly less than anticipated;
 - the transaction costs that have been and will be incurred in connection with the amalgamation;
- until the closing, PartnerRe will operate in accordance with its own distinct business practices. As a result, PartnerRe may assume risks or make decisions that, while consistent with its own past practice, may not be the same as AXIS' approach to its business. While the specifically negotiated contractual provisions requiring that PartnerRe operate its business during the interim period in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practices mitigates AXIS' exposure to some degree, these risks are not eliminated and will only become more acute the more prolonged the delay in closing; and
 - the risks described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus under "Risk Factors."

Certain PartnerRe Prospective Financial Information

PartnerRe management does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance or earnings and is especially wary of making projections for extended periods due to the significant unpredictability inherent in its businesses. However, PartnerRe provided, among other information, certain financial projections prepared by PartnerRe management to AXIS in connection with its evaluation of the amalgamation and to Credit Suisse, the financial advisor to the PartnerRe board of directors. In addition, PartnerRe management worked with AXIS' management to prepare an estimate of possible expense synergy savings that could arise as a result of the amalgamation. The financial projections and the estimated synergies were not developed for the purposes of providing earnings guidance.

The financial projections represent only one scenario in a wide range of potential outcomes. While presented with numeric specificity, the projections and the estimated synergies reflect numerous estimates and assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other future events, as well as matters specific to PartnerRe's business, all of which are inherently uncertain and difficult to predict and many of which are beyond PartnerRe's control. These financial projections and estimated synergies are subjective in many respects and thus are susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. These projections and estimated synergies may also be affected by PartnerRe's ability to achieve strategic goals, objectives and targets over the applicable periods. As such, these financial projections and estimated synergies constitute forward-looking information and are subject to risks and uncertainties, including the various risks set forth in the sections of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Forward-Looking Statements," "Risk Factors" and "Where You Can Find More Information—PartnerRe Filings" and in PartnerRe's Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 and the other reports filed by PartnerRe with the SEC. PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders should read such sections of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and such reports filed with the SEC for additional information regarding the risks inherent in forward-looking information such as the financial projections and estimated synergies. The financial projections cover multiple years and such information by its nature becomes less reliable with each successive year.

The financial projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information, but, in view of PartnerRe's management, was prepared on a reasonable basis. PartnerRe management worked with AXIS management to estimate possible expense synergy savings resulting from the amalgamation. Total pre-tax expense synergies are estimated to be $200 million, at a minimum, and are expected to be substantially realizable within 18 months from the transaction closing date. The methods used to determine the estimated synergies were not sufficient to more precisely estimate periods in which expense synergy savings might be realized. The expense synergy estimate primarily results from estimated expense redundancies in personnel, facilities and information systems, with the most significant amounts derived from expected expense redundancies in reinsurance and holding company operations.

Certain AXIS Prospective Financial Information

AXIS management does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance or earnings due to the significant unpredictability inherent in its businesses. However, AXIS provided, among other information, certain financial projections prepared by AXIS management to PartnerRe in connection with its evaluation of the amalgamation and to Goldman Sachs, the financial advisor to the AXIS board of directors. In addition, AXIS management worked with PartnerRe's management to prepare an estimate of possible expense synergy savings that could arise as a result of the amalgamation. The financial projections and the estimated synergies were not developed for the purposes of providing earnings guidance.

The financial projections reflect numerous judgments, estimates and assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market and financial conditions and other future events, as well as matters specific to AXIS' business, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of AXIS. The financial projections are subjective in many respects and are susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. As such, the financial projections constitute forward-looking information and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results forecasted in such projections, including the various risks set forth in AXIS' periodic reports and in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Risk Factors." See also the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Forward-Looking Statements." There can be no assurance that the projected results will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than projected. The projections cannot be considered a reliable predictor of future results and should not be relied upon as such. The financial projections cover multiple years and such information by its nature becomes less reliable with each successive year.

The financial projections do not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared, including the announcement of the proposed amalgamation. The financial projections do not take into account the effect of any failure to occur of the proposed amalgamation and should not be viewed as accurate or continuing in that context.

The financial projections were prepared solely for use in connection with evaluating the potential amalgamation and not with a view toward public disclosure, the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information, but, in view of AXIS' management, was prepared on a reasonable basis. However, this information is not fact and should not be relied upon as being necessarily indicative of future results, and readers to this joint proxy statement/prospectus are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the prospective financial information. Neither AXIS' independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the financial projections included below, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and they assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, the financial projections.

The inclusion of the financial projections herein is not deemed an admission or representation by AXIS that they are viewed by AXIS as material information of AXIS or the amalgamated company. These projections are not included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in order to induce any holder of AXIS shares to vote to approve and adopt the amalgamation agreement, or the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation. AXIS does not intend to update or otherwise revise these projections to reflect circumstances existing since their preparation, to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events even in the event that any or all of the underlying assumptions are shown to be in error, or to reflect changes in general economic or industry conditions.

Certain Projected Financial Information for AXIS. In addition to the foregoing qualifications, the following financial projections developed by AXIS reflect capital management assumptions (including possible dividends and share repurchases) throughout the projection period, which include certain judgments by management in how they operate the business. These projections are for illustration purposes and should not be considered an indication of what AXIS may do in the future. These projections were prepared as of January 25, 2015, the date of the amalgamation agreement.

	Fiscal year ending December 31,
	2015E		2016E		2017E
	($ in millions)
Net premiums written	$3,994		$4,074		$4,156
Combined ratio	94.3	%	94.6	%	94.1	%

Common shareholders' equity	$5,200		$5,207		$5,215

AXIS' management worked with PartnerRe's management to estimate the synergies that would result from the amalgamation. The total, pre-tax expense synergies are estimated to be at least $200 million, and are expected to be substantially realizable within 18 months from the closing date of the amalgamation. This estimate of expense synergies primarily results from estimated expense redundancies in personnel, facilities and information systems, particularly in reinsurance and holding company operations. In addition, approximately $25 million, or 50% of the expense savings that AXIS originally expected to obtain from AXIS' own expense optimization efforts, is expected to still be realizable in addition to the $200 million of merger-related synergies.

Opinion of PartnerRe's Financial Advisor

PartnerRe retained Credit Suisse to act as its financial advisor in connection with the amalgamation. In connection with Credit Suisse's engagement, the PartnerRe board of directors requested that Credit Suisse evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of PartnerRe common shares of the PartnerRe exchange ratio provided for in the amalgamation. On January 25, 2015, at a meeting of the PartnerRe board of directors held to evaluate the proposed amalgamation, Credit Suisse rendered to the PartnerRe board of directors an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated January 25, 2015, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, the PartnerRe exchange ratio provided for in the amalgamation was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of PartnerRe common shares.

The full text of Credit Suisse's written opinion, dated January 25, 2015, to the PartnerRe board of directors, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by Credit Suisse in connection with such opinion, is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B and is incorporated into this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference in its entirety. The description of Credit Suisse's opinion set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Credit Suisse's opinion. Credit Suisse's opinion was provided to the PartnerRe board of directors (in its capacity as such) for its information in connection with its evaluation of the PartnerRe exchange ratio from a financial point of view to holders of PartnerRe common shares and did not address any other aspect of the amalgamation, including the relative merits of the amalgamation as compared to alternative transactions or strategies that might be available to PartnerRe or the underlying business decision of PartnerRe to proceed with the amalgamation. Credit Suisse's opinion does not constitute advice or a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act on any matter relating to the amalgamation or otherwise.

In arriving at its opinion, Credit Suisse reviewed a draft dated January 25, 2015 of the amalgamation agreement, certain related agreements and certain business and financial information relating to PartnerRe and AXIS. Credit Suisse also reviewed certain other information relating to PartnerRe and AXIS, including certain financial forecasts relating to PartnerRe and AXIS through 2017, prepared by and provided to or discussed with Credit Suisse by PartnerRe and AXIS and met with the management of PartnerRe and AXIS to discuss the business and prospects of PartnerRe and AXIS. See the section titled “—Certain PartnerRe Prospective Financial Information” above. Credit Suisse also considered certain financial and stock market data of PartnerRe and AXIS, and compared that data with similar data for other publicly held companies in businesses it deemed similar to those of PartnerRe and AXIS and Credit Suisse considered, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other business combinations and other transactions that have been effected or announced. Credit Suisse also considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria which it deemed relevant.

In connection with its review, Credit Suisse did not independently verify any of the foregoing information, and Credit Suisse assumed and relied upon such information being complete and accurate in all respects. With respect to the financial forecasts for PartnerRe and AXIS that Credit Suisse used and relied upon for purposes of its analyses and opinion, management of PartnerRe advised Credit Suisse, and Credit Suisse assumed, that such financial forecasts were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of PartnerRe and AXIS as to the future financial performance of PartnerRe and AXIS. Credit Suisse assumed, with PartnerRe’s consent, that the amalgamation would be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Credit Suisse also assumed, with PartnerRe’s consent, that, in the course of obtaining any regulatory or third-party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the amalgamation, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on PartnerRe, AXIS or any respective subsidiary or the contemplated benefits of the amalgamation and that the amalgamation would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the amalgamation agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof. In addition, Credit Suisse was not requested to make, and did not make, an independent evaluation or appraisal (including any actuarial appraisal) of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of PartnerRe or AXIS, nor was Credit Suisse furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Credit Suisse are not legal, tax, regulatory or actuarial advisors. Credit Suisse are financial advisors only and relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of PartnerRe and its legal, tax, regulatory and actuarial advisors with respect to legal, tax, regulatory and actuarial matters.

Credit Suisse’s opinion addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of PartnerRe common shares of the PartnerRe exchange ratio and did not address any other aspect or implication of the amalgamation or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the amalgamation or otherwise, including, without limitation, the fairness of the amount or nature of, or any other aspect relating to, any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any party to the amalgamation, or class of such persons, relative to the PartnerRe exchange ratio or otherwise. The issuance of Credit Suisse’s opinion was approved by Credit Suisse’s authorized internal committee. Credit Suisse has not undertaken, and is under no obligation, to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion, or otherwise.

Credit Suisse’s opinion was necessarily based upon information made available to it as of the date of its opinion and financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed and could be evaluated on that date. Credit Suisse did not express any opinion as to what the value of Newco common shares actually would be when issued to the holders of PartnerRe common shares pursuant to the amalgamation or the prices at which Newco common shares would trade at any time. Credit Suisse did not address the relative merits of the amalgamation as compared to alternative transactions or strategies that might be available to PartnerRe, nor did it address the underlying business decision of PartnerRe to proceed with the amalgamation.

In preparing its opinion to the PartnerRe board of directors, Credit Suisse performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. The summary of Credit Suisse's analyses described below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Credit Suisse's opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Credit Suisse arrived at its ultimate opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and did not draw, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any one factor or method of analysis. Accordingly, Credit Suisse believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion.

In its analyses, Credit Suisse considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond PartnerRe's and AXIS' control. No company, business or transaction used for comparative purposes in Credit Suisse's analyses is identical to PartnerRe, AXIS or the amalgamation, and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or other values of the companies, business segments or transactions analyzed. The estimates contained in Credit Suisse's analyses and the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold or acquired. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the results derived from, Credit Suisse's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Credit Suisse was not requested to, and it did not, recommend the specific consideration payable in the amalgamation, which exchange ratio was determined through negotiations between PartnerRe and AXIS, and the decision to enter into the amalgamation agreement was solely that of the PartnerRe board of directors. Credit Suisse's opinion and financial analyses were only one of many factors considered by the PartnerRe board of directors in its evaluation of the amalgamation and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the PartnerRe board of directors or management with respect to the amalgamation and related transactions or the PartnerRe exchange ratio.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses reviewed with the PartnerRe board of directors on January 25, 2015 in connection with Credit Suisse's opinion. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Credit Suisse's financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Credit Suisse's financial analyses.

Dividend Discount Analyses. Credit Suisse performed separate dividend discount analyses of PartnerRe and AXIS.

PartnerRe. In performing a dividend discount analysis of PartnerRe, Credit Suisse calculated the estimated present value of distributable cash flow that PartnerRe was forecasted to generate during calendar years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2017 based upon publicly available financial forecasts relating to PartnerRe and certain already been paid, a further portion of which was payable upon delivery of Credit Suisse's opinion and approximately $25.5 million of which is contingent upon consummation of the amalgamation. Opinion of AXIS' Financial Advisor

Goldman Sachs rendered its opinion to the AXIS board of directors that, as of January 25, 2015 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the AXIS exchange ratio pursuant to the amalgamation agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the holders (other than PartnerRe and its affiliates) of AXIS common shares.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated January 25, 2015, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the AXIS board of directors in connection with its consideration of the amalgamation. The Goldman Sachs opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of AXIS common shares should vote with respect to such amalgamation or any other matter.

In connection with rendering the opinion described above and performing its related financial analyses, Goldman Sachs reviewed, among other things:

- the amalgamation agreement;
- annual reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of AXIS and PartnerRe for the five years ended December 31, 2013;
- certain interim reports to shareholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of AXIS and PartnerRe;
- certain other communications from AXIS and PartnerRe to their respective shareholders;
- certain draft communications from AXIS and PartnerRe before such communications were sent to their respective shareholders;
- certain publicly available research analyst reports for AXIS and PartnerRe;
- certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for PartnerRe prepared by its management;

- certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for AXIS prepared by its management and certain financial analyses and forecasts for PartnerRe prepared by the management of AXIS, in each case, as approved for Goldman Sachs' use by AXIS (the "Forecasts"); and
- certain operating synergies and dis-synergies projected by the managements of AXIS and PartnerRe to result from the amalgamation, as approved for Goldman Sachs' use by AXIS (the "Net Synergies").

Goldman Sachs also held discussions with members of the senior managements of AXIS and PartnerRe regarding their assessment of the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the amalgamation and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of PartnerRe and with members of the senior management of AXIS regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of AXIS; reviewed the reported price and trading activity for AXIS common shares and the PartnerRe common shares; compared certain financial and stock market information for AXIS and PartnerRe with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the insurance industry and reinsurance industry and in other industries; and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as it deemed appropriate.

For purposes of rendering the opinion described above, Goldman Sachs, with the consent of AXIS, relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information provided to, discussed with or reviewed by Goldman Sachs, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification thereof. In that regard, Goldman Sachs assumed that the Forecasts and the Net Synergies were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best available estimates and judgments of the management of AXIS. Goldman Sachs did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or other off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of AXIS, PartnerRe, the amalgamated company or any of their respective subsidiaries and Goldman Sachs was not furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. Goldman Sachs is not an actuary and its services did not include any actuarial determination or evaluation by it or any attempt to evaluate actuarial assumptions and it has relied on AXIS' actuaries with respect to reserve adequacy. In that regard, Goldman Sachs did not make any analysis of, and did not express any opinion as to, the adequacy of the reserve for losses and loss expenses of AXIS and the unpaid losses and loss expenses and the policy benefits for life and annuity contracts of PartnerRe. Goldman Sachs assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the amalgamation will be obtained without any adverse effect on AXIS, PartnerRe or the amalgamated company or on the expected benefits of the amalgamation in any way meaningful to its analysis. Goldman Sachs has also assumed that the amalgamation will be consummated on the terms set forth in the amalgamation agreement, without the waiver or modification of any term or condition the effect of which would be in any way meaningful to its analysis.

Goldman Sachs' opinion does not address the underlying business decision of AXIS to engage in the amalgamation, or the relative merits of the amalgamation as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to AXIS; nor does it address any legal, regulatory, tax or accounting matters. Goldman Sachs' opinion addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders (other than PartnerRe and its affiliates) of AXIS common shares, as of the date of the opinion, of the AXIS exchange ratio pursuant to the amalgamation agreement. Goldman Sachs' opinion does not express any view on, and its opinion does not address, any other term or aspect of the amalgamation agreement or amalgamation or any term or aspect of any other agreement or instrument contemplated by the amalgamation agreement or entered into or amended in connection with the amalgamation, including, the fairness of the amalgamation to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors, or other constituencies of AXIS; nor as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of AXIS, or class of such persons, in connection with the amalgamation, whether relative to the AXIS exchange ratio pursuant to the amalgamation agreement or otherwise. In addition, Goldman Sachs did not express any opinion as to the impact of the amalgamation on the solvency or viability of AXIS, PartnerRe or the amalgamated company or the ability of AXIS, PartnerRe or the amalgamated company to pay their respective obligations when they come due. Goldman Sachs' opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date of the opinion and Goldman Sachs assumed no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming its opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date of its opinion. Goldman Sachs' opinion was approved by a fairness committee of Goldman Sachs.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses delivered by Goldman Sachs to the AXIS board of directors in connection with rendering the opinion described above. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Goldman Sachs, nor does the order of analyses described represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Goldman Sachs. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are alone not a complete description of Goldman Sachs' financial analyses. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before January 22, 2015 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

Illustrative Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

In connection with performing the Illustrative Contribution Analysis described below, Goldman Sachs performed an illustrative discounted cash flow analysis for each of AXIS and PartnerRe using the Forecasts and financial data from Bloomberg. Goldman Sachs calculated an indication of the present value of cash flows for AXIS for the years 2015 through 2018 assuming 100% of estimated net income is returned to shareholders using a discount rate of 5.97%, reflecting an estimate of AXIS' cost of equity, and applying mid-year discounting. Goldman Sachs then calculated an illustrative terminal value for AXIS by applying a multiple of 1.00x to AXIS' projected tangible book value as of December 31, 2018 and calculated an indication of the present value of such illustrative terminal value using a discount rate of 5.97%.

In addition, Goldman Sachs calculated an indication of the present value of cash flows of PartnerRe for the years 2015 through 2018 assuming 100% of estimated net income is returned to shareholders using a discount rate of 5.85%, reflecting an estimate of PartnerRe's cost of equity, and applying mid-year discounting. Goldman Sachs then calculated an illustrative terminal value for PartnerRe by applying a multiple of 1.00x to PartnerRe's projected tangible book value as of December 31, 2018 and calculated an indication of the present value of such illustrative terminal value using a discount rate of 5.85%.

Illustrative Pro Forma Financial Impact Analysis.

Goldman Sachs performed illustrative pro forma analyses of the potential financial impact of the amalgamation using the Forecasts, the Net Synergies and financial data obtained from Bloomberg and taking into account certain accounting assumptions provided by AXIS' management prior to the date of the amalgamation agreement. For each of the estimated years 2015 through 2017, Goldman Sachs compared the projected earnings per AXIS common share, on a standalone basis, to the projected earnings per AXIS common share, on a pro forma basis, taking into account Net Synergies. For the estimated year 2016, Goldman Sachs also compared the projected earnings per AXIS common share, on a standalone basis, to the projected earnings per AXIS common share, on a pro forma basis, using fully phased-in Net Synergies numbers.

Table of Contents

Goldman Sachs also compared the projected book value per AXIS common share and tangible book value per AXIS common share, respectively, on a standalone basis, to the projected book value per AXIS common share and tangible book value per AXIS common share, respectively, on a pro forma basis, in each case, as of the assumed closing date, December 31, 2015, December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017. In addition, Goldman Sachs compared the projected return on equity per AXIS common share, on a standalone basis, to the projected return on equity per AXIS common share, on a pro forma basis, for the fiscal years 2015, 2016 and 2017. Goldman Sachs further compared the projected total debt including preferred shares divided by capitalization of AXIS, on a standalone basis, to the projected total debt including preferred shares divided by capitalization of AXIS, on a pro forma basis, as of the assumed closing date. In each of the above scenarios, the market price for AXIS common shares was as of January 22, 2015 and the assumed closing date was September 30, 2015.

General.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying Goldman Sachs' opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Goldman Sachs considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by it. Rather, Goldman Sachs made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses.

Goldman Sachs prepared these analyses for purposes of Goldman Sachs' providing its opinion to the AXIS board of directors as to the fairness from a financial point of view, as of January 25, 2015, of the AXIS exchange ratio pursuant to the amalgamation agreement to the holders (other than PartnerRe and its affiliates) of AXIS common shares. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of AXIS, PartnerRe, Goldman Sachs or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecast.

The AXIS exchange ratio was determined through arm's-length negotiations between AXIS and PartnerRe and was approved by the AXIS board of directors. Goldman Sachs provided advice to the AXIS board of directors during these negotiations. Goldman Sachs did not, however, recommend any specific exchange ratio to AXIS or the AXIS board of directors or that any specific exchange ratio constituted the only appropriate exchange ratio for the amalgamation.

As described above, Goldman Sachs' opinion to the AXIS board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by the AXIS board of directors in making its determination to approve the amalgamation agreement. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Goldman Sachs in connection with its fairness opinion and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the written opinion of Goldman Sachs attached as Annex C.

Goldman Sachs and its affiliates are engaged in advisory, underwriting and financing, principal investing, sales and trading, research, investment management and other financial and non-financial activities and services for various persons and entities. Goldman Sachs and its affiliates and employees, and funds or other entities they manage or in which they invest or have other economic interests or with which they co-invest, may at any time purchase, sell, hold or vote long or short positions and investments in securities, derivatives, loans, commodities, currencies, credit default swaps and other financial instruments of AXIS, PartnerRe, any of their respective affiliates and third parties, or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the amalgamation. Goldman Sachs acted as financial advisor to AXIS in connection with, and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the amalgamation. During the two-year period ending January 25, 2015, Goldman Sachs has not provided financial advisory and/or underwriting services to either AXIS or PartnerRe or either of their respective affiliates for which its Investment Banking Division has received compensation. Goldman Sachs may in the future provide financial advisory and/or underwriting services to AXIS, PartnerRe and the amalgamated company and their respective affiliates for which its Investment Banking Division may receive compensation.

The AXIS board of directors selected Goldman Sachs as its financial advisor because it is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in transactions similar to the amalgamation. Pursuant to a letter agreement dated January 24, 2015, AXIS engaged Goldman Sachs to act as its financial advisor in connection with the proposed amalgamation. Pursuant to the terms of this engagement letter, AXIS has agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a transaction fee of $19.5 million, all of which is payable upon consummation of the amalgamation. In addition, AXIS has agreed to reimburse Goldman Sachs for its expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, and to indemnify Goldman Sachs and related persons against various liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Leadership of the Amalgamated Company

As of the effective time of the amalgamation, the board of directors of Newco will be composed of seven members of the PartnerRe board of directors and seven members of the AXIS board of directors. The initial directors of Newco will be Jean-Paul L. Montupet (Chairman), Albert A. Benchimol (Chief Executive Officer), Michael A. Butt (Chairman Emeritus), Charles A. Davis, Robert L. Friedman, Christopher V. Greetham, Roberto Mendoza, Debra J. Perry, Thomas C. Ramey, Rémy Sautter, Henry B. Smith, Kevin M. Twomey, Egbert Willam and David Zwiener.

Following the effective time, the senior executive management team of Newco will consist of Albert Benchimol, AXIS' current President and Chief Executive Officer, who will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of Newco; Joseph C. Henry, currently Chief Financial Officer of AXIS, who will continue in this role as Chief Financial Officer of Newco; William Babcock, currently Chief Financial Officer of PartnerRe, who will serve as Deputy Chief Financial Officer and Lead Integration Officer of Newco and will assume the role of Chief Financial Officer of Newco upon the retirement of Mr. Henry in July 2016; Peter Wilson, currently Chief Executive Officer of AXIS Insurance, who will serve as Chief Executive Officer of Insurance of Newco; Chris DiSipio, currently Chief Executive Officer of AXIS Accident and Health, who will serve as Chief Executive Officer of Life, Accident and Health of Newco; Emmanuel Clarke, currently Chief Executive Officer of PartnerRe Global, who will serve as Chief Executive Officer of Reinsurance of Newco; and John (Jay) Nichols, currently Chief Executive Officer of AXIS Re, who will serve as Head of Strategic Business Development and Capital Solutions at Newco.

Interests of PartnerRe's Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation

In considering the recommendation of the PartnerRe board of directors, PartnerRe shareholders should be aware that certain directors and executive officers of PartnerRe (including Costas Miranthis, PartnerRe's former President and Chief Executive Officer) will have interests in the proposed amalgamation that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of PartnerRe shareholders generally and which may create potential conflicts of interest. These interests are described in more detail below, and, with respect to the named executive officers of PartnerRe, are quantified in the table below. The PartnerRe board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them when it adopted the amalgamation agreement and approved the amalgamation. The date and share price used to quantify certain of the interests below were selected for illustrative purposes only and do not necessarily reflect the date on which certain events will occur or the value of PartnerRe's common shares at that time.

Conversion of PartnerRe Shares Held by Directors and Executive Officers of PartnerRe Pursuant to the Amalgamation

As a group, the PartnerRe directors and executive officers (including Mr. Miranthis, PartnerRe's former President and Chief Executive Officer) beneficially owned, as of March 6, 2015, an aggregate of approximately 232,058 PartnerRe common shares. Upon the consummation of the amalgamation, each PartnerRe common share held by the directors and executive officers that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the amalgamation will, like all other PartnerRe common shares, be automatically cancelled and converted into a Newco common share, using the exchange ratio, with cash payable in lieu of fractional shares. Dispositions of PartnerRe common shares, if any, prior to the consummation of the amalgamation will change the amount of Newco common shares the directors and executive officers of PartnerRe will receive in respect of their PartnerRe common shares upon the consummation of the amalgamation.

The following table sets forth the total number of PartnerRe common shares beneficially owned by each PartnerRe executive officer and director, as of March 6, 2015.

Conversion of PartnerRe Options and Share Appreciation Rights

The PartnerRe executive officers held, as of March 6, 2015, options to acquire 41,065 PartnerRe common shares, at a weighted average exercise price of $72.72. The PartnerRe directors held, as of March 6, 2015, options to acquire 214,191 PartnerRe common shares, at a weighted average exercise price of $71.17. At the effective time of the amalgamation, each outstanding PartnerRe share option held by an executive officer will vest and convert into an option to purchase, on the same terms and conditions as such PartnerRe share option, a number of Newco common shares that is equal to the number of PartnerRe common shares subject to such PartnerRe share option multiplied by the exchange ratio, at an exercise price per Newco common share equal to the exercise price per PartnerRe common share subject to such PartnerRe share option divided by the exchange ratio. Each outstanding PartnerRe share appreciation right will vest and convert into a share appreciation right, on the same terms and conditions as such PartnerRe share appreciation right, for a number of Newco common shares equal to the number of PartnerRe common shares subject to such PartnerRe share appreciation right multiplied by the exchange ratio, at an exercise price per Newco common share equal to the exercise price per PartnerRe common share subject to such PartnerRe share appreciation right divided by the exchange ratio.

Any outstanding PartnerRe share option held by a director will remain outstanding in accordance with its terms and convert into a Newco share option in accordance with the conversion mechanism described in the preceding paragraph.

Further information about the treatment of the PartnerRe share options and share appreciation rights is set forth in the section entitled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Treatment of Share Options and Other Share-Based Awards and Programs."

The following table sets forth the number and weighted average exercise price of the vested and unvested share options and share appreciation rights held by each executive officer and director of PartnerRe, as of March 6, 2015.

Conversion of PartnerRe Restricted Share Units and Performance Share Units

The PartnerRe directors and executive officers (including Mr. Miranthis, PartnerRe's former President and Chief Executive Officer) held, as of March 6, 2015, rights to receive 256,356 PartnerRe common shares in connection with restricted share units and performance share units.

At the effective time of the amalgamation, each outstanding PartnerRe restricted share unit and performance share unit held by an executive officer, will vest and settle (and any such performance share units will vest and settle as if the maximum performance were achieved), and each PartnerRe common share delivered in settlement thereof will be eligible to receive the consideration for a PartnerRe common share described above. Each outstanding PartnerRe other share-based award that is held by a non-employee director, other than restricted share units held by those non-employee directors who will not continue to serve on the Newco board of directors following the amalgamation, will be converted into an award, on the same terms and conditions as such PartnerRe share-based award, with respect to a number of Newco common shares equal to the number of PartnerRe common shares underlying such PartnerRe share-based award multiplied by the exchange ratio. Further information about the treatment of the PartnerRe other share-based awards is set forth in the section entitled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Treatment of Share Options and Other Share-Based Awards and Programs."

Individuals who currently serve as non-employee directors of PartnerRe but who will not serve on the Newco board following the amalgamation will experience a termination due to mandatory retirement on the closing date of the amalgamation. Under the terms of the restricted share unit awards held by such directors, any such awards granted prior to the calendar year in which the closing of the amalgamation occurs will vest fully on the date on which the directors' service with the PartnerRe board of directors terminates, which will be the closing date of the amalgamation. Any awards granted to such directors during the calendar year in which the closing of the amalgamation occurs will vest on a pro rata basis, based on the number of full months during which the director served on the PartnerRe board of directors during the calendar year of grant, and the remaining portion of the award will be forfeited on the closing date of the amalgamation.

The following table sets forth the total number of outstanding PartnerRe restricted share units and performance share units held by each executive officer and director of PartnerRe, as of March 6, 2015.

PartnerRe Change in Control Policy

PartnerRe sponsors a Change in Control Policy (the “CIC Policy”), which would provide payments and benefits to certain employees in the event of a qualifying termination following the amalgamation. Each of PartnerRe’s executive officers (other than Messrs. Zwiener and Miranthis) is eligible for payments and benefits under the CIC

Table of Contents

Policy if, within 12 months of the amalgamation, Newco delivers to the executive notice of its intent to terminate such executive's employment without cause (as defined in the CIC Policy) or, within six months of the amalgamation, such executive delivers to Newco notice of his or her intent to terminate for good reason (as defined in the CIC Policy), provided, in either case, that such termination occurs within 12 months following such delivery of notice. In the event of such a termination of employment, each executive would be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

- Two times the executive's base salary;
- An amount equal to the greater of the target annual cash incentive for the current year or an amount that is equal to the percentage calculated by multiplying the sum of the percentage that is the payout as percentage of target, as determined by the PartnerRe Compensation & Management Development Committee, for each of the three fiscal years prior to the fiscal year in which the notice of termination occurs, divided by three, and multiplying the resulting percentage by the target annual cash incentive value (the "Average Incentive"), prorated for the number of days elapsed in the fiscal year of termination prior to the executive's termination date;
 - An amount equal to two times the Average Incentive;
 - For Mr. Clarke, housing and school allowance for up to 12 months;
 - Health and welfare benefit continuation for two years; and
 - Immediate vesting of all equity awards.

In addition to the payments and benefits that the executives are eligible to receive under the CIC Policy, under each executive's employment agreement (other than Messrs. Zwiener and Miranthis), such executive is entitled to 12 months' notice prior to a termination without cause, during which time the executive is entitled to continued compensation and benefits. If the executive is terminated prior to the end of the notice period, such executive is entitled to a lump-sum payment in lieu of the payments and benefits that such executive would have received during the notice period. Such amounts would be paid in addition to the payments and benefits under the CIC Policy, as described above.

The payments described above are contingent upon each executive's execution and non-revocation of a general release of claims against PartnerRe. Messrs. Babcock, Clarke and Walker and Ms. Desmet are each subject to a one-year post-termination non-solicitation covenant and a confidentiality covenant. The restrictive covenants applicable to Messrs. Zwiener and Miranthis are described below in the sections entitled "—Zwiener Agreement" and "—Miranthis Agreement."

Zwiener Agreement

On January 25, 2015, PartnerRe entered into an employment agreement with David Zwiener, pursuant to which he will serve as PartnerRe's interim President and Chief Executive Officer for the period beginning on January 25, 2015 and ending on the earlier of the closing date of the amalgamation and April 30, 2016 (such date, in either case, the "separation date"). Mr. Zwiener's annual base salary during his employment term is $1,000,000. Mr. Zwiener received a grant of sign-on restricted share units with a value of $1,500,000, which will vest and settle on the separation date. Subject to the closing of the amalgamation, Mr. Zwiener is eligible to receive a cash service bonus of $3,500,000, payable on the closing date of the amalgamation, and he is also eligible to receive a discretionary cash bonus based on the PartnerRe board of directors' assessment of Mr. Zwiener's execution of the amalgamation or his efforts in relation thereto.

If Mr. Zwiener's employment is terminated by Newco without cause or for good reason, he will be entitled to an amount equal to the base salary that would otherwise have been paid to him for the period between his date of termination and April 30, 2016, a cash payment equal to the value of his sign-on restricted share unit award and payment of the cash service bonus, provided that the closing date of the amalgamation occurs on or prior to April 30, 2016.

Under his employment agreement, Mr. Zwiener will be subject to a one-year post-termination non-solicitation covenant, a confidentiality covenant and a non-disparagement covenant.

Miranthis Agreement

On January 25, 2015, PartnerRe entered into a separation agreement with Costas Miranthis, pursuant to which he resigned from his position as President and Chief Executive Officer and will continue to serve as a non-executive employee of PartnerRe until March 31, 2015, at which time his employment with PartnerRe will terminate. Pursuant to the separation agreement, Mr. Miranthis is entitled to specified payments and benefits following his resignation.

Under the separation agreement, Mr. Miranthis received a cash payment totaling $16,594,007, two-thirds of which was paid on February 3, 2015, and one-third of which will be paid following the earlier of the closing date of the amalgamation or December 1, 2015. This amount includes, in addition to his cash severance amounts, a cash payment equal to the value of the equity award that Mr. Miranthis earned and would have received in 2015 with respect to 2014 performance. The unvested equity awards that Mr. Miranthis holds as of March 31, 2015 will become fully vested as of such date (with any performance-vesting restricted share units being earned at the maximum level of performance achievement), and any share options and share appreciation rights will remain exercisable for their original maximum terms. Mr. Miranthis will also be entitled to certain other payments and benefits, including a supplemental contribution of $150,000 to the Bermuda Non-Registered Pension Plan, continued allowances for housing, tax advice fees and a club membership, and payment of reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by him in connection with the negotiation and execution of the separation agreement.

The separation agreement provides that Mr. Miranthis is subject to a non-competition covenant for the period between the date of the signing of the amalgamation and the payment date of the second payment described above, a one-year non-solicitation covenant, a confidentiality covenant and a non-disparagement covenant.

No Golden Parachute Excise Tax Gross-Up

In connection with the amalgamation, no executive officer or director will be entitled to a gross-up payment related to excise taxes imposed on any executive officer or director in the event that any payments or benefits result in an "excess parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Special PartnerRe Transaction Committee Compensation

Two members of the PartnerRe Transaction Committee of the PartnerRe board of directors, John-Paul Montupet and Roberto Mendoza, received additional compensation in recognition of their efforts in exploring and pursuing a strategic transaction for the Company, including the proposed amalgamation. On the date of the signing of the amalgamation agreement, Messrs. Montupet and Mendoza each received a one-time cash payment of $100,000 and a grant of a restricted share unit award with a value of $100,000. The restricted share unit award will vest and settle in full on the earliest of the date of the closing of the amalgamation, the date on which the amalgamation agreement is terminated or December 31, 2016.

Indemnification and Insurance

Pursuant to the terms of the amalgamation agreement, PartnerRe's directors and executive officers will be entitled to certain ongoing indemnification and coverage under the directors' and officers' liability insurance policies from Newco. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Directors' and Officers' Indemnification and Insurance."

The following table sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K regarding the compensation for PartnerRe’s named executive officers (who include Mr. Miranthis, PartnerRe’s former President and Chief Executive Officer) based on the amalgamation, assuming that the amalgamation was completed on March 6, 2015 and the named executive officers are terminated without cause on the day immediately following the consummation of the amalgamation. The actual amounts payable would depend on the date of termination, the manner of the termination and the terms of the agreements in effect at such time. More detail on the included payments and benefits are set forth above in the section entitled “—Interests of PartnerRe’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation.”

Interests of AXIS’ Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation

In considering the recommendation of the AXIS board of directors, AXIS shareholders should be aware that certain directors and executive officers of AXIS will have interests in the proposed amalgamation that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of AXIS shareholders generally and which may create potential conflicts of interest. These interests are described in more detail below, and with respect to the named executive officers of AXIS, are quantified in the table below. The AXIS board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them when it adopted the amalgamation agreement and approved the amalgamation. The date and share price used to quantify certain of the interests below were selected for illustrative purposes only and do not necessarily reflect the date on which certain events will occur or the value of AXIS' common shares at that time.

Conversion of AXIS Shares Held by Directors and Executive Officers of AXIS Pursuant to the Amalgamation

As a group, the AXIS directors and executive officers beneficially owned, as of March 6, 2015, an aggregate of approximately 2,179,212 AXIS common shares. Upon the consummation of the amalgamation, the directors and executive officers would receive, as would all other AXIS shareholders, one Newco common share for each such AXIS common share. Dispositions of AXIS common shares, if any, prior to the consummation of the amalgamation will change the amount of Newco common shares the directors and executive officers of AXIS will receive in respect of their AXIS common shares upon the consummation of the amalgamation.

The following table sets forth the total number of AXIS common shares beneficially owned by each AXIS executive officer and director, as of March 6, 2015. Unless otherwise indicated, beneficial ownership represents both sole voting and sole investment power.

Conversion of Unvested AXIS Restricted Shares

The AXIS executive officers held, as of March 6, 2015, time-vesting restricted shares as set forth in the table below. Each restricted share will be converted into a restricted share of Newco and shall otherwise have the same other terms and conditions (including vesting) applicable to the AXIS restricted shares prior to the amalgamation. Although the vesting of the AXIS restricted shares will not accelerate upon the consummation of the amalgamation, the terms and conditions of the restricted shares provide that, if an executive officer's employment is terminated by Newco without cause, or by the executive officer for good reason, in each case during the 24-month period following the consummation of the amalgamation, such AXIS restricted shares, as converted into Newco restricted shares, will become fully vested and nonforfeitable.

Further information about the treatment of AXIS restricted shares is set forth in the section entitled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Treatment of Share Options and Other Share-Based Awards and Programs."

Conversion of Unvested AXIS Restricted Stock Units

The AXIS executive officers held, as of March 6, 2015, time-vesting AXIS restricted stock units and performance-vesting AXIS restricted stock units as set forth in the table below. Each restricted stock unit will be converted into a restricted stock unit settled in one Newco common share and shall otherwise have the same other terms and conditions (including vesting) as applied to the AXIS restricted stock unit prior to the amalgamation, except that prior to the consummation of the amalgamation, the AXIS board of directors will equitably adjust the performance criteria applicable to the performance-vesting AXIS restricted stock units in order to reflect the amalgamation and to prevent any dilution or enlargement of vesting opportunity. Although the vesting and the settlement of the AXIS restricted stock units will not accelerate upon the consummation of the amalgamation, the terms and conditions of the restricted stock units provide that, if an executive officer's employment is terminated by Newco without cause, or by the executive officer for good reason, in each case during the 24-month period following the consummation of the amalgamation, such AXIS restricted stock units, as converted into Newco awards, will become fully vested, with performance-vesting AXIS restricted stock units deemed vested at "target" levels. Further information about the treatment of AXIS restricted stock units is set forth in the section entitled "The Amalgamation Agreement—Treatment of Share Options and Other Share-Based Awards and Programs."

Notwithstanding the foregoing, certain AXIS restricted stock units granted in February 2014 to certain AXIS employees holding the title of "assistant vice president" or above will become fully vested as of the effective time.

John D. Nichols	44,121	29,432
Peter W. Wilson	48,263	8,770

It should be noted that Mr. Benchimol also holds share appreciation rights underlying 251,196 PartnerRe common shares that he received in connection with his service at PartnerRe during the period from April 2000 through September 2010.

Employment Agreements

AXIS is party to employment agreements with each of its executive officers, which provides for enhanced severance benefits upon a termination without “cause” by AXIS or its successor, or a resignation with “good reason” by the executive officer (each as defined in the applicable employment agreement), if such termination occurs during the 24-month period following the consummation of the amalgamation.

In the event of a termination without “cause” by AXIS or its successor, or a resignation with “good reason” by the executive officer during the 24-month period following the consummation of the amalgamation, the executive officer would be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

- a lump sum amount equal to one year’s base salary, except for Mr. Benchimol who will be entitled to a lump sum amount equal to two years’ base salary;

- an amount equal to two times the annual bonus that the executive officer would have been entitled to receive for the calendar year in which the termination occurs, except for Mr. Benchimol who will be entitled to an amount equal to three times the higher of (a) the highest annual bonus earned for any of the three calendar years preceding the date of termination, or (b) the annual bonus that he would have been entitled to receive for the calendar year in which the termination occurs;
- a pro-rata portion of the annual bonus that the executive officer would have been entitled to receive for the calendar year in which the termination occurs;
- continued payment by AXIS of medical coverage or COBRA premiums for a 12-month period, or less in the event that the executive officer ceases to be eligible for COBRA continuation coverage; and
- all outstanding and unvested restricted shares of AXIS' common shares, time-vesting restricted stock units and performance-vesting restricted stock units held by the executive officer on the date of termination would immediately vest.

Under the employment agreements, the executive officer would be required to execute a general release and waiver of claims against AXIS and to resign from his position upon termination of employment for any reason. The executive officers are subject to non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions (of AXIS employees and customers) for a period of 12 months after termination, except for Mr. Benchimol who is subject to non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions (of AXIS employees and customers) for a period of 24 months after termination of employment, and Mr. DiSipio, who is subject to non-competition restrictions for a period of 6 months after termination of employment, and non-solicitation restrictions (of AXIS employees and customers) for a period of 12 months after termination of employment. Additionally, the executive officers are subject to ongoing confidentiality requirements.

On March 9, 2015, AXIS and Mr. Benchimol entered into Amendment No. 1 to his employment agreement dated May 3, 2012. The Amendment extended the term of Mr. Benchimol's employment as AXIS Chief Executive Officer from May 3, 2015 to the earlier of: (i) the consummation of the amalgamation, or (ii) the end date (as described under "The Amalgamation Agreement - Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement"). The only changes to Mr. Benchimol's employment agreement relate to the extension of the terms of his employment agreement and all other terms remained unchanged. Prior to the consummation of the amalgamation, AXIS, with PartnerRe's consent, anticipates entering into a mutually acceptable employment agreement with Mr. Benchimol to reflect his new role with Newco, including that pursuant to the amalgamation agreement, Mr. Benchimol will be appointed to the Newco board of directors and serve as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Newco.

No Golden Parachute Excise Tax Gross-Up

In connection with the amalgamation, no executive officer or director will be entitled to a gross-up payment related to excise taxes imposed on any executive officer or director in the event that any payments or benefits result in an "excess parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Vesting of Certain Balances under Supplemental Retirement Plan

Certain of AXIS' executive officers have unvested discretionary employer contributions under the AXIS Specialty U.S. Services, Inc. Supplemental Retirement Plan. These unvested contributions will become fully vested effective as of the consummation of the amalgamation. The executive officers, and their unvested discretionary employer contributions as of March 6, 2015, are set forth below.

Name	Unvested Supplemental Retirement Plan Balance ($)

Indemnification and Insurance

Pursuant to the terms of the amalgamation agreement, AXIS' directors and executive officers will be entitled to certain ongoing indemnification and coverage under the directors' and officers' liability insurance policies from Newco. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation Agreement — Directors' and Officers' Indemnification and Insurance."

Certain Governance Provisions

The amalgamation agreement contains provisions related to the initial composition of the Newco board of directors and procedural protections related to the removal of Mr. Benchimol as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Newco. The bye-laws will require that certain or AXIS directors to be appointed to the Newco board of directors and to committees of the Newco board of directors. In addition, Mr. Benchimol will serve as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Newco, and during the first three years following the consummation of the amalgamation, may only be removed by a resolution of the Newco board of directors including the affirmative vote of 75% of the directors then in office excluding the vote of any director who is an officer (other than the office of director of Newco) or employee of Newco or who is directly or indirectly interested in such resolution. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement — Governance Matters After the Amalgamation.”

Quantification of Payments and Benefits to AXIS’ Named Executive Officers

The following table and the related footnotes present information about the compensation payable to AXIS’ named executive officers in connection with the proposed amalgamation. The compensation shown in this table is subject to a vote, on a nonbinding advisory basis, of the AXIS shareholders at the AXIS special general meeting, as described in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “Proposals to be Submitted to AXIS Shareholders; Voting Requirements and Recommendations—Proposal 3. Approval of the Compensation Advisory Proposal.”

Supplemental Retirement Plan, which would become vested upon the consummation of the amalgamation, without regard to whether the named executive officer's employment was subsequently terminated.

Dividends and Distributions

Each of PartnerRe and AXIS customarily pays a quarterly cash dividend on their respective common shares. Under the terms of the amalgamation agreement, prior to the effective time of the amalgamation, PartnerRe and AXIS are each permitted to declare and pay ordinary course quarterly cash dividends on their respective common shares with record and payment dates consistent with recent past practice. However, during this period, PartnerRe is permitted to increase its quarterly cash dividends to an amount not to exceed $0.70 per share per quarter, while AXIS may continue to pay, but not increase its current quarterly cash dividend of $0.29. During the fiscal quarter in which the closing of the amalgamation occurs, PartnerRe and AXIS may pay a pro rata dividend for the period from the first day of such quarter until the day immediately preceding the closing date of the amalgamation.

Regulatory Clearances Required for the Amalgamation

The insurance laws and regulations of all 50 U.S. states and the District of Columbia, generally require that prior to the acquisition of control of an insurance company, either through the acquisition of or amalgamation with the insurance company or a holding company of that insurance company, the acquiring party must obtain approval from the insurance regulator of the insurance company's state of domicile. In addition, under the laws of certain states, an acquirer must obtain the approval of the state's insurance regulator to acquire control of an insurance company that is commercially domiciled in that state.

Applications or notifications in connection with the amalgamation or the changes in control of various insurance subsidiaries of PartnerRe and AXIS that may be deemed to occur as a result of the amalgamation will be filed, pursuant to the amalgamation agreement, with various U.S. state insurance regulatory authorities, including but not limited to the California Insurance Department, the Connecticut Insurance Department, the Delaware Insurance Department, the Illinois Department of Insurance, the New York Department of Financial Services, and the Ohio Department of Insurance.

Applications for approval or notifications to regulators have been filed or will also be filed in certain non-U.S. jurisdictions, including but not limited to Australia, Bermuda, Canada, Hong Kong, Ireland, Singapore and the United Kingdom.

The amalgamation is also conditioned on the expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods required under the HSR Act and approvals of anti-trust authorities in the EU, Canada, Colombia, Russia, Turkey and the Ukraine. Competition related notifications may also be required under the U.S. insurance laws in certain states.

Although PartnerRe and AXIS do not expect these regulatory authorities to raise any significant concerns in connection with their review of the amalgamation, there is no assurance that PartnerRe and AXIS will obtain all required regulatory approvals, or that those approvals will not include terms, conditions or restrictions that may have an adverse effect on PartnerRe or AXIS.

Other than the approvals and notifications described above, neither PartnerRe nor AXIS is aware of any material regulatory approvals required to be obtained, or waiting periods required to expire after the making of a filing. If the parties discover that other approvals or filings and waiting periods are necessary, they will seek to obtain or comply with them. If any additional approvals are in fact needed, however, PartnerRe or AXIS may not be able to obtain them, as is the case with respect to the other necessary approvals.

Exchange of Shares in the Amalgamation

Exchange Agent

At least five business days prior to the effective time, AXIS and PartnerRe will jointly designate an exchange agent for the purpose of exchanging shares of Newco for the amalgamation consideration.

Newco will deposit with the exchange agent as soon as reasonably practicable following the effective time certificates or shares in book-entry form representing the Newco common shares to be exchanged in the amalgamation. Following the effective time, Newco will also promptly deposit cash in an amount sufficient to pay any dividends or distributions on Newco common shares with a record date on or following the effective time in respect of Newco common shares to be issued to former AXIS and PartnerRe shareholders who have not yet exchanged their respective AXIS and PartnerRe common shares for the amalgamation consideration.

Exchange Process

As promptly as practical, but in no event later than five business days following the effective time, Newco shall cause the exchange agent to mail a letter of transmittal in customary form acceptable to both PartnerRe and AXIS to each holder of record of AXIS and PartnerRe common shares converted into the right to receive their respective amalgamation consideration. Upon surrender of certificates, which immediately prior to the effective time represented the respective holder's AXIS or PartnerRe common shares, or in the case of AXIS or PartnerRe common shares held in book-entry form, pursuant to customary provisions with respect to delivery of an "agent's" message in accordance with the instructions set forth in the letter of transmittal, together with the duly executed letter of transmittal and any other documents reasonably required by the exchange agent, each such holder of AXIS or PartnerRe common shares shall be entitled to receive their respective amalgamation consideration payable in respect of their common shares. Any certificates so surrendered shall be cancelled immediately. No interest shall accrue or be paid on any amount payable upon surrender of certificates or otherwise.

Unregistered Transferees

If any amalgamation consideration is to be paid to a person or entity other than the person or entity in whose name the surrendered AXIS or PartnerRe certificate (as the case may be) is registered, it will be a condition to the payment of such respective amalgamation consideration to such transferee that the surrendered certificate be accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect the transfer that are reasonably satisfactory to Newco and that the person or entity requesting such payment of the amalgamation consideration pays the applicable transfer taxes or establishes to the satisfaction of Newco and the exchange agent that any applicable transfer taxes have already been paid or are not applicable.

No Other Rights

Until surrendered with the procedures described above, each AXIS or PartnerRe common share shall be deemed, from and after the effective time, to represent only the right to receive the applicable amalgamation consideration and, in the case of dissenting shares, the right to receive consideration as described below in "—Dissenting Shares."

Duration of Exchange Fund

Any portion of the exchange fund held by the exchange agent that has not been distributed to holders of AXIS or PartnerRe common shares within 180 days following the effective time will be delivered to Newco, upon demand, and after such transfer, any holders of AXIS or PartnerRe common shares (as the case may be) may look only to Newco for payment of their respective amalgamation consideration.

Withholding

The exchange agent, Newco, AXIS or PartnerRe, as applicable, will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the amalgamation consideration otherwise payable under the amalgamation agreement those amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of payment under any provision of applicable tax or other law. Amounts so withheld will be treated for all purposes of the amalgamation agreement as having been paid to the AXIS or PartnerRe shareholder in respect of whom the deduction and withholding was made.

Listing of Newco Common Shares

It is a condition to the closing of the amalgamation that the Newco common shares to be issued to PartnerRe and AXIS shareholders pursuant to the amalgamation be authorized for listing on the NYSE upon the consummation of the amalgamation, subject to official notice of issuance.

Delisting of PartnerRe and AXIS Common Shares

PartnerRe and AXIS will use their reasonable best efforts to cause the PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares currently listed on the NYSE to be de-listed and deregistered under the Exchange Act promptly upon consummation of the amalgamation.

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal for PartnerRe and AXIS Shareholders

Any dissenting shareholder who did not vote in favor of the amalgamation proposal and who is not satisfied that it has been offered fair value for its PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares may, within one month of the giving of the notice calling the respective special general meeting apply to the Bermuda Court to appraise the fair value of its respective PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares.

Where the Bermuda Court has appraised the fair value of any PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares and the amalgamation, as is anticipated, has proceeded prior to the appraisal then, within one month of the Bermuda Court appraising the value of the PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares, if the value of the shares in Newco received by any dissenting shareholder for its PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares is less than the value of its PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares appraised by the Bermuda Court, Newco shall pay to such dissenting shareholder the difference in value appraised by the Bermuda Court.

There shall be no right of appeal from an appraisal by the Bermuda Court. The costs of any application to the Bermuda Court to appraise the fair value of the PartnerRe shares or AXIS shares shall be at the discretion of the Bermuda Court.

These summaries are qualified in their entirety by reference to the amalgamation agreement, a conformed copy of which, including the amendments thereto, is incorporated by reference in its entirety and included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Newco, PartnerRe and AXIS or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Shareholders and other investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the amalgamation agreement (except for the right to receive consideration from and after the consummation of the amalgamation and, solely with respect to those shareholders who are current or former directors or officers of PartnerRe or AXIS or their respective subsidiaries, the right to indemnification) and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of PartnerRe and AXIS or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Additionally, the representations, warranties, covenants, conditions and other terms of the amalgamation agreement may be subject to subsequent waiver or modification. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the amalgamation agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in PartnerRe's or AXIS' public disclosures or this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Following the effective time, Newco will also promptly deposit cash in an amount sufficient to pay any dividends or distributions on Newco common shares with a record date on or following the effective time in respect of Newco common shares to be issued to former AXIS and PartnerRe shareholders who have not yet exchanged their respective AXIS and PartnerRe common shares for their respective consideration.

Exchange Process

As promptly as practical, but in no event later than five business days following the effective time, Newco shall cause the exchange agent to mail a letter of transmittal in customary form acceptable to both PartnerRe and AXIS to each holder of record of AXIS and PartnerRe common shares converted into the right to receive their respective amalgamation consideration. Upon surrender of certificates, which immediately prior to the effective time represented the respective holder's AXIS or PartnerRe common shares, or in the case of AXIS or PartnerRe common shares held in book-entry form, pursuant to customary provisions with respect to delivery of an "agent's" message in accordance with the instructions set forth in the letter of transmittal, together with the duly executed letter of transmittal and any other documents reasonably required by the exchange agent, each such holder of AXIS or PartnerRe common shares shall be entitled to receive their respective amalgamation consideration payable in respect of their common shares. Any certificates so surrendered shall be cancelled immediately. No interest shall accrue or be paid on any amount payable upon surrender of certificates or otherwise.

Unregistered Transferees

If any amalgamation consideration is to be paid to a person or entity other than the person or entity in whose name the surrendered AXIS or PartnerRe certificate (as the case may be) is registered, it will be a condition to the payment of such respective amalgamation consideration to such transferee that the surrendered certificate be accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect the transfer that are reasonably satisfactory to Newco and that the person or entity requesting such payment of their respective amalgamation consideration pays the applicable transfer taxes or establishes to the satisfaction of Newco and the exchange agent that any applicable transfer taxes have already been paid or are not applicable.

No Other Rights

Until surrendered with the procedures described above, each AXIS or PartnerRe common share shall be deemed, from and after the effective time, to represent only the right to receive the applicable amalgamation consideration and, in the case of dissenting shares, the additional right to receive consideration as described below in “—Dissenting Shares.”

Duration of Exchange Fund

Any portion of the exchange fund held by the exchange agent that has not been distributed to holders of AXIS or PartnerRe common shares within 180 days following the effective time will be delivered to Newco, upon demand, and after such transfer, any holders of AXIS or PartnerRe common shares (as the case may be) may look only to Newco for payment of their respective amalgamation consideration.

Withholding

The exchange agent, Newco, AXIS or PartnerRe, as applicable, will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the amalgamation consideration those amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of payment under any provision of applicable tax or other law. Amounts so withheld will be treated for all purposes of the amalgamation agreement as having been paid to the AXIS or PartnerRe shareholder in respect of whom the deduction and withholding was made.

Treatment of Share Options and Other Share-Based Awards and Programs

At the effective time: (i) each outstanding PartnerRe share option will be treated in accordance with its terms and converted into an option to purchase, on the same terms and conditions as the PartnerRe share option, a number of Newco common shares that is equal to the number of PartnerRe common shares subject to the PartnerRe share option multiplied by the PartnerRe exchange ratio, at an exercise price per Newco common share equal to the exercise price per share of PartnerRe common share subject to the PartnerRe share option divided by the PartnerRe exchange ratio; (ii) each outstanding PartnerRe share appreciation right will be treated in accordance with its terms and converted into a share appreciation right, on the same terms and conditions as such PartnerRe share appreciation right, for a number of Newco common shares equal to the number of PartnerRe common shares subject to such PartnerRe share appreciation right multiplied by the PartnerRe exchange ratio, at an exercise price per Newco common share equal to the exercise price per PartnerRe common share subject to such PartnerRe share appreciation right divided by the PartnerRe exchange ratio; and (iii) each other share-based award granted by PartnerRe which under its terms becomes fully vested and settled as of the effective time will vest and be settled in accordance with its terms (and any such performance share units will vest and settle as if the maximum performance were achieved) and each PartnerRe common share delivered in settlement thereof will be eligible to receive the consideration for a PartnerRe common share described above; and (iv) each other share-based award granted by PartnerRe which is not vested as of the effective time will be converted into an award, on the same terms and conditions as such PartnerRe share-based award, with respect to a number of Newco common shares equal to the number of PartnerRe common shares underlying such PartnerRe share-based award multiplied by the PartnerRe exchange ratio.

Also at the effective time: (i) each AXIS restricted share award will be converted into an award, on the same terms and conditions as such AXIS restricted share award (including applicable vesting requirements), with respect to a number of Newco common shares equal to the number of AXIS common shares subject to such AXIS restricted share award; and (ii) each other share-based award granted by AXIS will be converted into an award, on the same terms and conditions as such AXIS share-based award (including applicable vesting requirements), with respect to a number of Newco common shares equal to the number of AXIS common shares underlying such AXIS share-based award. Notwithstanding the foregoing, certain AXIS restricted share awards and other share-based awards granted in 2014 will become fully vested as of the effective time.

Representations and Warranties

The amalgamation agreement contains various customary representations and warranties that, with certain limited exceptions, each of PartnerRe and AXIS make to the other relating to, among other things:

- organization, good standing and corporate power;
- capital structure;
- authorization to enter into the amalgamation agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby;

- intellectual property;
- real property and personal property;
- governmental permits and compliance with applicable laws;
- inapplicability of takeover statutes to the amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation;
 - interested party transactions;
 - insurance reserves;
 - insurance policies maintained by each party;
- accuracy of information supplied for inclusion in this joint proxy statement/prospectus;
- the opinion of: (i) Goldman Sachs to the AXIS board of directors and (ii) Credit Suisse to the PartnerRe board of directors (each as described in the sections of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation—Opinion of AXIS’ Financial Advisor” and “The Amalgamation—Opinion of PartnerRe’s Financial Advisor” respectively);
 - broker’s fees payable in connection with the amalgamation;
 - the amalgamation’s qualification as a “reorganization” under applicable tax law;
 - environmental matters; and
 - the absence of other representations or warranties.

Some of the representations and warranties of each party in the amalgamation agreement are qualified by knowledge, materiality thresholds or a “material adverse effect” clause. Each party’s representations and warranties are qualified by its publicly available disclosures filed with the SEC after January 1, 2014 and before January 23, 2015 (other than disclosures contained in the “Risk Factors” or “Forward-Looking Statements” sections of such SEC reports or that otherwise constitute risk factors or that are cautionary, predictive or forward-looking in nature).

For purposes of the amalgamation agreement, a “material adverse effect” on AXIS or PartnerRe, as the case may be, means, any event, circumstance, change or effect that is materially adverse (a) to the business, operations, assets or financial condition of such party or its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (b) on the ability of such party to perform its obligations under the amalgamation agreement without material delay or impairment; provided, that, for the purposes of clause (a) in no event shall any of the following, alone or in combination, be deemed to constitute, nor shall any effects resulting from any of the following be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or will be, a material adverse effect:

1. a change in general political, legislative, economic or financial market conditions or securities, credit, financial or other capital markets or currency conditions;
2. the commencement, continuation or escalation of actions or war, armed hostilities, sabotage, acts of terrorism or other man-made disaster;

3. changes, circumstances or events generally affecting the property and casualty insurance and reinsurance industry in the geographic areas and product markets in which such party or its subsidiaries conduct business;
4. any change in any applicable law;
5. any change in U.S. generally accepted accounting principles or applicable statutory accounting principles following the date of the amalgamation agreement;

Table of Contents

6. liabilities under policies of insurance written or assumed reinsurance contracts from any terrorist act, earthquake, hurricane, tsunami, tornado, windstorm, epidemic or other natural or man-made disaster;
7. the public announcement of the execution of the amalgamation agreement or the consummation of the amalgamation, including the impact thereof on relationships, contractual or otherwise, with customers, cedents, reinsureds, retrocessionaires, reinsurance brokers or intermediaries, suppliers, vendors, lenders, venture partners or employees;
8. any decline, in and of itself, in the market price, or change in trading volume, of the PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares, as applicable;
9. the failure, in and of itself, to meet any revenue, earnings or other projections, forecasts or predictions for any period ending following January 25, 2015;
10. any action taken at the written request of the other party; or
11. any change or announcement of a potential change in a party's or any of its subsidiaries' credit or claims paying rating or the rating of any of its or its subsidiaries' businesses or securities, except: (i) in the case of the foregoing clauses (1) through (5) to the extent those events, circumstances, changes or effects have a disproportionate effect on such party and its subsidiaries compared to other companies of similar size operating in the industries and geographic regions in which such party and its subsidiaries operate; and (ii) the exceptions described in the foregoing clauses (8) and (9) shall not prevent or otherwise affect a determination that any underlying changes, state of facts, circumstances, events or effects have resulted in, or contributed to, a material adverse effect.

In most instances, the representations and warranties of a party in the amalgamation agreement that are qualified by "material adverse effect" are qualified to the extent that the failure of such representations or warranties to be true and correct would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a "material adverse effect" on such party and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole. The representations and warranties of the parties in the amalgamation agreement do not survive after the effective time.

Please see the introduction to this section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Amalgamation Agreement" for additional information regarding the nature of the representations and warranties in the amalgamation agreement.

Conduct of Business

Except as required by applicable law, or as set forth in the parties' disclosure letters or with the written consent of the other party (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), during the period from the execution of the amalgamation agreement to the effective time, PartnerRe and AXIS shall, and shall cause each of their respective subsidiaries: (i) to conduct its operations only in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (ii) to use its commercially reasonable efforts to maintain and preserve intact its business, maintain its permits and to preserve the goodwill of its customers, cedents, reinsureds, retrocessionaires, reinsurance brokers, regulators, suppliers and other persons with whom it has material business relationships and (iii) without limiting the generality of the preceding clauses (i) and (ii), not to take any of the following actions:

1. amend or propose to amend its organizational documents (other than, in the case of AXIS, the bye-law amendment proposal) or waive any requirement thereof;

No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals

Except as described below, PartnerRe and AXIS have agreed that, from the date of the amalgamation agreement until the closing or, if earlier, the termination of the amalgamation agreement in accordance with its terms, neither it nor any of its subsidiaries will, and that it will use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and its subsidiaries' directors, officers, employees, agents, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants and other representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

- initiate, solicit or take any action to knowingly facilitate or knowingly encourage any inquiry or requests for information with respect to, or the making of, or that could reasonably be expected to result in an “acquisition proposal” (as described below);
- enter into, participate or engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any non-public information or data to any person relating to it or any of its subsidiaries, or afford access to such party’s properties and books in connection with an acquisition proposal or indication of interest that could reasonably be expected to result in an acquisition proposal;
 - approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any acquisition proposal;
- approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger or amalgamation agreement, acquisition agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement relating to any acquisition proposal;
- terminate, amend, release, modify or fail to enforce any provision of, or grant any permission, waiver or request under, any confidentiality, standstill or similar agreement or obligations of any person; or
- propose publicly or commit, authorize or agree to do any of the foregoing relating to any acquisition proposal.

For purposes of the amalgamation agreement, an “acquisition proposal,” when used with respect to PartnerRe or AXIS, means any proposal or offer made by any third-party with respect to:

- a merger, amalgamation, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation or similar transaction with PartnerRe or AXIS, as applicable;
- any purchase of an equity interest (including by means of a tender or exchange offer) of 15% or more of the voting or economic interests in PartnerRe or AXIS, as applicable; or
- any purchase of assets, securities or ownership interests representing 15% or more of the consolidated assets, consolidated net revenues or earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization of PartnerRe or AXIS and their subsidiaries taken as a whole, as applicable;

Except as described below, each of PartnerRe and AXIS have also agreed that, prior to the closing date, neither their respective board of directors nor any committee thereof will, directly or indirectly:

- withhold, withdraw, modify or qualify, or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, modify or qualify, in a manner adverse to the other party, their respective board recommendation that the AXIS shareholders or PartnerRe shareholders (as the case may be) vote affirmatively to adopt the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation;
- approve, adopt, recommend or declare advisable, or publicly propose to approve, adopt, recommend or declare advisable, any acquisition proposal;
- if a tender offer or exchange offer for any outstanding shares of such party’s share capital is commenced, fail to recommend against the acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by such party’s shareholders (which includes taking no position or a neutral position) within five business days of the commencement thereof (or in the event of a change in the terms of the tender offer or exchange offer, within five business days of the announcement of such change); or

- fail to include in this joint proxy statement/prospectus their respective board recommendation that the AXIS shareholders or PartnerRe shareholders (as the case may be) vote affirmatively to adopt the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation.

Any of the four actions described in the immediately preceding paragraph are referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as a “change of recommendation.”

Until the earlier of the receipt of their respective requisite shareholder vote and the termination of the amalgamation agreement in accordance with its terms, if PartnerRe or AXIS receives (such party, the “receiving party”) a written unsolicited bona fide acquisition proposal that the board of directors of the receiving party has determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors: (i) constitutes a “superior proposal” (as described below) or (ii) would reasonably be likely to result in a superior proposal, then the receiving party may (A) furnish or disclose non-public information to the third-party making such acquisition proposal if such third-party executes a confidentiality agreement with customary provisions not materially less favorable in the aggregate to the receiving party than the existing confidentiality agreement, dated January 17, 2015, between PartnerRe or AXIS, and (B) engage in discussions or negotiations with such third-party with respect to its acquisition proposal, in each case, only if the receiving party’s board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel that failure to do so would violate the fiduciary duties of the receiving party’s board under applicable law.

For purposes of the amalgamation agreement, “superior proposal” when used with respect to PartnerRe or AXIS, means a bona fide written acquisition proposal made after the date of the amalgamation agreement (except that references in the definition of “acquisition proposal” to 15% are replaced by 50%) on terms that the board of directors of the receiving party determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, and considering factors it believes to be appropriate (including all terms and conditions of the acquisition proposal, the timing and likelihood of consummation, closing conditions and break-up fees), are more favorable to the receiving party than the amalgamation, after taking into account any change to the terms of the amalgamation subsequently proposed by the other party.

Nothing contained in the amalgamation agreement, however, will prevent the AXIS board of directors or the PartnerRe board of directors, at any time prior to the receipt of its respective requisite shareholder vote, in response to the receipt of a written unsolicited bona fide acquisition proposal from effecting a change of recommendation if the AXIS board of directors or the PartnerRe board of directors, as the case may be, determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that (x) failure to make such change of recommendation would violate the respective fiduciary duties of the AXIS board of directors or the PartnerRe board of directors, as the case may be, under applicable law and (y) such acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal; provided, that, the AXIS board of directors or the PartnerRe board of directors, as the case may be, will not be permitted to make a change of recommendation: (A) until at least five business days have passed following the PartnerRe board of directors’ or the AXIS board of directors’ respective receipt of a written notice from the other party that includes the reasons for the change of recommendation and the material terms and conditions of the superior proposal (including any proposed agreement, the identity of the third-party, its sources of financing (if any) and any agreements related to financing (and any change in financial or other material terms of such proposal will require an additional five business day notice to the other party)); (B) during such five business day period (i) the AXIS board of directors or the PartnerRe board of directors, as applicable, provides the other party with a reasonable opportunity to make any adjustments to the terms and conditions of the amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation so that the acquisition proposal ceases to be a superior proposal, and negotiates with such party in good faith with respect to any adjustments; and (ii) the AXIS board of directors or the PartnerRe board of directors, as applicable, has determined in good faith at the end of such five business day period, after considering the results of the negotiations and the revised proposals made by the other party, and after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor, that the superior proposal giving rise to the written notice continues to be a superior proposal and that a failure to make a change in its recommendation would violate its fiduciary duties under applicable laws; (C) unless the AXIS board of directors or the PartnerRe board of directors, as the case may be, has not materially breached its obligations described under this section “—No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals.”

Even if PartnerRe or AXIS, as the case may be, has made a change of recommendation such party shall still be required to call and hold their respective shareholders’ meeting for the purpose of obtaining their respective requisite shareholder vote in connection with the amalgamation.

Each of PartnerRe and AXIS will: (i) promptly orally notify the other party of any request for information or inquiries relating to an acquisition proposal, indicating the identity of the person making such request, inquiry, proposal or offer and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers (including copies of the most recent version of the proposed agreement and financing agreements (if any)), (ii) provide to the other party with written notice of any inquiry, proposal or offer within 24 hours of receipt and copies of any related written or electronic correspondence, (iii) keep the other party informed orally, as soon as is reasonably practicable, of the status and terms of any acquisition proposal, and (iv) provide any information to the other party (that was not previously provided) that it is furnishing to a third-party, pursuant to the provisions described in this section “—No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals,” at substantially the same time it provides such information to such other third-party.

Each of PartnerRe and AXIS also agreed that it and its subsidiaries will: (i) immediately cease and terminate any existing activities, solicitations, discussions or negotiations, if any, with any third-party or its representatives conducted prior to the date of the amalgamation agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal, (ii) request that any such third-party and its representatives that has executed a confidentiality agreement in the 24-month period prior to the date of the amalgamation agreement that relates to an acquisition proposal with PartnerRe and AXIS (as the case may be) return or destroy as promptly as practicable all confidential information respectively furnished by PartnerRe or AXIS; (iii) immediately take all steps necessary to the extent reasonably possible to terminate any approval under any confidentiality, “standstill” or similar provision that may have been previously given by PartnerRe or AXIS to any third person to make an acquisition proposal; and (iv) take the necessary steps to promptly inform their representatives of their obligations described in this section “—No Solicitation of Acquisition Proposals.”

Efforts to Obtain Required Shareholder Votes

Each of PartnerRe and AXIS have agreed to hold their respective shareholders’ meeting within 45 days of the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus is a part, and to use their respective reasonable best efforts to solicit the requisite shareholder approval for the proposals to approve the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation and in the case of AXIS, the bye-law amendment. The amalgamation agreement requires each of PartnerRe and AXIS to submit these proposals to a shareholder vote even if its respective board of directors has changed its recommendation related to such proposals, and this joint proxy statement/prospectus and any accompanying materials may include appropriate disclosure with respect to such adverse recommendation change if and to the extent the PartnerRe or AXIS board of directors (as the case may be) determines that the failure to include such disclosure would violate its fiduciary duties under applicable laws. The parties have also agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to hold their respective special general meetings on the same date.

Efforts to Complete the Amalgamation

PartnerRe and AXIS agreed, upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the amalgamation agreement, to use their respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other party in doing, all things necessary or proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable and in any event prior to the end date (described below under “—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement”) the amalgamation, including:

- the obtaining of all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents, licenses, permits, authorizations, orders and approvals from governmental entities and the making of all other necessary registrations and filings,
- the obtaining of all consents, approvals or waivers from third parties that are necessary or desirable or required in connection with the amalgamation and are material to the business of AXIS or PartnerRe, as the case may be,
 - the preparation of the registration statement and the joint proxy statement,
- the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to complete the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement; and
- the providing of all such information concerning such party, its affiliates and its affiliates’ officers, directors, employees and partners as may reasonably be requested or necessary in connection with any statement, filing, action, application or matters described in this section of the joint proxy statement/prospectus “—Efforts to Complete the Amalgamation.”

Table of Contents

In connection with the foregoing, however, neither party will be required to sell, divest or hold separate or otherwise dispose of any assets, product lines or businesses, Newco will not be required to conduct the business of either AXIS or PartnerRe or their subsidiaries, taken as whole after giving effect to the amalgamation, in a specified manner following the effective time, and no party will be required to take any action (including any of the foregoing actions) if such action would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Newco or its subsidiaries taken as whole after giving effect to the amalgamation. The actions described in this paragraph shall be collectively referred to as “regulatory material adverse effect.”

Consents and Approvals

See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation—Regulatory Clearances Required for the Amalgamation”, for a description of the material regulatory approvals required for consummation of the amalgamation.

Governance Matters After the Amalgamation

The amalgamation agreement contains certain provisions relating to the governance of Newco following the effective time, which may also be reflected in the bye-laws of Newco that are attached hereto as an exhibit to the statutory amalgamation agreement.

Board of Directors

The full board of directors of Newco will consist of 14 directors (collectively, the “post-closing directors”), to comprise of seven directors initially designated by AXIS (the “AXIS board designees”) and seven directors initially designated by PartnerRe (the “PartnerRe board designees”). One PartnerRe board designee shall be Jean-Paul Montupet and one AXIS board designee will be Albert Benchimol. The post-closing directors will serve until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are elected or appointed in accordance with the bye-laws of Newco.

PartnerRe and AXIS agreed to take all actions reasonably necessary so that the Newco board of directors designates the following six committees: audit, risk, nominating and corporate governance, finance, compensation and executive. Each such committee will be composed of post-closing directors drawn equally from the AXIS board designees and the PartnerRe board designees who will serve until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are elected or appointed or such other time as the board of directors of Newco determines to reconstitute or eliminate such committee, in each case in accordance with the bye-laws of Newco. The initial chairpersons of the risk, nominating and corporate governance and compensation committees of the Newco board of directors will be designated by the AXIS board of directors in its sole discretion and the initial chairpersons of the audit, finance and executive committees of the Newco board of directors will be designated by the PartnerRe board of directors in its sole discretion. Such initial chairpersons will serve until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed or such other time as the as the board of directors of Newco company determines to reconstitute or eliminate such committee, in each case in accordance with the bye-laws of Newco.

President and Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board

Immediately after the effective time Albert Benchimol will be appointed as the president and Chief Executive Officer of Newco and Jean-Paul Montupet will be elected as the Chairman of the Newco board of directors. The bye-laws of Newco will also provide that: (i) until the third anniversary of the effective date, the affirmative vote of 75% of the Newco board of directors (excluding interested directors, employees and officers) will be required to remove Mr. Benchimol or Mr. Montupet from such roles, (ii) any amendments to the preceding provisions relating to the removal of Mr. Benchimol or Mr. Montupet will require the affirmative vote of 75% of the Newco board of directors

Directors' and Officers' Indemnification and Insurance

Following the effective time, Newco will indemnify, defend and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, the present and former officers and directors of PartnerRe, AXIS and their respective subsidiaries against all losses, claims, damages, judgments, expenses and other liabilities that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any legal action based or arising on such person's respective service prior to the effective time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective time (including acts or omissions relating to the approval of the amalgamation), to the fullest extent permitted under PartnerRe's organizational documents and AXIS' organizational documents (as the case may be) and any indemnification agreement entered into between a party and such person.

In addition, at the effective time Newco will purchase a “tail” directors’ and officers’ liability insurance policy, for the present and former directors and officers of each of PartnerRe, AXIS and their respective subsidiaries who were covered prior to the effective time by existing policies of directors’ and officers’ liability insurance, which provides coverage for six years following the effective time and on other terms that provide at least substantially equivalent benefits to the covered persons as the existing policies.

If Newco consolidates with or merges into any person and is not the surviving company, or transfers substantially all of its assets or properties to any person, then Newco or its respective successors or assigns must ensure that such person assumes Newco’s obligations described under this section of the joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “—Directors’ and Officers’ Indemnification and Insurance.”

Employees and Employee Benefits

Employees of AXIS and PartnerRe will receive service credit for the purposes of eligibility to participate in and vesting (but not for the purposes of benefit accrual or vesting of equity compensation) under the employee benefit plans maintained by Newco, to the same extent that service was recognized prior to the effective time under a comparable plan of AXIS or PartnerRe.

PartnerRe agreed to terminate its employee share purchase plans effective as of the effective time, and to ensure that: (i) no new offering periods will begin after January 25, 2015, (ii) no new participants will be permitted to be enrolled in any employee share purchase plans and existing participants will not be able to increase deferral rates under an employee share purchase plan, and (iii) if the closing occurs during an existing offer period, to take such actions required to end the offering period effective as of the last business day prior to the effective time.

The amalgamation agreement contains certain other covenants and agreements, including covenants relating to:

- confidentiality and access by each party to certain information about the other party during the period prior to the effective time;

Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement

The amalgamation agreement may be terminated at any time before the effective time by mutual written consent of AXIS and PartnerRe and, subject to certain limitations described in the amalgamation agreement, by either AXIS or PartnerRe if any of the following occurs:

- the amalgamation has not been consummated by the end date except that this right of termination is not available to any party whose failure to comply in any material respect with any covenant or obligation under the amalgamation agreement has primarily contributed to the failure of the amalgamation to occur on or before such date;
- if at the PartnerRe special general meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) the requisite approval of the PartnerRe shareholders has not been obtained;
- if at the AXIS special general meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) the requisite approval of the AXIS shareholders has not been obtained;
- a law or regulation prohibits or makes illegal the consummation of the amalgamation, or any order restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits consummation of the amalgamation and such order shall have become final and nonappealable, except that this right of termination shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply in any material respect with any covenant or obligation under the amalgamation agreement has primarily caused the issuance of such order; or
- there has been a material breach by the other party of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the amalgamation agreement, which breach would result in the failure of certain closing conditions to be satisfied on or prior to the end date, and such breach is not capable of being cured or has not been cured within 30 business days after detailed written notice of such breach has been received by the party alleged to be in breach.

Termination by AXIS

The amalgamation agreement may also be terminated, at any time prior to obtaining the required vote of the PartnerRe shareholders, by AXIS, if any of the following occurs:

- the PartnerRe board of directors effects a change of recommendation; or
- an acquisition proposal with respect to PartnerRe was publicly announced or disclosed (or any person has publicly announced an intention (whether or not conditional) to make such acquisition proposal) after the date of the amalgamation agreement and the PartnerRe board of directors fails to publicly affirm its recommendation that the PartnerRe shareholders adopt the amalgamation agreement within five business days after receipt of a written request from AXIS to do so; or
- the PartnerRe board of directors publicly announces an intention to take any of the foregoing actions described in the two preceding bullet points; or
- PartnerRe has materially breached (A) its obligations regarding the holding of its special general meeting or (B) its non-solicitation obligations under the amalgamation agreement.

Termination by PartnerRe

The amalgamation agreement may also be terminated, at any time prior to obtaining the required vote of the AXIS shareholders, by PartnerRe, if any of the following occurs:

- The AXIS board of directors effects a change of recommendation; or
- an acquisition proposal with respect to AXIS was publicly announced or disclosed (or any person has publicly announced an intention (whether or not conditional) to make such an acquisition proposal) after the date of the amalgamation agreement and the AXIS board of directors fails to publicly affirm its recommendation that the AXIS shareholders adopt the amalgamation agreement within five business days after receipt of a written request from PartnerRe to do so; or

- The AXIS board of directors publicly announces an intention to take any of the foregoing actions described in the two preceding bullet points; or
- AXIS has materially breached (A) its obligations regarding the holding of its special general meeting or (B) its non-solicitation obligations under the amalgamation agreement.

New York Stock Exchange De-listing and Exchange Act Deregistration

PartnerRe and AXIS agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to cause the PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares to be de-listed from the NYSE and deregistered under the Exchange Act promptly following the effective time.

Effect of Termination; Liability for Breach

If the amalgamation agreement is terminated as described in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement” the amalgamation agreement will become void and have no effect (other than the survival of certain provisions including those relating to confidentiality), without any liability of any party or its directors, officers or shareholders, except that no party shall be relieved of liability for fraud or any willful and intentional breach of any provision of the amalgamation agreement. If it is judicially determined that the termination of the amalgamation agreement was caused by a willful and intentional breach of the amalgamation agreement, then, in addition to other remedies at law or equity for a willful and intentional breach of the amalgamation agreement, the party so found to be willfully and intentionally breaching the amalgamation agreement will indemnify and hold harmless the other parties for their respective reasonable out-of-pocket costs, fees and expenses of their counsel, accountants, financial advisors and other experts and advisors as well as fees and expenses incident to negotiation, preparation and execution of the amalgamation agreement, including severance costs and related expenses, and related documentation and shareholders’ meetings and consents.

Termination Fee

Upon payment by AXIS or PartnerRe, as the case may be, of the termination fee of $250 million (the “termination fee”) in full, such party will no longer be required to indemnify and hold harmless the other parties for their respective costs pursuant to the provision described in the preceding sentence.

AXIS will be obligated to pay the termination fee to PartnerRe or its designee:

- following termination of the amalgamation agreement for any reason pursuant to the provisions described under the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement—Termination by PartnerRe;” or
- if PartnerRe terminates the amalgamation agreement because: (i) AXIS materially breaches its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements so that the related closing condition fails or (ii) the end date is reached, in each case following the public announcement of an acquisition proposal with respect to AXIS, and within 12 months after the date of such termination AXIS enters into a letter of intent, agreement-in-principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement with respect to, or publicly announces or consummates, a business combination (as defined below).

PartnerRe will be obligated to pay the termination fee to AXIS or its designee:

- following termination of the amalgamation agreement for any reason pursuant to the provision described under the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “—Termination of the Amalgamation Agreement—Termination by AXIS;” or
- if AXIS terminates the amalgamation agreement because: (i) PartnerRe materially breaches its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements so that the related closing condition fails or (ii) the end date is reached, in each case following the public announcement of an acquisition proposal with respect to PartnerRe, and within 12 months after the date of such termination PartnerRe enters into a letter of intent, agreement-in-principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement with respect to, or publicly announces or consummates, a business combination.

For the purposes of the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “—Effect of Termination,” the term “business combination” shall mean any merger, amalgamation, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation or similar transaction involving AXIS, in the case of AXIS, or PartnerRe in the case of PartnerRe, as a result of which the shareholders of AXIS or the shareholders of PartnerRe, as applicable, prior to such transaction in the aggregate cease to own more than 50% of the voting securities of the entity surviving or resulting from such transaction (or the ultimate entity thereof), (ii) any purchase of an equity interest (including by means of a tender or exchange offer) representing an amount equal to or greater than a 50% voting or economic interest in AXIS or PartnerRe, as applicable, or (iii) any purchase of assets, securities or ownership interests representing an amount equal to or greater than 50% of the consolidated assets (including shares of the respective subsidiaries of AXIS or PartnerRe, as applicable), consolidated net revenues or earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization of AXIS and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or PartnerRe and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as applicable.

No Approval Fee

AXIS will be obligated to pay a fee of $55 million (the “no approval fee”) to PartnerRe or its designee if either party has terminated the amalgamation agreement because the required AXIS shareholder approval has not been obtained (and if PartnerRe is the terminating party, the required PartnerRe shareholder approval has been obtained or such vote has not yet been taken); provided, that, if an acquisition proposal with respect to AXIS was publicly announced prior to the special general meeting of AXIS shareholders at which the required vote of AXIS’ shareholders was not obtained and, within 12 months after the date of such termination, AXIS enters into a letter of intent, agreement-in-principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement with respect to, or publicly announces or consummates, a business combination, then AXIS will also pay to PartnerRe or its designee an additional $195 million in cash (in addition to the no approval fee).

PartnerRe will be obligated to pay the no approval fee to AXIS or its designee if either party has terminated the amalgamation agreement because the required PartnerRe shareholder approval has not been obtained (and if AXIS is the terminating party, the required AXIS shareholder approval has been obtained or such vote has not yet been taken); provided, that, if an acquisition proposal with respect to PartnerRe was publicly announced prior to the special general meeting of PartnerRe shareholders at which the required vote of PartnerRe’s shareholders was not obtained and, within 12 months after the date of such termination, PartnerRe enters into a letter of intent, agreement-in-principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement with respect to, or publicly announces or consummates, a business combination, then PartnerRe will also pay to AXIS or its designee a further $195 million in cash (in addition to the no approval fee).

Expense Reimbursement

Upon any termination of the amalgamation agreement where the termination fee or the no approval fee is payable, the party liable to pay the termination fee or no approval fee shall, in addition to the payment of the termination fee or the no approval fee, reimburse the other party and its affiliates after such termination for 100% of such party’s out-of-pocket fees, costs, obligations owed to third parties and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of their counsel) actually incurred by any of them in contemplation of, or in connection with the consideration, negotiation or implementation of the amalgamation or the other actions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement in an amount not to exceed $35 million.

Expenses

Except as described above in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “—Effect of Termination; Liability for Breach” all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby will be paid by the party incurring such expenses, although the expenses incurred in connection with filing, printing and mailing the registration statement on Form S-4 and this joint proxy statement/prospectus and otherwise incurred in connection with obtaining the required transaction approvals will be shared equally by AXIS and PartnerRe.

Amendments, Extensions and Waivers

The amalgamation agreement may be amended by the parties in writing, by action of their respective boards of directors, at any time before or after the receipt of the requisite approval of the PartnerRe shareholders or the requisite approval of AXIS shareholders, but after any such shareholder approval, no amendment may be made which by law requires the further approval or authorization by the shareholders of PartnerRe or AXIS without such further shareholder approval or authorization.

Prior to the effective time, PartnerRe and AXIS, by action of their respective boards of directors, may, in writing and to the extent legally allowed: (i) extend the time for performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the amalgamation agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the amalgamation agreement and (iii) waive compliance of the other party with any of the applicable agreements or conditions contained in the amalgamation agreement or any document delivered pursuant to the amalgamation agreement.

Governing Law; Jurisdiction

The amalgamation agreement is governed by and is to be construed, in all respects, with regard to the laws of New York, including as to validity, interpretation and effect, provided, that any provisions of the amalgamation agreement relating to a director's or officer's fiduciary duties, statutory duties, obligations and/or statutory provisions, or which arise under the laws of Bermuda, shall be governed by the laws of Bermuda (including amalgamations under the Companies Act. The parties have agreed and submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Bermuda (and appropriate appellate courts therefrom) for the purposes of any litigation or other proceeding arising out of or relating to the amalgamation agreement or its subject matter. Each party has agreed to waive any objection to the laying of venue in such courts.

Dissenting Shares

At the effective time, all common shares or preferred shares of AXIS or PartnerRe, as the case may be, held by a dissenting shareholder shall be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the respective amalgamation consideration for such shares set forth in the amalgamation agreement or, as the case may be, preferred shares of Newco. In the event that the fair value of a dissenting share as appraised by the Supreme Court of Bermuda under Section 106(6) of the Companies Act is greater than the consideration or, as the case may be, the value of the preferred share of Newco received for such share pursuant to the terms of the statutory amalgamation agreement, the dissenting shareholder shall be entitled to receive such difference from Newco by payment made within one month after such fair value is finally determined pursuant to such appraisal procedure. Each party must give prompt notice to the other of any demands (or withdrawal thereof) or applications for appraisal and provide the other party with the opportunity to participate and be regularly consulted in any appraisal proceedings or settlement negotiations. Neither party may voluntarily make any payments with respect to or settle any demands or applications for appraisal without the other party's consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

No Third-Party Beneficiaries

While the amalgamation agreement is not intended, and will not be construed, to create any third-party beneficiaries or confer upon any person other than the parties to the amalgamation agreement any rights, benefits or remedies of any nature, it provides a limited exception for each present and former director and officer of PartnerRe and AXIS to continue to have indemnification, advancement of expenses and liability insurance coverage following the effective time as described under in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “—Directors’ and Officers’ Indemnification and Insurance”.

Specific Performance

PartnerRe and AXIS have recognized and agreed that, if for any reason any of the provisions of the amalgamation agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms or are otherwise breached or violated, immediate and irreparable harm or injury would be caused for which money damages would not be an adequate remedy under applicable law. Accordingly, in addition to all other remedies to which a party to the amalgamation agreement may be entitled, each party is also entitled to a decree of specific performance and will further be entitled to an injunction restraining any violation or threatened violation of any of the provisions of the amalgamation agreement without the necessity of posting a bond or other form of security. In the event that any action should be brought in equity to enforce any of the provisions of the amalgamation agreement, no party will allege, and each party has waived the defense, that there is an adequate remedy under applicable law.

REGULATORY MATTERS

Subject to the terms and conditions of the amalgamation agreement and in accordance with applicable laws, PartnerRe and AXIS have agreed to use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to close the amalgamation and the other transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement in the most expeditious manner practicable, as discussed in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—Consents and Approvals.”

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with obtaining a required regulatory approval, neither PartnerRe nor AXIS nor any of their respective subsidiaries will be required to agree to take or refrain from taking, any action that would be expected to have a regulatory material adverse effect.

Antitrust

Under the HSR Act, PartnerRe and AXIS cannot close the amalgamation until PartnerRe and AXIS have notified the Antitrust Division and the FTC of the amalgamation and furnished them with certain information and materials relating to the amalgamation and the applicable waiting period has terminated or expired. The termination or expiration of the waiting period means the parties have satisfied the regulatory requirements under the HSR Act. PartnerRe and AXIS filed the required notifications with the Antitrust Division and the FTC on March 3, 2015. The waiting period will generally expire thirty (30) days after the appropriate notification has been filed unless the applicable regulatory agency requests additional information or the parties receive early termination. The parties have requested early termination of the waiting period, but there can be no assurance that early termination will be granted. Competition related notifications may also be required under the U.S. insurance laws in certain states.

Both PartnerRe and AXIS operate in the European Union. The EU Merger Regulation requires notification of and approval by the European Commission of mergers or acquisitions involving parties with worldwide and European Union sales exceeding given thresholds. The European Commission has an initial period of 25 working days after receipt of the notification to issue its decision (“Phase I”). The European Commission may extend this Phase I period to 35 working days if, within the first 20 working days after submission of the notification, the parties propose remedies to address any competition concerns identified by the European Commission. The European Commission may open an extended investigation, which extends Phase I by up to 90 working days, and can be extended to 105 working days if remedies are offered after the 55th working day or to 110 working days by request of the parties or by the Commission with consent of the parties. The amalgamation cannot be consummated until after the European Commission has issued its clearance decision.

PartnerRe and AXIS derive revenues in other jurisdictions where merger or acquisition control filings or clearances are or may be required, including clearances in Canada, Colombia, Turkey, Russia, and Ukraine. In addition, clearance under the Australian Foreign Investment Review Board will also be required. The amalgamation cannot be consummated until after the applicable waiting periods have expired or been terminated or the relevant approvals have been obtained under the antitrust and competition and foreign investment laws of the jurisdictions listed above where filings or approvals are or may be required.

The European Commission, the FTC or other applicable antitrust or competition law authorities may seek or require the imposition of certain conditions on the amalgamation in connection with obtaining antitrust or merger control or foreign investment law clearances. While the parties do not believe that conditions resulting in a material adverse effect are likely to be imposed and does not believe that any antitrust or competition law authority would seek to prevent the amalgamation from closing, there can be no assurances that the applicable antitrust or merger control law authorities will not seek to impose restrictions that may adversely impact the benefits expected to be achieved from the amalgamation including, but not limited to, a prohibition on consummation.

Insurance and Other Regulatory Matters

The insurance laws and regulations of all 50 U.S. states and the District of Columbia generally require that before the acquisition of control of an insurance company, either through the acquisition of or amalgamation with the insurance company or a holding company of that insurance company, the acquiring party must obtain approval from the insurance regulator of the insurance company's state of domicile. In addition, under the laws of certain states, an acquirer must obtain the approval of the state's insurance regulator to acquire control of an insurance company that is commercially domiciled in that state.

Applications or notifications in connection with the amalgamation or the changes in control of various subsidiaries of PartnerRe and AXIS that may be deemed to occur as a result of the amalgamation will be filed, pursuant to the amalgamation agreement, with various U.S. state regulatory authorities, including but not limited to the California Insurance Department, the Connecticut Insurance Department, the Delaware Insurance Department, the Illinois Department of Insurance, the New York Department of Financial Services, and the Ohio Department of Insurance.

Applications for approval or notifications to regulators have been filed or will also be filed in certain non-U.S. jurisdictions, including but not limited to, Australia, Bermuda, Canada, Hong Kong, Ireland, Singapore and the United Kingdom.

Although PartnerRe and AXIS do not expect these regulatory authorities to raise any significant concerns in connection with their review of the amalgamation, there is no assurance that PartnerRe and/or AXIS will obtain all required regulatory approvals on a timely basis, if at all, or that these approvals will not include a restriction, limitation or condition that would trigger a burdensome condition, which, in such case, would permit PartnerRe or AXIS to refuse to close the transactions contemplated by the amalgamation agreement and consummate the amalgamation.

Other than the approvals and notifications described above, neither PartnerRe nor AXIS is aware of any material regulatory approvals required to be obtained, or waiting periods required to expire, after the making of a filing. If the parties discover that other approvals or filings and waiting periods are necessary, they will seek to obtain or comply with them, although, as is the case with the regulatory approvals described above, there can be no assurance that they will be obtained on a timely basis, if at all, or would not constitute a regulatory material adverse effect.

Required Vote

The holders of PartnerRe preferred shares will be entitled to vote on only the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal, whereas the holders of PartnerRe common shares will be entitled to vote on all of the proposals. The affirmative vote of the majority of the votes cast at the PartnerRe special general meeting, at which a quorum under the PartnerRe bye-laws is present, is required to approve each matter to be acted on, including the amalgamation proposal and any adjournment proposal. Each PartnerRe share, including the PartnerRe preferred shares, will carry the right to approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal. Each PartnerRe share, including the PartnerRe preferred shares, will carry the right to vote on the adjournment proposal. The vote required for each of the proposals is set forth under the description of each proposal in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The PartnerRe Special General Meeting – Proposals to be Submitted to PartnerRe Shareholders; Voting Requirements and Recommendations” for more information.

Voting Securities

Except as provided below: (i) holders of PartnerRe common shares have one vote for each PartnerRe common share held by them and are entitled to vote on all the proposals voted on at the PartnerRe special general meeting or any adjournment thereof; and (ii) holders of PartnerRe preferred shares have one vote for each PartnerRe preferred share held by them and are entitled to vote on each of the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal.

If any person would be a Ten Percent Shareholder (as such capitalized term is defined in the PartnerRe bye-laws), notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the PartnerRe bye-laws, the votes conferred by the Controlled Shares (as such capitalized term is defined in the PartnerRe bye-laws) of such person are reduced (and shall automatically be reduced in the future) by whatever amount is necessary so that after any such reduction such person shall not be a Ten Percent Shareholder. In determining the reduction in votes conferred by Controlled Shares pursuant to the PartnerRe bye-laws, the reduction in vote conferred by the Controlled Shares of any person shall be effected proportionately among all the Controlled Shares of such person, provided, however, that if a PartnerRe shareholder owns, or is treated as owning by the application of section 958 of the Code, interests in another PartnerRe shareholder, any reduction in votes conferred by Controlled Shares of such PartnerRe shareholder, any reduction in votes conferred by Controlled Shares of such PartnerRe shareholder (determined solely on the basis of PartnerRe shares held directly by such PartnerRe shareholder and PartnerRe shares attributed to such PartnerRe shareholder) shall be first reduced the votes conferred on the PartnerRe shares held directly by the PartnerRe shareholder that owns directly or through another entity an interest in such PartnerRe shareholder.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the PartnerRe bye-laws, in addition to the above, PartnerRe shares shall not carry rights to vote, or shall have reduced voting rights, to the extent that the PartnerRe Board reasonably determines that it is necessary that such shares should not carry the right to vote or should have reduced voting rights in order to avoid non-deminimis adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences to PartnerRe or any subsidiary of PartnerRe or any PartnerRe shareholder or affiliate of any PartnerRe shareholder, provided that the PartnerRe board shall use reasonable efforts to exercise such discretion equally among similarly situated PartnerRe shareholders.

Because the applicability of PartnerRe’s voting power reduction bye-law provisions to any particular shareholder depends on facts and circumstances that may be known only to the shareholder or related persons, PartnerRe requests that PartnerRe shareholders holding 9.9% or more of issued PartnerRe shares contact PartnerRe promptly so that PartnerRe may determine whether the voting power of such holder’s PartnerRe shares should be reduced. PartnerRe’s board of directors may require any direct or indirect holder of shares to provide such information as PartnerRe’s board of directors may reasonably request for the purpose of implementing the provision in the PartnerRe bye-laws relating to the adjustment of voting power. If a PartnerRe shareholder fails to respond to such a request, or submits incomplete or inaccurate information in response to such a request, PartnerRe’s board of directors may determine in its sole discretion that such holder's shares shall carry no or reduced voting rights unless otherwise determined by the PartnerRe board of directors in its reasonable discretion.

Abstentions and "Broker Non-Votes"

Abstentions and, if applicable, "broker non-votes" will be counted toward the presence of a quorum at the special general meeting, but will not be considered votes cast on any proposal brought before the special general meeting. Because the vote required to approve the proposals to be voted upon at the special general meeting is the affirmative vote of the specified required percentage of the votes cast assuming a quorum is present, an abstention or, if applicable, a "broker non-vote" with respect to any proposal to be voted on at the special general meeting will not have the effect of a vote for or against the relevant proposal, but will reduce the number of votes cast and therefore increase the relative influence of those shareholders voting.

Revocation of Proxies

At any time prior to their being voted at the PartnerRe special general meeting, proxies are revocable by written notice to the Secretary of PartnerRe, by a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by voting in person at the PartnerRe special general meeting.

PROPOSALS TO BE SUBMITTED TO PARTNERRE SHAREHOLDERS; VOTING REQUIREMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Proposal 1. Approval and Adoption of the Amalgamation Proposal

In this proposal, PartnerRe is asking its shareholders to approve and adopt the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation.

The amalgamation cannot be completed unless, among other things, PartnerRe shareholders approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal by the requisite shareholder vote. The approval by PartnerRe shareholders of this proposal for the approval and adoption of the amalgamation proposal IS a condition to closing in the amalgamation. Please see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled “The Amalgamation Agreement—Conditions to the Amalgamation” for more information.

PartnerRe’s board of directors (1) determined that the amalgamation, on the terms and conditions set forth in the amalgamation agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, PartnerRe, (2) approved the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (3) resolved that the amalgamation proposal be submitted to the PartnerRe shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting.

Each PartnerRe share, including the PartnerRe preferred shares, as of the record date will carry the right to vote on this proposal. The approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of a simple majority of the votes cast of PartnerRe shares at the PartnerRe special general meeting, at which a quorum under the PartnerRe bye-laws is present.

PartnerRe’s board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR”
this Proposal 1 to approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal.

Proposal 2. Approval of the Compensation Advisory Proposal

PartnerRe is providing its shareholders with the opportunity to cast an advisory (nonbinding) vote to approve the “golden parachute” compensation payments that will or may be made by PartnerRe to its named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation, as required by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 and Rule 14a-21(c) under the Exchange Act. This proposal, commonly known as “say-on-golden parachute” and which is referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the “golden parachute” compensation proposal, gives PartnerRe shareholders the opportunity to vote on an advisory (nonbinding) basis on the “golden parachute” compensation payments that will or may be paid by PartnerRe to its named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation.

The “golden parachute” compensation that PartnerRe’s named executive officers may be entitled to receive from PartnerRe in connection with the amalgamation is summarized in the table entitled “Golden Parachute Compensation,” which can be found in the section titled “The Amalgamation— Interests of PartnerRe’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation” of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Such summary, in table form, includes all compensation and benefits that may or will be paid by PartnerRe to its named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation.

The PartnerRe board of directors encourages you to review carefully the “golden parachute” compensation information disclosed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The PartnerRe board of directors unanimously recommends that the shareholders of PartnerRe approve the following resolution:

“RESOLVED, that the shareholders of PartnerRe approve, on an advisory (nonbinding) basis, the compensation that will or may become payable by PartnerRe to its named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation, as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in the Golden Parachute Compensation table and the related narrative disclosures.”

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the PartnerRe special general meeting, at which a quorum is present in accordance with PartnerRe’s bye-laws, is required to approve this compensation advisory proposal.

The vote on the “golden parachute” compensation proposal is a vote separate and apart from the vote on the adoption of the amalgamation agreement. Since the vote on the “golden parachute” compensation proposal is advisory only, it will not be binding on either AXIS or PartnerRe. Accordingly, if the amalgamation agreement is adopted and the amalgamation is completed, the compensation payments that are contractually required to be paid by PartnerRe to its named executive officers will or may be paid, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, regardless of the outcome of the advisory (nonbinding) vote of PartnerRe shareholders.

PartnerRe’s board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR”
this Proposal 2 to approve the compensation advisory proposal where a shareholder is entitled to vote in respect of same.

Proposal 3. Approval of the Adjournment Proposal

The PartnerRe special general meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to permit, among other things, further solicitation of proxies if necessary to obtain additional votes in favor of the amalgamation proposal.

If, at the PartnerRe special general meeting, the number of PartnerRe common and preferred shares present or represented and voting in favor of the amalgamation proposal is insufficient to approve such proposal, PartnerRe intends to move to adjourn the PartnerRe special general meeting in order to solicit additional proxies for the adoption and approval of the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. PartnerRe does not intend to call a vote on this proposal if the amalgamation proposal has been approved at the PartnerRe special general meeting.

In this proposal, PartnerRe is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the PartnerRe board of directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to proxy holders, and each of them individually, to adjourn the PartnerRe special general meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If PartnerRe shareholders approve this adjournment proposal, PartnerRe could adjourn the PartnerRe special general meeting and any adjourned session of the PartnerRe special general meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from PartnerRe shareholders who have previously voted.

Each PartnerRe share, including the PartnerRe preferred shares, as of the record date will carry the right to vote on this proposal. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the PartnerRe special general meeting, at which a quorum is present in accordance with PartnerRe’s bye-laws, is required to approve the adjournment proposal.

PartnerRe’s board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR”
this Proposal 3 to approve the adjournment proposal.

THE AXIS SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place

The AXIS special general meeting will take place at [9:00 a.m.], Atlantic time, on [], 2015, at AXIS' offices at 92 Pitts Bay Road, Pembroke HM 08 Bermuda.

Purposes of the AXIS Special General Meeting

At the AXIS special general meeting, the holders of AXIS preferred shares will be asked to consider and vote on only Proposal 2 and Proposal 4 below and the holders of AXIS common shares will be asked to consider and vote on all of the following proposals:

- Proposal 1: to approve amending the AXIS bye-laws by inserting the words “(including for the purposes of Section 106(4A) of the Act)” after the first mention of the word “business” in bye-law 38 (Quorum for general meetings) and after the word “meeting” in subparagraph (1) of bye-law 43 (Voting at meetings);
- Proposal 2: to approve and adopt the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation;
- Proposal 3: on an advisory (nonbinding) basis, to approve the compensation that may be paid or become payable to AXIS' named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation; and
- Proposal 4: to approve an adjournment of the AXIS special general meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, if there are insufficient votes to approve the amalgamation proposal at such special general meeting.

Consummation of the amalgamation is conditioned on, among other things, approval of Proposal 2 (the amalgamation proposal) above.

The AXIS board of directors has unanimously (1) determined that the bye-law amendment is advisable to and in the best interests of AXIS, and authorized and approved the bye-law amendment, (2) resolved that the bye-law amendment proposal and the amalgamation proposal be submitted to the AXIS shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting, (3) determined that the amalgamation, on the terms and conditions set forth in the amalgamation agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, AXIS, and (4) approved the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Accordingly, the AXIS board of directors unanimously recommends that AXIS shareholders vote (1) “FOR” the bye-law amendment proposal, (2) “FOR” the amalgamation proposal and (3) “FOR” the other proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus in respect of which they are entitled to vote.

AXIS Record Date and Voting by AXIS Directors and Executive Officers

Only AXIS shareholders of record, as shown on AXIS' register of members, at the close of business on [-], the record date for the AXIS special general meeting, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the AXIS special general meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. As of [-], the record date for the AXIS special general meeting, there were [-] AXIS common shares and [•] AXIS preferred shares issued and outstanding. As of the same date, AXIS directors, executive officers and their affiliates had the right to vote [-] AXIS common shares, representing approximately [-]% of the total AXIS common shares issued and outstanding. AXIS currently expects that all of its directors and executive officers will vote “FOR” each proposal on the AXIS proxy card.

Quorum

At the commencement of the AXIS special general meeting the quorum required to consider Proposal 1, the bye-law amendment proposal, and Proposal 3, the compensation advisory proposal, is two or more persons present in person and representing in person or by proxy shares representing more than 50% of the aggregate voting power of the AXIS common shares as of the record date. Each AXIS preferred share and common share carries the right to vote on the amalgamation proposal and accordingly, if the bye-law amendment proposal is approved the quorum required to consider the amalgamation proposal is two or more persons present in person and representing in person or by proxy shares representing more than 50% of the aggregate voting power of all AXIS shares as of the record date. If the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, then in accordance with the Companies Act, the quorum required to consider the amalgamation proposal is two or more persons at least holding or representing by proxy more than one-third of the issued shares of AXIS as of the record date. Each AXIS preferred share and common share carries the right to vote on the adjournment proposal and accordingly, the quorum required at the AXIS special general meeting to consider the adjournment proposal is two or more persons present in person and representing in person or by proxy shares representing more than 50% of the aggregate voting power of all AXIS shares as of the record date .

Required Vote

The holders of AXIS preferred shares will be entitled to vote on only the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal, whereas the holders of AXIS common shares will be entitled to vote on all of the proposals. Approval of the bye-law amendment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of the AXIS common shares at the AXIS special general meeting, at which a quorum is present, in accordance with AXIS' bye-laws. The bye-law amendment will become effective immediately if so approved. Each AXIS share, including the AXIS preferred shares, as of the record date will carry the right to vote on the amalgamation proposal. If the bye-law amendment is approved, the approval of the amalgamation proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the AXIS special general meeting, at which a quorum is present, in accordance with AXIS' amended bye-laws. If the bye-law amendment is not approved, then in accordance with the Companies Act, the approval of the amalgamation proposal requires the affirmative vote of 75% of the votes cast of AXIS shares at the AXIS special general meeting, at which a quorum is present. The affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast at the AXIS special general meeting, at which a quorum is present in accordance with AXIS' bye-laws, is required to approve each other matter to be considered, including any adjournment proposal. Each AXIS share, including the AXIS preferred shares, will carry the right to vote on the adjournment proposal.

Voting Securities

As of [], 2015, the record date for the AXIS special general meeting, there were [] AXIS common shares issued and outstanding and 25,028,430 AXIS preferred shares issued and outstanding (consisting of 28,430 7.5% Series B Preferred Shares, 16,000,000 6.875% Series C Preferred Shares and 9,000,000 5.50% Series D Preferred Shares). Each AXIS preferred share entitles the holder of record to one vote on each of the amalgamation proposal and the adjournment proposal. Except as provided below, holders of AXIS common shares have one vote for each AXIS common share held by them and are entitled to vote, on a non-cumulative basis, on all of the proposals voted on at the AXIS special general meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Pursuant to a mechanism specified in AXIS' bye-laws, the voting rights exercisable by a shareholder may be limited. In any situation in which the "controlled shares" (as defined below) of a "United States person" (as defined in the Code) or the shares held by a Direct Foreign Shareholder Group (as defined below) would constitute 9.5% or more of the votes conferred by the issued common shares, the voting rights exercisable by a shareholder with respect to such shares shall be limited so that no United States person or Direct Foreign Shareholder Group is deemed to hold 9.5% or more of the voting power conferred by the AXIS common shares. In addition, the AXIS board of directors may limit a shareholder's voting rights where it deems it necessary to do so to avoid adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences. "Controlled shares" includes, among other things, all common shares that a United States person owns directly, indirectly or constructively (within the meaning of Section 958 of the Code). A "Direct Foreign Shareholder Group" includes a shareholder or group of commonly controlled shareholders that are not United States persons. This provision shall not apply if a shareholder owns greater than 75% of AXIS' issued and outstanding shares.

Because the applicability of AXIS' voting power reduction bye-law provisions to any particular shareholder depends on facts and circumstances that may be known only to the shareholder or related persons, AXIS requests that its shareholders holding 9.5% or more of its issued common shares contact AXIS promptly so that AXIS may determine whether the voting power of such holder's AXIS common shares should be reduced. The AXIS board of directors may require any direct or indirect holder of shares to provide such information as the AXIS board of directors may reasonably request for the purpose of determining whether that shareholder's voting rights are to be adjusted. If an AXIS shareholder fails to respond to such a request, or submits incomplete or inaccurate information in response to such a request, the AXIS board of directors may determine in its sole discretion that such holder's common shares shall carry no voting rights, in which case such holder shall not exercise any voting rights in respect of such shares until otherwise determined by the AXIS board of directors. AXIS will notify any shareholder whose voting power is reduced prior to the AXIS special general meeting.

Abstentions and “Broker Non-Votes”

Abstentions and, if applicable, “broker non-votes” will be counted toward the presence of a quorum at the AXIS special general meeting, but will not be considered votes cast on any proposal brought before the AXIS special general meeting. Because the vote required to approve the proposals to be voted upon at the AXIS special general meeting is the affirmative vote of the specified required percentage of the votes cast assuming a quorum is present, an abstention or, if applicable, a “broker non-vote” with respect to any proposal to be voted on at the AXIS special general meeting will not have the effect of a vote for or against the relevant proposal, but will reduce the number of votes cast and therefore increase the relative influence of those shareholders voting.

Revocation of Proxies

At any time prior to their being voted at the AXIS special general meeting, proxies are revocable by written notice to the Secretary of AXIS, by a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by voting in person at the AXIS special general meeting.

PROPOSALS TO BE SUBMITTED TO AXIS SHAREHOLDERS; VOTING REQUIREMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Proposal 1. Approval of the Bye-Law Amendment

In this proposal, AXIS is asking its shareholders to approve amending the AXIS bye-laws by inserting the words “(including for the purposes of Section 106(4A) of the Act)” after the first mention of the word “business” in bye-law 38 (Quorum for general meetings) and after the word “meeting” in subparagraph (1) of bye-law 43 (Voting at meetings).

The AXIS bye-laws do not currently provide for the required vote and quorum at a general meeting of shareholders to consider an amalgamation or merger of AXIS with another company. The Companies Act, however, does permit a company’s bye-laws to provide for the required vote and quorum at a general meeting of shareholders to consider an amalgamation or merger and, in the absence thereof, the required vote and quorum under the Companies Act requires the resolution of the shareholders must be approved by the affirmative vote of 75% of those voting at the general meeting, the quorum for which is two persons at least holding or representing by proxy more than one-third of the issued shares of the company.

Under this proposal, the amendment to the AXIS bye-laws would result in the required vote and quorum at a general meeting of shareholders to consider an amalgamation or merger of AXIS with another company being aligned with the existing required vote and quorum for a resolution of the shareholders currently provided for in AXIS’ bye-laws. Accordingly, in this proposal AXIS is asking its shareholders to approve amending the AXIS bye-laws to provide that an amalgamation or merger of AXIS with another company requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at an AXIS general meeting, at which the quorum required is two or more persons present in person and representing in person or by proxy shares representing more than 50% of the aggregate voting power of all AXIS shares. The AXIS board of directors unanimously determined that the bye-law amendment is advisable to and in the best interests of AXIS, authorized and approved the bye-law amendment, and resolved that the bye-law amendment proposal be submitted to AXIS shareholders for their consideration at the AXIS special general meeting.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of AXIS common shares at the AXIS special general meeting, at which a quorum is present in accordance with AXIS’ bye-laws, is required to approve the bye-law amendment proposal, which will become effective immediately if so approved. Approval of the bye-law amendment proposal IS NOT a condition to the consummation of the amalgamation.

The AXIS board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” this Proposal 1 to approve the bye-law amendment.

Proposal 2. Approval and Adoption of the Amalgamation Proposal

In this proposal, AXIS is asking its shareholders to approve and adopt the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the amalgamation. Approval of this proposal IS a condition to consummation of the amalgamation.

The AXIS board of directors unanimously (1) determined that the amalgamation, on the terms and conditions set forth in the amalgamation agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, AXIS, (2) approved the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and (3) resolved that the amalgamation proposal be submitted to the AXIS shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting.

Each AXIS share, including the AXIS preferred shares, as of the record date will carry the right to vote on this proposal. If the bye-law amendment is approved, the approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the AXIS special general meeting, at which a quorum is present, in accordance with AXIS' amended bye-laws. If the bye-law amendment is not approved, then in accordance with the Companies Act, the approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of 75% of the votes cast of AXIS shares at the AXIS special general meeting, at which a quorum is present.

The AXIS board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” this Proposal 2 to approve and adopt the amalgamation proposal.

Proposal 3. Approval of the Compensation Advisory Proposal

AXIS is providing its shareholders with the opportunity to cast an advisory (nonbinding) vote to approve the “golden parachute” compensation payments that will or may be made by AXIS to its named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation, as required by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 and Rule 14a-21(c) under the Exchange Act. This proposal, commonly known as “say-on-golden parachute” and which is referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the “golden parachute” compensation proposal, gives AXIS shareholders the opportunity to vote on an advisory (nonbinding) basis on the “golden parachute” compensation payments that will or may be paid by AXIS to its named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation.

The “golden parachute” compensation that AXIS’ named executive officers may be entitled to receive from AXIS in connection with the amalgamation is summarized in the table entitled “Golden Parachute Compensation,” which can be found in the section titled “The Amalgamation— Interests of AXIS’ Directors and Executive Officers in the Amalgamation” of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Such summary, in table form, includes all compensation and benefits that may or will be paid by AXIS to its named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation.

The AXIS board of directors encourages you to review carefully the “golden parachute” compensation information disclosed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The AXIS board of directors unanimously recommends that the shareholders of AXIS approve the following resolution:

“RESOLVED, that the shareholders of AXIS approve, on an advisory (nonbinding) basis, the compensation that will or may become payable by AXIS to its named executive officers in connection with the amalgamation, as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in the Golden Parachute Compensation table and the related narrative disclosures.”

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, by the holders of AXIS common shares at the AXIS special general meeting, at which a quorum is present in accordance with AXIS’ bye-laws, is required to approve this compensation advisory proposal.

The vote on the “golden parachute” compensation proposal is a vote separate and apart from the vote on the adoption of the amalgamation agreement. Since the vote on the “golden parachute” compensation proposal is advisory only, it will not be binding on either AXIS or PartnerRe. Accordingly, if the amalgamation agreement is adopted and the amalgamation is completed, the compensation payments that are contractually required to be paid by AXIS to its named executive officers will or may be paid, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, regardless of the outcome of the advisory (nonbinding) vote of AXIS shareholders.

The AXIS board of directors unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” this Proposal 3 to approve the compensation advisory proposal.

Proposal 4. Approval of the Adjournment Proposal

The AXIS special general meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to permit, among other things, further solicitation of proxies if necessary to obtain additional votes in favor of the amalgamation proposal.

If, at the AXIS special general meeting, the number of AXIS common and preferred shares present or represented and voting in favor of the amalgamation proposal is insufficient to approve such proposal, AXIS intends to move to adjourn the special general meeting in order to solicit additional proxies for the adoption and approval of the amalgamation agreement, the statutory amalgamation agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. AXIS does not intend to call a vote on this proposal if the amalgamation proposal has been approved at the AXIS special general meeting.

In this proposal, AXIS is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the AXIS board of directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to proxy holders, and each of them individually, to adjourn the AXIS special general meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If AXIS shareholders approve this adjournment proposal, AXIS could adjourn the AXIS special general meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from AXIS shareholders who have previously voted.

Each AXIS share, including the AXIS preferred shares, as of the record date will carry the right to vote on this proposal. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the AXIS special general meeting, at which a quorum is present in accordance with AXIS' bye-laws, is required to approve the adjournment proposal.

The AXIS board of directors unanimously recommends a vote "FOR"

Duties of Directors and Director Liability

The Companies Act provides that the business of a company is to be managed and conducted by the board of directors. There is no statutory prescription in Bermuda setting out all of the duties of directors of Bermuda companies. A company's memorandum of association and bye-laws, together with the Companies Act and relevant case-law at common law, describe the scope of the directors' powers and duties.

At common law a director owes two types of duty to the company under Bermuda law: a fiduciary duty and a duty of skill and care. A director's fiduciary duty has four main elements: (i) a duty to act in good faith in the best interests of the company; (ii) a duty to exercise powers for a proper purpose; (iii) a duty to avoid a conflict of interest; and (iv) a duty not to make a secret profit from opportunities that arise from the office of director of the company.

Under the Companies Act, every director in exercising his powers and discharging his duties shall: (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the company; (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances; and (c) disclose material conflicts of interest to the board of directors of the company at the first opportunity. In addition, the Companies Act imposes various duties on directors and officers of a company with respect to certain matters of management and administration of the company.

The Companies Act provides that in any proceedings for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust against any officer, if it appears to a court that such officer is or may be liable in respect of the negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, but that he or she has acted honestly and reasonably, and that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including those connected with his or her appointment, he or she ought fairly to be excused for the negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, that court may relieve him or her, either wholly or partly, from any liability on such terms as the court may think fit. This provision has been interpreted to apply only to actions brought by or on behalf of the company against such officers.

Indemnification

Under Bermuda law, a company is permitted to indemnify any officer or director, out of the funds of the company against (i) any liability incurred by him or her in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his or her favor, or in which he or she is acquitted, or in connection with any application under relevant Bermuda legislation in which relief from liability is granted to him or her by the court and (ii) any loss or liability resulting from negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, save for his or her fraud and dishonesty. A company may also purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any officer of the company against any liability incurred by him under the Companies Act in his capacity as an officer of

The AXIS bye-laws provide that the AXIS directors, the AXIS secretary and other AXIS officers (such term to include any person appointed to any committee by the AXIS board of directors) for the time being acting in relation to any of the affairs of AXIS and the liquidators or trustees (if any) for the time being acting in relation to any of the affairs of AXIS and every one of them and their heirs, executors and administrators shall be indemnified and secured harmless out of the assets of AXIS from and against all actions, costs, charges, losses, damages and expenses which they or any of them, their heirs administrators, shall or may incur or sustain by or by reason of any act done, concurred in or omitted in or about the execution of their duty or supposed duty, or in their respective offices or trusts, and none

Notice of Annual General Meetings

An annual general meeting shall, notwithstanding that it is called on shorter notice than that specified in the bye-laws, be deemed to have been properly called if it is so agreed by all the shareholders entitled to attend and vote thereat.

With the exception of notice required in the event the annual general meeting is adjourned (see Adjournment of Meetings below), a PartnerRe annual general meeting shall be called on not less than 30 days' and not more than 90 days' in notice writing, exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given and shall specify the place, date and time of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be considered.

An AXIS annual general meeting shall be called on at least 20 days' notice. The notice shall specify the date, time, place and state that the election of AXIS directors will take place, and as far as practicable, other business to be conducted at the AXIS annual general meeting.

The provisions relating to notice of annual general meeting under the Newco bye-laws are broadly similar to the corresponding provision under the AXIS bye-laws except the Newco annual general meeting shall be called on at least 21 days' notice.

Calling and Notice of Special General Meetings

The Companies Act requires the board, on the requisition of shareholders holding at the date of deposit of the requisition shares representing 10% or more of the aggregate voting power of the company, to forthwith proceed to convene a special general meeting and the provisions of the Act shall apply. A special general meeting shall, notwithstanding that it is called on shorter notice than that specified in the bye-laws, be deemed to have been properly called if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the shareholders having the right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95% in nominal value of the shares giving a right to attend and vote thereat.

With the exception of notice required in the event of an adjourned meeting (see Adjournment of Meetings below), a special general meeting shall be called by not less than seven days' and not more than 90 days' in notice writing, exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given and shall specify the place, date and time of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be considered.

The AXIS chairman or president may convene a special general meeting of AXIS upon not less than 5 days' notice. Such notice shall state the date, time, place and the general nature of the business to be considered at the meeting.

The Newco chairman or the Newco board of directors may convene a special general meeting of Newco upon not less than 21 days' notice. Such notice shall state the date, time, place and the general nature of the business to be considered at the meeting.

The Companies Act provides that notwithstanding the provisions in respect of voting by a show of hands, a poll may be demanded by: (i) the chairman of the meeting; (ii) at least three shareholders present in person or represented by proxy; (iii) any shareholder or shareholders present in person or represented by proxy and holding between them not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote at such meeting; or (iv) a shareholder or shareholders present in person or represented by proxy holding shares conferring the right to vote at such meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid-up or credited as paid up equal to not less than one tenth of the total sum paid-up or credited as paid-up on all such shares conferring such right.

Action by Written Resolution of the Shareholders

The Companies Act provides that subject to a statutory exception (see below) anything which may be done by resolution of the shareholders in general meeting or by resolution of any class of shareholders in a separate general meeting may be done by resolution in writing. The statutory exceptions are that a written resolution may not be used to remove an auditor before his expiration of his term of office or remove a director before the expiration of his term of office.

Any written resolution of the shareholders shall be signed by such number of PartnerRe shareholders (or holders of such class of PartnerRe shares) as provided in the Companies Act. Such resolution in writing may be signed by the PartnerRe shareholder or its proxy, or in the case of a PartnerRe shareholder that is a corporation by its representative on behalf of such PartnerRe shareholder.

The date of the resolution in writing is the date when the resolution in writing is signed by, or on behalf of, the PartnerRe shareholder who establishes the relevant number of votes required for the passing of the resolution in writing and any reference in any enactment to the date of passing of a resolution is, in relation to a resolution in writing a reference to such date.

Any written resolution of the shareholders shall be signed by or on behalf of all the AXIS shareholders who at the date of the resolution would be entitled to attend the meeting and vote on the resolution.

A written resolution may be signed in counterparts and the date of the resolution is the date when the resolution is signed by the last AXIS shareholder to sign and any reference in the AXIS bye-laws to the date of passing of a resolution is a reference to such date.

The provisions relating to shareholder written resolutions under Newco's bye-laws are broadly similar to the corresponding provisions under the AXIS bye-laws.

Required Vote for Amalgamation

The Companies Act permits an amalgamation between two or more companies that are registered in Bermuda, or between one or more Bermuda "exempted companies" and one or more bodies incorporated outside of Bermuda. Under Bermuda law, each of PartnerRe, AXIS and Newco is a Bermuda "exempted company."

The Companies Act provides that, unless the bye-laws provide otherwise, a resolution of the shareholders proposing an amalgamation must be approved by a majority vote of three-fourths (i.e., a 75% majority) of those voting at such meeting and the quorum must be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy more than one-third of the issued shares of the company.

PartnerRe's bye-laws provide otherwise and states that in addition to the approval of the PartnerRe board of directors, any resolution proposed for consideration at any

The AXIS bye-laws are silent on the required vote for amalgamation and, as such, the Companies Act provisions set out above will apply.

The Newco bye-laws provide that if the Companies Act requires an amalgamation agreement to be submitted to the Newco shareholders then the affirmative vote of a simple general meeting to approve the amalgamation of PartnerRe with any other company, wherever incorporated, shall require a simple majority of votes cast at such meeting and the quorum for such meeting shall be that required in the PartnerRe bye-laws and a poll may demanded in respect of such resolution in accordance with the PartnerRe bye-laws.

However, in the event that the bye-law amendment proposal is approved by AXIS shareholders at the AXIS special general meeting, only a simple majority of votes cast at such meeting shall be required to approve the amalgamation and the quorum for such meeting shall be that required for a general meeting in the AXIS bye-laws.

Shareholder Proposals

Under the Companies Act, shareholders may, at their own expense (unless the company otherwise resolves) require a company to: (i) give to the shareholder entitled to receive notice of the next annual general meeting notice of any resolution that shareholders can properly propose at that meeting; and/or (ii) circulate to any member entitled to notice of any general meeting a statement (of not more than 1,000 words) in respect of any matter referred to in a proposed resolution or any business to be conducted at that meeting.

The number of shareholders necessary for such a request is either the number of shareholders representing not less than one-twentieth of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having at the date of the request a right to vote at the meeting to which the request relates, or not less than 100 shareholders.

Notice of any such intended resolution shall be given, and any statement shall be circulated, to shareholders entitled to have notice of the meeting sent to them by serving a copy of the resolution or statement on each such shareholder in any manner permitted for service of notice of the meeting, and notice of any such resolution shall be given to any other shareholder of the company by giving notice of the general effect of the resolution in any matter permitted for giving him/it notice of meetings of the company.

PartnerRe's bye-laws provide that proposals of other business to be transacted by the shareholders at an annual general meeting may be made only: (i) pursuant to PartnerRe's notice of meeting; (ii) by or at the direction of the PartnerRe board of directors or (iii) by any PartnerRe shareholder who is a shareholder of record at the time of giving notice provided for in the PartnerRe bye-laws who shall be entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the notice procedures set forth in the PartnerRe bye-laws. Adjustment of Voting Powers and Ownership Limitations

The PartnerRe bye-laws contain a provision that can be waived at the PartnerRe board of director's discretion and on a case by case basis. Such provision provides that no person shall be permitted to: (i) own or control PartnerRe shares in excess of 9.9% of the outstanding PartnerRe shares (determined by value) or (ii) be a Ten Percent Shareholder determined in accordance with the PartnerRe bye-laws. "Own" or "Control" with respect to PartnerRe's shares means "own" under the rules set forth in section 958 of the United States Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the "Code") and "Controlled Shares" of a person means PartnerRe's shares that would be treated as owned by such person under the rules set forth in section 958 of the Code.

"Ten Percent Shareholder" for the purposes of this section means a person who Owns or Controls more than 9.9% of the total combined voting power of all classes of PartnerRe's shares entitled to vote at a general meeting of PartnerRe's shareholders or in any other circumstances in which PartnerRe's shareholders are entitled to vote.

If any person would be a Ten Percent Shareholder, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the PartnerRe bye-laws, the votes conferred by the Controlled Shares of such person are reduced (and shall automatically be reduced in the future) by whatever amount is necessary so that after any such reduction such person shall not be a Ten Percent Shareholder.

The AXIS bye-laws contain a provision that the voting power of all shares is adjusted (and shall be automatically adjusted in the future) to the extent necessary so that there is no 9.5% U.S. Shareholder or 9.5% Direct Foreign Shareholder Group (as such capitalized terms are defined in the AXIS bye-laws). The foregoing does not apply in the event that one AXIS shareholder owns greater than 75% of the issued and outstanding shares of AXIS.

The AXIS board of directors may deviate from any of the principles set out in the AXIS bye-laws and determine that shares shall carry different voting rights as it determines appropriate (1) to avoid the existence of any 9.5% U.S. Shareholder or (2) to avoid adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences to AXIS, any of its subsidiaries, or any other shareholder or its affiliates.

The voting power of all Newco shares is adjusted (and shall be automatically adjusted in the future) to the extent necessary so that there is no 9.5% U.S. Member or, in the discretion of the Newco board of directors, no 9.5% Non-U.S. Member (as such capitalized terms are defined in Newco's bye-laws). The foregoing does not apply in the event that one Newco shareholder owns greater than 75% of the voting power of the issued shares of Newco determined without applying the voting power adjustments or eliminations under the bye-laws. The Newco board of directors may deviate from any of the principles described in the bye-laws and determine that shares held by a Newco shareholder shall carry different voting rights as it reasonably determines, based on the advice of counsel, to be appropriate (a) to avoid the existence of any 9.5% U.S. Member or, unless the Newco board of directors determines otherwise, a 9.5% Non-U.S. Member, or (b) to avoid adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences to Newco, any subsidiary of Newco or any direct or indirect holder of shares.

In addition to the above, any Newco shares shall not carry any right to vote to the extent that the Newco board of directors determines in its sole discretion that it is necessary that such shares should not carry the right to vote in order to avoid adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences to Newco, any subsidiary of Newco, or any other direct or indirect holder of shares, provided, that no adjustment pursuant to the Newco bye-laws shall cause any person to become a 9.5% U.S.

In determining the reduction in votes conferred by Controlled Shares pursuant to the PartnerRe bye-laws, the reduction in vote conferred by the Controlled Shares of any person shall be effected proportionately among all the Controlled Shares of such person, provided, however, that if a PartnerRe shareholder owns, or is treated as owning by the application of section 958 of the Code, interests in another PartnerRe shareholder, any reduction in votes conferred by Controlled Shares of such PartnerRe shareholder, any reduction in votes conferred by Controlled Shares of such PartnerRe shareholder (determined solely on the basis of PartnerRe shares held directly by such PartnerRe shareholder and PartnerRe shares attributed to such PartnerRe shareholder) shall be first reduced the votes conferred on the PartnerRe shares held directly by the PartnerRe shareholder that owns directly or through another entity an interest in such PartnerRe shareholder.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the PartnerRe bye-laws, in addition to the above, PartnerRe shares shall not carry rights to vote, or shall have reduced voting rights, to the extent that the PartnerRe board of directors reasonably determines that it is necessary that such shares should not carry the right to vote or should have reduced voting rights in order to avoid non-deminimis adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences to PartnerRe or any subsidiary of PartnerRe or any PartnerRe shareholder or affiliate of any PartnerRe shareholder, provided that the PartnerRe board shall use reasonable efforts to exercise such discretion equally among similarly situated PartnerRe shareholders.

In accordance with the Companies Act, a company may pay dividends on its issued and outstanding shares in accordance with the company's bye-laws and the rights attaching to the company's shares. Under the Companies Act, a company may not make a dividend or distribution out of contributed surplus unless there were reasonable grounds for believing that: (i) the company is, or would, after the payment, be unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or (ii)

The AXIS board of directors may, subject to the AXIS bye-laws and in accordance with the Companies Act, declare a dividend to be paid to the AXIS shareholders, in proportion to the number of shares held by them, and such dividend may be paid in cash or wholly or partly in specie in which case the AXIS board of directors may fix the value for distribution in specie of any assets.

The PartnerRe board of directors may, in its absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor, decline to register any transfer of any PartnerRe share which is not a fully-paid PartnerRe share. The PartnerRe board of directors may also decline to register any transfer unless: (i) the instrument of transfer (if any) is duly stamped (as required by law) and lodged with PartnerRe, accompanied by the certificate of the PartnerRe shares to which it relates and such other evidence that the PartnerRe board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to the transfer; (ii) the instrument of transfer (if any) is in favour of less than five persons jointly; and (iii) it is satisfied that all applicable consents, authorizations, permissions, or approvals of any governmental body or agency in Bermuda or any other applicable jurisdiction required to be obtained under the relevant law prior to such transfer have been obtained.	The AXIS directors may decline to approve or register any transfer of shares if it appears to the AXIS directors, in their sole and reasonable discretion, after taking into account, among other things, the limitation on voting rights contained in the AXIS bye-laws, that any non-de minimis adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequence to AXIS, any subsidiary of AXIS, or any other holder of shares or its affiliates would result from such transfer (including if such consequence arises as a result of any such U.S. Person owning Controlled Shares that constitute 9.5% or more of the value of AXIS or the voting shares of AXIS (but subject to the provisions of the bye-laws under “Adjustment of Voting Powers and Ownership Limitations”)).	The Newco board of directors may in its absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor refuse to register the transfer of a Newco share which is not fully paid up. The Newco board of directors shall refuse to register a transfer unless all applicable consents, authorisations and permissions of any governmental body or agency in Bermuda have been obtained. The Newco board of directors may decline to approve or register or permit the registration of any transfer of Newco shares if the Newco board of directors in its sole discretion determines that any adverse tax, regulatory or legal consequences to Newco, any subsidiary of Newco or any direct or indirect holder of shares or its affiliates would result from such transfer.
In addition, under the PartnerRe bye-laws, no person shall be permitted to: (i) own or control PartnerRe shares in excess of 9.9% of the outstanding PartnerRe shares (determined by value) or (ii) be a Ten Percent Shareholder determined in accordance with the PartnerRe bye-laws. Accordingly no person shall be registered as holder of	Under the AXIS bye-laws, subject to any applicable requirements of the NYSE, the AXIS directors: (a) may decline to approve or to register any transfer of any share if a written opinion from counsel acceptable to AXIS has not been obtained to the effect that registration of such shares under the Securities Act, as amended, is not required and (b) shall decline to approve or to register any transfer of any share if the transferee shall not have been approved by applicable governmental authorities if such approval is required.

“Own” or “Control” with respect to PartnerRe’s shares means “own” under the rules set forth in section 958 of the United States Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the “Code”).

“Ten Percent Shareholder” for the purposes of this section means a person who Owns or Controls more than 9.9% of the total combined voting power of all classes of PartnerRe’s shares entitled to vote at a general meeting of PartnerRe’s shareholders or in any other circumstances in which PartnerRe’s shareholders are entitled to vote.

Business Combination Statutes

A Bermuda company may not enter into certain business transactions with its significant shareholders or affiliates without obtaining prior approval from its board of directors and, in certain instances, its shareholders. Examples of such business transactions include amalgamations, mergers, asset sales and other transactions in which a significant shareholder or affiliate receives or could receive a financial benefit that is greater than that received or to be received by other shareholders.

Approval of Certain Transactions

The Companies Act is silent on whether a company’s shareholders are required to approve a sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of a company’s property and assets. However, under the Companies Act, certain forms of amalgamations, mergers and restructurings require shareholder approval.

Under the Companies Act, the amalgamation or merger of a Bermuda company with another company or corporation (other than certain affiliated companies in which case a short form amalgamation or merger may be used) requires the amalgamation or merger agreement to be approved by the company’s board of directors and by its shareholders. Unless the company’s bye-laws provide otherwise (as described in the context of the amalgamation elsewhere in this document), the approval of three-fourths of the shareholders (i.e., 75%) voting at a general meeting is required to approve the amalgamation or merger agreement, and the quorum necessary for such meeting is two persons holding or representing more than one-third of the issued shares of the company. The required vote of shareholders may be reduced if the company's bye-laws provide as such. For the purposes of the approval of an amalgamation or merger, all shares, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote, carry the right to vote. A separate vote of a class of shares is required if the rights of such class would be altered by virtue of the amalgamation or merger.

Appraisal Rights/Dissenters' Rights

Under the Companies Act, a dissenting shareholder of an amalgamating or merging company who did not vote in favor of the amalgamation or merger and who is not satisfied that he or she has been offered fair value for his or her shares may within one month of the giving of the notice sent to each shareholder calling the meeting at which the amalgamation or merger was decided upon apply to the Bermuda Court to appraise the fair value of his or her shares. Within one month of the Bermuda Court appraising the fair value of any shares where the amalgamation or merger has not proceeded, the amalgamated or surviving company shall be entitled to either: (i) pay to any shareholder an amount equal to the value of his or her shares as appraised by the Bermuda Court; or (ii) terminate the amalgamation or merger in accordance with the Companies Act.

Where the Bermuda Court has appraised the fair value of any shares and the amalgamation or merger has proceeded prior to the appraisal then, within one month of the Bermuda Court appraising the value of the shares, if the amount paid to any shareholder for his or her shares is less than that appraised by the Bermuda Court, the amalgamated or surviving company shall pay to such shareholder the difference between the amount paid to him or her and the value appraised by the Bermuda Court.

There shall be no right of appeal from an appraisal by the Bermuda Court. The costs of any application to the Bermuda Court to appraise the fair value of any shares shall be in the discretion of the Bermuda Court.

Inspection of Books and Records; Shareholder Lists

Under the Companies Act the shareholders have access to the following: (i) a company's public documents available at the Registrar of Companies, which includes a company's memorandum of association and any alterations thereto, including any increase or reduction of the company's authorized capital; (ii) directly from the company: (A) copies of the memorandum of association and the bye-laws in return for payment; (B) minutes of general meetings without charge for not less than two hours per day during business hours or copies of such minutes of such meetings on payment of reasonable charge; and (C) audited financial statements of the company, which must be placed before the shareholders at an annual general meeting. The Companies Act also provides that during business hours the register of members and the register of directors and officers must be open to inspection by the public at a company's registered office for at least two hours each day. A company is required to maintain a share register in Bermuda but may, subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, establish a branch register outside Bermuda.

Bermuda law does not, however, provide for a general right for shareholders to inspect or obtain copies of any other corporate records.

Required Purchase and Sales of Shares

Under the Companies Act, a purchaser is generally able to compulsorily acquire the shares of minority holders in the following ways:

- (i) by a court approved scheme of arrangement under the Companies Act. Schemes may be transfer schemes or cancellation schemes but, unlike a transfer scheme, a cancellation scheme requires the company to pass a solvency test or obtain the agreement of all its creditors to the scheme. In either case, dissenting shareholders do not have express statutory appraisal rights but the Bermuda Court will only sanction a scheme if it is fair. Voting rights attached to shares owned by the offeror may be used to approve the scheme but the Bermuda Court will be concerned to see that the shareholders approving the scheme are representative of the general body of shareholders. Any scheme must be approved by a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the shareholders present and voting either in person or by proxy at the requisite special general meeting. If there are dissenting shareholders who hold more than 10% of the shares, the Bermuda Court might be persuaded not to exercise its discretion to sanction the scheme on the ground that the scheme constitutes a takeover under the Companies Act and requires 90% acceptance; or

- (ii) by a squeeze-out of minority shareholders in a Bermuda company by way of a general offer followed by a squeeze-out under the Companies Act. Broadly, if the offer is approved by the holders of 90% in value of the shares which are the subject of the offer, the offeror can compulsorily acquire the shares of dissenting shareholders. Shares owned by the offeror or its subsidiary or their nominees at the date of the offer do not, however, count towards the 90% acceptance. If the offeror or any of its subsidiaries or any nominee of the offeror or any of its subsidiaries together already own more than 10% of the shares in the subject company at the date of the offer the offeror must offer the same terms to all holders of the same class and the holders who accept the offer, besides holding not less than 90% in value of the shares, must also represent not less than 75% in number of the holders of those shares. These additional restrictions should not apply if the offer is made by a subsidiary of a parent (where the subsidiary does not own more than 10% of the shares of the subject company) even where the parent owns more than 10% of the shares of the subject company, provided that the subsidiary and the parent are not nominees. The 90% must be obtained within four months after the making of the offer and, once obtained, the compulsory acquisition may be commenced within two months of the acquisition of 90%. Dissenting shareholders do not have express appraisal rights but are entitled to seek relief (within one month of the compulsory acquisition notice) from the Bermuda Court which has power to make such orders as it thinks fit; or
- (iii) by the holders of 95% or more of the shares or any class of shares serving a notice on the remaining shareholders or class of shareholders under the Companies Act. Dissenting shareholders have a right to apply to the Bermuda Court within one month of receiving the compulsory acquisition notice to have the value of their shares appraised by the Bermuda Court. If one dissenting shareholder applies to the Bermuda Court and is successful in obtaining a higher valuation, that valuation must be paid to all minority shareholders who were the subject of the notice.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion, subject to the limitations and qualifications described herein, constitutes the opinion of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP (with respect to holders of PartnerRe common shares) and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP (with respect to holders of AXIS common shares) as to the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the amalgamation applicable to U.S. holders (as defined below) of PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares that receive amalgamated company common shares and cash in lieu of fractional shares in the amalgamation, to the extent such discussion sets forth statements of U.S. federal income tax law or legal conclusions with respect thereto. The tax opinions of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP and Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP are based, in part, on representations made by PartnerRe and AXIS with respect to certain factual matters and on customary factual assumptions. If any of the factual representations or assumptions on which the opinions described above are based are inaccurate as of the effective time of the amalgamation, the tax consequences to U.S. holders could differ materially from those described below.

The above-described opinions of counsel and the discussion set forth herein are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) or any court. No ruling will be sought from the IRS with respect to the tax consequences of the transaction and no assurance can be given that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below.

The following discussion is based upon the Code, United States Treasury regulations, judicial authorities, published positions of the IRS, and other applicable authorities, all as currently in effect on the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations (possibly with retroactive effect). This discussion is limited to holders that hold their PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares (and who will hold their amalgamated company common shares after the amalgamation) as capital assets for United States federal income tax purposes (generally, assets held for investment). This discussion does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular shareholder or to shareholders that are subject to special treatment under United States federal income tax laws, such as:

- financial institutions;
- tax-exempt organizations;
- insurance companies;
- regulated investment companies and real estate investment trusts;
- S corporations, partnerships or other pass-through entities (and investors in such entities);
- dealers in securities or currencies;
- traders in securities who elect the mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities;
- shareholders that hold their PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares as part of a “straddle,” “conversion transaction” or other integrated transaction;
- shareholders who acquired their PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares pursuant to the exercise of employee share options or otherwise in connection with the performance of services;

- shareholders who have a functional currency other than the United States dollar;
- persons who are considered 10% U.S. shareholders (as defined below) with respect to either PartnerRe or AXIS;
and
- shareholders who exercise their appraisal rights.

This discussion also does not address the tax consequences to holders of PartnerRe preferred shares or AXIS preferred shares that receive amalgamated company preferred shares in the amalgamation. Holders of PartnerRe preferred shares or AXIS preferred shares are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the United States federal, state, local and non-United States tax consequences to them of participating in the amalgamation, some of which are uncertain and may depend on such holders' individual circumstances.

In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences to PartnerRe or AXIS or other U.S. federal taxes (such as gift or estate taxes or liability for the alternative minimum tax), the tax consequences of the transaction under state, local or foreign tax laws, certain tax reporting requirements that may be applicable with respect to the transaction or the Medicare tax on "net investment income."

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of AXIS common shares or PartnerRe common shares that is (i) a citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia or (iii) an estate or trust, the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of its source.

If a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes) is an AXIS or PartnerRe shareholder, the United States federal income tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. A partner in a partnership holding AXIS common shares or PartnerRe common shares should consult its tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the transaction.

Shareholders are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the particular United States federal income tax consequences of the transaction to them, as well as any tax consequences arising under any state, local and non-United States tax laws or any other United States federal tax laws.

The Amalgamation

It is a condition to the obligations of PartnerRe and AXIS to complete the amalgamation that each shall have received an opinion of its respective tax counsel, dated as of the closing date of the amalgamation, that the amalgamation will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and that each of PartnerRe, AXIS and the amalgamated company will be a "party to the reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code. These opinions will be based, in part, on representations made by PartnerRe and AXIS with respect to certain factual matters and on customary factual assumptions. Although the amalgamation agreement allows PartnerRe and AXIS to waive the opinion requirements as a condition to closing, neither PartnerRe nor AXIS currently anticipates doing so. If either PartnerRe or AXIS does waive these conditions, you will be informed of this decision prior to being asked to vote on the transaction.

Based on the foregoing, including the representations made by PartnerRe and AXIS and the customary factual assumptions referred to above, the amalgamation will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and each of PartnerRe, AXIS and the amalgamated company will be a "party to the reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code. Therefore, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the transactions will be as follows.

Tax Treatment of Exchange of Shares. Upon the exchange by a U.S. holder of PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares for amalgamated company common shares:

- no gain or loss will be recognized by U.S. holders (except with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional share, as discussed below);
- the aggregate basis of the amalgamated company common shares received in the amalgamation (including fractional shares deemed received and sold for cash, as discussed below), will be equal to the U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in its PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares exchanged in the transaction;

- the holding period of the amalgamated company common shares received in exchange for PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares will include the holding period of the PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares for which they are exchanged.

If a U.S. holder acquired its PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares at different times or at different prices, such U.S. holder's basis and holding period in the amalgamated company common shares received in the amalgamation will be determined separately with respect to each block of PartnerRe common shares or AXIS common shares held. A block generally consists of shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction. If a U.S. holder holds both PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares, the PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares held by such U.S. holder will be treated as separate blocks, even if acquired at the same cost in a single transaction.

Cash in Lieu of a Fractional Share. If a U.S. holder receives cash in lieu of a fractional amalgamated company common share, the U.S. holder will be treated as having received the fractional share pursuant to the amalgamation and then as having sold that fractional share for cash. As a result, such a U.S. holder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and its basis in the fractional amalgamated company common share, determined as described above. This gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the closing date of the amalgamation, the holding period for the fractional share that such U.S. holder is treated as having received is greater than one year, determined as described above. Long-term capital gains of individuals are generally eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Treatment of Pre-Acquisition Dividends. The amalgamation agreement permits the payment of certain dividends to holders of PartnerRe common shares and AXIS common shares between the signing date of the amalgamation agreement and the closing date of the amalgamation. The amalgamation agreement also permits the amount of certain quarterly cash dividends payable to holders of PartnerRe common shares between the signing date of the amalgamation agreement and the closing date of the amalgamation to be increased (any such dividend, an "increased PartnerRe cash dividend"). PartnerRe and the amalgamated company intend to take the position that any such increased PartnerRe cash dividend is treated for tax purposes as a distribution of property by PartnerRe to shareholders, that is taxable under the rules described below at "—Consequences of Owning Amalgamated Company Common Shares—Distributions." Because there is no authority directly addressing facts similar to the payment of increased PartnerRe cash dividends in the amalgamation, it is possible that any such increased PartnerRe cash dividends could be recharacterized as additional consideration received in the amalgamation. If all or a portion of any increased PartnerRe cash dividend payments were so treated, the tax consequences to holders of PartnerRe common shares could be different from the treatment of dividends described below, including that the dividend might not result in "qualified dividend income" to such holders.

Passive Foreign Investment Company Status. If PartnerRe or AXIS is or was classified as a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. holder held PartnerRe or AXIS common shares, respectively, such U.S. holder may be subject to adverse U.S. federal income tax treatment upon the exchange of such shares for amalgamated company common shares (including that the exchange may be treated as a taxable transaction) or the amalgamated company is also treated as a PFIC for the taxable year that includes the closing date of the amalgamation. Both PartnerRe and AXIS have indicated in public filings that they do not believe that they are or have been PFICs. In addition, neither PartnerRe nor AXIS believes that the amalgamated company will be treated as a PFIC for the taxable year of the amalgamation and do not expect the amalgamated company to become a PFIC in the foreseeable future. See "—Consequences of Owning Amalgamated Company Common Shares—Application of Passive Foreign Investment Company Rules" below. However, the determination of PFIC status is factual in nature, depends on the application of complex U.S. federal income tax rules that are subject to differing interpretations, and generally cannot be determined until the close of the taxable year in question. Further, neither PartnerRe's nor AXIS' counsel has made any determination regarding the PFIC status of either company or the amalgamated company for any taxable year. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that PartnerRe or AXIS is or was not a PFIC for its current or any prior taxable year. U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the classification of PartnerRe or AXIS as a PFIC, and the effect of the PFIC rules on such holder.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Cash received in lieu of a fractional share by a non-corporate U.S. holder of PartnerRe or AXIS common shares may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting. In addition, cash received by a non-corporate U.S. holder in lieu of a fractional share may be subject to backup withholding unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or furnishes its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Consequences of Owning Amalgamated Company Common Shares

Distributions. Subject to the discussion below relating to the potential application of the "controlled foreign corporation," "related person insurance income" and PFIC rules, cash distributions made with respect to shares of amalgamated company common shares will constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent paid out of the amalgamated company's current or accumulated earnings and profits as computed using U.S. tax principles. U.S. holders of amalgamated company common shares generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the receipt of such dividends. Such dividends will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction provided to corporations by Section 243 of the Code. To the extent that a distribution exceeds the amalgamated company's current and accumulated earnings and profits, it will first be treated as a return of the U.S. holder's basis to the extent thereof, and then as gain from the sale of a capital asset, subject to the discussion below related to the potential application of the "controlled foreign corporation," "related person insurance income" and PFIC rules.

Subject to applicable limitations, certain dividends received by certain non-corporate U.S. holders from the amalgamated company will be taxed at favorable rates applicable to "qualified dividend income," provided certain holding period requirements are met and the amalgamated company is treated as a qualified foreign corporation with respect to the shares on which such dividend is paid. The amalgamated company will be treated as a qualified foreign corporation with respect to dividends paid on shares that are readily tradable on an established securities market in the United States. It is expected that amalgamated company common shares will be listed on the NYSE, and, pursuant to Treasury Department guidance, such shares will be readily tradable on an established securities market in the United States upon such listing. There can be no assurance that amalgamated company common shares will be considered readily tradable on an established securities market in the future. Non-corporate shareholders that do not meet a minimum holding period requirement during which they are not protected from the risk of loss or that elect to treat the dividend income as "investment income" pursuant to Section 163(d)(4) of the Code will not be eligible for the reduced rates of taxation regardless of the amalgamated company's status as a qualified foreign corporation. In addition, the rate reduction will not apply to dividends if the recipient of the dividend is obligated to make related payments with respect to positions in substantially similar or related property. This disallowance applies even if the minimum holding period has been met. This discussion is based on PartnerRe's and AXIS' belief that the amalgamated company is not expected to be classified as a PFIC (as discussed further below).

Sales, Exchanges or Other Dispositions of Amalgamated Company Shares. In general, a U.S. holder will recognize gain or loss on a sale, exchange, or other taxable disposition (collectively, a "disposition") of an amalgamated company common share in an amount equal to the difference between the amount realized and the adjusted tax basis for that share. Subject to the discussion below relating to the potential application of the "controlled foreign corporation," "related person insurance income" and PFIC rules, gain or loss on the disposition of a share of amalgamated company common shares generally will be capital gain or loss, and generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if, at the time of the disposition, the U.S. holder has a holding period for the amalgamated company common share of more than one year. Capital gains of individuals in respect of capital assets held for more than one year are eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Additionally, any gain or loss on the disposition of an amalgamated company common share generally will be U.S. sourced and generally will constitute "passive income" for foreign tax credit limitation purposes.

Application of Controlled Foreign Corporation Rules. Generally, each “10% U.S. shareholder” (as defined below), including in certain circumstances one that is generally tax-exempt, that owns, directly or indirectly through one or more foreign entities, shares of a foreign corporation that is a “controlled foreign corporation” (“CFC”) for an uninterrupted period of 30 days or more during any taxable year must include in its gross income its pro rata share of the “subpart F income” realized by the CFC for such year, even if that income is not distributed. “Subpart F income” of a foreign insurance corporation typically includes passive income such as interest and dividends, as well as insurance and reinsurance income (including underwriting and investment income) attributable to the insurance of risks situated outside the CFC’s country of incorporation.

A “10% U.S. shareholder” of a foreign corporation is any U.S. holder that owns, directly or indirectly through one or more foreign entities, or is considered to own (by application of certain constructive ownership rules), 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of shares of the foreign corporation. In general, a foreign corporation will be treated as a CFC only if its 10% U.S. shareholders collectively own (directly, indirectly through foreign entities, or by application of certain constructive ownership rules) more than 50% (or 25%, in the case of an insurance company with respect to certain insurance income) of its total combined voting power or value. In particular, the non-U.S. subsidiaries of the amalgamated company that are insurance companies (each, a “non-U.S. insurance subsidiary”) generally will be treated as CFCs if 10% U.S. shareholders collectively own more than 25% of the relevant non-U.S. insurance subsidiary’s total combined voting power or value.

PartnerRe and AXIS believe that because of the anticipated dispersion of share ownership of the amalgamated company, provisions in the amalgamated company’s organizational documents that limit voting power and other factors, no U.S. holder who owns shares of the amalgamated company directly or indirectly through one or more foreign entities should be treated as owning (directly, indirectly through foreign entities, or by application of certain constructive ownership rules), 10% or more of the total voting power of all classes of shares of the amalgamated company or any of its non-U.S. subsidiaries. It is possible, however, that the IRS could challenge the effectiveness of these provisions and that a court could sustain such a challenge.

Each prospective investor should consult its own tax advisor to determine whether its ownership interest would cause it to become a 10% U.S. shareholder of the amalgamated company or any of its subsidiaries and to determine the impact of such a classification of such investor.

Application of Related Person Insurance Income Rules - Potential Inclusion of Related Person Insurance Income. Special rules apply to U.S. persons that own shares of non-U.S. corporations that earn RPII. Because the amalgamated company will be a holding company, and will not itself be licensed as an insurance company, neither PartnerRe nor AXIS expect the amalgamated company to have any “insurance income,” as defined below, including RPII. However, the RPII rules of the Code will apply to U.S. holders (including tax-exempt persons) who, through their ownership of amalgamated company common shares, are indirect shareholders of a non-U.S. insurance subsidiary if both (A) the non-U.S. insurance subsidiary is a CFC for RPII purposes (a “RPII CFC”) (which will be the case if, as is anticipated, 25% or more of the value or voting power of such non-U.S. insurance subsidiary’s shares is owned (directly, indirectly through foreign entities, or by the application of certain constructive ownership rules) by U.S. holders), and (B) none of the exceptions described below apply.

RPII is “insurance income” (as defined below) from the direct or indirect insurance or reinsurance of any U.S. person who holds shares of the applicable non-U.S. insurance subsidiary (directly or indirectly through foreign entities) or of a person related to such a U.S. person. In general, and subject to certain limitations, “insurance income” is income (including investment income and premium income) attributable to the issuing of any insurance or reinsurance contract that would be taxed under the portions of the Code relating to insurance companies if the income were the income of a domestic insurance company. A non-U.S. insurance subsidiary may be considered to indirectly reinsure the risk of a U.S. person that holds shares, directly or indirectly, and thus generate RPII, if an unrelated company that insured such risk in the first instance reinsures the risk with such non-U.S. insurance subsidiary.

The RPII rules do not apply to income derived from a non-U.S. insurance subsidiary if (1) direct and indirect insureds and persons related to such insureds, whether or not U.S. persons, are treated as owning (directly or indirectly through entities) less than 20% of the voting power and less than 20% of the value of the shares of such non-U.S. insurance subsidiary (the “20% ownership exception”), (2) RPII, determined on a gross basis, is less than 20% of the gross insurance income of such non-U.S. insurance subsidiary for the taxable year (the “20% gross income exception”), (3) the non-U.S. insurance subsidiary elects to be taxed on its RPII as if the RPII were effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business, waives all U.S. treaty benefits with respect to RPII, and meets certain other requirements or (4) the non-U.S. subsidiary elects to be treated as a U.S. corporation, waives all U.S. treaty benefits and meets certain other requirements. Although there can be no assurance, PartnerRe and AXIS each expect that the non-U.S. insurance subsidiaries of the amalgamated company will operate in a manner that is intended to ensure that such non-U.S. insurance subsidiaries qualify for the 20% ownership exception or the 20% gross income exception.

If none of the exceptions described above applies to a non-U.S. insurance subsidiary for any taxable year, each U.S. person (including a U.S. holder) who, directly or indirectly through foreign entities, owns any shares in the amalgamated company (and, therefore, indirectly holds shares of such non-U.S. insurance subsidiary) (a “RPII holder”) on the last day of such non-U.S. insurance subsidiary’s taxable year would be taxable currently with respect to its allocable share of the RPII (whether distributed or not) for the portion of the taxable year during which the non-U.S. insurance subsidiary was a RPII CFC. For this purpose, all of such non-U.S. insurance subsidiary’s RPII would be allocated solely to RPII holders but only to the extent of their ratable share of such non-U.S. insurance subsidiary’s total earnings and profits for the taxable year. A RPII holder who owns common shares of the amalgamated company during a taxable year but not on the last day of the taxable year, which would normally be December 31, is generally not required to include in gross income any part of a non-U.S. insurance subsidiary’s RPII. Such inclusion should be further limited to the amount such U.S. holder would be required to include in its gross income under the general CFC rules of the Code if all of the taxable income of such non-U.S. insurance subsidiary for the taxable year were subpart F income. The amount of RPII includible in the income of a RPII holder is based upon the net RPII income for the year after deducting related expenses such as losses, loss reserves and operating expenses.

Computation of RPII. The amalgamated company may not be able to determine whether any of the direct or indirect insureds to which the non-U.S. insurance subsidiaries provide insurance or reinsurance or persons related thereto own (directly or indirectly through foreign entities) amalgamated company shares and are U.S. persons. Consequently, the amalgamated company may not be able to determine accurately the gross amount of the non-U.S. insurance subsidiaries’ RPII in a given taxable year. For any year that the amalgamated company determines that neither the 20% gross income exception nor the 20% ownership exception applies, the amalgamated company may also seek information from its shareholders as to whether beneficial owners of the amalgamated company’s shares at the end of the year are U.S. holders so that RPII may be apportioned among such persons. To the extent the amalgamated company is unable to determine whether a beneficial owner of its shares is a U.S. holder, it may assume that such owner is not a U.S. holder for purposes of apportioning RPII, thereby increasing the per share RPII amount for all RPII holders. If, as expected, the 20% gross income exception or 20% ownership exception is met for each taxable year, RPII holders will not be required to include RPII in their taxable income.

Basis Adjustments. Under proposed regulations, a RPII holder’s tax basis in shares of the amalgamated company (including shares received in the amalgamation) will be increased by the amount of any RPII that the shareholder includes in income. The RPII holder may exclude from income the amount of any distribution by the amalgamated company to the extent of the RPII included in income for the year in which the distribution was paid or for any prior year (and not previously distributed). The RPII holder’s tax basis in the shares of the amalgamated company that it holds will be reduced by the amount of such distributions that are excluded from income.

Dispositions of Amalgamated Company Shares. Section 1248 of the Code generally provides that if a U.S. holder sells or exchanges shares in a foreign corporation and such person is a 10% U.S. shareholder at any time during the 5-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange when such foreign corporation was a CFC, any gain from such sale or exchange may be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the CFC’s earnings and profits (determined under U.S. federal income tax principles) attributable to such shares, during the period that the U.S. holder held the shares (with certain adjustments). A 10% U.S. shareholder will be required to report a disposition of shares of a CFC by attaching IRS Form 5471 to the U.S. income tax or information return that it would normally file for the taxable year in which the disposition occurs.

Section 953(c)(7) of the Code generally provides that Section 1248 will also apply to gain recognized by a RPII holder with respect to the sale or exchange of shares in a foreign corporation that earns RPII and is characterized as a RPII CFC if the foreign corporation would be taxed as an insurance company if it were a domestic corporation, regardless of whether the RPII holder is a 10% U.S. shareholder or whether the 20% gross income exception or the 20% ownership exception applies. Neither existing nor proposed Treasury regulations clarify whether Section 1248 and the requirement to file IRS Form 5471 would apply with respect to the disposition of shares in a foreign corporation (such as the amalgamated company) that is not itself a RPII CFC but has a non-U.S. insurance subsidiary that is a RPII CFC and that would be taxed as an insurance company if it were a domestic corporation. Accordingly, it is possible that Section 1248 and the requirement to file IRS Form 5471 do not apply to a RPII holder that is not a 10% U.S. shareholder of the amalgamated company because the amalgamated company is not directly engaged in the insurance business. There can be no assurance, however, that the IRS will interpret the regulations in this manner or that the Treasury Department will not amend the regulations to provide that Section 1248 and the requirement to file IRS Form 5471 will apply to dispositions of amalgamated company common shares in respect of the amalgamated company's ownership of the non-U.S. insurance subsidiaries. U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the effects of these rules on a disposition of shares of amalgamated company common shares.

Application of Passive Foreign Investment Company Rules. In general, a foreign corporation will be a PFIC during a given year if (i) 75% or more of its gross income constitutes “passive income” or (ii) 50% or more of its assets produce (or are held for the production of) passive income. For purposes of the PFIC determination, passive income generally includes interest, dividends, annuities and other investment income. The PFIC statutory provisions, however, contain an express exception for income derived in the active conduct of an insurance business by a corporation which is predominantly engaged in an insurance business.

This exception is intended to ensure that income derived by a bona fide insurance company is not treated as passive income, except to the extent such income is attributable to financial reserves in excess of the reasonable needs of the insurance business. PartnerRe and AXIS expect for purposes of the PFIC rules that each non-U.S. insurance subsidiary of the amalgamated company will be predominantly engaged in an insurance business and is unlikely to have financial reserves in excess of the reasonable needs of its insurance business. Accordingly, neither expects the income or assets of the non-U.S. insurance subsidiaries to be treated as passive. The PFIC statutory provisions contain a look-through rule stating that, for purposes of determining whether a foreign corporation is a PFIC, such foreign corporation shall be treated as if it received directly its proportionate share of the income and as if it held its proportionate share of the assets of any other corporation in which it owns at least 25% by value of the shares.

While no explicit guidance is provided by the statutory language, under this look-through rule the amalgamated company should be deemed to own its proportionate share of the assets and to have received its proportionate share of the income of its direct and indirect subsidiaries for purposes of determining whether it qualifies for the insurance exception. Consequently, PartnerRe and AXIS do not expect that the amalgamated company will be treated as a PFIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Nevertheless, there are currently no Treasury regulations regarding the application of the PFIC provisions to an insurance company, and new Treasury regulations or pronouncements interpreting or clarifying these rules may be forthcoming. In addition, the determination of PFIC status is factual in nature, depends on the application of complex U.S. federal income tax rules that are subject to differing interpretations, and generally cannot be determined until the close of the taxable year in question. Therefore, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge this position or that a court will not sustain such challenge. U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors as to the effects of the PFIC rules.

If the amalgamated company were treated as a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. holder holds amalgamated company common shares and the U.S. holder does not make a “mark-to-market” election or a “qualified electing fund” election with respect to the amalgamated company, as described below, the following consequences would apply to (i) any “excess distribution” that the U.S. holder receives from the amalgamated company or is treated under applicable rules as receiving from the amalgamated company and (ii) any gain that the U.S. holder recognizes on a sale or other disposition (including, under certain circumstances, a pledge) of its amalgamated company common shares or that the U.S. holder is treated under applicable rules as recognizing on a sale by the amalgamated company of any shares of any non-U.S. subsidiary that is also treated as a PFIC. For purposes of these rules, an “excess distribution” is any distribution received by a U.S. holder with respect to its amalgamated company common shares that exceeds 125% of the average of the annual distributions on the shares received during the preceding three years or the U.S. holder’s holding period, whichever is shorter. Any such “excess distribution” or gain would be treated as having been earned ratably over the U.S. holder’s holding period for its amalgamated company common shares. The portion of the “excess distribution,” or of the sale or other disposition allocated to the current taxable year and any taxable year prior to the first taxable year in which the amalgamated company was a PFIC would be treated as ordinary income. The portion allocated to each prior taxable year in which the amalgamated company was a PFIC would be subject to U.S. federal income tax at the highest marginal rate in effect for the type of U.S. holder (corporate or individual) for such taxable year, and an interest charge generally applicable to under-payments of U.S. federal income tax would be imposed on the resulting tax liability for each prior taxable year. In addition, a distribution paid by the amalgamated company to U.S. holders that is characterized as a dividend and is not characterized as an excess distribution would not be eligible for treatment as qualified dividend income if the amalgamated company were considered a PFIC in the taxable year in which such dividend is paid or in the preceding taxable year.

If the amalgamated company were treated as a PFIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder could mitigate the consequences of the possible application of the PFIC rules by making a timely “mark-to-market” election or “qualified electing fund” election with respect to the amalgamated company. Neither PartnerRe nor AXIS expects the amalgamated company to provide information necessary for U.S. holders to make “qualified electing fund” elections. If the U.S. holder made a timely “mark-to-market” election, the U.S. holder generally would recognize as ordinary income any excess of the fair market value of the U.S. holder’s amalgamated company common shares at the end of each taxable year over the U.S. holder’s adjusted tax basis in its shares, and would recognize an ordinary loss in respect of any excess of the U.S. holder’s adjusted tax basis in its shares over the fair market value of the U.S. holder’s shares at the end of the taxable year (but only to the extent of the net amount of income previously included as a result of the “mark-to-market” election). If a U.S. holder made the “mark-to-market” election, the U.S. holder’s tax basis in its amalgamated company common shares would be adjusted to reflect the income or loss amounts recognized. Any gain recognized on the sale or other disposition of the U.S. holder’s amalgamated company common shares in a year when the amalgamated company is a PFIC will be treated as ordinary income and any loss would be treated as an ordinary loss (but only to the extent of the net amount of income previously included as a result of the “mark-to-market” election). Distributions paid on amalgamated company common shares will be treated as discussed above under “—Consequences of Owning Amalgamated Company Common Shares—Distributions.”

If a U.S. holder owns amalgamated company common shares during any year in which the amalgamated company is a PFIC, the holder generally must file IRS Form 8621 (or any successor form) with respect to the amalgamated company. U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors concerning the amalgamated company’s PFIC status and the tax considerations relevant to an investment in a PFIC.

Foreign Tax Credit. Because it is anticipated that U.S. holders will own a majority of the amalgamated company common shares, it is possible that only a portion of current income inclusions, if any, under the CFC, RPII and PFIC rules and of dividends paid by the amalgamated company (including any gain from the sale of amalgamated company common shares that is treated as a dividend under Section 1248 of the Code) will be foreign source income for purposes of computing a shareholder’s U.S. foreign tax credit limitation. Thus, it may not be possible for a U.S. holder to utilize excess foreign tax credits to reduce U.S. tax on such income. The rules governing foreign tax credits are complex, and U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the creditability of foreign taxes in their particular circumstances.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Cash payments (including dividends and proceeds from a disposition) received by a non-corporate U.S. holder of amalgamated company common shares may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting. In addition, cash payments made to a non-corporate U.S. holder may be subject to backup withholding unless the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or furnishes its taxpayer identification number and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and generally will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder’s U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

DESCRIPTION OF SHARE CAPITAL

The following description of Newco's share capital summarizes certain provisions of its memorandum of association and bye-laws that will become effective upon the consummation of the amalgamation.

The summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and is qualified in their entirety by reference to, all of the provisions of Newco's memorandum of association and bye-laws, copies of which have been filed as exhibits to the registration statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. Prospective investors are urged to read the exhibits for a complete understanding of Newco's memorandum of association and bye-laws.

General

Immediately following the amalgamation Newco will be an exempted limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Bermuda. It will be registered with the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda under registration number 18620. Its date of incorporation is 24 August 1993 under the name PartnerRe Holdings Ltd. and it changed its name to PartnerRe Ltd. on 8 May 1995. Its registered office will be located at 2 Church Street, Hamilton, Bermuda. Its agent for service of process in the United States will be CT Corporation, 111 Eighth Avenue, 13th Floor, New York, NY 10011.

Immediately following the amalgamation Newco's objects will be unrestricted and it will have the capacity of a natural person. It can therefore undertake activities without restriction on its capacity.

The following is a summary of Newco's bye-laws that will become effective upon the consummation of the amalgamation.

Authorized Share Capital

Effective upon the consummation of the amalgamation, Newco's authorized share capital will consist of common shares, par value $0.0125 per share, preferred shares par value $0.0125 per share, preferred shares par value $1.00 per share and undesignated shares par value [$0.0125] per share that the Newco board of directors is authorized to issue on such terms and conditions as it may determine.

Upon consummation of the amalgamation, there will be [] common shares issued and outstanding, [25,028,430] preferred shares, par value $0.0125 per share issued and outstanding and [34,150,000] preferred shares, par value $1.00 per share issued and outstanding. All of Newco's issued and outstanding shares upon consummation of the amalgamation will be fully paid.

Pursuant to Newco's bye-laws, subject to the requirements of any stock exchange on which the shares are listed and to any resolution of the shareholders to the contrary, the Newco board of directors is authorized to issue any of the authorized but unissued shares. There are no limitations on the right of non-Bermudians or non-residents of Bermuda to hold or vote Newco's shares.

Common Shares

The following description of the rights of common shareholders of Newco is subject to such preferred, deferred, qualified or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, return of capital or otherwise of the holders of preferred shares in each of PartnerRe and AXIS, as set out in the relevant certificate of designation, preference and rights or equivalent respect of such preferred shares.

Holders of common shares have no pre-emptive, redemption, conversion or sinking fund rights. Holders of common shares are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of holders of common shares subject to any adjustment of voting power. See “—Adjustment to Voting Power”. Unless a different majority is required by law or by Newco’s bye-laws, resolutions to be approved by holders of common shares require approval by the affirmative votes of a majority of votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

In the event of Newco’s liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of common shares are entitled to share equally and ratably in Newco’s assets, if any, remaining after the payment of all of the company’s debts and liabilities, subject to any liquidation preference on any issued and outstanding preferred shares.

Preferred Shares

Pursuant to Bermuda law and Newco's bye-laws, the Newco board of directors may, by resolution, establish one or more series of preferred shares having such number of shares, designations, dividend rates, relative voting rights, conversion or exchange rights, redemption rights, liquidation rights and other relative participation, optional or other special rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions as may be fixed by the board without any further shareholder approval. Such rights, preferences, powers and limitations as may be established could have the effect of discouraging an attempt to obtain control of the Company.

For the avoidance of doubt, without prejudice to dissenters' rights, at the effective time each PartnerRe preferred share and each AXIS preferred share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preferred share of the amalgamated company and will be entitled to the same dividend and other relative rights, preferences, limitations and restrictions as are now provided by the respective certificate of designation, preferences and rights of such PartnerRe preferred shares or AXIS preferred shares, respectively.

Adjustment of Voting Power

The voting power of all Newco shares is adjusted (and shall be automatically adjusted in the future) to the extent necessary so that there is no 9.5% U.S. Member or, in the discretion of the Newco board of directors, no 9.5% Non-U.S. Member. The Newco board of directors is required to implement the foregoing in the manner provided in the Newco bye-laws, provided, that the foregoing does not apply in the event that one Newco shareholder owns greater than 75% of the voting power of the issued shares of Newco determined without applying the voting power adjustments or eliminations under the bye-laws.

The Newco board of directors shall from time to time take all reasonable steps necessary to ascertain whether there exists, or will exist at the time any vote of Newco shareholders is taken, a Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member or, in the discretion of the Newco board of directors, a Tentative 9.5% Non-U.S. Member. In the event that a Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member exists, the aggregate votes conferred by shares held by a Newco shareholder and treated as Controlled Shares of that Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member shall be reduced to the extent necessary such that the Controlled Shares of the Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member will constitute less than 9.5% of the voting power of all Newco shares. In applying the previous sentence where Newco shares held by more than one Member are treated as Controlled Shares of such Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member, the reduction in votes shall apply to such Members in descending order according to their respective Attribution Percentages, provided, that, in the event of a tie of Attribution Percentages, the reduction shall apply pro rata to such Members based on the voting power of the shares held by each such Newco shareholder.

The votes of Newco shareholders owning no shares treated as Controlled Shares of any Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member shall, in the aggregate, be increased by the same number of votes subject to reduction as described above, provided, that no shares shall be conferred votes to the extent that doing so will cause any person to be treated as a 9.5% U.S. Member or, unless the Newco board of directors determines otherwise, a 9.5% Non-U.S. Member. The votes described in the preceding sentence shall be apportioned to all such Newco shareholders in proportion to their voting power at that time. The adjustments of voting power described in the bye-laws shall apply repeatedly until there is no 9.5% U.S. Member or, unless the Newco board of directors determines otherwise, no 9.5% Non-U.S. Member. The Newco board of directors may deviate from any of the principles described in the bye-laws and determine that shares held by a Newco shareholder shall carry different voting rights as it reasonably determines, based on the advice of counsel, to be appropriate (a) to avoid the existence of any 9.5% U.S. Member or, unless the Newco board of directors determines otherwise, a 9.5% Non-U.S. Member, or (b) to avoid adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences to Newco, any subsidiary of Newco or any direct or indirect holder of shares; provided, that the Newco board of directors will use reasonable efforts to afford equal treatment to similarly situated Newco shareholders to the extent possible under the circumstances. In applying any adjustment a share may carry a fraction of a vote.

In the event that a Tentative 9.5% Non-U.S. Member exists, the Newco board of directors in its discretion, may apply procedures similar to the above to reduce the voting power of shares held by a Newco shareholder and treated as shares owned directly or indirectly through a Controlled Entity with respect to such Tentative 9.5% Non-U.S. Member.

In addition to the above, any Newco shares shall not carry any right to vote to the extent that the Newco board of directors determines in its sole discretion that it is necessary that such shares should not carry the right to vote in order to avoid adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences to Newco, any subsidiary of Newco, or any other direct or indirect holder of shares, provided, that no adjustment pursuant to the Newco bye-laws shall cause any person to become a 9.5% U.S. Member or, unless the Newco board of directors determines otherwise, a 9.5% Non-U.S. Member; and provided, further, that the Newco board of directors will use reasonable efforts to afford equal treatment to similarly situated Newco shareholders to the extent possible under the circumstances.

“9.5% U.S. Member” means a U.S. Person whose Controlled Shares constitute 9.5% or more of the voting power of all shares of Newco and who generally would be required to recognise income with respect to Newco under section 951(a)(1) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) if Newco were a controlled foreign corporation as defined in section 957 of the Code and if the ownership threshold under section 951(b) Newco of the Code were 9.5%; and “9.5% Non-U.S. Member” means a Non-U.S. Person whose shares in Newco owned directly or indirectly through one or more Controlled Entities constitute 9.5% or more of the voting power of all shares of Newco.

“Controlled Entity” means an entity which directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by or is under the common control with such other entity. For the purposes of this definition, the term “control” and its corollaries means the direct or indirect ownership of more than 50% of the equity interests or voting interests in such entity.

“Controlled Shares” means all shares of Newco directly, indirectly or constructively owned by a person as determined pursuant to sections 957 and 958 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder.

“Non-U.S. Person” means any person that is not a U.S. Person.

“Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member” means a U.S. Person that, but for adjustments to the voting rights of shares pursuant to the bye-laws, would be a 9.5% U.S. Member.

“Tentative 9.5% Non-U.S. Member” means a Non-U.S. Person whose shares in Newco owned directly or indirectly through one or more Controlled Entities that, but for adjustments to the voting rights of shares pursuant to the bye-laws, would be a 9.5% Non-U.S. Member.

“U.S. Person” means a “United States person” as defined in section 7701(a)(30) of the Code as modified by section 957(c) of the Code.

Dividend Rights

Under Bermuda law, a company may not declare or pay dividends if there are reasonable grounds for believing that: (i) the company is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or (ii) that the realizable value of its assets would thereby be less than its liabilities. Under Newco’s bye-laws, each common share is entitled to dividends if, as and when dividends are declared by the Newco board of directors, subject to any preferred dividend right of the holders of any preferred shares.

Variation of Rights

If, at any time, Newco’s share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not Newco is being wound-up, be varied either: (i) with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class; or (ii) with the sanction of a resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class at which meeting the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class. Newco’s bye-laws specify that the rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class or series issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class or series, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

Transfer of Shares

The Newco board of directors may in its absolute discretion and without assigning any reason, refuse to register the transfer of a share that it is not fully paid. The Newco board of directors may also refuse to recognize an instrument of transfer of a share unless it is accompanied by the relevant share certificate and such other evidence of the transferor's right to make the transfer as the Newco board of directors shall reasonably require. The Newco board of directors may decline to approve or register or permit the registration of any transfer of shares if the Newco board of directors in its sole discretion determines that any adverse tax, regulatory or legal consequences to Newco, any subsidiary of Newco or any direct or indirect holder of shares or its affiliates would result from such transfer.

Table of Contents

Subject to these restrictions, a holder of shares may transfer the title to all or any of his shares by completing a form of transfer in the form set out in Newco's bye-laws (or as near thereto as circumstances admit) or in such other common form as the Newco board of directors may accept. The instrument of transfer must be signed by the transferor and transferee, although in the case of a fully paid share the Newco board of directors may accept the instrument signed only by the transferor.

Where Newco's shares are listed or admitted to trading on any appointed stock exchange, such as the [NYSE], they will be transferred in accordance with the rules and regulations of such exchange.

Compulsory Acquisitions; Appraisal Rights

Under the Companies Act, a purchaser is generally able to compulsorily acquire the shares of minority holders in the following ways:

(i) by a court approved scheme of arrangement under the Companies Act. Schemes may be transfer schemes or cancellation schemes but, unlike a transfer scheme, a cancellation scheme requires the company to pass a solvency test or obtain the agreement of all its creditors to the scheme. In either case, dissenting shareholders do not have express statutory appraisal rights but the Bermuda Court will only sanction a scheme if it is fair. Voting rights attached to shares owned by the offeror may be used to approve the scheme but the Bermuda Court will be concerned to see that the shareholders approving the scheme are representative of the general body of shareholders. Any scheme must be approved by a majority in number representing three-fourths in value of the shareholders present and voting either in person or by proxy at the requisite special general meeting. If there are dissenting shareholders who hold more than 10% of the shares, the Bermuda Court might be persuaded not to exercise its discretion to sanction the scheme on the ground that the scheme constitutes a takeover under the Companies Act and requires 90% acceptance; or

(ii) by a squeeze-out of minority shareholders in a Bermuda company by way of a general offer followed by a squeeze-out under the Companies Act. Broadly, if the offer is approved by the holders of 90% in value of the shares which are the subject of the offer, the offeror can compulsorily acquire the shares of dissenting shareholders. Shares owned by the offeror or its subsidiary or their nominees at the date of the offer do not, however, count towards the 90% acceptance. If the offeror or any of its subsidiaries or any nominee of the offeror or any of its subsidiaries together already own more than 10% of the shares in the subject company at the date of the offer the offeror must offer the same terms to all holders of the same class and the holders who accept the offer, besides holding not less than 90% in value of the shares, must also represent not less than 75% in number of the holders of those shares. These additional restrictions should not apply if the offer is made by a subsidiary of a parent (where the subsidiary does not own more than 10% of the shares of the subject company) even where the parent owns more than 10% of the shares of the subject company, provided that the subsidiary and the parent are not nominees. The 90% must be obtained within four months after the making of the offer and, once obtained, the compulsory acquisition may be commenced within two months of the acquisition of 90%. Dissenting shareholders do not have express appraisal rights but are entitled to seek relief (within one month of the compulsory acquisition notice) from the Bermuda Court which has power to make such orders as it thinks fit; or

(iii) by the holders of 95% or more of the shares or any class of shares serving a notice on the remaining shareholders or class of shareholders under the Companies Act. Dissenting shareholders have a right to apply to the Bermuda Court within one month of receiving the compulsory acquisition notice to have the value of their shares appraised by the Bermuda Court. If one dissenting shareholder applies to the Bermuda Court and is successful in obtaining a higher valuation, that valuation must be paid to all minority shareholders who were the subject of the notice.

Subject to the Companies Act, the Newco board of directors, in its absolute discretion, may determine, from time to time and at any time, that ownership of shares or any securities of Newco convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable therefor (collectively, "Securities") by any shareholder, may result in any adverse tax, regulatory or legal consequence to Newco, any of its subsidiaries or any shareholder or its affiliates, then the Newco board of directors may, in its absolute discretion, determine the extent to which it is necessary or advisable to require the sale by such shareholder of such Securities in order to avoid or cure such violation or adverse consequences.

Under Bermuda law, a dissenting shareholder of an amalgamating or merging company who did not vote in favor of the amalgamation or merger and who is not satisfied that he or she has been offered fair value for his or her shares may within one month of the giving of the notice sent to each shareholder calling the meeting at which the amalgamation or merger was decided upon apply to the Bermuda Court to appraise the fair value of his or her shares. Within one month of the Bermuda Court appraising the fair value of any shares where the amalgamation or merger has not proceeded, the amalgamated or surviving company shall be entitled to either: (i) pay to any shareholder an amount equal to the value of his or her shares as appraised by the Bermuda Court; or (ii) terminate the amalgamation or merger in accordance with the Companies Act.

Where the Bermuda Court has appraised the fair value of any shares and the amalgamation or merger has proceeded prior to the appraisal then, within one month of the Bermuda Court appraising the value of the shares, if the amount paid to any shareholder for his or her shares is less than that appraised by the Bermuda Court, the amalgamated or surviving company shall pay to such shareholder the difference between the amount paid to him or her and the value appraised by the Bermuda Court.

There shall be no right of appeal from an appraisal by the Bermuda Court. The costs of any application to the Bermuda Court to appraise the fair value of any shares shall be in the discretion of the Bermuda Court.

Meetings of Shareholders

Under Bermuda law, a company is required to convene at least one general meeting of shareholders each calendar year (the “annual general meeting”). However, the shareholders may by resolution waive this requirement, either for a specific year or period of time, or indefinitely. When the requirement has been so waived, any shareholder may, on notice to the company, terminate the waiver, in which case an annual general meeting must be called. Newco’s bye-laws provide that the annual general meeting shall be held in each year at such time and place as the Newco board of directors or its chairman shall appoint.

Bermuda law provides that a special general meeting of shareholders may be called by the Newco board of directors and must be called upon the request of shareholders holding not less than 10% of the paid-up capital of the company carrying the right to vote at general meetings. Bermuda law also requires that shareholders be given at least five days’ advance notice of a general meeting, but the accidental omission to give notice to any person does not invalidate the proceedings at a meeting. Newco’s bye-laws provide that the chairman of the board of directors or the Newco board of directors may convene a special general meeting whenever in their judgment such a meeting is necessary provided that if the Newco board of directors determines, based on the advice of counsel, that any special general meeting must take place outside the United States, then any such special general meeting of Newco purported to be convened and held in the United States shall be void, and any business conducted at any such purported meeting shall be of no force or effect.

Under Newco’s bye-laws, at least 21 days’ notice of an annual general meeting or a special general meeting must be given to each shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting. This notice requirement is subject to the ability to hold such meetings on shorter notice if such notice is agreed: (i) in the case of an annual general meeting by all of the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at such meeting; or (ii) in the case of a special general meeting by a majority in number of the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the meeting being a majority together holding not less than 95% in nominal value of the shares giving a right to attend and vote at such meeting.

Quorum

The quorum required for a general meeting of shareholders is two or more persons present in person at the start of the meeting and representing in person or by proxy in excess of 50% of the total issued voting shares.

Access to Books and Records and Dissemination of Information

Members of the general public have a right to inspect the public documents of a company available at the office of the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda. These documents include the company's memorandum of association, including its objects and powers, and certain alterations to the memorandum of association. The shareholders have the additional right to inspect the bye-laws of the company, minutes of general meetings and the company's audited financial statements, which must be presented to the annual general meeting. The register of members of a company is also open to inspection by shareholders and by members of the general public without charge. The register of members is required to be open for inspection for not less than two hours in any business day (subject to the ability of a company to close the register of members for not more than thirty days in a year). A company is required to maintain its share register in Bermuda but may, subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, establish a branch register outside of Bermuda. A company is required to keep at its registered office a register of directors and officers that is open for inspection for not less than two hours in any business day by members of the public without charge. Director Nominations by Shareholders

Subject to the Companies Act, nominations of persons for election to Newco board of directors at an annual general meeting may be made only (a) pursuant to Newco's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto), (b) by or at the direction of the Newco board of directors or any committee thereof or (c) as may be provided in the certificate of designation for any class or series of preferred shares or (d) by any Newco shareholder who is a member of record at the time of giving of notice and at the time of the annual general meeting, who shall be entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the procedures set forth in Newco bye-laws, and, except as otherwise required by law, any failure to comply with the procedures shall result in the nullification of such nomination.

For nominations to be properly brought before an annual general meeting by a Newco shareholder, the Newco shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the secretary. To be timely, a Newco shareholder's notice shall be delivered to, or mailed and received by, the secretary at the principal executive office of Newco as set forth in Newco's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission not less than 120 days nor more than 150 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual general meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual general meeting is advanced more than 30 days prior to such anniversary date or delayed more than 70 days after such anniversary date then to be timely such notice must be received by Newco no earlier than 120 days prior to such annual meeting and no later than the later of 70 days prior to the date of the meeting or not later than 10 days following the earlier of the date on which notice of the annual general meeting was posted to Members or the day on which public announcement of the date of the annual general meeting was first made by Newco. In no event shall the adjournment or postponement of any annual general meeting, or any announcement thereof, commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of a Newco shareholder's notice as described above.

A Newco shareholder's notice to the secretary shall set forth as to each person whom the Newco shareholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director: (a) all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected; and (b) a reasonably detailed description of any compensatory, payment or other financial agreement, arrangement or understanding that such person has with any other person or entity other than Newco including the amount of any payment or payments received or receivable thereunder, in each case in connection with candidacy or service as a director (a "Third-Party Compensation Arrangement"). In addition the Newco shareholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal of such nomination is made is required in accordance with the Newco bye-laws to set forth the name and address of such Newco shareholder and any such beneficial owner, for each class or series, the number of shares of Newco that are held of record or are beneficially owned by such Newco shareholder and by any such beneficial owner; a description of any agreement, arrangement or understanding between or among such Newco shareholder and any such beneficial owner, any of their respective affiliates or associates, and any other person or persons (including their names) in connection with the proposal of such nomination; a description of any agreement, arrangement or understanding that has been entered into by or on behalf of, or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding that has been made, the effect or intent of which is to create or mitigate loss to, manage risk or benefit of share price changes for, or increase or decrease the voting power of, such Newco shareholder or any such beneficial owner or any such nominee with respect to Newco's securities; a representation that the Newco shareholder is a holder of record of shares of Newco entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to bring such nomination or other business before the meeting; a representation as to whether such Newco shareholder or any such beneficial owner intends or is part of a group that intends to (i) deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the voting power of Newco's issued and outstanding shares required to elect each such nominee and/or (ii) otherwise to solicit proxies from Newco shareholders in support of such nomination; any other information relating to such Newco shareholder, beneficial owner, if any, or director nominee that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filing required to be made in connection with the solicitation of proxies in support of such nominee pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act.

To be eligible to be a nominee for election as a director, the proposed nominee must provide to the secretary in accordance with the applicable time periods prescribed for delivery of notice under the Newco bye-laws: (1) a completed D&O questionnaire containing information regarding the nominee's background and qualifications and such other information as may reasonably be required by Newco to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as a director, (2) a written representation that, unless previously disclosed to Newco, the nominee is not and will not become a party to any voting agreement, arrangement or understanding with any person or entity as to how such nominee, if elected as a director, will vote on any issue or that could interfere with such person's ability to comply, if elected as a director, with his/her fiduciary duties under applicable law, (3) a written representation and agreement that, unless previously disclosed to Newco, the nominee is not and will not become a party to any Third-Party Compensation Arrangement and (4) a written representation that, if elected as a director, such nominee would be in compliance and will continue to comply with Newco's corporate governance guidelines as disclosed on the Newco's website, as amended from time to time.

Nominations of persons for election to Newco board of directors at a special general meeting may be made (a) pursuant to the Newco's notice of meeting, (b) by or at the direction of the Newco board of directors or any committee thereof (c) as may be provided in the certificate of designation for any class or series of preferred shares or (d) only in the case of a special general meeting requisitioned by any Newco shareholder in compliance with section 74 of the Companies Act (or any successor provision thereto), by the requisitioning Newco shareholder at the giving of advance notice required by the Companies Act. A Newco shareholder's proposal to nominate a director at any requisitioned special general meeting shall comply with the notice requirements set out above in relation to a Newco shareholder's proposal to nominate a director at an annual general meeting.

Shareholder Proposals

Under the Companies Act, shareholders may, at their own expense (unless the company otherwise resolves) require a company to: (i) give to the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the next annual general meeting notice of any resolution that shareholders can properly propose at that meeting; and/or (ii) circulate to any shareholder entitled to notice of any general meeting a statement (of not more than 1,000 words) in respect of any matter referred to in a proposed resolution or any business to be conducted at that meeting.

The number of shareholders necessary for such a request is either the number of shareholders representing not less than one-twentieth of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having at the date of the request a right to vote at the meeting to which the request relates, or not less than 100 shareholders. Notice of any such intended resolution shall be given, and any statement shall be circulated, to shareholders entitled to have notice of the meeting sent to them by serving a copy of the resolution or statement on each such shareholder in any manner permitted for service of notice of the meeting, and notice of any such resolution shall be given to any other shareholder of the company by giving notice of the general effect of the resolution in any manner permitted for giving him/it notice of meetings of the company.

Newco bye-laws provide that subject to the Companies Act, proposals for other business at an annual general meeting may be made only (a) pursuant to Newco's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto), (b) by or at the direction of the Newco board of directors or any committee thereof or (c) as may be provided in the certificate of designation for any class or series of preferred shares or (d) by any Newco shareholder who is a shareholder of record at the time of giving of notice and at the time of the annual general meeting. The notice requirements are those set out above at "Director Nominations by Shareholders" for a director nomination at an annual general meeting. Proposals by shareholders of other business to be conducted at a special general meeting may be made (a) pursuant to the Newco's notice of meeting, (b) by or at the direction of the Newco board of directors or any committee thereof (c) as may be provided in the certificate of designation for any class or series of preferred shares or (d) only in the case of a special general meeting requisitioned by any Newco shareholder in compliance with section 74 of the Companies Act (or any successor provision thereto), by the requisitioning Newco shareholder at the giving of advance notice required by the Companies Act. A Newco shareholder's proposal to transact any business at any requisitioned special general meeting shall comply with the notice requirements set out above at "Director Nominations by Shareholders" for a director nomination at an annual general meeting.

Election and Removal of Directors

Newco's bye-laws provide that subject to the rights of the holders of any class or series of Newco preferred shares then issued and outstanding, the Newco board of directors shall consist of such number of directors being not less than five directors and not more than eighteen directors as the Newco board of directors may from time to time determine.

Newco's board of directors will initially consist of 14 directors. The Newco board of directors shall be divided into three classes designated as Class I, Class II and Class III. Each class of directors shall consist, as nearly as possible, of one third of the total number of directors constituting the entire Newco board of directors.

Each director shall serve for a term ending on the date of the third annual general meeting next following the annual general meeting at which such director was elected, PROVIDED, that directors initially designated as Class III Directors shall serve for an initial term ending on the date of the first annual general meeting next following the effectiveness of their designation as Class III Directors, directors initially designated as Class II Directors shall serve for an initial term ending on the date of the second annual general meeting next following the effectiveness of their designation as Class II Directors and directors initially designated as Class I directors shall serve for an initial term ending on the date of the third annual general meeting next following the effectiveness of their designation as Class I Directors. If the number of directors is changed, any increase or decrease shall be apportioned among the classes so as to maintain the number of directors in each class as nearly equal as possible, and any director of any class elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for a term that shall coincide with the remaining term of the other directors of that class, but in no case shall a decrease in the number of directors shorten the term of any director then in office. A director shall hold office until the annual general meeting for the year in which his term expires, subject to his office being vacated pursuant to the Newco bye-laws.

A director may be removed, only with cause (meaning wilful misconduct, fraud, gross negligence, embezzlement or a conviction for a criminal offence involving either dishonesty or engaging in conduct which brings the director or Newco into disrepute or which results in material financial detriment to Newco), by the shareholders, provided notice of the shareholders' meeting convened to remove the director is given to the director. The notice must contain a statement of the intention to remove the director and must be served on the director not less than 14 days before the meeting. The director is entitled to attend the meeting and be heard on the motion for his removal.

Proceedings of Board of Directors

Newco's bye-laws provide that business of the company is to be managed and conducted by the Newco board of directors. Bermuda law permits individual and corporate directors and there is no requirement in the bye-laws or Bermuda law that directors hold any of Newco's shares. There is also no requirement in the bye-laws or Bermuda law that the directors must retire at a certain age.

A director may, and the Secretary on the requisition of a director shall, at any time summon a Newco board of directors meeting. Directors may participate in any meeting by such telephonic, electronic or other communication facilities or means as permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously, and participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting; provided, however, that in the sole discretion of directors participating in any meeting of the Newco board of directors (for the avoidance of doubt, including any such meeting of any committee appointed by the Newco board of directors) from Bermuda, a director participating in such meeting from a jurisdiction outside Bermuda may be prohibited from voting or taking certain other actions at any such meeting if, because of such director's location in a jurisdiction outside Bermuda, such director's vote or actions might result in any adverse tax, regulatory or legal consequences to the Company, any of its subsidiaries or any member or its affiliates.

The remuneration of the directors is determined by the Newco board of directors and there is no requirement that a specified number or percentage of "independent" directors must approve any such determination. The directors may also be paid all travel, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with the business of the company or their duties as directors generally.

A director who discloses a direct or indirect interest in any contract or proposed contract with the company as required by Bermuda law, may vote in respect of any such contract or proposed contract in which he or she is interested.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 98 of the Companies Act provides generally that a Bermuda company may indemnify its directors, officers and auditors against any liability which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise be imposed on them in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, except in cases where such liability arises from fraud or dishonesty of which such director, officer or auditor may be guilty in relation to the company. Section 98 further provides that a Bermuda company may indemnify its directors, officers and auditors against any liability incurred by them in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is awarded in their favor or in which they are acquitted or granted relief by the Supreme Court of Bermuda pursuant to section 281 of the Companies Act.

Newco's bye-laws that provide that the company shall indemnify the officers and directors in respect of their actions and omissions, except in respect of their fraud or dishonesty and that the company may advance moneys to a director or officer for expenses incurred in their defense on the condition that the director or officer shall repay the advance if any allegation of fraud or dishonestly in relation to the company is proved against him.

Newco's bye-laws provide that the shareholders waive all claims or rights of action that they might have, individually or in right of the company, against any of the company's directors or officers for any act or failure to act in the performance of such director's or officer's duties, except in respect of any fraud or dishonesty of such director or officer. Section 98A of the Companies Act permits the company to purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any officer or director in respect of any loss or liability attaching to him in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, whether or not the company may otherwise indemnify such officer or director. Newco has purchased and maintains a directors' and officers' liability policy for such a purpose].

Newco's bye-laws also provide that any repeal, alteration, or amendment of the bye-law provisions relating to the indemnification or exculpation of directors or officers or adoption of any provision inconsistent therewith or any modification shall not adversely affect any rights to indemnification or to the advancement of expenses thereunder existing at the time of such repeal, alteration, amendment, adoption or modification with respect to any events, acts or omissions occurring immediately prior to such repeal, alteration, amendment, adoption or modification (regardless of when any proceeding, or part thereof, relating to such event, act or omission arises or is first threatened, commenced or completed).

Amendment of Memorandum of Association and Bye-Laws

Newco's bye-laws provide that the memorandum of association of Newco may be amended by a resolution of the Newco board of directors and by a resolution of the shareholders. Newco's bye-laws provide that no bye-law shall be rescinded, altered or amended, and no new bye-law shall be made, unless it shall have been approved by a resolution of the Newco board of directors and by a resolution of the shareholders. The Newco bye-law relating to the removal of the chairman of the Newco board of directors or the president and chief executive officer of Newco prior to the third anniversary of the consummation of the amalgamation may not be rescinded, altered or amended and no new bye-law may be made which would have the effect of rescinding, altering or amending the provisions of such bye-law, until the same has been approved by a resolution of the Newco board of directors including the affirmative vote of not less than 75% of the directors then in office excluding the vote of any director who is an officer (other than the office of director of Newco) or employee of Newco or who is directly or indirectly interested in the proposed resolution and by a resolution of the Newco shareholders.

Under Bermuda law, the holders of an aggregate of not less than 20% in par value of the company's issued share capital or any class thereof have the right to apply to the Supreme Court of Bermuda for an annulment of any amendment of the memorandum of association adopted by shareholders at any general meeting, other than an amendment which alters or reduces a company's share capital as provided in the Companies Act. Where such an application is made, the amendment becomes effective only to the extent that it is confirmed by the Supreme Court of Bermuda. An application for an annulment of an amendment of the memorandum of association must be made within 21 days after the date on which the resolution altering the company's memorandum of association is passed and may be made on behalf of persons entitled to make the application by one or more of their number as they may appoint in writing for the purpose. No application may be made by shareholders voting in favor of the amendment.

Amalgamations and Mergers

The amalgamation or merger of a Bermuda company with another company or corporation (other than certain affiliated companies) requires the amalgamation or merger agreement to be approved by the company's board of directors and by its shareholders. Unless the company's bye-laws provide otherwise, the approval of 75% of the shareholders voting at such meeting is required to approve the amalgamation or merger agreement, and the quorum for such meeting must be two persons holding or representing more than one-third of the issued shares of the company. The Newco bye-laws provide that a merger or an amalgamation (other than with a wholly-owned subsidiary) must be approved by the affirmative votes of a majority of the votes cast at a general meeting of the shareholders at which the quorum shall be two or more persons present in person and representing in person or by proxy in excess of 50% of all issued and outstanding shares.

Registrar or Transfer Agent

A register of holders of the shares will be maintained by Codan Services Limited in Bermuda, and a branch register will be maintained in the United States by [], who will serve as branch registrar and transfer agent.

Certain Provisions of Bermuda Law

Upon consummation of the amalgamation Newco will be designated by the Bermuda Monetary Authority as a non-resident for Bermuda exchange control purposes. This designation allows the company to engage in transactions in currencies other than the Bermuda dollar, and there puts no restrictions on its ability to transfer funds (other than funds denominated in Bermuda dollars) in and out of Bermuda or to pay dividends to United States residents who are holders of Newco's shares.

In accordance with Bermuda law, share certificates are only issued in the names of companies, partnerships or individuals. In the case of a shareholder acting in a special capacity (for example as a trustee), certificates may, at the request of the shareholder, record the capacity in which the shareholder is acting. Notwithstanding such recording of any special capacity, we are not bound to investigate or see to the execution of any such trust. We will take no notice of any trust applicable to any of the shares, whether or not the company has been notified of such trust.

Share Certificates

Newco is under no obligation to complete and deliver a share certificate unless specifically called upon to do so by the person to whom the shares have been allotted.

Newco's bye-laws provide that every shareholder shall be entitled to a certificate under the common seal of the Company (or a facsimile thereof) or bearing the signature (or a facsimile thereof) of a director or the secretary or a person expressly authorized to sign specifying the number and, where appropriate, the class of shares held by such shareholder and whether the same are fully paid up and, if not, specifying the amount paid on such shares.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF AMALGAMATION

This Agreement and Plan of Amalgamation (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of January 25, 2015 (as subsequently amended), by and between Axis Capital Holdings Limited, a Bermuda exempted company (“Axis”) and PartnerRe Ltd., a Bermuda exempted company (“PRE” and, together with Axis, the “parties”).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of Axis (the “Axis Board”) and the Board of Directors of PRE (the “PRE Board”) have determined that a business combination between Axis and PRE presents the opportunity for their respective companies to achieve long-term financial and strategic benefits and accordingly have determined to effect a business combination upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement;

WHEREAS, it is proposed that PRE and Axis will amalgamate (the “Amalgamation”) and continue as a Bermuda exempted company (the “Amalgamated Company”), upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement and a statutory amalgamation agreement in a form to be agreed between the parties (the “Amalgamation Agreement”), and in accordance with the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda, as amended (the “Companies Act”);

WHEREAS, the Axis Board and the PRE Board have unanimously: (i) determined that the Amalgamation is advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Axis and PRE, respectively; and (ii) approved and adopted this Agreement, the Amalgamation Agreement and the Transactions; and

WHEREAS, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the parties intend that the Amalgamation will constitute a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) and the regulations thereunder (the “Treasury Regulations”), and that this Agreement be, and be hereby adopted as, a “plan of reorganization” for purposes of Section 368 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of these premises and the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, the parties, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE AMALGAMATION

1.1 The Amalgamation; Effective Time. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Amalgamation Agreement, Axis and PRE will cause an application for registration of the Amalgamated Company (the “Amalgamation Application”) to be prepared, executed and delivered to the Registrar of Companies in Bermuda (the “Registrar”) as provided under S.108 of the Companies Act on or prior to the Closing Date and will cause the Amalgamation to become effective pursuant to the Companies Act. The Amalgamation shall become effective upon the issuance of a certificate of amalgamation (the “Certificate of Amalgamation”) by the Registrar or such other time as the Certificate of Amalgamation may provide. The parties agree that they will request the Registrar provide in the Certificate of Amalgamation that the Effective Time will be 9:00 a.m., New York City time, on the Closing Date (the “Effective Time”).

Table of Contents

1.2 Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the Amalgamation (the “Closing”) will take place at the offices of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, 425 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York, at 8:00 a.m., New York City time, on the date (the “Closing Date”) that is the third Business Day after the day on which the last of those conditions (other than any conditions set forth in Article VI that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions) is satisfied or waived in accordance with this Agreement, or at such other place and time or on such other date as Axis and PRE may agree in writing.

1.3 Effects of the Amalgamation. As of the Effective Time, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Amalgamation Agreement, Axis shall be amalgamated with PRE and the Amalgamated Company shall continue after the Amalgamation. The parties acknowledge and agree that for purposes of Bermuda Law: (i) the Amalgamation shall be effected so as to constitute an “amalgamation” in accordance with S.104 of the Companies Act, and (ii) the Amalgamated Company shall be deemed to be an “amalgamated company” as such term is understood under the Companies Act. Under the Companies Act, from and after the Effective Time: (a) the Amalgamation of Axis and PRE and their continuance as one company shall become effective; (b) the property of each of Axis and PRE shall become the property of Amalgamated Company; (c) Amalgamated Company shall continue to be liable for the obligations and liabilities of each of Axis and PRE; (d) any existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution shall be unaffected; (e) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against Axis or PRE may be continued to be prosecuted by or against Amalgamated Company; and (f) a conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment in favor of or against, Axis or PRE may be enforced by or against Amalgamated Company.

1.4 Amalgamated Company Memorandum of Association and Bye-laws. The memorandum of association and the bye-laws of the Amalgamated Company (respectively, the “Amalgamated Company Memorandum of Association” and the “Amalgamated Company Bye-Laws”) shall be in the form to be mutually agreed by Axis and PRE no later than the mailing of the Joint Proxy Statement, which shall contain the terms set forth on Section 1.4 of each party’s Disclosure Letter (as each may thereafter be amended or modified from time to time after the date hereof and prior to the mailing of the Joint Proxy Statement by the mutual written agreement of the parties).

1.5 Governance; Directors and Officers of Axis.

(a) The parties shall take all actions necessary to cause the number of directors constituting the full Amalgamated Company board of directors (the “Amalgamated Company Board”) as of the Effective Time to be 14 and comprised of: (i) seven directors designated by Axis prior to the Closing (the “Axis Board Designees”) provided, that, one such Axis Board Designee shall be Albert Benchimol and (ii) seven directors designated by PRE (the

Each committee of the Amalgamated Company Board shall be composed of Post-Closing Directors drawn equally from the Axis Board Designees and PRE Board Designees who shall serve until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed or such other time that the Amalgamated Company Board after the Closing determines to reconstitute or eliminate such committee, in each case in accordance with the Bye-Laws of the Amalgamated Company. At the Effective Time, the initial chairpersons of the Risk, Nominating and Corporate Governance and Compensation committees of the Amalgamated Company Board shall have been designated by the Axis Board in its sole discretion and the chairpersons of the Audit, Finance and Executive committees of the Amalgamated Company Board shall have been designated by the PRE Board in its sole discretion, all such initial chairpersons to serve until the earlier of their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed or such other time that the Amalgamated Company Board after the Closing determines to reconstitute or eliminate such committee, in each case in accordance with the Bye-Laws of the Amalgamated Company.

(f) Shares of PRE Dissenting Holders. At the Effective Time any PRE Dissenting Shares shall be cancelled, and unless otherwise required by applicable Law, be converted into the right to receive the PRE Consideration as described in Section 2.1(b) or, as the case may be, the preference shares of the Amalgamated Company as described in Section 2.1(g) and any PRE Dissenting Holders, in the event that the Appraised Fair Value of a PRE Dissenting Share is greater than the PRE Consideration or, as the case may be, the value of their preferred shares of the Amalgamated Company described in Section 2.1(g), be entitled to receive such difference from the Amalgamated Company by payment within thirty (30) days after such Appraised Fair Value is finally determined pursuant to such appraisal procedure. From and after the Effective Time, the Axis Share Register shall be closed and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the share transfer books of the Amalgamated Company of the Axis Common Shares that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, any outstanding Axis Common Shares are presented to the Amalgamated Company or the Exchange Agent, such Common Shares shall be cancelled and exchanged for Axis Consideration provided for, and in accordance with the provisions set forth, in this Article II.

(g) No Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no fraction of an Amalgamated Company Common Share shall be issued in connection with the Amalgamation. In lieu thereof, any PRE Shareholder or Axis Shareholder who would otherwise have been entitled to a fraction of an Amalgamated Company Common Share, shall be paid upon surrender of their respective PRE Common Shares or Axis Common Shares for exchange (after aggregating all PRE Common Shares or Axis Common Shares of such Person), cash in an amount (without interest) equal to the difference of (i) the aggregate number of shares of Amalgamated Company Common Stock to be delivered to the Exchange Agent by Amalgamated Company pursuant to Section 2.2(b) minus (ii) the aggregate number of whole shares of Amalgamated Company Common Stock to be distributed, in aggregate, to the Axis Shareholders and the PRE Shareholders pursuant to Sections 2.1(b) and (c) (such excess being, the “Excess Shares”). The parties acknowledge that payment of the cash consideration in lieu of issuing fractional shares was not separately bargained-for consideration but merely represents a mechanical rounding off for purposes of avoiding the expense and inconvenience to Amalgamated Company that would otherwise be caused by the issuance of fractional shares. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent, as agent for the holders of the certificates representing shares of Amalgamated Company Common Stock that would otherwise receive fractional shares, shall sell the Excess Shares at then prevailing prices on the NYSE. Such sale of the Excess Shares by the Exchange Agent, as agent for the holders that would otherwise receive fractional shares, shall be executed on the NYSE at then-prevailing market prices and shall be executed in round lots to the extent practicable. Until the proceeds of such sale or sales have been distributed to the respective PRE Shareholders and Axis Shareholders (as the case may be), the Exchange Agent shall hold such proceeds in trust for such shareholders (the “Common Share Trust”). The Exchange Agent shall reasonably determine the portion of the Common Share Trust to which the respective PRE Shareholders and Axis Shareholders (as the case may be) shall be entitled on a pro rata basis.

(h) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. If any PRE Certificates or Axis Certificates (as the case may be) have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Exchange Agent shall issue and pay in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed PRE Certificates or Axis Certificates (as the case may be), upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming to be the holder thereof, the respective Consideration and any dividends or other distributions payable pursuant to this Article II in respect thereof; provided that the Amalgamated Company may, in its reasonable discretion, require such Person to either deliver a bond in such sum as the Amalgamated Company may reasonably direct or otherwise indemnify the Amalgamated Company in a manner reasonably satisfactory to the Amalgamated Company against any claim that may be made against the Amalgamated Company or the Exchange Agent with respect to the PRE Certificates or Axis Certificates (as the case may be) alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

(i) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the respective PRE Shareholders or Axis Shareholders for 180 days following the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Amalgamated Company, upon demand. Any respective holder of PRE Common Shares or Axis Common Shares who has not theretofore complied with this Article II shall thereafter look only to the Amalgamated Company for payment of their respective Consideration and any cash dividends or distributions with respect to Axis Common Shares or PRE Common Shares payable pursuant to this Article II.

(j) No Liability. To the extent permitted under applicable Law, any Consideration and any dividends or other distributions payable to any PRE Shareholder or Axis Shareholder in accordance with this Article II that remains undistributed to the respective PRE Shareholder and Axis Shareholder shall be delivered to and become the property of the Amalgamated Company on the Business Day immediately prior to the day that such property is required to be delivered to any public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. Neither the Amalgamated Company nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any respective PRE Shareholder or Axis Shareholder for any such property delivered to the Amalgamated Company or to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(k) Withholding Rights. The Exchange Agent, Axis, PRE and the Amalgamated Company shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any Consideration or other amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement to any PRE Shareholder or Axis Shareholder such amounts as may be required under the Code or any other provision of applicable federal, state, local or foreign Tax Law. To the extent that such amounts are so deducted or withheld and are paid over to the applicable Governmental Entity, such deducted or withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the respective PRE Shareholder or Axis Shareholder in respect of whom such deduction or withholding was made.

2.3 Treatment of Equity Awards.

(a) Treatment of PRE Options. As of the Effective Time, each outstanding option to purchase PRE Common Shares under any PRE Share Plan (each, a “PRE Option”), whether vested or unvested, shall be treated in accordance with the terms of the applicable grant or award agreement and PRE Share Plan and, automatically and without any required action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into an option to purchase, on the same terms and conditions as applied to each such PRE Option immediately prior to the Effective Time, the number of whole Amalgamated Company Common Shares (rounded down to the nearest whole share) that is equal to the number of PRE Common Shares subject to such PRE Option immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by the PRE Exchange Ratio, at an exercise price per Amalgamated Company Common Share (rounded up to the nearest whole penny) equal to the exercise price for each such PRE Common Share subject to such PRE Option immediately prior to the Effective Time divided by the PRE Exchange Ratio; provided, that in the case of any PRE Option to which Section 421 of the Code applies as of the Effective Time by reason of its qualification under Section 422 of the Code, the exercise price, the number of Amalgamated Company Common Shares subject to such option and the terms and conditions of exercise of such option shall be determined in a manner consistent with the requirements of Section 424(a) of the Code.

(b) Treatment of PRE Share Appreciation Rights. As of the Effective Time, each outstanding share appreciation right under any PRE Share Plan (each, a “PRE SAR”), whether vested or unvested, shall be treated in accordance with the terms of the applicable grant or award agreement and PRE Share Plan and, automatically and without any required action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into a share appreciation right, on the same terms and conditions as applied to each such PRE SAR immediately prior to the Effective Time, to the number of whole Amalgamated Company Common Shares (rounded down to the nearest whole share) that is equal to the number of PRE Common Shares subject to such PRE SAR immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by the PRE Exchange Ratio, at an exercise price per Amalgamated Company Common Share (rounded up to the nearest whole penny) equal to the exercise price for each such PRE Common Share subject to such PRE SAR immediately prior to the Effective Time divided by the PRE Exchange Ratio.

(c) Treatment of PRE Other Company Share-Based Awards.

(i) Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each right of any kind, contingent or accrued, to receive PRE Common Shares (including restricted share units and performance share units), other than PRE Options and PRE SARS (each, a “PRE Other Share-Based Award”), which under the terms of the applicable grant or award agreement and PRE Share Plan becomes fully vested and settled effective as of the Effective Time shall vest and be settled in accordance with its terms (and for the avoidance of doubt, all such performance share units shall vest and settle as if the maximum performance were achieved) and each PRE Common Share delivered in settlement thereof (after giving effect to any required reduction in respect of withholding tax obligation due in respect of such vesting and settlement), shall be eligible to receive the PRE Consideration pursuant to Section 2.1(b) of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, any PRE Other Share-Based Awards held by members of the PRE Board who are not PRE Board Designees shall be treated as if such individuals experienced a termination due to mandatory retirement effective as of the Effective Time under the terms of the applicable grant or award agreement and PRE Share Plan.

(ii) Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each PRE Other Share-Based Award which is not vested as of the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Amalgamation and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into a right to receive a number of Amalgamated Company Common Shares determined by multiplying the number of PRE Common Shares subject to such PRE Other Share-Based Award immediately prior to the Effective Time by the PRE Exchange Ratio and rounding up or down to the nearest whole share, and such Amalgamated Company Common Shares subject to a PRE Other Share-Based Award shall be subject to the same terms and conditions (including applicable vesting requirements) as applied to such PRE Other Share-Based Award immediately prior to the Effective Time.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each of the time-vesting Axis Restricted Share Awards specially granted in February 2014 to assistant vice presidents and above, as converted pursuant to this Section 2.3(e) shall, and any Axis Restricted Share Awards issued pursuant to Section 5.1(c)(C), as converted pursuant to this Section 2.3(e), may at Axis's option, as of the Effective Time and without any required action on the part of the holder thereof, become fully vested and exercisable with respect to one hundred percent (100%) of the Amalgamated Company Common Shares subject to such Axis Restricted Share Awards.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each of the time-vesting Axis Other Share-Based Awards specially granted in February 2014 to assistant vice presidents and above, as converted pursuant to this Section 2.3(f)(i) shall, and any Axis Other Share-Based Awards issued pursuant to Section 5.1(c)(C), as converted pursuant to this Section 2.3(f)(i), may at Axis's option, as of the Effective Time and without any required action on the part of the holder thereof, become fully vested and exercisable with respect to one hundred percent (100%) of the Amalgamated Company Common Shares subject to such Axis Other Share-Based Awards.

(g) Prior to the Effective Time, the PRE Board, Axis Board and their respective compensation committees, shall take all actions necessary to effectuate the provisions of this Section 2.3.

2.4 Amendment of Structure. The parties shall amend this Agreement prior to the filing of the Joint Proxy Statement to provide for a structure other than an amalgamation (with Axis or PRE surviving or continuing or both surviving or continuing as subsidiaries of a new holding company, as the case may be) if the advantages (after taking into account any disadvantages) of such other structure would be more favorable after the Closing to the shareholders of PRE and Axis than in the Amalgamation.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE PARTIES

Except as: (i) set forth in the disclosure letter delivered by PRE to Axis simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement by PRE (the "PRE Disclosure Letter") or the disclosure letter delivered by Axis to PRE simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement by Axis (the "Axis Disclosure Letter" and each of the PRE Disclosure Letter and the Axis Disclosure Letter, a "Disclosure Letter"), as the case may be, (ii) in the case of Axis, disclosed in the Axis SEC Reports publicly filed with the SEC on or following January 1, 2014 and at least two Business Days prior to the execution of this Agreement (excluding any disclosures set forth in the "Risk Factors" or "Forward-Looking Statements" sections of such Axis SEC Report or that otherwise constitute risk factors or that are cautionary, predictive or forward-looking in nature), or (iii) in the case of PRE, disclosed in the PRE SEC Reports publicly filed with the SEC on or following January 1, 2014 and at least two Business Days prior to the execution of this Agreement (excluding any disclosures set forth in the "Risk Factors" or "Forward-Looking Statements" sections of such PRE SEC Report or that otherwise constitute risk factors or that are cautionary, predictive or forward-looking in nature), PRE hereby represents and warrants to Axis, and Axis hereby represents and warrants to PRE, to the extent applicable, in each case with respect to itself and its Subsidiaries (and not as to the other party or its Subsidiaries), as follows:

Neither it nor any of its Subsidiaries is in violation of their respective Organizational Documents in any material respect.

(b) Performance of Obligations of Axis. Axis shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all obligations and covenants required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Certification. PRE shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of Axis by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of Axis, certifying that the conditions set forth in Section 6.2(a), Section 6.2(b) and Section 6.2(f) have been satisfied.

In rendering such opinion, PRE’s Counsel shall be entitled to rely upon customary assumptions and representations reasonably satisfactory to such counsel, including representations set forth in certificates of officers of PRE and Axis.

(b) Performance of Obligations of PRE. PRE shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all obligations and covenants required to be performed by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Certification. Axis shall have received a certificate signed on behalf of PRE by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of PRE, certifying that the conditions set forth in Section 6.3(a), Section 6.3(b) and Section 6.3(e) have been satisfied.

In rendering such opinion, Axis’s Counsel shall be entitled to rely upon customary assumptions and representations reasonably satisfactory to such counsel, including representations set forth in certificates of officers of PRE and Axis.

(e) Post-Closing Directors. All required actions shall have been taken such that, immediately following the Effective Time, the Axis Board Designees shall be appointed, and entitled to serve, as Post-Closing Directors of the Amalgamated Company.

ARTICLE VII

TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

- 7.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Transactions may be abandoned at any time prior to the Effective Time:
- (a) by mutual written consent of Axis and PRE by action of their respective boards of directors;
 - (b) by either Axis or PRE if there shall be any Law that makes consummation of the Transactions illegal or otherwise prohibited, or if any Order enjoins, restrains or otherwise prohibits Axis or PRE from consummating the Transactions and such Order shall have become final and nonappealable provided that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply in any material respect with any covenant or obligation under this Agreement has primarily caused the issuance of any such Order;
 - (c) by either Axis or PRE if the Transactions shall not have been consummated on or prior to one year from the date hereof (the "End Date"); provided, that, the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(c) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply in any material respect with any covenant or obligation under this Agreement has primarily contributed to the failure of the Transactions to occur on or before the End Date;
 - (d) by Axis prior to obtaining the Requisite PRE Vote: (A) (i) if the PRE Board shall effect a Change of Recommendation, or (ii) if after the date hereof an Acquisition Proposal with respect to PRE was publicly announced or disclosed (or any Person shall have publicly announced an intention (whether or not conditional) to make such an Acquisition Proposal) and the PRE Board fails to reaffirm publicly the PRE Board Recommendation within five Business Days after receipt of a written request from Axis to do so (other than in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer contemplated by Section 5.8(b)(iii)), or (iii) the PRE Board publicly announces an intention to take any of the foregoing actions; or (B) PRE has materially breached its obligations under Section 4.1(e) or Section 5.8;
 - (e) by PRE prior to obtaining the Requisite Axis Vote: (A) (i) if the Axis Board shall effect a Change of Recommendation, or (ii) if after the date hereof an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Axis was publicly announced or disclosed (or any Person shall have publicly announced an intention (whether or not conditional) to make such an Acquisition Proposal) and the Axis Board fails to reaffirm publicly the Axis Board Recommendation within five Business Days after receipt of a written request from PRE to do so (other than in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer contemplated by Section 5.8(b)(iii)), or (iii) the Axis Board publicly announces an intention to take any of the foregoing actions; or (B) Axis has materially breached its obligations under Section 4.1(d) or Section 5.8;
 - (f) by Axis or PRE if at the PRE Shareholders Meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) the Requisite PRE Vote shall not have been obtained;

(g) by Axis or PRE if at the Axis Shareholders Meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) the Requisite Axis Vote shall not have been obtained; or

(h) by Axis or PRE if there shall have been a breach by the other of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement, which breach would result in the failure of one or more of the conditions set forth in Section 6.2(a) or 6.2(b) (in the case of a breach by Axis) or Section 6.3(a) or 6.3(b) (in the case of a breach by PRE) to be satisfied on or prior to the End Date, and such breach shall not be capable of being cured or shall not have been cured within 30 Business Days after detailed written notice thereof shall have been received by the party alleged to be in breach.

7.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) In the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1, this Agreement, except for the provisions of the second sentence of Section 4.2, this Section 7.2 and Sections 8.2 through 8.12, shall become void and have no effect, without any liability on the part of any party or its directors, officers or shareholders with respect thereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 7.2 shall relieve any party to this Agreement of liability for fraud or any willful and intentional breach of any provision of this Agreement and, if it shall be judicially determined that termination of this Agreement was caused by a willful and intentional breach of this Agreement, then, in addition to other remedies at law or equity for a willful and intentional breach of this Agreement, the party so found to have willfully and intentionally breached this Agreement shall indemnify and hold harmless the other parties for their respective reasonable out-of-pocket costs, fees and expenses of their counsel, accountants, financial advisors and other experts and advisors as well as fees and expenses incident to negotiation, preparation and execution of this Agreement, including related severance costs and expenses, and related documentation and shareholders' meetings and consents (collectively, "Costs"), provided, however, that, upon payment by Axis or PRE of the Termination Fee in full, such party shall no longer be required to indemnify and hold harmless the other parties for their respective Costs pursuant to this Section 7.2(a). No termination of this Agreement shall affect the obligations of the parties contained in the Confidentiality Agreement, all of which obligations shall survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with their respective terms.

(b) If this Agreement is terminated by Axis for any reason pursuant to Section 7.1(d), then PRE will, within three Business Days following any such termination, pay to Axis or its designee in cash by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by Axis a termination fee in an amount equal to $250,000,000 (the "Termination Fee").

(c) If this Agreement is terminated for any reason by PRE pursuant to Section 7.1(e), then Axis will, within three Business Days following any such termination, pay to PRE or its designee in cash by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by PRE the Termination Fee.

(d) If either party terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(f) because the Requisite PRE Vote has not been obtained (and, if Axis is the terminating party, the Requisite Axis Vote has not been taken yet or has already been obtained), then PRE shall, as promptly as reasonably practicable (and in any event within three Business Days following such termination), pay to Axis, by wire transfer in immediately available funds, an amount equal to $55,000,000 (the “No Approval Fee”); provided that if: (i) an Acquisition Proposal in respect of PRE was publicly announced or disclosed (or any Person shall have publicly announced an intention to make an Acquisition Proposal in respect of PRE) prior to the PRE Shareholders’ Meeting at which the Requisite PRE Vote (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) was not obtained, and (ii) PRE, within 12 months after the date of such termination, enters into a letter of intent, agreement-in-principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement with respect to, or publicly announces, a Business Combination or consummates a Business Combination, then PRE will, prior to the earlier of the consummation of a Business Combination or execution of a definitive agreement with respect thereto, also pay to Axis or its designee, in cash by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by Axis, the Termination Fee less the No Approval Fee.

(e) If either party terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(g) because the Requisite Axis Vote has not been obtained (and, if PRE is the terminating party, the Requisite PRE Vote has not been taken yet or has already been obtained), then Axis shall, as promptly as reasonably practicable (and in any event within three Business Days following such termination), pay to PRE, by wire transfer in immediately available funds, the No Approval Fee; provided that if: (i) an Acquisition Proposal in respect of Axis was publicly announced or disclosed (or any Person shall have publicly announced an intention to make an Acquisition Proposal in respect of Axis) prior to the Axis Shareholders’ Meeting at which the Requisite Axis Vote (including any adjournment or postponement thereof) was not obtained, and (ii) Axis, within 12 months after the date of such termination, enters into a letter of intent, agreement-in-principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement with respect to, or publicly announces, a Business Combination or consummates a Business Combination, then Axis will, prior to the earlier of the consummation of a Business Combination or execution of a definitive agreement with respect thereto, also pay to PRE or its designee, in cash by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by PRE, the Termination Fee less the No Approval Fee.

(f) If this Agreement is terminated by PRE for any reason pursuant to Section 7.1(h) or Section 7.1(c) (i) following the public announcement or disclosure of an Acquisition Proposal in respect of Axis or the intention by any Person to make such an Acquisition Proposal and (ii) within 12 months after the date of such termination pursuant to Section 7.1(h) or Section 7.1(c), Axis enters into a letter of intent, agreement-in-principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement with respect to, or publicly announces, a Business Combination or consummates a Business Combination, then Axis will, upon the earlier to occur of the entering into such letter of intent, agreement-in-principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement and the consummation of such Business Combination, pay to PRE or its designee, in cash by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by PRE, the Termination Fee.

(g) If this Agreement is terminated by Axis for any reason pursuant to Section 7.1(h) or Section 7.1(c) (i) following the public announcement or disclosure of an Acquisition Proposal in respect of PRE or the intention by any Person to make such an Acquisition Proposal and (ii) within 12 months after the date of such termination pursuant to

Section 7.1(h) or Section 7.1(c), PRE enters into a letter of intent, agreement-in-principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement with respect to, or publicly announces, a Business Combination or consummates a Business Combination, then PRE will, upon the earlier to occur of the entering into such letter of intent, agreement-in-principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement and the consummation of such Business Combination, pay to Axis or its designee, in cash by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by Axis, the Termination Fee.

(h) For the purposes of this Section 7.2, “Business Combination” means: (i) a merger, amalgamation, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation or similar transaction involving Axis, in the case of Axis, or PRE in the case of PRE, as a result of which the shareholders of Axis or the shareholders of PRE, as applicable, prior to such transaction in the aggregate cease to own more than 50% of the voting securities of the entity surviving or resulting from such transaction (or the ultimate entity thereof), (ii) any purchase of an equity interest (including by means of a tender or exchange offer) representing an amount equal to or greater than a 50% voting or economic interest in Axis or PRE, as applicable, or (iii) any purchase of assets, securities or ownership interests representing an amount equal to or greater than 50% of the consolidated assets (including stock of the respective Subsidiaries of Axis or PRE, as applicable), consolidated net revenues or earnings before interest, Taxes, depreciation and amortization of Axis and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or PRE and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as applicable.

(i) The parties acknowledge and agree that in no event shall a party be required to pay the Termination Fee on more than one occasion. In the event the Termination Fee is paid to a party in accordance with this Section 7.2, such payment shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of such party and its Subsidiaries, shareholders and Representatives against the other party or any of its Subsidiaries, shareholders and Representatives with respect to the termination, event or breach giving rise to that payment, except in the case of fraud or any willful or intentional breach of any provision of this Agreement.

(j) Upon any termination of this Agreement in circumstances where the Termination Fee or the No Approval Fee is payable, the party liable to pay the Termination Fee or the No Approval Fee (as applicable) shall, in addition to payment of the Termination Fee or the No Approval Fee (as applicable) reimburse the other party and its Affiliates (by wire transfer of immediately available funds), no later than three Business Days after such termination, for 100% of their out-of-pocket fees, costs, obligations owed to third parties and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of their counsel) actually incurred by any of them in contemplation of, in connection with or in any way relating to the consideration, negotiation or implementation of this Agreement or the Transactions and other actions contemplated hereby in an amount not to exceed $35,000,000.

Axis and PRE each acknowledge that the agreements contained in this Section 7.2 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and that, without these agreements, neither party would enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if the either Axis or PRE (the “Defaulting Party”) fails promptly to pay any amount due to the other pursuant to this Section 7.2, it shall also pay any costs and expenses incurred by the other party in connection with a legal action to enforce this Agreement that results in a judgment against Defaulting Party for such amount, together with interest on the amount of any unpaid fee, cost or expense at the rate per annum equal to the prime rate published in The Wall Street Journal on the date such payment was required to be made, from the date such fee, cost or expense was required to be paid to (but excluding) the payment date.

7.3 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time before or after receipt of the Requisite PRE Vote or the Requisite Axis Vote, but after any such approval, no amendment shall be made which by Law requires further approval or authorization by the shareholders of PRE or Axis without such further approval or authorization. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument or instruments in writing signed and delivered by an authorized representative of each of the parties.

7.4 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, Axis (with respect to PRE) and PRE (with respect to Axis) by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, may, to the extent legally allowed (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of such other party, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any certificate delivered pursuant to this Agreement and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement. Any agreement by a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party. No delay by any party in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of such right, nor shall any waiver by any party of any such right nor any single or partial exercise of any such right preclude any further exercise of such right or the exercise of any other such right.

8.3 Interpretation.

(a) When a reference is made in this Agreement to an Article, Section, Annex or Exhibit, such reference shall be to an Article, Section, Annex or Exhibit of this Agreement unless otherwise indicated to the contrary. The descriptive Article and Section headings and the table of contents contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are not intended to be part of and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. All terms defined in this Agreement shall have the defined meanings when used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant to this Agreement unless otherwise defined in such certificate or other document. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. Where a word or phrase is defined in this Agreement, each of its other grammatical forms shall have a corresponding meaning. Any statute defined or referred to in this Agreement or in any agreement or instrument that is referred to in this Agreement means such statute as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including by succession of comparable successor statutes. The parties have participated jointly in the drafting and negotiation of this Agreement. If an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if it is drafted jointly by all the parties, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement. Whenever the words “include,” “includes,” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation.” The words “hereof,” “herein,” “herewith” and “hereby” and words of similar import shall, unless otherwise stated, be construed to refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The word “or” shall be construed non-exclusively. The phrase “ordinary course of business” shall be construed to be followed by the phrase “consistent with past practice” regardless of whether such phrase is expressed. The phrases “the date of this Agreement,” “the date hereof” and words of similar import, shall be deemed to refer to the date set forth on the cover page of this Agreement. Whenever the last day for the exercise of any right or the discharge of any duty under this Agreement falls on a day other than a Business Day, the party having such right or duty shall have until the next Business Day to exercise such right or discharge such duty. Unless otherwise indicated, the word “day” shall be interpreted as a calendar day. No summary of this Agreement prepared by or on behalf of any party shall affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. References to “dollars” or “$” are to United States dollars. Each section or subsection of a Disclosure Letter qualifies the correspondingly numbered representation, warranty or covenant of the Agreement; provided that information disclosed in one section or subsection of a Disclosure Letter shall be deemed to be included in each other section or subsection of such Disclosure Letter in which the relevance of such information would be readily apparent on the face thereof. Representations and warranties in Article III that are made in reference to a party’s Disclosure Letter or “in the case of” or “with respect to” a certain party and its Subsidiaries or Affiliates are being made only by that party. Unless the context shall require otherwise, any Contracts, documents, instruments or Laws defined or referred to in this Agreement shall be deemed to mean or refer to such Contracts, documents, instruments or Laws as from time to time may be amended, modified or supplemented, including (i) in the case of Contracts, documents or instruments, by waiver or consent and (ii) in the case of Laws, by succession of comparable successor statutes; provided that, with respect to Contracts, such rule of construction shall only be effective with respect to amendments, modification or supplements effected prior to the date hereof. All references in this Agreement to any particular Law shall be deemed to refer also to any rules and regulations promulgated under that Law.

8.4 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall constitute one and the same Agreement. The parties may execute more than one copy of this Agreement, each of which shall constitute an original. Signatures to this Agreement transmitted by facsimile transmission, by electronic mail in “portable document format” (“pdf”) form, or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, will have the same effect as physical delivery of the paper document bearing the original signature.

8.5 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the Exhibits and Annexes hereto), the Axis Disclosure Letter, the PRE Disclosure Letter, the Amalgamation Agreement and the Confidentiality Agreement constitute the entire agreement among the parties and supersede all prior agreements and understandings or representations by or among the parties whether written and oral with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof. The Confidentiality Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until the Closing and shall survive any termination of this Agreement. No representation, warranty, inducement, promise, understanding or condition not set forth in this Agreement has been made or relied upon by any of the parties to this Agreement. Each party hereby disclaims any other representation, warranty or inducement, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of any other information made by, or made available by, itself or any of its Representatives, with respect to, or in connection with, the negotiation, execution or delivery of this Agreement, the Amalgamation Agreement or the Transactions.

8.6 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as would be enforceable.

8.7 Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except for the Indemnified Parties intended to benefit from the provisions of Section 5.3, nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended or shall be construed to create any third-party beneficiaries or confer upon any Person other than the parties any rights, benefits or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

8.8 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed with regard to, in all respects, including as to validity, interpretation and effect, the Laws of the State of New York with respect to contracts performed within that state, provided that any provisions of this Agreement which relate to the exercise of a director or officer's fiduciary duties, statutory duties, obligations and/or statutory provisions, or which arise under, the laws of Bermuda (including but not limited to amalgamations under the Companies Act) shall be governed by and in accordance with the laws of Bermuda.

8.9 Consent to Jurisdiction; Venue.

(a) Each party irrevocably and unconditionally consents, agrees and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Bermuda (and appropriate appellate courts therefrom) (the "Chosen Courts"), for the purposes of any litigation, action, suit or other proceeding with respect to the subject matter hereof. Each party agrees to commence any litigation, action, suit or proceeding relating hereto only in the Supreme Court of Bermuda, or if such litigation, action, suit or other proceeding may not be brought in such court for reasons of subject matter jurisdiction, in the other appellate courts therefrom or other courts of Bermuda. Each party irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any litigation, action, suit or proceeding with respect to the subject matter hereof in the Chosen Courts, and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action, suit or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each party further irrevocably and unconditionally consents to and grants any such court jurisdiction over the Person of such parties and, to the extent legally effective, over the subject matter of any such dispute and agrees that mailing of process or other documents in connection with any such action or proceeding in the manner provided in Section 8.2 hereof or in such other manner as may be permitted by applicable Law, shall be valid and sufficient service thereof. The parties agree that a final judgment in any such litigation, action, suit or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable Law.

8.10 Specific Performance. The parties recognize and agree that if for any reason any of the provisions of this Agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms or are otherwise breached or violated, immediate and irreparable harm or injury would be caused for which money damages would not be an adequate remedy under applicable Law. Accordingly, each party agrees that, in addition to all other remedies to which it may be entitled, each of the parties is entitled to a decree of specific performance and shall further be entitled to an injunction restraining any violation or threatened violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement without the necessity of posting a bond or other form of security. In the event that any Legal Action should be brought in equity to enforce any of the provisions of this Agreement, no party will allege, and each party hereby waives the defense, that there is an adequate remedy under applicable Law.

8.11 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations arising under this Agreement shall be directly or indirectly assigned, delegated sublicensed or transferred by any of the parties (whether by operation of law or otherwise), in whole or in part, to any other Person (including any bankruptcy trustee) without the prior written consent of the other parties. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and assigns.

8.12 Expenses. Subject to the provisions of Section 7.2, all costs and expenses (including those payable to Representatives) incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Transactions and shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses, except that those expenses incurred in connection with filing, printing and mailing the Registration Statement and the Joint Proxy Statement (including filing fees related thereto) and those expenses incurred in connection with obtaining the Transaction Approvals will be shared equally by Axis and PRE.

8.13 Defined Terms. For purposes of this Agreement, each of the following terms shall have the meaning set forth below.

“Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement” means any confidentiality agreement entered into by PRE or Axis from and after the date of this Agreement that contains customary

2. Power to Issue Shares

- 2.1 Subject to these Bye-laws and to any resolution of the Members to the contrary, and without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, the Board shall have the power to issue any unissued shares on such terms and conditions as it may determine.

3. Power of the Company to Purchase its Shares

- 3.1 The Company may purchase its own shares for cancellation or acquire them as Treasury Shares in accordance with the Act on such terms as the Board shall think fit.

[NEWCO]

- 3.2 The Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to purchase or acquire all or any part of its own shares in accordance with the Act.
- 3.3 Subject to the Act, if the Board in its absolute discretion determines, from time to time and at any time, that ownership of shares or any securities of the Company convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable therefor (collectively, "Securities") by any Member, may result in any adverse tax, regulatory or legal consequence to the Company, any of its subsidiaries or any Member or its Affiliates, then the Board may, in its absolute discretion, determine the extent to which it is necessary or advisable to require the sale by such Member of such Securities in order to avoid or cure such violation or adverse consequences (the securities subject to such determination the "Repurchase Securities"). If the Board has determined it is necessary or advisable to require the sale by such Member(s) of such Repurchase Securities, it may provide written notice to the affected Member(s) setting forth the amount and nature of the Repurchase Securities and the identity of the affected Member(s) holding such Repurchase Securities (a "Trigger Event Notice"). The Company will have the option, but not the obligation, to elect to purchase all or part of the Repurchase Securities. If the Company does not elect to exercise this right in full, then it may assign its purchase right in respect of such unpurchased Repurchase Securities to a third party or parties, including one or more of the other Members.
- 3.4 If any of the Company or the Company's assignee(s), as the case may be, exercises the right to purchase Repurchase Securities pursuant to Bye-law 3.3, such purchase will be for immediately available funds in an amount equal to, except as expressly provided otherwise herein, the lower of (x) the price (as determined in the sole and absolute discretion of the Board) at which such Repurchase Securities were acquired by such Member or (y) the Fair Market Value of the Repurchase Securities on the Business Day immediately prior to the date the Company sends the Repurchase Notice referred to below (the "Repurchase Price"); provided that, if exercising this option, the Board will use reasonable efforts to exercise this option equally among similarly situated Members (to the extent reasonably practicable under the circumstances). Each Member will be bound by the determination by the Company to purchase (or assign its right to purchase) the Repurchase Securities, and, if so required by the Company, shall sell (whether to the Company or its assignee(s), as the case may be) the number and types of Repurchase Securities that the Company requires it to sell as set forth in a valid Repurchase Notice.
- 3.5 In the event that any of the Company or its assignee(s) determines to purchase any Repurchase Securities pursuant to an assessment under Bye-law 3.3, the Company will provide the holder(s) of the Repurchase Securities to be purchased with written notice of such determination (each, a "Repurchase Notice"), in each case, at least 15 days prior to such purchase or such shorter period as the holder(s) of the Repurchase Securities to be purchased may authorize, specifying the Repurchase Securities to be purchased, the date on which the Repurchase Securities are to be purchased and the Repurchase Price. The Company may revoke the Repurchase Notice at any time before the closing of the purchase and sale of such Repurchase Securities. Except as expressly provided herein, none of the Company or its assignee(s) will be obligated to give general notice to the Members of any intention to purchase or the conclusion of any purchase of Repurchase Securities, except as otherwise required by law. The closing of any such purchase of Repurchase Securities will be no less than fifteen days after receipt of the Repurchase Notice by the Member, unless such Member agrees to a shorter period, and no more than 60 days after the receipt of the Repurchase Notice by the Member, and payment of the Repurchase Price by the Company or its assignee(s) shall be by wire transfer or certified cheque.

3.6 Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Member receiving a Repurchase Notice will have five Business Days to give notice to the Board of such Member's objection to the sale contemplated by the Repurchase Notice. The Board will then timely determine, in its absolute discretion, the extent, if at all, to which the number of such Member's Repurchase Securities to be sold pursuant to the Repurchase Notice should be reduced and all of the Members will be bound by such determination.

4. Rights Attaching to Shares

- (f) whether that series shall have a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase of shares of that series and, if so, the terms and amount of such sinking fund;
- (g) the right of the shares of that series to the benefit of conditions and restrictions upon the creation of indebtedness of the Company or any subsidiary, upon the issue of any additional shares (including additional shares of such series or any other series) and upon the payment of dividends or the making of other distributions on, and the purchase, redemption or other acquisition by the Company or any subsidiary of any issued shares of the Company;

- (i) any other relative participating, optional or other special rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions of that series.
- 4.4 Any Preference Shares of any series which have been redeemed (whether through the operation of a sinking fund or otherwise) or which, if convertible or exchangeable, have been converted into or exchanged for shares of any other class or classes shall have the status of authorised and unissued Preference Shares of the same series and may be reissued as a part of the series of which they were originally a part or may be reclassified and reissued as part of a new series of Preference Shares to be created by resolution or resolutions of the Board or as part of any other series of Preference Shares, all subject to the conditions and the restrictions on issuance set forth in the resolution or resolutions adopted by the Board providing for the issue of any series of Preference Shares.
- 4.5 At the discretion of the Board, whether or not in connection with the issuance and sale of any shares or other securities of the Company, the Company may issue securities, contracts, warrants or other instruments evidencing any shares, option rights, securities having conversion or option rights, or obligations on such terms, conditions and other provisions as are fixed by the Board including, without limiting the generality of this authority, conditions that preclude or limit any person or persons owning or offering to acquire a specified number or percentage of the issued Common Shares, other shares, option rights, securities having conversion or option rights, or obligations of the Company or transferee of the person or persons from exercising, converting, transferring or receiving the shares, option rights, securities having conversion or option rights, or obligations.
- 4.6 All the rights attaching to a Treasury Share shall be suspended and shall not be exercised by the Company while it holds such Treasury Share and, except where required by the Act, all Treasury Shares shall be excluded from the calculation of any percentage or fraction of the share capital, or shares, of the Company.

Calls on Shares

- 5.1 The Board may make such calls as it thinks fit upon the Members in respect of any moneys (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) unpaid on the shares allotted to or held by such Members (and not made payable at fixed times by the terms and conditions of issue) and, if a call is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the Member may at the discretion of the Board be liable to pay the Company interest on the amount of such call at such rate as the Board may determine, from the date when such call was payable up to the actual date of payment. The Board may differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment of such calls.

[NEWCO]

- 5.2 Any amount which, by the terms of allotment of a share, becomes payable upon issue or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these Bye-laws be deemed to be an amount on which a call has been duly made and payable on the date on which, by the terms of issue, the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment all the relevant provisions of these Bye-laws as to payment of interest, costs and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such amount had become payable by virtue of a duly made and notified call.
- 5.3 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls and any interest, costs and expenses in respect thereof.
- 5.4 The Company may accept from any Member the whole or a part of the amount remaining unpaid on any shares held by such Member, although no part of that amount has been called up or become payable.

6. Forfeiture of Shares

- 6.1 If any Member fails to pay, on the day appointed for payment thereof, any call in respect of any share allotted to or held by such Member, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as the call remains unpaid, direct the Secretary to forward such Member a notice in writing in the form, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, of the following:

Notice of Liability to Forfeiture for Non-Payment of Call
[Name of Company] (the "Company")

You have failed to pay the call of [amount of call] made on the [date], in respect of the [number] share(s) [number in figures] standing in your name in the Register of Members of the Company, on the [date], the day appointed for payment of such call. You are hereby notified that unless you pay such call together with interest thereon at the rate of [] per annum computed from the said [date] at the registered office of the Company the share(s) will be liable to be forfeited.

DATED this [date]

[Signature of Secretary] By Order of the Board

- 6.2 If the requirements of such notice are not complied with, any such share may at any time thereafter before the payment of such call and the interest due in respect thereof be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect, and such share shall thereupon become the property of the Company and may be disposed of as the Board shall determine. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the disposal may take place by sale, repurchase, redemption or any other method of disposal permitted by and consistent with these Bye-laws and the Act.
- 6.3 A Member whose share or shares have been so forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited share or shares but shall, notwithstanding such forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all calls owing on such share or shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with all interest due thereon and any costs and expenses incurred by the Company in connection therewith.
- 6.4 The Board may accept the surrender of any shares which it is in a position to forfeit on such terms and conditions as may be agreed. Subject to those terms and conditions, a surrendered share shall be treated as if it had been forfeited.

Share Certificates

- 7.1 Subject to Bye-law 7.4, every Member shall be entitled to a certificate under the common seal of the Company (or a facsimile thereof) or bearing the signature (or a facsimile thereof) of a Director or the Secretary or a person expressly authorised to sign specifying the number and, where appropriate, the class of shares held by such Member and whether the same are fully paid up and, if not, specifying the amount paid on such shares. The Board may by resolution determine, either generally or in a particular case, that any or all signatures on certificates may be printed thereon or affixed by mechanical means.
- 7.2 The Company shall be under no obligation to complete and deliver a share certificate unless specifically called upon to do so by the person to whom the shares have been allotted.
- 7.3 If any share certificate shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Board to have been worn out, lost, mislaid, or destroyed the Board may cause a new certificate to be issued and request an indemnity for the lost certificate if it sees fit.

Notwithstanding any provisions of these Bye-laws:

- (a) the Board shall, subject always to the Act and any other applicable laws and regulations and the facilities and requirements of any relevant system concerned, have power to implement any arrangements it may, in its absolute discretion, think fit in relation to the evidencing of title to and transfer of uncertificated shares and to the extent such arrangements are so implemented, no provision of these Bye-laws shall apply or have effect to the extent that it is in any respect inconsistent with the holding or transfer of shares in uncertificated form; and

- (b) unless otherwise determined by the Board and as permitted by the Act and any other applicable laws and regulations, no person shall be entitled to receive a certificate in respect of any share for so long as the title to that share is evidenced otherwise than by a certificate and for so long as transfers of that share may be made otherwise than by a written instrument.

8. Fractional Shares

The Company may issue its shares in fractional denominations and deal with such fractions to the same extent as its whole shares and shares in fractional denominations shall have in proportion to the respective fractions represented thereby all of the rights of whole shares including (but without limiting the generality of the foregoing) the right to vote, to receive dividends and distributions and to participate in a winding-up.

REGISTRATION OF SHARES

9. Register of Members

- 9.1 The Board shall cause to be kept in one or more books a Register of Members and shall enter therein the particulars required by the Act.
- 9.2 The Register of Members shall be open to inspection without charge at the registered office of the Company on every business day, subject to such reasonable restrictions as the Board may impose, so that not less than two hours in each business day be allowed for inspection. The Register of Members may, after notice has been given in accordance with the Act, be closed for any time or times not exceeding in the whole thirty days in each year.

10. Registered Holder Absolute Owner

The Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not be bound to recognise any equitable claim or other claim to, or interest in, such share on the part of any other person.

[NEWCO]

11. Transfer of Registered Shares

11.1 An instrument of transfer shall be in writing in the form of the following, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, or in such other form as the Board may accept:

Transfer of a Share or Shares
[] (the "Company")

FOR VALUE RECEIVED..... [amount], I, [name of transferor] hereby sell, assign and transfer unto [transfe [address], [number] shares of the Company.

[date]

Signed by: In the presence of:

Transferor Witness

Transferee Witness

11.2 Such instrument of transfer shall be signed by (or in the case of a party that is a corporation, on behalf of) the transferor and transferee, provided that, in the case of a fully paid share, the Board may accept the instrument signed by or on behalf of the transferor alone. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the same has been registered as having been transferred to the transferee in the Register of Members.

11.3 The Board may refuse to recognise any instrument of transfer unless it is accompanied by the certificate in respect of the shares to which it relates and by such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require showing the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

11.4 The joint holders of any share may transfer such share to one or more of such joint holders, and the surviving holder or holders of any share previously held by them jointly with a deceased Member may transfer any such share to the executors or administrators of such deceased Member.

- 11.5 The Board may in its absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor refuse to register the transfer of a share which is not fully paid up. The Board shall refuse to register a transfer unless all applicable consents, authorisations and permissions of any governmental body or agency in Bermuda have been obtained. If the Board refuses to register a transfer of any share the Secretary shall, within three months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferor and transferee notice of the refusal.
- 11.6 The Board may decline to approve or register or permit the registration of any transfer of shares if the Board in its sole discretion determines that any adverse tax, regulatory or legal consequences to the Company, any subsidiary of the Company or any direct or indirect holder of shares or its Affiliates would result from such transfer.
- 11.7 Shares may be transferred without a written instrument if transferred by an appointed agent or otherwise in accordance with the Act.
- 11.8 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Bye-laws, shares that are listed or admitted to trading on an appointed stock exchange may be transferred in accordance with the rules and regulations of such exchange.

Transmission of Registered Shares

- 12.1 In the case of the death of a Member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased Member was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased Member where the deceased Member was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the deceased Member's interest in the shares. Nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by such deceased Member with other persons. Subject to the Act, for the purpose of this Bye-law, legal personal representative means the executor or administrator of a deceased Member or such other person as the Board may, in its absolute discretion, decide as being properly authorised to deal with the shares of a deceased Member.
- 12.2 Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any Member may be registered as a Member upon such evidence as the Board may deem sufficient or may elect to nominate some person to be registered as a transferee of such share, and in such case the person becoming entitled shall execute in favour of such nominee an instrument of transfer in writing in the form, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, of the following:

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

13. Power to Alter Capital

- 13.1 The Company may if authorised by resolution of the Members increase, divide, consolidate, subdivide, change the currency denomination of, diminish or otherwise alter or reduce its share capital in any manner permitted by the Act.
- 13.2 Where, on any alteration or reduction of share capital, fractions of shares or some other difficulty would arise, the Board may deal with or resolve the same in such manner as it thinks fit.

14. Variation of Rights Attaching to Shares

If, at any time, the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound-up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class at which meeting the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class or series issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class or series, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

DIVIDENDS AND CAPITALISATION

15. Dividends

- 15.1 The Board may, subject to these Bye-laws and in accordance with the Act, declare a dividend to be paid to the Members, in proportion to the number of shares held by them, and such dividend may be paid in cash or wholly or partly in specie in which case the Board may fix the value for distribution in specie of any assets. No unpaid dividend shall bear interest as against the Company.
- 15.2 The Board may fix any date as the record date for determining the Members entitled to receive any dividend.
- 15.3 The Company may pay dividends in proportion to the amount paid up on each share where a larger amount is paid up on some shares than on others.

15.4 The Board may declare and make such other distributions (in cash or in specie) to the Members as may be lawfully made out of the assets of the Company. No unpaid distribution shall bear interest as against the Company.

16. Power to Set Aside Profits

The Board may, before declaring a dividend, set aside out of the surplus or profits of the Company, such amount as it thinks proper as a reserve to be used to meet contingencies or for equalising dividends or for any other purpose.

17. Method of Payment

- 17.1 Any dividend, interest, or other moneys payable in cash in respect of the shares may be paid by cheque or draft sent through the post directed to the Member at such Member's address in the Register of Members, or to such person and to such address as the holder may in writing direct.
- 17.2 In the case of joint holders of shares, any dividend, interest or other moneys payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or draft sent through the post directed to the address of the holder first named in the Register of Members, or to such person and to such address as the joint holders may in writing direct. If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any shares any one can give an effectual receipt for any dividend paid in respect of such shares.
- 17.3 The Board may deduct from the dividends or distributions payable to any Member all moneys due from such Member to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.
- 17.4 Any dividend and/or other moneys payable in respect of a share which has remained unclaimed for six (6) years from the date when it became due for payment shall, if the Board so resolves, be forfeited and cease to remain owing by the Company. The payment of any unclaimed dividend or other moneys payable in respect of a share may (but need not) be paid by the Company into an account separate from the Company's own account. Such payment shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect thereof.
- 17.5 The Company shall be entitled to cease sending dividend cheques and drafts by post or otherwise to a Member if those instruments have been returned undelivered to, or left uncashed by, that Member on at least two consecutive occasions or, following one such occasion, reasonable enquiries have failed to establish the Member's new address. The entitlement conferred on the Company by this Bye-law in respect of any Member shall cease if the Member claims a dividend or cashes a dividend cheque or draft.

18. Capitalisation

- 18.1 The Board may capitalise any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's share premium or other reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution by applying such amount in paying up unissued shares to be allotted as fully paid bonus shares pro rata (except in connection with the conversion of shares of one class to shares of another class) to the Members.
- 18.2 The Board may capitalise any amount for the time being standing to the credit of a reserve account or amounts otherwise available for dividend or distribution by applying such amounts in paying up in full, partly or nil paid shares of those Members who would have been entitled to such amounts if they were distributed by way of dividend or distribution.

The Board and, at any general meeting, the chairman of such meeting are entitled to refuse entry to a person who refuses to comply with any such arrangements, requirements or restrictions.

26. Quorum at General Meetings

26.1 At any general meeting two or more persons present at the start of the meeting and representing in person or by proxy in excess of 50% of the total issued voting shares in the Company shall form a quorum for the transaction of business (including for the purposes of Section 106(4A) of the Act or any successor provision thereto).

26.2 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, then, in the case of a meeting convened on a requisition, the meeting shall be deemed cancelled and, in any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day one week later, at the same time and place or to such other day, time or place as the Secretary may determine. Unless the meeting is adjourned to a specific date, time and place announced at the meeting being adjourned, fresh notice of the resumption of the meeting shall be given to each Member entitled to attend and vote thereat in accordance with these Bye-laws.

27. Chairman to Preside at General Meetings

Unless otherwise agreed by a majority of votes of those attending and entitled to vote thereat, the Chairman, if there be one, shall act as chairman of the meeting at all general meetings at which such person is present. In his absence a chairman of the meeting shall be appointed or elected by those present at the meeting and entitled to vote.

28. Voting on Resolutions

28.1 Subject to the Act and these Bye-laws, any question proposed for the consideration of the Members at any general meeting (including for the purposes of Section 106(4A) of the Act or any successor provision thereto) shall be decided by the affirmative votes of a majority of the votes cast in accordance with these Bye-laws and in the case of an equality of votes the resolution shall fail.

[NEWCO]

- 28.2 No Member shall be entitled to vote at a general meeting unless such Member has paid all the calls on all shares held by such Member.
- 28.3 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall, in the first instance, be voted upon by a show of hands and, subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being lawfully attached to any class of shares and subject to these Bye-laws, every Member present in person and every person holding a valid proxy at such meeting shall be entitled to one vote and shall cast such vote by raising his hand.
- 28.4 In the event that a Member participates in a general meeting by telephone, electronic or other communication facilities or means, the chairman of the meeting shall direct the manner in which such Member may cast his vote on a show of hands.
- 28.5 At any general meeting if an amendment is proposed to any resolution under consideration and the chairman of the meeting rules on whether or not the proposed amendment is out of order, the proceedings on the substantive resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in such ruling.
- 28.6 At any general meeting a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a question proposed for consideration has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in a book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall, subject to these Bye-laws, be conclusive evidence of that fact.

29. Power to Demand a Vote on a Poll

- 29.1 Notwithstanding the foregoing, a poll may be demanded by any of the following persons:
- (a) the chairman of such meeting; or
 - (b) at least three Members present in person or represented by proxy; or
 - (c) any Member or Members present in person or represented by proxy and holding between them not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at such meeting; or
 - (d) any Member or Members present in person or represented by proxy holding shares in the Company conferring the right to vote at such meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one-tenth of the total amount paid up on all such shares conferring such right.

- 29.2 Where a poll is demanded, subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being lawfully attached to any class of shares, every person present at such meeting shall (subject to any adjustments to or elimination of voting power of any shares pursuant to the Bye-laws 30 and 31) have one vote for each share of which such person is the holder or for which such person holds a proxy and such vote shall be counted by ballot as described herein, or in the case of a general meeting at which one or more Members are present by telephone, electronic or other communication facilities or means, in such manner as the chairman of the meeting may direct and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded and shall replace any previous resolution upon the same matter which has been the subject of a show of hands. A person entitled to more than one vote need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
- 29.3 A poll demanded for the purpose of electing a chairman of the meeting or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and in such manner during such meeting as the chairman (or acting chairman) of the meeting may direct. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be conducted pending the taking of the poll.
- 29.4 Where a vote is taken by poll, each person physically present and entitled to vote shall be furnished with a ballot paper on which such person shall record his vote in such manner as shall be determined at the meeting having regard to the nature of the question on which the vote is taken, and each ballot paper shall be signed or initialled or otherwise marked so as to identify the voter and the registered holder in the case of a proxy. Each person present by telephone, electronic or other communication facilities or means shall cast his vote in such manner as the chairman of the meeting shall direct. At the conclusion of the poll, the ballot papers and votes cast in accordance with such directions shall be examined and counted by a committee of not less than two Members or proxy holders appointed by the chairman of the meeting for the purpose and the result of the poll shall be declared by the chairman of the meeting.

Adjustment of Voting Power

- 30.1 Notwithstanding Bye-laws 28 and 29, the voting power of all shares is hereby adjusted (and shall be automatically adjusted in the future) to the extent necessary so that there is no 9.5% U.S. Member or, in the discretion of the Board, no 9.5% Non-U.S Member. The Board shall implement the foregoing in the manner provided herein, provided, that the foregoing provision and the remainder of this Bye-law 30 shall not apply in the event that one Member owns greater than seventy-five percent of the voting power of the issued shares of the Company determined without applying the voting power adjustments or eliminations under this Bye-law 30 and Bye-law 31.

[NEWCO]

30.2 The Board shall from time to time, including, without limitation, prior to any time at which a vote of Members is taken, take all reasonable steps necessary to ascertain, including, without limitation, those specified in Bye-law 34, through communications with Members or otherwise, whether there exists, or will exist at the time any vote of Members is taken, a Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member or, in the discretion of the Board, a Tentative 9.5% Non-U.S. Member.

30.3 In the event that a Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member exists, the aggregate votes conferred by shares held by a Member and treated as Controlled Shares of that Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member shall be reduced to the extent necessary such that the Controlled Shares of the Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member will constitute less than nine point five per cent of the voting power of all shares. In applying the previous sentence where shares held by more than one Member are treated as Controlled Shares of such Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member, the reduction in votes shall apply to such Members in descending order according to their respective Attribution Percentages, provided, that, in the event of a tie of Attribution Percentages, the reduction shall apply pro rata to such Members based on the voting power of the shares held by each such Member. The votes of Members owning no shares treated as Controlled Shares of any Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member shall, in the aggregate, be increased by the same number of votes subject to reduction as described above, provided, that no shares shall be conferred votes to the extent that doing so will cause any person to be treated as a 9.5% U.S. Member or, unless the Board determines otherwise, no 9.5% Non-U.S. Member. The votes described in the preceding sentence shall be apportioned to all such Members in proportion to their voting power at that time. The adjustments of voting power described in this Bye-law shall apply repeatedly until there is no 9.5% U.S. Member or, unless the Board determines otherwise, a 9.5% Non-U.S. Member. The Board may deviate from any of the principles described in this Bye-law and determine that shares held by a Member shall carry different voting rights as it reasonably determines, based on the advice of counsel, to be appropriate (a) to avoid the existence of any 9.5% U.S. Member or, unless the Board determines otherwise, a 9.5% Non-U.S. Member, or (b) to avoid adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences to the Company, any subsidiary of the Company or any direct or indirect holder of shares; provided, that the Board will use reasonable efforts to afford equal treatment to similarly situated Members to the extent possible under the circumstances. For the avoidance of doubt, in applying the provisions of this Bye-law 30 and Bye-law 31, a share may carry a fraction of a vote.

30.4 In the event that a Tentative 9.5% Non-U.S. Member exists, the Board in its discretion, may apply procedures similar to Bye-law 30.3 to reduce the voting power of shares held by a Member and treated as shares owned directly or indirectly through a Controlled Entity with respect to such Tentative 9.5% Non-U.S. Member.

[NEWCO]

31. Other Adjustments of Voting Power

In addition to the provisions of Bye-law 30, any shares shall not carry any right to vote to the extent that the Board determines in its sole discretion that it is necessary that such shares should not carry the right to vote in order to avoid adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences to the Company, any subsidiary of the Company, or any other direct or indirect holder of shares, provided, that no adjustment pursuant to this Bye-law shall cause any person to become a 9.5% U.S. Member or, unless the Board determines otherwise, a 9.5% Non-U.S. Member; and provided, further, that the Board will use reasonable efforts to afford equal treatment to similarly situated Members to the extent possible under the circumstances.

32. Notice of Adjustment to Voting Power

In the event that Bye-law 30 applies to reduce the voting power of the Controlled Shares of any Tentative 9.5% U.S. Member or the Board otherwise adjusts the voting power of any shares pursuant to Bye-law 30 or 31, the Board shall promptly notify each Member in writing of the voting power conferred by its shares as determined in accordance with Bye-laws 30 and 31 after the analysis with respect to any adjustment is completed. Prior to the meeting at which Members shall vote on any matter the Board may, in its sole discretion, (a) retain the services of an internationally recognised accounting firm or organization with comparable professional capabilities in order to assist the Company in applying the principles of Bye-laws 30 and 31 and (b) obtain from such firm or organization a statement describing the information obtained and procedures followed and setting forth the determinations made with respect to Bye-laws 30 and 31. For the avoidance of doubt, any failure of the Board to take any of the actions described in this Bye-law 32 shall not invalidate any votes cast or the proceedings at the meeting.

33. Board Determination Binding

Any determination by the Board as to any adjustments or eliminations of voting power of any shares made pursuant to Bye-laws 30 and 31 shall be final and binding and any vote taken based on such determination shall not be capable of being challenged solely on the basis of such determination.

34. Requirement to Provide Information and Notice

34.1 The Board shall have the authority to request from any direct or indirect holder of shares, and such holder of shares shall provide, such information as the Board may reasonably request for the purpose of implementing Bye-laws 30 and 31. If such holder fails to respond to such a request, or submits incomplete or inaccurate information in response to such a request, the Board may determine in its sole discretion that such holder's shares shall carry no voting rights or reduced voting rights until otherwise determined by the Board.

- 34.2 Any direct or indirect holder of shares shall give notice to the Company within ten days following the date that such holder acquires actual knowledge that it is the direct or indirect holder of Controlled Shares of nine point five per cent or more of the voting power of all issued shares of the Company (without giving effect to voting power adjustments or eliminations under Bye-laws 30 and 31).
- 34.3 Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Member shall be liable to any other Member or the Company for any losses or damages resulting from such Member's failure to respond to, or submission of incomplete or inaccurate information in response to, a request under Bye-law 34.1 or from such Member's failure to give notice under Bye-law 34.2.
- 34.4 Any information provided by any Member to the Company pursuant to this Bye-law 34 or for purposes of making the analysis required by Bye-laws 30 and 31, shall be deemed "confidential information" and shall be used by the Company solely for the purposes contemplated by such Bye-law (except as may be required otherwise by applicable law or regulation). The Company shall hold such confidential information in strict confidence and shall not disclose any confidential information that it receives without the consent of the Member, except (a) to the U.S. Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") if and to the extent the confidential information is required by the IRS, (b) to any outside legal counsel or accounting firm engaged by the Company to make determinations regarding the relevant Bye-law or (c) as otherwise required by applicable law or regulation or upon consent.
- 34.5 For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall be permitted to disclose to the Members and others the relative voting percentages of all Members after application of Bye-laws 30 or 31. At the written request of a Member, the confidential information of such Member shall be destroyed or returned to such Member after the later to occur of (a) such Member no longer being a Member or (b) the last day of the seventh year after the year during which the confidential information was obtained by the Company, provided, that the Board may determine that such confidential information should instead be retained for a longer period in order to avoid adverse tax, legal or regulatory consequences to the Company, any of its subsidiaries or any direct or indirect holder of shares.
- 34.6 Without limiting any protection otherwise provided in these Bye-Laws, neither the Company nor the Board will be liable to the Company, its Members or any other person whatsoever with respect to any determinations made by it in implementing Bye-Law 30 or 31 so long as it has acted in good faith.

35. Voting by Joint Holders of Shares

In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote (whether in person or by proxy) shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register of Members.

36. Instrument of Proxy

36.1 A Member may appoint a proxy by

- (a) an instrument appointing a proxy in writing in substantially the following form or such other form as the Board may determine from time to time:

Proxy
[Name of Company] (the "Company")

I/We, [insert names here] , being a Member of the Company with [number] shares, HEREBY APPOINT [name] of [address] or failing him, [name] of [address] to be my/our proxy to vote for me/us at the meeting of the Members to be held on [date] and at any adjournment thereof. [Any restrictions on voting to be inserted here.]

Signed this [date]

or

- (b) such telephonic, electronic or other means as may be approved by the Board from time to time.

36.2 The appointment of a proxy must be received by the Company at the registered office or at such other place or in such manner as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote, and appointment of a proxy which is not received in the manner so permitted shall be invalid.

- 36.3 A Member who is the holder of two or more shares may appoint more than one proxy to represent him and vote on his behalf in respect of different shares.
- 36.4 The decision of the chairman of any general meeting as to the validity of any appointment of a proxy shall be final.
- 36.5 Any Member may irrevocably appoint a proxy and in such case: (i) such appointment shall be irrevocable in accordance with the terms of the instrument of appointment; (ii) the Company shall be given notice of the appointment, such notice to include the name, address, telephone number and electronic mail address of the proxy, and the Company shall give to such proxy notice of all general meetings of the Company; (iii) such proxy shall be the only person entitled to vote the relevant shares at any meeting at which such proxy is present; and (iv) the Company shall be obliged to recognise the proxy until such time as such proxy shall notify the Company in writing that the appointment of such proxy is no longer in force.

37. Representation of Corporate Member

- 37.1 A corporation which is a Member may, by written instrument, authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting and any person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which such person represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual Member, and that Member shall be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting attended by its authorised representative or representatives.
- 37.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the chairman of the meeting may accept such assurances as he thinks fit as to the right of any person to attend and vote at general meetings on behalf of a corporation which is a Member.

38. Adjournment of General Meeting

- 38.1 The chairman of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the Members holding a majority of the voting rights of those Members present in person or by proxy (and shall if so directed by Members holding a majority of the voting rights of those Members present in person or by proxy) adjourn the meeting.
- 38.2 The chairman of a general meeting may adjourn a meeting to another time and place without the consent or direction of the Members if it appears to him that:
- (a) it is likely to be impractical to hold or continue that meeting because of the number of Members wishing to attend who are not present; or

(b) the unruly conduct of persons attending the meeting prevents, or is likely to prevent, the orderly continuation of the business of the meeting; or

(c) an adjournment is otherwise necessary so that the business of the meeting may be properly conducted.

38.3 Unless the meeting is adjourned to a specific date, place and time announced at the meeting being adjourned, fresh notice of the date, place and time for the resumption of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each Member entitled to attend and vote thereat in accordance with these Bye-laws.

Written Resolutions

39.1 Subject to these Bye-laws, anything which may be done by resolution of the Company in general meeting or by resolution of a meeting of any class of the Members may, without a meeting and without any previous notice being required, be done by resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of all the Members who at the date of the resolution would be entitled to attend the meeting and vote on the resolution.

A resolution in writing may be signed in any number of counterparts.

39.3 A resolution in writing made in accordance with this Bye-law is as valid as if it had been passed by the Company in general meeting or by a meeting of the relevant class of Members, as the case may be, and any reference in any Bye-law to a meeting at which a resolution is passed or to Members voting in favour of a resolution shall be construed accordingly.

39.4 A resolution in writing made in accordance with this Bye-law shall constitute minutes for the purposes of the Act.

This Bye-law shall not apply to:

(a) a resolution passed to remove an Auditor from office before the expiration of his term of office; or

(b) a resolution passed for the purpose of removing a Director before the expiration of his term of office.

39.6 For the purposes of this Bye-law, the effective date of the resolution is the date when the resolution is signed by (or in the case of a Member that is a corporation, on behalf of) the last Member to sign and any reference in any Bye-law to the date of passing of a resolution is, in relation to a resolution made in accordance with this Bye-law, a reference to such date.

[NEWCO]

40. Directors Attendance at General Meetings

The Directors shall be entitled to receive notice of, attend and be heard at any general meeting.

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

41. Election of Directors

41.1 Only persons who are proposed or nominated in accordance with this Bye-law and Bye-law 21 shall be eligible for election as Directors. Any Member or the Board may propose any person for election as a Director. Where any person, other than a person proposed for re-election or election as a Director by the Board, is to be proposed for election as a Director, such proposal or nomination must be given to the Company in accordance with Bye-law 21. At the request of the Board, any person nominated by the Board for election as a Director shall furnish to the Secretary the information that is required to be set forth in a Member's notice of nomination pursuant to Bye-law 21 that pertains to the nominee.

41.2 In an uncontested election of Directors, any person validly proposed for re-election or election as a Director shall be elected by the affirmative votes of a majority of the votes cast; provided, however, in a contested election, the persons receiving the most votes (up to the number of Directors to be elected) shall be elected as Directors, and an absolute majority of the votes cast shall not be a prerequisite to the election of such Directors. For the purposes of this Bye-law 41.2 (i) an uncontested election is an election in which the number of nominees for Director is not greater than the number of Directors to be elected and (ii) a contested election is an election in which the number of nominees for Director is greater than the number of Directors to be elected.

42. Number of Directors

Subject to the rights of the holders of any class or series of Preferred Shares then issued and outstanding, as may be set forth in the certificate of designation for such class or series of Preferred Shares, the Board shall consist of such number of Directors being not less than five Directors and not more than eighteen Directors as the Board may from time to time determine, but in no case shall a decrease in the number of Directors shorten the term of any incumbent Director.

[NEWCO]

43. Classes of Directors

The Directors shall be divided into three classes designated Class I, Class II and Class III. Each class of Directors shall consist, as nearly as possible, of one third of the total number of Directors constituting the entire Board.

Each Director shall serve for a term ending on the date of the third annual general meeting next following the annual general meeting at which such Director was elected, PROVIDED, that Directors initially designated as Class III Directors shall serve for an initial term ending on the date of the first annual general meeting next following the effectiveness of their designation as Class III Directors, Directors initially designated as Class II Directors shall serve for an initial term ending on the date of the second annual general meeting next following the effectiveness of their designation as Class II Directors and Directors initially designated as Class I Directors shall serve for an initial term ending on the date of the third annual general meeting next following the effectiveness of their designation as Class I Directors. If the number of Directors is changed, any increase or decrease shall be apportioned among the classes so as to maintain the number of Directors in each class as nearly equal as possible, and any Director of any class elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for a term that shall coincide with the remaining term of the other Directors of that class, but in no case shall a decrease in the number of Directors shorten the term of any Director then in office. A Director shall hold office until the annual general meeting for the year in which his term expires, subject to his office being vacated pursuant to Bye-law 46.

45. Removal of Directors

- 45.1 Subject to any provision to the contrary in these Bye-laws, the Members entitled to vote for the election of Directors may, at any special general meeting convened and held in accordance with these Bye-laws, remove a Director only with cause, provided that the notice of any such meeting convened for the purpose of removing a Director shall contain a statement of the intention so to do and be served on such Director not less than 14 days before the meeting and at such meeting the Director shall be entitled to be heard on the motion for such Director's removal.
- 45.2 If a Director is removed from the Board under this Bye-law the Members may fill the vacancy at the meeting at which such Director is removed. In the absence of such election or appointment, the Board may fill the vacancy.
- 45.3 For the purposes of this Bye-law, "cause" shall mean wilful misconduct, fraud, gross negligence, embezzlement or a conviction for a criminal offence involving either dishonesty or engaging in conduct which brings the Director or the Company into disrepute or which results in material financial detriment to the Company.

47. Remuneration of Directors

48. Defect in Appointment

49. Directors to Manage Business

ANNEX B: OPINION OF CREDIT SUISSE SECURITIES (USA) LLC

January 25, 2015

PartnerRe Ltd.
Wellesley House, 90 Pitts Bay Road
Pembroke, Bermuda HM 08
Attention: Board of Directors

Members of the Board:

You have asked us to advise you with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of common shares of PartnerRe Ltd. (the “Company”), par value $1.00 per share (“Company Common Shares”), of the Company Exchange Ratio (as defined below) set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Amalgamation, substantially in the form of the draft dated January 25, 2015 (the “Amalgamation Agreement”), to be entered into by and between AXIS Capital Holdings Limited (“AXIS”) and the Company. As more fully described in the Amalgamation Agreement, (i) AXIS will be amalgamated (the “Amalgamation”) with and into the Company and continue as an amalgamated single entity (the “Amalgamated Company”) surviving such amalgamation in accordance with the Companies Act 1981 Bermuda, as amended, and (ii) each outstanding (A) common share (other than common shares owned by the Company, AXIS or by any respective subsidiary of the Company or AXIS) (A) of AXIS, par value $0.0125 per share, will automatically be cancelled and converted into the right to receive 1.00 validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable common share of the Amalgamated Company, par value $0.0125 per share (each, an “Amalgamated Company Common Share”), and (B) Company Common Share (other than Company Common Shares owned by the Company, AXIS or by any respective subsidiary of the Company or AXIS) will automatically be cancelled and converted into the right to receive 2.18 (the “Company Exchange Ratio”) Amalgamated Company Common Shares, together with in the case of clauses (A) and (B) any cash paid in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with the terms of the Amalgamation Agreement.

In arriving at our opinion, we have reviewed the Amalgamation Agreement, certain related agreements and certain business and financial information relating to the Company and AXIS. We have also reviewed certain other information relating to the Company and AXIS, including certain financial forecasts relating to the Company and AXIS through 2017, prepared by and provided to or discussed with us by the Company and AXIS and have met with the management of the Company and AXIS to discuss the business and prospects of the Company and AXIS. We have also considered certain financial and stock market data of the Company and AXIS, and we have compared that data with similar data for other publicly held companies in businesses we deemed similar to those of the Company and AXIS and we have considered, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other business combinations and other transactions that have been effected or announced. We also considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria which we deemed relevant.

In connection with our review, we have not independently verified any of the foregoing information, and we have assumed and relied upon such information being complete and accurate in all respects.

With respect to the financial forecasts for the Company and AXIS that we have used and relied upon for purposes of our analyses and opinion, management of the Company has advised us, and we have assumed, that such financial forecasts have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company and AXIS as to the future financial performance of the Company and AXIS. We have assumed, with your consent, that the Amalgamation will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. We also have assumed, with your consent, that, in the course of obtaining any regulatory or third limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Company, AXIS or any respective subsidiary or the contemplated benefits of the Amalgamation and that the Amalgamation will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Amalgamation Agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof. In addition, we have not been requested to make, and have not made, an independent evaluation or appraisal (including any actuarial appraisal) of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or AXIS, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We are not legal, tax, regulatory or actuarial advisors. We are financial advisors only and have relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of the Company and its legal, tax, regulatory and actuarial advisors with respect to legal, tax, regulatory and actuarial matters.

Our opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Company Common Shares of the Company Exchange Ratio and does not address any other aspect or implication of the Amalgamation or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the Amalgamation or otherwise, including, without limitation, the fairness of the amount or nature of, or any other aspect relating to, any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Amalgamation, or class of such persons, relative to the Company Exchange Ratio or otherwise. The issuance of this opinion was approved by our authorized internal committee. We have not undertaken, and are not under obligation, to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion, or otherwise.

Our opinion is necessarily based upon information made available to us as of the date hereof and financial, economic, market and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof. We are not expressing any opinion as to what the value of Amalgamated Company Common Shares actually will be when issued to the holders of Company Common Shares pursuant to the Amalgamation or the prices at which Amalgamated Company Common Shares will trade at any time. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Amalgamation as compared to alternative transactions or strategies that might be available to the Company, nor does it address the underlying business decision of the Company to proceed with the Amalgamation.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Amalgamation and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Amalgamation. We also became entitled to receive a fee upon the rendering of our opinion. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us and certain related parties for certain liabilities and other items arising out of or related to our engagement. We and our affiliates have in the past provided investment banking and other financial services to the Company and its affiliates for which we and our affiliates have received and would expect to receive compensation. We and our affiliates also have in the past provided investment banking and other financial services to AXIS and its affiliates, including having acted as co-manager in March 2014 in connection with AXIS's subsidiary's, AXIS Specialty Finance PLC, $250 million offering of 2.65% senior notes due April 1, 2019 and $250 million offering of 5.15% senior notes due April 1, 2045. In addition, an affiliate of Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC has provided a $50 million standby letter of credit, due December 31, 2016, to AXIS. We and our affiliates may have provided other financial advice and services, and may in the future provide financial advice and services, to the Company, AXIS and their respective affiliates for which we and our affiliates have received, and would expect to receive, compensation. We are a full service securities firm engaged in securities trading and brokerage activities as well as providing investment banking and other financial services. In the ordinary course of business, we and our affiliates may acquire, hold or sell, for our and our affiliates own accounts and the accounts of customers, equity, debt and other securities and financial instruments (including bank loans and other obligations) of the Company, AXIS and any other company that may be involved in the Amalgamation, as well as provide investment banking and other financial services to such companies.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Amalgamation and does not constitute advice or a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act on any matter relating to the proposed Amalgamation.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Company Exchange Ratio is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Company Common Shares.

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

January 25, 2015

Board of Directors
AXIS Capital Holdings Limited
92 Pitts Bay Road, Pembroke, Bermuda HM 08

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders (other than PartnerRe Ltd. (“PartnerRe”) and its affiliates) of the outstanding common shares, par value $0.0125 per share (the “Shares”), of AXIS Capital Holdings Limited (the “Company”) of the Company Exchange Ratio (as defined below) pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Amalgamation, dated as of January 25, 2015 (the “Agreement”), by and between PartnerRe and the Company. The Agreement provides that (a) each Share (other than shares owned by PartnerRe, the Company or by any of their respective subsidiaries which are not wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company) will be automatically cancelled and converted into the right to receive one common share, par value $0.0125 per share (the “Amalgamated Company Shares”), of the Bermuda exempted company continuing from the amalgamation of the Company and PartnerRe (the “Amalgamated Company”) (the “Company Exchange Ratio”) and (b) each common share, par value $1.00 per share (the “PartnerRe Shares”), of PartnerRe (other than shares owned by PartnerRe, the Company or by any of their respective subsidiaries which are not wholly owned subsidiaries of PartnerRe) will be automatically cancelled and converted into the right to receive 2.18 Amalgamated Company Shares.

Goldman, Sachs & Co. (“Goldman Sachs”) and its affiliates are engaged in advisory, underwriting and financing, principal investing, sales and trading, research, investment management and other financial and non-financial activities and services for various persons and entities. Goldman Sachs and its affiliates and employees, and funds or other entities they manage or in which they invest or have other economic interests or with which they co-invest, may at any time purchase, sell, hold or vote long or short positions and investments in securities, derivatives, loans, commodities, currencies, credit default swaps and other financial instruments of the Company, PartnerRe, any of their respective affiliates and third parties, or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the transaction contemplated by the Agreement (the “Transaction”). We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with, and have participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the Transaction. We expect to receive fees for our services in connection with the Transaction, all of which are contingent upon consummation of the Transaction, and the Company has agreed to reimburse certain of our expenses arising, and indemnify us against certain liabilities that may arise, out of our engagement. We may in the future provide financial advisory and/or underwriting services to the Company, PartnerRe and the Amalgamated Company and their respective affiliates for which our Investment Banking Division may receive compensation.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things, the Agreement; annual reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of the Company and PartnerRe for the five years ended December 31, 2013; certain interim reports to shareholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of the Company and PartnerRe; certain other communications from the Company and PartnerRe to their respective shareholders; certain draft communications from the Company and PartnerRe to be sent to their respective shareholders; certain publicly available research analyst reports for the Company and PartnerRe; certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for PartnerRe prepared by its management; certain internal financial analyses and forecasts for the Company prepared by its management and certain financial analyses and forecasts for PartnerRe prepared by the management of the Company, in each case, as approved for our use by the Company (the "Forecasts"); and certain operating synergies and dis-synergies projected by the managements of the Company and PartnerRe to result from the Transaction, as approved for our use by the Company (the "Net Synergies"). We have also held discussions with members of the senior managements of the Company and PartnerRe regarding their assessment of the strategic rationale for, and the potential benefits of, the Transaction and the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of PartnerRe and with members of the senior management of the Company regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of the Company; reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the Shares and the PartnerRe Shares; compared certain financial and stock market information for the Company and PartnerRe with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the insurance industry and reinsurance industry and in other industries; and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as we deemed appropriate.

For purposes of rendering this opinion, we have, with your consent, relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information provided to, discussed with or reviewed by, us, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification thereof. In that regard, we have assumed with your consent that the Forecasts and the Net Synergies have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company. We have not made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or other off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of the Company, PartnerRe, the Amalgamated Company or any of their respective subsidiaries and we have not been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. We are not actuaries and our services did not include any actuarial determination or evaluation by us or any attempt to evaluate actuarial assumptions and we have relied on your actuaries with respect to reserve adequacy. In that regard, we have made no analysis of, and express no opinion as to, the adequacy of the reserve for losses and loss expenses of the Company and the unpaid losses and loss expenses and the policy benefits for life and annuity contracts of PartnerRe. We have assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained without any adverse effect on the Company, PartnerRe or the Amalgamated Company or on the expected benefits of the Transaction in any way meaningful to our analysis. We have assumed that the Transaction will be consummated on the terms set forth in the Agreement, without the waiver or modification of any term or condition the effect of which would be in any way meaningful to our analysis.

Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Transaction, or the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to the Company; nor does it address any legal, regulatory, tax or accounting matters. This opinion addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders (other than PartnerRe and its affiliates) of Shares, as of the date hereof, of the Company Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Agreement. We do not express any view on, and our opinion does not address, any other term or aspect of the Agreement or Transaction or any term or aspect of any other agreement or instrument contemplated by the Agreement or entered into or amended in connection with the Transaction, including, the fairness of the Transaction to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors, or other constituencies of the Company; nor as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of the Company, or class of such persons, in connection with the Transaction, whether relative to the Company Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Agreement or otherwise. We are not expressing any opinion as to the impact of the Transaction on the solvency or viability of the Company, PartnerRe or the Amalgamated Company or the ability of the Company, PartnerRe or the Amalgamated Company to pay their respective obligations when they come due. Our opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof and we assume no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming this opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after the date hereof. Our advisory services and the opinion expressed herein are provided for the information and assistance of the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with its consideration of the Transaction and such opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of Shares should vote with respect to such Transaction or any other matter. This opinion has been approved by a fairness committee of Goldman Sachs.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Company Exchange Ratio pursuant to the Agreement is fair from a financial point of view to the holders (other than PartnerRe and its affiliates) of Shares.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS; UNDERTAKINGS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 98 of the Companies Act provides generally that a Bermuda company may indemnify its directors, officers and auditors against any liability which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise be imposed on them in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, except in cases where such liability arises from fraud or dishonesty of which such director, officer or auditor may be guilty in relation to such company. Section 98 further provides that a Bermuda company may indemnify its directors, officers and auditors against any liability incurred by them in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is awarded in their favor or in which they are acquitted or granted relief by the Bermuda Court pursuant to Section 281 of the Companies Act. Section 98 further provides that any provision, whether contained in the bye-laws of a company or in any contract or arrangement between such company and any director exempting or indemnifying him against any liability which would otherwise attach to him in respect of any fraud or dishonesty of which he may be guilty in relation to such company, shall be void.

Section 98A of the Companies Act permits a Bermuda company to purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any officer or director in respect of any loss or liability attaching to him in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust, whether or not such Bermuda company may otherwise indemnify such officer or director.

Newco will adopt provisions in its bye-laws that provide that it shall indemnify its officers and directors to the maximum extent permitted under the Companies Act, except where such liability arises from fraud or dishonesty.

Newco may enter into employment agreements with all of its executive officers which each contain provisions pursuant to which it has agreed to indemnify each executive to the fullest extent contemplated by Bermuda laws, subject to certain exceptions, and to maintain customary insurance policies providing for indemnification.

Newco will purchase insurance on behalf of its directors and officers for liabilities arising out of their capacities as such.

- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness; provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.
- (5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:
 - (i) any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
 - (ii) any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;
 - (iii) the portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
 - (iv) any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.
- b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

- d) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (c) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- e) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
- f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first-class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.
- g) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
